TEXAS UTILITY MANAGER MAKES VISIT HERE

Responding to a letter written by the city council, complaining of the delay in the installation of the new light plant here and of the poor service now being given, J. B. Scott, manager of the Texas Utilities Company made a trip to Silvertown last week and consulted with members of the council.

He reiterated the fact that plans are going forward for the early rebuilding of the local system and the installation of two-horse power motors together with a complete new distribution system. He said that the poles and wire had already been purchased and promised for the second time that actual work would start within the next two weeks.

Rev. Jenkins visited in the school Friday and conducted the chapel exercise. He gave some very valuable remarks. Rev. Dick Stewart of Galveston also gave a very interesting talk following Rev. Jenkins remarks.

Baptist T. E. L. Class

The class met Sunday with 13 members present and had a 38 cent collection. It was decided by the class as all members were in the W. M. U. that they go in with it and have the class Christmas tree together at Mrs. Jim Bomar's.—Reporter.

Baptist Ambassador Class

The class met Sunday with fourteen present and a very interesting lesson taught by the pastor, as the teacher and assistant were both absent. Considerable interest is being taken by the young married people in this class and the members who are attending regularly would be pleased to have all who can to come every Sunday and take a part in the discussion of the lesson.—Reporter

Methodist Sunday School

Revived interest is reported in the Methodist Sunday School since it has been re-organized. Individual reports are now made by each class and it is taken as a matter of pride by the students that their report be as good as possible. Several new teachers have been secured and they appreciate the responsibility and importance of their work and have pledged to do their utmost for the upbuilding of the work.

LINCOLN CARS MAKE HIT WITH THEIR COLORS

Fifth avenue, the world's most critical street, experienced a new and happy sensation at the annual automobile salon held at the Hotel Commodore, New York. Color was the keynote of the exhibits by builders of fine motor coachwork. Twelve bodies, produced by America's foremost designers and exhibited on the Lincoln chassis attracted especially keen interest because of the fact that the colorings and color combinations of rare birds were duplicated.

The enthusiasm of Fifth Avenue was reflected in the newspapers of the city. The New York Times commenting on the salon said:

"A striking exhibit in respective colors is that of the Lincoln cars. The rich color combinations have been adapted from the plumage of rare American and tropical birds.

The New York Sun was equally enthusiastic, saying:

"The sensational feature of this salon is the brilliant color effects found in many cars exhibited. This is particularly so in the case of the group of twelve Lincolns, each of which has been painted in striking and contrasting colors of a kind selected for its beautiful plumage. The idea underlying this method of color selection is novel and the effects secured are almost beyond description."

MAIL MUST BE POSTED BY 11 A. M., SAYS P. M.

In order for mail to catch the Tulsa route on the new schedule, it must be in the post office not later than 11 A. M., says postmaster A. E. Frieze.

Mr. Frieze pointed out the fact that while under the old schedule Mr. Crow, the driver of the star route, stayed in Silvertown approximately an hour and a half, he now stays only 20 minutes. It is necessary that he leave promptly in order that he make connection with the 1:45 train out of Tulsa. Mr. Frieze is anxious that everyone act accordingly.

Puckett Grocery Now Has Experienced Meat Cutter

Emmett Puckett announces that he has secured the services of Porter Campbell, of Tulsa, as meat cutter in his Market. Mr. Porter is a meat cutter and butcher of years experience and Mr. Puckett says that his customers will now be able to get meats of all kinds that are properly butchered and cut.

COW BELONGS TO CHURCH: IT IS THE TRUTH

Yes, sir, a cow belongs to the local Methodist church. No, she didn't come in by the usual method of members of the flock went out in the byways and forced her to come.

The new pastor, W. L. Jenkins has a large family and there are several youngsters who demand a certain amount of milk at every meal. The pastor said he needed the assistance of a cow to furnish said milk and the board of Stewards responded to his appeal by suggesting that a cow be purchased and placed at the parsonage. In other words "the cow belongs to the church" and future pastors of the Silvertown charge will be assured of plenty of milk and butter.

A special collection was taken at the Sunday morning services to pay for the cow.

T. C. Brewer, of Crowell, and Miss Ollie Lee Lawrence, of Quitaque, were married in Silvertown Wednesday, Judge C. D. Wright performing the ceremony.

