Midwest No. 1 Is Best Well In New Mexico

Production Holding Up As Is Being Conducted. W. & Y Oil Co. Top At 525 in Jackson No. Marland Gets Gas.

State No. 1, of the Midwest Refining Co., in the NE NE 1/4, four miles west from the line is still holding the stage in the oil development of this section. Further production tests substantiate the fact this is the best well in the state. Core drilled to a depth of 4203 feet in shale and the production figures for seven days follow: Sept. 7th, 607 barrels; Sept. 8th, 469 barrels; Sept. 9th, 525 barrels; Sept. 10th, 530 barrels; Sept. 11th, 510 barrels; Sept. 12th, 510 barrels.

Dark intervened to end a mighty struggle Tuesday afternoon at the West Main diamond, when the Rotary and Lions club baseball teams met in a benefit game. The game was well attended by home folks and it was rumored that a number of major league ball scouts were present, although none were seen. A tree will offering was taken for the benefit of the community chest fund and the sum of about $44.00 was secured.

The game was check full of thrills from start to finish. George Frisch the score keeper did not attempt to tally the errors after he was threatened with the writers cramps, however, he did manage to keep the score, which was 23 all, according to the tabulations of an expert accountant.

Ball Is Ruined. It was in the third or fourth inning with Benoit Fior, playing center field for the Rotarians that the ball game almost came to an end. When Ben attempted to snatch a sensational fly out of the atmosphere but somehow the ball came down on his head, completely ruining its shape and was so badly damaged that it could not be used further in the game. Now the clubs have entered suit against Ben for criminal negligence. Bill Mount playing first base for the Rotarians, demonstrated the foolishness of using a glove by nabbing all those he did not miss with his bare hand, although most of the balls went by Bill on account of the sun and the bright suit wore by the Cole boy. Southwest Gilbert proved himself a fast left fielder, generally overtaking the ball before it stopped. Fred Brainard found difficulty in pitching to the Low Altitude Cole boy, as it was only four inches from his waistline to his shoulders. Little Joke Barnett went most of the frame for the Lions, but was bluffed from using the resin ball when faced by such mighty warriors as Bertram Smith, Ephraim Bullock and others. Howell Gage's batting was the sensation, except that he could not connect with the ball.

Republicans Complete The State Ticket Late Last Nite

Nominations Go Off As Slated—Cutting And Dillon Head Ticket—Otero Is Named For Position Of Attorney General.

Nominations for the entire republican ticket was completed last night at midnight, according to a telegram received by the Advocate this morning from William Dooley at Albuquerque. Apparently little or no change was made in the slated ticket made at the beginning of the convention. The ticket follows: For U. S. senator, long term, Bronson Cutting; for U. S. senator short term, O. A. Larranolo; for congressman, Albert Sims; for governor, E. C. Dillon; for lieutenant governor, Thomas Burns; secretary of state, Mrs. Perrault; state treasurer, Emerson Watts; school superintendent, Antacia Montoya; state auditor, Victoriano Alibarrri; attorney general, Mike Otero; corporation commissioner, Jose S. Baca; land commissioner, Ben F. Pankey; supreme court, Frank W. Parker.

In completing the nominations, little mention was made of Miss Lois Randolph, present state superintendent and 1926 republican nominee for this office. The Rio Arriba delegation was the only county in the state to endorse Miss Randolph's administration. The reported early opposition to the renomination of Governor R. C. Dillon, did not gain headway after the appearance of numbers of Dillon and Cutting badges. Lorenzo Delgado of San Miguel county, the erstwhile turn coat is accepted back into the folds of the republican party with a cheer. It will be remembered that Lorenzo made the race for lieutenant governor on the democratic ticket in 1926. Lorenzo quit the republican party a short time prior to the 1926 election because he said they were too crooked.

There were about 1,200 delegates assembled to cast the 1,127 votes of the convention.

ENDORSES N. M. E. A. PLAN

The democratic state convention last week adopted the report of its resolutions committee, which endorsed in its entirety the program of the New Mexico Educational Association for a non-partisan control of the state's schools and trust funds. The association committee, through its chairman, J. R. McCollum, announced immediately after the adoption of the resolutions, that it had accepted this plank as meeting its demands completely.

OIL LANDS SOLD TO THE HIGHEST BIDDERS AT SANTA FE MONDAY

SANTA FE.—The price of $7.04 an acre was brought by one tract which state land commissioner E. F. Pankey put up at the monthly oil leases auction at his office Monday. Only once has this price been beaten since the inauguration of the monthly sales policy; on the former occasion $31 was paid.

The top figure Monday was offered by F. S. Donnell of Santa Fe. The tract includes 80 acres.

All told, twenty-three tracts were disposed of and in all, except three or four instances, brought better than the minimum price.

E. L. POWELL PIONEER OF COTTONWOOD DIES TUESDAY MORNING

Had Lived In Cottonwood Community For 18 Years. Funeral Services Held Here At The Grave Side Yesterday Afternoon.

Another pioneer of the Cottonwood community has passed away. E. L. Powell, age 72, died Tuesday morning at 8 o'clock, following an extended illness. Mr. Powell had been suffering from a cancer for the past two years and his condition had gradually grown worse. Although his death was not unexpected it was a shock to friends of the family. Apparently Mr. Powell died peacefully; he was found kneeling beside his bed.

The Powell family moved to the Pecos valley in 1910 and have made their home in the Cottonwood section since that time. Mr. Powell assisted in developing the community during the early days. He operated a farm on the Cottonwood as long as he was able to work.

The deceased is survived by a widow, Mrs. Louise Powell and three children, Mrs. E. J. Grundmeier of Waverly, Missouri, Mrs. E. O. Brownlee of Hamilton, Mo., and Charley Powell of the Cottonwood community.

Funeral services were held at the graveside yesterday afternoon. Rev. E. Peterson, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in the Woodbine cemetery.

