SKIPS AND CULLS.

A WESTERN WIFE. She walked behind the lagging mules, That drew the breaker through the soil; Here were the early rising rules, Here were the eyes of wily toil.

The smitten prairie blossom'd fair, The sod home faded from the scene; Firm gables met the whisp'ring air, Deep porches lent repose serene.

FEEDER TRADE NOT MUCH SHORT.

While there has been much talk of corn belt farmers and feeders refusing to take hold of young cattle at present prices of corn and fat cattle, it develops that the January volume of feeder trade, as reported from the several market centers, has not been much short of an average for a first month in the year.

MADE GREAT START.

At any rate the ground-hog and his weather making pals have made a sensational start on their six-weeks' stunt. Here is hoping the whole bunch falls down before it gets to the three-quarter pole.

JAPS BUY HORSES.

Denver Record-Stockman: The Japanese government is buying horses for cavalry purposes in Wyoming and it is reported that over 4,000 head have already been contracted and that 7,000 head are wanted. This order will pretty well clean up the northern part of the state.

BEEF FEVER EXTENDING.

Denver Record-Stockman: The sugar beet fever has reached the Roaring Fork county and a strong effort is being made to secure acreage enough in the vicinity of Glenwood Springs to insure the building of a factory. Prizes are being offered for the best acre of beets grown in that section this coming season.

HOW TO HOLD A HORSE DOWN.

When a witness in an English court one day remarked that it was necessary to sit on a horse's head when he was down to keep him quiet the judge replied: "Nothing of the kind. People don't seem to understand the only thing necessary is to get hold of his ear and keep his nose up in the air. I have seen a lady keep a horse quiet in that way without soiling her gloves."

SUPPLY AND DEMAND MUST RULE.

American Farmer: Our southern friends are complaining because of the government, by publishing the fact of a 12,000,000 bale cotton crop this year caused a slump in prices and thus materially injured planters. Nevertheless it seems impossible to hide as big a thing as that and despite all that can be done the price of cotton must necessarily be fixed by the inexorable law of supply and demand.

CROP FAILURE EYE OPENER.

It takes a hard blow at a pocketbook, such as a crop failure, to show some people the advantages of diversified farming. Every poor wheat year has been followed by greater attention to other crops in the localities where the failure was most felt. These experiences have taught the farmers that wheat land will do splendidly for other things besides wheat, and that some of the other crops bring more reliable returns.

BEEF CARS STORM BOUND.

Snow and Ice in the East a Serious Maket Factor. "It is pretty hard to make the country understand just how seriously this widely extended storm and severe weather effects the market," said a packing house man. "Cattle and beef trains have been seriously delayed in the east now for about two weeks and the result is we can't get cars to load our stuff out. We have actually been shipping beef out in box cars while hundreds of refrigerator cars are storm-bound in the east."

LIVESTOCK FOR PLANTATION.

St. Louis, Feb. 4.—Gov. James K. Vardaman of Mississippi and the other members of the board of control of the state's prisoners, arrived in St. Louis yesterday. Governor Vardaman said the object of their visit was to buy live stock for the state plantation, which is cultivated by convict labor.

POOR PLACE FOR PREDATORY PILGRIM OVER IN DONIPHAN COUNTY.

"We're not bothered much with horse thieves and predatory pilgrims over in our country," said a delegate from Doniphon county, Kansas, at the Transit house the other night. "Horses, harness, wagon and grain thieves used to pester us a good deal, but we organized a bunch of farmers that takes in a wide scope of country and, with our telephone system, we've got whole regiments of city blue coats faded when it comes to getting out and running down a thief. But they had us guessing here a few months ago when, every night or two, some man's barn and contents would go in smoke. Incidentally was part of a horse stealing scheme. The thieves would take a span of good horses out of a man's barn, put in a pair of old crochets there and predatory pilgrims over in our country," said a delegate from Doniphon county, Kansas, at the Transit house the other night.

CARING FOR THE HAIR.

If Done Systematically It Is by No Means a Laborious Task for the Woman.

