Iowa victories to Carter, Bush

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — George Bush led Ronald Reagan in returns from the Iowa precinct caucuses and claimed an upset victory that gave a solid boost to his campaign for the 1980 Republican presidential nomination.

Meanwhile, Jimmy Carter renewed his political love affair with Iowa Monday night and thrashed Sen. Edward M. Kennedy in their first official confrontation.

With results from a non-binding straw poll of Republicans showing him leading Reagan, Bush said he would leave today for New Hampshire "and we'll do better there."

The New Hampshire primary on Feb. 26, is the next major test of the campaign.

With 72.5 percent of the Republican precincts reporting, Bush held an 27,926 to 22,724 lead over Reagan in the straw poll.

Sen. Howard H. Baker was third with 11,590; John B. Connally, 8,425; Rep. Philip Crane, 5,749; Rep. John Anderson, 3,355; Sen. Bob Dole, 1,569.

The Republican caucuses chose delegates to represent their precincts at county conventions but the delegates were not bound to candidates by Monday's outcome.

Results from 2,442 of the 2,531 Democratic precincts gave Carter 59 percent, Kennedy 31 percent, uncommitted 10 percent.

Based on those figures, Iowa's 50 delegates to the Democratic National Convention in August would be divided 29 for Carter, 15 for Kennedy and 5 uncommitted. One is yet to be awarded.

From the earliest Monday night returns, Carter jumped to a two-to-one lead over Kennedy and held it throughout the night.

It was Iowa that gave Carter his boost out of obscurity in the 1976 race and as soon as his 1980 victory was assured, the president issued a statement at the White House saying, "I deeply appreciate the vote of confidence from Iowa Democrats. Their expression of support is particularly welcome in these difficult times."

Kennedy met with supporters at his campaign headquarters in Washington and vowed to remain in the race.

"The reasons I run for president still remain," said the Massachusetts senator, who once led Carter two to one in public opinion polls, a margin that reversed in recent weeks.

"Tonight, according to my count," Kennedy told supporters, "President Carter needs 1,643 (delegates) more to win the nomination. We need 1,657 and we're going to get it."

Reagan was in California and had no immediate comment on the Iowa results.

But John Sears, his national campaign manager, said, "George Bush has done something right. He has spent a lot of time in Iowa."

Reagan made few campaign appearances in Iowa and refused to participate in a debate with other Republican candidates.

A poll taken for the Des Moines Register immediately after the debate, showed a sharp drop in Reagan's standing though he still led other candidates.

By contrast, Bush campaigned hard in Iowa and built a strong organization.

As the results rolled in, Bush said, "I'm ecstatic. I've won even if I finish close to these numbers."

The former U.S. ambassador to the United Nations and one-time director of the CIA, Bush recalled that he began his Iowa campaign as one of the candidates often grouped at the bottom of opinion polls as "others."

"I was a little star and an asterisk," said Bush. His showing in Iowa inevitably will be compared with Carter's in 1976, when the former Georgia governor was declared the winner in Iowa after he received 29 percent of the caucus vote. The largest bloc, 38.5 percent, was uncommitted.

This year, Carter was no longer unknown, but as the campaign got under way the president was running far behind Kennedy in the public opinion polls.

But Kennedy's entry into the race nearly coincided with the takeover of the U.S. Embassy in Iran and in the ensuing weeks, the polls began to turn around. Kennedy's campaign got off to a rocky start and the nation rallied behind the president and his efforts to free the American hostages in Tehran.

Citing the crisis in Iran and later the Soviet intervention of Afghanistan, Carter remained in Washington, canceling all plans to campaign outside the capital. He also pulled out of a debate with Kennedy and Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. of California.

Then, two weeks before the caucuses, a Des Moines Register poll showed Carter favored by 57 percent of Iowa Democrats while Kennedy had the backing of only 25 percent.

The senator, finding himself in an underdog role, began saying that anything less than 50 percent would be a severe setback for Carter. When the final returns were reported, Carter had 59 percent.

A jubilant George Bush emerged from the Iowa precinct caucuses as Ronald Reagan's strongest challenger for the Republican presidential nomination. "It is clear we are going to come out of here with momentum," said Bush, a former Midlander. He held a substantial lead over Reagan as officials tallied the last of the GOP straw vote today. (AP Laserphoto)

Carter says Americans 'must pay price'

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Carter says Americans "must pay whatever price is required to remain the strongest nation in the world."

In a written State of the Union message delivered to Congress Monday, the president took a hard line toward the Soviets and placed a U.S. military buildup first among American goals for the 1980s.

"The Soviet Union has built a war machine far beyond any reasonable requirements for their own defense and security," Carter said.

To counter it, he said, defense spending will be boosted 3 percent, after accounting for inflation, and alliances will be strengthened. Plans for an increase of that size had been announced previously. More measures will be outlined by Carter in his State of the Union speech Wednesday night.

In another part of his speech, Carter appeared to be willing to extend an olive branch to Iran if the Americans hostages being held there are freed unharmed.

He said the administration was prepared to develop "a new and mutually beneficial relationship" with the regime of Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini if the hostages are released.

"We have no basic quarrel with the nation, the revolution or the people of Iran," the president said. "The threat to them comes not from American policy but from Soviet actions in the region."

At the same time, Carter reaffirmed his abhorrence at the Nov. 4 seizure of the U.S. Embassy in Tehran and insisted that "our patience is not unlimited and our concern for the well-being of our fellow citizens grows every day."

Condemning the Soviets in Cold War terms, the president accused the Kremlin of "ruthless extermination" of the last government in Afghanistan and said they were now within striking distance of the Indian Ocean and the Persian Gulf.

In response, Carter said, the United States is prepared to "confront the threats they may pose to our security."

The president did not directly mention the prospect of going to war, but a senior administration official told reporters at the White House that "when we say we are prepared to use force to defend our interests in that part of the world, we mean it."

The official said U.S.-Soviet relations were in "a period of intensified tensions" and the American public "has got to understand this is a long-haul effort."

