For the farmers and ranchers of the Artesia area, a gentle soaking rain is like money in the bank. Thousands upon thousands of dollars fell from the skies this forenoon in the guise of tiny raindrops. Most everyone will get some share of that bonanza.

CITY RECALLS FLOOD AS RAINS COME

THE ARTESIAN WELL

By RICK RAPHAEL

Sunday we mentioned that Nelson's Super Mar was Artesia's sole purveyor of buffalo meat. Well sir, want Buffalo Bill, Lewis Clark, Gen. Fremont, et al. to know the spirit of the western pioneer runs high in being. Also that the gusts of satisfaction run as well. Sat down last night to a well-prepared but roast and all we can say is that if the western frontiers ate that well, we'll never leave all those stories about tough living conditions in the Old West.

Incidental information detestment: When Roswell conducts its new and world's best television transmitting tower, all Artesia TV antennas will have to be pivoted out eight degrees eastward to face the new location.

But with winds and other factors being what they are, there are but few antennas accurately aimed here right now. This startling bit of useless information comes from chatting with several Artesia TV dealers and servicemen.

We know one family that never notices the difference when the Roswell tower goes up. They've got their antennas turned backwards anyway—facing Carlsbad.

Anniversary greetings to Artesia Dry Cleaners and Laundry. Thirty years of operation here is being celebrated by the firm headed by Howard Whitson. It's established business like this that lends stability to the steady growth and progress of southeastern

Miss New Mexico Is Favored To Win U. S. Beauty Crown

By JAMES BACON

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Miss New Mexico, whose every little wiggle spells out sex appeal, emerged today as the morning line favorite to be crowned Miss USA.

But there will be luscious competition from every one of the 14 other finalists chosen last night by the judges. They are the Misses Arkansas, California, Colorado, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Nebraska, New York City, New York State, South Carolina, Texas, Vermont, Washington and Wisconsin.

Miniature Train Due Here Aug. 11

The famous Santa Fe miniature freight train definitely will be on hand to head the Children's parade of the Golden Jubilee on Aug. 11.

A letter of authorization official in Chicago, reached from J. P. Reinhard, Santa Fe Ralph W. Ater, the railroad's public relations chief at Amarillo and he relayed the word to Acting Agent C. C. Correll at the Artesia station.

The train now is at Alvarado, Tex., and will be shipped out for here on the 8th, insuring its arrival in ample time for the part it will play in the Children's parade. The train consists of a miniature locomotive, a freight car, stock car, refrigerator car and caboose, according to Correll.

Jean Stone in charge of the Children's parade for the Jubilee organization, explained:

"It was first considered placing the train in the main parade on the 10th. But since there will be so many units in that parade, we were given the use of it to head the Children's parade, where it should make a big hit."

Brown-eyed Joan Schwartz, a coed from Albuquerque, was the crowd-pleaser as the American beauties paraded before the panel of judges and an audience of 3,000. She got even more applause than Miss Iowa, the state where half of Long Beach came from. Miss Iowa was eliminated.

Youngsters Jam Story Hour Room

It took two rooms at the public library this morning to accommodate the children who attended the regular Wednesday story hour. Two rooms and six story tellers.

The story tellers are members of the Junior Story League. Each week the youngsters, pre-school and school age, listen eagerly to these youthful story tellers. They vary from week to week.

This morning, the story tellers were: Billie Sue Parry, Phyllis Gilchrist, Barbara Thompson, Mary Yates, Marion Donnell, and Sylvia Haille.

The public library story hour is held from 10 to 10:45 every Wednesday.

Big Four Takes Up European Security Issue

GENEVA (AP)—The Big Four leaders took up the broad question of European security today, putting aside the specific issue of Germany alone.

The heads of government met for their fourth session at 4 p.m. (10 a.m. EST). For two hours earlier today their foreign ministers tried to arrive at some sort of agreed recommendations on the German problem. One Western source said they just argued in circles. ### Burma Chief Asks UN Seat For Red China

TOKYO (AP)—Prime Minister U Nu of Burma suggested today that simultaneous admission of Red China to the United Nations and release of Chinese-held American prisoners would "relieve a great deal of tension."

U Nu, who flew here after a tour of the United States, also told a press conference that he backed the proposal of Prime Minister Nehru of India for a world conference on Asia problems.

