Bronte Water Plant Open House set

Bronte citizens are invited to visit the Water Treatment Plant in Bronte Saturday, October 24th from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 a.m. Visitors will be given the opportunity to view the recent improvements to the plant.

The original water treatment plant serving the City of Bronte was constructed in 1952 and consisted of a circular concrete sedimentation basin, a brick filter building housing two pressure filters, a concrete sump, and two vertical turbine pumps for direct transfer of clarified water through the filters and into the City's distribution system. Potable water continued to be pumped directly in the City's distribution as an integral part of the treatment process until 1961, when a 500,000 gallon concrete storage reservoir and two service pumps were added at the treatment plant site. Additional improvements were completed in 1977 with the installation of a third pressure filter.

The Bronte City Council, retained the consulting engineering firm of Jacob & Martin, Inc. to investigate alternatives for providing the City with a water treatment system meeting State standards. Jacob & Martin's proposal for providing high quality potable water at an economical cost called for the design and construction of improvements to the City's water treatment facilities consisting of a new 500 GPM upflow solids contact clarifier; rehabilitation of the three existing pressure filters for high rate, low head gravity flow use; construction of a new distrubition pump station housing dual 500 GPM pumps; and new electrical, control and chemical systems.

An innovative design feature is the inclusion of the "ClariCone" clarifier, which provides turbidity removal from the raw water. Bronte is the third city in the State of Texas to incorporate the "ClariCone" reactor clarifier, manufactured by the Walder Process Corporation, into the treatment process. The hydraulically powered "ClariCone"offers energy efficient clarification, reduced chemical costs, and the elimination of mechanical prob-

Bids were received in February 1987, and the project was awarded to the low bidder, Graves Plumbing, Heating and Air Conditioning, Inc. of Stanton, Texas. Construction cost of the new treatment facility was $225,000, a major part of over $510,000 in water system improvements made by the City of Bronte which also included a new raw water supply pipeline.

RL clean-up termed some improvement

Although response was not as good to the cleanup sponsored last week in Robert Lee by the West Coke County Community Development as they had hoped for, the city does show some improvement. According to A. L. Brasuell, 110 loads more than normal were hauled to the city dump. Doug Robertson assisted City Councilman Brasuell in hauling on Saturday.

Now they're even taxing trash!

The recent Texas legistature's decision on increasing revenue will be felt by Bronte citizens on their next water and trash collection bill, November 1, 1987. A provision included a 7% tax on trash collection, 6% state tax and 1% city tax.

The residential customers will see an increase on their bills of $.14 per month. Businesses will increase by $.18 per month. The cities income from this tax on trash collections will be an average of $ 7.66. The state will receive an estimated $ 45.96 per month.

This levy is part of House Bill #61 which increased the state sales tax from 5.25% to 6%. Add the 1% city sales tax and the total sales tax is 7%.

Union Texas makes $300 contribution

Union Texas Petroleum last week presented the East Coke County Ambulance Service with a check for $300. The contribution was of great help as the ambulance service is operated by donations. The charges for the ambulance runs do not come close to paying the cost of supplies, oxygen, etc., even though the personnel is strictly volunteer.

BRONTE'S WATER TREATMENT Plant --Recent updating has given it a new, modern look. Open House for the new facility will be October 24th, from 10:00 am until noon.

A very large crowd was on hand and enjoyed a special steak dinner.

"It's an honor to have the Millican brothers as officers, since the Pammy Landers Post 381 is named for their uncle, who served in World War I", said an American Legion spokesman. He added that it is also an honor to have Madeleine Thetford as a officer as she is the only female member of the Pammy Landers Post 381.

County represented

The Capitol Committee and the State Preservation Board are pleased to announce that Coke County will be represented among those etched on the Great Walk leading to the Texas State Capitol in Austin, thanks to the Coke County Commissioners Court.

The Texas Association of Counties is sponsoring a project to have all 254 Texas counties' names included in a special section of the walk.