At the same time, he said, the administration and the news media "should avoid an impression we are on the brink of some military confrontation."

Although more than 100 reporters — including some from China, West Germany, Great Britain and other countries — attended the briefing, the official insisted he not be named.

Three Odessans killed in mishap

ODESSA — An Odessa couple and their 5-month-old daughter died early this morning when a car rammed through their bedroom wall at 910 S. Jackson St. in Odessa.

Jose Ramiro Salas, 27, Maria Salas, also 27, and their daughter, Yadina, were pronounced dead at the scene by an Odessa peace justice.

Several persons had been brought in for questioning as of 11 a.m. today, said a spokesman for the Odessa Police Department, but it was unknown whether the driver of the vehicle involved had been located. The driver apparently left the scene on foot, police said. Police have a description, although it was not available.

The accident occurred around 2:30 or 3 a.m. It was reported to Odessa police at 5:12 a.m.

According to the spokesman, at approximately 2:30 a.m., the vehicle was westbound in the 300 block of Ruth Street, approaching South Jackson Street. The car apparently failed to stop at the stop sign and continued west across Jackson Street, striking the west curb, reports said.

The vehicle then jumped the curb, knocking down 16 feet of chain-link fence in front of 910 S. Jackson, and continued through the front yard to strike the front east wall of the house, the Odessa spokesman said.

The car entered the northeast bedroom, where it finally came to rest. The west wall of the bedroom was knocked into the bathroom by the collision, police said.

Police were notified that someone might be trapped under the car. The Odessa Fire Department lifted the vehicle using the Jaws of Life and found the Salas family underneath.

The bodies were taken to Easterling Funeral Home in Odessa.

State of the Union highlights

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here, at a glance, are highlights of President Carter's State of the Union message made public Monday:

Foreign

—On Iran, Carter said, "We have no basic quarrel with the nation, the revolution or the people of Iran. The threat to them comes not from American policy but from Soviet actions in the region." He said that if the Americans held hostage in Tehran are released unharmed, the administration is ready to develop "a new and mutually beneficial relationship" with Iran. But he warned that "our patience is not unlimited and our concern for the well-being of our fellow citizens grows every day."

—On U.S. global goals, Carter said the first priority is to build the military strength of the United States and its allies and friends. He said neither the Soviet Union nor any other nation should "have reason to question our will to sustain the strongest and most flexible defense forces."

—He called for a diplomacy bent on resolving disputes by peaceful means "and to make any aggressor pay a heavy price."

—Carter said energy, inflation and other economic problems should be resolved through expanded trade and development assistance. And democratic institutions should be supported because "we are deeply convinced that the future lies not with dictatorship but democracy."

—On the SALT II treaty, Carter expressed a commitment to arms control, saying his decision to postpone Senate action on the SALT II treaty with the Soviet Union does not mean he has abandoned the proposal. He called the arms limitation treaty "the single most important bilateral accord of the decade."

Domestic

—Carter promised a "responsible, restrained budget" and said he would "be limiting my major new proposals to a critical few."

—He termed inflation "our most serious economic problem" but said he saw "hope for a gradual reduction in the inflation rate." He said "inflation will slow this year. In 1981 it should be even lower."

—"Restraining inflation remains my highest domestic priority," Carter said.

—The president said he would press for more federal funds for education and put an "unprecedented emphasis on disease prevention."

—"The challenge of the 80s in education is to see that quantity education becomes quality education," he said. The biggest increase will be for his recently announced $2 billion program to attack youth unemployment by teaching poor youth both basic education skills and job skills.

—Carter said action on his new initiatives, along with enactment of past proposals, "can help to ensure stable prices and economic growth, a return to energy security, an efficient, responsible, government...."

—On taxes, he said he is not proposing a tax cut this year because "our top priority must be reduction of the deficit."

—Concerned about the low reserves in the Social Security account that pays retirement benefits, Carter said he will ask Congress to permit borrowing among the system's three trust funds. He said the 35 million Americans who get Social Security checks "can rely on doing so without fear of interruption."

—Other legislative initiatives included reorganization of the Nuclear Regulatory Commission, approval of a standby gasoline rationing plan, a program to encourage conversion of oil-burning utilities to coal and other fuels, and renewal of the general revenue sharing program.

Conferees agree on windfall tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate-House conference committee agreed today on the major elements of a new "windfall profits" tax that would cost the oil industry $227.3 billion in the 1980s.

The conferees still must decide on what kind of an energy program a big share of the money should be spent.

However, the biggest obstacle to final action on the bill was removed when the panel agreed on $22.5 billion as the share of the $227.3 billion that would be paid by independent segments of the oil industry. The rest would be assessed against the major oil companies.

"This is a major achievement in moving toward a sound energy policy," said Rep. Al Ullman, D-Ore., chairman of the House conferees.

The compromise was accepted unanimously by Senate members of the conference. All House delegates except Rep. Bill Archer, R-Texas, approved the proposal. Archer said the tax would make it more difficult for the United States to reduce dependence on imported oil.

President Carter urged enactment of the tax last year to take back from the oil industry some of the nearly $1 trillion in added revenues that the oil firms will gain because of his decision to end federal controls on the price of U.S.-produced crude oil.

Without the tax, oil companies would keep more of the revenue as profits.

Rain, sleet and snow fall in Permian Basin

"Button up your overcoat...take good care of yourself" is very good advice for Midlanders who think they can brave today's weather.

At 3 a.m. today, freezing rain pelted many windows in the Tall City. The sleet turned to snow at 5:30 a.m. and continued through much of the morning, although most of the white stuff melted as it hit the ground. Driving conditions, although a bit slippery due to the moisture, were not considered hazardous.

The National Weather Service at Midland Regional Airport was predicting a 70 percent chance of continued snow, sleet or rain through today and a 30 percent chance tonight.

However, on Wednesday it should be partly cloudy and a bit warmer with a high in the 40s.

