Conferees reach oil tax agreement

WASHINGTON (AP) - Senate and House conferees reached tentative, informal agreement Friday that would require independent oil producers to pay as much as $25 billion in "windfall" taxes in the 1980s

That figure is about half-way between the $57 billion tax that the House voted to impose on independents and the $1 billion levy favored by senators.

Conference leaders said the preliminary agreement could lead to final action on the tax early next week. Still to be determined is how the $227 billion in tax revenues would be spent.

Strike settled

DALLAS (AP) - Southwest Airlines today announced the settlement of a week-long strike by the airline's machinists which had forced Southwest to reduce its service.

A spokesman for Southwest said striking workers were returning to their jobs this afternoon, but normal airline service will not be resumed until Feb.

The airline said the workers accepted terms offered Jan. 10, three days before the Jan. 13 walkout by 106 members of the International Association of Machinists.

Pakistani troops on Afghan border

By The Associated Press

Pakistan was reported Friday to have sent thousands of troops to its border with Afghanistan, where Moslem Afghan rebels were said to be retreating from Soviet helicopter gunships and tanks.

The United News of India quoted military observers in Kabul, the Afghan capital, as saying about seven divisions of Pakistani troops were at the Afghanistan border. It also reported Pakistan has moved a large armored force near the border, and that all Pakistan air bases in the area were put on alert.

In another dispatch from Kabul, the Spanish news agency EFE said Soviet helicopters were "controlling" guerrilla movements in the interior of Afghanistan and near Afghanistan's missiles, anti-tank weapons and comeastern border with Pakistan. It also said the rebels, "frightened" by the Soviet armor being used against them and lacking automatic weapons themselves, had fallen back to snowcovered mountain villages. The report was carried in Madrid, Spain.

independently. American reporters were ordered expelled from the country Thursday, but were detained in Kabul on Friday. Officials at Delhi Airport in India said the airport in Kabul was closed because of snow.

STATE DEPARTMENT spokesman Hodding Carter said Friday in Washington that harsh winter conditions apparently were hampering Soviet military operations and the delivery of supplies to Soviet and Afghan army troops in northeastern Afghanistan

The Soviets were believed in control of most of the major cities and roadways throughout the country, but the rebels were still believed offering resistance, especially in the mountainous northeastern sector.

not engaged in combat action. "There have been no losses in our units because they are not in combat," said Mtadimir I. Osatrovsky, a journalist from the Soviet news agency Novos-

PAKISTAN'S PRESIDENT, Gen. Mohammed Zia ul-Haq, has said his overwhelmingly Moslem nation of 75 million people has no intention of intervening in Afghanistan on behalf of Moslem insurgents who have fought a succession of Marxist governments for the past 20 months and Soviet occupation troops for the past three weeks

Zia has, however, repeatedly ap pealed for defensive assistance. He told reporters Thursday that Pakistan needs warplanes, ground-to-air munications systems to strengthen its defense along the border with Afghanistan

"In the west," Zia said, referring to Pakistan's border with Afghanistan, "there are no good roads, no communications cover, no wireless (and) no The reports could not be confirmed radio coverage. We are blind on our west totally.

> He also ridiculed as "peanuts" reports that the United States was prepared to offer Pakistan $200 million in military equipment and $200 million in economic aid over two years.

> IN OTHER developments Friday: -Chinese Foreign Minister Huang Hua arrived in Islamabad, the capital of Pakistan, for talks he indicated would be dominated by developments in Afghanistan. Upon his arrival, he told reporters: "The recent developments in Afghanistan have added new significance to my visit.'

U.S. Defense Secretary Harold Brown last week completed a nineday visit to China that centered on the situation in Afghanistan, and both China and the United States have plier to Pakistan. Western diplomatic sources in Islamabad say the Chinese delivered more than a third of the Moslem nation's warplanes and 700 of its 1,070 light and medium tanks, and the Press Trust of India reported Friday that the Chinese were already pouring additional arms into Pakistan.

PTI quoted unidientified sources as saying civilian traffic has been banned on the Pakistan side of the Chinese-built mountain highway linking the two countries. There was no immediate confirmation from Pakistan but a Western expert in New Delhi noted that the roadway is normally closed by snow from December through February.

United News of India reported that about 900 Chinese have "infiltrated" China's border with Afghanistan. It did not elaborate and there was no confirmation.

-In Peking, Chinese Vice Premier Ji Pengfei told a visiting U.S. Congressional delegation that "the recent direct, naked invasion and occupation of Afghanistan by Soviet troops is in no way a matter only affecting that area, nor does it merely serve the immediate interests of the Soviet Union. It has further revealed the Soviet Union's long-term strategic objective to dominate the world."

-In New Delhi, the Indian government said it objected strongly to Zia's proposal that Pakistan and the United States sign a defense treaty. An Indian government spokesman, J.N. Dixit, said such a move might touch off an arms race in the region. He also said "historical experience" has shown that Pakistan has always used arms supplied by Western countries against India. India and Pakistan have fought three wars since winning independence from Britain in 1947.

-In Paris, the president of the Internation/al Olympic Committee, Lord

Hodding Carter refused to comment on the veracity of the Soviet charges, but officials privately said that it is common practice for both countries to try to eavesdrop on each other's embassies.

The Soviet charge d'affaires, Vladillen Vasev, presented the protest to Secretary of State Cyrus Vance earlier this week. The Soviets made their charges public Friday in the newspaper Izvestia.

Actress dies

NEW YORK (AP) - Actress Barbara Britton, who made 32 Hollywood movies and appeared also on the Broadway stage and in television, has died of cancer at the age of 59, her family said Friday.

Miss Britton had been ill for seven months but continued to appear on ABC's soap opera "One Life to Live" until about two months ago.

The actress died in her sleep shortly before midnight Thursday at the Manhattan home she shared with her husband, Dr. E. J. Czukor, a psychiatrist.

Talks held

PEKING (AP) - Six members of the U.S. House of Representatives met with Vice Premier Ji Pengfei and Vice Foreign Minister Zhang Wenjin on Friday to learn Chinese views on current world trouble spots, an American spokesman said.

He said they discussed Iran, the effect of the Soviet military intrustion into Afghanistan on China's ally and neighbor, Pakistan, and Southeast Asia.

The congressmen, members of the House Foreign Affairs subcommittee on Asian and Pacific affairs headed by Rep. Lester L. Wolff, D-N.Y., exchanged views Thursday with Hao Deqing, president of the Chinese People's Institute of Foreign Affairs.

Iran's foreign minister, meanwhile, expressed concern about the presence of Soviet troops in western Afghanistan, near Iran's northeast border. And in Washington, President Carter's chief spokesman described Iran as a nation "on the verge almost of disintegration" and said the United States would go ahead with new economic sanctions to try to pressure the Iranians into freeing the 50 or so Americans held prisoner at the after the shah and his "stolen money" were returned to Iran.

This amounted to a new rejection of the U.S. position - that an international inquiry into the shah's regime could be launched, but not until the hostages are freed

The Houston ministers, accompanied by a lawyer, have been in Tehran for several days, trying unsuccessfully to conduct religious services in the embassy for the hostages.

One of the clergymen, the Rev. Gene A. Moore, a Baptist, said in a telephone interview they plan to travel to Qom, Khomeini's headquarters city 100 miles south of Tehran, on Saturday and hope to meet with the revolutionary leader.