Over the past several years, plans have been underway for the restoration of the State Capitol, which will celebrate its 100th anniversary on May 16, 1988. To complete the first phase of the restoration, the Capitol Committee has enlisted the support of all Texans to share in this historic restoration by means of "A Walk in History" project.

Years of continued use and weather have deteriorated the Capitol's walkways. These approaches to the Capitol will be restored using 28 inch concrete diamond-shaped pavers upon which will be etched the name of each contributor.

Completion of the "Walk in History" is scheduled prior to the May 16, 1988 centennial celebration of the Capitol's completion and dedication.

Anyone interested in participating should contact the Capitol Committee, 1507 West 6th, Austin, Texas 78703, 512/477-6499. Pavers are available on the Great Walk and the names of individuals, families, associations, clubs and businesses may be inscribed on the pavers.

BRONTE SCHOOL NEWS

Horns win H'coming over GC

Bronte won their homecoming game 20-14 over Garden City by an all out last chance drive with the winning TD coming with only 14 seconds left in the game.

The Longhorns stopped the Bearkats first drive and on a 4th and inches at their own 29, the Bearkats lined up in punt formation, but snapped the ball to the up back and tried for the 1st. However, they lost 9 yards and Bronte took the ball on the Garden City 20 yard line.

Quarterback Stephen Lee passed to Waylon Ensor for 10 yards and two running plays later Shannon Hoffman ran five yards for the TD. The PAT was missed and with 4:25 to go in the 1st quarter, Bronte led 6-0.

Garden City was unsuccessful at moving the ball against a tough fired up Bronte defense. Waylon Ensor owned his area of the field, knocking the ball out of receivers hands and punishing tackles made the Garden City receivers remember him.

Bronte struck again on a 75 yard drive. The big play was a 13 yard pass to Adam Minjarez which took the ball to the Garden City 17 yard line. Stephen Lee carried the ball over on the next play for a 17 yard TD run with 3:44 left in the half. Bronte led 12-0 again missing the extra point kick.

At halftime, Bronte cooled off and Garden City got hot.

On their 2nd possession, Garden City had a 39 yard pass to the 9 yard line and then ran in for the TD. The PAT was good and it was 12-7 with 3:00 minutes left in the 3rd. The Bearkats struck again early in the 4th on a 99 yard drive. The PAT was again good and GC led for the first time 14-12 with 8:47 to go in the game.

Bronte took the ball with 3:13 left in the game at their own 30 yd. line. After moving to the GC 46 the Bearkats intercepted a pass deep in their own territory and ran it back for an apparent TD. A clipping penalty saved the score for Bronte. Bronte had used up all their time outs. All GC had to do was run out the final 1:15. Instead they ran a sweep around their right end and went out of bounds stopping the clock at 1:08. With a 3rd and 13 at their own 45 yard line they threw a pass over the middle which was intercepted by Stephen Lee at the Bronte 30. He brought it back to the Bronte 48, but a penalty against Bronte took the ball back to the Bronte 31. With no time outs, Quarterback Stephen Lee threw three sideline passes to John Morrow who took the ball to the GC 20 yd. line with 32 seconds to go. One pass into the end zone was incomplete stopping the clock. Then with 20 sec. to go Lee lofted a pass into the right corner of the end zone where John Morrow went up over two GC defenders and caught the 20 yd. TD pass. Bronte ran the extra points for two and led 20-14 with 20 seconds to go. Garden City was able to run two more plays after the kick off, but time ran out with Bronte the winner.

Dogies last Thursday to open Bronte's '87 Homecoming weekend. During a hardfought, exciting game both the offense and defense played well. The Shorthorns had their chances to win, such as in the 1st quarter when a long drive died at the Dogie 10 yd. line. Then in the 4th quarter, an untimely fumble at the Robert Lee 5 yd. line probably cost another touchdown. Bronte thoroughly dominated the cross-county rivals in the second half. HB Luke Robbins again showed good quickness and toughness with several tacklebreaking second and third efforts, while HB Joe O'Malley contributed with the only touchdown of the day, scored on a beautiful run in the third quarter. QB Ray Seales' pass to Jason Blaylock for two points fell incomplete, leaving the game tied.

