Patricia Price Is Married To Earl Gene Ward

Patricia Rhea Price, descendant of prominent pioneer Dal-lam and Sherman County fam-ilies and the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Karl Pieratt of Dumas, was married recently at one of the prettiest wed-dings of the season to Earl Gene Ward of Fort Worth.

Patricia Rhea spent her early girlhood in Dalhart. She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Rhea Wanser and the late W. L. Wan-ser and Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Price of Stratford.

The ceremony took place in the Dumas Presbyterian Church by candlelight. The Rev. Paul Heberger, rector of St. James Episcopal Church, officiated in the presence of relatives and friends, including Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Price and several Dalhartans, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woods, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McDowell, Miss Ina Ruth Peoples, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Schuhart, II, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Lutes, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Scott, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Mann, Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Thomas, Jr., Mrs. Bess Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Holmes.

Dr. Pieratt escorted Patricia Rhea to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown of ex-quisite Princess lace and imported tulle was complemented by a short bridal veil that cascaded down a lace and seed pearl head-dress and a heart-shaped neck-lace of pearls, a family heirloom.

The wedding bouquet was of orchids. Mrs. Jack Curtis of Pampa was the bride's only attendant and Fred Simmons of Gainesville served as best man. Richard S. Coon of Amarillo and Jack Curtis ushered.

Mrs. Curtis wore a frock of pink organza over pink taffeta with a matching pink half-bonnet trimmed with French flow-ers. Her bouquet was of pink roses.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pieratt, who is the former Maxine Wanser, wore a strap-less gown of imported black silk interwoven with lavender metallic threads with which she wore a redingote of lavender tulle, a matching tulle hat and shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Following a wedding reception at the Pieratt home, the couple left on a wedding trip to New Mexico and Colorado resorts.

Prior to the wedding Mr. and Mrs. H. Coon who are living at their Moore County ranch enter-tained members of the bridal party and out-of-town guests at a dinner at the Hotel Snead.

Mrs. Palmer Hostess To Circle One

Circle One of the Christian Woman's Fellowship met Wed-nesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Everett Palmer with eight members present. The meeting was opened by the leader, Mrs. Frank Judd. After a short business session the meeting was turned over to the program leader, Mrs. Frank Sut-ton.

Mrs. L. L. Lyon led the group in prayer. Mrs. Frank Judd gave a talk on "Mexico's Insti-tute for Rural Women." A very interesting talk was given by Mrs. Leslie Parker on "Youth of Missions." "Enterprise In Ta-blada" was given by Mrs. L. L. Lyon. The devotional was pre-sented by Mrs. J. R. Pendleton. The Lord's Prayer was repeated by the group. The meeting was dismissed with the Mission-ary benediction.

At the close of the meeting the hostess served delicious re-freshments.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Frank Sutton on October 1 with Mrs. Frank Judd as leader.

Turner Family Has Reunion

Seventh-four were in atten-dance for the G. T. Turner family reunion at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Reuszer and daughter, Treva, southeast of Hooker, recently.

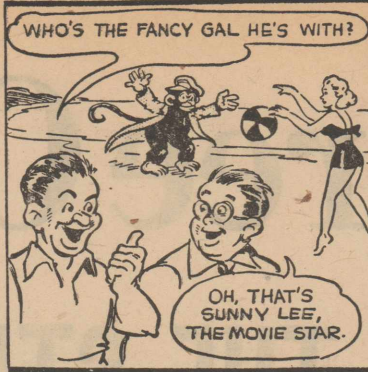

The Turner family consists of thirteen children, all of whom were present at this reunion ex-cept one sister, Mrs. Luther Lynn of Fitzhugh, Oklahoma. The father, G. T. Turner, passed away in 1916 and the mother, Mrs. Florida Turner, passed a-way in 1941. The mother lived to enjoy many reunions with her children and their families.

The first Turner gathering was held in 1927 in Goodwell and the occasion has been re-peated each year since. This year's celebration marked the 25th reunion. Supper was held in the Adams Community park. A sumptuous dinner was served the follow-ing day and the invocation was given by Mrs. J. B. Jennings, an old time friend of the family.

Tuesday morning after a big breakfast of bacon, eggs, toast and coffee, the family departed for their various homes declar-ing this had been a grand reu-nion.

