The Continental well has broken loose being drilled to a depth of 6,000 feet and is estimated to produce 100,000 cubic feet of gas a day. The well is in a proven area and is due to the porosity of the East Grimes No. 1 Gypsy Oil Co., located just west of the Continental well. The well has been shut in for a few days. H. T. PIOR SUCCEUMS AFTER A BRIEF ILLNESS IS BURIED HERE SUN.

H. T. Pior, age 73, father of C. C., Ben and Roy Pior of Artesia died here Saturday afternoon at 12:30, following a brief illness. Mr. Pior's death was due to uremic poisoning. He was taken sick at his ranch, twelve miles north-east of Lovington on the 8th and brot here for medical attention on the 10th. Mr. Pior settled on his ranch near Lovington in 1915 and had lived there continuously except a year spent here and a year in Amarillo, Texas. He was well-known both here and in the Lovington section. LOCAL REFINERY TO DONATE OIL FOR THE OILING OF STREETS

The Malco Refineries, Inc., has propositioned the city to furnish oil free to be used in street oiling experimental work. M. E. Baish, plant superintendent said here recently. Seven or eight blocks of experimental work has been undertaken by the city with successful results during the past several months. Streets where two coats of oil have been applied have proved the merit of the proposition, not only in making the surface smoother, but stopping the dust. George Frisch, city manager said here Tuesday that the cold weather would probably hold up further experimental work, in as much as the oil would not spread properly. It is not likely that extensive street improvement will be undertaken until the weather warms up a bit. Miss Lucille Woolridge of Roswell spent a few days here last week visiting her sister, Mrs. A. L. Kite.

EDDY CO. MEDICAL ASSN. REORGANIZED AT MEETING FRIDAY

Reorganize Association In Annual Meet Here—To Hold Next Session In Carlsbad—Discuss Milk Sickness.

The Eddy county medical association was re-organized at a meeting held here Friday evening in the office of Dr. R. K. Hoover. Officers elected for the ensuing year were: Dr. O. E. Puckett, of Carlsbad, president and Dr. R. K. Hoover, Artesia, secretary-treasurer. Following the election of officers the evening was spent in case discussions. Special attention was given to alkali poisoning, a disease which is prevalent at this season of the year. An interesting discussion on the subject was led by Dr. M. B. Cullpepper of Carlsbad. The association agreed to call a monthly meeting, the next session will be held in Carlsbad. Doctors attending Friday evening's meeting here included O. E. Puckett, M. B. Cullpepper, Lad and R. C. Hoover of Carlsbad; R. K. Hoover, C. L. Womack, C. Russell and H. A. Stroup of Artesia. Doctors C. L. Womack of Artesia and Lad Hoover of Carlsbad were the new members added to the association. An Artesia physician corrects us on the use of the word "alkali poison." The correct term is milk sickness, also the disease is commonly known as alkali poison.

RAINFALL GENERAL OVER EASTERN PART OF STATE ON FRIDAY

The biggest rain of the past sixty days fell here Friday evening, amounting to .33 inches, according to measurements of R. W. Bruce, weather observer. The rain grew heavier west and north. Showers fell here intermittently starting at about 5:00 o'clock Friday afternoon and lasting until after 8:00 p. m. While cot was loose in the boll, the wind and rain did little damage.

OIL OUTPUT GAINS OVER UNITED STATES

TULSA, Oklahoma—Daily Average crude petroleum production in the United States last week increased 5,266 barrels to 2,462,130, the Oil and Gas Journal reported Tuesday. Increases in California and Oklahoma fields erased the decline registered in East Texas areas. Production, however still was in line with estimated demand and altho output has increased steadily the past month, it still is not up to recommended allowances. New potential testing in Seminoles accounted for a 9,075 barrel increase to 543,285 in Oklahoma. Improved market demand and seasonal adjustments accounted for a 10,350 barrel increase to 506,150 in California. East Texas was down 8,113 barrels to 411,265, while the midcontinent area dropped 1,846 barrels in a daily average of 1,529,483. Prices remained firm and oil operators attention was drawn to new possible strikes in Southeastern Upshur County, Texas, where a new pool was believed discovered.

GINNINGS REACH A TOTAL OF 8185 BALES

Rains the past week have hindered cotton gathering operations, but despite this fact the six gins of this area have turned out 1,005 bales, since the report last week. Total ginnings for this week of 8,185 bales are just one bale ahead of the corresponding period last year when five gins in north Eddy county ginned 8,184 bales. Various estimates say that approximately 65 to 70 per cent of the cotton has been gathered in this community while the percentage in the Lake Arthur and Cottonwood communities ranged around fifty. Ginnings of this district were divided as follows from computations made up until Tuesday evening: Lake Arthur gin-----662 Cottonwood gin-----1,810 Association gin, Espula-----1,328 Association gin, Artesia-----1,313 Farmers gin, Artesia-----1,754 Association gin, Atoka-----1,318 Total-----8,185

Man Is Shot At Muncy Ranch This Morning

Difficulty Results In a Flesh Wound In Right Arm Of Tenant Farmer No Arrests Have Been Made Yet.