Midlanders are not the only folks experiencing the snowy conditions.

Lamesa residents reported about two inches of snow on the ground, although it was melting fast. Andrews reported a little snow and rain.

It rained all night in Rankin. Big Spring was reporting less than an inch of snow, with rain also reported in the last 24 hours.

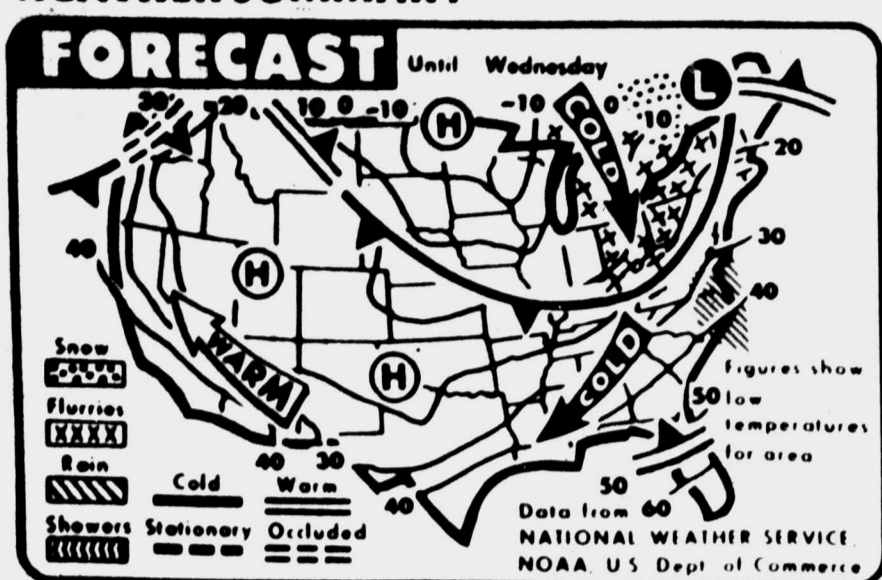

Today's high was only supposed to be in the upper 30s, making it hard to believe that the record high for today is 84 degrees, recorded in 1974.

Tonight's low should fall into the mid-20s. The record low for today, recorded in 1966, was a very cold 2 degrees.

Winds should be northerly 10-15 mph tonight.

Carter warns U.S. patience 'not unlimited'

President Carter extended an olive branch to Iran's revolutionary regime despite the continued captivity of the American hostages in Tehran. But he warned Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's forces that America's patience is "not unlimited."

There was no immediate response from Iran. Earlier Monday, Foreign Minister Sadegh Ghotbzadeh lumped American imperialism and Soviet communism together as threats to his country.

Meanwhile, the approximately 50 hostages in the U.S. Embassy in Tehran began their 80th day in captivity. Carter in his State of the Union message to Congress said the United States has "no basic quarrel with the nation, the revolution or the people of Iran."

"The threat to them comes not from American foreign policy but from Soviet actions in the region," the president declared. Carter said his government is "prepared to work with the government of Iran to develop a new and mutually beneficial relationship. But that will not be possible so long as Iran continues to hold Americans hostage, in defiance of the world community and civilized behavior. They must be released unharmed."

Tempers seem cooler following Sunday riot in Oklahoma town

IDABEL, Okla. (AP) — Light fog, intermittent rain and meetings between black and white leaders seemed to cool tempers as police reinforcements patrolled this southeastern Oklahoma community after rioting that left two persons dead.

A white man from a nearby Arkansas town was charged with murder in the slaying of a black teen-ager that touched off the violence, but no charges were filed in the slayings of an auxiliary policeman and a black that occurred during the riot.

"As far as I'm concerned, we've still got two murders to solve in Idabel," Don Sharp, an agent for the Oklahoma State Bureau of Investigation, said Monday.

Oklahoma Highway Patrol Col. Jerry Biggers said early today he was unsure how much longer the 75 state troopers and support personnel sent to Idabel would remain. He said a decision would be made once city and state officials were sure "peace has returned to the city." Deputies from nearby counties began going home.

Meanwhile, about 100 local black leaders gathered in the First Baptist Church to discuss the events. Mayor Rex Helms, who was present at the first confrontation with angry blacks Sunday, attended a portion of the meeting.

"I considered it productive," Helms said. "Some of them still had hostile feelings."

Robert Higgins

Higgins died Monday morning in a San Angelo hospital following a lengthy illness.

Survivors include his wife; a daughter, Mrs. Harold Bentley of Big Spring; a brother, J.E. Higgins of Richmond; a sister, Mrs. Jewel Goodwin of Terrell; two grandsons and several nieces and nephews.

Rudolph Young

Young was born September 21, 1926, in Roxton. He had lived in Midland since Dec. 27, 1952. He was married to Jo Fannie Lee Dennis Nov. 7, 1949, at Paris. He was a veteran of World War II and for the past 14 years had worked for the Permian Corp. He was a member of New Hope Baptist Church.

Survivors include his wife; three daughters, Doris Faye Zachery and Brenda Joyce Young, both of Midland, and Melenda Jefferson of Dallas; four brothers, Steve Young and Keith Ray Young, both of Tucson, Ariz.; Sterling Young of Midland and James Young of Houston; two sisters, Beulah Mae Young and Ophelia Hubbard, both of Midland; his father, Albert Young of Tucson, Ariz.; and four grandchildren.

Vern Martin

District Attorney Vern Martin, 48, announced today he will run as a Republican candidate for re-election in the May primary.

Martin, who will complete his first term in the office this year, noted in a press conference this morning "the real high point of the past three years has been getting through the Speedy Trials Act and the constant reorganization we've had to go through."

During his first term, he said, the backlog of cases pending in the district attorney's office has been cut from around 800 to under 200.

"It's only within the last year we've been able to get things to a manageable state," he said, noting he had added two lawyers and a secretary to the DA's staff to help ease the load.

