POP Manager Charges Simms 'Hypocritical'

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The state GOP campaign manager continued this week to attack Democratic candidate for governor for "twistings and turnings" in Alvin Stockton called for a limiting campaign expenses. Simms, Republican campaign manager, charged John with a "hypocritical appearance" to politics. He said Simms made it clear how he stands on the direct primary system. And he said Simms has adopted a new guise for the purpose of winning labor.

Stockton, Simms' GOP opponent, law limiting campaign expenses would offer better government by making it possible to fight with low funds to campaign office.

Stockton also praised the administration of Republican Gov. Edwin Hanson.

Meanwhile, the GOP candidate lieutenant governor joined the attack on Simms, saying he is isolating himself from the people.

Battiste also hit at his Democratic opponent, saying Joe Montoya was put on the Democratic ticket by Sen. Clinton Anderson.

Anderson's objections in the primary convention.

Stockton said Simms has reversed his stand on the so-called right-to-work bill. Cable said Simms had ignored and pushed the bill in the state legislature, and now no longer supports it.

Battiste, in Albuquerque for the fair, said, "On all controversial points in this campaign Mr. Simms has had someone else speak for him. The result is that he knows where Simms stands. All we know is that he does not want to risk antagonizing the people."

Battiste had earlier argued that Anderson was able "to engineer the entire project" of nominating Joe Montoya, Battiste's opponent for lieutenant governor.

Anderson Charges Eisenhower Did Not Back Project

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Clinton Anderson (D-N.M.) argued today that President Eisenhower gave his support to the Colorado River Storage Project too late to do New Mexico any good.

Democratic State Chairman Tom Hanson, meanwhile, cried "foul" in the case of a Republican speech which prophesied that Adlai Stevenson will shake up the GOP party with a speech he's to make here today.

John Simms, candidate for governor, rounded out a trio of Democratic spokesmen heard over the weekend by defending his views on the Colorado River project.

Anderson said Eisenhower's support of the Colorado project "came at his own people had sought to buy the whole project by leaving New Mexico's units."

Anderson said it was his own name as a ranking member of the state committee of interior and natural affairs, which got the San Juan projects reinstated in the bill, it came before the Senate.

North Eddy Farm Bureau Sets Water Well Metering Talks

A controversial proposal to meter water wells in the Pecos Valley artesian conservancy district will be key subject for discussion when the North Eddy County Farm Bureau meets Wednesday night.

Meeting time will be 7:30 p. m. at the Atoka school Wednesday.

According to Joe Bill Funk of Cottonwood, president of the local representatives of the water conservancy district will discuss their proposal to meter irrigation wells.

The proposal is based on a state engineer's ruling that no more than three feet of water per acre may be pumped from a well in the district in one year.

Members of the conservancy district have charged farmers regularly and almost unanimously violate the ruling, which is designed to conserve water in the Rowell artesian basin.

The proposal, long discussed in the Artesia area, was recently formally stated by Willard Bradshaw, Artesia area representative on the conservancy district's board.

AEC Chairman Tells of Offer To Buy Critical H-Bomb Book

WASHINGTON, (AP)—Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy commission says he offered to buy personally the manuscript of a new book critical of some phases of the U. S. hydrogen bomb project.

"I simply felt I would have been happier if the book had not been published," Strauss said yesterday in confirming a statement by James R. Shepley that the AEC chairman sought to keep the book, titled "The Hydrogen Bomb," from publication.

"Strauss' motives were, of course, of the highest," co-author Shepley said yesterday on an NBC television program. "Certainly he had nothing to conceal. In fact, without him the Soviets and not the United States would have the H-bomb. I could only surmise, therefore, that he was under very great pressure, and that he wished to shield his scientists from public controversy."

Police Hunt Escaped Con To Find Out How He Did It

SANTA FE, (AP)—Police today still were trying to find a 21-year-old man who escaped from the state penitentiary early Sunday morning. Not only do they want the man or general principals, but they'd like to ask him just how he did it.

