STANDARD TIME RETURNS EARLY SUNDAY MORNING

At 2:00 a. m. Sunday the nation gets back the hour that was lost six months ago when clocks were advanced an hour to Daylight Saving Time. At that hour Sunday morning this area goes back to Central Standard Time.

Local churchgoers are reminded that it might be a good idea to write themselves a note to run their clocks back an hour before going to bed Saturday night in order to get to church and Sunday School on time.

Supt. Moseley has announced that beginning Monday, school will begin at 8:30 CST and will dismiss at 3:45 p. m. So, don't forget to reset your clocks sometime before going to bed Saturday night by running them back an hour—like for instance at 12 o'clock, set them 11 o'clock and get an extra hours sleep.

Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Weatherly of Parnell visited in the Jack Cheatham home Friday evening.

Mrs. Christine Jewett and Darlene of Turkey visited Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cheatham and family Tuesday of last week.

NEW GAS RATES TO GO INTO EFFECT NOVEMBER 15

Gas used for domestic and commercial purposes after November 15, 1967, will be billed at a new rate by Pioneer Natural Gas Company. In June the Company applied for an 11.5% increase in rates in the West Texas service area, and by late September all of the cities and towns had approved the new rate.

Since it began serving the area in 1928, Pioneer has applied the same rate in the West Texas service area, and this new rate will become effective in all cities and towns simultaneously.

Pioneer Natural Gas Company commences paying additional taxes to the cities and towns of the same time. The sew tax will be 3% of the gross receipts, rather than the 2% which had been paid previously. This tax is in addition to local ad valorem taxes, and sales taxes and the gross receipts tax paid the State.

Domestic and commercial customers in rural areas will also be billed at the new rate after the

HARVEYS HOME AGAIN

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harvey returned home Sunday after spending two weeks in Amarillo, part of that two weeks was spent in the hospital, the rest of the time with his sons and their families. They spent from Tuesday of last week until Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Graham Harvey and family at Dumas. They enjoyed a visit with Graham's son, Barry and family from Coinjock, North Carolina. The Barry Harveys have a two month old daughter, Michelle, whom the Harveys had not seen. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey spent Saturday and Sunday with the Ralph Harveys and also visited the Owen Dukes while in Amarillo.

November 15th date. The Texas Railroad Commission approved the rate for areas outside the city limits on September 26, 1968.

There will be no change in rates for gas used for irrigation or other classification of consumers.

In hearings preceding the granting of this rate increase in the various cities and towns, Pioneer showed that its operating costs per customer had increased by 17.1% since 1961 and its investment per customer had gone up 12.5%. Under the new rate, the average cost of gas per MCF will be approximately 70¢, which is well below the 87¢ average for the State of Texas as shown in 1965 figures.

GAS CO. BUILDING TO BE REMODELED

Mayor Pete Rice's campaign for the beautification of Quitaque took another forward step last week when Pioneer Natural Gas Company announced that their office building would be completely re-done.

Jim Cathey, local Pioneer manager, disclosed that the front of the Pioneer building will be completely modernized, with a new aluminum framing. The exterior stucco will be refinished. Highlight of the building will be the copper canopy to be set over the door with matching copper cornices over each of the front windows.

The interior of the building will be decorated, and a new ceiling and floor will be installed. New lighting fixtures will be added to compliment the new look, and a new heating system will be installed to work in conjunction with the gas air conditioning now operating in the building.

Cathey and Bill McKee, Pioneer District Manager, both express their pleasure at being able to participate in Quitaque's forward-looking project of beautification for the City.

Saturday Night Is Carnival Time

Saturday night is Carnival Time again in Quitaque, of the Halloween variety, that is.

Every class in school has been working very hard trying to secure enough votes to elect their favorite candidate as Carnival Queen.

The four high school classes and their sponsors have also been very busy setting up a variety of booths for patrons pleasure, along with several contests which is guaranteed to provide many laughs for those who attend the carnival.

The old standard "chunk the bottles" game is one that will be provided for the guests pleasure. The dunking board, which has always been a favorite here will also be available for those who might want to get even with someone who might be riding the board. Rumor has it that there might even be a teacher or two on the dunking-board, and everyone will want to avail himself of the opportunity to dump a teacher in the drink.

Several pie eating contests have been set up between students, between teachers and adults, and between some of the businessmen. That is something no one will want to miss!

RHONDA ROGERS WAS PARTICIPANT IN QUEEN CONTEST

Miss Rhonda Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Rogers, was a contestant in the Miss Cotton contest for the High Plains, held in Plainview last Friday night. The contest was held in the Agricultural Building with approximately 6000 in attendance.