J. R. Bradley, age about 25, a tenant on the Muncy ranch, eight miles northeast of town, received a flesh wound in the right arm as a result of an altercation with J. B. Muncy, near 10:00 a. m. this morning. Trouble between the Bradley brothers, tenants on the Muncy farm and Muncy had been brewing for some two months, it was said here this morning. The trouble is alleged to have started when Muncy financed his tenants and attempted to collect enough rent from the farm to pay back the loan. The difficulty came to a head this morning when Muncy and Bradley fought. Muncy, according to the story told here was getting the best of the fight when two brothers of Bradley appeared on the scene, one with a knife and one with an auto tire pump. Muncy is alleged to have jumped up, grabbed a .32 revolver and fired two or three times at Bradley, only one shot took effect, in Bradley's right arm. Mrs. Muncy said to have interfered at this point and prevented what might have been a fatality. No arrests had been made up to noon today. The preliminary trial will likely be held in justice court here this afternoon.

JR. GRID WARRIORS FINISH REMARKABLE FOOTBALL SEASON

Go Thru Season Of Seven Games Without Defeat Or Tie—Goal Line Of Locals Crossed Only Twice In Season.

In closing the football season at Carlsbad Friday with a 20-0 victory over the Junior Cavemen, the Artesia Juniors established a remarkable record; that of going thru the football season without a single defeat or a single tie. The record is even more unusual when one takes into consideration that in the season just closed the team was composed of first year men with one exception; only one junior had ever played before. The splendid showing made by the locals was due to blocking rather than individual ball carrying. The opposition has a score equal to two touchdowns or 12 points for the whole season. The score of twelve points was made by the Institute Juniors with three regular Artesia linemen out of the game. Ballard and Bullock are each credited with four touchdowns for the season. One touchdown is credited to Williams, B. Jones, C. Champion, Kuykendall and P. Crockett. Extra points were made by Ballard 2, Bullock 1, Bullock to Williams 3; penalty 1. Artesia has made an average of two touchdowns for each of the seven games played. (Continued from first page)

POWER RATES FOR P. V. GINS REDUCED 15 PERCENT SEASON

Agreement on electric rates for Pecos valley gins were reached at Roswell Friday afternoon during a conference between officials of the Southwestern Public Service Company and various Pecos valley gin owners when an emergency reduction of 15 per cent was granted for the present season. The reduction in power rates to Pecos valley gins is for the present season and is in keeping with the policy of the Southwestern Public Service Company to aid in so far as possible the agricultural interests of the area which it serves. Heretofore the matter was under discussion between gin owners of the Pecos valley and officials of the Southwestern Public Service Co. An agreement at this session was not reached and a hearing was set to be held in Roswell on November 16th before the New Mexico state corporation commission. The rates will apply from the beginning to the close of the ginning season, it was announced Friday. This means that Pecos valley gins will receive a rebate of 15 per cent on power bills paid from September on, or from the beginning of the ginning season. The reduction of 15 per cent on power rates to the gins will mean a savings to the gins of 10 cents a bale, it was estimated. Judge I. R. Kelso, president of the Southwestern Public Service Co., told the ginners at the conference that his company was ready and willing at all times to assist in all ways possible the agricultural interests served by the company.

RANGE CONDITIONS GOOD—SOME CATTLE ARE NOW MOVING

Range conditions are reported good over the state according to a report recently issued by the New Mexico Livestock and Crop Service. Demand for livestock over the state continues to be fair with both cattle and sheep moving to market. An unusual number of lambs will be fed thru the winter for the spring market, estimates show. Particularly is this true in the Pecos valley, where feed appears to be plentiful. Cows are selling for around $30.00 each, steers for $20.00 to $25.00 and calves from $15.00 to $20.00.

AUTO LICENSE SELLING

Several 1932 auto license plates have made their appearance here as the season gets under full swing. Lujan, head of the motor vehicle department has positively stated there will be no extension after December 31st.

ENGRAVING—THE ADVOCATE

Red Cross Roll Call Is Deferred Till Friday

House To House Canvass To Be Made In Roll Call—To Maintain Two Booths—Small Contributions Go To Chest.

