PEPPER, 9-month-old parakeet, and Bunny, 6-month-old cat, share lunch in home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank I. McGuire, Long Beach, Calif. The cat became a McGuire pet when a month old, and started sleeping in the parakeet cage. Now Bunny is too big to squeeze through the cage door, but likes to nibble at Pepper's bird seed. And Pepper likes to peck at Bunny's chow. The two play together, and the McGuires take an optimistic attitude toward possibility the cat might revert to type when eating with the bird, and eat it, too. (International Soundphoto)

Travelers Play Final Home Game Tonight Before Disbanding

Team Disbands After Tourney Set in Denver

The CVE Travelers tonight play their last home game for the season. There was a crowd of 100 fans in the gymnasium to witness the game. The team was founded last year and has been successful in its first season. The team will be disbanded at the end of the season. The lack of support by the town fans.

The Travelers meet the yearlings in a National Basketball League game. The fourth encounter of the current season. The Travelers dropped the game to the Wings on a road trip, and in a return game to the Akron team in the state AAU tournament. The Wings are currently hovering in the NBL's top circles. The Travelers, with all its experience, will bring forth from the past a question mark. The Travelers is of course slightly favored on the basis of previous experience between the two clubs. On the other hand, this is the first game for the Travelers—former state AAU tournament champion. The Travelers have been in the state AAU tournament for four years, entering in 1951. The Travelers have been in the state AAU tournament for nearly six years of CVE sponsorship for basketball teams playing in New Mexico. In 1950, before NIBL affiliation, the Travelers won the state AAU tournament, sponsoring basketball on a statewide basis. Frost said prior to the current season, "was inaugurated for the primary purpose of bringing better public relations, recreation, and employment to the development of membership interest and enthusiasm." The Travelers' general public, however, failed to support its high-type basketball with attendance, which during the past three seasons the co-op membership took and against basketball at the meeting in January. The Travelers on the team have held their jobs with the co-op continue, whether or not it is a basketball team.

Board Approves Experimental New Cage Rules

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Coach Alton of Eastern New Mexico University has put his stamp of approval on a set of new basketball rules after seeing them tried in an experimental game. "A step in the right direction," he said after watching rules, mainly aimed at doing away with the one-and-one free throw tried in the game for third time in the National Intercollegiate Basketball tournament. Eastern Illinois stopped Arkansas 77-74 as the two teams played a modified form of professional rules. The rules, set up experimentally for the game, required the offensive team to take a shot in 24 seconds after gaining possession, widened the free throw from 6 to 12 feet, and on all 15-seconds by a team in one quarter the offensive team was given 15 seconds. "I'd like to see the rules come out even further, though," he said, "and take out the defense. But this was a step in the right direction."

British Jaguar Spurred Winner Grand Prix

BRISTOL, Fla. (AP)—Briggs Cunningham's D-Type British Jaguar is the unofficial winner of the 12-hour Florida International Grand Prix, but the jury still is pending a hearing on a protest and a recheck of the timer's records. An official ruling is expected some time Monday. A few minutes before the 10 p.m. (EST) ending Sunday night, a loud speaker in front of the grand scorer's private hideout blared the news that an Italian Ferrari had taken the lead in the Jaguar and had widened a gap of over three minutes in this annual grind around the state runways of an abandoned jet.

Then the Ferrari's driving crew Carroll Shelby of Dallas and Hill of Santa Monica, Calif., stepped up for the official ceremony, but they learned that officials now had declared the Jaguar the unofficial winner. "Joe Lane said, 'The Jaguar won but only 10 second separated the first two cars.'"

Records Aplenty Broken in State Cage Tourney, Favorites Come Through to Win Without Strain

ABUQUERQUE (AP)—Records were broken aplenty individual stars crowned impressive seasons, there were drama, thrills, tight games—but not a real, eyebrow-lifting surprise in the state high school basketball tournaments last week. The two are to attend daily practice sessions this week, and will sit on the bench during the game.

Second-Guessing Sports Editors To Coach UNM

ALBUQUERQUE, (AP)—Coach Bob Titchenal of New Mexico has appointed a couple of "experts" to help him out when his football Lobos stage their annual Cherry-Silver game at the end of spring training Saturday. The two are Carlos Salazar, sports editor of the Albuquerque Tribune, and Sports Editor J. D. Kailer of the Albuquerque Journal. Titchenal said both have a "highly successful record of second-guessing."