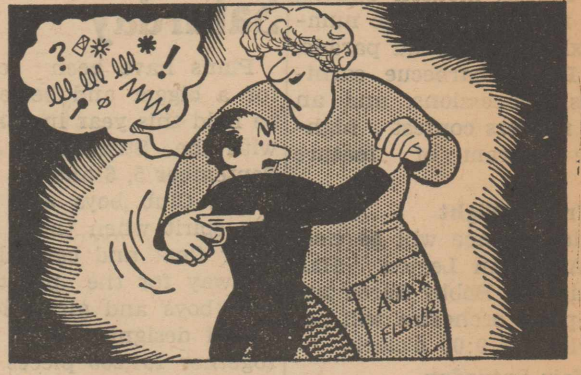

The children were: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Turner, Booneville, Arkansas; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse

Ford Tractors IN THIS COMMUNITY!!!

There must be reasons and here they are

POWER

Talk about power . . . ask for a demonstration on your own farm —see how the Ford Tractor handles a 12" or 14" two-bottom plow. This power is available through a four-speed forward transmission.

ECONOMY

Weight and traction are added to the Ford Tractor through the implements it carries. No need for excess built-in weight in the tractor itself. This saves you money on both light and heavy jobs!

LONG LIFE

Treat the Ford Tractor right and it will "stay with you" a long while. Part tolerances are very close . . . and the Ford Motor Company knows how to keep them that way!

EASY HANDLING

Ford Tractor Hydraulic Touch Control takes the hard work out of manipulating implements. Auto-motive type steering and duo-servo brakes make the Ford Tractor an easy Tractor to handle.

CONVENIENT SERVICING

The Ford Tractor is a convenient tractor to service and overhaul. Parts are reasonable. What's more, our mechanics are specially trained to work on Ford Tractors.

Sherman County Junior Fair
September 5-6-7

The Sherman County Junior Fair will be held in conjunction with the Stratford Jamboree September 5, 6 and 7.

At a meeting of the committee Monday, plans were completed for a bigger and better fair. The superintendents of the various departments and their assistants were very enthusiastic and were out looking for more space to put up their displays. The Stratford School bus barn and recreation building were made available by the school superintendent, C. D. Holmes, and the school board for housing the exhibits. People who have entries should contact the superintendent of the department or one of the committee members of the particular department in which they desire to enter an exhibit. Entries should be left at the recreation hall Friday, September 5. All entries except livestock and flowers will be in place by 6:00 P. M. Friday. Livestock and flowers must be in place by 8:00 A. M. Saturday, September 6. Judging will start at 8:00 A. M. and will be finished by 10:30 A. M. in time for those desiring to join the parade which will start at 11:00 A. M. Entries will be released at 5:00 P. M. by the department superintendent and it is requested that they be removed from the building by 6:00 P. M. so that the area can be cleaned up.

The various departments were set up with the following superintendents in charge: Wheat, Cone Donelson, Earl Riffe, Joy Smith, Roy Lee Newman and Lynn Hudson; Sorghum Crops, Richard Wilson, Fate Morris, B. A. Donelson and Bill Dyess; Poultry, L. B. Halle, Ernie Dyess, and Benny Baddy; Cattle, P. J. Pronger, Jr., Arthur Judd, R. M. Buckles, Johnny Summerour and Sonny Judd; Hogs, Bill Salisbury, Harold Gray, Luther Evans and Bob Newman; Vegetables, Doris Dyess, Virgie Bid- dy, Getrude Donelson, Feliz Ramon and Donna Fedric; Flowers, Helen Taylor, Ione Kendrick and Mrs. H. A. Nichols; Canning, Lorene Spurlock, Marilyn Bugner, Mary Nell Craig, Marilyn Bugner and Jean Spurlock; Baking, Mrs. Earl Kirkwood, Sherry Goule and Delma Dee Schafer; Clothing, Irene Wakefield, Lora Ann Schafer and Letha Gail Fedric; Needlework, Nola Cummings and Pauline Jones; Hobbies, Ceramics, Ida Billington; China Painting, and Personal Handwork Collections, Juanita Donelson; Art, Robbie Yates; Educational Exhibits for 4-H and FHA girls and Home Demonstration Clubs, Penny Bennett, Mrs. John Lavake and Mrs. Bob Evans.

