Says Western Bloc Out to Ensnare Soviets

Russian Premier Promises Sincere Attempt At Peace

MOSCOW (AP)—Premier Bulganin declared today the Soviet delegation is leaving for Geneva tomorrow to make "a sincere effort" to solve international problems. He told a news conference that the Western Big Three delegations make a similar effort at Geneva there is "no reason to believe the basis of a future peace will not be assured."

panied by the other four major members of the 10-man Soviet delegation to Geneva. They are Communist party boss Nikita Khrushchev, Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, Defense Minister Georgi K. Zhukov and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

ment in Russian which was then translated. There was no opportunity given to the 75 correspondents to ask any questions. When translation of the statement was finished, Bulganin and his delegation marched out.

Bulganin said in his statement: "We go to Geneva prepared to discuss frankly the points at issue" (Continued on page four.)

Pilot Struggles Four Hours To Avoid Ditching Big Plane

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—For four tense, long hours last night Capt. Theodore Roosevelt held his mind and nerves ready to ditch a Globemaster and 87 men in the fog-covered Pacific.

"Everybody was extremely calm. I was pretty sure we'd have ditched. Those paratroopers felt, I guess, they could cope with whatever came up."

The Globemaster carried 79 men of the 187th Regimental Combat Team (airborne) and its crew of eight. It was on a flight from Hickam Field, Hawaii, to California in the Operation Gyroscope transfer of the 187th from Japan to Ft. Bragg, N. C.

"We were about 10 minutes past the point of equal time (midway point) when the first engine went," (Continued on page four.)

Lt. Gen. Hobart Gay Succeeds Col. Charles Ward As Head of New Mexico Military Institute

Lt. Gen. Hobart R. Gay

ROSWELL, (Special)—Appointment of Lt. Gen. Hobart R. Gay as superintendent of the New Mexico Military Institute was announced here by the Board of Regents of the Institute. General Gay will assume his post at NMMI next month with the opening of the 1955-56 school year.

Colonel Ward is really completing 29 years of service to NMMI, its cadets, patrons, and alumni as a teacher of history, principal of the High School Division, and as superintendents.

For the past year General Gay has been Commanding General of the Fifth Army at Headquarters, Chicago, Ill. As such, he directed and controlled all military activities and installations in 13 states of the Middle West.

House Group Okays Hikes In Gas Tax

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Public Works Committee today approved by a 22-9 vote about $12,021,000,000 in new taxes over the next 15 years to pay for a giant new road building program.

The vote affirmed tentative action yesterday approving tax increases on gasoline, trucks and buses, diesel fuel, heavy tires and tubes and all tire retreads.

Truck Tires Hit
In addition, the committee added a new tax increase. This would increase the levy on medium truck tires—from 7½ by 18 to 8½ by 18—from five cents a pound up to eight cents a pound.

This would add about 170 million dollars in revenue over the 15-year period.

The next action on road legislation is up to the House itself. The Senate already has passed a bill providing for a five-year road program to be paid for out of general treasury funds.

12-Year Plan
The House committee program is for 12 years, with much of the additional spending to be financed by new taxes.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), author of the Senate measure, endorsed tax increases to help pay for the program but noted that tax legislation must originate in the House.

The committee defeated yesterday by lopsided votes a series of efforts to kill or sharply reduce the proposed revenue increases.

Simms Holds Up Special Session Questionnaires

SANTA FE (AP)—Questionnaires to legislators aimed at determining whether a special session of the Legislature will be called will not go out today as originally announced.

Gov. John F. Simms said it will be "a few more days" before the questionnaires are sent to the legislators. He said he wants to get them just right and his office is working on a fifth draft of the questionnaires.

The questionnaires will include various suggestions made to Simms and others by Simms himself which might be possible solutions to the Welfare Department's financial woes.

Simms has said he wants to leave it up to the individual legislator whether a special session will be called and he will determine the feelings of the senators and representatives through their expressed feelings in the questionnaires.

Law Suspects Hoax in Child Slaying Story

JOPLIN, Mo. (AP)—Authorities today awaited a fingerprint comparison before definitely labeling as a hoax Audrey Brandt's story of abducting and raping a 2-year-old Sioux City, Iowa girl.

