Parent-Teacher Group Starting Year of Activity with Chicken Fry

A year filled to capacity with activity, a pleasant combination of work and play, is being promised members of the Ira Parent-Teacher Association by Mrs. Guy Floyd, new president, and other association leaders. Initial meeting of the Ira group was held Monday morning at the tabernacle, and other gatherings have been announced for twice each month.

The Ira P-TA is recognized all over the state for its continuous program of achievement. Their meetings will be held second and fourth Thursdays through the school year. The second Thursday meeting will be an afternoon gathering, and the other will be held at night to attract men of the community.

"This year more than ever before," says Mrs. Floyd, "we are endeavoring to emphasize the 'pair' in parents." These fourth Thursday evening meetings will serve as community get-togethers as well as a means for accomplishing major P-TA work.

First social event of importance will be held tonight (Thursday) at the school gymnasium when the Ira P-TA will sponsor a chicken fry. Members of the Ira School faculty and board members are to be special guests on the occasion.

Mrs. Eugene Kruse, hospitality chairman, has announced that music and games will follow the chicken feed tonight. Group activities will be in charge of the following P-TA workers: Small children, Mrs. L. F. Dunn; teachers and parents, Misses W. R. Payne and Guy Floyd; young people, Pat Falls and Herschel Dunn.

Mrs. Floyd, budget and finance chairman of the Ira Parent-Teacher organization last year, has this year taken over leadership of the active chapter from Mrs. L. F. Dunn, president the past two years. Mrs. Dunn has been made program chairman, and she announces that yearbooks containing outlines of the year's work will be distributed soon. Members are urged to pay their dues early, so that the most possible good may be obtained from use of the money.

Seven Local Girls Are Guests Monday

Among guests at a four-table bridge party given Monday afternoon in Post by Marian Lee Mason, who has visited in Snyder several times, were seven local girls. Patti Hicks of Snyder was winner of the high cut prize at the close of delightful games of contract bridge.

Miss Mason's Snyder friends attending her party included: Dorothy Winston, Wynona Keller, Milton Joyce, Irene Taylor, June Clements, Patti Hicks and Margaret Gray. A frozen salad plate with cheese crisps, olives, cookies and iced tea was served the bridge group.

Leora Huggins Has Bachelor's Degree

Leora Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Huggins of Snyder, will be awarded a bachelor of science degree in commencement exercises to be held at Abilene Christian College tonight (Thursday) at the close of the school's summer term. Miss Huggins has taught in several Scurry County schools—German, Woodard and others.

Baccalaureate address was delivered to the class and friends Sunday evening by W. R. Smith, vice president of the school, and the commencement address will be made by President Don H. Morris. The graduating class of 47 is the largest summer class in the history of the college.

County Girl To Teach at Falfurrias

Mabel Earnest Cooper, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Cooper of the Big Sulphur community, has been elected to teach the first grade in the public schools of Falfurrias, in South Texas. Miss Cooper, in addition to her teaching career, has made special study of violin and voice.

Graduating from the Colorado City High School in 1935, Miss Cooper served as student assistant in the commercial department there the following year. She entered Texas State College for Women in the fall of 1936, and she received her degree there with religious science major last February.

Next regular meeting of Ira P-TA will be held Thursday afternoon, September 12, at 4:00 o'clock. All school patrons are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Sons Honor Mrs. Warren on Birthday

Mrs. J. W. Warren enjoyed a unique birthday celebration last Wednesday and Thursday in observance of her 77th birthday. The local woman was honor guest of her two sons, Dale Warren of Colorado City and Bob Warren of Post, at the lake cottage of the former Lake Sweetwater for the two days. The birthday was Thursday.

Dale, Colorado City insurance man, was the originator of the idea, but his brother joined him in showing Mrs. Warren "the time of her life." Just the three of them and a cook were on the outing, which included a great deal of chatting and exchange of ideas, so often missed between mother and sons in this rushing world, a little fishing and some thoroughly enjoyable motor boat rides all over the lake.

Mrs. Warren, who maintains her own home in Snyder, was the wife of the late Dr. J. W. Warren, a practicing physician in Snyder for almost 30 years before his death in 1921. Few sons are so fine as those two remaining sons of "Mother" Warren, she says, and few sons would be so thoughtful as to plan such a delightful celebration for the mother-son trio.

Dunn Graduates Married August 13

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Ryan of Dunn are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Jyn Nell, to Charles Arvil Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Martin. The marriage was solemnized at the home of Rev. Marvin Leech last Tuesday, with Rev. Leech, Baptist minister, reading the vows.

Only attendants to the couple were the bride's sister, Loyette, and L. D. Harrison of Denver, Colorado. Valedictorian of the 1940 graduating class of the Dunn High School was the final school honor granted Miss Ryan. She took part in all social and literary activities during her four years of high school at Dunn. She prominently represented her school in numbers of events in past years.

Martin, 1939 graduate of Dunn High School, figured for four years in the school's athletics. He was a four-year letterman in football and captained his team. He is now president of the community's 4-H Club and serves as leader of the Farmers' String Band that accompanied the 4-H Club to A. & M. College this summer and completed the trip to other parts of Texas.

The couple left immediately after the ceremony for a three-week wedding trip that will take them to points of interest in New Mexico, Arizona, and on to the Pacific coast and Los Angeles, California. Following their coast visit, Mr. and Mrs. Martin will be at home in Dunn.

GRADUATES TODAY

Elaine Carney of Hermleigh will receive a bachelor of science degree with the 1940 summer graduating class of Sul Ross State College, Alpine, tonight (Thursday). Miss Carney is a member of a senior class of 100 students.

Cuthbert Girl Gets In Poetry Corner Of Big Magazine

Attention of poetry lovers and those interested in amateur poetry-writing has centered the past few weeks on the works of a 17-year-old Scurry County girl. One of her poems was published in "Along the Way" by American Magazine in the August issue.

This 17-year-old poet is Rowena Autry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Autry of Cuthbert, who is a cousin to the local Autry families. Miss Autry received practically all her education in the Ira Schools, but she is a graduate of the Mountaintop, New Mexico, High School.

She attracted wide attention in the county during her school days at Ira with her writing, and now she is commercializing her poetic ability. The young Scurry County writer has recently sold several of her compositions, but far the most important to her was the one published in the August American, entitled, "My Poise," since she received $10 for its publication. Another recent poem, "When Teacher's Late to Class," was read over Radio Station WFAA, Dallas, on the Early Bird broadcast a few days ago.

Along with "My Poise" in the American was a clever letter written by the amateur poet, in which she voices her ambitions: "Dear 'Along the Way'—Right now I'm probably just another amateur poet, and my poems are merely frequent headaches to magazine editors. However, in 17 years more, I hope to be THE poet of America, or at least of Texas."

