SENSE 'MERCY KILLING' PLEA IN ADMISSION

CHICAGO, Nov. 24 — Police said today that Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop, 67-year-old gray-haired woman physician confessed she chloroformed her daughter-in-law and shot her to death.

"I took her down to the operating room and gave her chloroform," they quoted the elderly woman, as confessing "Then I shot her. It was about 5 p. m. I was alone in the house."

The aged woman, broken under the strain of hours of grueling questioning, was quoted by police as giving a complete confession of the crime.

"Rheta was an invalid. She was unbalanced and could not live long," they quoted Dr. Wynkoop as saying. "So I killed her. I placed a blanket over her and walked away. My son lost all love and affection for the young woman within a month after he married her. She was anemic," the officers said the physician told them.

B. H. Gardner, father of Rheta, whose body was reported found by her mother-in-law on the operating table in the basement of the gloomy house Tuesday night, was present when the confession was announced.

A COSTLY PROTEST

Business at New Orleans and throughout the area served by the Southern Pacific railroad is alarmed over the prospect of a tie-up, or of serious interference with traffic, resulting in losses to interests not involved in the issues at stake in the threatened strike of 3,000 employees of the railroad.

Co-operative Cotton Growers and Their "Parity Plan"

By HUGH NUGENT FITZGERALD. All Texas are interested in the future of cotton. This is in the price of the fleecy staple. Cotton growers of a belt reaching from the Atlantic ocean to the golden stands of the Pacific moved on the city of Washington Monday. There were representative associations sent their ablest men to the national capital.

A NUDE WEDDING

There was a wedding in a nudist colony in California, with bride and groom, preacher, bridesmaids, and all the personnel of the usual wedding party, arrayed in the coverings nature provided them at birth, and no more.