Brandt, 42-year-old farm laborer whose formal schooling ended in first grade, told officers Wednesday she was the kidnapper of Donna Sue Davis. Then yesterday she said his story was fictitious. He said he made it up after hearing an account of the rape-slaying over an automobile radio while hitchhiking.

Officers were inclined to believe the farmhand's original story was a hoax but they first wanted to see results of a check of his fingerprints against those found in the room from which Donna Sue was taken Sunday night.

PEDESTRIAN KILLED
LAS VEGAS (AP)—New Mexico's traffic death toll for 1955 rose to 154 yesterday with the death of a pedestrian tentatively identified as Losky Fordes of Santa Fe. At this time last year 181 had died on the state's highways. State Policeman E. M. Moore said Fordes died instantly when he was struck by a truck.

Former Army Chief Blasts Ike's Military Arms Policy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Pentagon today took the secrecy label off a letter by Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway sharply challenging the basic military policy of the Eisenhower administration.

In one of his last official acts as Army chief of staff, Ridgway lashed out with particular vigor at what he described as the administration's overemphasis on the "air-nuclear weapons" atomic and hydrogen bombs.

Eisenhower Flies Tonight For Geneva

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower told Congress today he hopes the Big Four meeting in Geneva will be able to identify the "outstanding divisive issues" troubling the world and "develop methods to try to solve them."

The President referred to next week's "summit" meeting in transmitting to Congress the 9th annual report on U. S. participation in the United Nations. It covered the year 1954.

Eisenhower takes off for Geneva tonight after telling the nation about his cautious hopes that the Big Four Conference, which begins Monday, may lead eventually to enduring peace.

Annual Girl Scout Summer Day Camp Opens At New Country Club Location on July 25

The site committee for the Girl Scout Day Camp has found that the new country club camp site is in order for camping activities and Mrs. John Sparks, day camp director, has announced the opening date set for July 25.

Secretary of Defense Wilson, who ordered it made public today after its contents had been leaked into print.

RESTATES VIEWS
In its strictly military phases the letter was essentially a restatement of criticisms Ridgway had voiced piecemeal and in less pointed terms for months before he retired June 30.

But the partitroop general gave his contentions new emphasis by putting them all together in a compilation and relating one after another in a letter to the President.

At Thursday's meeting of the club here it was also voted to give aid and support to the Artesia teenagers club. Answering a request by Miss Jo Ann Nunn, the club agreed to provide chaperones on Tuesday and Thursday nights for the teenager social gatherings.

Western Bloc Outlines Plan For Discussion

PARIS (AP)—The Western Big Three foreign ministers agreed quickly today on their position and strategy for the historic Geneva meeting with Russia's top political and military leaders.

In slightly more than three hours U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold McMillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay endorsed a definite list of topics the West will raise and the stand it will take on each issue.

The list was submitted to the ministers by diplomatic experts from each delegation yesterday.

The ministers convened in the French Foreign Ministry.

Subjects Secret
Pinay did not disclose what subjects the West intends to bring up at Geneva but they were almost certain to include German reunification, European security, disarmament and French Premier Edgar Faure's new disarm-and-develop scheme to help backward areas.

Pinay said he and the two had discussed Faure's plan and added, "we've all had that general idea for some time." He cited a statement of President Eisenhower along the same general lines.

The documents approved today will be submitted to the Western chiefs of government in Geneva Sunday morning, Pinay said.

10 Dead, Scores Injured in Wild Morocco Rioting

CASABLANCA, Morocco (AP)—Angry French colonists rioted through Casablanca until early this morning, protesting a terror bombing which killed six Europeans and injured 35 others.

Before peace was restored in the modern port city of 650,000, the toll stood at 10 dead and at least 44 wounded.

What began as a pleasant evening of Bastille Day celebrations turned into a wild night of terror when the big bomb went off last night in the heart of Casablanca's European quarter.

The blast wrecked two sidewalk cafes filled with persons celebrating the holiday and smashed a nearby automobile and two motorcycles.