Rhonda was among the 15 finalists chosen from 49 contestants. The girls were required to be daughters of parents who either own or rent a cotton farm, and must not be older than a senior in high school. They were required to style cotton dresses.

Miss Rogers was sponsored by the Quitaque F.H.A. The 49 contestants represented 16 area towns: Quitaque, Plainview, Hale Center, Dimmitt, Abernathy, Kress, Tulla, Silvertown, Lockney, Olton, Petersburg, Springlake, Cotton Center, Hart, Happy, and Amarillo.

Miss Elaine McGarr of Plainview was selected as Queen, Miss Sharon Kay Kelly of Hale Center was selected as first runnerup, and Miss Sherry Littlejohn of Hale Center was second runnerup. This is the second recognition Rhonda has received in area contests in recent weeks.

Those attending the Festival from Quitaque were J. T. Rogers, Mrs. John Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. John Boyles, Mrs. J. T. Rogers and her daughter, Jonann were both ill and unable to attend.

FIGHTING PANTHERETTES TOP CENTURY MARK

Would You Believe 101 to 1?

Quitaque's high school basketball teams blasted off a new season here Tuesday night by taking lopsided wins over Girard High. The Pantherettes, using every imaginable combination, ran up a 101-1 win over the outmanned girls from Girard, while the Panthers encountered a bit more opposition before winning 92-44 over the Cardinals.

The Fighting Pantherettes, who went all the way to the finals in championship play at Austin before being nudged for first place, left no doubt in the minds of the spectators at the outset of the game, that their intentions are to make a return trip to the capitol next spring. Admittedly there was little opposition Tuesday night but the Pantherettes simply overwhelmed the visitors from the opening buzzer.

With Sherry Stark, Carol Myers and new starter Jackie Cheatham pouring in the points from the start the locals ran up a 30-1 lead at the end of the first period. Coach Travis Gilliland, who was making his first start as QHS coach, then sent in his reserves but they continued the scoring spree and ran the count to 55-1 at half time with Barbara Chandler, who was high point maker for the evening with 25 points, doing most of the point-making.

During the second half Coach Gilliland used every means he could think of to hold the score down, like having the guards play forward and the forwards play guard. The entire squad saw action in the game.

In addition to Chandler's 23 points, Sherry Stark tossed in 19, Jackie Cheatham notched 17, Carol Myers 16, Glenna Ramsey 11 and freshman Beverly Rogers hit for 8 points. Switching from a guard to forward post, Kay Cochran dropped in 4 points, Lynette Taylor 2 and Billie Cheatham 1.

Starting for the Pantherettes in the opening game were Jackie Myers, Sherry Stark and Jackie Cheatham at forward; Lynette Taylor, Billie Cheatham and Jo Beth Merrell at guard. Debbie Brunson, Barbara Chandler, Beverly Rogers, Glenna Ramsey, Kay Cochran, Pam Loudermilk and Neva Dale Morrison all saw considerable action and every girl showed up well.

The Panthers sputtered quite a bit before finally starting to hit and for awhile it appeared the Cardinals might take the Panthers for they battled on even terms during the first period with the locals owning a one-point 15-14 lead at the end of the first quarter of play. From that point, however, the Panthers began to pull away, leading at halftime 38-24 and 64-29 at the end of the three-quarter mark.

Roland Hamilton got into early foul trouble, and fouled out in the third period. Lyn Payne also had some foul trouble, although he did not foul out of the game.

Jimmy Pointer led the point-makers with 26 points. His brother, Johnny, was next with 14; Lyn Payne chipped in with 13 tallies, Roland Hamilton notched 10 before leaving via the foul route; freshman Perry Brunson contributed 8 points, freshman Stan Price chalked up 7 points, Pablo Leal made 6, David Brunson 4 and Jimmy Monk rounded out the scoring with 2 points. Bill Loudermilk, the other member of the squad saw action but did not score.

Thus a new basketball season is launched successfully for Coach Travis Gilliland and his basketball teams. Next Tuesday night the two teams go to Girard for return games. Then on Saturday, November 4, the Pantherettes go to Darroutzet for a girls basketball clinic. On Tuesday, November 7 the local teams go to Hedley for a doubleheader. The teams entertain McAdoo here on November 10.

The upgrading of the Audio-Visual Aids program has been put into operation within the last few weeks. The biggest boost to the program was made possible when the local School Board voted to participate in the Media Center of PESO. schools in Canyon. Mr. Laycock is an experienced school administrator and rated as one of the best educators in the state.

The cost of participating in the Media Center is $1.00 per student based on Average Daily Attendance. This year the cost to Quitaque schools will be $214.00. The state will match these funds from local schools dollar for dollar and when the operation is put into action in November of 1967 there will be a total of $300,000.00 available for payment of personnel and purchasing of materials. About 75 per cent of the funds will be set aside for materials and services for the member schools of the Media Center.