Mrs. Albert Richards, Red Cross roll call chairman announced this morning that the annual roll call, which was scheduled to have started this morning has been deferred until tomorrow morning. A sufficient number of volunteers have been secured to make a house to house canvass of the entire town. A contribution box will be maintained at the Majestic theatre Saturday night and at the post office Friday and Saturday. It will no doubt interest the public to know that all money under $100 will remain in the Artesia community. Children and adults will have the privilege of making a contribution regardless of the amount. The Red Cross organization has made a special concession of small contributions in order to aid the Community Chest. The annual Red Cross roll call started here this morning under the supervision of eight ladies, who will canvass the business district and maintain a booth at the Majestic Theatre Saturday evening and a booth at the post office until the roll call is completed. A booth was also maintained at the theatre last night. Ray Bartlett is local chairman of the Artesia Red Cross chapter and Mrs. Albert Richards is roll call chairman. It is hardly necessary to call attention to the work the Red Cross is doing or has done, as practically every one is acquainted with the operations of this humane organization. The Red Cross would respond to Artesia's appeal in the event of disaster, just as it has responded to thousands of other calls. The public may be interested to know that fifty cents of every dollar secured here during the membership campaign is placed in the First National Bank for use in the local relief work. If you contribute more than $1.00 which is a membership fee every penny secured above fifty cents will remain in the Artesia community. The fifty cents thus secured for a membership or for larger contributions will be forwarded to the national headquarters to be used in national relief work.

While other tests are likely, future plans of the Union Sulphur Co., are not known.

WOMENS CLUB HEARS GIRL SCOUT PROGRAM YESTERDAY P. M.

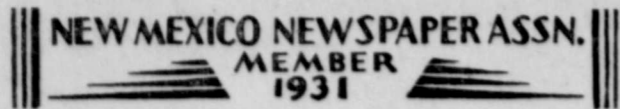

The program put on by the four troops of Scouts at the club meeting on yesterday afternoon gave many a better insight into the work of the organization and the importance of this great organization in character building. The regular meeting of the club was held in the health room. At the last meeting it was decided to have regular round table discussions. At this meeting Mrs. J. F. Lowry gave the first, a splendid talk on "International Relations." Lack of time forbade a discussion and the club adjourned to the auditorium where the Scout program was given. After the scouts had entered and arranged themselves in formation, the Scout Commissioner, Mrs. Rex Westley, gave a talk upon the work of the organization, which is fostered by the club. The program, which followed was directed by the leaders, Miss LeVon Brown and Miss Mary Woods. The salute to the flag was given, Clementine Cobble, the bugler, playing taps. The Scout oath was recited, a very attractive Indian dance was put on by a band of the members of different troops, and a pretty Mexican song was rendered by three young Mexican girls. Be on the level and you are not likely to go down hill.

Nobody loves a good loser so much as when he's just lost to them.

If you have ceased to smile, you have lost out in the game of life, no matter what your bank account may be.

Don't you know that these calamity howlers who have been preaching hard times for twenty years are feeling good now.

One of the best pieces of fiction during the current month was the statement by Secretary Wilbur that the federal oil regulations had brot prosperity to the oil industry.

The worst story of the depression was told to the Mosquero Developer by a man who stopped in to tell us to change the address of his paper, "I had to send my wife back to her folks," he said, "and put my kids in the orphan's home—and on top of it all I blamed near lost my car."

Fred Ruiz brings up an important issue in the Rio Grande Farmer:

"Just how many apples did Adam and Eve eat in the Garden of Eden? Was only one apple eaten, or were there 10? For instance: Eve ate, and Adam too, and ate and too make 10. No, there were more than 10 for Eve eight, and Adam eight, total 16. No, that must be wrong, for Eve 8, and Adam 82, total 90. But this is still underestimated, for if Eve 81, and Adam 812, the total would be 893. Further, Eve 914 herself, and Adam 8124 Eve, there the total was 8933."

THE BETTER WAY

It is better to prevent a crime than to punish someone for having committed it. And, on the same principle, it is better to enforce a few basic laws than to pass new and restrictive laws which are unenforceable, and serve only to make law-breakers of otherwise law-abiding citizens.

This is a fact of which we seem to have lost sight in our passion for passing laws. Probably no other civilized people are bound by so many legal restrictions as we are—and it is certain that no other civilized people are plagued by so much crime, or have so conspicuously failed in apprehending and convicting criminals. That is something legislators and voters might take into account when the time for consideration of new laws comes again.

THE PUBLIC DANCE HALL

Public dance halls do not appear to have improved their conduct, even under the regime of prohibition. They have been the objects of attacks in various grand jury reports. One report declares that they are a public nuisance and conduct displayed at dances in this community leads one to the conclusion that the report must be right. It is certain that those who attempt to sponsor such forms of entertainment will have to clean house or the officers of the law will do it for them.

Discounting the alleged immoral effect on the young people, all arguments to the contrary notwithstanding, those who attend the public dance must look to their personal safety. Three officers supervising two dances held here Saturday evening were not able to protect the attendants from injury. One man was seriously cut, despite official supervision.

SOMETHING SHOULD BE DONE ABOUT IT

The Chamber of Commerce bulletin calls attention to the dirty, trashy appearance of Main street on Sunday mornings. Yes, something should be done about it. Says the bulletin:

"Have you ever noticed on Sunday morning how dirty and mussy our Main street looks. This is due to the tremendous amount of business our stores do on Saturday night.