Moore said the Moslem militants holding the embassy told him Khomeini would meet only with spiritual leaders to discuss the crisis. The Iranian revolutionaries also have shown some favor toward blacks and other American minority groups.

DALLAS (AP) - An Iranian businessman here says he does not know the whereabouts of a former advisor to the Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini who reportedly may be in Texas recuperating from an assassination attempt The Rochester, Minn., Post Bulletin reported Thursday that Hujaat Al-

Islam Razi Shirazi, a prominent Islannic clergyman, was treated at the Mayo Clinic in Rochester for bullet wounds. Shirazi is a sheik-ul Islam, more commonly known as a holy man.

Whereas an ayatollah is comparable to a cardinal in the Roman Catholic church, a shiek-ul would be more like a priest, said Iranian Hossein Gharib, a Mayo physician.

Gharib told the Post-Bulletin that Shirazi told him he was leaving for Texas to avoid Minnesota's cold weather.

A U.S. State Department spokesman in Washington said Shirzai "had no current connections with the revolutionary government in Iran" but the spokesman added he still "has strong ties to the Khomeini revolutionaries. He's a good friend...a member of the in crowd.'

The newspaper said Shirazi underwent orthopedic surgery by Mayo surgeons Sept. 24 to repair fractures caused by the bullets. He was shot down in Tehran last July as he was returning home from a mosque. The paper also said he was admitted to the United States on the same type of visa the deposed Shah of Iran used -- one for humanitarian medical reasons

A former U.S. State Department aide in Tehran told NBC News Shirazi may have tried to contact a Dallas businessman named Mehdi Rowgani, whose family guarded Khomeini in Tehran more than 15 years ago when he was arrested for opposing the shah's government.

However, Rowgani told NBC News Thursday night he had not spoken with Shirazi and doubted the religious leader would contact him.

U.S. ecomony exhibits 'surprising growth

By EILEEN ALT POWELL

WASHINGTON (AP) - The nation's economy grew a surprisingly strong 2.3 percent last year, putting 1979 into the history books as the year in which the predicted recession failed to arrive, the government reported Friday.

The Commerce Department said the unexpected strength of export sales and consumer spending pushed the nation's gross national product, adjusted for inflation, to an average $1,431 billion in 1979 compared with $1,399 billion in 1978.

And the department's chief economist said this strength in the value of all the nation's goods and services meant the still-expected recession would not be a harsh one.

THE ECONOMIC STRENGTH, however, came at the expense of consumer savings, Commerce Departdropped to an annual 3.3 percent in the final three months of 1979 - the lowest level since 1950.

An annual rate is the rate that Courtenay M. Slater, the Com-continues at the same pace as it did in a single quarter.

Still, the U.S. economic performance was weaker than in the boom years following the 1974-75 downturn. The nation's average output had grown 5.9 percent in 1976, 5.3 percent in 1977 and 4.4 percent in 1978.

And there were still signs of weakness that earlier in the year had led economists in and out of government to forecast a drop in output for 1979. This can best be seen by comparing changes in output from the fourth quarter of one year to the fourth quarter of the next.

THE CARTER administration had predicted that the economy would show a decline of 0.5 percent from the fourth quarter of 1978 to the fourth quarter of 1979 following growth of 4.8 percent from the final three months of 1977 to the final three of 1978.

But growth in the fourth quarter ment data showed. The savings rate last year was at an annual rate of 1.4 percent. As a result, output in the fourth guarter was 0.8 percent ahead of the fourth quarter of 1978.

would occur over a full year if activity merce Department's chief economist, said this signaled both good and bad news for the nation:

-The bad news was that 1979 was "a year in which growth very nearly disappeared," as the fourth quarterto-fourth quarter computations showed.

-The good news was that the resiliency of the economy in the second half of the year suggests that the recession, expected now in the first half of this year, "will be modest."

"I think we have to view some brief and moderate recession in the first half of this year as fairly inevitable,' Ms. Slater said.

THE MAIN REASON, she said, was the consumer spending could not be expected to continue buoying the economy. "The personal savings rate has gone so low ... I would not expect it will go lower," she said. And she added that there were limits on how much consumers could buy on credit, now at record levels.

Ms. Slater was not, however, optimistic that the downturn would result in inflation relief. Inflation, as measured by the report's price index, averaged 9.4 percent last year.

"I think there will be only modest improvement in inflation next year," she said

She added, however, that inflation as measured by a different index -the Consumer P'rice Index, which measures the value of a fixed marketbasket of consumer goods and services - could drop from its current annual rate of increase of 13 percent to about 10 percent because it will be more sensitive to a decline in mortgage interest rates expected next year.

CONSUMER SPENDING, adjusted for inflation, averaged $924.5 billion in 1979. up 2.6 percent from the previous year but less than the 4.5 percent growth of 1978.

Growth in the fourth quarter was at an annual rate of 4.1 percent, compared with 4.9 percent in the third quarter.

Meanwhile, higher energy prices and rapidly rising mortgage interest rates took their tolls on two key segments of the economy.

Business investment fell at an annual 7.7 percent in the final three months of 1979 to an annual $203 billion after rising 7.2 percent in the previous three months. This was "due entirely to a drop in business purchases of motor vehicles," Ms. Slater said.

OVER THE YEAR, business investment had advanced 2.2 percent, compared with 7.1 percent in 1978, Commerce Department data showed.

Residential construction declined at an annual rate of 9.8 percent in the final quarter of 1979 to $55 billion and ended the year 6.1 percent below 1978 construction levels, the report indicated.

Exports rose an annual 5.8 percent in the final quarter of 1979 to an annual $123.9 billion to end the year 10 percent ahead of 1978. Imports, meanwhile, grew an annual 4.5 percent in the fourth guarter to $103.2 billion, ending 4.2 percent ahead of 1978.

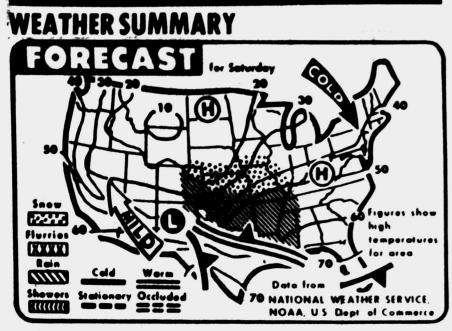

Before adjustment for inflation, the nation's gross national product was an annual $2.5 trillion in the fourth quarter, up nearly 10 percent from the $2.2 trillion of the fourth quarter of 1978.

Oncologist visits MMH, gives advice

THE MIDLAND REPORTER-TELEGRAM, SAT., JAN. 19, 1900

Midlanders can take comfort in knowing the Allison Permian Basin Cancer Therapy Center is being built and staffed in the best possible way.

"It is almost like big M.D. Anderson Hospital being brought here to Midland," said Dr. Nylene Eckles, a renowned pioneer in oncology or the study of tumors.

Eckles was in Midland this week to visit the facilities at Midland Memorial Hospital and to speak to the medi-cal staff regarding the future development of the oncology program for the Allison cancer facility

Although she did make some "rough" recommendations to the MMH medical and administrative staff for the cancer facility, Eckles did not comment as to what those recommendations were.

The oncology specialist did say she was very impressed with the medical facilities at MMH, especially the critical care unit.

Concerning the equipment which will be purchased for the center, Eckles noted that it was highly recommended by M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute in Houston.

"A search committee should be established to recruit the various heads of oncology surgery, pediatric oncology and others on a cooperative basis," Eckles said regarding the best method for selecting and employing the best medical staff.