For the second week in a row Jason Cooper got Bronte out of a bad spot with a long pass reception caught in heavy traffic! That pass play which is a half-back pass option thrown by Robbins, is starting to work well for the Shorthorns. All of the offenthe defensive line, which was led by Gary and Randy Bilbrey, Jacob Golson and Jay Parker. Bronte's opponent apparently tried to steer clear of Jason Blaylock this week, after watching him make many tough tackles against Water Valley. Matt Mecke was again tops in number of tackles and had another very good day at middle linebacker. The Shorthorns were ably backed up in the secondary by Robbins, O'Malley, Cory Minton and George Eubanks.

Coach Rocky Rawls said the Jr. High team has continued to improve each week as is necessary to become a winning team. Rawls is assisted during games by Coach David Tandy. The large, en-

Steers top Irion County, 15-14

by Bill Burns

Robert Lee went against Irion Co. here last Friday night and came out on top. It wasn't an easy win for the Steers as the game ended with a score of 15-14. Both teams had eleven first downs; RL had 150 yards total offense; Irion Co. had 155 yards total offense. Both teams punted seven times with Wes Hood outdoing their punter with a 35-yard average to their 30yard average. Wes doesn't get much playing time as he has been hampered with injuries all year. He has kept a good average in punting, though, and has helped the team out of some tight spots. One area in which we did not shine was the penalty category. We had 6 for 50 yards; they had none. The Steers made up for that bad start with a good one -- three interceptions.

1st Quarter

Irion Co. won the toss and received the opening kick-off. The Steer defense held and Irion Co. had to punt. RL could not get a handle on the punt and Irion Co. got the ball back in good field position. Irion Co. went for it all with a pass in the end zone that was tipped by Stevie Ebenstein and intercepted by Robert Runnion. RL then had to punt, and Irion Co. made a good drive, but as they neared the goal, Jason Herring intercepted a pass to stop the drive. Irion Co. scored with 4:16 left. The kick was good, and it was RL 0 -- Irion Co. 7. Robert Lee came back and scored on a 21 yard pass from Runnion to Ebenstein. Ebenstein kicked the PAT, and the quarter ended RL 7 --

2nd Quarter

IC 7.

The period as all defense from both teams as neither team could manage to score.

3rd Quarter

The 3rd Quarter had some bright spots for RL, but the brightest was probably Bill Griggs' efforts. Bill had 44 yards and a 7.33 average in this quarter of play. The total offense was in favor of IC, though, as they scored seven more points. The quarter ended IC 14 -- RL 7.

4th Quarter

It was all RL from here on out as Irion Co. couldn't get anything going their way. RL scored on a 36 yard pass from Runnion to Joel Herring. A Runnion pass to Jason Herring made it RL 15 -- IC 14. Other bright spots were a fumble recovery by Kelly Tomlinson and a game-ending interception by Ebenstein. Congratulations, Steers.

The Steers are open this week. Next week they will go to Menard; so you fans get some rest and be ready to go and support the Steers.

Those who attended the Senior Citizens Dance in Robert Lee last Thursday evening were surprised and pleased to see Red Anderson of San Angelo there. He accompanied his niece, Mildred Crabtree, to the gathering. In ill health for several months in a San Angelo nursing home, Red had been a regular at the monthly dances for about 2 1/2 years. He was a Silver resident for most of his life before he moved to San Angelo. Friends were glad to see he is feeling better and has returned to live at home.

Dogies, Shorthorns battle to 6-6 tie

The Robert Lee Dogies and Bronte Shorthorns battled to a 6-6 tie in Bronte last Thursday evening.

Scoring for Robert Lee was Danny Jackson on a 5 yd. run. Extra point try was no good. "The Dogie defense put on two very good goal-line stands and should be commended for the way they played defense," commented Coach Max Anthony.

Thursday, Oct. 22, will see the Dogies battle the Sterling City Eaglettes on the road at 6 p.m.