The poem follows, its subject matter as spicily different as that of a seasoned writer:

MY POISE
When I am introduced, I . . .
I stammer.
My accent's very wrong; so is my grammar.
My conversation's dreadful, for
I mumble.
Teacups always elude me, for
I fumble.
And when I walk across a room
I stumble.

Oh, would that Fate would give to me
The casual grace, the dignity,
The silent pride, the majesty
Of my white Persian cat!

Mrs. W. B. Lee, her daughter, Ruby Lee, who is employed in the local county agent's office, and granddaughter, young Dawn Lee of Fort Worth, left Saturday for a vacation trip to Colorado Springs, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor and daughter, Jeanne, are just back from New York City. They were visiting there with their son and brother, Hugh Taylor Jr., who accompanied them home. The local grocerman and his family arrived home Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Thompson and daughter, Jean, of San Antonio are Snyder guests of Mrs. T. J. Thompson. Jean is a 1940 graduate of the Thomas Jefferson High School.

Duce Club Guests At Party Thursday

Three guests, two of them former Duce Bridge Club members, were included in a three-table party given the club last Thursday evening by Mrs. R. C. Miller Jr. Former club members present were Gwen Gray of Abilene and Mrs. Dan Ritter of Sweetwater. Mrs. P. W. Cloud was the third club guest.

Lovely summer garden flowers were attractively arranged throughout the house for the party, and the bridge play was completed by candle light after the brief electrical storm early in the evening. High score prize went to Allene Curry, low score award to Mrs. Ritter, and Mrs. Sam Joyce retained the traveling prize.

A dainty salad course with potato chips, sandwiches, cookies and mint julep was served by Mrs. Miller to the three guests and the following club members: Maud Joyce, Loy Logan and Buster Curtis, Ruby Lee, Johnnie Mathison, Margaret Deakins, Frances Boren, Frances Chenuault and Allene Curry.

Jeanette Lollar, club member who is vacationing in New York City and the state of Pennsylvania, will be next hostess to the bridge club. Miss Lollar will return here late this week.

Mrs. Miller Attends Renuit at Post Lake

Mrs. Lora Miller attended a two-day reunion of her brothers and sisters held last week-end—Saturday and Sunday—at Two Draw Lake, Post. The 50 people present were descendants of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Hutcherson. The family moved from Hall County to Borden County. Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Miller Jr. were the only other local people present.

Mrs. Miller's sisters and brothers, who with their families attended the two-day gathering, were: S. C. Hutcherson of Plainview, A. T. Hutcherson of Holbrook, Arizona, Mrs. L. N. Hood of Abilene, Mrs. R. W. Cox of Hart and Miss Irene Hutcherson of Raton, New Mexico. The Arizona people and Mr. and Mrs. Forest Wade and children, Charles Wade and Edna Laverne (Saylor), of Clovis, New Mexico, came on to Snyder as guests of Mrs. Miller. Mrs. Wade and children remained here all last week.

Thelma Leslie, Polly Harpole and Violet Bradbury are just back from a few days visit with Mrs. Leslie's brother, Dick Leslie, and wife at Gilmer.

Roy Spikes Honored On Birthday Sunday

Roy Spikes of Hermleigh was honored Sunday at a birthday dinner given by Mrs. Spikes to celebrate his sixty-first birthday. Relatives and friends gathered at the Spikes home, five miles northeast of Hermleigh, for the bountiful chicken dinner and remained for the entire enjoyable day.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Spikes, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Patterson and son, Ray Travis, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hanback, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Groves and sons, Roy Tom, Jerry Don and Joe Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Spikes and daughter, Barbara LaDonne, Mr. and Mrs. Walker Sturdivant, Gwendolyn, Kenneth and W. L. Spikes, all of Hermleigh; Judge and Mrs. McNeil Wylie of Robert Lee; Alta and Virginia Spikes of Texas Tech, Lubbock; and Owen Benn of Abernathy.

In the late afternoon pictures of the immediate family, with all the children present, and of the entire group were made, and ice cream and cake were served the crowd.

Rosanell Rosson Is Party Honoree

Four-year-old Rosanell Rosson was made honoree Monday afternoon at her own birthday party given by her grandmother, Mrs. J. M. Rosson. Gifts were brought to Rosanell by her little friends, and the pretty birthday cake with candles was cut and served with ice cream and punch.

Guests were: The honoree, Joann Merket, Carolyn Goss, Lavern and Junior Light, Bobbie, Patricia and Junior Corbell, Eugene and Pat Maddox, Velesta and Lorell Sturdivant, Kay Tate, Melba Joy Eubanks, Ann Weller, Vernell and Betty Fay Stevenson, A. B. Marshall and Rena Pylant and Harley Merritt.

Mrs. J. W. Marrs, the former Elvergne McFarland, of Temple was a guest here last week-end of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McFarland. She also visited friends in Post, where she taught one year, during her West Texas stay.

Girls Are Advised To Build-Up For Relief

Lack of knowledge causes many a weak, undernourished girl a lot of suffering! Many others, however, know how the headaches, nervousness, cramp-like pain of functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition are helped by the proper use of CARDUI. Some take it a few days before and during "the time," to help ease periodic distress. But CARDUI's principal use is to help increase appetite; stimulate the flow of gastric juice; so aid digestion, assist in building up physical resistance and thus help reduce periodic distress. Women have used CARDUI for over 50 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Casey and five-year-old son, Billy Mack, are in Texas to spend a two-week vacation with Mrs. Casey's parents, the A. C. Martins, and other relatives locally and with Casey's parents and friends in Roscoe. The former Snyder people now live in Long Beach, California.

Mrs. John R. Howell, the former Sue Snider, visited here with her folks last week. Mr. Howell joined her here for the week-end, and both returned to Childress late Sunday.

Guests of Wynona Keller, who arrived from Fort Worth today, are John B. Collier III and L. H. McDaniels of Fort Worth. The two will be in Snyder through the week-end, leaving early next week for New Mexico.

Mrs. W. M. Cavness of Corpus Christi arrived here last Thursday to spend the week with her mother, Mrs. Sarah Buchanan, and family. She came here from Water Valley, where she has spent a few days with her uncle, Benjamin R. Buchanan, and Mrs. Buchanan.

"You aren't going tomorrow, are you, Gay?" Debby asked, after a moment.

"I think so. Yes."

"Well, I can't blame you, I suppose," Debby's voice was desolate. "It's dead enough here, goodness knows. I'll miss you, though, terribly."

"Will you?" Gay asked, drawn from introspection by the sincerity in the lovely young voice. "Why, especially, except to be polite?"

"Because I like to look at you. You're so beautiful. And I can talk to you. I can't to anybody else, Mother or Sarah, and the girls I know are pretty small town. I'm different—"

"She gave an embarrassed laugh. "I guess all this sounds pretty silly to you."

