From DeLeon, Texas, comes Don Heathington, 25, single, 190 pounds, 6 feet 5. Baylor is his alma mater. One of the five men to ever letter four years in basketball; carried his team to three straight Southwest Conference championships in four years. Twice named all National Collegiate Athletic Association forward in the national playoffs and in 1949 the most valuable player. "Greatest player I ever coached," says Bill Henderson of Baylor. Carded a 13-point game average for four years, scored 1147 points in college and set a single game record of 40 points in one game. Three times unanimous all conference forward, Don is playing his second year with the Travelers. At his best when the going is tough. Excellent boardman. Dead shot, either set or moving.

Curtis Wells of Clovis, a junior, was the lone New Mexican among the 30 varsity football lettermen at Texas Western College, El Paso. Coach Mike Brumbelow listed nine seniors, five juniors, eight sophomores, and eight freshmen as winning "Ts."

For three members of the squad it was their third varsity letter. These were Co-Captain J. D. Parridge, Gerald Campbell and Bud Roland.

Hunting Season Accidents Kill One, Wound 3

The official accident score for the 1951 big game hunting season stands at one killed, three wounded and one very near miss.

The sole fatality occurred near Springer when a woman slipped and fell while running with a loaded rifle. The gun fired and the bullet struck another woman in the back. She died shortly afterward in the Springer hospital.

One man hunting near Hondo was struck in the neck by a spent bullet from an unseen gun. Another hunter lost a piece of his nose when his gun went off while he was riding in the rear of a jouncing pickup. The third wounded party was a 12-year-old boy who accidentally shot a toe off while deer hunting in the Animas Mountains.

The near miss reported happened in the Sacramento Mountains near Alamogordo. A deer hunter was contentedly puffing away on his pipe when someone shot the bowl off.

In addition, several cases were reported to department fieldmen where hunters took one final look to make sure of their quarry before squeezing the trigger—and saved a life.

Commenting on this year's record, State Game Warden Elliott S. Barker said: "The record is a great improvement over last year. We congratulate the sportsmen for their fine cooperation; however, it is not worthy that three of the four accidents, including the fatality, would have been avoided had proper care with loaded firearms been exercised."

The department wishes to take this opportunity to thank the newspapers, the radio stations, the sportsmen's associations and all the other agencies and individuals who cooperated with us in our recent hunting safety campaign.

Without this invaluable assistance, I am sure we would not have lowered our deplorable accident rate as we did this year. Let's start right now preparing to do even better next season; let's all strive for a perfectly clean slate after next year's hunt!"

Fines A verage $68— Thirty-nine game law violators felt the pinch of inflation last month when they paid out an average of $68.36 in fines and costs, thereby enriching the school fund by a total of $2,666.35.

The October prosecution report shows that only twelve lawbreakers paid the minimum twenty-five dollars plus costs. Several "donations" in the fifty and hundred dollar brackets pushed the average figure almost double the 1950 average of $38.39.

High point men of the month were Dino Mutton, Joe Malovich and Rudy Profozi, all of Raton. Each of the three paid $250, plus $5 court costs for illegal possession of deer meat.

The higher cost of lawbreaking reflects a recent directive issued

Scored 1000 Points for Baylor

Bill Johnson is 24, married, has a son and a daughter. Another Baylor University man along with Heathington, his outstanding asset is his defense ability, altho he scored over 1000 points while playing for Baylor. Was named to the all-college tourney team in 1949, Western National Collegiate Athletic Association team in 1948, all Mid-West tourney team in 1949 and twice all-conference while at Baylor.

Quick thinking, nimble on his feet, along with his defensive ability and value as a playmaker, makes him hard to stop. Averages nine points a game. Playing second year on Travelers. Bill calls Roswell his home. In the Chaves capital, he is sales manager of Burdett Motor, Packard agent and is one of the bigger cogs in the Traveler machine. Bill is 6 feet 2 inches tall, weighs 170 pounds.

Bird Hunters Fined For 'Oversize' Take

Exceeding the bag limit on pheasant and quail cost three hunters, two from Carlsbad, one from Artesia, $53.50 each in fines in the court of J. D. Josey, Sr., justice of the peace.

The cases were heard Saturday night. Cottonwood was the scene of the hunting expedition.

In other cases, reported on Tuesday: Two negro youths, 20 years old, were fined $40 each on petty larceny charges in connection with picking up junk iron without the owner's consent; and a motorist was assessed a $14 fine for passing in a no-passing zone.

The silliest argument current is that wrangle between baseball magnates over who is 1951's top rookie. Don't they realize contract time is just around the corner?

Incomplete returns for the month of November, 1951, show a similar high average cost for lawbreaking. During the eleven-day big game season alone, better than one hundred violators paid out over $7,000.00 in fines. Final returns will be reported shortly.