"A world conference of all countries interested in Asia would be a very good thing," U Nu said. Answering a question, he said, "It would be very difficult" if Red China did not attend such a conference.

Nehru advanced the proposal yesterday.

Cloud Banks Cover Valley; El Paso Hit

Artesians watched this forenoon's rainfall with mixed pleasure and apprehension.

In just such a misleading way, the disastrous rains began last October which brought down on the whole upper Pecos valley one of the most disastrous floods in its history—a flood that cost a dozen lives and did some 10 million dollars damage to crops and property.

Reassurance comes, however, from comparing the rainfall measurements of last Oct. 7 and today. In Artesia, only 1/2 inch of rain had been recorded for the current rain shortly before noon. That compares with 1.77 inches in a six-hour period during the October flood.

Most of last October's flood waters poured down from the slopes of the Sacramento mountains and off the ranges lying between them and the Pecos Valley. In a 48-hour period, then, Hope recorded 4.75 inches.

Today's rain started about 7 a. m. in the Mayhill area and was still falling steadily shortly before noon. A half inch had fallen (Continued on Page Four)

National Guard Comes to Aid of Flooded Lamesa

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rains measuring up to 12 inches sent some major Texas streams on the rise Wednesday.

Muddy floodwaters forced National Guardsmen to evacuate 25 families Tuesday at Lamesa in West Texas. Several farm families southeast of Tahoka also were forced from their homes.

The rains slacked off Wednesday morning but conditions were ripe for them to pick up again as nightfall approached. At dawn, rain still was falling at Salt Flat, El Paso and Amarillo.

A heavy rainstorm just north of San Angelo was blamed for the death Tuesday of Charles McKenzie of Pratt, Kans., who was killed in a head-on collision of two autos.

The downpours covered a 250-mile stretch of West Texas Tuesday—from the New Mexico line to Del Rio—but were heaviest in the Lamesa-Tahoka area. The heaviest rain was 12 inches measured near the Borden-Lynn county line about 18 miles southeast of Tahoka. Thundershowers were reported elsewhere in Texas.

Creeks and ditches were filled by the heavy runoff, much of which emptied into the Colorado (Continued on page four)

Five-Year-Old Girl Is State's 163rd Road Death

By The Associated Press

A one-car accident near Hatch has hiked the state traffic death toll to 163. This time last year, the total was 186.

The victim was 5-year-old Sherry Cooper of Albuquerque. She was killed on State Road 26 about 8 miles west of Hatch yesterday afternoon. The car her mother was driving overturned and the little girl was pinned beneath the car.

Injured were the mother, Mrs. Charlotte Cooper, two Cooper children, Cathy, 2, and Frances, 6, and a neighbor's girl, Nickie Rose Hudson.

Auto Workers Indicted on Political Rap

DETROIT (AP)—A federal grand jury today indicted the CIO United Auto Workers Union on charges of violation of the federal corrupt practices act in politics.

The grand jury accused the big union of using general union funds to finance political activities in the 1954 congressional campaign.

This was the campaign in which Patrick V. McNamara, Democrat supported by the UAW and other labor groups, defeated U.S. Sen. Homer Ferguson, Republican.

A weekly union-sponsored radio program was involved in a grand jury investigation of charges brought by the Michigan Republican Central committee.

John Feikens, committee chairman, filed the charges with the justice department last March.

2 Juveniles Held

Artesia police last night picked up two wandering juveniles, a boy hitchhiker and a runaway girl of 15. The boy was released when he promised to return to his home and the girl, who was taken from a bus here on notification from the state police, was placed in a private home by Juvenile Officer J. D. Josey, to await the arrival of her parents from Encino.

Two Big Oil Tanks Explode

Nurse Tells Dramatic Story Of Loco Hills Lightning Hit

How lightning struck two large oil tanks and turned them into exploding infernos of flame while she and her husband sat in their car less than a city block away was revealed today by Mrs. Naomi Buckhout, Artesia public health nurse.

The two 500-gallon tanks were on the Harvey Yates-Travis oil lease at the edge of Loco Hills, some 19 miles southeast of Artesia. Both tanks were melted in the intense heat. Total loss, according to Yates, was between $4,000 and $5,000, which was mostly covered by insurance.