When you have finished your household work and are ready to sit down at your sewing or darning, or perhaps to scan the magazine, you very naturally do not want to waste the precious and pleasant moments of the day struggling over your appearance. You haven't time for everything, you argue, and you must get the mending done or you must read and improve your mind a little, or you must finish a piece of fancy work. Well, do it; do any or all of the things you want to do or ought to do but first choose a sunny corner, by an open window, and sitting there with the sunlight filtering in on your back, let down your locks to the winds. Let them blow and play about your shoulders. Give them chance at the air and sunlight, just as you would give your flowers that chance to breathe and to draw in life. The divine Sarah Bernhardt never confines her locks when she is in private. All day long when she is at home they fly to the sun and winds and are untouched by a hairpin or ribbon. That is why, even as a grandmother, she still has golden tresses instead of iron gray wisps of hair.
 Nothing is so good for the scalp and the hair itself as a daily sun and air bath, and nothing is so comforting or less trouble.

DRYING THE HAIR IN THE SUN.

Usually the little housekeeper is too poor or too frugal to patronize the hair-dresser, or to indulge in a shampoo at a dollar or half a dollar at one of the hair-dressing establishments. And so, in an irregular, off hand sort of way, she "washes" her hair when it is "dirty" or "sticky." For this "wash" she uses any soap that may happen to be about the house, rinses quickly and dries her hair over the radiator. Such treatment will kill the finest hair in a few years.
 You should decide upon a regular interval for shampooing your hair, and you should "shampoo" it. If you have very dry hair, do not wash it oftener than every three weeks, and you might let it go for four weeks with prudence. If your hair is oily you may indulge in a shampoo every two weeks, but not oftener. Some girls, during the rage for fluffy hair, were in the habit of washing their hair, once a week or oftener, a process which took all the natural life and oil out of the finest locks and left them dry, hard, dead, and ready to fall out at the first sign of ill health. Use for your shampoo a good tar soap or a plain castile soap—nothing else except warm water. Do not make the bath too hot, and do not put ammonia in it. To attempt to burn your hair out in this way is a fatal mistake. Scrub thoroughly, rubbing the scalp well and washing the hair as you would a piece of cloth. Above all, rinse the hair thoroughly in warm water, and be sure that every particle of the soap is removed, so that the pores are free to breathe. Dry the hair in the air and the sun. Fan it, if you like, and rub it with the towel, but avoid the life-killing, hot air from the radiator or the gas stove, if you do not want to rot and ruin the best part of your locks.

Nearly half of your life is spent in bed, and thus nearly half of your life your hair is in tight pig-tails and curl papers. This is unfortunate for many reasons. First of all, it keeps the scalp from the air and is not good for the roots of the hair. Secondly, I would drive the most devoted man to the other woman or the uttermost parts of the earth. Take quite as much pains as you would for a party. Do not attempt to put it up conventionally, but dress it picturesquely. One of the prettiest night arrangements is the Marguerite fashion of two pig-tails down the back, loosely woven and gracefully parted.

KITCHEN DON'TS.

- Don't litter up the kitchen when getting a meal, because it will take hours to clean up after the meal is over.
- Don't put a greasy spoon on the table. It leaves a stain which requires time to erase. Put it in a saucer.
- Don't crumple up your dish towels. Rinse and hang them in the sun.
- Don't pour boiling water over china packed in a pan. It will crack by the sudden contraction and expansion.
- Don't black a stove while it is hot. It takes more blacking and less polish.
- Don't put damp towels and napkins in the hamper. Dry them first or they will mildew.
- Don't use knives for scraping the table and pots.
- Don't pour boiling water and soap on greasy spots. Moisten the spots first with a cold saturated solution of soda, then scrub them with the grain of the wood, using cold soapuds.
- Don't put egg dishes into hot water—it makes the egg adhere. Soak the dishes first in cold water.
- Don't put tin pans on the stove to dry. They become heated, the solder loosens and they soon leak.

FOR AND ABOUT WOMEN

A BEAUTIFUL NEGLIGEE.

An Attractive Garment That May Be Inexpensively Made by Any Woman.
 Negligee of white crepe de chine felled in with a girde of pale green silk. The little ruffles which border the collar and fronts are also of the green silk, and the jacket is finished at the bottom with a ruffle of the material.
 The plain yoke is bordered with insertion and a deep ruffle of lace, the latter also forming sleeve caps. The

A FRENCH NEGLIGEE.

Full sleeves are finished at the elbows with lace ruffles ornamented with knots of the green silk.
 The puffed undersleeves are of the crepe de chine encircled with bands of the green. The long cravat ends are of lace, and the little tucked plastron is of the crepe de chine or mousseline de soie trimmed with lace.

BACK TO THE CHEMISE.