"No, it doesn't. How old are you, Debby?"

"Eighteen last month."

"How would you like to go back to New York with me?"

Debby stopped, checking Gay's progress, too, looked at Gay, speechless, her dark eyes wide and shining.

"Why not?" It had been an impulsive suggestion. But why not? She was an attractive youngster. It would be fun to take her to New York. "Why not?" Gay repeated.

Debby exhaled her breath in a sharp explosion. "Gosh!" she exclaimed breathlessly.

"Would you like to go, Debby?"

"Would I?"

"Come along," Gay laughed and tugged at her arm. "We're blocking traffic and probably getting frustrated cars. There are your courses," she went on considerably as they resumed progress again.

"But you could go to a good business school or have a tutor. I'd like to have you. My mother and step-father are away a great deal, but the apartment is always there."

"Do you know what this means to me?" Debby asked seriously. "I've never been further than Boston in my life."

"I can imagine. Your eyes are popping out of your head. Do you think—Will your mother let you? Would she object?"

"She's got to let me," Debby said passionately. "Nothing as important as this has ever happened to me. Come on!" Clinging to Gay's arm, pulling her forward, Debby took a series of skipping steps along the sidewalk. "Let's hurry home and ask her!"

Dusk was falling when they came in sight of the Houghton house. A car was parked at the curb.

"That's a taxi from the station," Debby said, checking momentarily a stream of breathlessly eager questions, comments, observations. "Who in heck—? Oh!" she added as a slight man in a heavy overcoat with a brief-case under his arm emerged from the car. "It's Mr. Sewall. He's writing a book about clipper ships and comes out from Portland to see the papers and logs and diaries Mother has. Oh, dear! He'll stay for supper and heaven knows how long afterward and I won't have a chance to talk to Mother."

"Not for all the rice in China. Not for all the bulls in Spain . . ."

Debby's voice, rising in contralto cadences above her improvised accompaniment on the yellowed keys of the square piano, brought to Gay's mind the musical comedy for which the song Debby sang had been written. She, Gay, had gone with Tony Merrill, Todd, in the same party, had been very devoted to Lida Larrimore, that evening, Ellen's roommate at boarding school and home with her for the Christmas holidays. It was that evening she had decided, in her own mind, that she would marry Todd. She remembered, not emotionally but quite accurately, the pluck it had given her heart to watch Todd fall under the spell of Julie's soft dark eyes and Charleston accent, and the relief she'd felt when Todd, later, had confessed to her that the accent had palled and that the magnolia blossom grown cloyingly sweet. Funny the things you remembered . . .

"Not for all the beans in Boston. Not for all the grapes in France . . ."

Gay, leaning on the shelf of the piano, her elbows braced on mahogany, cracked in a net-work of tiny lines, her chin in the palm of her hand, gave her attention to Debby. The child was radiant tonight. The flush in her cheeks matched the deep dark red of the velvet dress she wore.

The song came to an end.

"Can I sing, Gay?" Debby asked, looking up with anxiety in the dark depths of her shining eyes. "I don't believe you've even listened." Disappointment clouded her face. "You kept looking at the clock and listening for John."

"I did listen Debby," Gay assured her. "I think your voice is very appealing."

"But can I sing?" Debby persisted.

"We're not sure whether she has a voice," Sarah said from the opposite side of the keyboard, "or whether she does it by black magic. A member of the Metropolitan Opera Company spent part of last summer out at the hotel and Debby managed to scrape an acquaintance."

"Did you sing for her?" Gay asked.

"Yes—"

"What was her opinion?"

GOOD RECORD IN SANITATION PROJECT SEEN

District Inspector for State Health Department Says County Work Showing Good Progress

Results of a careful check, made Monday by F. J. Von Zuben of Lubbock, representative of the State Health Department, reveal that the local WPA Community Sanitation Project in operation here is making excellent progress.

Von Zuben commended highly the project work being carried forward under the supervision of Bernie Kent, county sanitation solicitor. He urged all Scurry County residents who can to avail themselves of the opportunity to secure a sanitary toilet while free labor and adequate government supervision is available.

The Community Sanitation Project in operation here is sponsored by Scurry County and co-sponsored by the State Department of Health. In this work the government will furnish free grants to any Scurry County resident the necessary labor to construct a first class, sanitary privy.

All that a person needs, Kent states, to take advantage of the offer now made through the sanitation project is to furnish the actual material needed to construct the disposal unit.

Inasmuch as the men employed on the project will utilize any salvaged material available from the old privy building, or other material available on the premises, the actual cost outlay is set at an absolute minimum. Kent reports, and well within the reach of everyone in the county.

Von Zuben pointed out while here that both rural and city residents are well aware of the disease hazards ever present with the utilization of old, broken down privies. Typhoid fever, as well as numerous other diseases, are directly traceable to the continued usage of these unsightly health menaces, he said.

"The public seldom stops to realize that with unsanitary privies, we are still living under the same primitive conditions as our cave men ancestors. A sewer system with cut 100 per cent connections operates for the convenience of the customers, rather than for the health of the city as a whole.

"Even though a family has a safe sewer connection, the family is still subject to the spread of disease from flies coming in from a neighbor's toilet. Each unit built here is constructed under the strict specifications set down by the State Department of Health," Von Zuben concluded.

Bernie Kent, the local project solicitor, is contracting the public whenever possible and explaining the benefits of the sanitation project. Residents of the county are urged to write Kent at Box 32, Snyder, or call at the project headquarters, located at the city fair grounds two blocks north of the square.

Six-Day Scout Camp Slated at Sweetwater

Boy Scout troop members of Snyder, Rotan, Midland, Rotan, Sweetwater and Colorado City mapped initial plans this week to take advantage of the Scout Camp at Lake Sweetwater which will be held August 26 through August 31.

Boating and swimming will be among the many attractions of the six-day camp. Buffalo Trail Council officials point out. Applications for the Sweetwater camp will be accepted locally by Jesse Clements, scoutmaster of Troop 36.

Entire cost of the six-day Scout Camp at Lake Sweetwater will be $4, Clements states. Further information on the camp may be secured by writing the Buffalo Trail Council, Sweetwater.

Debt-Burdened Farmers Offered FSA Assistance

County farmers who are handicapped in their farming operations, by debts which are beyond their ability to pay, were invited this week by Horace D. Seely, local Farm Security Administration supervisor, to attend a conference of the Scurry County farm debt adjustment committee that will be held here the second Tuesday in October.

"The committee will help debt-burdened farmers work out a fair agreement with their creditors that will benefit both parties," Seely said.

"Creditors will gain because the agreement will help them realize the major part on obligations in which they otherwise suffer a great loss. This will allow the farmers eventually pay their debts."