In her own words, Mrs. Buckhout's story was:

"A heavy rain started falling about our house on the lease about 8 o'clock Saturday night. Soon it turned into a veritable cloudburst, with sharp lightning flashes all (Continued on page four)

Nevada Convicts Give Up Strike

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Tired, hot and hungry, Nevada State Prison convicts who Monday afternoon started a bloodless rebellion against the prison routine, gave up the ghost last night without gaining a single point.

More than 200 of the rebels who had spent a night and a day in the prison yard lined up and started filing back into their cell block a few minutes after they had been warned by Warden Art Bernard the time had come for a showdown.

Nevada state patrolmen called to replenish the guards around the 60-year-old brownstone prison were "tired and won't wait much longer," the warden told a three-man committee representing the convicts.

Minutes later the committee returned with the word that the men were "tired and sick; they don't want anything."

An hour and a half later all were back in their cells.

Firm Opened as Artesia Steam Laundry in 1925

Artesia Laundry and Cleaners Is 30 Years Old Today

MEMES HAVE CHANGED—in the 30 years that Howard Whitson has been operating his laundry and dry cleaning service for Artesia and he has kept pace of the changes with his complete modernization of the big plant on North Fourth Street. (Advocate Photo)

Today is a red letter day on the calendar of the Artesia Laundry & Cleaners and a significant date in the business history of the city. It is the 30th anniversary of the establishment by Howard Whitson of the laundry enterprise of which he is proprietor.

On July 20, 1925, Whitson started the small laundry that was to grow into the substantial industry now located at 115 N. Fourth St. An Iowan who had spent some years in Wyoming, Whitson had arrived in Artesia in the spring of 1925.

He found a need for a laundry in the city, since there had been none here for some 10 years, Artesia residents then sending their laundry to Roswell via agencies. The oil boom was in its early stage and Whitson saw a ready-made opportunity to establish a business that was needed and should flourish.

Under the name, the Artesia Steam Laundry, his first plant was on N. First St. Three years later, Whitson bought a cleaning plant then operating here and changed the name of his business to its present one. The combined business of laundry and cleaning moved, on Jan. 1, 1929, to a building at Fourth and Main, since torn down and now the site of the Williams Furniture store.

But more space was needed as the business prospered. Whitson built the large, handsome structure now housing the enterprise—a building with 12,000 feet of floor space, one story high for the laundry and cleaning departments and rising two stories on the street frontage. The upper story is for an employees' lounge and conference rooms. Beneath the double-story part of the building is a storage vault for woollens and furs.

The firm provides all types of laundry service, as well as linen and diaper service. It does dry cleaning, utilizing the Sanitone process, for which it has the franchise (Continued on page four.)

North Nine Solid Favorite In Tonight's All-Star Tilt

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP) — The North goes into the tenth annual West Texas-New Mexico League all-star game tonight as a solid favorite.

Good pitching was the reason why most observers picked the squad handled by Grover Seitz, manager of the Pampa Oilers, and Eddie Bockman, manager of the Albuquerque Dukes, first and second respectively in league standings.

Guiding the fortunes of the South is Jay Haney of Abilene, making his third appearance as an all-star manager, in nine of which he has had a loser.

For Seitz, it will be a sixth appearance. He has headed three winners and will be trying to avenge an 11-6 loss handed his North team by Haney and the South in Amarillo last year.

Haney planned to start veteran righthander Bob Upton of Plainview and follow up with left Ken Yoke of El Paso, southpaw Ken Uhlman of Lubbock and righthander Ed Kapp of Abilene. This is the way their records stand: Upton 11-5, Yoke 13-6, Uhlman 6-8 and Kapp 11-6.

The South manager said the rest of his starting lineup would be: Osmond Walker, Abilene, center field; Doug Lewis, Plainview, first base; Bobby Fernandez, Lubbock, left field; Jim Mangan, El Paso, third base; Don Stokes, Plainview, right field; I. B. Palmert, Plainview, catcher; Bobby Scott, Lubbock, second base; Scooter Hughes, Abilene, shortstop.

Bockman said he would suggest Seitz start either Jack Martin, Albuquerque lefthander, or Tom Pollet, Pampa, for the North. Other northern moundsmen are righthander Ted Shandor of Albuquerque, lefthander Marshall Bridges of Amarillo. Their records: Martin 15-3; Pollet 13-2, Shandor 13-8 and Bridges 10-1.

When Chips Are Down, Yankees Generate Steam for Victories

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Hate 'em or love 'em, but you've got to give the New York Yankees their due. When the chips are down, the Yanks are up.