Hotel Man Will Lease New Hostelry If It Is Built

Further Plans Made For Erection Of Modern Four Story Hotel To Cost Sum Of $131,000. Local Men Working On Proposition.

Further plans for the erection of a new and modern hotel for Artesia are now underway. At a meeting Friday between a number of local citizens and Harvey Day and associates, prominent hotel men of El Paso, Mr. Day submitted a proposition, which the local hotel committee feels is the best yet offered.

Day's Proposition. The sum and substance of Mr. Day's proposition is to the effect that he proposes the erection of a four story hotel to cost $131,000. Part of the finances necessary for the erection of the building, or $56,000 is to be raised by the community, while the remaining $75,000 is to be secured through a bond on the building.

He proposes to take a ten year lease on the hotel and to pay as rental the first 6 per cent interest on $56,000 and to pay the taxes and insurance on the building and to pay all interest and principle payments and to retire the $75,000 mortgage during the life of the lease, turning back to the community stock holders, the hotel clear of indebtedness at the end of ten years. While the total cost of the hotel, includes the building completely furnished, Mr. Day's investment in the enterprise will be approximately $6,000. The building is to be located on the Flynn, Welch and Yates property at the corner of Main and First streets and is to contain fifty-four guest rooms, according to the drawing now on exhibition in the Citizens State Bank. Every room will contain a bath and the hotel will be modern throughout. Building operations are scheduled to start within thirty days after the initial $56,000 is raised.

Mr. Day comes to Artesia with the reputation of being one of the best hotel men in the southwest. In fact he has operated some of the leading hotels of the southwest, including two well known hotels, one in Fort Worth and one in El Paso. He proposes to move his family to Artesia and assume the management of the new hostelry, in the event the proposition goes through and will also assist in financing the $76,000. Mr. Day has faith in the Artesia community and believes that with the local and tourist trade the hotel can be made a financial success.

A hotel committee composed of J. E. Robertson, C. E. Mann, S. W. Gilbert, M. W. Evans and M. Yates, Jr., are now at work soliciting subscriptions among the local people and up to yesterday morning had secured about $40,000. A number of subscribers have practically doubled their former subscription of two months ago and the committee feels encouraged over the public response they have met thus far.

DR. CLARKE INJURED

Dr. J. J. Clarke sustained a sprained ankle in a painful accident at Albuquerque Thursday morning, while in the lobby of the Franciscan hotel. ## UNSELFISHNESS!

"Did you ever stop to think how utterly helpless and useless one would be, if he could be, independent of fellow men, the people that live in a community? Each individual is but a part of a large number of persons making up a community, each and all having common interests in, common duties and common responsibilities for the many human problems the community has to solve and care for all of the time.

"Then the person who attempts to live in a community getting out of it what he can and contributing nothing to it, is a parasite. Such person is selfish and selfishness is the Mother of failure.

"The sum total of human happiness is measured by the degree of helpfulness and unselfishness of the members, individually and collectively, of our community, our state, our nation.

"Did you ever stop to think that you cannot enjoy success in a community unless the community enjoys success? Others must be successful before you can expect to individually succeed. Do you ever ask yourself, 'What am I doing to make the community in which I live a better place for my family and my fellow men?'"

TO SEINE THE COTTONWOOD

A number of Cottonwood residents assisted by M. Stevenson, deputy game warden, are planning to seine the Cottonwood tomorrow morning, for the purpose of removing all undesirable fish. It will be necessary to seine a number of other streams over this section before work can be started on the proposed warm water fish hatchery.

Midwest No. 1 Is Well In Mexico

Holding Up As Being Conducted. Y Oil Co. Top 55 in Jackson No. Gets Gas.

No. 1, of the Midwest No. 1, in the NE NE 1/4, 4 miles west from Artesia is still holding the stage in the oil development section. Further retests substantiate the fact that this is the best well in the area. Core drilled to a depth of 4300 feet in shale production figures for the first 10 days follow: Sept. 7th, 607 barrels; Sept. 8th, 469 barrels; Sept. 9th, 530 barrels; Sept. 10th, 530 barrels; Sept. 11th, 510 barrels; Sept. 12th, 510 barrels.

Production from the well is being pumped to the surface by a 2 1/2 inch diameter pipe. The production of water is figured in the following table:

Oil Water

The report was received yesterday on the Jackson No. 1, W. and Y. Oil Co., sec. 13-17-30, the well was topped at 525 feet. In a few days previous in the same area, the Haggerty well and Levers topped at 510 feet.

ROTARY-LIONS CLUBS PLAY NIGHTCAP BALL GAME HERE TUESDAY

Benefit Game Brings To Community Chest Around $44.00. Adding Machine Used To Keep Score But Errors Not Counted.

Dark intervened to end a mighty struggle Tuesday afternoon at the West Main diamond, when the Rotary and Lions club baseball teams met in a benefit game. The game was well attended by home folks and it was rumored that a number of major league ball scouts were present, although none were seen. A free will offering was taken for the benefit of the community chest fund and the sum of about $44.00 was secured.

The game was chuck full of thrills from start to finish. George Frisch the score keeper did not attempt to tally the errors after he was threatened with the writers cramps, however, he did manage to keep the score, which was 23 all, according to the tabulations of an expert accountant.

Ball Is Ruined.

It was in the third or fourth inning with Benuel Pior, playing center field for the Rotarians that the ball game almost came to an end. When Ben attempted to snatch a sensational fly out of the atmosphere but somehow the ball came down on his head, completely ruining its shape and was so badly damaged that it could not be used further in the game. Now the clubs have entered suit against Ben for criminal negligence. Bill Mount playing first base for the Rotarians, demonstrated the foolishness of using a glove by nabbing all those he did not miss with his bare hand, although most of the balls went by Bill on account of the sun and the bright suit wore by the Cole boy. Southwest Gilbert proved himself a fast left fielder, generally overlooking the ball before it stopped. Fred Brainard found difficulty in pitching to the Low Altitude Cole boy, as it was only four inches from his waistline to his shoulders. Little Joke Barnett went most of the frame for the Lions, but was bluffed from using the resin ball when faced by such mighty warriors as Bertram Smith, Ephraim Bullock and others. Howell Gage's batting was the sensation, except that he could not connect with the ball.