The local FSA supervisor said he found most creditors willing to be lenient with farmers who had the proper attitude. "There is no reason," Seely stated, "why a man should hesitate to sit down with his creditors, and in a friendly manner try to work out a solution to their problems."

Books Closed on Rodeo Activities As Success Show

Plans for the official activities of the Scurry County Rodeo Association for the 1940 season were written Tuesday night, at a meeting of association directors in the Chamber of Commerce office.

All matters of business pertaining to the county's recently held Fourth Annual Rodeo were disposed of, J. Koonsman, president of the association, reports, and all bills have been paid.

Credit and appreciation—where credit and appreciation was due—was conveyed by the director to the publicity committee for all those who helped make this year's show an outstanding success.

Since it would be impossible, with limited space, for the rodeo association directors to express their thanks to the contestants, helpers and spectators who cooperated to put this year's show across, the directors take this means of publicly thanking those, including the people who had part in both days' parades, for their help in making the 1940 performances "history makers."

Plans for the 1941 rodeo were discussed, in round table fashion, by the directors, especially in the light of errors made during the recent show.

"That next year's rodeo will be a still greater success than this year's program was assured by the meeting attendants, when it was decided to expand the facilities of the rodeo grounds to accommodate more people in 1941."

Mrs. A. B. Roberts Buried at Plainview After Death Sunday

Funeral services were held at Plainview Monday afternoon for Mrs. A. B. Roberts, mother of Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, who died at her home there Sunday following a nine-day illness. The 90-year-old widow of the late Rev. Roberts, once pastor of the local Methodist Church, made her home here several years prior to four years ago, when she moved to Plainview with her daughter, Mrs. Mary Banks.

Born in Tennessee, Mrs. Roberts moved to Texas at the age of nine years. She was married to her late husband in Erath County in 1865. Surviving the former Snyder woman are nine children, 19 grandchildren and 20 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Maxwell and the Noel Banks family were the Snyder funeral attendants. Mrs. Maxwell's daughter, Mrs. G. B. Hamilton of Chickasha, Oklahoma, who attended the rites, came home with the local people Monday night.

Paul Hudgins of Houston joined his wife and children here early this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamlett. Mrs. Hudgins and Paul Jr. and Susanne have been here several weeks.

Edith Grantham is home from a two-week vacation spent in Ruidoso, New Mexico.

Ex-Army Men May Receive Reserve Pay

Former members of the United States Army who reside in Scurry, Fisher, Borden, Kent and other counties of this area, under 36 years of age and who served as much as one year in the army and received an honorable discharge, are eligible to receive as much as $5 per month merely for becoming members of the Regular Army Reserve.

This announcement was made by J. T. Carroll of Lubbock, assistant recruiting officer, who says the army plans to keep in close touch with ex-service men. All members of the Regular Army Reserve receive $2 per month for each month their names are kept on the reserve rolls.

The Howard (Cicero) Appletons of Dallas, former Scurry County people, were guests here early this week of the Pat Bullocks.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Blackard and daughter, Daunel, are vacationing in San Antonio and other points in South Texas.

Political Announcements

The Times is authorized to announce the following as candidates for election to office, subject to action of the Democratic Primary runoff Saturday, August 24, 1940:

For County Clerk:
J. P. (Jimmie) BILLINGSLEY
CHAS. J. LEWIS

For Commissioner, Precinct No. 1:
HUBERT ROBISON
(Re-election)
JOHN ROBINSON

For Commissioner, Precinct No. 2:
J. E. SANDERS
J. E. HUFFMAN (Re-election)

TO THE VOTERS:

In making my last appeal to you for your support in this second primary, I ask you to consider the following statements. It was in 1936 that my opponent and I made a campaign of the county asking for the office that each felt that he wanted and was capable of managing, and each was successful. As I see it at this time the question is whether to elect one who has been rendering an efficient service in this office and is asking to hold it for only one more term, or whether to elect a younger man who should be able to find some other line of work if he was dissatisfied with the office he had. Let me urge all the voters to go to the polls and cast your vote for your choice. Thanking you for past favors and trusting that you will make my decision for me in this election. I am, your friend—Chas. J. Lewis. 1p

TO PRECINCT NO. 1 VOTERS:

I am still in the race for commissioner, but I've had so much work to do in such a short time it has been impossible for me to contact each of you personally. I am, therefore, taking this means of asking you for your earnest support and vote in Saturday's election, and believe that you will be entirely satisfied with my record in office. Due to the experience we had had in getting county roads in their present state of improvement, I feel I am better qualified than ever to give each and every voter better service. I'll be depending on you in Saturday's election. With thanks in advance, I am, sincerely—Hubert Robison. 1p

Young Woman Who Formerly Lived Here Victim of Lockjaw

Death claimed Mrs. Dorothy Patricia DeShazo, 23, of Mertonton early last Thursday morning in a San Angelo hospital after a brief illness. Mrs. DeShazo, a former Snyder resident, succumbed from the effects of lockjaw.

Rev. I. A. Smith, local Methodist pastor, conducted funeral services last Thursday afternoon at the Camp Springs Methodist Church. Survivors include the husband, Marshall DeShazo, former Camp Springs youth who is engaged in the ranching business at Mertonton; a two-year-old daughter, Annie Yvonne; the parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Joyner of San Angelo; five brothers, J. T. and Roy Joyner of San Angelo; S. T. Joyner of Snyder, B. G. Joyner of Brownwood and Jack Joyner of Lubbock; and two sisters, Mrs. Curtis Knight of Snyder and Mrs. Raymond Patterson of San Angelo.

Johnson Funeral Home of San Angelo was in charge of arrangements, with interment in the Camp Springs Cemetery.

Mrs. Audie McElyea and daughter, Anna Jo, have returned home from a vacation spent in New and Old Mexico and West Texas.

Rev. R. M. Cavness of San Marcos, returning from a business trip to Piasano, El Paso, Santa Fe, New Mexico, and Lubbock, spent last Wednesday night here, the guest of his grandmother, Mrs. Sarah Buchanan, and family.

GERALD MANN SPEAKS OF HIS STEWARDSHIP

Attorney General Addresses People Following Breakfast Given by Local Friends at Hotel

A good crowd of local business men was attracted to the Manhattan Hotel Monday morning at 7:00 o'clock, for the informal breakfast given Attorney General Gerald C. Mann of Austin. The breakfast was arranged by local friends of the attorney general.

Pat Bullock, recently named 118th District representative, presided at the breakfast as master of ceremonies. Mann was introduced by Jim Cloud, worker for the state department of public welfare. The attorney general spoke briefly at the informal gathering.

Zollie Steakley, former Sweetwater attorney, and assistant attorney general in charge of law enforcement, was a breakfast guest, as was Trust Barber, 32nd District attorney, Margaret Dell Prim, Ira High School principal, gave special musical numbers during the course of the early morning feed.