But it seems that all purchasers go out of the stores and throw paper hand bills, banana peels, orange peels, etc., on the sidewalk and in the gutter and the next day being Sunday our street cleaning department is not functioning, so this refuse must lay there all day unless the wind picks it up and blows it somewhere else.

This is especially noticeable on Sunday because there are not many cars on the street.

It certainly gives a bad appearance to our town. Something ought to be done about it."

A TEST OF THE LEAGUE

Most people agree that the League of Nations is undergoing the most strenuous test in its history, with fighting going on in Manchuria, despite repeated warnings that war must cease between the Japs and Chinese.

There are two ways open to the League to settle the dispute as the last resort, one is an economic boycott and the other is to call out the navies and armies of every nation represented in the League. In that event might would probably make right, but would the respective nations obey by calling out the navies and armies? If the United States were a member would the people insist that force be used to insure peace. These are some of the questions that have been puzzling the League of Nations officials. If the League is successful whether by force or otherwise of enforcing its mandates, we may hope for world peace.

There are those who do not believe an economic boycott would help, but they have not taken into consideration the enormous cost of the modern warfare. It does take money and lots of it to fight the modern way. Neither one of contending armies could carry on long if money could not be borrowed. While the United States, is not a member of the League, her sympathies are with the League. We are today the richest nation on the face of the globe and with the aid of England and France could probably control the finances of the world. It would be largely up to the United States to aid in financing contending armies, if the struggle continued. In other words, on whether or not we would help to finance the warring nations would depend the effectiveness of the economic boycott.

HENS EAT ONLY A CUPFUL FEED A DAY

GRAY SUMMIT, Missouri—"A hen eats only one cupful of feed each day and of that cupful only one-fourth goes into the egg she lays," that's the report of feeding experts who have just completed feeding tests on 8,050 hens at the experimental farm of Purina Mills.

Chickens used in the test were standard bred hens, such as may be found on most farms. The scientists first sought to determine how much feed one hen ate each day. Then they set out to learn just how much of that feed went into the making of an egg. Once these men learned it was only a quarter of a cupful of feed that went into the making of an egg—just an ordinary coffee cup filled half full—they no longer marvelled that feed had such an influence on egg production.

Body maintenance takes most of the cupful. First the hen takes care of her body, replacing worn tissues, building feathers, etc. Nature made her that way. Then with the last quarter of a cup she makes eggs—if that quarter cupful is right. If there's anything lacking or some one thing not just right—she quits laying.

Part of that quarter cupful, reports the experts, is grain and grain of it mashes. The grain develops the yolk of the egg, and the white and part of the shell come from the mash.

If a surplus of grain is fed, it is stored as body fat. Later, if the grain ration becomes shy, she draws on this stored fat for yolk making materials.

But white and shell material, scientists have found, is not stored in appreciable amounts. It must be supplied each day in the mash feed. If the mash ration is shy, there will be no white and shell for tomorrow's eggs.

"These experiments show that feed is really the limiting factor in egg production," says C. S. Johnson, head of the Poultry Department of Purina Mills. "We know a hen can store surplus grain and later, if the grain ration is shortened, draw from the storage the materials needed for yolk development. But not so for whites and shells. These are built from the laying mash she eats each day. There is little storage."

"Of course no one uses a cup as a feed measure. But in considering a poultry ration, it's wiser to regard it from the cup standpoint than figuring on the basis of 100 pounds. Every cupful must be perfect—every cupful must be alike. It must contain every necessary thing for making eggs. That's why hand mixing of laying mash is a risky job.

"In hand mixing, the entire mix might contain all necessary ingredients but every cupful won't be mixed evenly until just alike. Thus one hen might get a cupful containing more of one ingredient than she needs; while another hen would get a cupful lacking in that ingredient. Too, the cupful a hen gets today might have enough of one ingredient for four eggs and tomorrow's cupful might have none at all. As white and shell materials aren't stored a lot of egg making material is wasted in the first cupful and lacking in the second.

"The one way of making sure of each day's cupful containing the materials needed for egg making," concludes Mr. Johnson, "is to feed a mash made of the proper proportions, and that have been machine mixed over and over."

BACK THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE THIS YEAR

You may have to do without a new suit of clothes this year, but don't withhold that check for your chamber of commerce dues. The house may need a new coat of paint, or you may have planned to get a new car, or maybe you will have to have a fight with "friend wife" about a new fur coat, but first of all mail that check to support the enterprise of your fellow citizens and keep yourself in good standing in your community.

"Well, what's the use? What's the chamber of commerce ever done for ME?" That is the common excuse given by every old skinflint in the world for not supporting his fellow-citizens in their efforts to make their town a better place in which to live.