As to the question of whether a doctor or administrator should be head of the facility, Eckles observed that there should be an interim medical oncology director or an administrator

Dr. Eckles began her career in oncology at the Illinois Cancer Research and Education Hospital in Chicago. In 1955, she helped inaugurate the medical oncology service at M.D. Anderson Hospital. Eckles was instrumental in establishing an overall treatment program for cancer patients there.

Congress to step up timetable, resume military aid to Pakistan

nal leaders agreed Friday on an accelerated legislative timetable that would allow the Carter administration to resume U.S. economic and military aid to Pakistan as early as February

With Soviet helicopter gunships and tanks reportedly pursuing Moslem rebels in Afghanistan close to the border with Pakistan, Rep. Clement J. Zablocki, D-Wis., said fast congressional approval of the first $200 million of the administration's two-year, $400 million aid plan was essetial.

"They need the equipment," Zablocki, chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said in an interview. He was referring to defense supplies to meet any Soviet military threat.

Administration officials have told congressmen the military package will include credits for purchase of anti-aircraft and anti-tank weapons and such economic assistance as fertilizer. Details were still being worked out, said a Zablocki aide.

The first $200 million installment will be half military and half economic aid. Zablocki said his committee may approve the proposal within two weeks, and leadership aides said it will come up quickly for House and Senate floor votes.

Secretary of State Cyrus Vance is to present the aid request to a closed meeting of the Senate Foreign Rela-Committee on Monday, the day tions (

'We'll do it as fast as we can," said Gary Hymel, chief aide to Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill.

An aide to Senate Democratic leader Robert C. Byrd said he told Carter he would hold early Senate sessions, if necessary, to speed approval of the Pakistan aid package.

The leadership plan calls for quick approval of a bill authorizing the initial $200 million and attaching the actual appropriation to an $8 billion foreign aid money bill under consideration by a House-Senate conference committee.

An aide on Zablocki's committee, who asked not to be named, said U.S. officials hope to start sending defense equipment to Pakistan by the end of February.

Pakistan's president, Gen. Mo. Sunday hammed Zia ul-Haq, belittled the $400

Zia said Pakistan needs warplanes, ground-to-air missiles, anti-tank weapons and communications systems to strengthen defenses along its western border with Afghanistan. Stressing the particular need for communications and radar equipment, he said: "We are blind on our west totally.

U.S. officials said privately Friday that Zia's remarks probably were a bargaining ploy intended to pry addi-tional aid out of the United States. State Department spokesman Hodding Carter said the U.S. aid plan should be considered as part of a larger, cooperative assistance program involving several countries.

The Zablocki committee aide said the $400 million is part of a package that will include equipment and other assistance from China and Saudi Ara-

Bee Gees, Michael Jackson lead polling in American Music Awards

LOS ANGELES (AP) - The Bee Gees and soprano voiced Michael Jackson were double winners Friday night in the seventh annual American Music Awards popularity competi-

The Bee Gees were named the favorite pop group and their album. "Spirits Having Flown," won an award as favorite pop album.

Jackson was honored for having the top soul single, "Don't Stop Till You Get Enough," and the favorite soul album, "Off the Wall."

Other winners included Donna Summer's "Bad Girls" as favorite pop single, and The Commodores as favorite soul group.

In the country music category, the Statler Brothers were named the favorite group while "Sleepin' Single in a Double Bed" by Barbara Mandrell was picked as the best single record. Kenny Rogers scored with "The Gambler," as favorite album.

were able to search only halfway down the 130-foot deep waters under the bridge connecting Tjorn Island with the mainland about 300 miles north of Goteborg.

Police feared currents had carried the vehicles 600 feet or more away from the collapsed bridge.

During a critical hour before police cordoned off both approaches, witnesses said seven vehicles plunged into the cold water when speeding onto the 1,700-foot bridge, missing an 800-foot mid-section knocked down by the frieghter.

About 12,000 vehicles normally cross the bridge each day.

There were no reports of cars using the bridge at the moment it was rammed by the Liberian-registered 16,000-ton Star Clipper at 1.27 a.m. The 33-member crew of the freighter escaped injury. Police said they planned to question the pilot and captain

One Spanish crew member, Josto Souto Villa, said he saw six or seven cars speeding over the edge of the bridge and falling into the water. He said. ' "We could do nothing."

After the Star Clipper rammed the bridge, the crew radioed authorities and mainland policemen were on the scene in 14 minutes setting up a roadblock at one end of the bridge, police said.

A policeman on Tjorn Island was called at home some 10 minutes after the accident, police said, but it took him 50 minutes to get dressed and drive to the bridge to block the other end.

Coast guard officials said the freighter, owned by Norwegian Alfr. Olsen Line, hit the bridge span while apparently being piloted too close to the island

DEATHS Corine Freeman

Corine Kellough Freeman, 72, 406 S Adams St., died Thursday in a Midland hospital following an illness.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday in the Macedonia Baptist Church with the Rev. O.J. Archie, pastor, officiating. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery under direction of Roscoe V. Jackson Mortuary.

Mrs. Freeman was born Nov. 1, 1907, in Milam County and moved to Midland from San Angelo, where she had lived since 1943, in 1975.

She was a member of the New Light Baptist in San Angelo. And after moving to Midland, she was united with the Macedonia Baptist Church. She was a member of the Eastern Star Lodge of San Angelo. Mrs. Freeman was a domestic worker.

Midlanders can expect the weather to be cool and moist on Super Bowl eve

The National Weather Service at Midland Regional Airport was predicting a cloudy, colder and possibly wet day today with a 30 percent chance of rain through tonight. The high today is expected to climb into the 60s, with the low tonight in the mid-40s Winds will blow 10-15 mph in a southerly direction today, shifting to northerly tonight with gusts of 15-25 mph.

The record high for today is 77 degrees in 1950. Eight degrees was the record low this day in 1963. The moisture in today's forecast could add to the month's total of .05 inch Light rain dampened Northwest

Texas Friday, while a stubborn bank of fog settled on East Texas and along the coast, reducing visibility and creating transportation hazards.

Skies were mostly cloudy over the rest of the state under mild temperatures, and a few areas reported sunshine

Fog forced the temporary closing of Houston's airport and reduced visibilities to near zero in the Longview area

Record single-day leap recorded in gold trading

NEW YORK (AP) — The price of gold soared by more than $100 an ounce Friday in Europe to a record $845 an ounce, climbed another $5 in New York and then retreated to $808 in profit-taking. It was the biggest single-day leap in the history of bullion trading.

The U.S. dollar was higher in New York against all major foreign currencies except the British pound. The dollar was "very firm" in "very, very quiet" trading, a New York dealer said.

Gold closed in Zurich at $840 an ounce, $109.50 higher than Thursdaz5s close. The price reached $845 in trading. In London, it closed at $835, up $75 from a day earlier.

In New York, gold for January delivery rose to a high of $850 on the Commodity Exchange before dropback to $822, up $10 from Thursclose. Republic National Bank n the afternoon quoted gold at an ounce, up from $792 the previay; gold had peaked at the bank y at $840.

bullion headed for the once uninable $900 mark, one London r said: "The speculators have crazy.

th the United States and the So-Union were reported building up naval power in the region, and were reports of Soviet troop entrations along the Iran-Afghan border.

Zurich broker said, "Overming demand from everywhere eting insufficient supplies."