The materials that will come from the Media Center will be movie films and these will be ready for scheduling in November. A film room has been set up in the high school building where classes work in Vocational Agriculture was held before Mr. Berryhill and his department built a new and modern class room adjoining the shop of the Ag department. All machines and supplies will be centralized in this Audio-Visuals Aid room and teachers sign up on regular schedule for showing of films. Sometimes two or three classes may see a film at the same time. This room is also used as a dressing room for visiting boys basketball teams. During the games all of the visual aids equipment will be locked up.

Dean Johnson will serve as film coordinator for the Quitaque Schools and also coordinator between the local schools and Media Center in Amarillo.

There will be a series of meetings for the coordinators and the first one will be held in Tulla on November 1. During this meeting the mechanics of operation of the Media Center will be explained, such as distribution and care of all materials from the Center.

In addition to the films from the Media Center, the teachers are ordering some excellent films from free sources. The only cost of these films is the postage, which amounts to about 7 or 8 cents per film. Nearly all of these film are in color and based upon the various subjects taught in the school curriculum, such as Science, History, English, Social Studies, World-Famous People and Places, and also the great industries of the United States.

We—the pupils and faculty—feel that the film program will greatly improve our interest in the various subjects and also add to the power of retention of subject matter as a large per cent of what we learn comes from the sense of seeing.

COTTON RULES CHANGES PRAISED BY SEN. YARBOROUGH

Senator Ralph W. Yarborough, D-Texas, last week applauded the United States Department of Agriculture's reversal of cotton allotment policies which had been penalizing skip-row planters.

"The rules were unjust and harsh, and it is only right that they were revised," the Senator said. "I am delighted," he added.

Yarborough had written Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman three weeks ago asking that 1968 cotton regulations be altered to "restore equity to the Texas cotton farmers." In a letter September 19, he said the skip-row ruling had resulted in the loss of projected yields in other states, and had lost Texas "millions of dollars."

Freeman has informed the Senator that for 1968 the USDA would return to 1965 rules. Under these rules, only the land actually planted to cotton is counted as cotton land in determining compliance with program provisions.

The provision which Yarborough had protested, and which the action repeals, required farmers planting in a skip-row pattern—alternating rows for soil conservation—to count unplanted rows against their allotments.

"This ruling is a great breakthrough for Texas, where cotton is a vital part of our agricultural economy," Yarborough said, "and it means a healthy and more realistic balance nationally for cotton production."

PROPER STRIPPER USE STRESSED AT COTTON MEETING

LUBBOCK — The proper use of cotton strippers and the right conditions for harvesting were stressed at a recent series of meetings held throughout the South Plains.

Speaking on machine harvesting of cotton for maximum efficiency and quality preservation was B. G. Reeves, cotton ginning and mechanization specialist with the Extension Cotton Specialist.

Other featured speakers included Dr. Bob Metzger, Extension Area Agronomist, and Fred Elliott, Extension Cotton Specialist.

More than 95 per cent of the Texas cotton crop was machine harvested last year, pointed out Reeves, and a 98 per cent efficiency shield be obtained with the use of strippers, the mainstay of this area. Many factors affect operating efficiency, he added. Two important items are the speed at which the stripper is operating and the height at which the strippers headers are running. The plant lifters within the header should be checked thoroughly before harvesting begins to make sure they are in top operating condition, Reeves said. When harvesting starts, these should be checked again to assure they are running below the bottom bolls on the cotton stalks.

Harvesting should not begin until moisture conditions are right, the specialist emphasized. Moisture in the lint should not be more than eight per cent and relative humidity at boll height should be 60 per cent or less.

A simple method of checking the line to determine if it is ripe for harvesting is to collect several samples from throughout the field and squeezed in the hand. If the lint fluffs out it is dry enough to begin harvesting. However, Reeves added, if it balls up or sticks together, harvesting should be delayed.

Timing is also important if a desiccant has been applied, said the specialist. The leaves and stems of the cotton plant should be brittle before harvesting is begun. Usually, this will be a week to ten days after the desiccant has been applied. Main advantages of using a desiccant is that it permits earlier harvesting and more efficient mechanica harvesting.

In further discussing desiccants and defoliant, Elliott pointed out that these harvest-aid chemicals do not work well when night temperatures range below the 60 degrees mark. Proper timing in using these chemicals is all-important, he added, since lint yield, quality fiber, oil content and seed viability can be affected.