Rather than wholesale dismissals of the backlogged cases when the Speedy Trials Act went into effect two years ago, Martin said, his office looked at each case individually.

Several cases, including some whose defendants or key witnesses had died in the interim, were dismissed, but overall "there were fewer than even I had thought we'd have," he said.

The East Texas native noted he had been encouraged to run for the 142nd Judicial District judgeship being vacated by Judge Perry Pickett.

"I've been flattered, but I don't feel it's time for me to do that now," he said. "There are a lot of things left to do in this office that I haven't had time for yet."

Among those things, he said, is spending more time training young lawyers to be prosecutors and spending more time with law enforcement agencies to do more in-depth investigation of cases.

"One of the big problems I hope to overcome is to educate the public better what we do," he noted, adding the office had received some criticism for its handling of cases.

"Generally, when the people knew the facts, they weren't upset any more."

A graduate of The University of Texas Law School, Martin has lived in Midland County 15 years. He moved here from Austin, where he practiced law. He had previously worked for the Texas Education Agency and the Veterans Land Bureau.

Americans support Carter, want harder line against Iran

NEW YORK (AP) — Americans support President Carter on the crises in Iran and Afghanistan but want him to take a harder line to try to resolve them, an Associated Press-NBC News poll says.

Overall, Americans' ratings of Carter fell seven points in the last month, as the movement of Soviet troops into Afghanistan piled atop failure to secure freedom for the American hostages at the U.S. Embassy in Iran.

But a number of Carter's specific responses to the Soviet military occupation of Afghanistan drew substantial public backing, including strong support for his partial embargo of grain shipments to Russia. The public, however, still wants him to be tougher in his dealings with the Soviets.

The poll was conducted Thursday and Friday, before President Carter announced Sunday that he was asking the U.S. Olympic Committee to withdraw from the 1980 Summer Games in Moscow unless Soviet troops are withdrawn from Afghanistan.

After the Soviets moved thousands of troops into Afghanistan in late December, Carter announced a series of actions against Russia, including a partial embargo on shipments of grain, an embargo on computers and other high-technology items and the possibility of withdrawing from the Olympics.

Just as approval of Carter's handling of the Iranian crisis boosted his ratings from the low figures of mid-1979, public frustration over failure to secure freedom for the hostages eroded Americans' judgment of his overall performance.

Thirty-eight percent gave Carter good or excellent ratings for his work overall in the latest poll. That's down from 45 percent in the mid-December AP-NBC News survey. Forty-four percent gave him an "only fair" rating last week, compared to 41 percent last month. Sixteen percent rated his efforts "poor," up from 12 percent. Two percent each month were not sure.

This drop is larger than the slump in Carter's overall job rating two months after the 1978 Camp David summit on the Middle East. In those two months, Carter's rating dropped four points from a peak of 42 percent.

Carter's response to the Soviet Union's intervention in Afghanistan drew the approval of 49 percent of those questioned. Thirty percent disapproved and 12 percent were not sure.

Nine percent of those questioned said they had not heard of the Afghan situation.

On the Olympics, 66 percent of the Americans who have heard of the Afghan crisis favoring moving the Games from Moscow. Twenty-six percent opposed such a move and eight percent were undecided.

Olympic officials say a shift such as Carter wants is not possible because of the enormous logistics of the Games.

Asked directly whether the United States should refuse to compete in the Moscow Games, Americans favor withdrawal, but by a narrow margin.

Forty-nine percent of those who know of the Afghan situation said the United States should not participate in the Moscow Games, but 41 percent disagreed. Ten percent of the 1,595 adults interviewed across the country by telephone were undecided.

Those who favor withdrawal argue the Soviets must be punished for the Afghan intervention and that withdrawal of the U.S. team would be a severe blow to the international prestige the Soviets hoped to win by hosting the Games.

Leroy Stewart

Stewart running for Peace Justice

Leroy Stewart, Midland Realtor and former circulation manager of The Midland Reporter-Telegram, announced Monday he will seek the Democratic nomination for the office of Justice of the Peace, place 1, precinct 1 in the May Democratic primary.

The place is now held by John Biggs, who filed in the Democratic primary earlier this month.

Presently associated with Pat Knox Realtors, the 54-year-old Midlander is a native of Navarro County. He moved to Midland in 1947 as a tank construction worker. He joined the Midland Police Department as a patrolman in 1949, serving in that capacity until 1952 when he became associated with the circulation department of The Midland Reporter-Telegram. He became circulation manager in 1969 and served in that position until May, 1978, when he resigned to enter the real estate business.

He is a member and past president of the Evening Optimist Club and of the Eagles Club. He is a member of the North A and Tennessee Church of Christ.

We recently received four Voter Registration Certificates, which are post cards, and each was stamped 15 cents postage by a postage machine. Postcards call for 10-cent postage and we wonder if some postal regulation called for 15 cents postage on these certificates. When one multiplies the number of voters certificates mailed by 5¢, it comes to a nice sum of the taxpayers' money wasted. Sincerely, — Wondering ANSWER: An employee at the Main Post Office says that the cost of postage depends on the size of the post card. Post cards, 4 1/4 by 6 inches can be mailed for 10 cents. He also said that there is the possibility that the cards were not measured by the city, and could have been mailed for 10 cents.

On December 4, a part went bad on my dishwasher and the store where I purchased it said to contact a service store which would do the repair work. I called the store and they said to send them a $20 check for a down payment on the part and said it would be a week until the part came. It has been six weeks.

I have called and asked them to refund my money three times and have been given a different story each time. What course can I take to get my money back?

What is this about computerized supermarket checkout, which I have seen advertised? — Mrs. P.H.

ANSWER: A laser beam "reads" a series of lines, bars and numbers, which I am sure you have noticed, called the Universal Product Code.

A computer identifies the customer's purchase and "rings up" the correct price.

This, according to the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare, "could cut the time the customer spends in line at the supermarket, but consumer and labor groups aren't convinced that computerized checkout is an idea whose time has come."