UNSELFISHNESS!

"Did you ever stop to think how utterly helpless and useless one would be, if he could be, independent of fellow men, the people that live in a community? Each individual is but a part of a large number of persons making up a community, each and all having common interests in, common duties and common responsibilities for the many human problems the community has to solve and care for all of the time.

"Then the person who attempts to live in a community getting out of it what he can and contributing nothing to it, is a parasite. Such person is selfish and selfishness is the Mother of failure.

"The sum total of human happiness is measured by the degree of helpfulness and unselfishness of the members, individually and collectively, of our community, our state, our nation.

"Did you ever stop to think that you cannot enjoy success in a community unless the community enjoys success? Others must be successful before you can expect to individually succeed. Do you ever ask yourself, 'What am I doing to make the community in which I live a better place for my family and my fellow men?'"

OFFICIAL PAPER OF EDDY COUNTY

TELEPHONE NO. 7

SMITH'S RELIGIOUS CREED

Perhaps some of our readers will remember that Governor Smith made public his religious views in April 1927. The request was made by Chas. C. Marshall, prominent New York attorney, who wanted to know what came first with Mr. Smith, his church or the constitution of the United States. The answer was made in the Atlantic Monthly and because of its peculiar significance at this time, we are reproducing the letter, which follows:

"I summarize my creed as an American Catholic. I believe in the worship of God according to the faith and practice of the Roman Catholic Church. I recognize no power in the institutions of my Church to interfere with the operations of the Constitution of the United States or the enforcement of the law of the land. I believe in absolute freedom of conscience for all men and in equality of all churches, all sects, and all beliefs before the law as a matter of right and not as a matter of favor. I believe in the absolute separation of Church and State and in the strict enforcement of the provisions of the Constitution that Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof. I believe that no tribunal of any church has any power to make any decree of any force in the law of the land, other than to establish the status of its own church. I believe in the support of the public school as one of the corner stones of American liberty. I believe in the right of every parent to choose whether his child shall be educated in the public school or in a religious school supported by those of his own faith. I believe in the principle of non-interference by this country in the internal affairs of other nations and that we should stand steadfastly against any such interference by whomsoever it may be urged. And I believe in the common brotherhood of man under the common fatherhood of God.

"In this spirit I join with fellow Americans of all creeds in a fervent prayer that never again in this land will any public servant be challenged because of the faith in which he has tried to walk humbly with his God.

"Very truly yours,
"ALFRED E. SMITH."

TO KEEP YOUNG

Always drive fast out of alleys. You might hit a policeman. There's no telling.

Always pass the car ahead on curves or turns. Don't use the horn because it might unnerve the other fellow and cause him to turn out too far.

Demand half the road—the middle half. Insist on your rights.

Always lock your brakes when skidding. It makes the job more artistic. Often you can turn clear around.

Always drive close to pedestrians in wet weather. Dry cleaners will erect a monument to your memory.

Always try to pass cars on a hill when it is possible. It shows your bus has more power, and you can turn somewhere surely if you meet another car at the top.

Never look around when you back up. There is never anything behind your automobile.

A few shots of booze will enable you to make your car do real stunts. For permanent results quaff long and deeply of the flowing bowl before taking the wheel.

Drive as fast as you can on wet pavements. There is always something to stop you if you lose control—often a heavy truck or a plate glass window.

New drivers should be shown how to drive fast in heavy traffic. It gives them the experience every motorist should have.

Always speed! It looks as though you are a man of pep even though an amateur driver.

Never stop, look or listen at railroad crossings. It consumes valuable time, and besides, nobody believes in signs.—Twin Twinkles.

NOT AN ISSUE

Northern voters are looking complacently on while their southern neighbors are scrapping over prohibition in the coming presidential contest. A local man, who recently returned from a visit to the north central states says that prohibition is not an issue in that section. Those who like their liquor can get anything they want to drink on short notice. "Why should we want a change," they will tell you, "when we can have what we want to drink when we want it."

CRIME

While the "sob sisters" are decrying the Baumes law because of its provision that the fourth conviction on a felony charge shall automatically put a criminal behind the bars for life, the crime commission of New York City reports the lowering of murder and manslaughter cases from 308 to 278 in three years' time. The sentimentalists are making the most of the fact that it sometimes happens that a man gets a life sentence for a crime of less magnitude than those for which he has "done time" but certainly it must be self-evident that a man who would commit four major crimes shows little inclination to respect either the laws of his country or the rights of his fellow citizens and should be placed where he cannot abuse or injure either. It seems incomprehensible that supposedly "good" people should ally themselves with criminals by opposing such a law but it appears that there are fanatics capable of carrying their humanitarianism to such extremes—at least until their own lives are touched by the sorrow and loss occasioned by the activities of some gangster. It is pretty safe to reckon that a fourth offender is an habitual criminal and has neither desire nor the ability to restrain his evil tendencies. It has come to the point in this country where the most loathsome of criminals get more consideration at the hands of so-called justice than does his victim or society at large and the "sob sisters" who advocate leniency, suspended sentences, paroles and pardons are not a little to blame. There is no deterrent quite so effective as swift and sure punishment for crime and those who advocate palliative measures are postponing by just so much, the time when crime will decrease. The Baumes law has helped the situation and other states might well follow the example of New York and enact a measure at least as stringent as its law, and it wouldn't hurt a mite if it were more so.—Ex.