Almost immediately thousands of men swarmed into the streets, shouting insults at new French Resident Gen. Gilbert Grandval and other Europeans holding moderate views on ways to end the Nationalist terrorism in this North African protectorate.

Network of Eyes Scan New Mexico Skies for Enemy

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—An eyesight network, criss-crossing almost half of New Mexico and the El Paso area like a spider web, was set today to ward off possible enemy air attack.

Controlling it is the El Paso Filter Center of the Air Defense Command. The heart of the web was opened formally yesterday, commanding more than 38,000 square miles in 16 New Mexico counties.

Spotted over that area eventually will be a crew of 10,000 observers, working in spare time shifts and placed on observation posts atop points where they can observe, unobstructed, a complete landscape around them.

They will watch for enemy planes which can avoid ordinary radar stations by sneaking low or ducking behind mountains. They will be connected by telephone directly to the filter center, from which alerts will be sent to air bases.

This particular center controls all or part of Dona Ana, Luna, Sierra, Grant, Caton, Socorro, Otero, Lincoln, Guadalupe, Eddy, De Baca, Quay, Curry, Roosevelt, Chavez and Lea Counties in New Mexico.

Fall Suit Jackets Tailored to Fit Everybody's Taste

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—Whether you like your suit jackets long, short or medium-fitted, semifitted or loose, you'll be able to suit your self next fall.

Every conceivable jacket length from the briefest boleros to seven-eighths length tunics, will be in the shops next fall, as has been ascertained by members of the nation's fashion press winding up a week of New York fall fashion previews.

Adele Simpson shows five different suit and costume silhouettes in her fall collection of smooth styles for sleek sophisticates. These range from a tiny curved bolero which cups the bust to a long tubular tunic coat reaching almost to the skirt hemline. In between are the 26-inch fitted jacket, the short box jacket and the straight, loose, fingertip-length little overcoat—all worn with either sheath dresses or slim skirts.

Well Shaped

Whether her jackets are long or short, whether belts form a cuff around the hips or a band beneath the bustline, all of Adele Simpson's sheath dresses are carefully shaped, with slim, easy midriff and due allowance for natural bosom curves. Most of her skirt-and-jacket outfits have matching or coordinated overblouses, fitting smoothly around the hips.

This pint-size but mighty designer likes high colors for fall, such as American beauty red and forest green, in addition to every shade of brown, from café au lait to black coffee. She espouses the long, lean look though she herself is less than five feet tall. For dinner and cocktail wear she likes short sheaths of metallic brocades, and for more formal wear shows long, slinky, floor-length gowns in dazzling lames and brocades, often with matching fur-trimmed jackets.

Ezzard Charles Takes Prize as Most Persistent Cuss Heavyweight Division Has Ever Boasted

By GAYLE TALBOT

NEW YORK (AP)—You can say this much for Ezzard Charles: whatever you might think of his ability as a prize fighter, he's the most grimly persistent cuss the heavyweight division ever saw.

As recently as last September, after he had surrendered to Rocky Marciano in the eighth round of their second title bout, the moody Cincinnati Negro was officially declared washed up forever. He hadn't even looked like he wanted to fight. The final obsequies were held over his recumbent frame last April, when Johnny Holman stopped him in Miami.

And yet, here old Ez is back again, like a man on a pogo stick. We'll be the last to contend that he was a wolf with a curly tail against young Paul Andrews the other night in Chicago. But he did win over a very promising young man, and the official who voted for Andrews must have been looking at another fight.

As a reward, the former champion has been assigned the unenviable task of trying to cool off Hurricane Jackson in Syracuse next month. If he does score a decisive victory over the wild man from Long Island, then what do we have? Why, nothing much except a fellow named Ezzard Charles sticking out as the most logical candidate to fight Marciano yet again, providing the Rock beats Archie Moore Sept. 20.

Before you scream foul, look over the list. Jackson tops the newcomers since he recently wiped out an earlier defeat by Jimmy Slade. He's a tireless, rugged customer, if slightly erratic in his thinking, and he promises to give Ez a very hard evening. But say that the veteran does master him, who is around after that for Ez to conquer?