Addressing county voters at 9:00 o'clock, Mann declared, "I sacrificed no principle to gain office, and would sacrifice no principle to hold office."

Giving a first-hand account of his stewardship of office since he went into the attorney general's office January 1, 1939, Mann said: "Two years ago, when you elected me attorney general, I promised you that I would build a real attorney general's office. I promised Texas voters that my office would be a law office, and not a place where politics tainted the air of our legal departments."

"My only political ambition is to do the job well which the voters of Texas have given me to do. When this tour of 'stewardship' has been completed September 1, I shall again devote my full time to the duties of office. "We are proud of our court record," Mann continued. "We have been before the Supreme Court of the United States five times, and have been victorious four times. In our 19 appearances before the Supreme Court of Texas, we have won 17 out of 19 cases, with 60 cases of the 78 we presented in the Courts of Civil Appeals marked up to our credit. "As attorney general, I could accomplish little without the support of the men about me—the assistants who helped me track down the insurance racketeers, the big shot industrialists and the others who use the patronage of Texas people to enrich their own pockets by illegal means."

Mann, accompanied by Zollie Steakley, assistant attorney general in charge of law enforcement, and Gordon Pulliam, his personal secretary, left for Colorado City as their next stopping point. They were accompanied to Colorado City by Treutt Barber, 32nd District Attorney.

Other points visited by Mann Monday included Big Spring, Stanton, Odessa and Pecos. His month's itinerary listed more than 150 speaking engagements that will be filled prior to September 1.

Camp Springs Youth Scholarship Winner

Jerry Beavers of Camp Springs, a 1940 Hobbs School graduate, was announced this week by Texas Tech officials at Lubbock as one of the 20 winners of agricultural scholarships for the forthcoming college year.

Young Beavers, together with 19 other high school graduates from this section of the state, will receive scholarships of $100 each from Sears, Roebuck & Company. The scholarship winners were chosen from 57 applicants, who were interviewed by a special committee and given tests.

Local People Go To Lorraine Rites For T. M. Mahon

A number of Scurry and Fisher County residents attended final rites that were held Sunday afternoon at the Lorraine Methodist Church for Thomas Marion Mahon, 41, brother of Congressman George H. Mahon of the 19th District.

Rev. J. E. Shewbert, Lorraine Methodist pastor, assisted by Rev. Sam Young of Sweetwater, conducted final rites for the Lorraine farmer.

Active in the farming business until recent months, Mahon had just finished a new home in Lorraine, and had been directing his farming interests for the past three months from the city. His condition had been critical only a few hours. Congressman Mahon, present for the funeral, arrived at Sweetwater early Sunday morning from Washington by plane.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. T. M. Mahon; his father, J. K. Mahon; four brothers, George Mahon of Colorado City, John Mahon of Lorraine, Purwood Mahon of Austin, and Elmer Mahon of Roscoe; and three sisters, Mrs. S. E. Meador and Mrs. Harold Martin of Lorraine and Mrs. Curtis Reeder of Weatherford.

Congressman George Mahon, who left for Washington by plane Monday night, said before his departure that congress will probably adjourn in about six weeks. As a member of the special defense appropriations sub-committee of the house appropriations committee, he returned last week to Washington after an air tour of Alaska defenses.

New Manager Takes Over Koyal Concern

New manager at Koyal's Department Store, west side of the square, is T. H. Ray, who assumed his new duties here Monday. Ray hails from Big Lake, and has been connected with the dry goods business the past 18 years.

Ray succeeds Bill Underwood, who has been temporary manager of the local dry goods store. Mr. and Mrs. Ray and their two-year-old daughter, Patsy Dorene, are residing at the Bill Taylor place, 2211 32nd Street. Mrs. Ray is the former Lois Johnston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pat Johnston of Snyder.

Underwood will continue to be employed at the local Koyal store, and will be joined here within the next few days by his wife.

Outlining of a program for the ensuing year and perfection of plans to keep up-to-the-minute records this fall on club projects featured last Wednesday night's meeting of the Pyron FFA chapter. Dale McWhirter, Pyron vocational agriculture teacher, led round table business session discussions. The meeting was followed by a watermelon feast for chapter members.

JUDGE WILLIAMS BACK

County Judge Sterling Williams returned Tuesday night from a two-day business trip to San Antonio. Judge Williams reported crop prospects were bright along the route from Snyder to the Alamo city, with cotton harvesting underway in certain sections of the country near San Antonio.

Mrs. W. E. Holcomb and Allene Curry were week-end guests of their respective sisters, Mmes. A. L. Stevens and Herman Morton, and families in Midland.

Ira Methodist Pastor To Conduct Services

Beginning Friday night, Rev. A. B. Cockrell, pastor of the Ira Methodist Church, will conduct a 10-day revival in the southern county community.

Morning services, Rev. Cockrell announces, will be held at 10:30 o'clock and evening services at 8:00 o'clock. Abbey Cockrell will direct song services during the meeting.

Congregation leaders join the pastor in extending the public invitation to attend the revival, which will continue through Sunday, September 1.

LARGE ABSENTEE VOTE

Heaviest total of absentee votes marked up in several years on a run-off race was recorded Wednesday afternoon, with closing of the deadline by County Clerk Chas. J. Lewis. Sixty-nine absentee ballots were counted, with 10 applications still out.

Jim Hartley made a business trip to Midland Monday.

Children Who See More Will Learn More! Attend to Their Eyes Now!

Scientists tell us that 85 per cent of all the school child learns depends on the eyes. This good vision is essential to good grades and educational achievements, for the child who sees more, learns more.

If your child isn't making the progress in school you think he should, have his eyes examined now by a registered optometrist. He will tell you the true condition of your child's eyes.

SHALL THE PEOPLE CONTROL THE RAILROAD COMMISSION?

PIERCE BROOKS is pledged to drive politics and waste from the Commission and to carry out the will of the people. PIERCE BROOKS led the entire field of 19 candidates in the July Democratic Primary, polling over 200,000 votes. PIERCE BROOKS is not a professional politician. He has never held a public office. He is not controlled by any political machine. PIERCE BROOKS has pledged his support and cooperation to Governor W. Lee O'Daniel and will not continually oppose him as some Commission members have done in the past. PIERCE BROOKS favors the payment of maximum pensions to the old folks of Texas. He campaigned, at his own expense, for the constitutional amendment providing pensions and other Social Security provisions. He campaigned for the "bread bonds" to relieve state-wide suffering when the depression struck Texas. PIERCE BROOKS deplors the great extravagance and waste of the people's money by the Railroad Commission and will demand efficiency and economy in this department. PIERCE BROOKS believes the truck load limit should be raised in fairness to the farmers and shippers of Texas, and will urge legislation to this effect. PIERCE BROOKS stands for National Defense and the proper protection of Texas oil refineries and supplies against sabotage and enemy attack. He supports the National Defense program of President Roosevelt and the defense plans of Governor O'Daniel. He is the sworn foe of Nazism and Communism.