BHS drug program

Mr. Tom Watson, project director for the Council on Alcohol & Drug Abuse for Coke County gave a two-day program at Bronte High School on Oct. 15 & 16.

This program was a coordinated effort with Principal Johnson, Mrs. Buxkemper, Mrs. Ensor and Mrs. Taylor making the arrangements for classes, times and classrooms.

The students involved were the sixth grade and 6 grade through 10 grade science classes. Approximately 150 students were involved.

Mr. Watson showed film and slides on physical and mental aspects of alcohol and other drugs and how students could be involved with peer pressure from friends. He described the hereditary factor in addiction to alcohol and stated it was the #1 killer of our youth from age 15 to 19.

Question and answer sessions were held and classes were very orderly and attentive. Some films shown made students stop and think about their minds and bodies and whether to have clear minds or minds and bodies ruined by drug use. Another program will be presented before Christmas holidays.

IMITATION CHEESES COMMON IN FROZEN MEAT PIZZA -- Almost three-fourths of frozen pizzas with meat contain imitation cheese, says Dr. Alice Hunt, a Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service nutritionist. "Under current U.S. Dept. of Ag guidelines, frozen meat pizzas may contain up to 90 percent imitation cheese without this fact having to be labeled on the front," she says. "As long as the pizza with imitation cheese tastes good, many consumers may not mind the substitution," Hunt notes. "However, for people who are trying to reduce their sodium intake, pizza with imitation cheese may not be the best choice," she adds. The nutritionist explains that imitation cheeses are usually made from milk protein with vegetable fat or soybean oil, and generally contain twice as much sodium as real cheeses. Consumers can determine if a frozen meat pizza contains imitation cheese by finding and reading the ingredients list on the package, says Hunt.

New Glasses Are Lighter, Protect Light Sensitive Eyes Do your glasses weigh you down

If you wear a strong lens prescription, you may soon be able to see the last of heavy lenses. A material known as high index glass reduces thickness and weight in strong eyewear prescriptions, creating thinner, more comfortable eyewear for millions of Americans.

A new kind of glass lens protects the eyes of lightsensitive patients.

Another recent development in lens technology is a new kind of protective glass lens for Americans with problems of light sensitivity.

Studies suggest ultraviolet (U/V) radiation can damage the eye, especially in people with existing visual disorders. People with cataracts or those who use certain medications, including diuretics, tranquilizers and oral contraceptives are most at risk. According to experts at the Glass Lens Council, people can protect their eyes from U/V radiation with glass lenses that absorb up to 98.5 percent of U/V rays in the critical 320-400 nanometer range. They help light-sensitive folks look forward to more visual comfort and better protection.

Looking back 200 years it is all too easy to see the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia as one of calm reflection and wisdom as our Founding Fathers wrote the document that created the American republic. The men who met there are justly honored for their achievement. But what they accomplished only came after weeks of angry, passionate debate.

The most divisive argument among the delegates at the Constitutional Convention 200 years ago was the question of proportional representation in congress. Delegates from the large states, led by James Madison of Virginia, were determined that population should dictate how many members each state could elect to the new congress. The small states were just as determined that each state should have an equal voice in congress. Both sides feared Large states, such as Virginia and Pennsylvania, were supported by the Southern delegates. Although South Carolina and Georgia had small populations, they expected dramatic growth as settlers moved into their vast western territories.

The argument nearly ended the effort at a national constitution. The large states threatened to form their own, separate union. A delegate from a small state countered with an ominous statement: "Sooner than be ruined, there are foreign powers who will take us by the hand."

Madison and the big state coalition won proportional representation for what became the House of Representatives. Dominant in the convention, they also won preliminary votes on the question of the Senate. The day for the key vote arrived, however, and several Madison supporters were absent.

The roll was taken and the vote tied with only one delegate remaining to vote. Abraham Baldwin of Georgia would decide the issue. In the past, he had supported Madison but he realized that a stubborn insistence on his own preference would bring disaster. Small state delegates were prepared to walk out. One more "victory" for his side would end the convention and any hope for a constitution.