Nino Valdes, beaten by Moore? Holman, licked by Ez in a return go only a month ago? Floyd Patterson, only 20 and 170 pounds? Or shall we bring Don Cockell back again? Of course, if Moore should lift the crown, there will be nothing to worry about for a time, because Archie is committed to give Rocky a return shot. We are only assuming that things will come to the worst.

Cary Middlecoff Fires Hot 64 In Milwaukee

MILWAUKEE, (AP)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, riding the crest of great subpar golf, fired a brilliant 35-29-64 yesterday in the opening round of the $35,000 Milwaukee Open but earned a mere one-shot lead as the field shattered par 39 times.

The 64 over the par-70 Blue Mound Country Club course tied the course record and a sizzling 29 on the back stretch set a new mark.

There are 147 entrants in the meet. In addition to the 39 who broke par, another 12 matched it. Middlecoff, willowy ex-dentist from Memphis, Tenn., who won the Masters' and Western Open titles this year, brought down the birds and an eagle. He capped his 29 with a 10-foot birdie that snatched the lead from Paul Hawkins, of St. Andrews, Ill.

Eight shots off the pace were Jack Fleck, of Davenport, Iowa, making his first start as new crowned United States Open champion.

Bracketed at 66 were Mike Schach, the year's top money winner; Bo Winger, of Oklahoma City, Okla., victory in the Vancouver Open; veteran Jim Kroll, of Utica, N. Y.; Jim Clark of Laguna Beach, Cal.; and newcomer Paul McGuire of Wichita, Kan.

At 67 were Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Jerry Barber, Gene Litter; Julius Boros; and Jim Turnesa.

Rhubarb-Studded Game Gives Odessa 3-2 Win Over Artesia

Unearned Run Spells Defeat For Jordanites

An unearned run that started a rhubarb here last night gave Odessa a 3 to 2 victory over the Artesia NuMexers and evened up a three-game series between the teams at one apiece.

Both squads went into the second inning with one run apiece when Odessa second-sacker Bob Smith got on base on an error in the initial frame.

Odessa right fielder Dan Ward dropped the apple on a fly ball. Tom Godwin, Odessa short stop followed suit getting on an error by Joe Coscia at short. Then Fred Harris made it 2-1. Then Fred Harris made it 3-1 in a row when the umpire called catcher's interference and bases were loaded.

Ed Peacock popped a fly ball in the glove of Artesia hurler Jimmy Buford for the first error. Then the rhubarb was on as both Godwin and Harris were caught in a double play at first and second. While Smith was going on Smith streak for home but Umpire Bello decided that the run didn't score. Odessa Manager Tom York simply blew his top and he it was over everyone got to the act and Bello decided that Smith had crossed the plate before the double play was completed. That was Artesia manager Tom Jordan's cue to blow like a roman candle.

The game was delayed for seven minutes but when it was over run went into the books as an earned run.

The sixth Dale Scales, Odessa baseman singled, took third Coscia's error and then came for the tally on Lefty Loyko's fly to centerfield.

The NuMexers racked up their second run in the third inning. Gallardo got on on a batters choice and then scored in Jim Bamwex's triple.

osing pitcher Tommy Buford Odessa to four hits in the ball game while Jerry Tucker right hander on the mound for Odessa gave up five hits.

Young Mr. Jackson Has Indian Sign On N.L. - Leading Bums

By The Associated Press
Larry Jackson, one of those "who he?" guys the St. Louis Cardinals unveiled in the first game of the exhibition season last spring, is still a mystery man for the Brooklyn Dodgers.

It was Jackson who worked the first three innings of the Florida game, teaming with Floyd Woodruff. Barney Schultz and Herb Moford to shut out the New York Yankees. Hardly anyone ever had heard of the four pitchers 'till then.

Only Jackson has stuck all the way with the Cards and he's picked the Dodgers, of all people, to prove he belongs. The 24-year-old right hander had them playing dead again last night, winning 6-1 after shutting out the National League leaders for 8 1-3 innings.