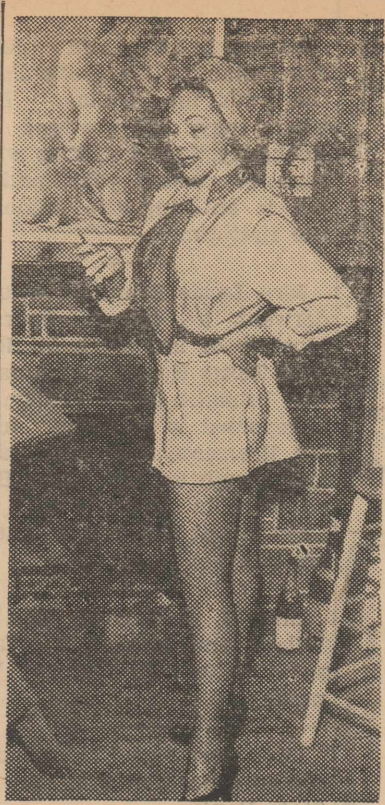

Anyone in Sherman County who has something to exhibit in any of these departments is encouraged to enter it. This is a community fair and we all must participate for it to be a success. It will be of more interest to the individual and to the public if exhibits from all of the various industries and hobbies in Sherman County are displayed.

4-H and FHA girls may enter in the fair any garment that they have made as a home project or entered in the 4-H dress revue. Each girl who enters a dress must bring it on a hanger and have it labeled with her name, age and address.

Each container of canned food should be labeled with a white label one inch by two inches in size. The label should be placed one half inch from the bottom of the jar. On the label put the name of the product and your name.

Flower arrangements will consist of centerpiece, specimen, miniature, artistic and large or church type arrangements.

All local breeders who have cattle they would like to enter in the fair are encouraged to enter them. Space will be limited so the committee would like to have only a pair, or two of the choice from each breeder. P. J. Pronger, Jr., chairman of the livestock committee has suggested that if enough animals were entered in any one class they would be judged. If the number in any one class is too small for a judging class those animals will simply be on exhibit and will not be judged. It will be necessary for the breeders to furnish the bedding for their livestock.

Growth of a Soul

Lesson for September 7, 1952

AFTER A MAN IS DEAD, and indeed while he is still alive, we ought to remember the best about him and forget the worst. That is how we want to be treated, ourselves. But human beings are so perverse that we often do just the opposite. We remember the worst, forget the best. This is so in the case of the great King David. A novel was once written about him in which his lie is pictured as a curve high in the middle, bending down sharply at both ends. After his great sins of adultery and murder, so the story went, he went on down and down hill to the end. This is not the picture we get from the Bible. In many ways his later days were sad; his fortunes declined, as we say. But his soul did not decline. The latter days of David show us how even a man who has sinned can rise again; how even an ageing man can grow in soul.

Dr. Foreman

NOT THAT a man has to sin as David did in order to grow. In order to be healthy it is not necessary to be half-dead with ever first; yet even after a long stay in the sanitarium it is possible for a man to make his way to full health and strength.

Now David, though he fell, "did not blind his soul with clay." The experience struck down his pride; he realized with shame what he had done. Some men must wake bitterly to the fact of their own weakness before they can begin to take hold of God's strength. At any rate, we can see signs of growth in David's soul.

One of these signs is humility before God. Take the story of his flight from his capital, for example. He could have hardly been in a worse state. His loved son Absalom had become a rebel, his throne was in danger, his friends were turning against him, even his life was not safe. Another man might have committed suicide, or sat in his deserted palace bitterly awaiting the end. Another man might have returned Shimel's foul language, curse for curse.

But David moves through all this as a man who realizes he deserves his troubles, knows it is God who is bringing these hard things to pass, and bows humbly under whatever God sends. His kingdom was shrinking, but his soul was growing again.

Is the Young Man Safe? ANOTHER plain sign of inward growth was David's attitude to his bad son Absalom. That young man had ceased to be a son, but the old man did not cease to be a father. The young man would have stopped at nothing, he would have killed his father without hesitating, in order to gain the kingdom for himself. But David was willing to lose the kingdom, if by so doing he could keep from losing his son.

General Joab, a professional killer, could see no point in David's generosity. He believed David should be a king first and a father afterwards. It was Joab who against David's strict orders finally killed Absalom.

But in death as in life, David loved that wild young man. No more tragic scene is found in history than David's lament, "Would God I had died for thee, A Absalom, my son, my son." It does not sound like a lament for a dead enemy, and it was not; it was a father's grief for his son. The grief came late; David should long before those days have remembered his duty as a father to Absalom. But late though it was, David's tears show that in him his soul still grew.