Standing up to immense pressure, Baldwin voted with the small states and the convention was saved. Threats and demands from both sides were put aside. A compromise resulted whereby each state, regardless of size, would have two seats in the Senate.

There were many heroes in Philadelphia 200 years ago. But for that one critical moment, none was more important than Abraham Baldwin, a man with the vision to see the importance of compromise to America.

This is one of a series of columns celebrating the 200th anniversary of the U.S. Constitution.

HOMECOMING QUEEN KAREN Smith and King Randy Gartman were crowned during the Miles/Steer half-time in Robert Lee Oct. 2. Karen's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Red Smith. Randy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gartman.

Ray presents program

Twenty-one members and eight guests of the '64 Study Club enjoyed a very informative, but chilling, account of Saudi Arabia presented by Dr. Phil Ray. Introduced by Thelma Jo Hinnard, Dr. Ray began his talk with a short geneology background. Calling the Middle East the "hub-bub of the world" because of the importance of the oil resources, as well as the influence in architecture and other cultural contributions, Dr. Ray assured the women they would be safe in that country because of the harsh punishment for crimes.

Taking pictures in public is forbidden. Dr. Ray, who practiced in Saudi Arabia for 6 weeks, was impressed with the large turn-out of Christians for worship under less than ideal circumstances. The meeting place was in a school with police watching from outside. He reported that one of the worst things he had to do was to relinquish his passport as he entered the country. To highlight his speech, Dr. Ray modeled a prayer cap and a thob - a white cotton robe worn by the men-- and explained the practicality of the clothing.

Hostesses Dell Parker, Irene Newell, and Vivian Jacobs had arranged the serving tables with pale orange candles and napkins with a Halloween motif. The orange sherbet punch was an excellent accompaniment to the trays of fresh tropical fruit which were arranged in a circular pattern amid an assortment of cheese, nuts, and delicious cream cheese/nut bread sandwiches

The business meeting was the last item on the agenda; Secretary Nancy Allen read thank-you notes from various organizations. President Coe Lewis and Mrs. Lucile Bryan invited other members to join them in a district meeting in Llano Saturday, Nov. 17th.

After discussion concerning the nursing home and Christmas parties, the club adjourned.

Fish Oil: A Cure in a Capsule?

Americans are accustomed to taking a pill or capsule for almost everything that ails them, so it's small wonder they would expect a miracle drug for lowering their risk of coronary heart disease. After all, it's easier to swallow a capsule than to change a lifetime of poor health habits.

Public attention has been focused on fish and fish oil in the diet based on observations that populations regularly eating fish have lower rates of heart disease. For example, Greenland Eskimos eat a lot of fish and have a low incidence of heart disease. But they don't smoke, and there is a low incidence of high blood pressure among that group of people. Smoking and high blood pressure are considered hemorrhaging. Sometimes this effect to be well-established risk factors for coronary heart disease along with high blood cholesterol.

Considering current information, the health benefit of fish oil has not been proven. There are some benefits that may come from the fat content of fish. However, there are some potentially harmful side effects if large amounts of fish oil are taken

Fish are particularly rich in omega-3 fatty acids, a form of polyunsaturated fat that is chemically different from the omega-6 fatty acids found in vegetable oils. Polyunsaturated fats lower blood cholesterol levels, helping reduce a major risk factor for heart disease.

Although omega-3 fatty acids lower blood levels of triglycerides, another form of blood fat, their effect on the blood fats more closely associated with atherosclerotic heart disease is not clearly established.

Fish oils interfere with the ability of blood to clot and to form protection against prolonged bleeding, or can be useful, but it can also be harmful. Excessive bleeding is a potential risk when large amounts of fish oil are taken into the body.

The American Heart Association recommends the regular consumption of fish, but does not recommend taking fish oil capsules as a dietary supplement. The AHA dietary guidelines for healthy American adults suggests people need no more than 5-7 ounces of fish, poultry or lean meat per day. Fish or chicken should be used in most main meals as a way of controlling the amount and kind of fat in the diet. The use of shrimp, lobster or sardines should be limited to no more than one serving of one of these per week because of their high cholesterol content.