Grosbeek Hardy Canadian Bird

Evening Grosbeaks travel in little flocks of eight or ten birds. Never staying long at any one spot, they come and go at unexpected times. If the feeding is good, they may remain for several days. Then they are off, perhaps not to return for a long time.

Always they are looking for seeds. Their favorites grow on box elders, but they also like the seeds of pine, cottonwood, locust, wild cherry, spruce, birch, maple, ash, dogwood, apple, hawthorn, and cedar. Sometimes, too, they get their meals from poison ivy, Virginia creeper and ragweed.

Artesia Girl Scout Leaders Told How Mexican Excursion Financed

...sells, selling Christmas cards, working at the J. C. store, means the means the means of Mrs. Ray Norton's Troop members' Club meeting Tuesday in the Park School music room, used to raise the $200 each needed for her trip to Mexico next summer.

Although some of the parents had paid their daughter's expenses, each of the girls took it upon themselves to raise the money.

A plane was chartered with 26 aboard for the trip.

The Roswell girls showed slides of the scenes of their trip.

They were of special interest to Troop One, because the girls have been working on the project for two years. The girls are seniors this year and will make the trip this summer.

Mrs. R. L. Cavin met the guests at the door and handed out peanuts. They were used in a "mixer" game where everyone who answered a question with yes or no had to eat a peanut.

After registering the guests received a name tag made out of paper in the shape of bells decorated with a tiny colorful ribbon.

...in January— Mrs. Wayne Adkins, president, announced the January meeting which was to be held in Roswell had been postponed. The association banquet will be held the second week in January.

The program was then turned over to Mrs. Othel Olsson, program chairman. Lights were then dimmed and the candles were lit.

Eight girls from Artesia sang "To the World," "Silent Night" and "Jingle Bells."

Mrs. Ray Norton's troop showed slides explaining each picture.

The music room was decorated for Christmas. On the center table a large Santa Claus had been placed. Hanging in the middle of the room was a pinata filled with candy. A pinata is an old Mexican custom at Christmas time. It is a large paper sack with decorations and it is usually broken when it is time to open the gifts.

A table of Christmas arts and crafts was set up in the corner. On it were displayed some of the gifts the girls will give for Christmas.

Fruit cup cakes ablaze with fire were served to the guests along with coffee.

... Singers— Jean Nickolds, Norma Hicks, Gretchen Petty, Ann Wade, Charlene Morgan, Florence Holman, Rosemary Hutson and Kay Hubbard.

Bowell girls who showed the slides were Betty Ann Hinkle, Paula Wilmot, Rita Danenberg, Elizabeth Yriart, Catherine Carn, Marianne McKnight, Kathleen Campbell, Febe Forster, Rojeanne, and Ruthie Norton.

A "FANTASTIC WEAPON" ON ITS WAY—A U. S. Air Force Martin B-61 Matador (pilotless bomber) shoots into the sky with a roar, black smoke and white heat of its rocket auxiliary thrust. The Matador is under advanced development at the Air Force's missile test center at Cocoa, Fla., and the first squadron to be trained in its field use is soon to be activated. In the tests it is planned to be flown out over the Atlantic Ocean, is tracked by radar stations down range, telemetering information back to the base. Note the black smoke emitted from the tail as the Matador leaves the launching platform.

Employers May Get Extra Tax Slash in 1953

Artesia and other New Mexico employers whose unemployment tax rates are to be reduced in 1952 may get another authorized reduction in 1953.

The reduction authorized by the last legislature for 1952 is aimed at slowing the growth of the state's unemployment compensation trust fund. As of Nov. 15, the fund stood at $28,820,455.24. Tax payments started in 1936, and benefits to unemployed workers in 1938.

A study is now under way to determine the adequacy of the present system—that is, whether the rates can be further reduced or the maximum of $25 weekly payments for 24 weeks can be increased or both.

The study is to be ready for presentation to the Legislature for possible action in 1953. M. F. Miera, Employment Security Commission director, said.

The 1952 tax reduction "should effect a substantial reduction of income to the trust fund. The fund is sufficient at this time to meet any conceivable economic conditions which could occur in the state," commented Fred C. Barron, head of ESC's unemployment insurance division.

Ralph L. Edgel, associate educational director of the Bureau of Business Research of the University of New Mexico, is conducting an economic survey for the present adequacy study.

casting risks, income and rates.

11,048— The rates now being paid by 11,048 affected employers in the state are computed from a maximum of 3.6 per cent of taxable wages—$3,000 per employee annually. The rates fall in one of five brackets depending on tax paid less the number of benefit charges divided by his average payroll.