Compromise Plan For Football TV Given By NCAA

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The National Collegiate Athletic Ass'n's TV committee Monday disclosed a compromise plan for telecasting 1955 football games which will allow eight national telecasts and five regional dates over a 13-week period. It offers a compromise with the Big Ten conference and other proponents of a regional setup for football television. The plan was mailed Friday to the NCAA membership for approval. A two-thirds vote of the membership is needed for acceptance.

The 1954 program, which reserved all 13 dates for the national network show and limited a team to one appearance, would be relaxed under the new proposal to permit one national telecast and one intra-district appearance, or two intra-district appearances for each team in 1955. Additional appearances would be possible under a stipulation that "sell-out games may be telecast in the home TV areas of the home and visiting team, also the area of the game if it is played off-campus, provided no damage is done to other collegiate games."

NCAA Champions To Pick Winner

KANSAS CITY, (AP)—Three teams of high basketball pedigree—San Francisco, LaSalle, and Iowa—plus a hardwood "commoner" of sorts, Colorado, plunge into the NCAA's championship showdown this weekend. San Francisco's Dons, top-ranked in the regular season AP poll, seemingly appears destined to rack up 15th-rated Colorado for their 25th straight victory in Friday night's semifinal round. However, which team will survive the other semifinal between third-ranked LaSalle, the defending champion, and fifth-rated Iowa is open to debate.

The championship game will be played Saturday night after the Western and Eastern titles are settled Friday night at Kansas City's Municipal Auditorium.

Sellers Ousted In Four-State AAU Regional

RATON, (AP)—Gregory Clothing of Greeley, Colo., put on a surge in the last half to whip the New Mexico Sellers 91-77 last night and take the crown in the four-state AAU basketball playoff. Santa Fe stayed close during the first half, and trailed only 41-39 at the half. But the Sellers couldn't stand the pace in the last half. The game allowed Gregory to enter the national AAU tourney in Denver March 21-26.

The Sellers, New Mexico champions, entered the game after an 84-56 victory over Maupin Service team of Turkey, Tex., the West Texas champs. The Sellers blazed out in front early and were never in serious trouble.

U.S., Argentine Pan-American Game Leaders

MEXICO CITY (AP)—The United States and Argentina led the way into the second day of competition today in the Pan-American games. Most observers looked for the United States to move further in front by nightfall in this pre-Olympic struggle.

Argentina, on the basis of two gold medal victories in track and field, held a 25-16 lead over the United States in this department. But in the overall picture of an 18-sport program, the United States late last night took the lead in unofficial point scoring with firsts and runner-up points in weight lifting and women's fencing.

Starting out today, the United States had 46 points, based on a system of 10-5-4-3-2-1 for six places while the Argentine had 34½. Trailing were Mexico, 20; Panama, 15; Cuba, 10; Chile, 7; Brazil, 4; Dutch West Indies, 3; and Puerto Rico and Canada, 2, among the 22 nations in the games.

The main show involved track and field, of course, and booked in the National University Stadium today were finals in the 100-meter dash, 400-meter hurdles, broad jump and hammer throw for men and the 60-meter dash for women.

Patty Counting Greenbacks After Titleholder Win

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—In addition to the prestige of winning her sixth Women's Titleholders golf championship, red-haired Patty Berg counted her material gain today and found herself pacing the greenback derby on the girls' winter golfing circuit.

Miss Berg could thank her sizzling second-round 68 for her two-stroke triumph over Mary Lena Faulk of Thomasville, Ga. The steady Miss Faulk, a pro only six weeks, played the most consistent golf in the blueribbon meet with a 72-73-74-74—293 total. Her total matched the old tournament record set last year by Louise Suggs of Sea Island, Ga., and bettered by two strokes Sunday by Miss Berg.

Patty's 68 set a new 18-hole tournament record. It gave her the lead after a 76 in the first round. The champion was 74-73 for the last two days.

Brooklyn Pilot Eyes Spooner as Maybe Being Gen-oo-ine 'Phenom' Despite Injuries, Surgery

By The Associated Press
No one expects miracles, but Manager Walt Alston of the Brooklyn Dodgers was wondering today if maybe Karl Spooner is a real, genuine "phenom."

The 23-year-old left-hander came up from Fort Worth at the end of last season and proceeded to strike out 27 batters in 18 innings. He didn't allow a run in the two games and had the Brooklyn brass wagging their heads.