They had their lumps, losing 9 of their last 13, as they wobbled into Comiskey Park last night for a showdown with the runner-up Chicago White Sox, fresh from winning 8 of their last 9 games.

The Yankees needed at least one victory in the three-game set to retain their American League lead, down to two games.

They got it. Elston Howard's two-run homer in the eighth inning carried New York through, making up for two Yank errors that had handed the Sox a 3-2 lead in the seventh.

Big Yankee Win
It was one of those "big" games the Yankees usually win. With the victory they moved three games ahead of the Six and four games up on third-place Cleveland, whacked by Washington 8-1.

In the other AL games, Boston defeated Kansas City 6-3 and Detroit laid the wood to Baltimore, 12-4.

In the National, Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee 4-3 in a 19-inning game that tied the major league longest night game record, New York lost 3-1 to St. Louis, then beat the Cards 4-2 in a two-night twinbill, and Philadelphia took a two-night pair from Cincinnati, 7-8 and 6-2. First place Brooklyn and Chicago were idle.

Angelo Needs Overtime to Top Roswell

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

It took 11 innings to turn the trick, but San Angelo, Longhorn League leader, finally managed a 9-7 victory over Roswell last night.

Herman Charles homered and Art Bowland doubled in Elias Osorio in the top of the 11th for the win. Bowland banged a homer in the first to start things off, and Charlie Pruitt homered for Roswell in the sixth. Winner was Marshall Epperson, the loser Pete Simone.

In the only other game, Carlsmith whipped Big Spring 12-2. Kermit Sakevitz and Thurman Tucker combined to pitch the victory, Sakevitz taking the honors. Pedro Osorio clubbed a homer in the third with a mate on to start a lead the winners never lost.

Midland's game at Hobbs and Artesia's at Odessa were rained out.

Cellar Places Beaumont in Winning Mood

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

From the darkness of the cellar Beaumont's scrapping Exporters have hurled a challenge to those who would kick them out of the Texas League.

They're 30 games behind but they're riding a 4-game winning streak and two of those victories were over mighty Dallas, the league leaders.

The Texas League meets in Beaumont this week and all the talk is about how the Exporters can't stay in the circuit next year. But if they keep up the current pace they'll go somewhere in the league race yet and a few more well-placed victories might start the fans coming out again.

The usual 500 faithful filed into the park Tuesday night to see the Exporters whip Dallas for the second straight time. Beaumont flogged the leaders 8-4 as Frank Johnson and Howie Anderson combined to let the Eagles down with only five hits.

Dallas retained its 2½-game lead when second place San Antonio lost to Oklahoma City 2-1 while Houston moved up a game in third place with a 6-0 triumph over Tulsa. The rebuff of the Oilers dropped Tulsa into a tie with Lubbock for fourth place. Shreveport didn't play Fort Worth because of rain.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The National AAU Swimming and Diving Championships for men begins a three-day run today, featuring the initial program. The defending champion, Joaquin Capilla of Mexico City, is favored to score a repeat victory in the diving competition.

Cardinal's New Rookie Pitcher Thrills Owners With 4-Hit Win

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Willard Schmidt, the newest of the kiddie Cardinals is making the St. Louis brain trust eat crow today which, incidentally, must taste like caviar.

"The young right-hander brought up from Omaha only a week ago in a desperation move, surprised not only the Giants but his own employers with a brilliant four-hit 3-1 victory over New York in the first game of yesterday's two-night double-header. New York won the second game 4-2.

Schmidt, a 26-year-old fast-baller from Norman, Okla., exhibited unusual poise and near perfect control as he struck out six and did not issue a base on balls.

"I was throwing mostly fast balls," the broad-shouldered 190-pounder explained. "I was taking advantage of the dusk and the shadows created by the fading sun. I also made good use of my new found curve and a swift slider. I think I threw only two change-ups all game."

Schmidt, who along with Larry Jackson, Luis Arroyo and Floyd Woodbridge, comprise the only starting rookie quartet in the majors, was brought up just a week ago and only as a desperation move. The failure of pitchers Brooks Lawrence and Gordon Jones to hurdle the sophomore jinx and the subpar pitching of ace Harvey Haddix forced the front office to bring up new blood.

Schmidt got the call because of his 12.5 record and 2.54 earned run average, best in the American Assn. with Omaha.