Most of the employers to benefit from next year's rate reductions, 6,500 of them, fall in the middle tax rate brackets, Barron said.

The reductions will eliminate the present maximum rate of 3.6 per cent and add a new and lower minimum rate of one-tenth of one per cent.

Generally speaking, bracket qualifications will be shifted in a body downward. More specifically, those who under the present set-up would pay 3.6 per cent will pay 2.7 per cent; most of the 2.7 bracket employers will become 1.8; those in the 1.8 bracket will become nine-tenths; the nine-tenths will become three-tenths, and the former minimum, three-tenths, will become one-tenth.

At the close of last year, New Mexico employers had paid into the trust fund in both contributions and penalties for late payment (one per cent per month) a total of $30,692,489.30, plus fund interest which brought the income to $33,139,627.85.

Benefit payments down the years totaled $8,873,733.85 at the end of 1950, leaving a total reserve at that time of $24,265,894.00.

Ridin' the New Mexico Range

Cotton picking is nearing completion in southern regions of the state and well underway in all of the rest, the Dec. 1 report of crop conditions by the Santa Fe Railroad shows. A total of 290,000 bales had been harvested by Nov. 1, although per acre production is down from last year, due to dry summer weather and disease and insect damage.

Births in New Mexico for 1951 to date total 18,409, of which 2032 occurred during October. The totals for the year represent an increase of only five as against the same period last year, when the figure was 1903, James R. Scott, M.D., director of the department of public health, revealed this week.

Carlsbad converted to automatic dial telephones on Dec. 1. Mayor Walker Bryan placed the first call after employees of the company (Southwestern Associated) completed the switch-over in equipment. Earlier in the day, phone officials had been guests at a supper at Riverside Country Club.

Deaths in New Mexico for the year to date total 4328 with the figures for October reading 577. October is the last month for which records are available. Last year's total at the same time was 4511 with 476 of them having occurred in October, according to James R. Scott, M.D., director of public health.

Roselawn—

Mrs. R. A. Thomas, who was in charge of the planning has announced the girls will make popcorn balls for the Carver school students. Sixty popcorn balls will have to be made.

Stage Play—

"The Green Watermelon," a one-act play was presented by four girls from Troop 12 for the rest of their troop. The plot deals with a little boy who steals watermelons from the farmer and the trouble he has over this.

Marian Hives was the mother; Marie Hines, the little boy; Rhea Ann Ellinger, the farmer; and Betty Lou Fairay was the green watermelon.

The girls wrote an invitation to be sent to Troop 27 of Carlsbad inviting them to visit Artesia. Troop 27, with the help of Carlsbad officials, entertained Troop 12 a few weeks ago.

Phyllis Jean George and Mary Lou Foster were invested by troop 16. Sandra Durbin, president, presented the girls with their pins. The two girls recited the Girl Scout laws and promise.

The entire troop formed a circle around the girls and sang, "A Good Girl Scout" and "Day is Done."

The leaders, Mrs. Orval Kiddy and Mrs. Orville Durbin, served cookies and pop.

Guests were Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. Neil Watson, Mrs. L. C. George, Mrs. Karl Foster and Mrs. C. P. Bunch.

Public Service—
Troop 5 spent their second hour of the three they are to spend in public service at the city library, Wednesday after school. Mrs. W. M. Jackson, Jr., assisted with the girls in place of their leader, Mrs. Earl Zeigler, who was ill.

Members learned how to paste in book pockets, book plaquets, date due slips and how to stamp a book with the library stamp.

Mrs. Donald Knorr, librarian, showed the girls who were absent at the first meeting how to check books in and out.

Mrs. Lewis Baker talked to the girls of Troop 10 about cosmetics, and how to use them. She explained to them how to care for their hair and nails. They held an informal discussion after her talk. Mrs. Baker owned her own beauty shop in Ohio before moving to Artesia where she is now in business.

Because of the operetta practice at school the girls will not meet next week.

Making Gifts—
Christmas presents were being made this week by Troops 13, 14, 15, 18, 20, 22 and Mrs. Cas Strykowski's Brownie Troop. Troop 2 made plans for their Christmas party.

Troop 17 held their troop birthday party. Girl Scout pins were presented to Mary Ellen Dresher, Sue Ingram, and Patricia Jones.

The leaders, Mrs. Roy Ingram and Mrs. Ed McCaw, served punch and cupcakes, each with a candle. Annette McClintock was leader for the day for Troop 18. Gwen McCaw and Kathy Feezel brought their toys. Mrs. F. M. McGinty and Mrs. Tom Mayfield, leaders, served home-made gingerbreadmen and Santa Claus with pop to the girls.

Ann Stromberg and Nonny Lamb are the new patrol leaders for Troop 20.