But Alston has seen too many youngsters look as if they were going places at the end of a season only to flop the next year.

Over the winter, Spooner, who injured his knee last summer, was forced to undergo surgery to have a cartilage removed.

Yesterday, Alston decided to test him out against the Chicago White Sox. He hurled creditably for two innings, giving up two hits and no runs. Alston decided that was enough.

"The knee didn't bother me a bit," Spooner said. "But my shoulder was stiff. I guess I'm not loose yet."

The White Sox went on to win the game 6-5, pasting Billy Loos and Johnny Podres for three runs apiece during their stints. But it didn't bother Alston. He went through with his experiment for the day and he was happy.

The same couldn't be said of skipper Casey Stengel of the New York Yankees, who lost their fourth straight exhibition game, this one to the Boston Red Sox 4-2. This is the first time in history, the Yanks have lost four in a row at the start of the Grapefruit League circuit.

Leo Kiely, George Susce and Skinny Brown set back the New Yorkers, whose only offensive effort was a home run by Hank Bauer with one on.

The Kansas City A's are having the same trouble as the Yanks. They went down to No. 3 in a row, a 7-4 defeat at the hands of the Washington Senators. The game went 12 innings before rookie catcher Ed Koccheck broke it up with a bases-loaded double.

Three clubs continued to look good and, surprisingly, one of them was the Pittsburgh Pirates. The Buccos edged the Philadelphia Phillies in the 10th inning when Dick Groat, the former All-American basketball player from Duke, singled home the winning run. The Pirates collected 14 hits off three Phillie hurlers.

The Cincinnati Redlegs, with perhaps the most potent slugging lineup in the National League, gave the St. Louis Cardinals a little sample of their might with a 6-2 triumph, while the baby Detroit Tigers polished off the Milwaukee Braves, also by 6-2.

Ted Kluszewski hit a home run, a triple and a single and Wally Post hammered a home run for the Redlegs in hanging the first defeat of the exhibition season on the Cards. The Redbird pitchers had given up only two runs in 27 innings before they went against the Redlegs.

The Cleveland Indians whipped the New York Giants again, 13-6. In other games, the Chicago Cubs turned back the Indians "B" team 10-4; the Milwaukee "B's" beat the Cincinnati "B's" 11-4, and the Baltimore Orioles scored six runs in the last two innings to stop Birmingham of the Southern Assn. 8-5.

Cincinnati Hopes for First Division Finish in Pitching

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—With a "Big Five" that drove in 524 runs last season, almost as many as Pittsburgh scored all year, Cincinnati's hopes of a first-division finish rest in improving its pitching staff.

Manager Birdie Tebbetts, fortified by a new 3-year contract, knows the big bats of Ted Kluszewski, Gus Bell, Jim Greengrass, Ray Jablonski, and Wally Post will provide the runs. All he needs is somebody to stop the other clubs.

Tebbetts has a long range plan for building a staff around a nucleus of lefthander Joe Nuxhall (12-5) and righthanders Harold "Corky" Valentine (12-11) and Art Fowler (12-10).

"I think those three are capable of winning between 15 and 20 games each," said Tebbetts at Al Lopez Field. "Last spring I wasn't sure I had anybody that could win 12. Now I know I have three. Nuxhall (26) and Valentine (25) have youth on their side and Fowler (31) a late comer."

Nuxhall, who broke into the majors at the tender age of 15, finally arrived last season, closing with a rush after holding a mediocre 3-2 record in mid-season. The 6-3 southpaw seems to have conquered his old control problem.

Valentine, making the big jump to the majors from Columbia, S. C., of the Sally league, was most effective in the early season. Fowler, who failed with the New York Giants and Boston, now Milwaukee Braves, pitched steady ball all season.

Gerry Staley, who came to Cincinnati from St. Louis with Jablonski last December in the deal for reliever Frank Smith, never did get started with the Cards last year and had a 7-13 mark. At 31, the righthander is confident he still can win in the majors.

SANDIA TAKES TITLE

FORT SMITH, Ark. (AP)—Sandia Air Force Base topped Red River Arsenal, Tex., 93-77 to take the title in the small team classification of the 4th Army Basketball Tournament Saturday. The Sandia WACs lost, 28-27 in the finals of their event to defending champion Brooke Army Medical Center.