It was only last winter that St. Louis scouts, dispatched to Houston to inspect Schmidt, returned with a "won't do" verdict despite his imposing 18-5 in the Double A Texas League. Twice previously he had trials with the Cards and failed to make the grade.

"The kid has only one pitch, a fast ball—and nothing else," was the report. "He had no idea how to throw a curve. He's strictly a five-inning pitcher. He's won a lot of games but he's needed help in most of them."

As a result Schmidt was thrown into the draft mill with Rochester. He remains in the Cardinal organization only because the Chicago Cubs drafted outfielder Jim King from the Redwings, making the others on the club immune from selection.

Six of the 10 winners of the Sapling Stakes at Monmouth Park have gone to win more than $100,000 in purses.

Yank Infielder Struck By Ball, Has Concussion

CHICAGO (AP) — Infielder Jerry Coleman, the New York Yankees' hard luck infielder, was in Mercy Hospital today with a brain concussion and a possible skull fracture.

Coleman, who was placed on the active list yesterday after a three-month layoff with a broken collar bone, was struck by a pitched ball last night when the Yankees beat the Chicago White Sox, 4-3.

The second baseman was hit over the eye in the seventh inning of the game with a pitch thrown by Sox righthander Harry Byrd. Coleman never lost consciousness and at first it was believed his injury was not serious. However, he was rushed to Mercy Hospital where further examinations will be taken.

Race Official Sees Code Conflict in Clinite Case

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A racing official says he "can see weaknesses" in codes that led to the suspension of a Ruidoso Downs publicity man.

B. M. Koehane of Roswell, chairman of the New Mexico Racing Commission, indicated last night that officials are using the rule, and thinking about another, in the case of Paul Clinite.

Clinite has been suspended as Ruidoso publicity man on charges he had no license, Koehane said. But the real offense, Koehane indicated, was telephoning results of early races to the El Paso Times before the races were all over.

That, Koehane said, is against commission Code 66a.

But Code 66a provides only for suspending an entire racetrack and allows no specific penalty against an individual.

Koehane said that to suspend the track would be very hard on Ruidoso business.

He indicated that the no-license charge against Clinite—which provides for individual penalty—provided a technical solution.

Clinite said he did not know he needed a license. He said he was calling early results to the El Paso paper as a service to help it meet an early deadline.

Koehane said the code forbids any information of this sort being called early results to the El Paso paper as a service to help it meet an early deadline. He said that if it did, it would make things easier for bookies.

"That's what we're after, bookies," he said.

He said there was no attempt to keep information away from newspaper except as required to get bookmaking interests.

Koehane said Clinite was covered calling the El Paso Times with results by a commission agent on Sunday. Koehane said the commission held a hearing Saturday night with Clinite present.

Clinite has said he will appeal the suspension.

Koehane promised he would hold another hearing.

Earlier, Commission Secretary Ray Lewis said an appeal would be heard as soon as an audit of being conducted is completed.

When the Range is ELECTRIC!

says MRS. M. H. SANDERS of ARTESIA, NEW MEXICO

"I wouldn't trade my electric range for any other type of cooking in the world. It's so easy to cook electrically. The oven bakes wonderful cakes. The deep well is keen for beans, stews, and foods like that, and everything is done so evenly when I use the broiler."

You'll eventually cook electrically, for it's the modern way. Why not now?

A REDDY KILOWATT HOMEMAKER

When you cook on a surface element on an electric range, all the heat goes into the pan — it cooks the food. And, in an electric range oven there's complete insulation, no oxygen is needed to support flameless cooking.

The result? Cool, clean cooking, and the best meals you ever prepared.

REMEMBER — IN RANGES, AS IN ALL OTHER HOME APPLIANCES, IF IT'S MODERN, IT'S ELECTRIC.

We Need Reminders

THE 179th anniversary of the declaration of Independence has once again been observed on July 4 and we look forward to the 180th anniversary of that historic event.

The signing of that declaration, of course, was the really beginning of the great nation known in the world today as the United States of America.

It was something new—this idea of a government of the people, by the people and for the people. Those who signed that declaration which resulted in the Revolutionary War weren't so sure they were right. They also were not equipped or prepared for a war to win that freedom.

But their faith; their courage; their willingness to pay any sacrifice for their freedom led them to this step and carried them through to victory.

As we look back, of course, we do not always fully appreciate the price that was paid for the freedom, the liberty and the privileges they paid that we might have these.