The price of gold has soared more than $640 an ounce from a year ago. It broke $500 on Dec. 26, when the Sovie intervention in Afghanistan was added to the Iranian-U.S. confrontation. The $600 mark was breached Jan. 3, and $700 only last Tuesday.

London bullion dealers reported Britons were rushing to sell whatever scraps of gold they have to cash in on the boom - everything from family heirlooms to rings and bracelets.

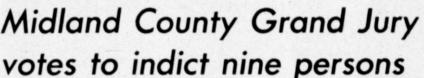

The price of silver rose in Europe but declined in New York. Silver was quoted Friday in London at $49 an ounce, up $3 from Thursday's closing price. But in New York, spot January contracts dropped $1.90 an ounce to $46.80 on the Commodity Exchange.

While bullion brokers coped with the gold rush, foreign exchange dealers reported little business. The dollar closed in Tokyo at 239.45 yen, up slightly from 238.675 at Thursday's close.

In London, the pound gained against the dollar. It cost $2.28 to buy one pound sterling Friday compared to $2.2745 Thursday.

Late dollar rates on other European exchanges: Paris, 4.0305 French francs, down from Thursday's 4.038; Frankfurt, 1.7230 West German marks, down from 1.7235; Zurich, 1.58825 Swiss francs, down from 1.5952; Milan, 804.75 Italian lire, slightly up from 804.65, and Amsterdam, 1.8985 Dutch guilders, down from 1.901.

The British pound was quoted at $2.2840 in New York, up from $2.2780 Thursday.

Kerley's 39 leads Permian over Lee

By TERRY WILLIAMSON Sports Writer

ODESSA — It is sincerely hoped that nobody ever puts a rifle in the hands of Odessa Permian's Brad Kerley. Mass murder just isn't chic right now.

But just with a basketball, Kerley is murder. Just ask the Midland Lee Rebels. Kerley and his Panther ramrods gunned down the Rebels, 92-79, here at the Permian Fieldhouse Friday night in a battle between two of the three District 5-4A basketball leaders.

No one actually died from Kerley's 39-point machine gun spurt, but it could have served the same purpose to Lee's first half title hopes.

The Rebels, who have been the first half 5-4A darlings after being picked to finish sixth in the loop, are now a game behind Midland High and Permian's 4-1 records with only two left to play. Permian seems to have the edge right now since they only have San Angelo and Odessa High left in the first half. Lee still has Abilene and Midland High. Midland High still has Abilene Cooper and Lee.

Thursday Lee coach Paul Stueckler said of the pending game with Permian, "We have to go out and play our game, but to beat a team like Permian, we are going to have to go out there and get hot."

His assessment was correct, but the Rebels weren't shooting that bad. Four Rebs hit in double figures with Danny Rabb and Tim Fisher leading the way with 19 and 18 points respec-tively. And Brent Sanders hit for 13 and David Keys added 12. And 79 points is a lot of points for the Rebels.

However, not even Stueckler could have believed that the Panthers could be as hot as they were. Especially Kerley. The 6-foot-7 senior hit 15 of 22 from the field and pumped in nine of 10 from the free throw line. He didn't even score in the last four minutes of play and hit only one field goal in the second period and two in the fourth. He got his points and went home and on the way he is making a shambles of

Hays heads for South San

SAN ANTONIO - Dennie Hays, former head football coach at Midland High School is reported to have accepted a head job at South San Antonio High School. Hays was also at Midland as an assistant coach for two years under Jerry Hopkins, who is now at Sonora High School. Hays coached in the Tall City four the District 5-4A scoring race. Kerley was bad enough but Scott Wynne hit for 17 points and Duane Adams had 14. Just to add a little spice, Ken Wigley hit for 10 more. Ironically, the Rebels didn't die until late in the fourth period. It was a game of spurts - Kerley spurts and it had Lee playing catchup most of the night.

There were nine lead changes in the first quarter before Permian ran to a 26-16 lead with a minute left, and of course Kerley hit for six points in the run.

Lee pounced back to take the lead, 33-31, with 5:41 left in the second period when Lee outscored the Panthers 10-2. Keys scored six points in the stretch after coming off the bench, but by the end of the period, Permian was leading 50-41 as Wigley, Keith Little and Wynne got hot.

Kerley ripped off 13 points in the third period for a 71-61 Permian lead. But the Rebs had their moments in that period also as a Rabb jumper cut the lead to three at 62-59. However, Kerley pushed in eight points to put the Rebs away again.

It wasn't even Kerley's best performance. He had 39 points against Lubbock High earlier this year.

SPORTS

Lee had kept in the game most of the way, but trying to catch up with each Permian blast finally took its toll and Permian's final victory margin was the biggest of the night.

The Rebels probably shot the best percentage of the year, hitting 35 of 67 shots from the field, over 50 per cent. But Permian was putting on its own show in this one, including 10 of 15 in the third period and 11 of 19 shots in the first period.

Permian ended up hitting the same as Lee, 35 of 67. But the Panthers also connected on 22 shots from the charity lane while Lee had a mere nine. That turned out to be the difference. Lee is now 3-2 in league action and 13-10 on the year while Permian is 15-8 for the season

The Midland Lee junior varsity also took it on the chin, 64-57, despite a 24 point outing by Darius Berry, who led all scorers. Jerry Oudems had 10 in the losing cause.

The Lee sophomores, however, managed a 56-41 win over Permian as Van Garrett hit for 16, Andre Van Buren 14 and Bart Ryan 12.

Midland, Permian share first in 5-4A race

Midland High's Bulldogs are back on the beam once again. Coach Jack Stephenson's crew gunned down the battling Odessa Bronchos, 80-62, Friday night before a good crowd in the Chaparral Center on the Midland College campus. The District 5-4A basketball victory keeps the defending champions in first place with Odessa Permian which downed Midland Lee, 92-79 in torrid race. The Bulldogs tangle with Abilene Cooper Tuesday in the Chap Center in a biggie and then take on Midland Lee Friday night at the same site to wind up the first half of the race.

Herbert Johnson and Perry Bolger led the MHS attack with 20 and 17 points while teammates Anthony Carroll and Pat Hickey chipped in with 13 and 10 points, respectively.

Midland meant business in the first period in erupting for 26 points to OHS' 16 and from that point on, it was no contest.

IT WAS 44-30 at the half and 59-44 going into the final eight minutes of play as the Purple Pack waxed hot at the free throw line, hitting the first eight attempts from the charity line.

Altogether, they connected on 22 of 25 free tosses and that was the difference in the game.

ODESSA WAS led by Danny Cruzan and Mike Cobb with 16 and 14 points, Cruzan sat on the bench most of the third period with three fouls and picked up his fourth in the final period. Darin Carr fouled out of the game for the Bronchos with 4:32 left in the game, but he only scored five points. The loss gives Coach Joe Tubb's team a season reading of 5-16 and While Midland was red hot at the free throw lane, OHS was having its problems in only hitting 12 of 18. Both teams sent a shooter to the line when technical fouls were called during the game. Bolger, who hit five-out-of-five from the line, hit a technical foul shot in the third period when Trey Hawkins was whistled for throwing an elbow and Johnson of the Bulldogs received a technical when he failed to raise his hand when he fouled OHS' Cruzan. Cruzan missed the shot.

Midland made it a clean sweep for the evening in blistering the OHS sophomores, 72-29 and then took a 71-62 decision in the junior varsity contest.

In the sophomore tilt, Wesley Williams and Jim Gunnels led the Pack with 10 and 13 points and Scott Sears chipped in with 11 more as Coach Eddie Shirley's sophs are now 11-1 on the year.