COTTON BRINGS LARGE RETURNS

In explaining why cotton is becoming the most important crop of southeastern New Mexico, the State College Agricultural bulletin says:

The reason why cotton dominates the agriculture in southern New Mexico irrigated sections is set forth in a study recently made by the New Mexico Agricultural College in cooperation with the United States Department of Agriculture, which clearly shows cotton to be the most profitable crop. The study which was made on the Elephant Butte Irrigation Project during the past year brings out the following facts:

The average price received for cotton grown on the Project for the seven years 1921-1927 was 22.6 cents per pound. The average yield was 403 pounds per acre. With the average cost of producing cotton on the thirty-five farms studied for the year 1927 the above yield and price would result in a net return above all costs, including interest on land investment, except the cost of management, of approximately $40 per acre. Even a price of 18 cents a pound with the above yield would give a net return of nearly $20 per acre and only one year since 1920 has the average price been below 18 cents. These are average figures so not all farmers have secured these returns, but there are also a great many farmers who have been securing considerably larger yields than the average and correspondingly larger returns. No other crop of importance on the project has been nearly so profitable.

It is not very often that a crop so completely dominates the agriculture of an area so soon after it has been introduced as cotton has in southern New Mexico says L. H. Hauter, assistant director of extension. At first many of those familiar with conditions in the cotton belt were afraid of the effects that cotton might have on the community and many bad things were said about cotton. It is generally accepted now as the basic crop, however, and the principal concern of most farmers is the system of farming to follow in order to maintain their soil fertility so that they can continue to reap the benefits of large cotton yields. The Cotton Field Day which will be held at State College September 24 will make it possible for farmers of southern New Mexico to learn at first hand what the Experiment Station and U. S. Department of Agriculture are doing to make cotton a more profitable crop.

THE TICKET

The ticket slated by the democratic state organization is highly satisfactory; to the republicans. In fact we almost believe that somewhere the republicans had a hand in it; they could not have made matters much worse.

It is a sad admission, but nevertheless true, that the ticket is doubtful, in some cases exceedingly so. Press comments and expressions from the delegates attending the convention convinces one that our state organization has passed an opportunity; they had everything to gain and nothing to lose, they could have placed a strong ticket in the field with the chances good for winning both the state and national. As matters stand now only the optimistic can hope for the entire state ticket and there is little doubt but that the national ticket has been crippled.

The democrats are going into the field with a difficult situation to cope with. Owing to the dissatisfaction arising from the convention, it is hardly possible to hope for the full strength from the northern counties, with one exception, Uncle John Morrow, candidate for congressman at large. Under the present conditions it is neither likely nor probable that the nominee for governor, Robert Dow will poll his vote of two years ago in Eddy county, when he ran for attorney general. It is doubtful if he can pull out of Artesia with a decent majority, if the republicans renominate Dillon, such as it appears they will do at this writing.

After all politics is politics, but recent happenings at the various conventions, leads us to believe that the old primary system is the best after all. At least the majority of the people can rule and the primary system lessens the chances for the use of the steam roller. When you get into one of these conventions where the unit rule is enforced the boys can show you how the "hog et the cabbage."

Lorenzo Delgado and his henchmen want to return to the republican fold, however, the republicans do not seem to be overly anxious for Delgado's support. Both parties have learned that Delgado doesn't play politics for his health, which goes to prove that Delgado's gang is an awful load for any political party to shoulder.

The more we read of airplane accidents, the more content we are to do our traveling on terra firma.

THE OLD AYRES RANCH IS SOLD

In the old days when large acreages were under control of the cattle baron, there were none which was more in the public eye than the big holding of the Ayres which comprised the principal ranch in the Guadalupe mountains, and which always was termed the "Mountain Pool," the latter being a combination of ranch owners who pooled their shipments for market and made one big drive do the work of many smaller ones.

The Ayres ranch is perhaps the most highly improved ranch property in the Guadalupe mountains and comprised 520 acres of deeded land and 560 acres of leased land, all under one big fence. The ranch buildings are of a substantial nature and many watering tanks are constructed at convenient places in the pasture under the fence.

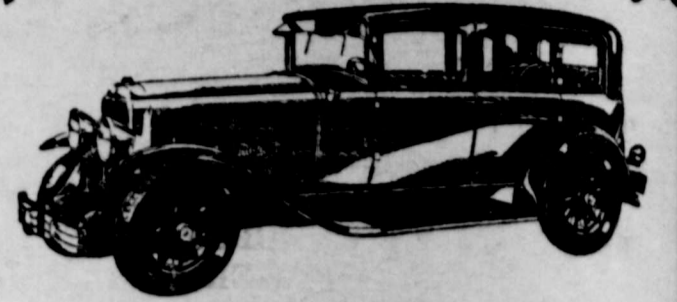

This week the large holding passed into the control of Iowa parties who will convert it into a sheep ranch, the sale being made through the agency of J. M. Pardue.—Carlsbad Current-Argus.

TRI-STATE FAIR IS TO HAVE FREE GATE FOR THE FIRST TIME

AMARILLO, Texas.—The Tri-State Fair this fall expects to "pay out" on a novel scheme—"a free gate," the first time such an innovation ever has been attempted in the state of Texas, it is believed.
The 1928 annual Tri-State Fair will be held at the fair grounds here September 22 to 29 inclusive, and in place of the 40,000 who attended last year and paid the usual admission, indications already point to 250,000 visitors and exhibitors next month.
Visitors from this section of the Southwest, under this plan may drive to Amarillo, park in twenty-nine acres of free parking space adjacent to the grounds, see every exhibit and take in much of the entertainment and programs without paying a cent.
Twenty farm exhibit spaces already have been reserved.
Some of the entertainment features procured for the eight days and nights are Schooley and Collins' Winter Garden Revue from Chicago, which will perform every night at the grandstand. This is the revue that will be used at the Dallas fair.
Leonard Stroud Rodeo will appear each afternoon before the grandstand. Included in the Rodeo acts are some of the leading cowboys and cowgirls of the country.

