Mr. Editor:

I will try and write you the haps and mishaps of this lovely neighborhood.

Getting rather dry but stock that gets plenty of water and salt are doing fine.

Mr. Joe Reeves got badly hurt by a horse running over him but he is improving.

We learn that Mr. Pooles windmill is out of fix.

Our school is progressing nicely and we are sorry that it will soon be out.

We have a well attended Sunday school which meets every Sunday.

Several of the young men of this corner have gone east to work during harvest.

A few things we would like to know: How some people know so much about their neighbors and never visit them.

Why some young men can't go to see their best girl and get home before night.

Why some go to Sunday school and leave before it is over.

Mr. T. F. Palmer is clear light a head of everyone in this community for a garden and young chicks.

All the Methodists can begin to sharpen up their appetites for I tell you he has got the yellow leg chicks.

Wheat has vamoosed the way Ward's ducks went, oats will soon follow suit and corn that is up looks sick.

Free Coinage where are you? Well, Mr. Editor if this does not find the miserable waste basket I will try again.

Success to the Light and the Pops is the desire of Next week we will publish an address to the citizens of the 101st representative district by Hon. W. D. Fisher. In it he gives some of the measures that he proposes to devote his time to if elected. Every plank in it is sound and will meet the approval of the people.

To-day the people of the county elect school trustees in the various districts. Two of the trustees elected will hold office two years and the other one only one year. The people should be careful in selecting the officers as they have, to a certain extent, the education of your children in their hands. The editor has interviewed several of the citizens of this district and the majority seem to favor the following ticket: R. Sedgwick, A. N. Akry and P. L. Crawford. All of these men stand high in the community, have children to educate, represent each portion of the district, are fair-minded and are the kind of men wanted for that position and therefore we can see no reason why they wont be elected.

The announcement of Mr. S. P. Huss appears in this issue of the Light as a candidate for re-election to the office of County Commissioner.

Mr. Huss has made a faithful, vigilant, impartial Commissioner for the past two years; he is a man of strong convictions and is fearless in the expression of them. In the administration of county affairs he has been always on the side of safety and economy, though never penurious. He is honest, capable and intelligent and whenever the interest of the county is involved he speaks his convictions with no uncertain sound. He believes that a public office is a public trust and the electors will do well to consider his candidacy.

Dr. Kimbrough will preach tomorrow.

Mr. Blackerby was in the city Tuesday.

We commend the following clipping from the Farm and Fireside to the consideration of young ladies who are enthusiasts regarding Delsarte and other new-fangled forms of physical culture:

Scopes exercise for girls.—
"Take the scope in the hands, which should be held at half reach reversed grasp, allowing the lathy portion of the scope to rest upon the floor, and holding firmly to the upper end of the handle. Bend the body slightly forward, give the arms a horizontal movement, lift the scope slightly and move one foot before the other. Repeat these movements until the scope has been brought in contact with every portion of the floor."
P. S.—Scopes is Latin for broom.—
Graham Leader.

And now it has rained on the Plains. Now let the fellow that has been howling about starving to death in the Panhandle go somewhere to a basin and wash his head. Let the calamity howler go away and apologize to himself for being a drag on civilization. Let the growling, snarling hard-time grumbler go off by himself and beg his own pardon for kicking on the weather formulator. Let us all go to work and do with our might what our hands find to do. God will not make a country, as attractive as the Panhandle, and not provide some way for his reasonable creatures to make a living for them selves and those dependent upon them. Everywhere we hear of people suffering for bread but in the Panhandle there are no paupers, no poor-houses, no almshouses and everybody seems to eat with considerable regularity. Nobody is suffering from want in our country and yet the disgruntled wail of the hard times crank is ever ringing in our ears. It is better to live on the Plains in unfettered solitude than to live in the east in gilded misery. For our part we think it better to "bear those ills we have than to fly to those we know not of." We have to live somewhere and wherever we go we will have sure reward for all the merit we possess and if we struggle through adversity to success better prepared will we be to enjoy the success that is sure to come. Stay where you are and do your duty and "God will make the balance good."

Send us news from your neighborhood. Our Lakeview correspondent took courage and sent us an interesting communication this week for which we are thankful.

The rain fell cold on the heartless ground,
And the night wind sighed so soft and low;
In my dreams that night a murruring sound,
Across my couch did come and go:
The wail of a tom-cat rent the air,
A neighboring cat an answer sent,
The first cat looked and said out loud,
"I wonder where that dumb cat went."
A moment more—the air was full
Of dulcet sounds that broke my heart,
Long and vainly did I wonder
How I'd get them cats apart
Then with madness in my brain
From out my bed I rolled
To my surprise the cats were gone,
And I was badly sold.
Cats like men disturb our dreams
And make us wonder why
That cats and men and women
So aptly tell a lie.

At last,
She let her hand be taken, and with confidence unshaken he tried his best to awaken in her some sentiment.
With a wondrous burst of feeling round her waist his arm was stealing, yet her face showed no revealing of her mind's ingenuousness.
His voice, quite low and pleading, for himself was interesting, but the maiden paid no heed to the words that he might say.
And no lover persevering ever had so dumb a hearing to his terms of love endearing as she gave him that day.
Until his chance he waited with quite premeditated, and with cheek untinged up and kissed her. Then she cried:
"There, you monster! I just knew it! I was sure, or quite near to it, if I wanted you would do. Now I hope you're satisfied."

WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY
The dictionary of the "Century."
Ten years were spent revising, 100 editors employed, and over 200,000 corrections made before the first copy was printed.
Everybody should own this dictionary. It answers quickly and correctly the questions so constantly arising concerning the history, spelling, pronunciation, and meaning of words.
A Library in itself. It also gives in a form convenient for ready reference the facts often wanted concerning eminent persons, ancient and modern; local institutions, places, and places; the countries, cities, towns, and natural features of the globe; translation of foreign questions, words, phrases, and proverbs, etc., etc.
This work is invaluable to the household, and to the teacher, scholar, professional man, and self-cultivator.
$5. A saving of three cents per day for a year will provide more than enough money to purchase a copy of the International. Can you afford to be without it?

A STRANGE CASE.
How an Enemy was Foiled.
The following graphic statement will be read with intense interest. I cannot describe the same, except to mention that it is of my own hands and legs. It is to rub and look these parts until they were sore, too, and in a moment the dead feeling that I had been possessed of them. In addition, I had a strange weakness in my back and around my waist, together with an indigestion. I had been feeling in my stomach. Physicians said it was creeping paralysis from which, according to their universal conclusion, there is no relief. Once it fastens upon a person, they say, it continues its insidious progress until it reaches a vital point and the sufferer dies. Such was my prospect. I had been doctoring a year and a half, and finally, with my particular remedy, when I saw an advertisement of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, procured a bottle and began using it. My nervous system was so weak that a few days had passed before every bit of that creepy feeling had left me, and there has not been even the slightest return of its return. I now feel as well as I ever did, and have gained ten pounds in weight, though I had run down from 125 to 110. Four others have used Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine on my recommendation, and it has been so satisfactory in their cases as to induce James Kane, La Rue, O., Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is sold by all druggists, and a positive guarantee, or refund by the Dr. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind., on receipt of price, $1 per bottle, and 50¢ for 2 bottles. It is free from any of the dangerous drugs.