Byron K. Patterson, serving a 10 to 20 year sentence for jail breaking and grand larceny, broke out early Sunday morning. Police say he used a pole made of overlapping map handles to get out on the prison lawn. How he got from there to freedom they don't know yet.

The man, said by Warden Morris Abram to be unarmed and not dangerous, saved the window of the bathroom in his dormitory, then used his improvised pole to scale the wall of the death house. What happened after that, police aren't certain.

Cites Abuse in Conducting Zwicker Case

WASHINGTON, (AP)—A special Senate investigating committee recommended today that Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy "should be censured" by the Senate.

The six-member committee said McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, had treated the Senate and one of its committees contemptuously. It said further that on another count—his alleged abuse of Brig. Gen. Ralph W. Zwicker, "the senator from Wisconsin," McCarthy, should be censured.

As for three other broad charges considered in nine days of hearings, the committee said it feels they "do not, under all the evidence, justify a resolution of censure."

The Senate will convene in special session Nov. 8 to consider the recommendations.

It will decide then whether to vote censure or noncensure.

Adoption of a censure resolution would amount simply to a public rebuke of McCarthy and would not of itself remove any of his senatorial privileges.

The special committee's report ran to 68 printed pages, a total of around 40,000 words. Much of the text was devoted to a summary of the evidence.

A summary of recommendations said: "For the reasons and on the facts found in this report, the select committee recommends: "That on the charges in the category of 'incidents of contempt of the Senate or a senatorial committee' (Continued on Page 4)

Senior High Band Entered to Play In Fair Parade

ROSWELL — (Special) — Artesia high school band will again be one of the dozen or more bands in the opening Eastern New Mexico State Fair parade which moves promptly at 10:30, Oct. 5.

Other bands already entered include Dexter, Hagerman, Portales, Carrizozo, Tatum, Lovington, New Mexico Military Institute and Roswell. Several additional bands are expected to participate.

These, with many beautiful floats and military units will form what is expected to be the best parade in the 32 year history of the fair.

Immediately following the parade, the gates of the fair will be thrown open to what fair directors believe will be the largest attendance for the five days the fair has ever had.

Visitors will be well repaid for going, too, according to Bill Deane, president. Entries for exhibits are coming in rapidly from all parts of the Southeastern New Mexico Empire. This applies not only to the livestock divisions but to the home arts, ceramics, booths, and other divisions.

Again this year the fair directors are maneuvering the exhibit space and adding to it as much as much as possible to accommodate larger entries in the cattle, dairy, cows, poultry, rabbit, swine and sheep departments. Junior livestock entries from all the participating counties are expected to be larger than ever before.

Entertainment will not be lacking either. Hill's Greater Show will keep the midway moving at lively pace day and night, and the five-night show of the Sheriff's Posse will be a real circus. In addition to the contests between outstanding cowhands of the West, number of new specialty number have been added to the regular rodeo program this year.

MAJOR LEAGUE ROUNDUP—

Mays Beats Out Mueller, Snider to Lead National Batting; Avila Top in American

By JACK HAND
 AP Sports Writer
 The first time since 1931, two league batting champions meet in the World Series with Mays (.345) of the New York Giants and Bobby Avila (.345) of the Cleveland Indians leading the hit parade.

Yesterday for a triple, double and single and a final .345 average, Mueller wound up at .342 and Snider at .341. Avila's triumph in the American league is bound to strip some off-season talk. Ted Williams actually had a higher average, .345, but he didn't have the required 400 official at bats. If the staticians gave him 14 hitless trips to boost his 386 at bat total to 400 he would have finished at .333. Since Cleveland clinched the American league pennant a week ago Saturday and New York eliminated Brooklyn a week ago, the chief interest in Sunday's final games was a scrap for fourth place—and a chunk of World Series cash—in each league. The Boston Red Sox, helped by Williams' 29th homer in a five-run seventh, swept up fourth in the American league by bopping Washington 11-2. Detroit, with a chance at fourth place if Boston had lost, topped Cleveland 8-7 in 13 innings on Fred Hatfield's two-run homer off Ray Narleski.

