SALEM DRY GOODS RE-OPENS IN TURKEY

Everything is in readiness for the opening of Tom Salem's new dry goods store in Turkey and the grand re-opening will be Friday, July 5, at 9 a. m.

Mr. Salem has been fortunate in securing merchandise for his new store and has many of the scarce items, some of them in quantities. Though the stock is quite complete in other lines, Mr. Salem is disappointed that his full stock of shoes has not yet arrived. However he preferred not to delay his opening until their arrival as he has sufficient merchandise of every other kind.

The interior of the building and fixtures have all been painted white and powerful fluorescent lights have been strung along the ceiling from the front to the rear of the store which make it as bright as day at all times. An air conditioner has been installed for the comfort of patrons and the store personnel, making Salem's a very delightful place to shop.

BAPTIST HOUR SPEAKER IS GOV. ARNALL OF GEORGIA

Occasionally we receive the announcements of the Baptist Hour speaker in time for publication and the editor and the pastor have frequently discussed the value of publishing them. How many of you read the announcements—and how many listen to the speaker. Even though you do not listen, mention the notice to the pastor. We'd like to know if the news has any value.

Governor Ellis Arnald of Georgia will be heard on the Baptist Hour network Sunday morning, July 7. As the first speaker in the new series on the general theme, "Faith Is the Victory" his subject will be "Christian Patriotism for the New Day."

Governor Arnald, known for his Christian character, his able leadership in national and state affairs, and his effectiveness as a radio speaker, is a deacon and Sunday school teacher in his home church.

Music for the Baptist Hour will again be by the Baptist Hour Choir, John D. Hoffman, director and George L. Hamrick, organist.

The Baptist Hour may be heard in Texas at 7:30 a. m. over Radio Station KGNC, Amarillo; WFAA Dallas; KPRC, Houston; and WOAI San Antonio. Also over Radio Station KWBW at 5:30 p. m. CST, Sundays.

Mrs. G. Tunnell who has been living at Big Spring, is here on vacation, visiting her son Clyde Tunnell and family. She has resigned her position at Big Spring and visited in Austin and other points before coming to Quitaque. Mrs. Tunnell said she planned to locate somewhere on the south plains, but did not know just where.

HAIL AND STRONG WINDS CAUSE MUCH CROP DAMAGE

The copious rains which fell so gently over a wide area last week and brought smiles to the faces of the farmers, were followed last Thursday evening with a down-pour and strong winds that soon changed the smiles to sighs of distress.

Late Thursday evening, before the paper went to press a heavy rain fell, accompanied by a strong wind and a little hail which caused wide damage to the crops. What young cotton had come to a stand was killed, or covered up.

The rain in Quitaque measured 2.85 Friday morning, which was more moisture than had fallen previously during the entire month. The total rainfall for the month of June, shown on the government gauge here was 4.97 inches.

C. E. Anderson said it rained fully eight inches at his place a few miles south of town, and a hail stone fell with every rain drop.

Gasoline suffered severe crop and property damage Thursday evening. Wind and hail ruined the young stands which had just begun to appear after the moisture earlier in the week, window lights were broken out in many of the houses by the hail and fruit was knocked from the trees.

Then Sunday evening late an old-time duster came tearing in, completing the damage.

A light hail was reported from the Flomot area Sunday. If any hail fell at Quitaque Sunday, it was light—but the wind was plenty heavy.

GRANTED PERMANENT COMMISSION IN ARMY

Lt. Col. Wilson Chapman came in Thursday evening for a week end visit with his mother Mrs. W. V. Chapman, from El Paso where he is stationed.

Chapman was recently granted a permanent commission in the regular U. S. Army. He was among the 4,000 granted permanent commissions out of 108,000 applicants.

Holding the temporary commission of Lt. Col., his permanent commission is First Lieutenant.

Chapman has a distinguished record of service in World War II, being among the first group of airmen to go to the Pacific where he served as a fighter pilot.