Odessa representative to attend election code meetings in Austin

AUSTIN — Rep. Jay Gibson of Odessa, chairman of the subcommittee on reorganization of the House Elections Committee, will be in Austin this week for a series of meetings on voting systems and campaign finance.

The Election Code Study Committee will meet in Austin at 10 a.m. Friday to consider the topics as part of their continuing study of the revision of the Texas Election Code.

The Election Code Advisory panel also will meet at 2 p.m. Thursday.

Taxese translations

When the cornerstone of our civilization is laid, my personal entry for inclusion will be the 1040-A form put out by the Internal Revenue Service.

Not only is it the only piece of mail to be sent third class bulk without a stamp that gets to your home in mint condition — within three hours after it is sent — but it is written in Taxese for an English-speaking population.

Every year someone says they are going to write it in English so that the average person can understand it and make out his own form, but this never happens. I don't pretend to speak Taxese, but I'll try to translate some of the simpler terms for you.

Spouse: This is a married person, for which you get one exemption, providing your spouse is neither blind nor over 65. If the spouse is either blind or over 65, take two exemptions. However, if the spouse is both blind and 65 or over, then you take three exemptions. This term has made "fooling around" very popular.

Gains: An obscene word you do not use in front of the children.

Gross income: A term borrowed from kids, previously used to describe their allowance.

Abandoned Spouses: Married persons who live apart can file separate returns. "Abandoned" does not include couples separated by NFL, AFL, NBA, ABA, NHL, Olympic Games, or Wide World of Sports.

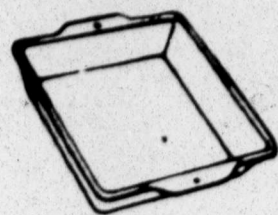

Death: This is no excuse for not filing a 1040-A form. If it has not been filed, a personal representative or heir must do so. Remember, you don't get a refund unless you file.

"If Line 13 is larger than line 15, the difference will be refunded to you." This is the IRS's attempt at humor...like the old line where someone calls you and asks if the street light is burning and when you go out to check, they say, "Then try to blow it out." Actually, it's a funny line. I personally have never known anyone whose line 13 was larger than line 15.

Paid Preparer: This is someone who helps you prepare your return. Some of them will go with you to your IRS agent when you are summoned. None of them will remember who you are.

Privacy Act: This is a comforting act passed in 1974, assuring you that your return will be kept secret and shared only by the U.S. Treasury, the Dept. of Justice, all federal agencies, all states including the District of Columbia, the U.S. commonwealths and possessions and all foreign governments who have tax treaties with the U.S.

Have fun filing.

DEAR ABBY

A 1-karat millstone

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our very pretty and bright 18-year-old daughter (I'll call her Nancy) graduated from high school last May. She decided to stay home and work for a year before going to college. Nancy met a 29-year-old professional man about six months ago and they started dating. (I'll call him Paul.) They never actually went steady, but Paul gave her a big rush.

Well, for Christmas, Paul surprised Nancy with a beautiful one-karat diamond ring. It came as a big shock to Nancy because she wasn't even considering marriage with Paul. In fact, she told me she hated to kiss him because he had a bad case of halitosis!

When Nancy saw the ring, she told Paul she didn't think she should accept it, but he started to cry, so she kept it because she didn't want to hurt his feelings.

Nancy is sure she doesn't want to be engaged, but every time she tries to return the ring, Paul cries, and talks her into keeping it.

Nancy is very tender-hearted and Paul is very persuasive, so do you think it would be all right if Nancy's father returned the ring to Paul? -- POST-CHRISTMAS DILEMMA

DEAR DILEMMA: No! Nancy should return the ring to Paul herself, and if he cries, he cries. It's time Paul learned that he can't buy whatever he wants with tears and diamonds. And Nancy needs to learn that people who "give in" in order to avoid hurting someone's feelings, usually end up hurting themselves. (P.S. About Paul's halitosis: Someone should tell him.)

DEAR ABBY: My husband shows a charming, well-mannered personality to others, but not to me.

When we have a social engagement, he always has to be the first one there, so he gets ready early and starts nagging me to hurry up.

If I'm five minutes late, as soon as we get into the car he turns the radio on as loud as he can, then he starts shouting that I had all day to get ready, I'm never on time and he's sick of always being late on account of me, etc. By the time we get to the party, I'm in no mood to have a good time.

It's getting so I hate to go anywhere with him. Is there a solution? -- INSTANT HEADACHE faithfully, once a week. (She is a widow.) I have also taken her shopping every weekend. I handle all her paperwork, pay her bills, cash her checks and even look after her home. (I wallpapered her home.) I could not have been more attentive to my own mother.

DEAR HEADACHE: The solution is obvious. Get your act together on time and you'll have no problem. And if you can't do that, tell "antsy-pants" to go ahead without you, that you'll take a cab.

I am very hurt to think that she is not leaving me a dime. Should I tell her how I feel, or keep quiet? And, by the way, Abby, whom do you think she asked to drive her to the lawyer about her will? You're right -- me! -- HURT IN ORLANDO

DEAR HURT: Keep quiet. Your disappointment is understandable, but it's her money and she has the right to do whatever she wishes with it.

Fired clerk gets money settlement

NEW YORK (AP) — A clerk-typist who claims she was fired after refusing to have sex with her boss has won an out-of-court settlement using the boss' written proposition as evidence.

"You know how I feel about you," said the letter written on company stationery. It allegedly was authored by Irving Lebat, head of a small Manhattan shipping firm, and given to Doreen Romano, a 36-year-old mother of one from Bay Ridge, Brooklyn.

"I have been talking to you about this for two years," continued the letter. "Beside getting overtime, I will pay you $100 ... I can also offer you the possibility of $25 week raise."

COPING WITH YOUR INCOME TAX

In some cases, it pays to itemize

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of five articles entitled "Coping With Your Income Tax." They were written to help taxpayers prepare their 1979 tax returns.