Perhaps your local body hasn't done much. Perhaps it couldn't do anything because it was hamstrung by the indifference, if not the active opposition, of some of its "best citizens."

There is one thing dead certain, and you can check up on this and prove it for yourself. When you see a town that is absolutely dead, so dead that the crows are flying around over it to pick its bones, you will see a town which has no chamber of commerce. You will see a town where the spirit of progress and enterprise has departed, and it is "every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost."

No town ever got anywhere like that. The towns making progress and getting anywhere, are the towns where all the enterprising citizens are standing together, as one man, with their shoulders to the wheel, pushing with all their might. It can't be done any other way. In these days of keen competition, the community has got to fight to win, just as does the individual in the bitter game of life.

as the boys "overthere" used to say. Just try that formula and see how much more you'll get out of life, and how quickly the "depression will vanish from your town."—Texas Commercial News.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE—WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rinin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly sweet and buoyant and full of sunshine. For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas blasts up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul, skin often breaks out in blemishes. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is poisoned.

It takes those good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely. "But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills. Look for the name Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Request a substitute. 25c at all stores. © 1931 C. M. Co.

SICK HEADACHE From Constipation

HERE is a purely vegetable medicine which has benefited thousands of men, women and children, and which you should try when troubled with constipation, indigestion, or biliousness. Mr. H. H. Rogillo, of Lake Charles, La., writes: "When I let myself get constipated, I feel dull and sluggish and all out of sorts, not equal to my work. When one has this feeling it is time to take something before he feels worse. I certainly have found Black-Draught quick to relieve. I used to have severe sick headaches and suffer a great deal. I found this came from constipation, and that Black-Draught would correct it. That is why I began using THE DRAUGHT'S."

1000 CARP ARE TAKEN FROM LAKE NEAR DEXTER

More than 750,000 small carp were taken during the past week from Lake Van east of Dexter and placed in a small hatchery for future fish food, officials of the federal bureau of fisheries announced Friday.

These fish will later be used for hatchery purposes and will be sent to the hatchery as a series of ponds now under construction have been completed.

Work of gathering these fish has been a big job and the men have had the assistance of state officials. Two big fish have been accomplished in the removal of these carp. Lake Van has been relieved of just this one of game fish enemies and a problem for the federal government always a large item of expense has been solved.

WATCH OUT FOR ALKALI POISON

Local physicians have issued a warning to be on the look out for alkali poison, which is prevalent in this section at this seasonal time of the year. Last year one of the community from alkali poisoning to drinking cow's milk. Others members of the community were sick from the effects of the poisoning. Alkali poisoning is caused many times by milk cows eating goldrod shortly after frost occurs.

LOCALS

YOUR NEWSPAPER

A town or community may be able to cover up the evidences of its decay and backwardness to all local appearances, but there is one thing that will let the cat out of the bag in spite of everything that can be done about it. The newspaper is the mirror of the community, and if the town is dead, its gaunt, grinning skeleton will stare out at you from every column from the banner headline on the front page to the last boiler-plate "filler!"

That does not mean that the newspaper is dead. Far from it. Some of the liveliest newspapers in the country are published in towns that are not entitled to any kind of a news medium whatever. But that condition does not exist for long because a newspaper is a business enterprise as well as anything else, and if it is run at a loss, in time, it too, will of necessity fail. And a newspaper cannot run without advertising patronage.

The cost of news production is probably higher now than at any other time in the history of journalism, higher because more is demanded. Whether a newspaper is paying out or not, it must give news.

Many people think if a newspaper has a large number of subscribers it is a paying proposition. But such is not the case. Circulation is a costly feature of the business. If an editor can secure enough out of his circulation to maintain the cost of keeping it, of clerical work and collections and securing and maintaining the business, he is lucky. There is no profit in that branch of the business whatever.

So it takes advertising to make a newspaper. The cleanest and newest newspaper possible without ads denotes a dead town. If the local business people are not liberally represented in the advertising columns of the local newspaper, it is a reflection on the enterprise and progress of the community.

A merchant pays his merchandise bills because he wants to stay in business and to do so he must maintain a good credit rating with the broker and the manufacturer. He pays his rent so he will not be thrown out of his building. He pays his light and water and telephone so his utilities service will not be cut off.

But he keeps up his advertising for the simple reason that it is good business to do so. He knows that he must have a constant turn-over of merchandise, that styles are constantly changing, that new goods must come in, whether the old is sold or not, that his profits will dwindle unless a constant volume is maintained, and he knows that nothing but continual, practical advertising will keep his business moving and enable him to show a profit at the end of the year. So the local newspaper filled with ads of all local business concerns reflects the image of a live and growing town.