DEMOCRATS TO SPEND $500,000 ON RADIO

NEW YORK.—The democratic national committee will spend nearly $500,000 for radio broadcasting in this campaign—as against $40,000 in 1924—it was announced at national headquarters Saturday.
Arrangements are being made to broadcast all of Governor Smith's major speeches, over networks of stations carefully selected geographically and politically to reach groups of voters the committee is most anxious to reach. Broadcasting will be regularized, concentrating generally on the territory most affected by a particular speech.
"Now this is not a beautiful dream which we are relating, no fairy tale or press agent stuff, but an exact report of the conditions in Santa Fe today as far as game and fish are concerned. To sum up we now have, first, a Commission of undoubted ability and sincerity of purpose, representative of the sportsmen of the state. Second, a Game Warden fitted for his job by training, intelligence, earnestness and tact, whom any future administration will find difficulty in removing if he makes good, as we believe he will. Third, a Governor who is in sympathy with our aims and who agrees to allow the Game Commission to run the Game Department without interference."

ALBUQUERQUE PLANS TO ENTERTAIN FIRST AMERICAN VISITORS

With reservations pouring into Albuquerque for The First American, and the hotels rapidly filling up, the Chamber of Commerce is calling on householders through the city and preparing to provide accommodations to fill every application, according to a statement released today.
It was pointed out that Albuquerque normally has hundreds of available rooms throughout the city in addition to an unusual number of hotels, and that no difficulty is expected in caring for the crowd. Reservations will be taken care of in the order of their receipt, according to the headquarters.
Since the larger hotels report advance reservations to nearly their capacity, it was urged that reservations be made as early as possible to avoid inconvenience. The Chamber of Commerce will be ready to assist if you are unable to get a place in the hotels. The dates of The First American are September 24, 25, 26, 27.

The First American Indian

Sept. 24, 25, 26, 27 1928
Albuquerque, N.M.

A tremendous spectacle of the Indian

Three thousand Indians from twenty-five tribes in colorful costume . . . four hundred performers in a magnificent stage setting . . . a grandstand seating a full five thousand people . . . four days and nights of fire, color, and action . . . that is Albuquerque's first big show! Every morning street parades bright with color will fill the downtown city; every afternoon at the big grounds toward the east a new and different show will be presented on a scale larger than has ever been attempted in New Mexico.

In the evenings, with the huge setting looming up under the full moon and with elaborate lighting effects bringing out the full beauty of the scene, the complete history of the Southwest Indian will be re-lived before your eyes. Four hundred actual performers will portray all the stirring action of hundreds of historic years in three great separate performances which sweep to thrilling climaxes. On the fourth night the famous Montezuma Ball, in full Spanish and Early Days costume will make a tremendous finale to a great celebration in which all New Mexico will share.

This is The First American! Can you afford to miss it? Ask for booklet at the office of this newspaper, and make your reservations now. Headquarters at the Chamber of Commerce, Court House, Albuquerque. --:--

Curbing the Growth of Weeds

The picture illustrates a process invented by a Hawaiian planter for bringing the weedless garden to every yard. The up-to-date applicator applies paper to the floor of his garden, which shuts off the growth of weeds between rows and permits the real crops to obtain full benefit of the moisture and plant food contained within the soil. Charles F. Eckart is the inventor of the unique method shown in the picture. The heavy paper is impregnated with asphalt. Among its advantages, this process eliminates the hoe.

"BEAU SABREUR" PLEASES EVEN HARD TO SUIT FANS

One reason for the wide-spread success of the motion picture "Beau Sabreur," is the fact that while melodramatic heart-stirring moments are replete throughout the production, the comedy touch has not been forgotten.

From the very start of this Paramount adaptation of Percival C. Wren's thrilling story of the Sahara and the Foreign Legion, the lighter vein is apparent. The comedy has been placed in capabel hands.

Joan Standing, in the role of Maudie, the simple English maid of Evelyn Brent, offers a portrayal that is distinctly different and is the reason for many a chuckle. Miss Standing's knowledge of humor aids the picture to a considerable degree.

But the main comedy laurels go to Hoah Beery, as the Sheikh El Hamel, apparently a fierce tribe leader and power on the Sahara, and Roscoe Karns, his grand vizier. In some of the most dramatic moments, the indifferent air of both serves to relieve the tension materially.

It turns out that the Sheikh El Hamel is, instead of being such a mighty and fearless person, just a human being, deserter from the Foreign Legion who has had the glory thrust upon him. His grand vizier was his companion in the army.

The audience is not let into that secret for several reels, and it comes somewhat as a surprise, but it is a "Beau Sabreur," a sequel to the famed "Beau Geste," is being shown at the Majestic theatre, this Thursday and Friday. The exceptional cast in this picture, directed by John Waters, features Gary Cooper in the title role, Mitchell Lewis, Arnold Kent, Evelyn Brent, William Powell, Joan Standing and Raoul Paoli.

TO GET FIRST CHECKERBOARD CAR

The Ralston Purina Company, manufacturers of Purina Feeds have developed a new way of advertising their already nationally known line of feeds.

The company recently contracted to have several hundred box cars painted with their trade mark, the "Checkerboard squares," done in red and white around a field of blue, making a most striking and distinct advertisement.

Among the first of these cars to enter the state, is expected here the latter part of the week by the local dealers, Wilson and Anderson.

This innovation in publicity demonstrated the value that a great company like the Purina Mills places on advertising.

ARTESIA SCHOOLS OPEN LAST MONDAY WITH A LARGER ENROLLMENT

This year's work in the Artesia schools began Monday morning, September 3. The enrollment was much larger than was expected, especially at the Central school and at the Senior high. Last year the enrollment at Senior High at the opening of school was under 200, but this year the enrollment has already reached 243. The greatest enrollment during the month of September last year at Central was 309. This year it has already reached 320. At the Junior High the enrollment has dropped off some and relieved the crowded conditions of last year. Total enrollment to date is 733.

The enrollment by grades is as follows:

Senior High
Seniors, 39; juniors, 48; sophomores, 61; freshmen, 95; total, 243.

Junior High
Eighth grade, 55; seventh grade, 59; sixth grade, 63; total, 177.