By GLENN RITT

WASHINGTON (AP) — "Why are you making us live in sin?" the angry taxpayer asked. "Why can't I deduct this charitable contribution?" another writer wanted to know. Day in and day out, letters stream into the Treasury Department. Come tax time, the stream becomes a deluge. The federal tax system doesn't invite sin, but it permits married couples only a $3,400 standard deduction (now called a zero bracket amount). Unmarried couples can take standard deductions totaling $4,600.

TAX TIPS

Itemize carefully — those little deductions can add up

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the fifth in a series of tax tip articles provided by the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

Persons itemizing deductions when filing income tax returns often overlook significant expenses. Taxes, charitable contributions and miscellaneous payments often substantially increase deductions. State and local taxes paid during the year can be deducted at the end of the year. Be careful to list taxes on real property, personal property and general sales.

The purchase of a car, truck or boat are considered major purchases. Taxes paid in buying these items can be deducted in addition to the amount in the Optional Sales Tax Table.

Charitable contributions are donations to any qualified organization using the funds solely for charitable/public purposes. These may be charitable, religious, educational, scientific, literary or fraternal groups. Deductions can be realized for donations other than money; i.e. property, food or clothing. Value of the donation is figured on the fair amount you would expect to receive from sale of the good. Pledges are not deductible until payment is made. Don't overlook miscellaneous deductions. Fees paid in having someone prepare your 1979 tax returns are deductible. Other deductions would include: dues to professional/occupational organizations or unions; subscriptions to professional or trade journals; and expenses realized in changing jobs within the same trade or business. Even rent on a safety deposit box may be deducted if it contains income-producing items, i.e. stocks and bonds.

These and other questions concerning your 1979 tax return will be answered in the Taxpayer Education program. This public service course, sponsored by the Permian Basin Chapter of the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants and the Internal Revenue Service, will be held Feb. 5 and 7 from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Allison Fine Arts Building at Midland College and at Wilkerson Hall, Room 108, Odessa College. To register for the program, send your name, address and location preference to Taxpayer Education, Box 870, Midland 79702. Registration fee is $1 per person or $1.50 per couple. Mailing deadline is Feb. 1. You may also pick up registration forms at the Administration Building, Room 156, Midland College.

Withholding tables assume that each spouse is the sole wage earner and that the other spouse has small or no earnings. So at the end of the year, a couple may owe more taxes than the total withheld by their separate employers. The same predicament may face a person who takes a second job. The IRS recommends that, in the future, you either reduce the number of exemptions claimed for withholding purposes, request withholding at the higher single person's level, or ask your boss to hold back for taxes an extra amount of your salary each week.

If you purposely had less tax withheld each week: now I learn I may have violated the law." The IRS requires that you estimate and pay what you owe by the end of the year. This assures a regular flow of revenues into the Treasury to pay for government expenses.

It also keeps those who underwithhold from having an unfair advantage over other taxpayers. Otherwise, they could take that money and invest it, earning interest that Uncle Sam doesn't offer. "Why should unemployment benefits be taxed?" This is the first year that some unemployment compensation can be taxed. Generally, only people earning substantial other income will be affected.

Inflation is killing senior citizens on fixed incomes. What tax breaks do we have? There are numerous provisions aimed at reducing the tax burden of people 65 or over. Social security and railroad retirement benefits are not taxed. A person also gets a special tax credit and an additional personal exemption worth $1,000, if they are age 65 or older.

In addition, anybody over 55 or older can exclude, for once-in-a-lifetime, up to $100,000 of the gain on a home sale. It's hard enough to save today. Why isn't interest on savings tax-exempt? While it isn't exempt this year, the odds are improving that it may be soon. Congress is considering numerous plans to help the small saver. One proposal, for example, would exclude $200 in savings interest for an individual and $400 for couples filing jointly.

Until such a law, however, here's the official Treasury explanation: "Excluding some or all interest income from taxation would pose significant equity problems by giving it a preferential status compared with income from wages, salaries and other sources. In addition, most of the benefits from the preference would go to higher income taxpayers."

Am I eligible for an Individual Retirement Account? If you are not covered by a company retirement plan, you can sock away either $1,500 or 15 percent of your 1979 earned income (whichever is smaller) in an Individual Retirement Account and subtract that amount from your gross income. If your spouse is not employed, he or she may do the same. If your spouse doesn't work, you can set up an IRA of $1,750 at any bank, savings and loan association, credit union or brokerage house.

The event was hosted by Mary Yocham, Carolyn Yocham, Cindy Benson and sons. Yocham and the former Charlotte Monroe married Dec. 28, 1929. They have four children, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Their children are Pat Yocham of Midland, Norman Yocham of Houston, Jim Yocham of Houston and B. F. (Biff) Yocham Jr. of Midkiff.

Mrs. Harrie Smith read poems by Texas poets — poems written during the time their state was a republic and those written up to the present time.

Mrs. Don Johnson was in charge of decorations, with the Western theme carried out using appropriate articles and sculptures.

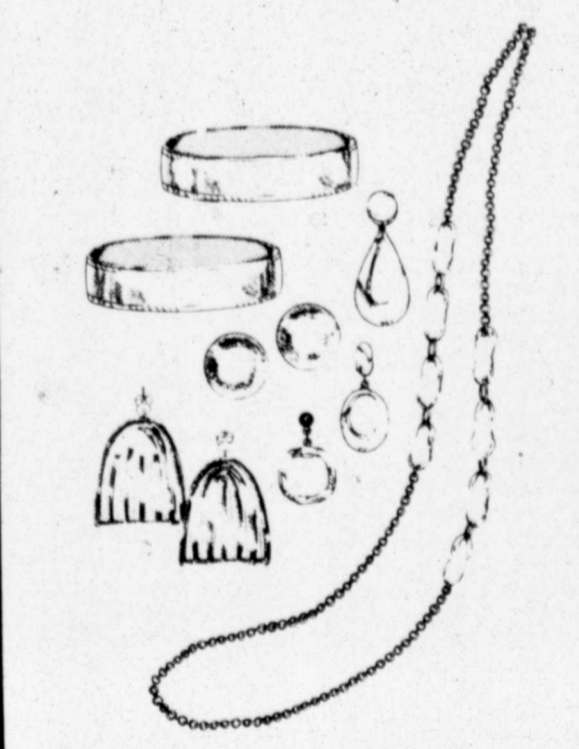

Mrs. W.W. Smith announced the Woman's Club Mexican Fiesta will be held Feb. 8, with a luncheon at 11:30 a.m. and a dinner at 5:30 p.m. The public is invited.