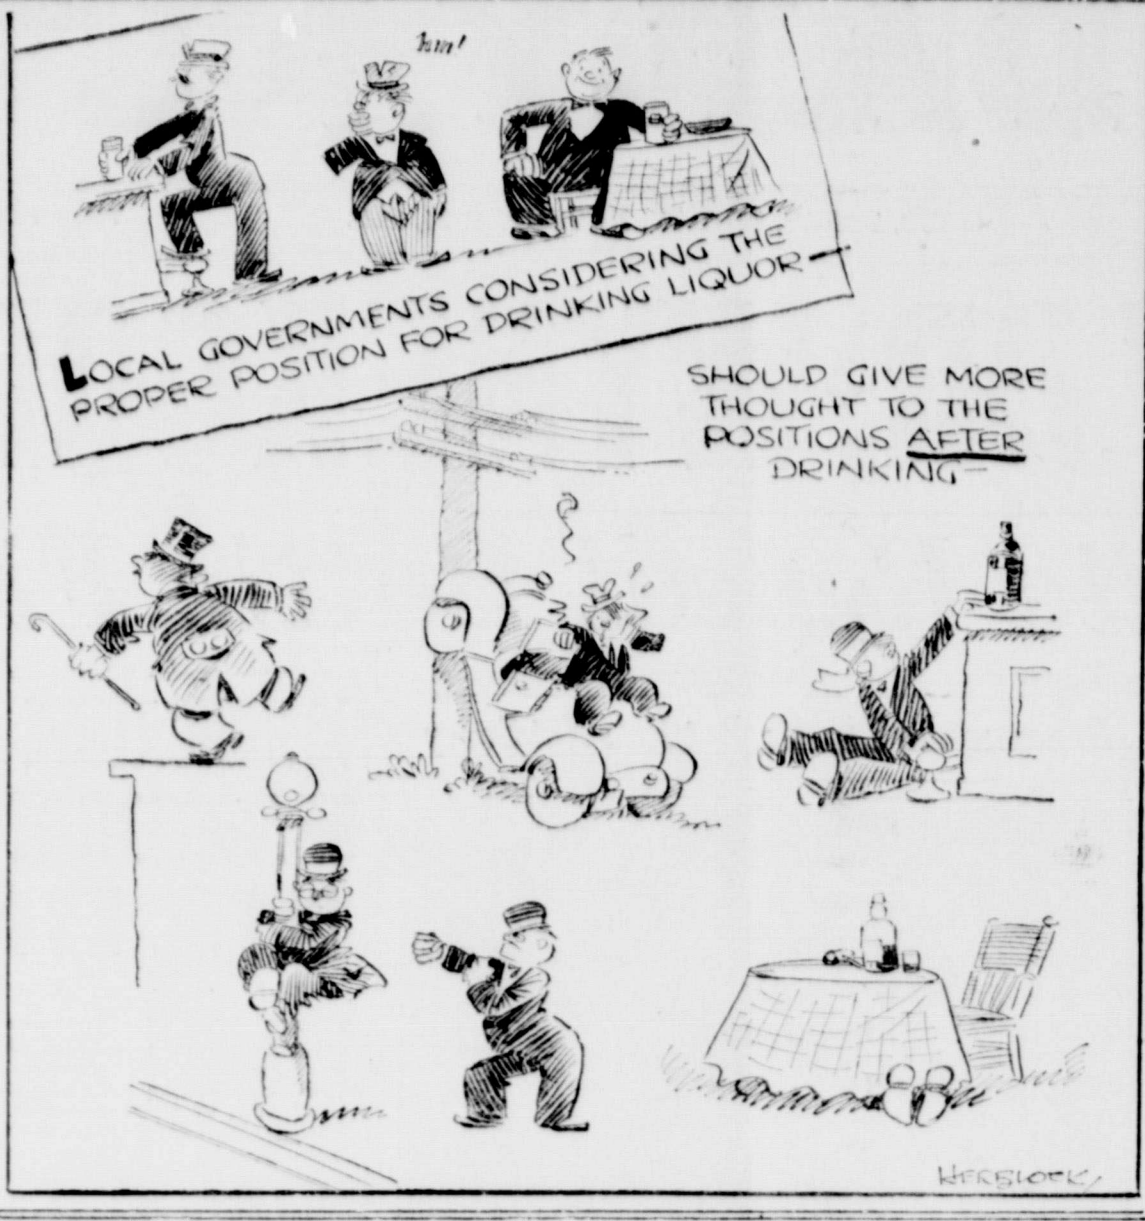

A SOUND STATEMENT

A sound budget, said Lewis W. Douglas, of Arizona, director of the budget bureau of the United States government, can overcome the bad effects of any monetary policy.

Through the Editor's Spectacles

With this football business taken care of until Thanksgiving, this column has temporarily run out of topics. For a while I thought we were never going to get the source of the statements in a corner, but that was finally accomplished, much to the relief of Mr. Cluck, who was kept hopping around from peak to peak, never knowing exactly what kind of a peak he was on at any particular moment.

Keeping Up With The Boy Scouts

Troop 9. Scoutmaster R. A. Steele of Ran. reports an active week for his troop. The troop committee which is composed of Ben Whitehouse, Walter Harwell and A. J. Ratliff have been doing some splendid work in securing a permanent meeting place for the troop.

Troop 5. An interesting tenderfoot investiture ceremony as presented at Troop 5 headquarters last meeting night. Rev. W. H. Foster is scoutmaster of the troop and presented the boys with their badges. Roscoe Hallum, member of the troop committee was present and announced an advancement contest would start beginning that night, and the scout that made the greatest advancement for the next four meetings would be awarded a frying kit.

Troop 12. R. M. Frachier and Winstead Dedman presented themselves for membership in troop 12 last Friday night. The troop had a good attendance and an enthusiastic meeting. The troop plans to have a hike on their next meeting date and Lake Brownwood is the destination point.

Scouts of Bangs Hold Meeting. Twenty scouts of Bangs were presented with their first badge in scouting at a tenderfoot investiture ceremony held last Friday night in the Bangs high school auditorium. The meeting was presided over by scoutmaster Fred Eby, Jr., coach for the Bangs high school. The troop marched on to the stage in the presence of scout official and friends and opened the meeting by singing "America" which was followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag. The candle ceremony followed. Scoutmaster Eby pinning the tenderfoot badge on the left pocket of each scout.