SHIRLEY'S BULLPUP JVs chalked up their 22nd victory in 26 outings, but it wasn't until late in the game that they broke it open. Don Sharnowski tallied 21 points for the Pups while teammates Wade Johnson, Kevin Griffin and Preston Robertson followed with 10, 12 and 14 points, respectively.

Stone finds No.4 hot spot

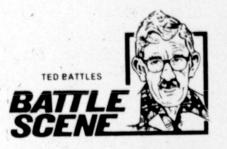

It came as more of a surprise to Midland College Coach Jerry Stone that his Chaparrals were ranked in the nation's top 20 junior college basketball teams than the jump from seventh to fourth after the first loss.

'As young as we are, I didn't expect the top 20 recognition as early as it came, but I knew that if we kept winning, there would be room as teams began to suffer losses.

"However, going from seventh to fourth after losing to Western Texas College didn't surprise me that much," Stone continued, "Western is the nation's No. 1 team and anybody who saw our game with them knew that it was so close that it could have gone either way.

As far as Stone is concerned, a lofty national ranking accompanied by its own built-in hazards, which were discomfortingly evident Thursday night when Frank Phillips College added a strand or two of gray to Stone's hair before retiring to Borger emptyhanded

"When you are that high, everybody is pointing for you and it brings out the best in the opposition. No. 4 just means you are a bigger target,' Stone said wiping a harried brow in relief.

With 17 victories already in the bank MC is within striking distance of the all-time Chaparral record of 23 wins posted in 1976-77, the year current Athletic Director Delnor Poss took over for Chester Story in midstream and guided the Chaps into the regional finals before losing to WTC.

IT WAS before the game Thursday that Stone was asked whether MC and Western were just so much stronger

Bobcats, Cougars nab victories in 5-4A play

San Angelo Central and Abilene Cooper posted District 5-4A victories Friday night, but Cooper may come into its big game with Midland High on Tuesday in the Tall City without three of its best players.

Central took a 52-51 overtime victory over Abilene High's Eagles while Cooper turned back Big Spring, 67-57, in a game which saw Cooper coach Marc Case bench 6-foot-10 senior center Woodie Martin and Martin may just sit out the rest of the season for disciplinary reasons, according to the Abilene Reporter News.

The Cougars also lost the services of ace Ken Henry who scored 21 points before suffering a sprained ankle and Terry Orr is out for the year with a broken shoulder. Cruise joined Henry in the double figures with 17 points for Cooper which is now 3-2 in District 5-4A play and 11-10 on the year. Dickie Wrightsil and James Doss led the Steers, who are 0-4 with 16 and 20 points Fletcher Johnson also scored 12 for thr Steers.

Charles Bishop gunned in 20 points to lead the Bocats over the Eagles as Central is now 3-2 in the league race along with Cooper and Midland Lee. Paul Haynes added 10 more to the Bobcat attack.

this year or the Western Junior College Conference, noted for fratercide, had slipped at bit.

"No, Western Texas is still the same old Western Texas. Odessa College is strong again and Amarillo College is better than last year. Anybody can surprise you on a given night, if you aren't ready to play,' Stone said and would undoubtedly add Frank Phillips to the list of strong teams a few hours later after surviving a 61-57 scare.

'The only surprise this year is the Institute (New Mexico Military Institute), they don't seem to be as strong as they have been in recent years."

Stone said, "I think we have made a big improvement and it may be largely due to coaching as much as talent. I've been in the league a couple of years now and know what it takes. We started earlier this year and didn't spend half the season fooling around with experiments. And then Archie Myers (MC's new assistant) has been a big help. He's intelligent, observant and knows his basketball and play-

Myers is no stranger to the WJCC, although he played before Midland became a member. Archie, originally from Mississippi, set scoring records at Howard College before going on to become a standout at Stephen F. Aus-

MC's strength this year lies in its depth since the Chaps do lack the overpowering really big man inside and, as far as Stone is concerned, in attitude.

'The players' attitude has been marvelous. It's always one the upbeat. They never get down on themselves.

THE NEXT week will be a critical one for the Chaps who play Odessa at the Chaparral Center Monday and then go to Snyder for a game with Western Texas, one that counts in the standings

The tragedy of the current season, however, will be the fact that only one team can go to the nationals from the regionals, scheduled for Midland in early March.

"It's a shame because we have so many strong teams in this region. In addition to our own, McClendon in the east appears to be powerful. We send just one team to nationals, the same as Nebraska, which has maybe three or four teams. That just doesn't seem right.'

Tinsel Town vs. Steel City script for Pasadena bowl

By GARY MIHOCES

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) - Tinsel Town versus the Steel City.

Those are the Super Bowl XIV stereotypes, as surely as Los Angeles has palm trees and Pittsburgh has potholes, as surely as fruit drinks and avocados go over bigger here than kolbasi and cold beer.

Yes, the Steelers are rooted in Pittsburgh, and solid-earth owner Art Rooney has been married to the same woman for 49 years.

Yes, the Rams are being moved to Anaheim by Georgia Rosenbloom, a former entertainer who inherited the team when her sixth husband, Carroll, died.

But all stereotypes, even Super Bowl ones, crumble under close inspection.

Pittsburgh has the blond quarterback who once acted in a movie with his pal Burt Reynolds, and who married an ice skating queen after divorcing a former Miss Teenage America

Steeler receiver Lynn Swann, former University of Southern California star, lives in the stylish Pacific Coast community of Marina del Rey, drives a $30,000 sports²car and seems a sure bet for a broadcasting career.

They're making a television movie in Pittsburgh about running back Rocky Bleier. But that won't be the film debut for the Pittsburgh area, where "The Deer Hunter" and "The Fish That Saved Pittsburgh" were both shot.

When you talk about shot-and-abeer guys, you are not talking about Steeler coach Chuck Noll. He's more apt to sip a California wine, and he also is into scuba diving. What about the Rams?

Look at their roster and you'll see names like Bob Brudzinski, Dan Ryczek, and Rich Saul.

Saul played high school ball north of Pittsburgh with former Steeler Terry Hanratty. His big brother, Bill, was a Pittsburgh linebacker, fabled for his ability to pick up a glasss of beers using only his mouth and down it in one long gulp.

Rams coaches Bud Carson and Dan Radakovich are both from the Pittsburgh area. Radakovich comes from a place called Kennywood, where people think last names with less than 10 letters look funny.

This week, the Los Angeles Times did a survey of the Rams' squad. It revealed that none of the players live on the fashionable west side of LA, that most drive pick-up trucks and vans and that beer is the team bever-

Dyer the Discounters' Once-A-Year

Some might still argue that the Rams franchise and the glitter of the Los Angeles area will be a liability on Sunday.

"The franchise and the area have nothing to do with winning or losing,' a young coach once said.

The coach was Chuck Noll. He spoke those words a decade ago when the Steelers hired him and Pittsburgh had an image as the "city of losers."

Motocross riders honored

Twenty bicycle motocross riders. from Texas were honored Friday night during a banquet here which culminated the 1979 season. The event was sponsored by West Side Optimist Club, BMX of Texas and the National Bicycle Association

Eddie Livingston, an 11-year-old Midlander, was named top rider for the year, based on results compiled during the season.

Todd Washington finished second in the final standings, followed in order by Robert Hertenstein, Jason Tullous, Jim Baum, Richard Padilla, Ted Parsons, Jode Jackson, Jesse Gonzales, Tony Hall and Charlie Boyd.