Jackie Robinson's double and Carl Furillo's single spoiled a second shutout for Jackson against the Braves.

The defeat pared the Dodgers' lead over Milwaukee to 10½ games. The second-place Braves brushed off Philadelphia 7-1. New York's Giants edged up on the Cardinals.

The San Angelo Colts were the only first division club to win last night, and so stretched their narrow Longhorn League lead to two and a half games.

The Colts exploded an eight-run seventh inning against Roswell to take an easy 10-3 verdict. Odessa knocked off second-place Artesia 3-2 to allow San Angelo to move out to a little breathing space, while Big Spring got Midland 11-9 and Hobbs downed Carlsbad 9-7.

The clubs all stay in the same locations tonight.

Pete Simone of Roswell was hooked up with Jodie Phipps of San Angelo in a good pitching duel—until San Angelo blasted things open in the seventh. Four straight hits, including a two-run double, sent Simone to the showers.

Probably the best pitching of the evening came at Artesia. Losing pitcher Tommy Buford gave up only four, while Jerry Tucker allowed five. Odessa iced the rhubarb-filled game with a single run in the sixth.

Big Spring rushed in five runs in the seventh and four in the eighth to back up Art DiCesare in whipping Midland. DiCesare, a rookie, fanned 11 in gaining his 10th victory of the season.

Alex Crespo smashed a pair of homers and Evilio Hernandez accounted to 10 strikeouts in a relief role as Hobbs rolled over Carlsbad.

Pennsylvania Defends New Boxing Code

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader says the International Boxing Club's threat to stay out of Pennsylvania was based on an "inaccurate" interpretation of the proposed new state boxing code.

The governor sent an explanatory telegram to Truman Gibson, IBC secretary, last night after Gibson said in Chicago that the IBC would not schedule any further fights in Pennsylvania.

Such a move would all but kill the sport in the state.

Leader had told a news conference earlier that "if we can't clean up boxing" in Pennsylvania "we'd better be rid of it." He said he would extend his 90-day ban on boxing indefinitely, if needed.

In his telegram to Gibson he said Pennsylvania "welcomes boxing within its borders" and the new boxing code would furnish "enlightened, sympathetic and productive supervision and regulation" of the sport.

Gibson's chief criticism apparently was based on a provision in the new code which permits summary suspension of a license without first giving a hearing. But a hearing is provided in the code, following the suspension.

In defending the code, which goes before the Legislature Monday, the governor told Gibson that the commission would be empowered to suspend "such principals in the contest" if it felt the contest "did not meet the standards of the proposed statutes."

Taxpayers and Voters

THAT election on the proposed constitutional amendments is not too far away and most people should be giving it a little thought now.

The full contents of the amendments to be submitted to the voters probably will not be announced until about 30 days before the election but we should at least be thinking about the election now.

Our record as voters and taxpayers in balloting on constitutional amendments is not so good. We haven't displayed or shown much interest in these elections in the past.

As a result of that fact some years ago we approved an amendment that was supposed to take our highway commission out of politics. We have decided now we didn't accomplish our purpose.

But in the fall election on the constitutional amendments we have another matter to come before the voters we should give some serious thought before we vote. That is the proposal to consolidate the corporation commission and the Public Service Commission into a five man commission.

The vote of the people will determine whether the two commissions that we have today continue or whether they will be consolidated. At the present time the state has a three man public service commission to which the members are appointed by the governor for specific terms.

The public service commission has jurisdiction and regulatory power over most of the utilities with the exception of the telephones. The phones are under the jurisdiction of the state corporation commission.

Many have and do object to the proposed amendment providing for this consolidation of the two offices because of the wording of the amendment. It calls for power to regulate and to control. Most everyone believes the commission should have the regulatory powers but they object to the word 'control'.

Many feel there is too much control over private business and private enterprise today and that this word should be eliminated from the proposed amendment. There also is a split between two members of the Corporation Commission on the amendment. Jim Lamb from Las Cruces favors it while Ingram Pickett opposes it.

We are opposed to the amendment as long as it provides for 'control'.