MRS. PALMER TIES 8TH

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—A Las Cruces woman, Mrs. Audria Palmer, recorded a total of 338 to finish in a tie for eighth in the 20-entrant amateur field in the Women's Title Holder Golf Tourney. Mrs. Palmer shot 83 in the final round yesterday.

Deserve Our Patronage

OUR LOCAL institutions, business firms and service companies can only continue to serve us, take care of us, provide payrolls, pay taxes, and license fees, and make donations to our community just as long as they enjoy sufficient business to make a profit.

When it reaches the point where the business is no longer profitable to those who have made their investment and who are providing the operating funds—then they no longer have any reason or incentive to remain or stay in business.

It is also true that the more service institutions and business firms we have in our community the greater appeal we have to those in our shopping and trade territory. The more ways we can serve them the more attraction we have for them and the more likely they are to come to our city to do their trading and shopping.

All of us are interested in our community, enjoy all the business possible, because it is this business that makes for prosperity.

So it is true that we are interested in our local business firms and service institutions enjoying our business and the business of others because it makes a contribution to our community's prosperity and that usually affects us personally.

We are agreed of course, that the local business firms and the service institutions must warrant and justify the enjoyment of this business. Business firms must provide the merchandise, the prices and the service. The service institutions must provide the service the public has a perfect right to demand and to expect.

When they do this—then we as individual citizens in our community owe them our support, our backing and our business.

All of us know whether we admit it or not that the dollars we send or spend outside our city are gone forever. They never return. Those we spend locally continue to circulate in our own community. It is the circulation of those dollars—the buying and selling in our own community—that makes for prosperity.

Some day perhaps we will sell ourselves on this idea and we will realize that if we expect the other fellow to follow and practice the idea of buying and trading at home that we must do exactly the same thing.

Most of us could help make business a little better at home if we would only do it.

Anderson Says Approval in Bag For River Project

DENVER (AP)—Sen Anderson (D-NM) says Senate approval of the Upper Colorado River project is assured, and chances for House approval have improved markedly.

Anderson forecast the Rocky Mountain region will have "gigantic rolling mills, enormous power plants and tremendous concentrations of manufacturing and fabricating establishments" through peaceful use of atomic power.

Speaking at a session of the American Assn. of School Administrators, he said the discovery of vast supplies of uranium has centered the attention of an atomic-conscious nation on this area.

Referring to recent reports that Russia is turning out far more technically trained persons than the United States, Anderson advised 4,500 school administrators to "go out and find new ways of teaching science." He said all students should be equipped "with a basic knowledge" of nuclear physics even though not every student is a potential scientist.

Legislature—

The pressure will not be as great on him as on previous governors who had only six days after the Legislature's adjournment in which to act. A 1953 constitutional amendment gives the governor 20 days after the Legislature's adjournment in which to dispose of the bills.

McMillek suffered back and internal injuries. The other two passengers, Seaman Ralph Meyers, 20, USS Walk, and Clark McElvy, 18 Abilene, Tex., also were injured.

The vehicle overturned 2 1/2 times. He was thrown from the careening car, suffering a fractured skull and multiple injuries.

"I mean by that that the essentials of our industries are moved by truck."

Brown said the trucking industry is "not a special interest at all." He said it is time the trucking industry "got the recognition it deserves."

Brown blamed the increased budget on New Mexico's growth. "New Mexico is coming into its own in prominence in many, many ways," he said. "A larger budget will be necessary from here on in naturally due to the growth of the state."

He declared he believed "we'll wind up the two years with a good

Mac's Fabric Shop Proud Of Full Materials Stock For Sew-and-Save Women

Artesia women who like to make things via needle and thread, are in a better spot than most to get in on the do-it-yourself fad now sweeping the nation.

And it's all because the McDonald family lives in Artesia. Suppose you want to make your own clothes or school togger for the children. Of maybe you'd like to save some money and make those new drapes for the living room. How about curtains for the kitchen?

Mac's Fabric Mart, 406 W. Main, gives out advice free of charge and all the materials you need for your project at a price below what you'd pay anywhere else.

The C. O. McDonald family operates the Mart. It all started some years back when Mrs. McDonald, Gertrude, started sewing for Mrs. R. W. Floyd. Mrs. Floyd was the owner then.