Cleveland Has Series Lead Over New York on Pitching

Editor's note: This is the last series of three articles comparing the series-bound New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians. Today—Pitchers and Catchers.

By BEN OLAN
 NEW YORK (AP)—Cleveland have 10 pitchers and the New York Giants 12 available for the World Series, but strength in pitcher will mean little when the team winners meet head-to-head Wednesday.

Philadelphia wound up fourth in the National despite a defeat by the New York Giants, 3-2 in 11 innings. Cincinnati, needing a victory to tie the Phils, lost to Chicago, 5-2.

Editor's note: This is the last series of three articles comparing the series-bound New York Giants and the Cleveland Indians. Today—Pitchers and Catchers.

With several long ball hitters on both sides, the gopher ball conceivably will play an important part in the outcome of the best-of-seven set. In this respect, Cleveland also has the advantage. Garcia has been tagged for only four homers all season. Lemon has given up 10 and Wynn 21. For New York, Antonelli and Maglie have permitted 21 apiece and Gomez 20.

Philadelphia wound up fourth in the National despite a defeat by the New York Giants, 3-2 in 11 innings. Cincinnati, needing a victory to tie the Phils, lost to Chicago, 5-2.

Series to Be One of Richest Ever Played

By JOE RIECHLER
 NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees will be missing from the scene for the first time in six years as the Cleveland Indians and New York Giants come to grips Wednesday in what is all but certain to be the richest of all World Series.

Certainly, sentiment will be riding with Feller, who at 35, will be seeking his first World Series victory. Bob had two chances in 1948, but lost both, one by a 1-0 count. Not to be overlooked is the fact that Cleveland's hurlers piled up their awesome records against admittedly inferior opposition—the so-called "five club second division." Against the New York Yankees and Chicago White Sox, the Indians finished with 11-11 standoffs on the year.

Artesia B Team Takes Its First Loss Saturday

Artesia high school's B team took the first football defeat of the season for this city as they dropped a hard fought contest to Carlsbad 19-0 Saturday night. With rain adding insult to injury, the charges of Coaches Walt Bynum and Verlon Davis allowed the southern eleven two second quarter scores and then loosened up for one more in the third period. Failure to keep up the momentum in sustained drives was the biggest problem for the Bullpups as they drove inside the Carlsbad 15 several times only to lose the ball on downs. The loss for the B team puts the won-lost count at one and one after the Pups. They trounced Alamogordo 13-7 a week ago. According to Pup coaches, emphasis this week will be put on play inside the ten as they stress the importance of sustained drives. The B team goes on the field for its next contest Thursday night at Roswell.

After Win Over Portales Rams, Injured Bulldogs Face Powerful Albuquerque

Mayes Arm Injury Sidelines Big Bulldog Four-Six Weeks

After their last game of the 1954 season as easy favorites over their opposition, the Artesia football Bulldogs today buckled down to preparing for their first away game of the season coming up with Albuquerque High Friday night. The Bulldogs are doing so without the services of two important people. Coach Reese Smith is confined to bed with flu. Powerful Bill Mayes will be out of action for four to six weeks, according to attending physicians, with a broken bone in his right arm, suffered when he recovered a Portales fumble Friday night.

ARTESIA ROLLED up a total offensive of 309 yards to 137 for the Rams. Of that, 273 was netted on rushing and 36 on passing. Playing on a rain-slippery field as a result of a pre-game shower and intermittent sprinkling during the contest, the Bulldogs first scored in Friday's game 8½ minutes into the first period. The TD was set up when Leo Barker recovered a Portales fumble on the Artesia 35. Artesia gained to the 45 but was set back to the 30 on an illegal use of hands penalty. After the Artesians gained to the 48 in three plays, Riddle completed a forward pass to Ron Nelson, who lateraled to Sanders. Sanders downed the ball on the Artesia 34, but an offside penalty on both sides nullified the gain. Undaunted, Don Lewis ran the entire 52 yards to score.