LONDON (AP)— Gold dropped more than $70 an ounce in Europe today in a bout of profit-taking. The dollar firmed, and dealers attributed the strengthening to President Carter's stand against the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan.

London silver, which has been climbing roughly in line with gold, also dropped today. It was quoted at $41.50 an ounce, down from $48 Monday.

Gold, which closed Monday at $850 in Zurich and $838.50 in London, opened in both centers at $835 today.

London's five major bullion houses fixed the price for morning trading at $763, and in Zurich, the metal was quoted at $777 at midday.

Gold closed at $834.39 an ounce in Hong Kong today, $6.61 above Monday's close but far below the record prices set Monday in New York and Europe.

Trading in Hong Kong opened at $815.67, down $12.11 from the closing price Monday of $827.78, then shot up to a peak of $835.08 in midmorning. Profit-taking brought the price down, but it climbed steadily in the afternoon because of rumors that the situation in the Middle East was deteriorating.

On Monday, the price hit a Hong Kong record of $838.78 an ounce.

In New York, gold prices soared to $875 a troy ounce Monday before slipping back by $50 or more in late trading.

Gold for January delivery reached a high of $875 on New York's Commodity Exchange Inc. before closing at $825.50, up $13.50 for the day.

At Republic National Bank of New York, gold was quoted late Monday afternoon at $820, up $22.

New York currency dealers said Carter's late-afternoon announcement that the United States "must pay whatever price is required to remain the strongest nation in the world" gave the dollar some support.

The dollar closed in Tokyo today at 240.35 yen, up from 240.175.

Morning dollar rates in Europe, compared to Monday's late rates:

Frankfurt—1.7316 West German marks, up from 1.7285.

Zurich—1.6010 Swiss francs, up from 1.5955.

Paris—4.0562 French francs, up from 4.0465.

Milan—806.37 Italian lire, up from 805.20.

Amsterdam—1.9110 Dutch guilders, up from 1.905.

In London it cost $2.2845 to buy a British pound, compared to $2.2829.

Losers outnumbered gainers by about a 4-3 margin in the broad tally of New York Stock Exchange-listed issues.

The price of gold and silver broke sharply today. Gold skidded to just above $700 ounce in late dealings in London, down from more than $800 an ounce 24 hours before, and silver prices also dropped by 10 percent or more.

Precious-metals stocks came under pressure as well. Dome Mines lost 2 1/4 to 56 1/4; Homestake Mining was off 3 1/4 to 56 1/4; ASARCO fell 2 1/4 to 40 1/4.

Eastman Kodak, a large owner of silver, climbed 3/4 to 48 1/4 in active trading. The stock has been in a steady decline as silver prices soared in recent months.

The NYSE's composite index lost 16 to 64.35. At the American Stock Exchange, the market value index was off 4.34 to 262.05.

Volume on the Big Board reached 25.05 million shares in the first two hours of trading.

City moves gold sword

SAN ANTONIO (AP)— The city's gold sword, a gift in 1975 from Saudi Arabian royalty, has been moved from a glass display case at City Hall into a vault for safekeeping because of the soaring price of gold and silver.

Shirley Thomas, aide to Mayor Lila Cockrell, said she moved the sword and a silver commemorative plate given by the city by Guadalajara, Mexico, because she feared the skyrocketing gold and silver prices would make the items more attractive to thieves.

"The display case they were in is not made to hold anything of extreme value. The last couple of weeks, it crossed my mind that those things have increased in value so much. I finally just decided to do it," said Ms. Thomas.

Ms. Thomas said the items will remain in the vault until locks can be added to the display case, which is in the building's main lobby.

The sword was stolen last year from the case but recovered two months later. The scabbard is gold, and the hilt of the sword is inlaid with gold.

No tax cut now, Carter tells public

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Carter says he isn't proposing a tax cut this year because it could worsen inflation, although he held out the possibility of a tax reduction later in the year if the economy goes into a nosedive.

"Restraining inflation remains my highest domestic priority," he said in his State of the Union message Monday. "The urgency of the anti-inflation fight requires that we defer such tax reductions at this time."

While a tax cut could be included in an anti-recession package if the economy suddenly deteriorates, Carter cast doubt on his own administration's forecasts that Americans are facing a recession.

Practically all economic forecasters "predict the onset of a mild recession" in 1980 and his own 1981 budget also assumes a recession, he said.

But he noted that the widespread predictions of a recession last year were wrong and said it would be a mistake to take one for granted.

"In recent months, the economy has displayed much more strength than earlier forecasts had predicted," Carter said. "Forecasts of impending recession may therefore prove to be as wrong as previous ones."

The president will send his proposed 1981 budget to Congress Monday. He will deliver his State of the Union address this Wednesday.

Carter said his budget will contain only a "critical few" new programs and will cut the budget deficit in half, while providing for a sharp increase in defense spending to ensure "a strong, unsurpassed defense capability" for the nation.

The president said he recognizes that many Americans' tax burden has increased. But he said a tax cut now would increase the budget deficit and could overstimulate the economy, which could worsen inflation.

Carter wants shifts among trust funds

WASHINGTON (AP)— President Carter is asking Congress to let the Social Security system borrow from Peter to pay Paul.

The president said Monday he will seek legislation to permit borrowing among the three separate Social Security trust funds—old age and survivors insurance, disability insurance and hospital insurance, commonly known as Medicare.