No Cheap Sacrifice ONE OTHER sign of soul-growth comes from the surface: a single sentence from David on the day when he bought the land where the temple was to be built. The owner Ornan (Araunah) would have given the land free; but David insisted on paying the full value. "I will not offer burnt offerings unto the Lord my God which cost me nothing," he said.

No one would have blamed him for taking advantage of the owner, cutting the price a little. When David was a younger man he might have done it; but not now. No one else would know it, perhaps; but God would know it.

It was a sign that David was no longer the half-grown soul he had once been. For a man never really grows up till he does what he does, not because of fear, or ambition, or reputation, nor for any reason but because he knows how God is going to look at it.

Carl Reeves Hospitalized In Plainview

Carl Reeves was rushed to the Polio Center Hospital in Plainview, Texas Wednesday afternoon. Thursday afternoon, Dr. High, his attending physician, in a telephone conversation with the publisher of the Star, gave the diagnosis of his disease as "acute polio paraletic." When question as to the seriousness of Reeves' condition, the doctor replied, "all cases in the acute stage are considered as serious." The acute stage of paraletic polio usually passes within 48 to 72 hours.

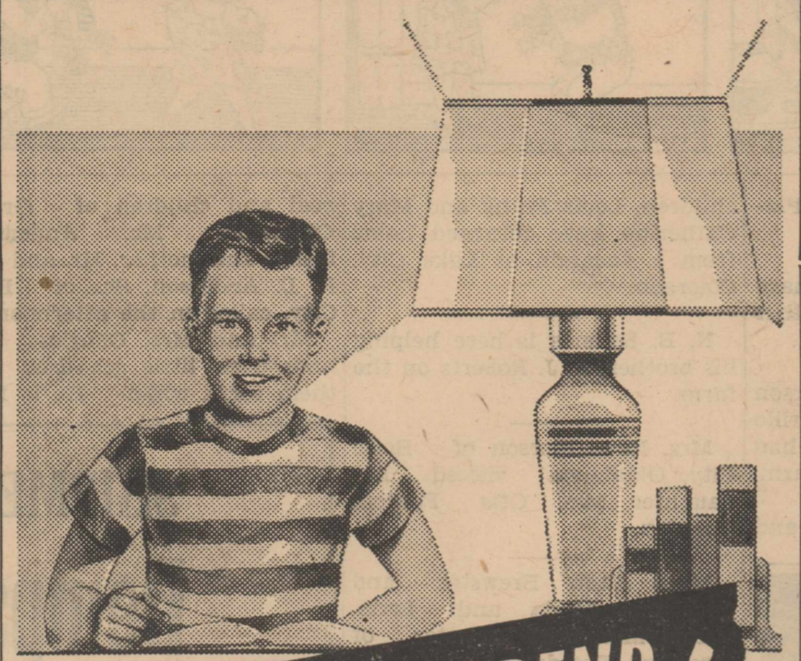

Reeves' case parallels a percentage of recent cases in the Texas Panhandle. Many of them became ill on their return to the Panhandle from visits on the south plains and in southern Texas where the weather has been extremely hot.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeves had been visiting with her parents in Wichita Falls, Texas for nine days before his condition became alarming. Carl stated on his return to Stratford he did not feel well but that drinking water from the Wichita Falls area always made him sick, and that a short sick spell from the experience was more or less expected.

Examinations made in Dumas Memorial Hospital Wednesday morning caused physicians to diagnosis his case as polio. He was transferred to Plainview Wednesday afternoon.

Ezra's Farm Displayed In Stratford

A tiny animated farm, valued at $10,000 and displayed at hundreds of county and state fairs in Missouri, Kansas and Illinois during the past 11 years, is on exhibit on the carnival grounds this week.

Owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thomas of Joplin, Missouri, "Uncle Ezra's Farm" is only six by nine feet but has an assortment of animals, people and farm equipment, all of which are hand carved and move in realistic manner.

The farm is complete to a pond containing fish and a pair of skunks in the yard. Little pigs feed from a sow, a cow's tail swishes back and forth as she is milked and ducks and geese drink from a trough.

In a plantation scene, several Negroes are munching on watermelon while others are dancing in front of the plantation.

Willing Workers Met Wednesday

The Willing Workers 4-H Club met Wednesday at 4:00 P. M. in the home of Mrs. Everett Riggs.