After the awarding of the badges, Rev. Rucker gave the scouts words of commendation. Others appearing on the program were Arthur Mayberry superintendent of the Bangs high school, Mr. Guyger, Rev. Ed. mondson and G. N. Quirt, scout executive. Scouts: Stuart Painter, Lowell

PRECEDENT IS BROKEN BY NEW AGGIE MENTOR

EDITOR'S NOTE: Homer N. Norton, head coach for the past eight years at Centenary college and one of the most colorful men in college athletics in the southwest, has been named head football coach at Texas A. & M. college. The United Press herewith presents the first of three articles on Norton, the teams he has coached and the methods used by this young grid master.

SHREVEPORT, La., Nov. 24 - Homer Norton, stockily built, soft-spoken southerner has broken precedent. Faced by seemingly insurmountable odds, he has during his eight years as head football coach at Centenary college here demonstrated that a one-time all-around college athletic star may quickly become one of the leading coaches of the country. Norton is ending his eight year reign as coach at Centenary this year to succeed Matty Bell as head football coach at Texas A. & M. college. Southwest conference schools. The Norton-coached football

Denver Mint Employees Ready to Foil Any Attempt at Gold Robbery

An armored car was backing up to the unloading dock. As it stopped a half dozen guards, armed with rifles, formed a half-circle about it. Abruptly a guard appeared beside us with a rifle at his shoulder. At every window of the long room an armed man stood.

There are other precautions, too. But suppose a desperate gang were to rush that front door, gain entrance to the building and take captive the guards in the corridors. Even so, the chances are they would profit nothing by their daring raid. For the millions of dollars in gold which the mint keeps as a reserve against currency issues would not even then be easily available. Blast Way In. Perhaps, with dynamite, nitroglycerine, and plenty of time, the gang might be able to blast their way to the wealth inside the great vaults. But long before that happened help would have come. The attempt would end in failure. What about the possibility of a robbery from inside? In the next article it will be explained why few mint employees have ever attempted such a thing, and why those who did failed.

FORTRAIT FOUND. NANCY, Nov. 24 - A painting of Mary Magdane has been unearthed here in the attic of an orphanage. It is attributed to the Leonardo da Vinci School in the Spanish Cathedral of Burgos. Others hold that it is a Lucas Cronach, or Albert Durer. In the last case the painting would be worth some three million francs, while if it is a Franch its value would be 125,000 francs.

OBLEDGED ROBBERS. REVERE, Mass., Nov. 24 - Charles Rodgers was very obliging to the two robbers who held him up. He had to hand over his wallet which he pleasantly did, for all his money was in his pants pockets. The robbers thought they had the money and fled.

teams have been the jinx to southwest conference foes for a college generation. Year after year his eleven have bowled over rivals, attaining a record of undefeated games unmatched this year in the southwest. The teams have been molded despite handicaps which would have made most coaches weary. A few of these follow: The enrollment at Centenary, a Methodist co-educational school, has averaged around 600 students, half of whom are boys. Freshmen classes at most southwest schools have equaled the total enrollment at Centenary and the number of candidates for football teams at many major schools, universities and colleges has been larger than the entire male student body at Centenary.

Only "Leftovers" Norton has been able to draw only the "leftovers" of football material for the school is not a conference member, has no large alumni body to assist in bringing or interesting prospective football stars in Centenary.

Centenary lacks a large athletic coaching department found at most colleges or universities. Norton has actually been running a "one man coaching staff" since he was appointed successor to Ben McMillan, former Centre college football star.

Yet, in the face of these apparently insurmountable difficulties, Centenary has written a modern football romance. When the school celebrated Home-coming last week its team had played 18 games without defeat. Southern Methodist university of Dallas, a leading southwest conference member, lost 7 to 0, to be the 18th consecutive team to be unable to defeat the Gents.

From 1927 to 1932 inclusive Centenary scored 1,083 points to its opponents' 336. In 1930 Centenary lost one game, that by a 7 to 6 score to Texas Aggies. Revenge was had against three other members of the Southwest conference including Texas, Baylor and Arkansas. The University of Iowa was also defeated by the 1930 Centenary team.

