A new attraction ... The A.C.T. Board (Advancing the Community of Tahoka) this week added a new attraction to the downtown park on Main Street, featuring four 5'x10' framed photos on a south-facing wall. The A.C.T. Board asked for submissions for the project last year, and chose the photos representing Tahoka's past, present, and future submitted by Juanell Jones, featuring a historic windmill at the Pioneer Museum, a historic photo taken from the Museum showing the Stokes Hotel in 1912, the current Lynn County Courthouse, and modern wind turbines behind a field of sunflowers (closeup photo at left). Elite Sign and Design did the work on the project. (LCN PHOTOS)

Two officers injured, one has heart attack, during attack by inmate at county jail

by JUANELL JONES

Two Lynn County Sheriff's officers suffered injuries, including a heart attack, when an inmate attacked a jailer and others ran to assist in an altercation that occurred about 8:30 a.m. Monday.

Michael Blane Fillingim, 33, an inmate incarcerated at Lynn County Jail for previous assault of a family member and a grand jury indictment of possession of a controlled substance (methamphetamine), attacked a jailer Monday morning, striking him from behind just as the cell door was closing and failed to latch. He jumped onto Sgt. Martin Rosas' back and was reportedly beating him on his head and body. Captain Jim Bingham, who is the Jail Administrator, and another jailer, Forrest Milton, ran to assist Sgt. Rosas and during the altercation Captain Bingham suffered a heart attack. Fillingim, who had already been in an isolation cell for fighting with other inmates, was subdued and placed back in his cell.

Both officers were taken to Lynn

County Hospital ER for treatment, and Bingham was then transported to a Lubbock hospital. Bingham reportedly suffered a mild heart attack and was being kept for observation, according to information from local sources on Tuesday. Rosas suffered from bruising on his face and body, and was reportedly treated and released.

According to sources at the Sheriff's Office, District Attorney Michael Munk has been contacted regarding the assault, and felony charges will be filed on Fillingim.

Sheriff Jerry D. Franklin, who said he arrived on the scene just as the prisoner was being subdued, told The News that "we really hated that this happened. Our officers are trained to be as safe as possible," he added.

In other cases, sheriff's officers solved a case involving a stolen tractor and vehicle, catching the burglar red-handed after he became stuck in the middle of a field with both the stolen tractor and the vehicle that he had driven to the field, which was also stolen. Johnny Carrouth reported his tractor stolen, and law officers discovered the tractor and a Suburban, which they discovered was reported stolen the night before, near County Road X and CR 20, apprehending the suspect at the scene on Nov. 5.

On Nov. 3, deputies arrested a man for theft of property on a Lubbock warrant, and on Nov. 4th officers investigated a report of domestic disturbance between a couple parked on the side of U.S 87, but no arrests were made in the case that was reported as verbal abuse.

Tahoka Police investigated a theft and a criminal mischief case during the past week. Robert Guilliams reported theft of a ball hitch from his 2014 GMC Sierra 3/4-ton pickup parked near his home in the 1900 block of Ave. R, sometime during the night last Monday. Estimated value of the hitch was $250.

Nathan Paul Garcia reported to police that someone had tampered with the lock on the bed cover to his maroon 2008 Chevrolet Silverado pickup in the 2000 block of North 2nd St. sometime during the night last Thursday, damaging the lock. Garcia estimated the locking mechanism to be valued at $300.

Police also responded to a call Friday afternoon in the 1700 block of N. 5th in reference to an unwanted guest, who apparently left on foot before police arrived. Police located the man a couple of blocks away and arrested him on three outstanding warrants.

Lynn County Jail had 43 inmates during the past week, with 14 for Lynn County, 26 for Ector, and 3 for Dawson County. Current arrests included one for a 106th District Grand Jury indictment of forgery, on Caitlynn Rayne Martin, 22, of Lubbock; and one charged with the tractor/vehicle theft of property.