Paris Has at Last Abandoned the Corset-Cover in Its Favor.
 Paris has dropped the corset cover as abruptly as the nondescript little garment was taken up and not a single trosserou of the hundreds made for wealthy or titled autumn brides-includes one. Women of fashion, who were permitted to feast their eyes on the truly royal outfit of Miss Anna Massena d'Estling de Rivoli, recently married to the ambitious young marquis of Albufeira, looked in vain for the abbreviated waist long regarded as an indispensable adjunct to stays. Instead, they saw stocks of wondrous chemises, each prettier than its predecessor, on which nimble fingers plaitly had lavished unusual beauty to insure their welcome. As the bridegroom is a Bonaparte, a great-grand-son of the Lucien of

THE NEW BELTS.

Hand-painted belts in different colored leathers will represent a very important item among the autumn schemes. A very pretty example in deep cream with a leather buckle to correspond, was painted in the palest greens, mauves and pinks in a design of Louis XV. bows and trails of flowers. A brown leather belt with a dull gold buckle was adorned with embroidered sprays of mauve lilies, the leaves and stems being hand-painted.

LETTERS HINTS.

The front panel is quite the newest thing in shirts.
 Most of the small hats are tricorne or boat-shaped turbans.
 The crown is quite distinct from the brim in the new turbans.
 Tulle is one of the latest trimming ideas and is used in great quantities.
 Coq de roche is more effective as a relief note with gray-green and brown.
 Not for years has the separate wrap been such an important feature of dress.

APPROVED WAYS OF DRESSING THE HAIR.

For the first time in this generation it is the fashion to study the contour of the head and modeling of the face and to adapt the hairdressing to bring out artistic effects. So women with individuality of mind or beauty are originating styles of coiffures, or imitating those of early periods that suit their outline.
 Usually the effects striven for are simple, and almost invariably paintable—that is, with an artistic expression that would be beautiful in a picture forever, regardless of modes. The affectedly picturesque is still as bad form as it has been for several years past, when there was only one smart conventional style of hairdressing for women of all types and ages.
 You may look like a Burne-Jones picture, if you want your hair to be in a fluffy knot; but you must look exactly like one, not like a poor copy made by an amateur student. You may even have curls floating down from an obignon, with a garland of incidentally innocence

THE STYLE IN PERFUMES.

To Be Up-to-Date You Must Be Very Careful in Their Selection.

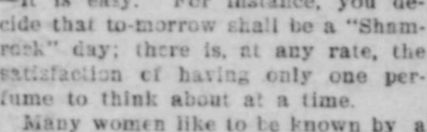

With respect to perfumes, as in most other things, Dame Fashion's particular whim just now is consistency. In England, where most American fashions have their birth—for Paris fashions usually come to us by way of London, their earlier market—"Royal Shmoo" is the rage just now.
 But whatever your particular fancy may be, having made your choice, you must abide by it, at any rate for the day, which, in this fickle age, is quite a long time.

Everything about you, your toilet water and soap, your boudoir, your eyegs, your notepaper and envelopes, even your lap dog, must be perfumed accordingly. Indeed, if you want to display your complete subservience to Fashion's autocratic decrees, you will hang a locker, containing the selected perfume on your chain. The only consolation you have is that to-morrow you may change your policy, and shed an adequate perfume of, say, attar of roses, around you.
 To some this fashion may seem rather irksome, says the New York World. Many women like to change their scents with their frocks, but they must take heart of grace in the thought that things might be much worse, and probably will be some day.

PROTECTING CHILD'S BED.

How the Little One May Be Given Fresh Air Without Danger of Drafts

The illustration shows a device for keeping the air from an open window from blowing upon the heads of sleeping children, and also for keeping restless little sleepers from falling out of bed, says the Rural New Yorker. A triangular piece of cloth is tucked with round-headed brass tacks to the side of the bed. The upper corner has a ring to go over a brass hook in the head-board. During the day this piece of cloth can be folded in under the mattress. If made of some pretty material and neatly bound, this addition to the bed's furnishings will not look at all unattractive, if left in place during the day.

A PRETTY MORNING GOWN.

It May Be Made of Either Cashmere, Flannel, Kollerton, or Flannelette.

In the accompanying illustration we show an attractive gown for morning wear that is easily made by any woman who is handy with a needle. It is suitable to be made in cashmere, flannel, mollerton or flannelette.
 Our model is in a pretty blue fancy flannel, unlined; it is slightly open at the throat, and turns back with a wide collar or cape of the same material edged with a strap of silk; the fronts slightly overlap, and are fastened at the top by a large fancy button. A thick woolen and silk girde draws the gown in at the waist. The bell-shape sleeves are held in at wrists by cuffs of silk.