Central
Fifth grade, 43; fourth grade, 65; third grade, 62; second grade, 62; first grade, 63; Spanish-American, 25; total 320.

One of the most unexpected things in connection with the Senior High is the increased enrollment in the vocational subjects. The following enrollment figures are rather interesting: typing, 36; bookkeeping, 14; shorthand, 14; commercial arithmetic, 33; business English, 20; home economics, 51; manual training, 27.

GOLD STRIKE REPORTED

AT COLUMBUS, N. M.

COLUMBUS, N. M.—Concern over a report that this historic little town was to be sold for taxes has been dissipated by news of a gold strike.

Columbus for the last several days has had more excitement than at any time since the United States army used its site as a base for the Mexican punitive expedition to protect American soil from Pancho Villas band. Gold has been unearthed in the Tres Hermanas mountains by J. M. Crump, and an assay, made at El Paso, Texas, shows, Mr. Crump says, that the first ore assayed $743.50 to the ton on the minimum load and $4,872 for the best load.

On August 6, last, the New Mexico tax commission announced through its special attorney J. Frank Curns, that 1,329 lots in Columbus would of necessity be sold for delinquent taxes and that an El Paso business man had posted a $1,000 guarantee that he would bid $10,000 for the property. Since the gold strike, however, a part of the delinquent taxes has been paid.

District Engineer Kelly of the state highway department was here Tuesday. He expressed himself as being completely satisfied with the splendid job of paving which has just been completed on our main street.

An executive meeting of the P. T. A. officers met at the school house last Friday afternoon. The principal business of the meeting was the appropriation of the money in the treasury, $25.00 of which was voted out to buy records for the Victrola, $27.00 equipment for the tennis court and $12.00 equipment for the laboratory. The third Friday of each month was set aside for the P. T. A. meetings.

Dr. F. A. Yoakam and wife spent a few hours here Sunday the guests of Mrs. Ollie Smith and sons. The doctor will be remembered as a former physician and surgeon of Hope. Having left this part of the country before the Carlsbad Caverns became famous, they decided to see them to complete a sight seeing tour which includes thirty-three states and Canada, and after going through the caverns they pronounce them the greatest wonder of their trip.

Every Federal is guaranteed for life whether it has run one or two years or whether it has given ten, twenty or thirty thousand miles.

TIRE TALKS

HOW TO TELL TIRE QUALITY!

You can't tell tire quality by looking at a tire—but you can tell the quality by looking at the name it carries.

If the tire has the name of a manufacturer with an established reputation stamped on it you may know it is a full value tire regardless of the price.

You may select a Federal at the price you want to pay, knowing that you are getting your money's worth—plus mileage for every dollar you invest.

Have A Good Laugh With The Camera Man

Don't run for a doctor—you're not seeing things—the camera man did. Calm down. Pretty Lillian Metzger, at the extreme right, seems to have made the camera man go wrong. The first picture is of a film beauty, Raquel Torres—it's easy to see where the naughty camera man was looking. Johnny Brown, also of the film, is the only male sufferer in this cameraman's spree. His legs are certainly long enough to reach the ground. The second picture is of a young lady who may have got that way eating at boarding houses. When Tex Rickard sees this, he may try to sign her up—her reach beats anything he ever "seed" before. No, you don't need new eyeglasses—but somebody needs a new camera.

BUICKS NOW SHIPPED FROM FLINT FACTORY BY THE TRAIN LOAD

FLINT, Michigan.—How the prosperity enjoyed by one business tends to promote the welfare of those in other lines of work is strikingly shown by the activity of the railroads serving the City of Flint. Always busy transporting the manufactured products of this seething industrial center, the roads are working overtime this summer, largely because of tremendous increase in the output of a single Flint industry—the Buick Motor Company.

A few years ago, shipment of a whole trainload of automobiles would have attracted widespread attention as an evidence of remarkable business prosperity. The world marveled then at stories of Buicks leaving Flint in trainload lots—sometimes at the rate of two or three such shipments in one week. Today, the Pere Marquette railroad alone handles from six to eight full trainloads of Buick cars every day, besides about the same number of Buicks in less than trainload shipments—and it is arranging to take care of even greater shipments, necessitated by the insistent nation-wide demand for these cars.

"We get two trainloads, averaging 60 to 90 freight cars, each containing three automobiles, away from Chicago Junction every night," said the Pere Marquette official in charge of the Buick shipments over his company's rails. "About the same number leaves each day for Suspension Bridge, Ont. There is one trainload a day for Detroit, one for Toledo, and generally one for Milwaukee via Ludington, or for some other point. All this is in addition to many ten or twenty carload shipments to other cities.

"Most of these trainloads are broken up at their original destinations, and re-shipped to their ultimate goals, though frequently a single Buick branch or distributor receives an entire trainload, or even more, at one time.

"The urgent demand for these new cars has forced us, too, to expedite their movement in every way. The inauguration of through service, with careful timing of the trains to arrive at ferry points, for instance, ahead of the day's traffic, has enabled us to speed things up greatly. It now requires twenty-four hours, instead of forty-eight, to reach Suspension Bridge or Chicago Junction, and a trainload leaving Thursday by 7 p. m. Friday will reach New York before 5 A. M. Monday. And that's fast movement of freight."

Besides the trainload lots, separate shipments, and export loadings of some thirty carloads a day, Buick delivers to nearby points by drive-aways averaging about 200 cars—or nearly seventy carloads—a day, by this means alone. Even when relieved of this portion of the work, however, the railroads must keep their crews and equipment on the job twenty-four hours a day—and peak production, Buick officials inform them, is still to come!

"THE EDDY COUNTY CROP IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION"

"The Eddy County Crop Improvement Association," an organization of farmers in the county who are interested in promoting the agriculture by growing and disseminating among its members and other progressive farmers new and improved varieties of farm seeds and plants, has been formed and a constitution and by-laws adopted.