Mrs. Floyd's health began to fail and she started talking to Mrs. Mac about buying the place. It took a lot of deciding, but in 1954 the deal went through. Mr. and Mrs. McDonald and their daughter, Wanna Dee owned a fabric shop.

Like bees, they went to work re-decorating the store and buying new and different stocks. They also changed the name to The Fabric Mart. Then tragedy struck. A fire hit the Artesia Pharmacy next door. Flames ate their way into the Mart and destroyed or damaged most of the fabric.

What did the McDonalds do? They simply held a fire sale to rake up some cash and re-stock the store.

Today the Mart handles every kind of fabric and material available. If you can't find what you want, the McDonalds will order it for you. Chances are you'll fill your bill right away, though, because the Mart keeps about 75 varieties of materials and colors.

Along with the many materials, the Mart also has buttons of every size and shape. Some are designed to harmonize with fabrics in stock, some to go with clothing the customer already has. Too, there's braided and bric-a-brac the ladies use to add spark to an otherwise plain garment.

There are other items, such as zippers to fit every need. Iron-on appliques and linings for coats and jackets are stocked. Another large and frequently asked-for line the Mart carries is draperies and drapery linings. According to Gertrude, "We can't keep all the drapery lines in stock, but can special order them and have them in about a week."

If a piece of material in the friendly shop catches your eye, but you haven't the time to sew, Gertrude runs a tailor shop and can do it for you. She handles alterations and custom tailor work for women and men. In the sewing shop, the Mart also covers buttons, makes belts and covers and makes belt buckles.

For the teenage girl who finds herself invited to the many school formal each year and wishes to have a new formal as frequently as possible, the Mart offers a dazzling but inexpensive renovation service. Most of the time you can't recognize the old dress or gown after Mrs. McDonald gets through with it.

About the only thing Mac's does not do with fabric is upholster chairs. But even this idea is getting more popular with the family and it shouldn't be long before the Mart will feature an upholstery shop.

CONCRETE DITCHLINERS, INC., can lay concrete ditches at a fast walking pace with this moving form, pulled by tractor ahead of concrete mixing truck in foreground. Miles of ditch have been installed on farms in Eddy county. Chief advantage is in water saving, lowering water production costs, and in better control of irrigation system.

Yellow Cab Co. Used to Hearing Troubles—But Carrying Fugitive Past Road Block New Angle

A cab driver is a whole lot like bartender—both hear a lot about people's troubles.

And Louis Oden, manager of the Yellow Cab Co. here, is in a position to know. He's been in the taxi business ten years. Most of that time he's been a driver.

"Why people will tell their troubles to a perfect stranger is more than I can understand. But darned if they don't just pour out all their whole story," Oden said.

Owner of the Artesia Yellow Cab Company is Clay C. Cole, veteran of 17 years in the business. He bought the local enterprise last November. He previously owned Yellow Cab companies in Las Cruces and Carlsbad. Cole also has real estate holdings in New Mexico. He travels most of the time, but he and Mrs. Cole call Artesia home. They live at 903 Grand.

The company operates four cabs in Artesia and has eight employees. The cabs are radio-equipped, but Oden said they rarely used the radios "because we just don't need them in a town this size." Oden said the company is planning to add another cab to the fleet right away.

Oden lives with his wife at 211 Sherman. He spent 39 months in the Army during World War II. Two years of this service was in the European theater. He was discharged in 1945 as a sergeant.

Oden came to Artesia last November when Cole bought the company from his brother, J. P. Cole. He has been working with Cole three years.

The company manager, in recalling strange incidents in his taxi career, told about the time recently when one of his drivers hired out to a fugitive from justice.

Oden was a little red-faced when he told it. "This guy had held up a place in Carlsbad and had slipped through police road blocks into Artesia.

"He called us up and said he was working in Roswell and needed to get up here right away. Said his car had broken down.

"Well, we sent a man out, picked up the fugitive, and carried him right through the road block to Roswell. We had a description from the police, but it was for a tall, freckle-faced man. The man we carried was short and fat.

"They got the man later, but I'll never forget the part we accidentally played in his getting through those road blocks."

In 1896 two Americans—George Harbo and Frank Samuelson—rowed across the Atlantic Ocean in an 18-foot open boat. They used only oars—no sails, no motor. Their 3,200-mile row took them 62 days.

Pronghorns, the only antelope native to North America and among the swiftest of four-legged animals, have declined to only thousands.

Nicaragua is about the size of Michigan.