 Materials required: Ten yards of flannel, 30 inches wide, and three-quarters of a yard of silk.
Bad News for Loving Girls.
 It is a well-known fact that resting the cheek in the warm palm of the hand rapidly assists the fading of that cheek; but a doctor declares that this injury is not so rapid as that suffered by repeated kisses. The warm lips of another, it appears, create sad havoc on a fresh, rosy cheek and red lips when pressed there to often.

Ribbon of two contrasting shades is very smart for trimming tailor hats.
 Lots of fire brown and sapphire green will be exploited in panne velvet and net.

NO HALT IN FIGHT.

Republicans Agree to Rush the Railroad Rate Bill Through House.

CAUCUS VOTED DOWN AMENDMENTS
Speaker Cannon Advised His Associates That Action Should Not Be Delayed—Final Vote at Four O'Clock Next Wednesday.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The republicans of the house of representatives in conference yesterday adopted as a party measure the bill extending rate-making powers to the interstate commerce commission, as agreed on by the committee on interstate and foreign commerce and known as the Esch-Townsend bill. The conference instructed the house committee on rules to bring in a rule providing for consideration of the measure, beginning on Tuesday and continuing until four o'clock Wednesday, when a vote shall be taken. No amendments will be allowed to the bill, although the first vote is to be taken on the Davey bill, as the democratic substitute for legislation on the railway rate subject.

The conference developed opposition to the measure. The only test vote taken was a motion to postpone the matter for a further conference next Tuesday. This was lost, 44 to 197. Efforts were made to amend the bill during the conference, but all of these failed. Fault was found with the bill on the ground that it did not include legislation for the private car evil and criminal charges. The advocates of the bill contended these criticisms, claiming that authority was contained in the bill to correct the complained of evils.

The change of the meeting from a caucus, as the call stated, to a "conference," leaves members participating free to follow their own inclinations. It is understood that the opposition may organize with the purpose of joining the minority in the house in the vote on the rule prescribing the manner of considering the bill in the house. These plans, however, have not been actually and definitely decided on.

Messrs. Mahon and Sibley, of Pennsylvania, were conspicuous in their opposition to any legislation at this time, both contending that sufficient time had not been given to the consideration of the subject. Speaker Cannon advised his associates that if action was to be taken at all it must be taken now. He suggested that a recess might be taken until evening, but the sentiment of the members present was so overwhelmingly in favor of immediate action that the speaker did not press his suggestion.

TRYING TO HOLD UP CLAIM.

Richard McLish, a Choctaw Indian, Says His People Were Maliced by a Law Firm.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Summons yesterday were served on Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, Secretary of the Interior J. Hitchcock and United States Treasurer Roberts in proceedings instituted against them by Richard McLish, a Choctaw Indian, to enforce them from darning and paying warrants to satisfy the award of a fee of $750,000 to the law firm of McMurray, Mansfield & Cornish, of South McAlester, I. T., for services in "purifying" the citizenship rolls of the Choctaw Indians. The award was made under authority of an act of congress.

McLish charged that the firm secured this fee by fraudulently concealing and withholding the fact that the firm already had been paid salaries aggregating $15,000 a year for their services, and sums aggregating approximately $200,000 for their expenses, etc. He alleged that the citizenship cases on account of which the fee has been allowed are not yet finally determined and that the rights of enrollment, etc., of the Choctaw and Chickasaw Indian funds are not yet finally settled.

MOB WANTED J. P. MORGAN.

The Financier's Cab Had Run Down a New York Woman—Police Prevented Violence.

New York, Feb. 4.—J. Pierpont Morgan, banker, and an elderly woman said to be Mrs. Morgan, were whirled at breakneck speed through ten blocks of the Bowery in a one-horse coupe, followed by an angry, shouting crowd of 1,000 residents and 40 policemen of the district. Morgan's driver, James Byrnes, had run down and injured Mrs. Marie Sacco Fern, of 53 Mulberry street. The accident occurred at Bay street and the chase, in which dozens of vehicles along the thoroughfare were employed, was brought to a close in Nassau street, near Beekman. The police were required to hold back the pursuing crowd to save the occupants of the Morgan cab from violence.

Judge Swayne Enters Denial.

