

CUBAN OYSTER SALOON.
TRANSMISSION OF BRAVO, respectfully informs that he has recently re-opened his establishment in a style unsurpassed by none in town, and is now prepared to furnish Oysters in every style to those who may have him in their estimation.
John H. Brown, Proprietor.
New Orleans, Dec. 16, 1852.—(41) Adm't.

Convention at Austin.

We publish in a late number of the Bulletin of the Advertiser, a circular that he has recently received from the establishment in a style unsurpassed by none in town, and is now prepared
have him in their estimation.

This is really the wish of every creditor who has convened with the subject, and all seem to have the plan consummated.

We therefore, in the name of many others, invite every creditor to attend the convention at Austin, on the 10th day of January next.

The above having been built or selected especially for this line, are all new vessels, light draft of water, well adapted to the trade, and being commanded by masters of experience in our existing trade, shippers may rest upon their recommendations favorably with any other vessels aboard. Freight will also be taken on the most attractive rates, and every facility and attention extended to shippers for the prompt dispatch of their goods.

All goods consigned to the agents will be forwarded free of commissions.

To Stock Raiders and Shippers.

Those who have the pleasure to anticipate that their new and magnificent Wharf at Powder Horn Bayou, is now completed, so that the largest steamships and small vessels underway Matagorda Bay can at all times readily discharge freight upon it without the trouble, expense, and damage of lighterage. They have punctuated its construction with a large and convenient pier for slipping the stock, with adequate room for running out, which cattle, horses, mules or other can be loaded on to the vessel at the wharf with safety, speed, and great convenience. And water is abundant with ice and ice-water of the wharf.