Korea, and in Europe during World War II. Particularly noteworthy is his long and intimate association with Gen. George Patton throughout that war as the latter's Chief of Staff in the various campaigns that eventually spelled the defeat of Hitler's Germany.

General Gay's special Military preparation has included training and graduation from the Cavalry School at Fort Riley, Kansas, the Quartermaster School in Philadelphia, the Army Industrial College, the Chemical Warfare School, and the U. S. War College in Washington, D. C.

to achieve a relaxation of international tension and restore confidence between states. The desire of the people of the world is peace. Two world wars brought them only suffering and the cold war burdened the peoples with the crushing costs of an armaments race and great fear.

Continuing his statement, Bulganin said: "People can breathe freely only when they feel what they and their children are not threatened by the calamity of war."

Old Charges
He then repeated familiar Moscow allegations against the West—charges, declaring they were forming "a war bloc" and surrounding the Soviet Union with military bases.

"There is a great deal of talk in the West about an alleged march from the Soviet Union," he declared. "But we never wanted war nor do we plan any attack on anybody in the future. But in view of the war preparations in the West we must take measures to protect ourselves. We have an army—a very good army with all the necessary arms and modern equipment."

Bulganin, reading his statement under a portrait of Lenin, added: "We do not want war. We want the utmost confidence and a businesslike cooperation and mutual understanding between nations."

We wish that the enormous funds now being spent for war preparations could be spent for housing, for schools, for science, for culture and peaceful development. We desire a system of collective security in Europe which other states can join and which would crase fear.

Ideas Clash
"Differences in class, social and political systems are harming relations, but we believe they should not interfere with coexistence as these systems are the internal affairs of each country. These differences prevent peoples from living in peace and developing useful commercial ties."

"Some people believe that capitalism is better than communism. We believe that communism is better than capitalism but this dispute can not be settled by war."

"There are many outstanding issues in the world today but we believe they must be discussed around a table. It has been said that a bad peace is better than a good war. But we do not believe that. We believe that to relieve the world's peoples from a fear of war is to seek genuine international agreement and that is the object of our mission to Geneva."

"It would be naive to believe that we shall be able to settle all the outstanding issues at Geneva. "If the members of all the delegations show a spirit of good will then we can map the way to peace, find a common language and lay the basis for a settlement of these questions."

"A great deal of effort is necessary. The Soviet delegation promises such a sincere effort. It is to be hoped that members of the other delegations will act in the same spirit and that we shall be able to lay the foundation for a lasting peace."

WILSON OK'S
The letter, which had been classified "confidential" at the Pentagon, was released on orders from Wilson, who was at Quantico Va., for his annual conference with military and civilian chiefs of the armed forces.

Wilson acted in response to inquiries by newsmen after the New York Times had quoted extensively from the letter. The Times said it had been given access to the material by "competent sources."

In telling newsmen of his order to the Army to give the letter out Wilson commented laconically: "I don't think it's very important."

IKE HIDES
President Eisenhower put it a little differently at a news conference some months ago. Questioned then about Ridgeway's objections to administration plans to reduce army strength, Eisenhower said Ridgeway was expressing a "parochial" view.

The President's point was that Ridgeway, an Army man, was speaking from the Army's "local" viewpoint. Eisenhower took the position that emphasis on air power and atomic and hydrogen weapons represents a broader view, and that the "overall" responsibility.

At that time Ridgeway had just told a congressional committee the proposal to reduce Army forces by 140,000 men would "jeopardize" national security.

Ridgeway's retirement as Army chief of staff has been widely attributed to his opposition to administration policy. Ridgeway passed the regular retirement age of 60 last March and actually was serving under an extension of time after that. An additional extension, however, would have been permissible.

From The Files Of 50 Years Ago

July 1905
Louisiana parties are ready and waiting to put up an electric light system and ice factory in Artesia. They want a franchise from our city dads and if they secure a franchise we are assured the work will begin immediately

Bert Roby returned yesterday from his farm south-west of town where he is having a well put down. He actually worked a few minutes himself while gone and his hands were blistered. Poor thing. We amos nearly felt a little bit sorry for him.