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

H. J. R. No. 45—A JOINT RESOLUTION

proposing an Amendment to Article 8, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas by adding a new Section thereto to read as follows:

Section 9-A: Providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County, after a majority vote of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein, shall have the authority to levy a tax not to exceed Twenty-five (25) Cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for a period not exceeding fifteen (15) years for the purpose of refunding the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of the County by the issuance of bonds under the provisions of the General Laws regulating the refunding of outstanding debts of the County; providing for the necessary proclamation; and appropriating funds to defray the expenses of the proclamation, publication, and election.

Section 1.—That Article 8, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Texas, be amended by adding thereto another Section, to be known as Section 9-A, which shall read as follows:

"Section 9-A.—Upon the vote of a majority of the resident qualified electors owning taxable property therein so authorizing, the Commissioners Court of Red River County, Texas, may levy an annual tax not to exceed Twenty-five (25) Cents on the one hundred dollars valuation for a period not to exceed fifteen (15) years for the purpose of refunding all the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County and issue bonds under the provisions of the General Law regulating the issuance of bonds to refund said indebtedness.

"At such election, the Commissioners Court shall submit for adoption the proposition of whether such outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County shall be refunded into bonds, the amount of special tax to be levied, and the number of years said tax is to be levied. The funds raised by such taxes shall not be used for purposes other than those specified in the plan submitted to the voters.

"The provisions of this Section 9-A shall apply only to Red River County; and the provisions hereof shall be self-enacting without the necessity of an enabling act of the Legislature of the State of Texas, but shall become effective immediately after the official canvass of the result has been made and it is determined that this Amendment has been adopted by a majority of the voters of the State."

Section 2.—The foregoing Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State on the first Tuesday following the first Monday in November, 1946, at which election all voters favoring such proposed Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County may, upon a vote of the qualified electors therein, levy a tax and issue bonds to refund the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County."

those voters opposing such Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the Constitution providing that the Commissioners Court of Red River County may, upon a vote of the qualified electors therein, levy a tax and issue bonds to refund the outstanding warrant indebtedness of the General Fund of such County."

Section 3.—The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution of the State of Texas.

Section 4.—The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of such publication and election, which shall be refunded the State of Texas by Red River County out of its General Fund or any other available fund. Provided that no election shall be held until Red River County shall first deposit with the State Treasurer the sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000) with which to pay such expense of said election. 9-1c proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas giving the Legislature authority to provide for appeal direct to the Supreme Court in cases involving injunctions granted or denied on the grounds of constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute or on validity or invalidity of administrative orders; providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; and providing for the necessary proclamation and expenses of publication.

S. J. R. No. 4—A Joint RESOLUTION

Be it resolved by the Legislature of the State of Texas:

Section 1.—That Article V of the Constitution of the State of Texas be amended by adding thereto a new section to be known as Section 3-b, which shall read as follows:

"Section 3.—(b) The Legislature shall have the power to provide by law, for an appeal direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving any of the following: (1) Injunctions granted or denied on the grounds of constitutionality or unconstitutionality of any statute of this State; or on the validity or invalidity of any administrative order issued by any state agency under any statute of this State."

Section 2.—The foregoing Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to the qualified voters of the State of Texas at the general election to be held on the 5th day of November, 1946, at which election all voters favoring such proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for appeals direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving the constitutionality of certain laws and orders."

and those opposed shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the amendment to the constitution of the State of Texas authorizing the Legislature to provide for appeals direct to the Supreme Court in instances involving the constitutionality of certain laws and orders."

Section 3.—The Governor of the State is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published as required by the Constitution and existing laws of the State.

Section 4.—The sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State not otherwise appropriated, to pay the expenses of said publication and election. 9-1c proposing an Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Texas to be known as Section 20b of Article 16; providing that the provisions of Article 16, Section 39, of the Texas Constitution limiting the duration of all offices not fixed by the Constitution to two (2) years, shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality; and providing for the submission of this amendment to the voters of this State; and providing for the necessary proclamation and expenses of publication.

H. J. R. No. 8—HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION

Section 1.—That the Constitution of the State of Texas be and the same is hereby amended by adding thereto a new Section to Article 16 to be known as Section 20b which shall read as follows:

"Section 20b.—Whenever by virtue of Statute or charter provisions appointive offices of any municipality are placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service and rules are set up governing appointment to and removal from such offices, the provisions of Article 16, Section 39, of the Texas Constitution limiting the duration of all offices not fixed by the Constitution to two (2) years shall not apply, but the duration of such offices shall be governed by the provisions of the Civil Service Law or other provisions applicable thereto."

Section 2.—Such proposed Constitutional Amendment shall be submitted to a vote of the qualified electors of the State of Texas at the general election to be held throughout the State of Texas on the 5th day of November, 1946, at which election all voters favoring said proposed amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"For the Amendment to the State Constitution providing that Article 16, Section 39, of the Constitution shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service."

Those voters opposing said Amendment shall write or have printed on their ballots the words:

"Against the Amendment to the State Constitution providing that Article 16, Section 39, of the Constitution shall not apply to appointive offices of any municipality placed under the terms and provisions of Civil Service."

If it appears from the returns of said election that a majority of the votes cast is in favor of the Amendment the same shall become a part of the State Constitution.

Section 3.—The Governor of the State of Texas is hereby directed to issue the necessary proclamation for said election and to have same published, as required by the Constitution for amendments thereto.

Section 4.—The sum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000), or so much thereof as may be necessary, is hereby appropriated out of any funds in the Treasury of the State of Texas not otherwise appropriated to pay the expenses of said election and election. 9-1c

NOTICE...

TO THE VOTERS OF SCURRY COUNTY

I would indeed be ungrateful if I failed to express to the people of this County my sincere thanks for the support heretofore given me for public office, and I wish now to express my profound gratitude.

I again make my appeal to you, in this second primary, on the basis of asking for promotion to the office of County Clerk. I feel that I am qualified to fill this office of the satisfaction of each of you and with some credit to myself and family.

Again soliciting the vote and support of the voters, I am, Gratefully,

BRAGGING ABOUT YOUR MILEAGE AGAIN?

NOT BRAGGING— I GOT A MILE-DIAL FREE AND GOT THE PROOF

MERE "GUESS-SO" AND "THINK-SO" are just old stuff these days, in discussing gasoline mileage. Now you can know-so . . . accurately! For awaiting you now at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station is your Conoco Mile-Dial—FREE.

THIS INVENTION makes Conoco Bronz-z-z gasoline put itself on record in bunk-proof figures. Your impartial, certified Mile-Dial gives you mileage proof that you can double-check and triple-check. If you think you made it too easy for your Conoco Bronz-z-z the first time, you can dial your whole Labor Day trip, with a week-end overload in your car—heading for hills or inching through traffic.

