

Where will they be this Christmas?

These soldiers will be right in the hospital. And that's where they'll be for many tedious, trying months to come. Stop and think of these boys once in a while this Christmas. If you do, you'll buy Victory Bonds, won't you? For Victory Bonds help care for our wounded soldiers. And Bonds will help them enjoy next Christmas the way you'll enjoy this one.

Give Victory Bonds for Christmas!

THOUGHTS ON EDUCATION

(By J. C. S.)
Education does not mean teaching people to know what they do not know; it means teaching them to behave as they do not behave.—(Ruskin.)
Education begins with life. Before we are aware, the foundations of character are laid, and subsequent teaching awaits but little to remove or alter them.—(Webster.)
A human being is not, in any proper sense a human being till he is educated.—(Mann.)
Educate your children to self-control, to the habit of holding passion and prejudice and evil tendencies subject to an upright and reasoning will, and you have done much to abolish misery from their future lives and crime from society.—(Webster.)

western Specialty Co., A. M. Turner, West Texas Utilities Co., Perkins-Timberlake Co., Chamber of Commerce, Brazetion Lumber Co.

Have you contributed?
We should like to express to the following committees for their labor, our deepest appreciation: Lions Band Committee, School Board Band Committee, North Ward PTA Band Committee, C. of C. Band Committee.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS

Dear Santa:
I have been a good coach and a good principal (I think), but I have pulled all of my hair out. Please bring me a wig. Needful—Coach.

Dear Santa:
I need several things but the most useful would be some detention slips for Jerry J. The office says I am running their paper supply bill up by using so many and refuse to give me any more. So please rush this delivery, I'm getting bald.—Mr. Stone.

Dear Santa:
I have been a very nice little boy the past year and I would like very much for you to bring me an awful cute doll named Helen Redwine and I'd like some perfume and some candy, too. Thanks a lot, Santa, because I know you won't forget my request and don't forget my favorite teacher, Mr. Stone. He would like a model student. Merry Christmas!—Marvin Ross.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a convertible with red seat covers and a very handsome boy for a chauffeur. If you don't mind, I would prefer Billy Couch. I have been very nice and I am sure a great big handsome man like you won't mind doing this for little me. Sincerely—Scatterbrain Tolliver.

Dear Santa:
I am a very good looking, handsome, but conceited boy due to the fact I am a senior, and I think it is your duty to take my conceit away and give it to Kenneth Tooley. In its place I would like Wallace Cox's head. Please don't disappoint me. Hopefully.—Rice Alvis.

Dear Santa:
I am a Sophomore girl and I have a lot of heart troubles. Mainly due to the fact I can not make up my mind. It would please me perfect Santa, if you would make a decision for me and bring him to me for Xmas in green dotted paper with red ribbon to match his hair or yellow to match the other one's hair. Troubled.—Lois Helweg.

Dear Santa:
I am a disappointment to my mother, and I run my father ragged from daylight till dark. They wanted a baby boy and I happened to be a girl. I am deeply in love with Frank Sinatra and they prefer Van Johnson, so therefore I would like a picture of Lon McAllister. If you can't do this, my last resort is: Just bring Charles Adams back for good. Indifferent.—Mildren Chapman.

Dear Santa:
I am desperate, I've lost my "Charles Atlas" books, how can I keep my muscles if I can't find them. Please bring me a new one. I also would like to have Roy Acuff's new song book. Beautiful.—Gerry Barton.

Dear Santa:
We are two beautiful red headed Juniors, but Santa how can we keep our red hair since we've lost our rinse? We would like to have some henna rinse. Merry Xmas!—Catherine Davis and Pat H.

Dear Santa:
Will you please bring me a gun so I can end it all for Jack Medford and have beautiful Betty Jo Adkins back. I'd also like some marbles.—Dan McMillian.

Dear Santa:
I am a Junior girl. I have beauty, a figure, and a wonderful personality. I don't want anything for Xmas, but please bring my boy friend, Charley Driving, a new Ford so he can come to see me more often. Hopeful.—Raynelle Godfrey.

Dear Santa:
I am young, sweet, and beautiful and I want a new boy friend.

Dear Santa:
I am a very nice boy and I have a sweet girl friend. All I want this year is to have a draft deferment or 4-F. Wistful.—Charles Greenway.

I have my eye on Curtis Matthews so if he isn't already taken please bring him to me wrapped in bright red paper. Please, Santa, don't disappoint me. Hopefully.—Kathryn Harrell.

Dear Santa:
I am a little Fish and I have been sweet all year. Would you please bring me a certain Junior girl. I think you know who. Wanting.—Bobby Neil Smith.
P. S.—If I can't have her, I'll take Nancy Burton.