In a Santa Fe Railroad ad, shows C. O. Brown, local agent, Pecos Valley Lines. It advertises only forty-five hours between Artesia, N. M. and Chicago, Ill., and twenty-nine hours between Artesia, N. M. and Kansas City, Mo.

Hancock, Loving & Roby have a handsome new safe just installed in their office, but the senior members of the firm refuse to learn Roby the combination. It is a good idea, for should Mr. Roby have access to the cash he would buy the whole Pecos Valley.

The Bank of Artesia shows capital stock paid in $15,000.00 authorized capital, $30,000.00, J. C. Gage president; A. V. Logan, vice president; A. L. Norfleet, cashier, and Jno. B. Enfield, asst. cashier.

argument to the others. The 10-page study of the relative military positions of the United States and its free world Allies vs. the Soviet bloc made two main contentions.

NEED TASK FORCE
For that situation, Ridgeway said, the free world needs "an immediately available joint military force of hard-hitting character in which the versatility of the whole is emphasized and the preponderance of any one part is de-emphasized."

2. Some time between 1958 and 1962 the Reds will have developed such nuclear weapons and delivery capability that "the United States nuclear air superiority will have lost most of its present significance."

In that situation Ridgeway foresaw a nuclear stalemate, either through mutual destruction if the weapons are used or through their cancellation because neither side will employ them for fear of what the other will do in retaliation.

The letter, which had been classified "confidential" at the Pentagon, was released on orders from Wilson, who was at Quantico Va., for his annual conference with military and civilian chiefs of the armed forces.

ies, and Mrs. Ted Maschek. Activities will be pursued through the unit system, with seven units headed by a leader and assistant. Also supervising will be a number of program aides made up of senior girl scouts.

"Volunteers are urgently needed to carry out the program," Mrs. Sparks stressed, asking for workers to volunteer as leaders and for senior girl scouts to lend their skills to the job of program aide. Women and girls who wish to work on the program are invited to call either Mrs. Sparks at 6-3360 or Mrs. Vandewart at SH 6-4544.

said Lt. Richard E. Davidson, Alliance, Ohio, assistant navigator. Second Givens
An hour later the second starboard engine failed. Roosevelt and 2nd Lt. Harry Simpson, Akron, Ohio, co-pilot, were able to feather both propellers. The dead engines did not drag or vibrate.
But for four hours Roosevelt and his flight engineer, M. Sgt. Herman Dupuis, Helena, Mont., had to drive the two port engines at nearly maximum power.

Dupuis, who made a wartime ditching in a Navy Martin Mariner, said another engine might have gone at any moment under the strain. He said he sweated every minute with the ignition system. He prayed it wouldn't fail.
Sgt. Arthur C. Crawford, Lagro, Ind., a 187th man on his way to see his wife and three children at Ft. Bragg, said feathering the first engine didn't bother much.

But when the second stopped... Really Scared
"That's when we really got scared. All the time, though, I was just sure I was going to see my wife and kids, all right, even if I had to get a little wet."
The homebound paratroopers had to throw overboard all their gear and souvenirs... collected over as many as five years in Japan. That took 7,000 pounds of load out of the plane.
In Roosevelt's crew were Capt. Earl R. Roberts, Greenville, S. C., navigator; Sgt. Dewey F. Parker, Kirbyville, Tex.; Cpl. Willie Johnson, Milo, Okla., flight mechanic; and Cpl. Erskine Carpenter, Harlan, Ky., load master.

Browning was right when he said, "Grow old with me, the best is yet to be." It will be, if you head your life in the right direction. Me? My formula is simple. I try to give more than I get. I've seen a lot of life in my time...got a lot of friends. Most of them discuss their problems with me. And there is the church on the corner. One Sunday years ago a strange thing happened inside of me, and it made life worth living ever since...GOD. Been giving Him a dime out of every dollar since that day. Yes, sir, I'm rich. Not much money but haven't an enemy on earth. Trying to walk the straight and narrow way and getting others to go with you makes one feel downright good inside. I've seen a lot of life in my time and still have much to live for. I'm also ready to go when He calls. Are you ready to go? Are you at peace with God?