Filing period opens Nov. 14 for five Lynn County offices

The filing period opens Saturday, Nov. 14 for persons interested in filing for Lynn County offices in the March 2016 Primary elections, and continues through Dec. 14. There are five county positions that are up for election, as well as the District Attorney seat for the 106th Judicial District, which includes Lynn, Garza, Dawson and Gaines counties. There are already three candidates, including incumbent DA Michael Munk, who have indicated that they intend to file for the DA position.

Local offices up for election include the County Sheriff, County Attorney, County Tax Assessor-Collector, and Pct. 1 and Pct. 3 County Commissioners. All are four-year terms that will begin Jan. 1, 2017.

Anyone interested in filing must first contact the Lynn County Clerk's Office (561-4750) to obtain a campaign treasurer form, to present to the County Party Chairman when filing for candidacy. To file for a place on the Republican Primary Ballot, contact Lynn County Republican Chairman John Baker at 806-561-5566. There is no Lynn County Party Chairman for the Democratic Party, which means no candidates may file locally on the Democratic ticket.

According to County Clerk Susan Tipton, who is the Election Administrator for Lynn County, Lynn County is not the only county without a County Party Chairman for the Democratic Party. Lynn and Yoakum counties and 12 other counties throughout the state received letters from Texas Democratic Party Chairman Gilberto Hinojosa that instructed counties on how to proceed without county party leadership (pursuant to SB 1448 passed by the 84th Legislature, enacting Sec. 172.128 of the Election Code).

Tipton received a letter from the Texas Democratic Party Chairman that instructed her to conduct the Democratic Primary election from her office (for early voting and election day), but noted that "the ballot will consist of only statewide Democratic candidates and those who file for the Democratic presidential primary. Additionally, there will be some non-binding ballot propositions," the letter stated.

"My office cannot accept filing for local offices on the Democratic ticket," explained Tipton. "No one may file locally for the Democratic Primary. However, I will be holding the Democratic Primary Election early voting and election day out of my office, for Lynn County citizens who want to vote in the Democratic Primary," she explained.

Honoring veterans ... Judith Miller (left), Program Director for the City/County Library, presents a compiled list of 317 names of Lynn County veterans to Lenda Wood (center) for display at the Tahoka Pioneer Museum. Also pictured is Cameron Tekell holding a framed print of his Veteran Tribute, which won the first place award in the library's veterans tribute contest, and will also be displayed at the museum.

Commissioners meet in first Nov. session

Lynn County Commissioners met Monday morning for their first November session, with County Judge Mike Braddock presiding. Commissioner meetings are held the second and fourth Mondays of each month.

Brenda Dotson, an employee in the Justice of Peace Pct. 1 office, addressed commissioners in response to a letter of complaint that apparently was sent to the county judge and commissioners regarding a recent inquest procedure in which she assisted Judge Nancy Guilliams. Commissioners did not comment on the issue.

In other business, District Attorney Michael Munk informed the court that he would be using some VOCA funds in his budget to pay a stipend to Tommy Binford, and would be hiring Joe Cole as a new assistant DA. Melvin Eaker, with Gary, Bowers and Miller, CPAs, presented information on the firm's bid for auditing the county's finances for the 2014-15 fiscal year, but because an error in the agenda listed the fiscal year as 2015-16 commissioners were unable to vote on the issue, tabling it for later consideration.

Commissioners approved applying for Round IX grant funds for the courthouse restoration project. Judge Braddock said that the determination of who is awarded the grant funds will be made in March, through the Texas Historical Commission Courthouse Preservation Program.

Budget amendments and monthly bills were approved, and the meeting adjourned at 10:30 a.m. All four commissioners were present at the meeting, as well as other county officials and visitors.

New changes made at Texas State Veterans Cemeteries

The Texas General Land Office and Veterans Land Board has announced changes to a handful of policies. As of November 1st the GLO and VLB will be waiving all fees for the burial, ash spreading or columbarium interment of military spouses.

"Sometimes the right thing to do is an easy choice, and this is one of those instances," said Texas Land Commissioner George P. Bush. "Texas is home to over 1.7 million veterans. By waiving all spousal fees at our State Veterans Cemeteries we're doing right by our veterans, and taking another step to ensure we continue to give our best for the men and women who represent the best of us."