Dear Santa:
I am a very beautiful young lady but something drastic has happened. I am losing my girlish figure. I demand reducing medicine immediately. I must not lose my figure or I'll lose my charm for Jerry Johnson. S.O.S.—Neita Fay Jeter.

Light after Darkness

This is our brightest Christmas in a long, dark time. Every light on every tree—every window that greets night with cheerful challenge—is a shining symbol of the passing of war's shadow.

There is radiant happiness in family gatherings this year. Men are coming home from war. And those who hear their Christmas carols under strange skies are closer, nearer to home than they have been in a great while.

For many, this will be a wistful Christmas—but a Christmas brave and strong in the knowledge that those who bought victory so dearly will make tomorrow's world a brighter place for us all.

COURTNEY HUNT

Income Tax Consultant

We will be glad to consult with you on your Income Tax. Although Congress has reduced tax rates, the present Wartime rates still apply to your 1945 return—and they are the highest (and most complicated) in history. You should have an experienced accountant or tax expert make your return. It is estimated that 50% of those making their own return, using the "SIMPLIFIED" form, overpaid their tax.

If your income for 1945 amounts to $500 or more, whether married or single, you are required to file a return. Farmers, and those filing a declaration of estimate, are required to file an amended estimate, or your final return by January 15, 1946.

We would advise that you work out your data as early as possible, and let us have your return made out so you can sign and mail in at an early date after the first of the year.

Merry Christmas Happy New Year. LEST WE FORGET. Let us be thankful for Christmas and the things for which it stands. Let us be thankful for fine associations, loyal friends. Let us give thanks for a high standard of living that makes it possible for us to get the fullest enjoyment out of life. That part of Christmas so frequently minimized is its religious significance. This is the birthday of Him who taught Faith, Hope and Charity. Let us not forget to find time to be thankful, to sing praises to Him for the blessings received. As we celebrate Christmas day with rejoicing, let us celebrate it with a deep thankfulness in our hearts and a prayer that we may enjoy this significant occasion for many, many more years to come.

"Home for Christmas"

Texans have waited four long years for this Christmas.

G. I. Joe has dreamed of it on every battlefield of the world. Thousands of them are streaming out of separation centers, homeward bound. Others, already home, are shedding their khaki and blue for civilian clothes. Each passing day is making "Home for Christmas" a blessed reality.

Except for one thing—traffic accidents. The Texas Safety Association predicts a traffic death toll of 223 persons and non-fatal injuries to some 2,000 others during the holiday, wintry twelfth month of December.

Yes, if things run true to form, Christmas will be ruined in hundreds of Texas homes by an accident to someone in the family.

These accidents are especially tragic and ironic at the Christmas season in any year. This year they are doubly so. This year, of all years, we want no tragedy that can be avoided.

Journeys' end for the returning veteran should be the safety of his fireside. Not futile death on the streets and highways of Texas.

Isn't it worth a little extra trouble this Christmas season to prevent accidents that bring sorrow and suffering and tragedy?

Then do your level best as a driver to make it "Safe at Home" for Christmas!

A Better Understanding

Probably all of us have had the experience of knowing some person who seemed to rub our fur the wrong way and we put him down in our book as a rotten egg. Most of the time we have not known the person well at all until circumstances brought about a better understanding and a better knowledge of just what sort of person he really is. Then we often have had the pleasant surprise of finding out that he is a pretty good fellow after all and not at all the way we had him pictured.

The saying goes that to know a person is to like him. If we were capable of removing all prejudice from our minds there probably would be very few individuals who could not get along with their fellowmen.

The conditions of foreign relations among various countries of the world is reflected to a great extent by individuals who make personal contact with other individuals. The personal charm and intelligent diplomacy of Franklin D. Roosevelt helped America over many a rough spot in our foreign relations. He was always the mediator, the conciliator at Big Three meetings. He had the knack of understanding the aims of other people, of making them understand that he liked them and of making them like him. Because of such characteristics many referred to him as the world's greatest diplomat.

So perhaps the nations of the world should have more diplomacy, more readiness to know and understand other people, to grasp their problems, to see if the other fellow isn't pretty regular after all. The safety of the world depends now on an amicable settlement of the world's problems, of which there are many.

America and Russian can strike a mighty blow for peace on earth by molding a lasting friendship. Let suspicion be transplanted by understanding, let pettiness

The true Christmas spirit is reflected in the natural beauty of a lovely plant. Send one to a friend for Christmas Day. Order early while our stock is complete.