Bill Middleton attended a district meeting of water superintendents last Thursday night at Matador. These meetings are held monthly in various towns of the area and Bill said the group was planning to meet at Quitaque in August and have a barbecue at the city park.

Ben Chandler was returned home last Friday from the hospital at Quanah where he underwent surgery some time ago. He is reported doing nicely at his home.

Buster Mullin and family have returned to Quitaque from Abilene where Buster has been attending college, preparing to enter the ministry.

EVERYDAY RELIGION

NATURE—THE BIBLE—AND US.

By E. B. Thompson

In Sacred Art Calendars, the fourth Sunday in June is designated "Nature Sunday." This is not surprising, in view of the fact that from ancient times man has made certain approaches to God through his senses and his surroundings. From the crude beginning of a fear of the storm cloud—to higher levels of appreciation of the beauties about him, he has come to worship, as we know and understand the term today. His first altars were in the open, under the bending blue, and his greatest cathedrals reflect the stately canyons and lofty peaks of the natural world, enshrined in stone.

This matter of nature, influences our everyday lives more profoundly than we even realize. We come to use certain expressions or colloquialisms which must be explained to people who do not live in our vicinity. Here in our valley, we speak of going "up on top," when we mean going from the valley to the higher elevation to the west. We readily understand what the weather man means when he refers to the "Panhandle," but would a persons living in Georgia understand? A friend of ours who lives in Louisiana and who has never been west of Dalla, Texas, asked the location of Quitaque. We answered, "It's the first town under the cap—" His expression was one of bewilderment—and should have been! Many everyday expressions which are understood perfectly by those who use them, must also be understood by those who hear them, if they are to mean anything.

The Bible abounds in this colloquial form of expression. When Jesus spoke of a certain man going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, his hearers knew that Jericho was fifteen miles from Jerusalem and four thousand feet down, and that the road wound its way through lime-stone canyons, where robbers had looted and killed for money carried by travelers returning from the sale of wool, until it had come to be known as "The Bloody Pass." The whole parable turns on those acts for its best meaning. These expressions of natural settings in the Bible range all the way from the story of the "Garden" in Genesis to the "River of Life" in Revelation, and climb mountains, cross forests, valleys, and oceans, enroute!

"I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help."

"I am the rose of Sharon, the lily of the valleys."

"Ye shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods."

"Thy way O Lord, is in the sea."—Surely
This is my Father's world
And, to my listening ears,
All nature sings, and round me rings,
The music of the spheres!

MASONS INSTALL OFFICERS

Quitaque Masonic lodge held its regular monthly stated meeting Tuesday night. The attendance was low but the interest was high.

New officers who were elected at the last meeting were installed along with the new appointive officers, Charles Gowin, senior deacon; Tubby Hamilton, senior steward; and Roy Burgess, junior steward.

Following the regular and routine business, the Entered Apprentice degree was conferred upon J. C. Rhoderick, Jr.

The new officers installed were E. P. Lewis, W. M.; L. A. Broxson, S. W.; Glynn Morrison, J. W.; Travis Morrison, Tiler. Bill Middleton was installing officer and J. T. Persons the installing marshal.

GIRL SCOUTS PLAN PICNIC FOR FRIDAY

Eighteen girls were present at the intermediate girls Scout meeting Wednesday afternoon. Also present were the leader Mrs. J. T. Persons, the assistant leader Mrs. J. C. Rhoderick, Jr., and two committee members Mrs. Eula Morris and Mrs. Joe Bedwell.

The girls spent a pleasant hour and made plans for a picnic which will be Friday afternoon. All girls of this age group, from the fourth grade through high school, who are interested in Scout work, are invited. The girls will meet at the home of Mrs. W. R. Scott at 5 p. m. Friday afternoon—and bring a sandwich or two.

More adults are evidencing interest in the Scout work and the girls are happy about it, as they are anxious to complete their organization and plan for their investiture. In order to do this, enough mothers must be interested to act as committee members and cooperate when called upon for a little help now and then.