LAST HEATH HEN IS BELIEVED DEAD IS CALLED MARTYR

WASHINGTON, D. C. — "The last heath hen on earth has not been seen since May 9 and there is strong probability that this once numerous species has finally gone to absolute extinction," Prof. Alfred O. Gross, who for a number of years has issued all official reports on the heath hen, announced recently in a statement emphasizing the importance to wild-life research of the annual American game conference, which will be held at Hotel Pennsylvania, New York City, on December 1 and 2, under the auspices of the American Game Association.

Professor Gross, who will speak at the conference, said that never before has so much time elapsed without the bird being glimpsed by attendants at Martha's Vineyard Island, Massachusetts, where final efforts were made to save the heath hen race and where for nearly four years the last survivor existed alone.

If the scientist's fears are correct, metal leg bands which he placed on the bird during his survey in May should help investigators learn how the heath hen cock met its fate.

Gross described the heath hen as "the outstanding wild life martyr of all time." He said that the wide publicity given the "last bird" has fired the imagination and aroused public interest in conservation as nothing else ever did.

"The going of the heath hen has awakened sportsmen to the fact that other game birds will be in danger if we continue as we have in the past. Because of this awakening game research has splendid support in America today."

"Had we known 50 years ago what we know today about diseases and parasites, methods of rearing grouse in captivity and various important facts concerning the biology of the grouse, the heath hen would undoubtedly have been saved from extinction," he said. "As it is, the heath hen has passed on, but in going has saved other species."

Gross declared that, by offering a central clearing house where all the diversified game investigations may be co-ordinated, the annual American game conference has helped research workers to visualize the entire field and enabled them to fit each detail into the mosaic of the larger problem.

The scientist is associated with Bowdoin College, at Brunswick, Maine.

PIONEER PARTY

A company of pioneers reveled in old days, old costumes and reminiscences at a pioneer party at the home of Mrs. Laura Welch last evening. An old fashioned lantern lighted the way into the Welch home, the first residence on West Main Street, where the pioneers assembl'd and many symbols were there to recall the old days when Artesia was young. A test revealed that only two were disqualified from eating the pioneer fare, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kerr, who were consoled with infant food and toys. A sumptuous supper in two courses was served by the hostess with the assistance of Mmes. Effie Wingfield and D. E. Buckles.

Judge Jackson paid fitting tribute to Mrs. J. H. Bruce, the oldest pioneer present, who came to Artesia in 1898, and the little lady responded with some reminiscences of those early days. The big surprise of the evening was a mock wedding, the bride and groom being Judge and Mrs. G. U. McCrary, the first couple to be married in Artesia. S. W. Gilbert impersonated Rev. Gore, the officiating minister, and the couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Owen McClay, representing the best man and bridesmaid. The bride wore a beautiful white wedding gown with a filmy veil and the groom was handsome in the conventional black. No detail was omitted even to the kissing of the bride by the groom.

A game of making sentences about Artesia, using the letters in the name brot out some clever results and making words from the letters in pioneer kept the nimble wits busy to finish on time, the greatest number achieved being twenty-eight before time was called. The most absorbing game of the evening was the picture gallery, in which it was almost necessary to resort to the clairvoyance to identify in the grotesquely garbed, but handsome pioneers present, the originals of the photographs of yesteryear. Many quaint costumes were displayed and lent much interest to this very successful party, which was enjoyed by the following: Messrs. and Mmes. D. E. Buckles, Gilbert, J. H. Jackson, W. E. Kerr, R. G. Knoedler, C. E. Mann, McCrary, Russell, C. Bert Smith, H. A. Stroup, Rex Wheatley, Mrs. Lydia Bruce, Mrs. Effie Wingfield and Miss Ella Bauslin.

SCHNOOR-DAVIES

Announcements have been received by Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Schnoor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Neva Mary, to Mr. Emlynn Davies on Sunday, the 15th at half past three o'clock. The marriage occurred at the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. T. E. Anthony, at Gibson, the Rev. Harry Stagg, pastor of the First Baptist church of Gallup performing the ceremony. Mrs. Elmo Lowell, sister of the bride was matron of honor and Mr. Lowell, best man.

The bride the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Schnoor, was born and brought up in Artesia. Mr. Davies is from Maestig, Wales, but is located at present at Gibson. The young people have gone to housekeeping in apartments at the home of Mrs. Anthony, where they will be at home to their friends.

Following is a list of the guests at the wedding: Messrs. and Mmes. Luther Kitchell, Joe Richards, Elmo Lowell and daughter, Doris June, Starg, Mrs. L. O. Hiles, Mrs. Mary Bennett, Miss Vivian Harris and William Jones.