In addition, Chuck Wyatt of Midland was cited for the sportsmanship award. Honorable mention designation went to DeJuan Norris, Brad Cornett, Doug Bryant and Todd Bales.

The race is expected to draw top riders who'll compete for trophies or cash if they're in the professional

The banquet also signals the start of the 1980 season, with the Lone Star Race scheduled for today and Sunday at the Ector County Coliseum. Registration for racing is at 8 a.m. each day with action getting underway at 10:30 a.m.

To kick off the 1980 golf season, the Hogan Park Men's Golf Association has scheduled a Two-Man Scramble tournament for today and Sunday. The HPMGA also has scheduled the following tournaments for 1980:

Feb. 16-17, Two-Man Partnership (Lowball half handicap); March 15-16-Individual; April 16-Format to be announced; May 24-26-Format to be announced; June 22- Format to be announced; July 4-6 or 19-20-Format to be announced; Aug. 30-Sept. 1-Format to be announced; Oct. 18-19-Format to be announced; Nov. 15-16-Format to be announced; Dec. 20-21-Format to be announced.

The HPGA will hold its annual meeting March 17 at 7 p.m. in the Texas Electric Service Ready Room.

The 18-hole division of the Hogan Park Women's Golf Association will kickoff its golfing season with a Low Score on Par threes and Par fives Thursday. Players will make their own pairings. On Jan. 31, the playday event will be Low Putts with members making their own pairings. Pairings will be made by the Pairings chairman beginning Feb. 7.

The annual membership dues must be turned into Margaret Stricker by Jan. 30 for names to be included in the 1980 Yearbook. Call Margaret at 682-1041, if you have not paid your dues and wish to do so.

Hogan Park offers the women golfers of Midland two associations for participation. The 18-hole division is for women golfers who have time to play 18 holes during Playdays on Thursdays. The 9-hole division, also known as the Hazards Division, is for the women who have time to play only nine-hole rounds or who prefer to play only nine. Both associations have scheduled Playdays on Thursdays during the year. All women golfers in Midland are invited to join one of the divisions.

Rozelle warns Oakland against Los Angeles move

By HAL BOCK LOS ANGELES (AP) - Commissioner Pete Rozelle said Friday that the Oakland Raiders would be in violation of the National Football League consitution if the team attempts a move to Los Angeles without formal league approval.

Rozelle appeared at the hotel where hundreds of reporters covering Sunday's Super Bowl are staying for what has become his annual "state of the NFL" press conference.

But with thousands of questions al-ready asked of the Pittsburgh Steelers and the Los Angeles Rams the topic for Rozelle became Los Angeles' possible next team instead of the one playing for the league championship.

"It is my responsibility to uphold the constitution and to see to it that a vote is taken," Rozelle said. "I'd take whatever steps that are appropriate if a move were attempted without a vote.'

The Raiders have been negotiating with LA city officials and are contemplating a possible transfer from Oakland to replace the Rams, who will be moving to Anaheim next season.

"The matter would have to come to a vote of the league," Rozelle said. The Raiders have not asked the NFL to consider any move. Should they do so, I would call for a meeting and the Raiders could present information at that time.'

To move, the Raiders would need approval from 21 of the 28 member clubs

Rozelle said he had discussed the Raiders' possible move with some owners informally. "The ones I've talked to have said they'd listen, but I don't know that they've made up their minds.

THE COMMISSIONER said that one of the factors the owners would be concerned with in examining a proposed move would be the effect on the

for us," he said. Rozelle said he personally supported stability in the league and was opposed to the movement of franchises from city to city.

"I feel one of the reasons for the stability of the league is there's haven't been lots of moves," the commissioner said. "I like stability."

Rozelle said he thought his powers as commissioner include the right to veto a move if he believes it is not in the best interests of football. "I probably could veto a move, but I see no way I would if the votes are there," he said. "I'd be in a weak position for any court challenge.

Still, Rozelle was rigid in his position on the NFL constitution and the responsibility of the Raiders and their boss, Al Davis, to seek approval. "It isn't a clause that lends itself to interpretation," the commissioner said. 'He has to come before his peers and get 21 votes."

BESIDES television considerations, Rozelle said the owners would also look at the Raider's 13-year string of sellouts in Oakland.

"I'm sure that's one of the things that would be discussed," the commissioner said.

Rozelle said he anticipates expansion by two more teams during the 1980s, giving the NFL 30 teams divided into six five-club divisions.

Noll says this is his best team

By HAL BOCK

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Coach Chuck Noll said Friday that the Pittsburgh club he is taking into Super Bowl XIV is the best of the four that have played for the National Football League title

Noll held his final press conference before the Steelers face the Los Angeles Rams on Sunday.

"Football makes progress all the time," Noll said. "Our players are more efficient. Our training methods are more efficient. Yes, I think this is the best team I've brought into a Super Bowl game.

At the same time, Noll said he felt the Rams compared favorably to the two Dallas teams and the Minnesota club that the Steelers defeated in their first three Super Bowl games.

"They have a very capable defense and they have the offensive weapons that can produce the big play," the Steeler coach said. "When you have two defensive teams on the field, the penchant for the big play can separate them."

The difference in the Steelers, he said, was in depth experience. "When our defensive line was hurt early, Gary Dunn and Tom Beasley came in and did a great job for us. We had no fall off in efficiency. When we had our left linebackers hurt, Dennis Winston played there and then moved to the right side when Jack Ham got hurt. And he did well on both sides. He's a great athlete.'

Noll said the Steelers enjoy the Super Bowl scene

"Our team responds well to big games," the coach said. "We have the kind of people who get excited by big games.'

Once again, Noll shrugged off the 11-point favorite role the Steelers are taking into the championship game.

"Point spreads encourage gambling and since we try to discourage gambling, I don't pay attention to point spreads," he said.

The Pittsburgh coach said with two good defenses opposing each other, it could be a low scoring game. That would not disappoint him, though.

"Good defense is a beauty to watch ... for a coach," he said

Rams not that bad and Steelers not that good

By BRUCE LOWITT

LOS ANGELES (AP) - Unlike Joe Namath, Los Angeles Coach Ray Malavasi isn't about to guarantee a Super Bowl victory - but like the former quarterback of the New York Jets, he thinks his Rams are underrated.

"Our team is not as bad as we're made out to be and Pittsburgh is not as good as it's made out to be," Malavasi said Friday in his final news conference preceding Sunday's National Football League championship game.

The Jets were 17-point underdogs when Namath guaranteed a victory and produced a 16-7 upset of Baltimore 11 years ago. The Rams are 11-point underdogs to the Steelers this year - but Malavasi isn't being quite as rash. "Let me say this," he said. "I think we've got a good football team. We know we're playing a tough team and it wouldn't surprise me if we did beat them." Malavasi said that if he could have bet on the Jets in the Colts' game he would have because he knew the point spread was so out of line. And when asked if he'd bet on the Rams, he replied: "If I could, yes.

SPORTS SCRATCHPAD

But he did acknowledge that the Steelers deserve to be the favorite. "I think they're probably as good as they've ever been. They certainly have more experience now because they've got the same people that have been in there (in previous Super Bowl games).

"They don't have too many rookies and free agents ... Unfortunately on our side we have more free agents at this point than we've ever had because of the number of injuries." About 25 Rams have been sidelined at one time or another this season.