W. D. Bales, Carlsbad has been elected president and J. A. Hardy, secretary-treasurer.

The county organization will send delegates to the meeting of the state association which will be held at Las Cruces on September 24th at the time of the cotton field day.

The county association has already started its program of work and two gins in the county are building seed houses where the selected cotton seed can be kept free from mixtures. Arrangements have been made and the county extension agent has been assisting the farmers in roguing their selected fields of cotton and in assisting in getting the gins to gin the selected cotton separate from the general run.

NEW BOOK ON BIRDS OF NEW MEXICO WILL SOON BE OFF PRESS

The State Game Department announces that Florence Merriam Bailey's monumental work on the birds of this state is in the process of being printed, and that it will be ready for distribution not later than early November. Proof of the book has already been submitted, and corrected by the author and a number of eminent naturalists, and the actual printing in the final form is to begin at once.

"Birds of New Mexico" is undoubtedly the most comprehensive work on the birds of any state that has ever been attempted. It will contain 800 pages, and a total of 232 birds and twenty-two nests figure in the illustrations. The book contains twenty-three new nature studies in full colors, made by the eminent artist, Allan Brooks especially for this work, and unlike so many bird pictures, the subjects are identified with a background typically New Mexican. In fact, the birds were painted exactly as the artist found them in their natural environment.

Besides being a distinguished naturalist, Mrs. Bailey is an entertaining writer, and as a result the book will both satisfy the most exacting scientist, and provide delightful reading for the layman. Years of painstaking study, coupled with a natural gift for sympathetic understanding have given Mrs. Bailey an intimate insight into the lives of our feathered friends of field and forest, an insight that has allowed her to weave both romance and scientific fact into the completed pattern.

The book is being published in cooperation with the New Mexico game protective association and the U. S. Biological Survey, and will be sold through the game department at the cost of printing. Mrs. Bailey donated the manuscript, and Judd and Detweiler, printers of National Geographic magazine, have made a very low price on the printing. It will be substantially and artistically bound in buckram, and will sell for $5.00 per copy. A limited number are being bound in leather and autographed by the author which will be sold for $10.00.

Judging from the number of advance subscriptions which have been received since the first announcement of the book, the game warden states that it is probable that the entire edition will be exhausted soon after its appearance, and possibly before it is actually ready for distribution. Nearly everyone is interested in birds to a greater or less extent, and the book provides a ready and pleasant means of finding out more about them.

LOAFER HENS EAT ALL THE PROFITS

Do you have a lot of star boarders in your poultry flock that are eating up the profits of your good hens? Unless your flock has been culled this summer, it is safe to say that twenty to thirty percent of your hens are being kept at a loss says E. E. Anderson of the New Mexico Agricultural College.

Don't wait until winter or next spring to try to pick out the loafers. Not only will they continue to consume a large quantity of feed between now and then, but it will be impossible to do a good job of culling at that time.

Culling is a 365 day process. Whenever a loafer shows up, take her out. But the best time to go thru the entire flock systematically is during the summer or early fall. The spring months are the natural laying time of all fowls; even a cull hen will lay then. That makes it impossible to pick out a very large percentage of the culls. It is only the good hen that will lay until late summer or early fall, so by going thru the flock at this time of year, the good producers and loafers can be distinguished with a high degree of accuracy.

You may think the price of hens too low to sell now. If so, mark the culls (spiral or celluloid leg bands are good) so they can be identified later on. The main thing is, cull now when you can do a good job of it. Sell when it seems advisable.

OLDHAM AND GOLDEN DRIVE TO ARTESIA

W. B. Oldham and Superintendent Golden drove to Artesia last week and viewed the new Junior High school in that city with the idea of following a similar plan for the new building in Portales. The Artesia school is a one-story structure and the school board of Portales have determined to construct a building of two stories. Other than that the plans and arrangements will be very similar.—Roosevelt County Herald.

NEAPOLITAN JUNKET ICE CREAM

Makes 1 Gallon—Four 1 Quart Moulds

- 4 junket tablets
- 2 quarts milk
- 1 quart double cream
- 2 cupfuls sugar
- Orange gold food color
- Grape green food color
- 2 teaspoonfuls each of orange, almond and vanilla extract.

Warm the milk slightly, add sugar, remove from fire. Divide in 3 separate dishes, flavor each with a different flavor, also tint with different food color. For example: one part may be flavored with orange and tinted with orange gold food color. Another part flavored with almond and tinted with grape green food color. A third may be flavored with vanilla and not tinted.

Dissolve the junket tablets in 3 spoonfuls cold water and turn one third of this into each part of the milk mixture, stirring in quickly. Let set in warm room for twenty minutes until jellied. Freeze each part separately, giving one third of the double cream to each part. As soon as each is frozen, pack into moulds, say a layer of green first, the white next and orange last. Pack moulds on ice until wanted. Nuts and candied fruit may be chopped and either put between the layers or frozen into one part of the cream.

CREAMED FRIED TOMATOES

Cut firm unpeeled tomatoes in rather thick slices. Dip into flour and cook in butter until crisp and brown. Keep warm. Put more butter in frying pan, add flour and blend well. Add milk to make a medium cream sauce. On an individual plate put some of cream sauce and lay on it the slices of fried tomato. Sprinkle with chopped parsley if desired.

TURKISH DELIGHT

- 2 ounces sheet gelatine
- 1 1/2 cups cold water
- 1 cup sugar
- Grated rind 1 orange
- Grated rind 1 lemon
- Juice 1 orange
- Juice 1 lemon
- 1 cup nut meats

Soak gelatine in one-half cup cold water two hours. # STATE HIGHWAY DEPT. PLANS TO IMPROVE THE CAVERN HIGHWAY

SANTA FE, Sept. 9.—The State Highway Commission has announced that a detailed survey would immediately be made of the Carlsbad Cavern Road between Carlsbad and Blue Springs. Plans and estimates are to be prepared providing for grading, drainage structures and gravel surfacing.