FINAL ARTESIA touchdown Friday night came when Johnny Riddle, quarterback, picked up slippery football after Portales punt to Artesia 20, raced 80 yards down field to score. Freddie Sanders threw key block as Riddle neared goal line, taking out last pursuer. (Gable Photo)

But the Bulldogs will be going into this Friday's game with heightened confidence as a result of their third straight win of the season. Despite an ever-threatening offense, Portales fell before Artesia 32-7 here Friday night. Actual scoring in Friday's game was almost exclusively a show of Artesia's track-star backfield, sparked by quarterback Johnny Riddle and break-away Freddy Sanders. Of five touchdowns made by the Bulldogs four were from the 30-yard line or beyond, and four were by the two Bulldog speedsters—two apiece.

Artesia made it 12-0 seven minutes into the second period. Jerry Carter recovered a Portales fumble on the Artesia 42. The Bulldogs punched to the Portales 38 on the ground, then Riddle completed a pass to Nelson on the 12-yard line. Sanders recovered a fumble on the next play, netting the Bulldogs 4 yards down to the 8 and converting the fumble into advantage. Riddle smashed through on a keeper.

New Mexico's Big-School Slate Toughens

 New Mexico's big schools settle down to conference warfare this week. Three of the league games will be in district 1AA, but many eyes will turn to the east where two of the most impressive teams produced this season collide head-on.

THE NEXT Bulldog TD came with 2½ minutes left in the second period. Riddle picked up a Portales punt on the Artesia 28 and he and Sanders crossed the centerfield, Riddle slipping the ball to Sanders. While the opposition chased Riddle, Sanders flew to the Portales 29. On the next play he went through guard and tackle to score. Barker ran the conversion. The fourth Artesia TD, scored with 7:40 minutes gone in the third quarter, was set up by Riddle's recovery of a Portales fumble on the Artesia 32 and running it back to the 42. Two plays later Sanders took a handoff and in a sensational run went 56 yards to score. The score then stood 25-0.

Philadelphia wound up fourth in the National despite a defeat by the New York Giants, 3-2 in 11 innings. Cincinnati, needing a victory to tie the Phils, lost to Chicago, 5-2.

Five and a half minutes later, after Portales had recovered an Artesia fumble on the Ram 41, Riddle picked up a Portales fumble and ran 80 yards to pay dirt, aided by Sanders' last minute key tackle of a would-be blocker, Jimmy Belvin ran the point. Portales finally scored with 40 seconds left in the game. Larry Sanders recovered an Artesia fumble on the Bulldog 49. Butch Duren completed a pass to Sanders down to the Artesia 35, and a play later Charles Gregory went to the 24. Bob Fletcher drove to the 18, and Everett Frazier reversed around left end to score. Eddie Burrage iced the conversion.

Artesia, another of the big East Side teams, will play its first game against class AA competition when it takes on Albuquerque. The Artesia lads will be looking for a chance to even Clovis' mark over Albuquerque, but may find the going tougher in their first game away from home. Hobbs, still looking for its first win, is scheduled against an out-of-state team, while defending champ Roswell hosts Trinidad, Colo. Roswell has won three straight.