Since that war we have gone into battle many times to protect our way of life. We have always had those willing to give their "all" that America might continue to exist. And because of that our nation has grown into the greatest nation in the world. We have the greatest wealth; the greatest resources; the "greatest know-how"; and apparently we have had the greatest fighters.

We will continue to occupy that position as long as we keep in mind the ideals and the principles which our founding fathers had in mind when they signed the declaration of independence.

We will continue to grow and become even a greater nation when we remember Old Glory and what it stands for and as long as we are willing to pay the same price our forefathers paid for the liberty we have today.

Let us become confused; let us think our constitution and our way of life is old fashioned; let us adopt some of the new "isms" that are offered; let us forget the true and real meaning of the Fourth of July and of Americanism and our nation will fail.

We must continue to be willing as American citizens to assume our duties and the obligations that citizenship imposes on us. As long as we do, Old Glory will continue to wave over our great nation.

Not only did the heavy rains restore the level in lakes, stock tanks and city reservoirs. It was clear the downpours were general and heavy enough to go a long way toward restoring the underground water level essential to continued irrigation.

Cattle ranges beginning to brown up as a result of the early July heat were picking up a heavy growth of new green. "We've been wondering if it would ever rain and now we're wondering if it will ever stop," said a farmer near O'Donnell.

Miss N. M.

Stone, also drew heavy applause as did Miss Georgia Carolann Connor, and Miss Florida, Marlies Gessler. The South may shine tonight.

The Miss USA winner goes against the world tomorrow and Friday nights for the title of Miss Universe, the world's most beautiful woman.

Most of the foreign beauties had little to do last night, but Margaret Rowe, a girl whose figure is controversial only in England, was adjudged the most popular girl in the big Sunday parade that was witnessed by a half-million people.

England Wins
Miss England won that honor in a poll conducted by the Long Beach Independent and Press-Telegram. Equipped with the same measurements as Marilyn Monroe, Miss Rowe was criticized as not typically British looking when she won the London contest last month.

But in Long Beach, she's real whistle bait.

For the first time since the contest started in 1952, there is only one woman singer Ginny Simms on the panel of judges. Veteran observers of the pageant predict a swing to the sex appeal girls as a result.

In the past, women judges have influenced the selections more toward the sweet, wholesome type such as last year's winner, Miss Miriam Stevenson of South Carolina.

That's why Miss New Mexico, Miss England and the exotic Miss Ceylon, Maureen Hingert, are early favorites in the audience betting.

There are plenty of the sweet, all-American girl types to choose from in the Miss USA finals such as Margaret Anne Haywood of Arkansas; Donna Schurr of California; Dorothy Jean Bewley of Colorado; Miss Gessler, Donna Steever of Nebraska; Patricia Anne O'Kane of New York City; Janet Kadlecik of Johnson City, N. Y.; Miss Stone; Mary Miles, Daughters of Texas; Carlene King Johnson of Vermont; Shirley Jean Glivins of Washington State and Jeanne Marianne Boulay of Wisconsin.

Diane Danigellis of Chicago and Miss Georgia are definitely in the sex appeal class and may be in there strong at the finish tonight.

Soviet Premier Bulganin gave a luncheon for the other Western leaders, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure. Secretary of State Dulles represented the United States.

The Eisenhower-Zhukov luncheon was watched with unusual interest because of the personal relations between the President and the Soviet defense minister. The two have been carrying on private correspondence for some months, and the President made a dramatic appeal to Zhukov at yesterday's meeting to witness his honesty and the sincerity of his desires for peace.

In connection with the Bulganin luncheon, it was noted that Eden's top adviser on disarmament, Gen. Sir Neville Brownjohn, was among those who accompanied the British Prime Minister.

Eisenhower's top disarmament adviser, Harold E. Stassen, also arrived in Geneva this morning, along with Nelson Rockefeller, who handles the U. S. atoms-for-peace program.

They will be awarded on net low, medal score, third for low medal, adjusted to handicap. The Winner of the third trophy will be a different golfer than the first two.

Entry fee will be $1 payable to Joe Estrada, and he also will be in charge of handicap. Will be 18 hole medal play.

Junior Golf Play Due Friday at Country Club

security problem to such an extent that Western leaders become convinced it would be difficult to keep the issues separate.