He announced the step in his written State of the Union message to Congress. It would allow Social Security to shift surplus cash from its disability reserves to cover deficits in the old age account.

The disability reserves grew by $1.4 billion in 1979 while the old age account shrank by $2.5 billion. Experts have warned the system could have trouble paying retirement benefits on time in 1984 and 1985 unless something is done.

After that, higher taxes are expected to start piling up surpluses for the old age fund and continue to build the fund for 25 years. Borrowing among the trust funds would tie the system over until the link in the old age account turns from red to black.

As a practical matter, the Medicare fund is not likely to be tapped since it also faces a possible deficit by the early 1990s.

The president said the 35 million Americans who get Social Security checks each month "can rely on doing so without fear of interruption."

Stone, 50, is on trial charged with the Halloween 1977 shotgun slaying of Roxanne Casas. Miss Casas was slain as she sat in a pickup that had pulled into Stone's driveway near Dimmitt in the Texas Panhandle.

Miss Trevino said a boy in the truck then pushed her from his lap to the floorboard and told her to stay there. She said she saw and heard nothing of note until they were back on the road. It was then that "we saw that Roxanne had been shot and we didn't know what to tell her parents," she testified. "There was just a bunch of blood coming off the right side of her head."

NFL Pro football PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — Here are the records broken or tied in Sunday's Super Bowl...

Anybody wanna play basketball?

MACKINAC ISLAND, Mich. (AP) — Many high schools across Michigan's vast Upper Peninsula are so remote that scheduling basketball games becomes a problem...

The island — on which motor vehicles are not allowed — is located in the Straits of Mackinac that separate the state's two peninsulas.

That not only forces the team to use various modes of transportation to cross the sometimes forbidding body of water, but also makes it difficult to convince opponents that it's safe to pay a return visit.

"In December we crossed the straits by boat, now we're flying out and if the ice hardens around February we'll probably go across by snowmobile," said Father Guy Thoren, basketball coach at Mackinac Island School.

"Travel gets to be quite expensive. Nothing is budgeted for athletics, so we've held a dance and a bake sale to raise money."

Basketball is an off-again, on-again proposition for the school, which educates the 101 kindergarten through 12th grade students in the island's 500-member, year-round community.

Thoren, pastor of St. Anne's Catholic Church, a recently-elected board of education member and an ardent sports fan, suggested the district again sponsor a team after not having done so for three years.

Getting players for the team was no problem, he said. Of the 14 in the high school level of the school, 12 are on the squad.

Robert Herrington, the Paradise principal and athletic director, said one reason his school faces scheduling hassles is that teams of comparable size don't particularly like to play in Paradise's tiny gymnasium where the floor measures only 35 feet by 50 feet.

Paradise began the season with only five games on the schedule. It has since grown to 14. Like Mackinac Island, the Rockets schedule weekend doubleheaders to cut down on transportation costs.

Though basketball is a tradition at Paradise, the team has never done all that well. Last year, the Rockets went 1-15. Under first-year Coach Duane Straubel, the team is 2-4 this season.

There are 100 students — kindergarten through 12th grade — at the Paradise school. At the high school level there are 42 students, 12 of whom are on the team.

Los Angeles attempts to lure Raiders to Coliseum

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Oakland Raiders Managing Partner Al Davis has been offered a substantial financial package including a $17 million loan with major tax breaks to move the franchise to the Memorial Coliseum, the Los Angeles Times reported in its Tuesday edition.

The Times said that according to officials of Mayor Tom Bradley's administration, $13 million of the financial package offered by the Coliseum Commission would be used by the Raiders to build luxury box seats, practice fields and other facilities.

The remaining $4 million would be given to the Raiders for "relocation expenses" to be used at the National Football League team's discretion, the Times said.

A major attraction of the deal is a provision giving the Raiders title to 99 luxury boxes in the Coliseum, along with the practice fields, office space, training and locker rooms and other facilities on the site of the 1982 Olympics swim stadium next to the Coliseum.

With the Raiders holding title, they could depreciate the worth of their contract with the Coliseum Commission, thus gaining a substantial tax write-off.

Officials of the Oakland Coliseum, trying to keep the Raiders in the city, have reportedly offered the team an $8 million package, enough to pay for 64 luxury boxes.

The Raiders management was reviewing both offers, trying to decide which is the better deal, according to Oakland sources quoted in the Times.

Super Bowl XXXV: a brand new ballgame

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — The country has dropped back to earth, clawing its way out of the hysteria, razz-ma-tazz and heady wine that marks the annual Super Bowl football game.

The pomp, pageantry and paralysis of Super Bowl Sunday — is it really, as they say, America's greatest one-day sports spectacle?

"Strictly bush, archaic, not in tune with the technological age," scoffs Bob Kap, a 56-year-old transplanted Yugoslavian. Yet, he sees football mushrooming into a multi-billion-dollar extravaganza that will give the sport global appeal.

Soccer, he insists, is decadent as a spectator attraction — "dry, dull and unintelligent" — whereas American football is "human drama, tactical, fast-paced and requiring the ultimate challenge of the mind and body."

But the game, he says, must move into the technological age. "Look at those silly chains on two sticks which are moved after every first down," he says. "They've haven't changed since Princeton was playing Rutgers nearly 100 years ago."

"And those goalposts sticking up in the air, just like they've been for decades. A 15-yard kick counts the same as one from 50 yards and it's one point whether you boot the ball over the middle or bounce it inside one of the poles."

Kap is a round, pockish little man who migrated to Lamar Hunt as general manager of the Dynamos hockey team and in recent years has been active in working with soccer style kickers in the NFL.

"They laughed at me when I predicted the conventional place-kicker would be passe," he says. "Now there are only two or three around."

A painter who often illustrates his ideas with murals, Kap says domed stadiums soon will become as obsolete as the straightaway kickers and millions of fans will have their football transmitted to them electronically in three-dimensional holograms.
