that little bird in a circle worn on the lapel or somewhere and which most of the boys are so happy to receive.

Bud entered the service at Fort Sill, Okla., November 4, 1942 and spent 39 months doing infantry chores, 13 months of which were spent in Alaska and the Aleutians, where he got plumb full of "big bear" tales—along with a few others.

Bud took his basic at Camp Roberts, Cal., but he got his real training from actual experience in the frozen northwest.

Among his souvenirs he has the Victory medal, Good Conduct medal and one Bronze Star.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. U. F. Coker, Sr., of Turkey, Bud was a tech. sergeant when he was reconverted to civilian status.

HOME FROM HAWAII
Leo Burt Mullin, who has been in the Hawaii Islands for the past 14 months, landed in San Francisco February 19 and arrived at Fort Bliss, Texas at 9 a. m. Sunday, Feb. 24.

He received his discharge Monday afternoon and was met at Fort Bliss by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mullin, Sr., and his father W. B. Mullin, who brought him home to Turkey. Leo Burt entered the service May 7, 1943 and tasted his first army life at Fort Sill, Okla. He was sent from there to Sheppard Field, Texas where he started his training as a mechanic in the air corps. From Sheppard he was sent Amarillo Air Field, thence to Chanute Field, Ill., and then to Kelly Field, San Antonio. From Kelly he was sent to Oahu, Hawaiian Islands, and while overseas also saw duty on another island of the Hawaiian group. He prefers America—Turkey, in fact.