This section of road, originally constructed as a graded earth road, is found to be inadequate for present day traffic which has increased during the past two years beyond all expectations. Certain changes will be made in the location of the present road to avoid bad arroyos and flats which in the past have become practically impassable during periods of heavy rainfall.

District Engineer Kelly at Roswell has been advised to proceed with this survey as soon as possible. An engineering crew is expected to begin work within the next two weeks.

THE CHAVES COUNTY COTTON CARNIVAL TO BE HELD OCT. 3 TO 6

Every county in eastern New Mexico has an equal chance with every county in the booth competition at the Chaves County Cotton Carnival which will be held at Roswell October 3, 4, 5, 6. In the past communities in Chaves county have competed with other county exhibits, but this year Chaves county will be barred and the outside counties will compete only with each other. The winning county will receive $50, the second $40, the third $30 and each other entry $10 each. The communities within Chaves county will compete with each other in a different class entirely. It is felt this will stimulate more interest in other counties in placing their agricultural products before the thousands of visitors who will be at the carnival. Every effort is being made to have this a representative showing for all eastern New Mexico.

Last year the paid admission at night only ran to 16,000 and there was no charge during the day. Indications are that the crowd will be much larger this year.

All departments of the carnival are being improved this year. The entertainment features will be better than ever. The Lachman Carson shows with seven rides and fourteen separate shows will be on the grounds for the entire week. The rodeo with $2000 in cash prizes and a great array of special entertainers will be a bigger show than ever. There will be three big parades, and features on each of the four days which it is felt will make one day as attractive as any other.

COTTON PRODUCTION OF SEPT. 1 IS GIVEN AS 14,439,000 BALES

WASHINGTON.—The department of agriculture announced Saturday that a cotton crop of 14,439,000 equivalent 500 pound bales is indicated for this year and that the condition of the crop on September 1 was 60.3 per cent.

The September 1 condition of the crop compares with 56.1 per cent a year ago, 59.6 per cent in 1926 and 56.2 per cent in 1925 indicated in approximate yield of 153.9 pounds per acre compared with 154.5 in 1927; 182.6 in 1926 and 156.3, the ten year average 1917-1926.

On the basis of September 1 reports of abandonment after July 1 the preliminary estimate of total abandonment after July 1 is placed at 3.8 per cent of the 46,695,000 acres in cultivation in the United States on that date, leaving an indicated area of 44,916,000 for harvest.

The condition of the crop on September 1 by states included: Texas 61; New Mexico 89; Arizona 87; California 87.

The indicated production by states in bales included: Texas 5,100,000; New Mexico 80,000; Arizona 133,000; California 149,000; Lower California 95,000.

Cotton of this year's growth ginned prior to September 1 totaled 956,486 bales, counting round bales as half bales, the census bureau announced. This compares with 1,533,577 for 1927 and 698,556 for 1925.

Ginnings prior to September 1 by states included: Arizona 5,812; California 1,271; Texas 842,654.

Cotton prospects are not materially different from a month ago, the crop reporting board said. "The weevil infestation is quite general and severe in most of the belt. In practically the entire coastal plains area and well up into the Piedmont they have punctured a large portion on the small bolls so that in these regions little can be expected beyond the moderate crop of practically mature bolls already set."

COTTON GINNINGS

A total of twenty-seven bales had been ginned by the two Artesia gins up to yesterday afternoon. Carlsbad project gins had turned out a total of 185 bales up to Tuesday noon. Cotton picking operations are expected to be in full swing by the first of next week.

MINOR HUFFMAN IS FIFTY-SEVEN SCHOOL ATTENDING BOY SCOUT BOYS ANSWER CALL TO CONFERENCE IN N. Y. GRIDIRON LAST WEEK

Minor Huffman, area executive for the Boy Scouts of Eastern New Mexico left Monday for Ithaca, New York where he will attend the Boy Scout Executives fifth national training conference to be held at Cornell University, from Sept. 4th to 15th.

Fourteen outstanding commissions of experienced Scout leaders will report the results of a Nation-wide survey of the actual working conditions and problems in more than 600 councils and will endeavor to lay out guiding principles and scout conclusions which will enable Scout councils to more effectively direct and supervise the efforts of more than 200,000 volunteer leaders, whose sacrifice in service is making Scouting a vital force in the lives of 800,000 boys.

This is expected to be the largest training conference ever held in the interest of boys. Practically every Scout council in the United States is sending its executive and in addition many volunteer workers will be present.

ALFALFA WANTS CLEAN GROUND

To avoid the destruction of stands of alfalfa from bacterial wilt in districts where this disease is present, the U. S. Department of Agriculture recommends that new seedlings should not be made on fields that receive surface drainage or flooding from land on which diseased plants are located. The most destructive outbreaks of bacterial wilt, which has caused serious damage in the past three or four years in many alfalfa-growing regions, particularly in the central Mississippi Valley, have occurred in fields where the bacteria from diseased plants were probably conveyed to them by water flowing along the surface of the ground or by temporary flooding. Bacteria may be carried from diseased to healthy plants in a field by the knives of the mower, and possibility of infection in this way may be reduced by mowing the field when the plants are free from dew or rain. Dry fragments of alfalfa stems may carry the bacteria for many months, so disease-infected stems should not be carried to new fields either mixed with uncleaned seed or mixed with rotted refuse from alfalfa hay with manure.

SIGNS ORDERED ON ALL DETOURS

SANTA FE, Sept. 8.—An order was given today to all district engineers of the highway department to survey each district thoroughly and erect signs at all detours where construction is now going on. The order also called for faster service on the erection and removal of temporary signs where washouts or other accidents of similar nature have taken place.

This order was occasioned by change in detours varying with weather conditions. Occasionally, a long detour is necessary when unfavorable conditions are at their worst. In a few days time a much shorter detour may have been constructed by traffic, but the signs will still indicate the longer route. While it will necessitate much more work on the part of highway employees, the service to the public which will result will justify the extra work, it was stated.