HUNDREDS of different driving conditions will be on record, as you keep using your handy Mile-Dial. Then nobody will be able to hint (politely) that you try to remember only your highest mileage. For your free Mile-Dial, keeping count day after day, reports your true average on Conoco Bronz-z-z.

THAT'S WHY YOUR MILEAGE MERCHANT is urging you to drive in to his Conoco station today for your fascinating Mile-Dial—FREE, while they last. Continental Oil Company

Achievement for the FSA

Attendants at last Thursday's Achievement Day tour to the Joseph Bates and John McKinney farms, sponsored by the local Farm Security Administration, could not refrain from marveling at the accomplishments that have been brought about as a result of FSA rehabilitation of county farm families.

Neither the Bates nor McKinney farms were singled out as outstanding examples of what the local Farm Security Administration has been doing in Scurry County the past three years, but merely as typical examples of what this government lending agency has been doing for the "man down under—the man who's 'out' financially, but nevertheless the man who's really the salt of this patch-work earth."

Last Thursday marked an achievement for the local FSA staff, in that the Achievement Day tour was the first of its kind staged in this county. . . A tour where rural people and others might learn just how much the good earth will produce where ability and tenacity join hands with proper supervision.

But did Snyder and Scurry County care much about the Achievement Day tour and the insight it afforded into the business of the county farmer? If we draw conclusions from the fact Snyder sent only two local business men, outside of the Chamber of Commerce representative, to witness the poultry and stock demonstrations, we would say the county cared very little about the tour, except from an impersonal viewpoint.

Yet, if we consider the fact the Farm Security Administration has brought $70,000 in government funds to this county since January 1, 1940, and further consider the fact that the FSA has completely rehabilitated many county farmers, who could travel no longer down the road of livelihood by their own meager means, we can draw the conclusion Snyder and Scurry County is intensely interested in what the FSA is doing.

We just take so "doggone" much for granted, sometimes, we fail to see where our presence, as a community people, would have encouraged the farmers visited last Thursday to still greater achievements in the realm of economic independence.

We are glad of the fact the government is lending a helping hand, where other sources won't, to county farmers whose resources and finances have been so depleted that outside help must give them the tool-hold on the agricultural front again. . . We are glad that instead of bread lines and concentration camps, as exemplified in foreign countries, we have a government in this so free America that will put the little man up the ladder again, where he may look across the fields to an abundant harvest, a harvest that means money in his pockets and food on the family table every day in the year.

County Singers Lose Friend

In the passing Monday of every gospel singer's beloved friend, V. O. Stamps of Dallas, county singers have suffered a direct loss that will leave a gap in county and district singing conventions that can never be quite filled again.

Not only was V. O. Stamps present at every singing convention held in Scurry County the past 20 years that he could possibly attend, but he has worked hand in hand with singing convention officials in getting our singing conventions to the point where "tom foolery" and "monkey shins" were 99 per cent banished. . . Where the man in blue denim was just as welcome as the boys who had to get mixed up with Beau Brummell tie and a stiff collar before going to a singing convention.

Since 1924, when V. O. Stamps published his first song book, he has ever had a warm spot in his heart for the rural people of this county and of the state, people whose word and friendship were worth more than all the gold you could heap up in a coal scuttle.

It was V. O. Stamps who started many of our best citizens in Scurry, Fisher, Mitchell, Nolan and other counties of this area on the road to becoming choir and singing class directors—men and women whose native talent might shine as a lustrous jewel in the song service of the Lord. And it was this same man who picked out some country boys of Fisher and Scurry counties, and coached them along the gospel music road until they can now turn out gospel songs to equal those writers in any other section of Texas can produce.

Stamps, who has attended singing conventions in such county communities during the past 20 years as Camp Springs, Mount Zion, Snyder, Hermleigh, Union, Pleasant Hill and many others, has always worked with people of all faiths. He always believed there were many consecrated Christians in every church under the sun.

Those who disagreed with V. O. Stamps on some of the policies he has pursued throughout his lifetime would try to have it otherwise, but the 2,500 people in Scurry County who are vitally interested in gospel music and the ongoing of singing conventions—as typically American as fodder in the shock and dimer on the ground—know what is meant when the statement is made that Scurry County singers have lost a tried and true friend.

Where true fortitude dwells, loyalty, bounty, friendship, and fidelity may be found.—Sir Thomas Browne.

Who, then, is the invincible man? He whom nothing that is outside the sphere of his moral purpose can dismay.—Epictetus.

A prayer in its simplest definition is merely a wish turned God-ward.—Phillips Brooks.

By LEON GUINN

According to a dispatch received from Washington the latter part of last week, young men who grab their best girl's hands and rush to the marriage license bureau to become husbands before Uncle Sam's draft for military services catches up with them have no assurance they won't be called for a year's active training under terms of the Burke-Wadsworth conscription bill. . . Under terms of this bill married men will be required to register for service, just as any other male citizen from 21 through 30 years of age. . . Just in case, however, those young men who fall within this age limit, and who have recently placed an eligible young lady on the dotted line get too worried about the matter, President Roosevelt is authorized to defer the training of these men, under a clause for "those with dependents," if he deems it advisable.

Pitting quite nicely into a well-rounded pattern, information, obtained piece by piece from Vinchy, France, throws an interesting light on recurrent reports of German penetration into Africa. . . Truth of the matter is that Berlin has already sent small detachments of missionaries into French Morocco, Algeria and Tunisia to study the economic set-up of these colonies and lay long-range plans for colony exploitation under the Nazi's program of a "New Europe."

Tying in with this move is the fact the German propaganda ministry is making entirely too much of charges that British forces are moving into French colonies in Africa and the Near East. . . This broadside of exaggerated jibes by the German mongers of war is designated to justify any future German occupation of the above-mentioned colonies, despite the supposedly "unbreakable" terms of the shameful French armistice, an armistice that is proving more forcefully every day the fact Germany will reign, with blood and iron, every European country that falls before her life-crushing war machine.

All of which reminds us, incidentally, that the fifth columnists and truth falsifiers in Germany today are trying, woefully unsuccessfully, to accuse Great Britain, with its essential blockade, of causing the famine that is beginning to pinch down on conquered Norway, Finland, France and the "Low Countries." . . Truth of the matter is that Nazi soldiers, having been raping every fallen province and carrying cattle, pigs, foods and grain store back to Germany for the feeding of German's "super army enrollees." . . If famine does extend this winter from the Baltic to the once cheerful land of France, it will be because the Nazis have taken all available food into disease-tainted hands for their own use, and not because Britain has clamped down on movements of sea-going commerce to member nations of the Rome-Berlin axis.