The meeting was called to order and the roll was called. Members repeated the pledge, motto and prayer. Decorations for the exhibit table at the fair were discussed. Linda Riffe made a motion that a ruffled skirt be placed on the table. The exhibit will be entitled "Better Baking Equipment." Work on decorating the table was commenced before the meeting was adjourned.

Those present were: Linda Riffe, Sharon Hampton, Alma Casey and Mrs. Everett Riggs.

PRISCILLA CLUB PARTY NEWS

Iona Bowen was hostess to the Priscilla Club Thursday afternoon of last week. Sew A Fine Seam

When you see the new fall cotton fabrics you will get a yen to sew. Miss Lucile King, Home Demonstration Agent, gives a few hints on dress construction that might save you disappointments.

Miss King suggests the use of the construction guide that comes in the pattern. Follow this to organize your work. Plan procedure step by step to save time and energy.

Stayline off grain edges of the garment. For example the front and back at neckline, shoulders, armseye and side placket.

The next step is to assemble the cutout dress in three units: waist, skirt, and sleeves.

The agent emphasizes the importance of pressing as you sew. Completely sew and press any line of stitching before beginning a seam that crosses it. Always press on underside of garment but not so hard that the seams show on the right side.

The little gadget called a seam gauge will guide in straight stitching. Always machine stitch with the grain of the fabric.

Rodeo Office In Legion Hall

An office will be maintained in the American Legion Hall to enable out-of-town cow hands to sign up for entering the rodeo events. Local business firms may be of assistance in directing visiting rodeo men to the American Legion Hall. A rodeo representative will be present to sign them up for whatever events they wish to enter.

From all indications, a record number of contestants will take part in all three of the rodeo performances.

Belts Are High Style

Your belt is one of the most important accessories to your costume at any time. Belts range from a mere string to cumbersome, depending on your height and figure proportions. Miss Lucile King, County Home Demonstration Agent, says a home made belt can add a professional touch, if it is well made and the correct type for your figure proportions.

A narrow belt tends to diminish the waistline, a wide one tends to increase it. A belt of contrasting color makes the figure look shorter.

The agent advises that tall and slender people may choose a wide belt of self or contrasting material. The thin and shorts may choose narrow belts of self or contrasting material, and the short stouts should wear slightly narrow belts of self material.

study your figure proportions and select the best type of belt for you. The best bet is a belt 3-4 to 1 inch wide of self material. This width may be increased or decreased according to figure proportions, fashion and design of garment.

Sgt. Dean Turner Discharged From Army

ANA was a Czechoslovakian student. She had come to our college on a scholarship given by a national women's organization. My duties were not only to help her with English, but to acquaint her as much as possible with the American way of life. The day of an important examination she was late, but her blue eyes were shining when she slipped breathlessly into her seat.

I handed her the mimeographed list of questions. She glanced over them quickly, knowing, as I did, that she could not possibly answer them in the little time that was left.

"I will tell you. The next hour is free? To your office I can come? Okay?"

I consented, telling her to do as much of the test as she was able and to bring it with her. When she appeared, however, her mind was not on an examination.

"First, I have one question, please. In this town why does the bus not go to the depot? Ten blocks I have to walk!"

It was true that in our small town the single bus ran only 20 blocks between Main street and the college. The depot was at the other end of town. I knew that Ana had been away the day before. Evidently she had returned on the morning train, which was due well before class time.

I gasped, "Why didn't you take a taxi?"

"Ah, that," she said, "is why I was late. You know I make a speech yesterday in Bremly?" I nodded that I did. Though her English was a mixture of direct translation and slang picked up in the dormitory, it would be better to let her tell about her experience in her own way. I sat back to listen.

"Because of the scholarship, the club ladies are inviting me all over the state. I speak and speak. Mostly they are asking questions about Czechoslovakia, and I am saying what the saliva brings to the tongue. This week I was invited to Bremly—over three hundred miles away—this state is so beeg, Professor! And me—I am having midquarter exams. I write the ladies in Bremly I cannot permitted?"

It is not okay by them. They say they have ride in car for me over; they will send me back by train. I think I will study all night on train.

"Of money I am taking only small amount, two dollars. The people in car say I will not have need for money, only for lunch and taxi. One dollar fifty cents I spend for lunch going in car.