Troop 21 made Christmas cards out of blue construction paper. A design was stenciled on them and then they were sprayed with silver paint. They rehearsed for their investiture ceremony.

Joan Hubbard and Zelda Gray served cookies and Dr. Peppers. Mrs. Paul Coffin and Mrs. Don Mays have registered their troop, now known as Troop 14. Mrs. E. W. Cook served cokes and cookies at their meeting.

Glenda Johnson was leader for the day for Troop 15. Glenda Gillespie served Santa Claus candy bars and cokes.

Rehearse Ceremony—
Mrs. C. L. Withers and Mrs. Martin Sanders troop practiced their investiture ceremony and reviewed the Brownie Story, Susan Kay Walker and Connie Joe Younger served cup cakes and cokes.

Troop 7 put decals on water glasses. The leaders, Mrs. Clyde Champion and Mrs. Vernon Swift, served fudge.

Sharon Crane, Cyketha Aaron and Phoebe Evans were invested by Troop 22. The troop also painted pine cones and other parts of the pine tree.

Candy bars were served by Jane Wicksham.

Troop 3 made invitations for their mothers for their Christmas party. Sandra Gaskin and Durelle Thomas were elected patrol leaders. Names were drawn for the exchange of gifts. A limit of 39 cents was placed on each gift.

Troop 1 is still selling pencils and Christmas wrapping paper to finance their trip to Mexico next summer.

Loco Hills—
The intermediates met Saturday morning to have an outdoor meeting so they could learn the trail signs. They practiced making the signs and learned what each one meant. They studied danger signs and what they mean in their local city, such as slush pits and gas lines.

Sharon Meador was able to attend this meeting. They also played a game, sang songs, and practiced a folk dance.

Senior Girl Scouts met at the club house Tuesday evening with their leader, Mrs. Earl Smith. Mrs. W. A. Hammond coached the girls in the Scouts laws, motto, sign and handshake. They have decided to make miser bags. Janet Hammond is to make one for a pattern.

Jackie Davis is making a money pouch with a trefoil on it to carry the dues in.

Every girl is to make a toy or bring an old one to give a child at Christmas. They will also start painting figurines for Christmas presents.

The Brownie Troop met Wednesday evening. They are making plans to put up posters, bulletin board, and curtains in their club room. They are also learning their laws.

Artesia Buffeted By 72-Mile Wind

Westerly and southwesterly winds with gusts up to 72 miles per hour blew in and around Artesia Tuesday and Wednesday grounding all planes at the local airport and producing some damage, Hazel Flying Service reported.

Part of a hangar belonging to Dr. Ralph Earhart was blown away by the high winds and some damage was done to the large hangar.

Wind velocities up to 61 miles per hour were recorded Tuesday. Initial wind velocity Wednesday was 60 miles per hour; this increased to a high of 72 by 4:30 p. m.

The wind velocities of the two-day period were some of highest ever recorded for winds blowing for any length of time, although gusts up to 70 miles per hour have been known on previous occasions.

The winds were responsible for starting four fires in the vicinity of the Artesia Alfalfa Growers Association gin, north of town in the two-day period.

Plane service from the airport was resumed yesterday.

Maljamar Woman Bruised By Shots From Quail Hunter

That pre-season warning about the dangers of firing on quail near house, which was contained in a story in this newspaper, was well based according to a story from the Maljamar correspondent.

Mrs. Odell O'Neal was hanging washing on a line back of her house. Some hunter fired at quail and some of the shot struck Mrs. O'Neal's left shoulder, causing bruises, but fortunately no serious injuries.

However, "if it had not been for the clothing in front of her, it would have hit her face. She screamed and ran into the house and had to keep her children indoors all day," says the Maljamar writer.

Landsun Offers Happiness Books

Way back in 1917 and '18 when the United States was bending its every energy to the grim business of winning the war—a thoughtful group of people brought into being a greatly appreciated custom which did much to bring a ray of sunshine into the lives of soldiers in training camps. It was the "Smilage Book."

Coupon books which contained tickets admitting the bearer to theatrical performances were given the men by their friends and "Godfathers." Soon the boys began to speak of them as "Smilage Books" because of the entertainment which was thus placed at their disposal.

This Christmas the Landsun Theatre is offering Christmas Coupon Books which are quite like the war-time "Smilage Books." A more appreciated gift could hardly be imagined. Unlike so many "highly perishable" Christmas Gifts, this unique present, which is available in convenient demonstrations, extends its entertainment over weeks and weeks into the New Year.

Here's a rare Christmas Gift, indeed—a gift of real entertainment!

Andrew Jackson was the first territorial governor of Florida, serving in 1821-22.