Washington, Feb. 4.—The senate yesterday resolved itself into an impeachment court for the continuation of the trial of Judge Charles Swayne. The order for the day included only the answer of Judge Swayne to the accusations of the house and this was presented by former Senators Higgins and Thurston on behalf of the respondent, who failed to appear in person. The house will reply on February 6 and formal trial will begin on February 16.

SCHARF DEFENDS CATHOLIC CHURCH

Alleged Agent of the Pope Says All Protestant Denominations Were Beneficiaries of Indian Money Until Two Years Ago.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Dr. E. L. Scharf has issued a signed statement in answer to allegations made by Senator Bard, of California, before the sub-committee of the senate committee on Indian affairs that Dr. Scharf, when trying to have the appropriations for Catholic Indian missions extended two years ago, tried to influence the senator's action by promising certain political support. Dr. Scharf says: "Senator Bard's statements, even if they were absolutely accurate, lose their force by reason of the long time he allowed to elapse before bringing his charges. He waited until the legislature of California discovered the right man to represent that state in the senate. When I appeared before the sub-committee two years ago Senator Bard should have denounced me then and there if he really thought that the propositions that I made to him were improper. But not he. There was something going in California and something still to be done."

He says that Senator Bard two years ago informed him that he was a Presbyterian and his church was opposed to receiving government money for support of its schools. "He failed to tell me, however," Dr. Scharf continued, "that the Presbyterian missions had received their share of the contract appropriations since the inception of the contract system. All the Protestant denominations had received such appropriations, but after they withdrew and the Catholic missions were the beneficiaries they affected a holy horror at the idea."

SAVED HIM FROM DEATH.

St. J. Lannon, of Leeds, Assailed and Robbed by a Man Who Later Put Him on a Car.

Kansas City, Mo., Feb. 4.—T. J. Lannon, of Leeds, was slugged and robbed of $16 and a gold watch on the Raytown road between this city and Leeds last night. Lannon lay unconscious in the snow until three o'clock his morning, when the robber returned and took him to Twenty-ninth street and Indiana avenue, where he placed him on a street car. Lannon's hands, feet and face were frozen. It is probable that his fingers and one foot will have to be amputated. If left in the snow much longer he would have been frozen to death.

Lannon is 54 years old, and a retired merchant of Leeds. He had been in Kansas City and started to his home. When he got off the Indiana car about 11 o'clock last night another passenger asked him if he intended to walk to Leeds, and suggested that they walk together. The stranger told him that he lived in St. Louis and came here to visit a sister at Leeds. Lannon says that he and the stranger had walked about half a mile when the stranger took a revolver from his overcoat pocket and struck him. After he fell to the ground the robber struck him again, and then took his money and watch. Lannon remembered nothing more until the robber returned and stole him up. Without saying anything, the robber assisted him to walk, but his feet were so badly frozen that he had to be carried to the hospital. The temperature was below zero and it is evident that the highwayman realized that Lannon would freeze to death if left in the snow. Not wishing to become a murderer he returned to the aid of his victim. In doing so he took some chance of detection and arrest for highway robbery.

RIGID DIVORCE LAW.

Missouri House Approves the Kies Bill, which Bars the Guilty Party for Two Years.

Jefferson City, Mo., Feb. 4.—The Kies divorce bill came up in the house. This bill provides that in all cases of divorce the guilty person shall be barred for a term of two years from again entering a marriage, except that where a divorce has been granted on the grounds of adultery the guilty person shall be barred for a term of five years and the person securing the divorce shall be disqualified from marriage for a term of one year from date of decree. Divorced persons may remarry each other at any time. Violations of the law shall be regarded as bigamy and punished as such. The bill was passed by a large vote.

Senator Frisby introduced a bill to make it a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not more than $25 for a man to get drunk. Frisby said there was no law on the statute books to prohibit a man from getting drunk if he did nothing else.

Owing to the fact that the Tubbs smelling committee is at work at the Missouri state university, the junket arranged to that institution was called off. The investigation committee is expected to have its report ready Monday morning. Much depends upon the complexion of that report as to whether the university will get the $800,000 it is asking for the next term. In order to carry favor with the legislators, the people of Columbia, where the university is, had raised a fund of $800 to pay for the day's outing there for the members.

STATE PRINTING PLANT.

Kansas Senate Passes Bill Appropriating $91,000 for a Site, Building and Material.