Malavasi said the experience factor doesn't extend to the coaches because "I've been coaching as long as Chuck Noll, maybe longer.

In past seasons, coaches of first-time Super Bowl teams - most notably Don Shula of Miami - have admitted their teams lost because they were simply happy to be in the game. Malavasi says his Rams won't fall victim to that line of thinking.

"One of the first things I told the team was, 'It won't be worth a damn. We worked so hard to get here and now to be satisfied is crazy.' And I know our players aren't satisfied because they've been so close so many times.

Los Angeles lost four previous National Conference championship games, two apiece to Dallas and Los Angeles, before beating Tampa Bay to take the title this vear.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) - Alleged food stamp violations, falsified travel records and travel violations have cropped up in "substantial new evidence" of irregularities in the University of New Mexico's troubled athletic program, New Mexico President William E. Davis said Friday. Davis also said there may be additional problems with athletes' transcripts

Meanwhile, the Lobo football squad lost two players - running back Mike Carter and defensive back James Bell - to one-year suspension because of academic problems, the university said. But former basketball player Jerome Henderson was declared eligible Friday, and New Mexico officials said he will start in Saturday's game against San Diego State.

Davis announced the possible "new evidence" Friday

'Some weeks ago, I made a statement that all of the facts as we then knew them concerning the problems in our athletic department had been made public." Davis said. "Our continuing investigation has now developed substantial new evidence of irregularities which I wish to report.

JIM MURRAY

Don't tell old 12-2 Rams, but LA was 9-7

By JIM MURRAY Los Angeles Times Syndicate

COSTA MESA, Calif. - So the Rams are in the Super Bowl? That's page one stuff. No way to keep it secret.

Still, it would be nice if you could keep it private and not noise it about in certain sections of the community. I mean, I wonder if you could keep it from Merlin Olsen if at all possible? By all means, don't talk about it in front of Deacon Jones. Lamar Lundy.

Rosey Grier. Don't even tell Charlie Cowan.

I think Roman Gabriel, John Hadl, Ron Jaworski, even, would just as soon not know anything about it. Try not to let George Allen in on it, either. I think Tom Mack and Joe Scibelli would be better off in the dark. Apologize to Chuck Knox while you're at it, Jack Pardee, Maxie Baughan. See if you can make it up to Ken Iman for all those nosebleeds he took without making it to a Super Bowl.

All those years when the Rams were a great football team and were 12-2, 10-3-1, 11-3, 12-2, and they never made it to the Super Bowl: I mean, those were the years of the "Fear-some Foursome," the "Secretary of Defense." Those were days when we used to beat the Lombardi Packers on a blocked punt and still couldn't get to the Super Bowl. Those were the days when 18 of the 22 starters on the team went directly to the Pro Bowl. But they couldn't go to the Super Bowl.

A BLOCKED field goal on the 30inch line, a movement in the line when the Rams had third and a yard to go for victory, a rainstorm which turned the Coliseum into a tar pit, the Fates invented ways to keep the Rams out of the Super Bowl.

Now, they're going there with a bunch of kids who don't know how tough it is. The 9-7 Rams are going to the summit of all football where 12-2 teams couldn't tread. Guys who have been on the Rams only three year; talk of the "frustration" of not going to the Super Bowl. Sure, it took Jack Youngblood eight years. But he did make it. Deacon Jones and Merlin Olsen put in 26 years between them and never made it. George Allen won 49 games, Chuck Knox won 54. They always ended up in mud, snow, sleet, or zero-degree games, a touchdown or a field goal short. Ray Malavasi got there on his 21st victory. In the sunshine at Tampa Bay. Deacon Jones didn't even know Tampa Bay was in the league.

It has always been considered a crime that Sam Snead never won an Open, and Ernie Banks never played in the World Series. But that's practically a carriage of justice compared to Merlin Olsen's never playing in a Super Bowl.

There'll be no No. 74 at all for the Rams in this Super Bowl. That number has been retired. But there'll be a man in his old spot at defensive tack-

This will be no beardless youth who thinks Super Bowls come down the chimney on Christmas night, or are hung on the fireplace, or hidden under a bush by the Easter Bunny.

MICHAEL LAVERN Fanning knows all about Super Bowl frustrations. He hasn't played in 208 games (108 of them consecutively) for the Rams as has Merlin Olsen. But, when Mike Fanning joined the club in 1975, a fine broth of a boy out of Notre Dame, 6-6, 248 pounds, he had a Super Bowl of his own going. All he had to beat out for a job was Merlin Olsen, or Larry Brooks, or Cody Jones, or Jack Youngblood, or Fred Dryer if he wanted to play end - which he didn't.

He broke his leg in preseason. And he had just as much chance of cracking that lineup after he broke it as before.

Although he had been all-everything at Notre Dame, including collegiate wrestling champion, Fanning was just another rookie candidate for the suicide squads. That line was harder to get into than the Kremlin. The Rams No. 1 draft choice spent his afternoons blocking for field goal kickers, breaking the wedge on kickoffs, the football equivalent of a penalty killer in hockey, or the guy with the dynamite in a bank heist.

"I got to rush the passer some," he recalls. But if there was to be any ambiguity in the play, any chance of other than a straight dropback pass forming, Fanning was not to be trust-

Mike felt like a 23rd vice president who must wait for the other 22 to die or retire. His only chance of cracking the lineup was a calamity. He started no games in 1975 or in '76 or '77 and only two in '78.

Mike Fanning played in every thing to have if you only have one thing. It has always been a Ram hallmark. "Ain't nobody gonna beat us with the run," Deacon Jones used to boast. "They got to beat our pass rush to win and they know it." Fanning is thus in the great tradition of wily, swift Ram quarterback rushers.

"Anybody can throw the ball if he can sit back there all day and not worry about going down under the rush," Fanning agrees.

Fanning is less worried anyway by the Pittsburgh Steelers trappers than he is by their tailors. "You see, the biggest move the pass rusher has is, grab the offensive linemen. Now, what they do, is they take their jersey and tailor 'em down so they're skintight. Then they take some two-carpet tape and tape them down. So there's nothing to grab. It's like trying to grab somebody by the tattoo ...

If the Steelers would be persuaded to play in floppy overcoats, or the kind of oversize sweaters worn by pipe-smoking college professors, the defensive linemen could toss the blockers around like dock stevedores with cargo. "Either that or just give us hooks," Fanning suggests.

Football teams come out today in the kind of figure-hugging costumes Olympics swimmers or Vegas chorines favor. It's not to show off their physiques, it's to get the claws of 260-pound linemen to slip and slide. Soon they'll come out greased like channel swimmers.

FANNING will be one of the new breed of Rams who succeeded where all the old pictures on the wall failed for 14 years, the bright-eyed, bushytailed youngsters who think making the Super Bowl is a snap. I mean, all you have to do is beat Tampa Bay, right? Not Minnesota in the snow and ice, not Dallas in Texas with the shotguns and the flexes. Tampa is younger and greener than you are -and the temperature is the same as Pasadena.

If Mike Fanning can't get through the skin-tight uniforms to get at Terry Bradshaw, he has a saver anyway. He can always go back to polo. Mike keeps a string of polo ponies near his Oklahoma home and it's the kind of sport you can play until you're 50. The horse does all the work, including the blocking, there's free substitution. and horses don't resort to sucker plays or influence traps. Horses are straightforward characters, unlike Pittsburgh Steelers who are like corner pitchmen by comparison.