Four Top Teams Threatening Irish Already Once Licked

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 Notre Dame, apparently headed for new glories under young Terry Brennan, may just stand aside and watch other top contenders for national football honors kill off themselves. With the season only two weeks old, four teams picked to challenge the Irish for the coveted No. 1 role—Texas, Illinois, Michigan State, and Georgia Tech—already have been beaten.

national champion, and UCLA, rated the best of the Pacific Coast, tangled Friday night at Los Angeles in a game which is bound to throw new light on the national picture. Wisconsin is at Michigan State, Tennessee at Duke and Mississippi at Villanova in other games involving teams which have caught the early fancy of those looking for a bandwagon. Notre Dame, meanwhile, appears a solid bet to survive its own rugged schedule and go through to the honors for which the team was picked in the pre-season Associated Press poll. For those who might have been skeptical that the 26-year-old Brennan could step into the shoes of Knute Rockne and Frank Leahy, the Fighting Irish had the answer Saturday in a 21-0 triumph over a big, strong Texas team which had been called the best from the Southwest in years. It Is Your Saving NATURALLY WE ARE grateful and appreciative for the fine reception accorded the special bargain rate which we are offering a year's subscription during the 30 days between Sept. 15 and Oct. 15.

We are merely passing on a saving to the subscriber that would have been money spent in a contest or in some other way to try and secure the subscription.

We are convinced that the public in these days and times appreciate any saving they can enjoy. They appreciate to the point of taking full advantage of it.

Certainly to be able to buy your hometown newspapers for over 50 years at a price of $5 and have it delivered to your door five afternoons every week in the year is a bargain.

And the public has indicated they believe this too by taking advantage of the special offer.

The offer is good for new subscriptions; it is good for renewals of present subscriptions whether they expire soon or several months from now; it is good for a student's subscription; it is good for a subscription to a serviceman or woman; and it is good either by mail or by carrier boy.

We hope if you have not taken advantage of the special offer you will not neglect to do so. The subscriptions will be accepted at the price of $5 per year by carrier boy; $1 per month; or 25 cents per week.

Our present plans call for making this offer an annual affair so those taking advantage of the offer now can be sure they can enjoy the same saving a year from now. We will make the same offer Sept. 15 to Oct. 15 of 1955.

So it not only means you can save now but it also means you can save on your year's subscription a year from now.

Just mail or send your check to the Advocate indicating whether it is a new or a renewal and your subscription will be credited for the full year.

Don't wait until too late—take advantage of this special offer now so you will continue to receive every issue of your hometown paper with full and complete coverage of the hometown news.

BREEZIN' AROUND—

Lake Arthur-Artesia Man Plotted Road to El Paso

By JESS TRUETT

WE ARE LEAVING El Paso.

Texas, headed for Artesia, traveling over a highway with two numbers—62 and 180—which takes us up Hueco Canyon, by Salt Flats, Signal Peak, Carlsbad Caverns, and into Carlsbad, where we travel over highway 285 into Artesia.

While breezing along on this trip, in comfort and ease, our thoughts go back to a story related to us by the late M.W. Evans, a prominent and progressive-minded citizen claimed by both Artesia and Lake Arthur. The story had reference to road conditions over this route in the early twenties, and was somewhat as follows:

M. W. (we always addressed Mr. Evans by his initials), made a trip to El Paso in the early twenties to confer with citizens who may be interested in better road conditions connecting Artesia with El Paso. Not being an engineer but possessing what we call "common sense," he suggested a possible route extending east from El Paso through what is known as Hueco Canyon, Salt Flat, Signal Peak, and connecting with 285 at Carlsbad. Hueco canyon is pronounced similar to Waco canyon.

This suggestion seemed to some as most impossible. Preposterous, absurd and utterly foolish, cried others. M. W. told them he was going to make the trip back to Artesia over the proposed route, and that he would inform them further as to his suggested opinion after conclusion of his trip.

He was driving a Buick car which was in good condition and considered in those days, an outstanding automobile. He equipped himself with camping facilities, picks, shovels, crowbars and other necessities capable of coping with emergencies he might encounter, and such as you might imagine since the trip taken him eight days of constant hard driving, digging, walking ahead to pick his route and get through as best he could, at the same time, jotting down land marks and route descriptions on a temporary map.

He was a patriotic pioneer from the old school, a loyal citizen to his community, state and nation, a man loved and admired by all who knew him.