Topeka, Kan., Feb. 4.—The senate passed the bill creating a commission to purchase, or condemn, a site for a state printing plant, and providing for the construction of a building thereon and the equipment of it and making appropriations therefor. The bill provides for a commission which shall consist of T. A. McNeal, the state printer-elect, and two others to make the necessary purchase of land and material for a state printing plant and to construct a suitable printing office. For the site the bill carries an appropriation of $6,000, for the building $30,000 and for the material $25,000, or so much thereof as may be necessary. The commission is to be appointed immediately after passage of this act and the commissioners shall receive $5 a day.

Mr. Brady introduced a bill which will enable the residents of Lawrence to rid the Kaw river of the Bowersock dam. The bill is general in character and will apply to dams in other Kansas streams.

Ex-Treasurer Pitts Dead.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 4.—Capt. Frank Pitts, aged 52 years, once state treasurer and prominent in the politics of Missouri, is dead here of catarrhal pneumonia. Capt. Pitts came from Paris, Mo., about three weeks ago for his health. Burial will be at Paris, Mo.

Last Russian General to Go Against Japs Has "Poor Health."

MYLOFF SELECTED FOR SACRIFICE.

Hero of Turkish Campaign Will Go to Manchuria and Try His Hand at Running the Japs into the Sea.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—It is believed in military circles that the succession of Lieut. Gen. Myloff to the command of the second army of Manchuria does not necessarily mean that the position of second in command in the far east has devolved upon him. Gen. Myloff has a good record as a fighter, though he was not present at any of the great battles of the Manchurian campaign. He is 62 years old. He fought in the Turkish campaign and saw a great deal of service in the Caucasus. He was appointed to the command of the Eighth corps in 1901 and went to Manchuria with that corps from Odessa. The Eighth corps was one of the latest corps to arrive there.

Army officers confirm the report that Gen. Gripenberg is in ill health and point out that he was seriously ill a year before his appointment to the command of the Second army of Manchuria. It is rumored that Lieut. Gen. Gripenberg has asked to be relieved of his command. Gen. Gripenberg telegraphed direct to the emperor requesting to be relieved because of the alleged failure of Gen. Kuropatkin to afford him proper support in the operations against Sandepus.

Maxim Gor'ky to Be Tried.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—It is the intention of the government to bring Maxim Gor'ky and seven other authors and publicists to trial on political charges.

Warsaw Newspapers Reappear.
Warsaw, Feb. 4.—Warsaw newspapers reappeared yesterday after eight days' suspension of publication. They are subjected to the most severe censorship. Most of the shops reopened to-day but only a few of the strikers returned to work.

Car Promises to Visit Workshops.
St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—Emperor Nicholas yesterday received at Tarskoe-Selo a deputation of five workmen from the Star printing works. He questioned each man closely regarding the character of the work and hours of employment, expressed satisfaction with those who had conscientiously performed their duty and said he hoped to visit the establishment in person.

40,000 Out at Sosnovice.
Sosnovice, Feb. 4.—About 40,000 men are now out on strike. At a meeting of strikers yesterday the men forcibly dragged officers belonging to the management of various concerns to the place of meeting.

REVOLUTION IN ALBANIA.

Prince Ghica Declares Leaders for Independence Have All the Funds Needed for a Successful Fight.

Rome, Feb. 4.—Prince Ghica, of Roumania, who has been elected by the Albanian committee as "supreme head for Albanian independence," says his election meant the beginning of a general revolution in Albania and bitter struggle to achieve the liberty of that country. He said he would in person assume command of the Albanian forces, which, he asserted, would be re-enforced by 12,000 volunteers. The committee, Prince Ghica said, had at command all the means necessary for the prosecution of the war for independence and only asked to be left free in the fight for liberty. Those enlisted in the movement, he added, were determined to achieve their purpose or die to the last man. Should Austria intervene to prevent the execution of the committee's plans he declared she would be opposed by Italy, Russia and Great Britain.

No "Star Chamber" Affair.
Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.—Frank J. Comerford's testimony against members of the Illinois legislature in support of his charges that corruption is rampant and more especially that attempts at bribery were made in the recent democratic house caucus, will be heard in the open. That is, three newspaper men will be present and Mr. Comerford himself will be permitted to be present at the hearings.

Left $150,000 for Missions.
Worcester, Mass., Feb. 4.—The will of Edward A. Goodnow, of Worcester, filed for probate yesterday, leaves $102,000 in specific bequests and the residue of the estate ($150,000) is left to the American Missionary society of New York. Washburn college, Topeka, Kan., also gets $5,000.