The West finally agreed to recommend that the summit talks move on to the security problem—second on the agenda after Germany. It was expected the two questions would be discussed to gether.

Won Priority
Western leaders had recognized the close link between the German and security issues, but they had won top priority yesterday for German unification, which they considered the most vital problem in a day of discussion on the German question proposed that the talks move on to the next item of business.

Although the outlook for any sort of agreement on Germany appeared dim, one American source said the shift to security certainly did not mean that the German discussion was finished.

A communique from the foreign ministers after a two-hour meeting described the German question and European security as "inter-related" and said the ministers had decided to recommend that the summit talks switch to security this afternoon.

No Date Set
The statement failed to say whether the German question would be brought up later.

The Russians proposed yesterday that it be dropped until West Germany pulled out of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The text of the communique: "The four foreign ministers at their morning session had a further discussion of the interrelated problems of German reunification and European security."

"They agreed to recommend to the heads of government that the latter discuss at this afternoon's session point 2 of the agenda which is European security."

In advance of the afternoon meeting (10 a. m. EST) of the Big Four heads of government diplomatic activity went on full blast on a number of fronts.

1—President Eisenhower and his wartime friend, Soviet Marshal Georgi Zhukov, had a private luncheon at Eisenhower's lake-side villa. They were alone except for interpreters.

2—Soviet Premier Bulganin gave a luncheon for the other Western leaders, British Prime Minister Eden and French Premier Faure. Secretary of State Dulles represented the United States.

"The lightning got worse and worse. Suddenly there was a terrific flash. It seemed we were right in the middle of it. Then the whole sky seemed to turn orange and there was an awful roar."

"We saw that the tanks had been hit. If there was a thunderclap, we didn't hear it."

The backhous drove down a lane in the downpour trying to reach a country road to lead them onto Pctash road so they could notify someone of the explosion and fire. But, as the health nurse recounted:

"The county road was a river of water. It seemed to us to be about three feet deep. We had to turn back."

"Although we were in no real danger, as it turned out, I certainly wouldn't want to go through an experience like that again. I remarked then and I say the same thing again, I'm glad I didn't have to face something like that with the outlook of an atheist."

The cloudburst apparently was localized to the nearby vicinity.

The disarmament problem has been placed on the summit agenda, just after German unification and European security.

Germans Called
In the midst of these developments, vacationing West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer summoned his top diplomatic advisers to Muerren, Switzerland, to consider future moves against what German sources called the "extremely negative" Russian view toward the German problem.

Foreign Minister Heinrich von Brentano and Walter Hallstein, secretary of state in the Bonn foreign office, arrived at the Alpine resort and were joined by German observers who have been watching developments at Geneva.

The decision to turn to European security was taken after the foreign ministers bogged down completely on the German problem, an informed Western source said. Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, U. S. Secretary of State Dulles, British Foreign Secretary Harold MacMillan and French Foreign Minister Antoine Pinay stuck firmly with the positions taken by their chiefs yesterday.

Ranges Better
Ranges have improved over most of the southern half of the state and the need for supplemental feeding of livestock is being reduced as new grass becomes available.

The bureau said sorghums, beans corn and other row crops are generally doing well.

Only 69 inches of rain was recorded at the weather station east of El Paso from the rains which began at 3 a. m. today but heavier rainfall apparently was received in the mountains overlooking the city. Hobbs had 51 inches during the past 24 hours, and Clayton got 30 inches, mostly last night. Glenwood and Socorro each received 21 inches.

Daytime temperatures yesterday were cooler than normal for this time of year.

The weather Bureau said the state as a whole received 70 per cent of normal precipitation this year through June 30. The June rainfall for the entire state amounted to only 33 per cent of normal.

Showers in the past two weeks have improved prospects for dry land crops and ranges, the bureau said, especially in the southern part of New Mexico. In the northern half, many areas will continue to need frequent rains to insure normal crops and adequate range forage.

by that time, according to measurement by Leonard Vreeke's rain gauge.

"It's a perfect rain," Vreeke said, "just what we need for the ranges."

The downpour was steady but gradual and there was no report of road flooding.

El Paso Flooded
In El Paso, the resemblance to Artesia's flood year was in grim earnest. A cloudburst struck Mt. Franklin early today and sent muddy waters surging through hundreds of new homes in a residential area.

Police said streets were caving in and many cars, including police cars, were stalled.

The heavy runoff closed the busy highway to Las Cruces and flooded the streets in a second El Paso residential area.