The best guide to follow if a desiccant or defoliant is to be applied is to check the field for the percent of open bolls, Elliott stated. At least 60 percent of the bolls should be open before a defoliant is applied and 80 per cent or more if a desiccant is to be used.

Turning to environmental factors which affect fiber development, Metzger pointed out that as the season advances, more time is required for cotton bolls to mature. Cotton that blooms by July 20 will normally have mature bolls by September 8, or within 50 days. However, cotton that does not reach the blooming stage until September 15 will require about 70 days to produce mature bolls, or until November 24.

Low night temperature is the primary factor involved here, the agronomist said. The development of fiber and micronaire are both slowed considerably by cool temperatures. Early set bolls have a much more favorable environment to provide for fiber thickening, he added.

The cotton harvesting meetings were held at Lubbock, Tulia, Hale Center, Floydada, Littlefield, Levelland, Muleshoe, Ralls, Morton, Plains, Seminole, Lamesa, Brownfield and Colorado City. Additional meetings are scheduled at Post on October 3 and at Tahoka on October 5.

TO MY GOOD FRIENDS EVERYWHERE!

I would like to take this means to thank all my dear, sweet friends for all they did for me while I was in the hospital. Thanks for all the nice cards, gifts, money, and most of all, your prayers. It was a good feeling to know when I went to surgery that somewhere people were praying for me. I received so many nice cards and gifts that I am unable to answer each one personally since I am still a little shaky. May each one of you take this as a personal "thank you." May God bless each one of you. I love all of you.
Frankie Hawkins

CARD OF THANKS

I want to thank all of you who remembered me in so many ways while I was in the hospital and since I came home. Thank you for cards, letters, your words of concern, and for your prayers. May the good Lord bless each of you.

WATERSHED PROGRAMS PAY OFF

Small watershed projects in South Texas took the brunt of Hurricane Beulah's record breaking rains last month and prevented vast flood damages, according to a report from H. N. Smith, State Conservationist, Soil Conservation Service, Temple.
Smith said six projects had been installed with SCS help in the area hit by the heavy rains and that inspections so far showed that none were seriously damaged by the storm.

At Bishop, city councilmen reported that a channel-levee project, part of the Chiltipin-San Fernando Creek watershed project, saved their city and prevented at least $500,000 in property damages.
Alice, San Diego, Kenedy, La Puerta, La Casita, Garciasville, and other communities reported similar benefits from the upstream projects, Smith said.

CHARLIE CHAN'S ADVICE TO TODAY'S PARENTS:

FAMOUS FILM DETECTIVE RECENTLY CELEBRATED "FAMILY DAY" AT EXPO 67 YOUTH PAVILION WITH MRS. CHAN AND 12 CHILDREN

MONTREAL QUE. When the internationally famous film mastermind of mystery, Charlie Chan, recently visited EXPO 67 to celebrate "Family Day" at the Youth Pavilion with his wife and 12 children, he offered the following six points on child upbringing in today's world:

1. Children are taught early to respect the experience and wisdom of Age. The old people of the family and the community are looked up to by the youth.
2. Religion is part of every-day life...not just a once-a-week-going-to-service habit.
3. Children are as proud of good grades in school as they are proud of social acceptance at a Discotheque party, because they are taught to value education as a priceless gift. School dropouts are no problem where diplomas are envied and sought as status symbols.
4. Good manners are expected in youngsters and rudeness is simply not tolerated.
5. Obedience is automatic in the home, where strict discipline is consistent and tempered with warm affection and respect for the rights of each member of the family.
6. Entertainment centers around the home, inside the family circle, with songs and games, stories and laughter, rather than outside the home in public places among strangers.

Charlie Chan is currently seen on television from coast-to-coast in 21 of his classic mystery film features, distributed by Warner Bros.-Seven Arts, Inc.

The heavy rains again underscored the value of work done by soil and water conservation districts in preventing erosion and sediment damage. Cultivated land with a cover of either a growing cover or crop residues had little damage, Smith said. He also said that bare, brush infested rangeland had scour damage and soil loss while grassland with good cover was not damaged.

Soil that washed off bare land became the mud that blocked roads and covered furniture and carpets downstream, Smith pointed out. He said this again bears out the fact that everyone has a stake in soil and water conservation work—from the farmer to the businessman to the housewife.
SCS helps landowners through local conservatiin districts plan and apply soil and water conserving measures on farm and ranch lands. SCS also helps local sponsors install watershed projects when sponsors are willing to secure needed rights-of-way as well as operate and maintain completed projects. Watershed dams have pipes built through them that automatically release water at a rate slow enough to prevent downstream flooding.
Smith said several pending projects now under consideration by sponsors would have greatly reduced flooding in other areas if they had been installed.