Pure Maize Seed Makes New High Record

(By W. M. Gourley)

According to records from Lubbock county, L. J. Florence, a youth 15 years old, and a student of agriculture, has made the highest yield on Red Maize reported this year. His production averaged 105 bushels per acre, and he not only made a high yield but his crop sold at the rate of $57.00 per ton, going to the consumer for seed purposes. Now what brought this about? Was it the fact that Lubbock county has such productive soil. The average yield per acre on maize will not likely exceed 30 bushels per acre. The highest yield in this section will not go beyond 50 bushels per acre, and this is a high yield for any year. How much more income this community would have if all maize crops were producing just half as much as this yield. It is admitted that this has been a hard year on maize, but most of the difficulties encountered here are similar in Lubbock county. It comes to his conclusion, that there is more in the man than there is in the land. This 15 year old boy not only used his physical ability, but mixed business with his methods. He followed a definite program of first getting good pure planting seed, and he made proper preparation of his land, and properly cultivated and harvested it. There was no fertilizer or irrigation used but strictly dry land farming methods. Oftentimes Agricultural teachers and other Department of Agr. employees are criticised by farmers for their suggestions, but these high production records made by Agr. boys all over the U. S. which are far above those made by the farmers themselves ought to at least convince people that agricultural instruction is practical and profitable.

MC-D. FARMALL DEMONSTRATED BY J. A. BAIN

Quite a number were interested Wednesday afternoon by the demonstration of the McCormick-Deering Farmall Tractor, of which J. A. Bain is the local dealer. F. C. Quarles and R. I. Wallingford, International men had charge of the demonstration which was held in the east part of town. The "Farmall" is all that its name signifies and is the newest International product.

While the machine is primarily a tractor and does everything that a tractor of similar size will do, in addition, it has a cultivator and lister built-in as an integral part and is quickly changeable to list, re-list, cultivate, mow, harrow, pull farm machinery of all kinds and do belt work.

The outstanding features of the machine are its extreme simplicity and ease of operation, ability to turn in small space and economy. Those who saw the demonstration Wednesday marveled at the machine's ability to stay on the lister ridge.

Rev. Robinson claims the distinction of having preached to more people in the Panhandle than any living man having served at Amarillo, Plainview and Lubbock both as pastor and elder for a number of years each. He is a highly educated, well-read, cultured gentleman and is said to be one of the most fluent orators ever heard here. He spoke on "Man in the image of God" and thrilled his audience with his masterful delivery and unanswerable logic.

BAPTIST ASK FOR MISSION OFFERING

Dallas, Texas.—An active effort to obtain special funds to liquidate the debt of nearly $2,000,000 on the Foreign Mission Board of the Southern Baptist Convention is in progress in Texas under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. W. Eugene Sallee, for many years missionaries in interior China. The campaign for mission funds has been indorsed by the Executive Board of the Baptist General Convention of Texas and the Convention, as well as the Women's Missionary Union of Texas, all having taken the matter under consideration at their recent meetings in Mineral Wells.

A tour of the state is being made by Dr. and Mrs. Sallee, Dr. and Mrs. George W. Truett, Mrs. J. E. Leigh, the corresponding Secretary of the Woman's Missionary Union and Dr. L. R. Scarborough of Fort Worth, President of the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. At each place that the speakers visit large congregations are being assembled to hear the addresses.

A special collection will be taken in the majority of the Baptist churches of the State either December 20 or December 27 to raise the necessary funds for the liquidation of the debt. The collection has been indorsed by the officials of Buckner Orphans Home at Dallas, to which the special offerings in December are usually given. It was the judgement of the Home officials that the special missionary offering would affect the usual gifts to the Dallas institution. All special offerings will be sent by the churches to the Baptist headquarters in Dallas and remitted from there to the Foreign Mission Board.

WANTED: AN INSPISATION
 All Silverton needs is an Inspiration!
 We need the inspiration of a leader. A man with a vision and the will to make that vision come true. A man with means and one who recognizes the fact that just as the community prospers so will he prosper in proportion.
 A building boom on here would not be untimely. Things are not as dark and dreary as some would have you believe. Just because we have been delayed a few months in seeing our railroad materialize does not mean that we will never get a railroad. Just because the early freeze, following a period of wet weather, cut down our cotton crop considerably does not mean that our farmers are paupers. This is not a one-crop cotton country anyhow. We had a fair wheat crop, better than the average over the Panhandle, and the row crop is above the average. The prospects for next year's wheat was never better. The prospects for a railroad are better than they were nine months ago.
 What we need is an inspiration!
 Men have been ready to build for months. What are they waiting for? Their neighbor.
 What would happen if we should start a building boom now? Laborers would be given work. Strangers would ask what it was all about. We would tell them that we were getting ready for the railroad. They would tell others. People would flock to this country. Inquiries that are coming in now could be favorably answered.
 The editor knows of several families that had planned to build homes. They had gone so far as to have the plans and the estimates made. They have not built simply because the business men have not shown enough faith in the future of our town to set the example of building. Some say that there isn't enough money in the county now to justify a building boom. We doubt that statement; however, a boom will attract outside capital and that is what we are in need of next to the inspiration.