Authorities said a new home area on the east slope of Mt. Franklin, which caught the main rain, was flooded, "with water running in the front doors and out the back."

Police asked the National Guard to stand by to assist in sandbagging the inundated El Paso areas or help flooded residents evacuate.

Emergency Called
The entire Pecos Valley was declared in a state of emergency when the scope of the October flood was realized. National Guardsmen evacuated families and searched for bodies. Hardest hit were Roswell, Hagerman, Dexter, Artesia and Carlsbad. Water up to 9 feet deep covered parts of Highway 285, which threads down the fertile valley.

It was the worst flood for the valley since 1941, and made the minor high waters of Aug. 23, 1954 seem commonplace. All highways in all directions were closed. Ten thousand sandbags were rushed by the Corps of Engineers to hold back the raging Rio Hondo near Roswell, where crests of 7 feet in height poured through the city.

Artesia districts suffering most were in the Eagle Draw section on the north side, with the Vaswood, Catalina and Hermosa additions partly under water.

Today's rains throughout New Mexico were scattered and of widely varying proportions.

The Weather Bureau said the state as a whole received 70 per cent of normal precipitation this year through June 30. The June rainfall for the entire state amounted to only 33 per cent of normal.

'Magic' Potholder Offered Homsley Lumber Patrons

A "magic" potholder that clings fast when flipped against the side of the refrigerator, the kitchen stove or any metal surface is the bonus gift being presented to customers of the Homsley Lumber Co., one mile west of Artesia.

Only 100 of the ingenious potholders are on hand and they will go to the first 100 persons who go to Homsley's and ask for them. The gifts are a courtesy presentation of the Deer-O Paint Co., for whom the Homsley Lumber Co. is exclusive dealer in this territory.

Deer-O paints comprise a complete line for all exterior and interior painting jobs, including regular house paint and paints for stucco, masonry, sheetrock and other exterior surfaces, as well as enamels and paints in all colors for every interior decorating need. All are 100 per cent guaranteed by the paint company.

A large stock of masonry cement, which has been in short supply, now is available at Homsley's, a major supplier of lumber, building material and hardware for north Eddy county. Carried in stock are lumber and supplies for all types of commercial and home building.

Starting out as a small planing mill some 10 years ago, the business grew into a flourishing lumber and builders' supply depot. The owner is R. A. (Bob) Homsley.

Enlistments Open for Top 3rd Armored Army Division

Enlistments in the U. S. Army, which specify service with the 3rd Armored Division were reopened in the Fourth Army area in July.

Young men, with the desire to see Europe next year, more than filled the quota for June in non-prior service training course set up for the 3rd Armored. Enlistments were cut off for the last 10 days of June until the July class quota opened.

Colonel Roy C. Ulmer, Chief of Military Personnel Procurement Section for Fourth Army and Commanding Officer of the Southwest Recruiting District, said the opportunity to serve at overseas stations, and the advance information of future duty assignments which is available under "Operation Gyroscope" is responsible for the rush of new enlistees.

"Operation Gyroscope" lets a man enlist for a specified division. The division knows its future duty station in advance, giving personnel the opportunity to make plans well in advance of future moves.

The 3rd Armored Division now stationed at Fort Knox, Kentucky, is the present "Gyroscope" unit. Its next assignment is in Germany, with the most of the division going overseas early next year.

For more detail contact SFC James M. Allen at 114 West Mermod, Carlsbad.

Home Loan Field Reflects Growth, Waldrep Relates

A healthy level of residential building in Artesia and its trade territory is reflected in bustling activity in the home loan field.

That optimistic analysis was given today by Cecil Waldrep, whose insurance and loan service is located at 112 S. Fifth St. The service specializes in loans for the construction and refinancing of homes, with interest from 4 1/2 per cent and terms of 10 to 20 years. Loans also are made on automobiles, with 1 to 2 years to pay.

Waldrep also is in the general insurance business, handling life, fire and casualty forms of insurance. He is representative for the Equitable Life of New York, as well as for major general insurance companies. Before establishing his insurance and loan firm here in January, 1953, Waldrep was vice president of the People's State Bank, a post he held for several years. Prior to coming to Artesia, he had been for 15 years connected with a bank at Midland, Tex.

His home is at 811 Clayton St., where he lives with his wife and three children, Alicia, Vicki and David.