"In Bremly we have big dinner. I speak. Everyone is enjoying. Then the elub ladies are buying me Pullman so I can sleep before exam. What they bought me I do not know how it is called. It cost seventeen-fifty. My speech is not worth seventeen-fifty."

"It was probably a roomette," I said.

"In my country it is dangerous for young girl to travel alone. I am wishing I am out in train with other peoples so I can yell. The porter is shutting me up in a room like a box. At first I am scared.

"He says, 'Where is your luggage?' I show him my textbook and purse. He thinks I am nuts. I say, 'I am college kid.' He says, 'You travel elegant!' and shows me a bed comes down from the wall on top of comfortable seat. When he is gone and the door she is locked, I wash my face in the sink. Oh, Professor, the plumbing! I hang my dress in clothes closet and look in long mirror and say, 'Ana, tonight you are grand-duchess!' Wonderful feeling! I see-ee!"

"In morning the porter is back. He say do I care to eat breakfast on diner. I think of my half of one dollar for taxi, and I say like in Czechoslovakia, 'I am not hungry.' Even grand-duchess do not have to be always for eating.

"But, Professor, I am grand-duchess. What can such a one do but give to the porter? I give him like so—"

She held an imaginary coin between thumb and forefinger, with little finger extended gracefully. I almost heard the tip drop into the porter's palm.

"But I was clever, Professor. I made him give me ten cents back—for bus fare. Excuse me for being late—a grand-duchess may be permitted?"

Miss Thompson Marries In Raton

Miss Juanita Jean Thompson became the bride of Jack Rice in a single ring ceremony Saturday at 11:30 A. M. in Raton, New Mexico.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Thompson of Cheyenne Wells, Colorado, formerly of Stratford. The parents of the groom also live in Cheyenne Wells, Colorado. Rev. G. M. Eastman, who was a former pastor of the First Christian Church in Stratford, now pastor of the Frist Christian Church in Raton, performed the ceremony in the Christian parsonage.

The bride wore a navy blue dress and a gardenia corsage for her wedding.

The couple was accompanied to Raton by the bride's sister, Mrs. Alvin Oquin, Mr. Oquin, and a brother, sister and friend of the groom, who are all three from Denver, Colorado.

After a short honeymoon in the mountains of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. Rice will make their home in Denver, Colorado, where he is employed.

with the explanation that he understood that's what it takes to raise a daughter.

While some youngsters are born with a silver spoon in their mouth, others with printer's ink flowing through their veins, here is a child born with music in her veins, not only band music but organ music, the mother being an accomplished organist and at one time a member of Karl King's band. Last summer she and the other daughter played in the Storm Lake Band.

Will B. Green started his musical career as a beginner in Stratford's first municipal band which was composed of school students and adult citizens.

Will B. Green Wins Acclaim At Storm Lake

Will B. Green, son of Burk Green, continues to win acclaim as an instructor of music in University College at Storm Lake, Iowa.

A columnist in the Storm Lake newspaper makes the following comment:

Hats off to Bandmaster W. B. Green and the municipal band for the excellent concerts which music lovers have enjoyed the past several weeks, which to their regret came to a close Sunday afternoon.

Not only the band members but the city should be proud to have such a talented musician as Prof. Green, who not only is a director but a composer, and for the past two years a member of the faculty of Buena Vista College.

On this last concert of the season, the program included some of Green's own compositions, The Parade March, The Columbian Festival, and Flying With the Colors, which should put the maestro "on the map" with other composers of high rank in the realm of band music.

Because of the birth of a new daughter in the Green household during the week, one number, "Gold and Silver," by Lehhar, was dedicated to the infant

WHEAT DRILLS ARE ROLLING

Moisture falling over the territory Thursday of last week furnished most farmers with sufficient moisture for drilling wheat. Observers believe more tractors have been in operation in fields this week than at any time since wheat harvest.

Total moisture in Stratford was 2.40 inches. Rains over the territory varied from showers to as much as 3 1-2 inches.

A sudden drop in temperature followed the rains. Monday night the temperature dropped to 49 degrees and Tuesday night it dropped to 48 degrees. The low Wednesday night was 55 degrees.

Sorghums Improve
Fields of maize which weathered the drouth are springing into new life in sections favored by the moisture. Production will range from 15 to 55 bushels, according to early estimates.