DINNER BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Williams were hosts at a dinner-bridge on Tuesday evening. The dinner was served at seven o'clock and was in two courses. Nasturtiums were used as favors in the second course. High score for the ladies was won by Mrs. J. R. Attebery, and for the gentlemen, by C. R. Blocker. Low score for ladies went to Mrs. Ben Morgan and low score for gentlemen, to Frank Seale. Present were Messrs. and Mmes. L. B. Feather, Fred Cole, Wm. Linell, Lewis Story, Charley Martin, C. R. Blocker, Attebery, Ben Morgan, Aubrey Watson, Seale, Albert Richards and Joe Hamann and the hosts.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ORGANIZED

PICKED UP ON MAIN

There is no way of appealing to some people. They are untouchable to any sort of appeal as the federal agent was to the overtures of Al Capone. They have got nothing except a free wheeling conscience and very little of that.

Speaking of laziness, we know of a man so lazy that he waits for his car to run over a bump to knock the ashes from his cigar.

Even the saloon keepers over in Jaurez are feeling the depression. They say its too cold for beer and too hot to drink whiskey.

Its the little things that bother us nowadays—you can sit on a mountain, but not on a tack. Then there is the case of the ambitious young man who started on a shoe string and got slapped.

Pearl Morris says it is all bosh about the modern fellows being so far ahead of the ancients. There was Solomon, he says that supported 1,000 wives and the average man can't support one.

Contribute 100 Per Cent. An interesting part of the welfare committee report is that the employes of business firms here have donated 100 per cent to the Community Chest. All persons gainfully employed were asked to contribute the proceeds of one day's wages to community welfare work and they have cheerfully complied with the request 100 per cent. So far as known, this community is the first in the state to adopt the unique policy of asking all employed to contribute toward the support of the welfare work. The plan has been emulated by a number of other communities.

The committee was not able to see every individual in the community, but these persons will be asked to aid next spring if more money is needed. Approximately $1,500 was raised for charity.

Borrowing Money

The greatest nations of the world borrow money; likewise the greatest corporations, no matter how wealthy, borrow. The business of the world is transacted upon credit. Credit is based upon resources which stand as collateral; it is strengthened by character. But finally it is controlled by earning power. Even if a borrower has ample assets to secure a large loan, but cannot make a profit on the money borrowed, loans which seem moderate in amount may seriously handicap or even wipe out those resources. For borrowed money costs money; the wages of capital is interest. And wages must produce more than their cost. Too easy credit has handicapped or broken down many businesses which had prosperous beginnings. Complete statements which reflect earning capacity as well as assets are necessary to base loan policies as applied to business or to individuals.

A. A. A. AND U. S. BUREAU GIVE TIP TO AUTOISTS

The American Automobile Association has issued a warning to motorists to clean and tighten cooling systems before putting in anti-freeze solutions.

The U. S. Bureau of Standards has gone a step farther in helping motorists to avoid expensive repair bills this winter and after extensive research has formulated the following nine points for guidance in selecting the anti-freeze:

- 1-Whatever compound is used should give complete protection.
- 2-It should not boil away.
- 3-It must not do any damage to the cooling system.
- 4-It should not heat up the motor.
- 5-It should not affect the paint or varnish of the car.
- 6-It should be odorless.
- 7-It should be non-inflammable.
- 8-It should not become viscous at low temperatures nor decompose at high temperatures.
- 9-It should never deteriorate.

DISMISS INDICTMENTS ON HOPE BANK HEAD

Federal indictments against Hugh M. Gage, former well-known banker and cattleman in connection with the failure of the First National Bank of Hope eight years ago, were dismissed last week by Federal Judge Colin Nebrett, according to word received at Roswell Thursday.

After the Hope bank closed its doors in 1923, Gage, president of the bank left immediately for Old Mexico and could not be prosecuted. It is expected that he will return to this state now, though no definite word has been received. No charges may be filed against him involving the same matter.—Roswell Dispatch.

NO PROTESTS ON THE CONSERVANCY DISTRICT

G. R. Brainard, member of the board of commissioners of the Pecos Valley Artesian Conservancy District informs us there were no protests entered at the Artesia meeting held Friday in the First National Bank. Property owners in the district were given an opportunity to protest being included in the district, but no protests were made. Several came to make inquiries, however. There were no protests entered anywhere.

BUSINESS LOOKING UP

KANSAS CITY, Missouri—Million dollar rains have come to the southwest bringing increased business confidence. On the heels of price upturns in wheat, cotton and oil which, despite reactions, continue definitely reassuring they have swelled a reborn spirit of optimism, stimulated employment and encouraged merchants.

The territory which produces a large share of the wheat, oil and cotton of the nation, its prosperity therefore affecting the basic foodstuffs, clothing and transportation industries, celebrated widely two weeks ago the coming of 85 cent oil, 50 cent wheat and stronger cotton prices. Business commentators saw in them first evidence of the groundswell of a new prosperity.

The rains, while not entirely a blessing, have replenished water supplies, renewed winter grazing and assured winter wheat crops. They fell in Kansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Texas and evidence of the plentitude of moisture is seen in the fact that, at Alva, in northwestern Oklahoma, the fall was 4.66 inches in 36 hours.

