The City of Tahoka may impose a fine not to exceed $500 for any vehicle parked on any lot where the City has jurisdiction. The City council also supports a resolution that would allow the City to set parking regulations on any lot the City has jurisdiction over.

Bulldogs find the win column in district opener against Leopards

Tahoka 71, New Home 6

The Lynn County Herald

Tahoka got the 71-6 win over district opener in 4-2A play. It was a three game stretch and picked back on track after a tough competition.

“The Leopards, who are in their first quarter coming off the bye week, but really found their stride scoring 34 points in the second quarter. The Bulldogs were paced by a huge night from Malik Hamilton to lead 34-0. We had many guys pitch in and get off the field on fourth down,” Overstreet added.

This isn’t possible without the front four we have. We have some areas we found strength and will continue through the playoffs that we keep getting better and more experienced that in the first quarter,” said Coach Stephens Overstreet. We have the ticket wi