STIRRING UP GERMS
 By THOMAS ARKLE CLARK
 Dean of Med. University of Illinois.

THEY were talking about the various methods of scattering germs and spreading disease when the colored porter came into the car for his final skirmish with the whisk broom before touching the passengers for his tip at the end of the journey. "Fresh you off" he asked ingratiatingly of one of the doctors.
 "That's just exactly what I was talking about," the disciple of Esculapius exclaimed. "Here's one of the finest little systems of spreading germs that ever was invented. The porter brushes me off, and then he brushes you, and every one else, and stirs up a lot of germs to be breathed in and start disease. Germs ought not to be disturbed in public; it's dangerous."
 The porter grinned, standing on one foot and leaning on the other.
 "Oh, come on, doctor," he said, "and let me brush you off. What little breath I do ain't going to disturb no germs."
 His work was a mere formality. He expected only to go through the motions. There was no enthusiasm or thoroughness in his accomplishment. I used to wonder why Gilmore did not seem to get on with the firm with whom he was employed. I knew that he had held the same job for ten years or so, and that finally he lost it entirely.
 "What was the matter with Gilmore?" I asked the head of the firm one day when we were talking together.
 "He showed no interest in his work," was the reply. "He dragged himself to work in the morning as eagerly as if he were going to a hanging or his own funeral. He put no energy into his work. He showed no enthusiasm. We let him go because he was such a dead one."
 It was another case of stirring up no germs, of simply going through the motions.
 I had Gordon in my office for four years, and he was one of the most enthusiastic workers I have ever known. When he set about rearranging things in the store room, I knew it would be thoroughly done, that the remotest corner would be investigated and every elusive envelope run to cover. When he went through the files for me, there was nothing left without examination. No germs were left undisturbed; he did the business thoroughly.
 "I never got up in the morning," he wrote me when he was leaving, "sorry to have to go to work. I always liked it. It was a pleasure to see how much I could get done, and how well I don't remember that I ever looked at the clock eager for quitting time."
 People who don't know anything about it say that Gordon has been lucky. They can't understand how he has gotten on so fast when there are men who have been with the firm twice as long as he has who are still holding their old jobs.
 I know. He stirs things up when he has the whisk broom in his hands. He puts life into his work and energy.

The lack of information often times is the cause of much unfair clamoring among neighbors, so I drop here a few probably timely remarks: Various reports are current about the cotton buyers of this place, when really many of them would not be out, and very little would be said regarding them if everybody knew the exact facts. I am a stranger to ninety-five per cent of the folks in this county, having only resided here about nine months. I do not offer to criticize the other buyers for as far as I know they are honest upright citizens and the community is made better by their being here and that is what I expect for the people to be able to say of me as the years come, for I believe there is room here for honest competition in the marketing problems of the community and as that has been a big habit with me for the past six years, I believe now, as far as I know, that I will just put forth a special effort to remain in this section and play the game for years yet to come.

For the good of the Briscoe County News, will state that it has in no way been connected with the buying of cotton by me and that I have put forth special efforts to see the paper get out on time in order to have a little time to devote to buying, however it was my wish to be released from duty with the News for a period, and Mr. Odor made trips to the neighboring towns to get help and put in long distant calls for help, but could not get the help at the time. Any articles appearing in the News regarding the cotton market here were meant for the benefit of every person in the town and community, and were only to encourage the farmers to bring their cotton to the Silverton gins; regardless of who they sold to or how they sold. Signed: R. M. Carter.

State of Texas.

T. Fawcett and Therese A. Fawcett to satisfy a judgement amounting to $2728.75 interest and costs of suit in favor of Nobles Brothers Grocer Company against J. T. Fawcett, judgement of foreclosure of deed of trust being against both of said defendants J. T. Fawcett and Therese A. Fawcett.

Given under my hand, this fifth day of December, A. D. 1925. C. C. Garrison, Sheriff, Briscoe County, Texas.