HOW ONE WOMAN LOST 10 LBS. IN A WEEK

Mrs. Betty Luedeke of Dayton, writes: "I am using Kruschen to reduce weight—I lost 10 pounds in one week and cannot say too much to recommend it." To take off fat easily, safely and quickly take one half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water every morning before breakfast—an 85 cent bottle lasts 4 weeks—Get it at any drug store in America. If this first bottle fails to convince you this is the easiest, safest and surest way to lose fat—money back.

"You needn't tell me—I know Camel is the fresh cigarette!"

because they're fresh CAMELS are never parched or toasted!

FOLKS who smoke really fresh cigarettes made from choice sun-ripened tobaccos never have to give a thought to their throats. That's because such fresh cigarettes retain natural moisture—and are gratefully smooth, cool, throat-friendly, mild. Camels are the fresh cigarette—everyone knows that now—they're blended from the finest Turkish and mild Domestic tobaccos that money and skill can buy. We would never dream of parching or toasting these choice sun-ripened tobaccos—that would only drive off or destroy the natural moisture that makes Camels fresh in nature's own mild way. The Camel Humidor Pack protects a fine cigarette fresh with natural moisture—it could do little or nothing to freshen a cigarette that is dried-out or factory-stale. If you smoke for pleasure, see for yourself what freshness means in mildness and flavor—switch to Camels for just one day—then leave them, if you can!

WOMAN'S CLUB HEARS—

A number of girls, who had passed their tenderfoot tests were initiated into the organization, Miss Woods performing the ceremony of investiture. The company, including club members and numerous visitors, then adjourned to the Scout hut on West Main street where the ceremony of christening and dedicating the Scout hut took place.

The hut, just east of Dunn's garage, was the scene of a most impressive ceremony, performed at the fine stone chimney, the center of all activities. Clementine Cobble broke a bottle of pop on the fireplace, with the words, "I dub thee Puye," an Indian word meaning the "place of little cottontails." The dedication ceremony was one of deep significance and most impressive. Following the old Druid custom of bearing fagots for the sacred fire, ten maids of the troop brot a gift to the hearth at Puye, which they presented with appropriate verse. The gifts were the priceless qualities of honor, loyalty, strength, obedience, kindness, love of beauty, laughter, thrift of hope, of ambition and love. And the ceremony closed with the meaningful verse:

"So as from out the English woods Our fathers came bearing a sacred flame, So do we bless this hearth. May all who enter here bring some gift of themselves, Strength, hope, and love, laughter and joy of living; And may each in leaving bear away a blessing, Knowing in her heart that it was good to have been here at Puye."

C. B. FRENCH WINS HONORS

Friends of the French family here will be interested in the following from the Southeastern, the official organ of the State Teachers' College at Durant, Oklahoma. Mr. French, who is the oldest son of Mrs. French and a former resident of this section, has been an instructor of industrial arts at the Oklahoma College for a number of years.

C. B. French, professor of industrial arts at Southeastern has been placed on the dean's list of distinguished students for his work at Oklahoma A. and M. College last year, according to an announcement by President H. G. Bennett.

Students placed on the list must have made an average of 85 to 92 per cent inclusive or higher and must have never received any incomplete, conditional or failing grade. Mr. French received his Master of Arts degree from the Stillwater institution last year. He was one of the few students in the school to make straight A's in all of his work for the year.

Invention Explained

A paragoner discovers that Benjamin Franklin invented not only the lightning rod, but the harmonica. That explains much. Having invented the harmonica first, he knew he'd need a rod right away to escape being struck by lightning, so then he invented that, too.—Detroit News.

Old Irish Pastime

Hurling is an old Irish game somewhat similar to hockey. A team consists of seven backs and eight forwards. The field is 140 yards in length and the goals have cross bars. A shot under the bar is a goal, while a shot over the bar is a third of a goal, counting one point. Two periods of 30 minutes each constitute a game. The hurling sticks used are shorter and thicker than hockey sticks and have flat-bottomed blades.

Poultry Raising

The chicken and the turkey, which formerly ran wild over the range or farm, are being raised now by more scientific methods, and as a result the poultry supply of today is a much improved product as compared to that of comparatively a few years ago.

LONG WINS SKIRMISH OVER GOVERNORSHIP

SHREVEPORT, Louisiana — H. P. Long yesterday won the first legal skirmish in his battle to retain the governorship against the challenge of Dr. Paul N. Cyr, his elected lieutenant governor.

The Caddo district court ordered dismissal of Dr. Cyr's ouster suit, which was directed against Long on the contention that Long automatically vacated the governor's chair when he certified his election to the United States senate last spring.

Cyr alleged that Long was already exercising prerogatives as senator and that the state constitution prohibits a member of congress from holding a state office but Judge T. F. Bell upheld Long's motion to dismiss on grounds of "no cause of action," based upon the plea that Long had not yet taken his seat in the senate.