Let us always remember in reverence, those noble pioneers, war heroes, and statesmen who have fought and won the battles, not for themselves but for us of today and those of tomorrow. To them we give too little thought and too soon forget, their loyalty to God and country proclaimed by us.

Misses Mary Downey and Michelle Ruppert acted as models for the Artesia high school Camera club at its regular meeting held in the audio-visual room of the high school Thursday.
Charles Shortt, president, was in charge of the meeting.
Abraham Trop, sponsor brought to the group a discussion on lighting effects, posing angles, and other helpful hints on portraiture.
Two bulletins were passed out to the members. One was "Use of Darkroom Equipment," edited by Trop and the other was on "Present and future activities of the Camera club."
Abraham Trop was host at his home last Wednesday when the group held a short business meeting. It was decided to have one major, interesting trip of several days duration to obtain pictures, explore the country, and do sight-seeing. Other plans were laid for events for this year, under direction of Wayne Karr, program chairman.
During the next meeting films taken of the models will be developed and the members will learn use of the darkroom equipment.

Nationwide Business Census Set

Plans for a nationwide census of business, manufacturing and mineral industries have been announced by the U. S. bureau of the census.

The census will cover about 2,750 retail, wholesale and service establishments with figures on number of establishments, sales, employees and payrolls, by kinds of business for each state, county and for places of 2,500 or more population.

The manufacturing category will cover operations of nearly 300,000 manufacturing establishments and will report on production of commodities, employment, payrolls and many other important items for more than 450 industries. This census was first taken in 1899 and most recently for 1947.

The mineral industries survey will cover the operations of about 35,000 establishments engaged in mining, petroleum production and quarrying. Information on output, employment, payrolls, fuel, power consumption, and other items will be published for states and all counties with important mineral industries.

Potash Foreman Is Knocked Out

Walter Spontanio, 1012 W. Missouri, a foreman for the Southwest Potash Co., was in Artesia General hospital briefly over the weekend as a result of a freak accident while at work.

Spontanio was struck on the chest by a large chunk of potash which was hurled at him when the tire of a shuttle car passed over the fragment and shot it out at the foreman.

He was knocked unconscious immediately and did not regain consciousness until he reached the hospital.

Spontanio, convalescing at home now, received no serious injuries aside from the sudden blow.

Sitdown Strike Ends at Mine

SILVER CITY, (AP)—A sitdown strike at the Santa Rita operation here ended Sunday with the resignation of the two men.

The plant was shut down for one shift when members of the International Union of Mine, Mill and Smelter Workers objected to the hiring of two men they said had gone against a recent Mine-Mill strike.

The two men quit on learning they were the cause of the strike.

Lions Club Kids' Day Saturday Fall Highlight

By MRS. BYRON OGLESBY

Hagerman "Kids' Day", Saturday, Sept. 25, has been set aside each year since the Kiwanis started it in 1947. It was started as a civic program in the form of entertainment for the Youth of America.

Since there is no Kiwanis club in Hagerman our local Lions club began sponsoring the Kids' Day celebration, and on Saturday the annual Kids' Day parade was one of the highlights of the day, with the Hagerman school band in the lead. A grade school track meet and a carnival added to the merriment.

There were four divisions for individuals participating in the parade: story book characters, bicycles and tricycles decorated, pets and costumes, in addition to a division for floats and the school band.

Kids' Day is a non-profit feature. Homecoming I organized the FHA Chapter of Hagerman high school this week and the following officers were elected:

President, Weedon Kelley; vice-president, Loretta Creek; secretary, Shirley Dearman; parliamentarian, Doris Ferguson; reporter, Barbara Mitchell; treasurer, Ethel Spelling; song leader, Judy Taylor; musicians, Elizabeth Kiper and Jeannie Bob Hart; historian, Shirley Gabbert; chapter mothers, Mrs. Wilson Hart and Mrs. Clyde Kelley; and advisor, Miss Myrtle Harbour.

FHA stands for Future Homemakers of America, a national organization of girls studying home-making. It offers opportunity for the further development of student initiative in planning and carrying out the activities related to home-making.