Misses Inez and Christine Chandler of Brownfield were here over the week end visiting their parents Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Chandler and other relatives. John Ebbs, of the navy, who was here visiting his aunt Mrs. Chandler, accompanied the girls back to Brownfield for visit.

BIKINI BOMB BURST BOWS TO OPA IN NEWS OF THE WEEK

The A-Bomb test at Bikini Sunday afternoon might just as well have been a dud, as the news of that explosion was almost completely overshadowed when the lid blew off the OPA Sunday night. It seems that prices are going up.

The daily papers are filled with ads by merchants promising to hold prices to their present level, as nearly as possible, but the local merchants are looking and feeling dubious—and so are their patrons. There was a time when the high cost of living didn't concern the bean-eaters—but not now—two pounds of dried beans cost fifty cents—there ain't no pork to boil with 'em—and the cornbread turns green when it's baked. Looks like someone substituted alfalfa for cornmeal.

Congress will think of something soon though. We may not like it and we'll grumble, but the timid souls will feel safer. OPA employees are still hanging on, so the papers say, so we can hang on with them and "hold tight." The idea now is to concentrate on "self control" which must substitute for "price control" until prices are stabilized either by government edict, or the course of nature.

In the meantime another sugar stamp becomes valid—and sugar went up 2 cent a pound. Spare Ration Stamp 10 became valid Tuesday for five pounds of canning sugar. Stamp 10 is good indefinitely, will run concurrently with Spare 9 until Spare 9 expires Oct. 31. Stamp 49 is the only table sugar coupon now valid.

VISITS PARENTS

Elmer Lee Womack, who returned from Korea week before last, spent last week here with his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Womack. He left Monday to join his family at Gordanville.

Elmer Lee was overseas a year with construction engineers building roads. His first overseas duty was at Shanghai, China, where he spent a couple of months. He was with North American Aircraft Co., before his induction into service, building P-51s.

Mrs. Womack was brought home from the Matador hospital so she could spend a few days with her son, and Tuesday Mr. Womack took her to Big Spring to the home of their daughter Mrs. Arch Alexander. Mr. and Mrs. Womack moved their household furnishings to the apartments on Main street which he is redecorating. They sold their home some time ago to Mrs. Kell, and gave possession July 1.

REV. LANDRETH HERE SUNDAY

Rev. E. D. Landreth of Clarendon, district superintendent of Clarendon District will be the preacher for Sunday evening service at the Methodist Church. A short session of the quarterly conference will be held in the service.

RITES HELD THIS WEEK FOR SISTER OF FORMER RESIDENT

Miss Oattie Gibbs, 61 years old, died Sunday morning at the home of a sister Mrs. J. B. Edgar, White Deer, where she had made her home the past five years.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at Amarillo and burial was at Frisco, Texas.

Miss Gibbs had lived in the Panhandle 36 years. She taught school at Wildorado for five years and was with the Santa Fe at Amarillo for 15 years. She had been in failing health for a number of years.

Survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Edgar and Mrs. J. S. Rucker of Bellview, N. M., and a brother G. B. Gibbs of Frisco.

A family gathering was enjoyed Sunday afternoon in the Elmer Tibbets home. Their son Richard Tibbets and family were here over the week end from Lubbock and others present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins and Joe Frank, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Partin, Mr. and Mrs. George Tibbets and girls and Miss Billye Tibbets.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lemons of Lubbock visited this week with their daughter Mrs. Clarence Redding and family here, and with their son and family at Silverton.

TURKEY MAN BREAKS FROM FRIENDS WHEN MIND FAILS

Josh Smith, 38, suffered a mental disorder Sunday morning while at the Smith home place at Buffalo Flat, presumably from a nervous collapse. He was taken to Memphis Tuesday and later in the day was taken to the Parkland hospital in Dallas for treatment.