In 1932 the Centenary Gents were undefeated. They romped to victory over Texas, Ole Miss, Southern Methodist university, Texas Aggies, Louisiana and Arkansas. Baylor and S. M. U. were defeated this year and scoreless ties were played with Texas and Texas Christian university. Louisiana State was also tied.

Thus the football honors which Centenary followers aver should give the school national rating is not a hollow one. The Southwest conference teams play a brand of football that needed no apologies

CITY FEDERATION HAS MEETING.
The City Federation met on Monday afternoon at the Women's club, house on West Seventh street, with Mrs. G. B. Kelly, president, presiding and Mrs. P. P. Shepard as secretary pro tem. The meeting was opened with the recitation of the Lord's prayer in unison, with Mrs. A. J. Olson reading. Reports were given by the treasurer and the chairman of the finance committee, and what is to be done in regard to raising money was discussed. A discussion of stunt night activities was taken up, and the president appointed a general committee, composed of Mrs. A. Olson, chairman, Mrs. J. R. Burnett, Mrs. H. G. Bailey, Mrs. Charles Sander, and Miss Blanch Van Horn. The president also announced that the Wednesday Study club will be responsible for the out-of-town judges for the stunt night program. Stunt night is to be held some time after December 8. It was announced that the Industrial Arts club has donated two dollars towards buying new shades, picture moulding, and similar articles for the inside of the clubhouse and concessions for this purpose are expected from other member clubs. Mrs. J. D. Barker announced that the Industrial Arts club will sponsor an art exhibit to be held at the clubhouse at some future date.

Reports on the meeting of the State Federation at Austin were given by Mrs. L. Clark, Mrs. E. P. Crawford, and Mrs. J. D. Barker. Various phases of the convention were discussed, including accounts of the social activities and the regular sessions of the convention. Mrs. Barker told of the financial obligations connected with the newly built women's club building in Austin, and told of a plan whereby the obligations could be easily dispensed with in every six months. In Texas would give one dollar a year for the next six years. Mrs. Phillip Pettit continued her discussions of "The Origin and History of Words," with a very interesting talk.

MRS. CUNNINGHAM ENTERTAINS CLUB.
—Eight bridge club members were entertained on Wednesday evening in the home of Mrs. Arthur Cunningham on West Seventh street. Chrysanthemums in blended hues were lavishly used in decorations for the entertaining suite. Miss Laura Lu Waring was presented a lamp as a high score prize, and Miss Ocean Byrd, who received the low score, was awarded a lovely box of handkerchiefs. At the termination of the games, the hostess served a delightful course with cream chicken in patties, salades, and red tinned apples stuffed with dates, topped with whipped cream and cherries. Members and guests present were Misses Ester Hale, Laura Lu Waring, Ora Bess Moore, Marian Mayer, Viola LaMunyon, Titia Bell Simmons, Wilma Thomas, Odean Byrd.

SISTER MARY'S RECIPES

BY SISTER MARY, NEA Service Staff Writer.
Tomorrow's Menu
BREAKFAST: California grapes, cereal, cream, creamed potatoes, crisp broiled bacon, cornmeal gems, milk, coffee.
LUNCHEON: Russian soup, toast sticks, rice, souffle, milk, tea.
DINNER: Beef and oyster pie, steamed squash, pineapple and cabbage salad, fig pudding, milk, coffee.

Fruit cake of any variety, be it the traditional rich black cake or the less expensive but equally delicious cake regulated to modern conditions, is the easiest of all cakes to bake because it's so full of fruit and nuts that there's no chance for it to "fall." Baked in rather small loaves in the modern heat-controlled oven, it won't burn or become crusty on the edges and corners.
Steaming and then baking insure a thoroughly done moist cake. Remember that thorough cooking is imperative if the cake is to keep indefinitely and the perfect fruit cake is moist and "plummy."
Money, time and work are ingredients of fruit cake as well as eggs and sugar, but the return is well worth while. If mixing and baking facilities are limited, half the recipe can be used. And if lemon and orange peels can be purchased shredded and ready for use, the nuts can be bought all picked out and the raisins seeded.
Thorough baking and the use of strong coffee infusion or fruit juice in the place of milk will make a moist, delicious cake that will keep indefinitely. Brandy, which was supposed to be the preservative for fruit cake is not used in this recipe. Chocolate is added for richness and color but may be omitted if preferred.
And now for the recipe:
Rich Black Fruit Cake
One cup butter, 1 cup lard or other shortening, 1 cup light brown sugar, 10 eggs, 1 cup molasses, 1 cup liquid (orange juice, sweet cider or grape juice), 4 cups flour, 1 teaspoon soda, 1 tablespoon each powdered cinnamon and allspice, 2 teaspoons grated nutmeg, 1 teaspoon powdered cloves, 3-4 cake bitter chocolate, 2 pounds seeded raisins, 1 pound