The State Veterans Cemeteries will also have longer visiting hours and relaxed rules about flowers. Visiting hours will be 8:00 am - 6:00 pm. Artificial flowers may now be placed at grave sites year-round and flower pick ups will now take place once a month instead of twice a month.

All military veterans and spouses are eligible to be laid to rest at Texas State Veterans Cemeteries, regardless of their home state when joining the military.

My name is Michael Munk and I am the District Attorney for the 106th District.

"I am a Texan by choice"

... and have been ever since moving to West Texas nearly 10 years ago. My love for public service and criminal justice brought me to the District Attorney's Office for the 106th District in 2006, where I began my fight for victim's rights as a victim advocate for former District Attorney, Ricky B. Smith. Over the course of the past 10 years, I have worked as a victim advocate, an assistant district attorney, an elected county attorney, and the elected district attorney for our four counties. I have spent a decade in our district pursuing victim's rights, prosecuting criminals, advising other elected officials, and administering over two different offices, budgets, and employees for those offices.

"Six life sentences."

In this term alone, I have personally prosecuted the most dangerous criminals in our district. As a result, six of these defendants charged with capital murder, burglary, sexual assault of children, and drug dealing, have all been sentenced to the equivalent of life sentences. I have also had to respond to appeals as all of these sentences are typically appealed.

This is what I do. It has taken me 10 years to develop the skills and training necessary to do it. It is not just a job, but a love for public service that drives me. It has been a pleasure living among and serving the people of Gaines, Dawson, Lynn, and Garza Counties for the last decade.

"10 years of service."

With your vote and continued support, it would be an honor to serve as your District Attorney once again.

Antelopes leap over Bulldogs

by Kent Elliott

The Abernathy Antelopes jumped out to a fast start Friday night against the Tahoka Bulldogs and were never headed off as the antelopes prevailed 53-7.

The Antelopes scored two touchdowns the first quarter on scoring runs of 11 and 22 yards by quarterback Trae Bender. Bender then added his third touchdown of the night along with a Sawyer Knight touchdown run of 3-yards and the lead swelled to 27-0.

Tahoka fought back with a nice scoring run of 9 yards from Andrew Alvarez. Hadley Reynolds added the extra point to make the score 27-7. Bender closed out the scoring in the first half with another touchdown run of 8 yards and at the half, the score stood Abernathy 34, Tahoka 7.

Abernathy added 3 scores in the second half on touchdown runs of 4 yards by Sawyer Knight, 3 yards by Mark Pando and 5 yards from Robert Rodriguez to make the final score 53-7.

Veterans, Active Duty & Reservists of Lynn County

For the past several weeks the City-County Library has been asking Lynn County residents for the names of Lynn County veterans, active duty military and reservists who are from Lynn County or have made Lynn County their home. We have been able to compile a list of 317 names but we are still asking citizens to provide additional names. The list of names was presented to Lenda Wood for display at the Tahoka Pioneer Museum, along with Cameron Tekell's poem in the library's Veterans Tribute. The Museum is open Fridays and Saturdays from 10:00 am to 2:00 pm. Anyone who wants to add a name may place your veteran, active duty or reservist name on the list at the Museum. Veteran's Day Tribute Challenge

The City-County Library wishes to express appreciation to all the young people who entered the challenge and to all of the Veterans who judged the entries. All of the hard work involved has touched many. There were 68 young people who took up the challenge and submitted

THE FLAG

They fought for our freedom, With our President to lead them.
They fought for the flag: the red, white and blue,
American pride, through and through.

They fight for liberty, even if it means death,
And may give their country their final breath.
Yes shots were fired. But they fought past dog tired.

Having them to protect our nation,
When you think of it, we should be in adulation.
I would like to thank you for the protection, And doing it to perfection.

Thank you, Veterans

Healing on the Way

Matthew 20: 29-34

When we do the work of ministry it can be easy to get so caught up in the big plans and programs we have going that we miss the needs of certain individuals among us. As followers of Jesus, we must imitate His compassion and take the time to minister to hurting individuals even if it may sometimes get in the way of our own plans and purposes. What are you doing in your church to make sure people are shown compassion and not forgotten?