He was taken to Dallas by his brother Albert Smith, who was notified by telephone of Josh's condition. Before leaving Dallas he made arrangements at the hospital for his brother's entrance, not knowing his brother's condition but convinced that he needed hospitalization.

Josh, assisted by Otis Hill, Smith Rees and his cousin T. J. Kellam, were in the barn doctoring a calf when the attack came on. His condition became worse Tuesday and effort was made to take him to a doctor at Memphis by Guy Ashford in his pickup. In the vicinity of Estelline, the fan belt on the pickup broke and Josh took off to the brakes along the river.

Officers were notified and a searching party of officers and citizens was formed. He was found wandering along the river and showed no signs of antagonism when located. In fact he seemed happy to see the party of friends who had scoured the brakes for many hours.

Smith, who is married and has two or three children, has been operating a filling station in east Turkey for the past few months. The many friends of him and his family hope that he will make a speedy recovery.

Items Of Interest From Cap Rock SC District

Allen Kellum and Earl Cantwell, cooperators of the Grass Conservation Group have placed an order for an all steel land leveler for that vicinity.

Stock water ponds in the Quitaque area were filled by the rains last week.

Joe Mercer, a cooperator of the Cap Rock Soil Conservation district, established contour guide lines on his farm west of Silverton for seeding of sudan grass on the contour.

Earl Cantwell recently returned from Rising Star with 450 pounds of Hairy Vetch seed. Mr. Cantwell had requests from cooperators of the Cap Rock Soil Conservation district for approximately 1000 pounds of these seed but due to the great demand for them was able to secure only a limited amount. These seed will be distributed as equally as possible to cooperator who have made request for them.

E. S. Stephens, a cooperator in the Rock Creek Soil Conservation group, stated that his wheat yield was considerably increased by two three-inch applications of irrigation water. He found that he harvested about one-third more wheat on the flatter slopes where the water distribution and velocity could be controlled as compared to the steeper slopes where the depth of the irrigation water penetration was shallow.

Stepping is high, wide and handsome at the Pioneer Pharmacy with a new floor covering of asphalt blocks in an attractive finish of brown and tan squares. This week customers are being followed around by a mop, but next week the force will be accustomed to the new floor and we can spill our drinks and let our cream cones drip without feeling like criminals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gillespie and Linda Kay went to Dalhart Saturday night for a week end visit with her sister Mrs. U. S. Bolton and family, returning home Sunday night.

Esda Paul Mixon, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Eddleman is here visiting his grandparents and other relatives. He received his discharge from military service June 11.

BUB CHANDLERS ARE PIONEERING IN ALASKA

Following is a letter from Mrs. Bub Chandler to Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Chandler and family. Bub Chandler with his wife and son Bobby moved recently from Sacramento, Cal., to a new home in Alaska. The family made the trip in a Dodge truck. Bub, who is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Chandler, has been living the past five years in California.

The family seems delighted with their new home but if you think the cost of living is high here, take a look at these prices. Some of the young families who have been struck with the Alaskan fever had better count their money again.

Dear Folks: Will write you a few lines to let you know we got through ok. We got to Fairbanks the 27th of May and we stayed there one day and two nights. We unloaded the tractor and came on down to Anchorage and stayed there two weeks and Bub and Bobby unloaded lumber for 22 and a third hours and made $87.00.

We went in with another fellow and bought a brand new saw mill and here we are out in the mountains sawing house logs and lumber. The longer we are here, the better we like. And we all feel better and eat like pigs.

And groceries surely are high: Eggs $1.15 a dozen; meat 65c and up; milk 30c a quart; ice cream is $4.00 a doz. And we have to buy by the case because we can't go in to town every day. This winter we will have to have enough to do two or three months.

I'm here now by myself and I expect to have company any minute and it might be a bear or bears, for they are thick here. So far they haven't bothered this year but you can't ever tell when they might. Any way I have three guns and I'm learning how to use them.