There is to be a Rainbow installation of officers, Sept. 27, Monday, at 7:30 p. m. Jean Elliott is to be installed as worthy advisor. A lovely program has been worked out, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Hagerman Baptist church held a revival which came to a close Sunday, Sept. 19. It was conducted by the Rev. Leo Cornelius, evangelist, with Lloyd Pearce conducting the song service and Terry Kyle accompanying at the piano. Mrs. Bill Langenecker was in charge of the Youth Fellowship which followed each service, and was enjoyed by everyone. The revival was reported to be very successful.

The sixth grade elected officers for their class as follows: President, Marilyn Mayberry; vice-president, Marla Jennings; secretary and treasurer, Jean Evans; reporters, Liona Whit and Wesley Johnson; decoration committee, Ruby Powell and Lawanna Dearman; social committee, Margaret York, Eva Romero and Deborah Huckabee; sergeant-at-arms, Mary Ann O'Neal and Tommy McMurray; detectives, Bucky Parent, Frank Spelling, Aurora Medrano, Cruzita Dutcher.

Barbara Wrinkle is taking her college entrance exams at Pasadena, Calif. She plans to major in voice and home economics. She is now working in the Pasadena library.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Ballard, former Hagerman residents and recently of White City, are now back in Hagerman to make their home. Welcome back!

Johnny Nicks fell at the Cleek home injuring his head which resulted in a concussion. He is reported to be much improved and plans to return to school Monday.

Gama globulin polio vaccine was given to 137 youngsters in Hagerman this week. Dr. O. E. Puckett was in Hagerman school Monday, along with the nurses, and our school nurse, Miss Eileen Cummings, administered some additional vaccines Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Moreau announce the arrival of a little son.

Roy Dale, who was born Saturday, Sept. 18. Congratulations!

Hagerman high school seniors selected Mrs. Ruth Strixner as their co-sponsor. They reported a wonderful trip to the Carlsbad beach, which included swimming, a picnic supper which featured fried chicken, and later a show. The senior class is selling Christmas and all-occasion cards, and report that they are pleased with the outcome of the cake walk and the rummage sale held Saturday. They have chosen as their motto: "The word AMERICAN ends in 'I CAN.'" Pretty cut, we think.

Some of the Hagerman winners in the track meet with Dexter are Don Troublefield, 100-yard dash; George Dodson, 880-yard dash; mile, David Gomez, Mendoza and Troublefield; broad jump, Billy Parker; high jump, David Gomez, Troublefield; javelin, Chrisman and Troublefield; shot put, Sinor and Winnham. Dexter took the track meet. We have another track meet with Dexter Sept. 24 at Dexter, and hope to retaliate.

The sophomore class selected as class parents Mr. and Mrs. Barnett and Mr. and Mrs. Horice Freeman. They are the class parents of 1953-54, also.

The Hagerman FFA chapter held an election of officers at their weekly meeting with the following results: Don Bledsoe, president; Donald Troublefield, vice-president; Daniel Gomez, secretary; David Gomez, treasurer; Edward Gomez, sentinel; June Tulk, assistant, and Ray Turner, reporter.

Applications Are Announced for Navy ROTC

Applications are now available for the Navy's ninth competitive examination for its nation-wide NROTC college training program, according to a recent announcement by the Navy Department. The mental examination is scheduled for December 11, and is open to all high school seniors and graduates who can qualify, according to Rufus Waltrip, Senior high guidance director.

The deadline date for receipt of all applications is Nov. 20, Waltrip said.

Successful candidates will start their Naval careers in colleges and universities across the country in 1955, with substantial financial assistance from the government. After a normal college education, graduates will be commissioned in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, for active duty with the Fleet throughout the world.

Male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21 are eligible to apply for the aptitude test. Persons attaining a qualifying score will be given the Navy's rigid midshipman physical examination next February. From the pool of qualified candidates re-