Caught After 9 Years in Attic

Hidden in the attic of his mother's home for nine years, Charles Youngblood evaded arrest on the charge of slaying his young wife, in February, 1924. Barefooted, pale as a ghost, he was captured by Nashville, Tenn., deputies, and is shown, with his captors, trying to conceal his face. The suspect never had stepped out of the house in all his years of hiding, relatives said. He goes on trial soon.

Did You Ever Stop to Think?
By EDSON R. WAITE, Shawnee, Oklahoma.
High taxation, which lessens the people's resources and curtails spending, has drained in a very serious degree the sources of private charity.
The poor we have always with us, but now the old poor are very large, augmented by the new poor. Thousands of citizens who in former years made their contributions to charity find themselves on the verge of want and are being forced to the reluctant view that "Charity Begins at Home."

BEHIND THE SCENES IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER, NEA Service Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON.—When dead cats fill the air, Faru Recovery officials want the corpses to fall where they belong.
It was General Johnson of NRA who predicted the cat barrage. He has plenty of worries, but so has the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, which among other things fears popular reaction to price rises in the necessities of life.
Vigorously attempting to see to it that the farmer gets the full benefit of farm product price increases, AAA also is determined that retail increases caused by NRA and other factors shall not be attributed to the gradual artificial process of restoring farmers to pre-war purchasing power parity.
It called in the owners of Washington department stores the other day to see why clerks were blaming increases on bed sheets and other cotton goods from the cotton processing tax.
The department stores all agreed that the tax was a "negligible factor," which was what AAA wanted publicly admitted. Previously it had forced textile manufacturers to back down from the contention that the tax was ruining them.
No one here knows the ratio of the NRA and AAA added cost factors in processed, retail farm products. But interesting figures on cotton cloth recently worked out by Gardner Means, brilliant brain trust economist, now may be revealed.

80 YEARS OLD, AND NOBODY IS GOING TO CATCH HIM IN SHOES

FORT WORTH, Nov. 24.—Let the hot sun shine and the cold winds howl, but you won't catch George Barager, the 80-year-old ginier of Grapevine wearing shoes.
"Winter or summer, they are too much trouble. They hurt his feet. Besides he can't walk on leather as well as on the ground grippers with which he was originally endowed."
"Why should I?" he parried when asked about not wearing shoes.
He was barefootedly busy at the cotton gin, where he has been a pressman for 15 years. The bare feet of this chunky little man of Holland-Dutch descent are a familiar site to residence of Grapevine, a hamlet near here.
"Why should I wear shoes if I feel better in my bare feet?" he went on, heedless of the upturned splinters in rough floor. "Listen, if I could keep the rest of my body as warm as my feet I'd be all right."
"Now last winter during the awful cold spell there was ice over the streets and I decided before starting up to the business section I'd better put on my shoes. But you know I hadn't gone more than a block before those shoes started slipping on the ice."
"What did I do? Well, I pulled the damned things off, threw them over in a neighbor's yard, and went on up town."
He had never made a habit of wearing shoes, he said. Of course there are rare intervals when he almost has to wear them—at special functions of the church or on Sunday. But his neighbors say on the few occasions he usually comes home carrying the shoes under an arm.
"Heck, no," he replied when requested to pose just as he stood for a photograph. "You don't get my mug in the papers... nor my feet either. Come back when the snows eight inches deep and maybe I'll let you take one."
Would he please make it two inches of snow?
"Well, yes," he agreed finally. "We'll make it two inches of snow, but I'll probably be out rabbit hunting when you arrive."