The Rams will be quarterbacked Sunday by a guy starting his sixth pro game. One running back will be starting his 13th pro game ever. A rookie will start at guard. In his 10th game. So, No. 79, Mike Fanning is almost the only one out there who knows what Merlin Olsen looked like. But Merlin, Deacon, Charlie Cowan, Scibelli, Mack and all the old crowd must see they went about it the wrong way. It never occurred to them the way to the Super Bowl was to lose seven games. They thought you fired the coach when that happened. That's what happened the only time they did

What does the Bible really mean to you? Is it an old leather volume gathering dust on the shelf, or a beloved, faithful ompanion?

The answer depends partly on your childhood. If your fam-'ilv read the Bible daily, then its Books have long since become part of your way of life.

But to many of us, the Bible remains a mystery and even the 'modern" versions seem complicated. We may want, almost desperately, to understand, but it isn't that easy.

Help is as near as your closest church. For centuries the Church has made a business of studying and interpreting the Bible. Despite the passing of time, they proclaim its message with remarkable clarity. Try it and see.

Christians begin prayer for unity

By GEORGE W. CORNELL AP Religion Writer

New ecumenical notes were in the air as Christians of varied denominations on Friday begin their annual week of prayer for unity.

"Thy kingdom come," goes the theme for the observance, chosen by represenatives of Roman Catholicism, Protestantism and Eastern Orthodoxy, and taken from the Lord's prayer in Matthew 6:10.

A litany for special joint services planned in many communities adds a repeated refrain from Christ's plea in John 17:21, that followers "all may be one" so the world will believe.

The Rev. John F. Hotchkin of Washington, director of the Catholic bishops' ecumenical committee, says the spread of joint worship is "more significant than any other advances" being made toward unity

It "is an open and unfolding field," he says, noting that mixed Protestant-Catholic services used to be 'carefully sanitized'' to avoid contrasts in styles, but now openly bring out the differences.

Gospel group at Chaparral Center

The Imperials, a well-known gospel group, will present a concert at 8 p.m. today in Chaparral Center at Midland College.

The concert is sponsored by Morning Star of Lubbock and KKKK-FM, a Christian radio station. Tickets, priced $6 for reserved seating and $5 for general admission, will be available at the Chaparral Center box. office in advance of program time tonight.

The Imperials, featured in dozens of concerts yearly across the nation, is one of the leading gospel music groups on the scene today. The ensemble was selected to represent the Christian music world on the prestigious Grammy Awards show in

Unitarian lectures offered

The Unitarian Church of Midland, 3400 N. A St., is offering a series of Unitarian Universalist lectures.

The Rev. John S. MacPhee is presenting the lectures at 8 p.m. each Wednesday. The series is open to the public at no charge.

The series is titled "The Legacy of the Liberal Spirit." The first lecture, which was presented this past Wednesday, had as its title, "Early Christian Radicalism Next Wednesday's program is titled "Erasmus - Renaissance Humanism.'

The subjects for subsequent lectures are: Jan. 30, Voltaire - "French Rationalism"; Feb. 6, "Paine - American Deism"; Feb. 13, "Parker - New England Enlightenment''; Feb. 20, "Darwin — 19th Century Age of Criti-cism''; Feb. 27, "Dewey — 20th Century Naturalism."

Representatives of the Lutheran Church in America, the American Lutheran Church and the Association of Evangelical Lutheran Churches expect to have proposals for linking the three denominations ready for action by their 1980 conventions.

The Jan. 18-25 week of prayer for unity is a cooperative venture of the National Council of Churches, the ecumenical committee of U.S. Catholic bishops, the Graymoor Ecumenical Institute, the World Council of Churches and the Vatican Secretariat on Christian Unity.

Installation service scheduled

An annual service of installation will be incorporated into the Sunday morning worship service at First Christian Church, 1301 W. Louisiana Ave. The worship service begins at 10:50 a.m.

Congregational elders, deacons and deaconesses, along with department chairpersons and members of the 1980 executive committee of the church, will be installed in the ceremony.

Immediately following the ceremony, a fellowship gathering will take place in the church fellowship hall to honor the church board and other congregational leaders. The public is invited to attend the service and the fellowship event.

New youth program announced

Trinity Baptist Church, 3308 W. Cuthbert Ave., is announcing a new youth program.

The youth ministry is for young people of kindergarten age through high school level, said Leonard Sissons, pastor.

The program consists of Bible memorization, special activities and Bible counseling. Meetings are held each Monday from 7 to 8: 30 p.m. and are open to all young people in the city and surrounding area, the pastor announced.

The program is called Awana, which is derived from II Timothy and is one of the first outreaches of its kind to be started in Midland, Sissons said

Lenten booklet being issued

PRINCETON, N.J. - A 1980 Lenten booklet is being issued by three black church groups and two ecumenical organizations "to urge persons to pray and work for total liberation of oppressed persons.

The booklet, which is sponsored by the African Methodist Episcopal Church, the Christian Methodist Episcopal Church and the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church, along with the National Conference of Black Churchmen and the 10-denomination-member Consultation on Church Union, focuses on the meaning of Lent within the black religious experience and the concern of the black churches for unity and liberation.

Dr. John E. Brandon, associate general secretary of the Consultation on Church Union, said in issuing the booklet: "The daily meditations are written to convey to the laity the distinctive emphases of contempotary theological reflection in the black Christian community and serve thereby as inspiration for individual and family meditation during the Lenten season and as a resource for Christian education by including significant statements from the black denomination and ecumenical agen-

this afternoon to commemorate World Religion Day

The 3 p.m. event will take place in the Unitarian Church of Midland at 3400 N. A St., and will be open to all interested residents of the city and surrounding area. A fellowship period with refreshments will follow the meeting.

World Religion Day is sponsored by the U.N. and supported by the Bahai Faith as a means of promoting unity between the different religions of the world

The speaker for the public meeting is to be Gene Houk of Midland, a member of the Midland Bahai group for the last several years.

Questions from the public regarding the Bahai Faith will be answered at the meeting. Additional information on the meeting may be obtained by dialing 684-5366.

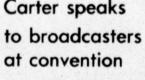

Annual parish meeting set

The Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinity has scheduled its annual parish meeting Jan. 27. The meeting will follow the 10 a.m. worship service

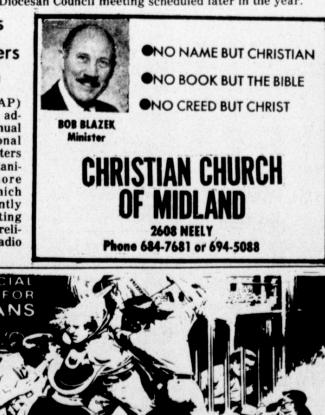

Highlighting the session will be election of four new members to the Vestry, the parish governing body

Nominees for the Vestry positions are Jack E. Blake, Hugh Frenzel, Michael M. Gray, Polly Kellogg, Dr. Henry F. Page, Forrest F. Spry, Flake Tompkins and Sharon Yeager. Retiring vestrymen are Robert Frazier, Fern McGuigan, Judge Perry D. Pickett and Paul Rea.

Annual reports of the various organizations within the Holy Trinity par-ish also will be given at the meeting, and delegates and alternates will be selected for the 1980 Diocesan Council meeting scheduled later in the year.

WASHINGTON (AP) President Carter addresses the 37th annual convention of National Religious Broadcasters on Monday. The organization includes more than 900 groups which operate predominantly religious broadcasting stations or produce religious programs for radio and television.