Mrs. Newman Is Friendship Hostess

Thursday of last week the Friendship Club met in the home of Mrs. Rollo Newman. An afternoon of talking and visiting was enjoyed. Lovely refreshments were served to: Mrs. W. R. Taylor, Mrs. Ernest Cummings, Mrs. Alfred Pronger, Mrs. Donald Borth, Mrs. Forman, Mrs. P. J. Pronger, Jr., Mrs. Jack Kuykendall, and Mrs. George Bradley.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Bradley on September 11.

Baptist WMU Elects Officers

Ladies of the Woman's Missionary Union of the First Baptist Church met at the church at 2:45 Wednesday afternoon. A business session led by Mrs. J. S. Johnson, was held, during which new officers were elected. Those elected were: Mrs. M. E. Upchurch, president; Mrs. Roy Strother, vice-president; Mrs. Leon Guthrie, secretary and treasurer.

"My Faith Looks Up to Thee" was the opening hymn. Mrs. H. B. Norris offered prayer. Mrs. M. E. Upchurch taught the lesson on "Jereboam's Reign." The lives of three women, Vasti, Esther, and Gomer were discussed by Mrs. Upchurch. Mrs. Arlyn Halle closed the meeting with prayer.

Other ladies present included: Mrs. V. M. King, Mrs. O. H. Ingham, Mrs. Roy Strother, Mrs. E. W. Butler, Mrs. K. Kendrick, Mrs. Clifford Byrd, Mrs. W. D. Ellis, and Mrs. Meek. Mrs. E. E. Riggs had charge of the Sunbeams.

New Arrivals

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Sue, Amarillo, are the parents of a son, Michael Bruce, who was born in Northwest Texas Hospital on August 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Will B. Green, Storm Lake, Iowa, are the parents of a daughter, Patricia Ann, who was born August 7.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to take this means of thanking my friends and relatives for the lovely flowers, cards and visits while I was in the hospital and since my return home.

Mrs. Lewie Branhan

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all of my friends for all of the lovely gifts, cards and visits while I was in the hospital and since I have returned home. May God bless each and every one of you.

Tips On Storage Of Jellies And Jams

After you have gone to all the trouble and expense of making jelly, don't spoil your product by wrong storage. Miss Lucile King, Home Demonstration Agent, gives us a few do's and a few do-not's on this storage business.

Under the do's:
Label properly, give the kind as well as the date made.

Have special shelves for jelly and jam. Use colored paper on shelves and have within easy reach.

Store in as cool a place as possible. Use a low shelf because heat rises to the top.

Give jellie and jams for gifts. Trim glasses with gay paper and ribbon, this is a present everybody appreciates and likes to get.

Under the do-not's:
Don't cover jams and jellies with paraffin only, use in addition, either paper tops or thin lids to protect the product from dust and dirt.

Don't store in warm, unventilated rooms, and don't store in a damp cellar, this may cause fermentation.

Donelson Elected To National Angus Association

Shuler Donelson has been elected to membership in the American Aberdeen-Angus Breeders' Association at Chicago, announces Secretary Frank Richards. Donelson is among 18 purebred Angus breeders from Texas elected to membership in the organization during the past month.

Don't Overlook Darts

Those darts indicated on your commercial pattern are very important in the fit of your dress. Miss Lucile King, Home Demonstrator Agent, gives directions for making professional darts.

First mark darts on the wrong side of the fabric with tailors chalk, now pin the darts and baste from the point to the widest part.

When you stitch the darts begin at the widest part and stitch to the point. On the other hand, darts pointed on both ends should be stitched from the center out to both ends. Miss King says a wide dart should be cut open and trimmed to a seam's width as far as the dart allows. Press open as far as dart is cut and make a box pleat to form the point.

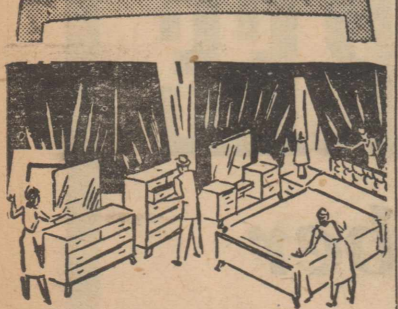

Since the organization of the Christmas Seal crusade against tuberculosis less than 50 years ago the death rate from this disease has been reduced almost 90 per cent.

Provisional figures for 1951 reported by state departments of health reveal a tuberculosis death rate in Texas which is exceeded by that of only eight other states.