Keen students of Washington political trends are predicting, with a wink, that the government's proposed anti-trust suit against 22 oil companies will not be staged for a long, long time. . . The stage was set by Arnold, assistant attorney general, to get underway with the anti-trust suits July 29, but since action would have greatly interfered with the up-and-coming national defense program Attorney General Jackson had the whole business pigeon-holed until a more "suitable" time. . . Since the contemplated action, timely enough for peace time, might seriously upset the defense apple cart, it will be tided over by settling certain points by stipulation, or just down right postponement of any and all action.

American oil men have been getting highly suspicious in recent weeks of Mexican efforts to buy, on a large scale, American manufactured high-grade lubricants and certain hydro-carbonous grades of cup grease. . . Since high-grade lubricants are seriously lacking in Mexico, despite an abundance of crude oil, American oil interests fear the boys down south of the border are trying to pull a fast one and garner large quantities of petroleum products made in the United States for eventual buying by the Japanese or by certain interests for Axis consumption—either by Germany or Italy.

Back down the dimming trail of history, as far back as 14 centuries B. C., the fact has been recognized that the eating of generous quantities of animal livers improved the vision of people in situations where a deficiency of light made efficient eyesight difficult. . . Over a period of centuries men of research finally connected this simple phenomenon with the flexible principle of vitamins to establish the fact that human beings living on a diet deficient in vitamin A were subject to night blindness.

Modern day scientists have been rather thoroughly converted to the fact within the past decade that not only animal livers, but common foods such as leafy, fresh vegetables, whole milk, egg yolks, carrots and orange and tomato juice contain abundant amounts of the essential vitamin A. . . Employers who work their help under improper or insufficient lighting conditions are paying more attention now than ever before to escape the expensive effects of undue eye strain over a period of months, or years. When Dr. L. B. Pett, University of Alberta, added a conclusion last week that a small intake of alcohol produces an increase of vitamin A in the blood, he set off a bomb whose sounds echoed from one end of the scientific world to the other. . . Those who realize alcohol does not increase the amount of vitamin A in the blood until 24 hours after consumption hastened to the rescue with the candid explanation that Dr. Pett was seeking, with such a rash statement, the friendship of certain liquor manufacturers.

Young Farmer of Hermleigh Dies Of Brief Illness

Johnnie Newton Bowen, 23-year-old farmer of the Hermleigh community, succumbed Sunday morning at 3:30 o'clock in a Roscoe hospital after a brief illness.

S. L. Morgan, Snyder Church of Christ minister, assisted by Rev. C. E. Leslie, Hermleigh Baptist minister, conducted final rites for young Bowen Monday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, at Hermleigh's city tabernacle.

Born at Plains, in Yoakum County, January 23, 1917, Bowen was married November 7, 1937, to Thelma Sturdivant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Sturdivant, prominent ranch people of the Hermleigh community.

Survivors include Bowen's widow, a year-old son, James Lee; his mother, Mrs. Clara Bowen; and a brother, T. L. Bowen—all of the Hermleigh community.

Funeral services were held at 10 o'clock, Monday, at the home of Leonard Mason, Bill Cormack, Brock Landess, Jack Miller and Joe Drennan.

Misses Annie Rue Sturdivant, Faye Sturdivant, Juanita Landess and Billie Mason were in charge of floral offerings.

Odom Funeral Home was in charge of funeral arrangements, and burial was made in the Pylon Cemetery.

First Bale in County Delayed by Rainfall

Last week's installment of moisture, received at a time when county cotton crops were at a critical stage, will make Scurry County's first bale for the 1940 crop considerably later than the first baled ginned in 1939.

A checkup Wednesday night revealed that the first bale of the 1939 crop, grown by Mrs. A. Krop, was ginned here August 21. With bright, sunny days ahead, county farmers are expecting the first bale of the 1940 season to roll into town almost any day now.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Grayum, Mrs. Violet McKnight and son, Grayum, were guests from Friday through Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Ashel Arnold in Fort Worth.

Heap Red Face!

When Jack Inman, local hardware store employee, got back to Snyder Tuesday afternoon after putting up a windmill and tower on the M. A. Fuller Ranch in Garza County, his bright red face and brighter-lued neck were not the result of getting mixed up with a bucket of red implement paint.

No sir, Jack's facial embellishments of nature's coloring, far surpassing anything rouge and lipstick might offer to the feminine sex, was a downright old-fashioned case of sunburn—the unadulterated kind that makes you reach for the cow cream, face cream or any other convenient lotion that can take the "sun" out of sunburn.

Jack cannot be pinned down as to whether or not the Garza County sunshine is any hotter in the summer than the Scurry County variety, but he can promise anyone a real August souvenir if they'll work "atop" a windmill tower for a couple of days with the sun getting the chance to hurt its rays at the top part of a person's anatomy.

M. P. Claybrook, Former Scurryite, Buried at Joshua

M. P. Claybrook, 86-year-old Joshua citizen and former resident of the Round Top community in Scurry County, succumbed last Wednesday afternoon, 2:35 o'clock, at his Joshua residence following a two-week illness.

Mr. Claybrook, who had been able and hearty until the past two weeks, farmed for a number of years in the Round Top community, and was well known to county people.

Funeral services for the veteran farmer were held last Thursday afternoon, 3:00 o'clock, at the Joshua Baptist Church. Rev. Joe Townsend, pastor, assisted by Rev. Ray, Joshua Methodist minister, officiated.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. M. P. Claybrook; two daughters, Mrs. T. L. Rowlett of Louisville, Kentucky, and Mrs. Russell Doty of Berea, Kentucky; and five sons: H. R. Claybrook of Cleburne, M. G. Claybrook of Joshua, and Harold, George and Paul Claybrook, all of Snyder.

Snyder funeral attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Claybrook and Harold Claybrook.

Crosier-Pearson Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements, with burial in the Caddo Cemetery.

Guests of Mrs. H. V. Williams last week were two of her daughters, Mrs. C. P. Fore of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Al C. Flack of Fort Worth, and a grandson, Al C. Flack Jr., also of Fort Worth.

Lela Isaacs is home from a summer of play in Los Angeles, California. She will be returning to teach in Clovis, New Mexico, schools at the opening of fall term.

Fort Worth Minister Attracting Crowds

Good attendance at services featured the revival meeting started Monday night at the Snyder Church of Christ, located on Avenue R and seven blocks north of the square, by Bro. T. F. Strother of Fort Worth.

"We have no stones to throw," congregation leaders stated Tuesday, "and we want to invite the public to attend the revival services. Our motto is to point lost sinners to the Lamb who taketh away the sins of the world."

Bro. Strother announces that evening services will be held each evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Robert (Bob) Patterson, local attorney, returned Monday from Waco, where he spent a week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Thirane of Abilene, former Snyderites, visited Scurry County friends late last week.