Bub and Bobby are gone in to town with a load of house logs and I haven't been feeling too good so I stayed home. There's another lady who lives here but she went in to the show.

Anyway it's daylight all night now and this winter it will be dark all day. We haven't gotten our things we shipped up yet but I guess they are in Fairbanks by now. Bobby and I are going to take the truck up and get them one of these days. It's 300 miles and lots of bad mountains, so it will take a week.

Bub made $125.00 last week above his expenses and he expects to better from now on. There are four of them in on the money end so I guess they will do all right.

We are using our new Case engine and the other man's saw. Two men saw (Bub and his partner) and two haul in logs with two big cats, and they have a man hired to cut the logs.

I guess it will take Bobby and I two months to get in wood for winter. It gets about 35 below here. If we don't freeze this winter, or the mosquitoes don't eat us up this summer, I think this will be our home.

The seventh largest glacier in the world is 30 miles from us and it breaks up in August. It is really something to see that much ice at one time. We are right between two big rivers and they really flood when the ice breaks.

(The rest of the letter was personal, but the above was so interesting we wish we had some more like it to publish. If any of your wandering sons and daughters have gone to far places, and write home about them, please let us have them to publish.)

"Beg your pardon, but what is your name?" the clerk asked "Wainwright" replied the indignant guest, who had just signed the register with a great flourish. "Don't you see my signature there on the register?"

"I do," answered the clerk. "That is what aroused my curiosity."

New Office Boy: "I have added these figures up eight times, sir."

Employer: "That's very good and thorough."

PINK ELEPHANTS OR MICE?

The other night W. F. Brittain was awakened by an unusual clatter in the kitchen and arose to investigate. When he turned on the light he was amazed to see an 8-inch tin pie plate turned bottom-side up, moving mysteriously across the floor. He strode forth and courageously put his foot on the plate and held it there firmly until someone brought a big door weight which he substituted for his foot. Brit's a brave man.

With the ghost safely pocketed for the night, the family again retired and next morning Brit reached under the pan and drew forth—not a centipede, or a pink elephant, but a little mouse which he fed—to the cat.

DON'T HOARD OLD MEDICINES

There are many persons who naturally hoard anything and everything including old clothes, boxes, and other useless articles, some of which constitute no greater danger than a possible fire hazard, but a very real danger is present when this tendency is applied to hoarding old medicine in any form.

Most medicine finds itself into the home through a doctor's prescribing it for some specific illness. For the sake of safety, left-over medicine should be destroyed immediately when they have fulfilled their purpose and never be stored in the medicine cabinet for future unprescribed use in case of another illness, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, state health officer.

"Self medication with the use of left-over drugs which were of great benefit to some previous illness can sometimes turn a simple ailment into a very serious condition of actual poisoning," Dr. Cox said. "This is particularly true if the indiscriminate use of sulfa drugs which have been prescribed for some previous specific condition.

"It is wise to use medicines as indicated for the illness for which they are prescribed by your doctor and when they are no longer needed destroy the remaining medicine immediately," Dr. Cox said. "Even if you expect a return of the same condition at some future date, it would be better to obtain new medicine if the condition recurs than to retain this old medicine in the cabinet and subject the members of your family to the danger of using it unwisely."

Fond parent: "What does my son do with his week end?"

The Dean: "Judging by his work lately, I think he merely hangs his hat on it."

A Word to Our Friends:

We want to thank our many customers and friends for their patronage and the years of pleasant business associations which we enjoyed while we operated the store and postoffice at Gasoline.

Sunday, June 30, Murry Morrison received official notice from Washington that he was accepted as Gasoline acting postmaster, to succeed us, and the business deal in which he became owner also of the grocery store and which hinged upon his being accepted as postmaster, was concluded.

And so, after 26 years of business in Gasoline, for the present we have retired. To our friends and neighbors, we again want to express our deep appreciation for their patronage and pleasant business dealings.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. L.J. Bedwell