Fish oil is not a cure in a capsule for coronary heart disease. Research will provide the answers in time, but for now, Americans will have to take a dose of a healthy lifestyle to decrease their risks of heart disease

American Academy of Pediatrics YOUTH FITNESS: THE MYTHS AND THE FACTS

Helpful Advice from the

Young Health

The American Academy of Pedia-trics (AAP) is calling for more FACT: Fitness involves more than physical education programs in schools—those that stress lifetime fitness activities--and greater family involvement in fitness at home. The AAP corrects some common myths about youth fitness:

MYTH: Children Are Fit.

FACT: In many ways, children are less fit and more flabby today than in the 60s. Studies show that up to 50 percent of children are not getting enough exercise to develop healthy hearts and lungs.

MYTH: If Children Exercise Occasionally, That's Enough.

FACT: According to the AAP, the best all-around fitness activities should: be done at least three times a week; continue without breaks for 20 to 25 minutes; increase the heart rate a significant amount, depending on the child's age.

MYTH: P.E. Is Unnecessary. Academics Is What Counts.

FACT: Healthy children learn better. Research continues to support the role of physical fitness in promoting physical health, improved work capacity and energy.

MYTH: Most Students Pass Standard School Fitness Tests.

FACT: Each year, 18 million school children take the Presidential Fitness Test—a series of exercises to measure strength, flexibility and endurance. Only two percent of students who took the "President's Challenge" in 1984 received the award.

FACT: Fitness involves more than the skills and strength needed to be a good athlete. A body builder may look fit says the AAP, but he has built only muscle strength and could lack in other components of fitness. The AAP defines fitness to include: muscle strength and endurance, flexibility, body fat composition and cardiorespiratory endurance.

MYTH: Sports Make Kids Fit.

FACT: Sports that stress speed, power and agility—foot-ball, basketball, and baseballgames of skill. They do not necessarily promote fitness. Parents and schools should introduce children to a vari-ety of "lifetime" activities (those that can be carried into adulthood), such as bicycling, swimming, running, fast walking, aerobics and tennis.

MYTH: All Schools Require Students To Take P.E. Class.

FACT: There is no federal law mandating physical education in schools. Public schools in eight states—Arizona, Colorado, Maine, Michigan, Missisppi, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Wyoming—have no state established time requirements for physical education. The AAP recommends that school P.E. classes be held at least three times a week.

MYTHS ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH AND AGING --

Old age isn't a mental illness. Yet, if you believe many of the common myths about aging, it would certainly appear to be so. "Accepting a stereotype of generally poor mental health among the elderly often causes us to deal ineffectively with elderly parents and family members we care about," says Dr. Judith Warren, a gerontology specialist. She says one of the greatest myths is that the incidence of serious mental illness increases with age. "It's true that if you count the number of adults who are mentally ill and grow old, the rates of mental disorders will rise steadily and peak in the oldest age group," notes Warren. "However, when the one-year rates of new episodes of mental illness are counted, the rates are lowest after age 65." In other words, a mentally healthy adult is likely to be a mentally healthy elder, and nothing about aging itself leads to serious mental illness, she emphasizes.

Mailbox vandalism

Through rain, sleet, snow, or dead of night the U.S. Mail gets delivered to postal customers across the nation. The elements of nature don't stop letter carriers from getting the mail into a customer's mailbox, but sometimes mailbox vandalism does.

Mailbox vandalism comes in a variety of shapes and sizes from the placement of objects inside the mailbox to the actual theft or destruction of the mail receptacle. Letter carriers and customers have reported finding bottles, snakes, snails, food, trash, and even small animals inside their mailboxes. These items are usually easily removed and do not disrupt the delivery of mail. On the other hand, firecrackers, shotgun pellets, baseball bats, rocks, and even an occasional pickup truck usually do enough damage to cause an interruption in mail service until the box is repaired or replaced. Beyond the damage to the boxes, which costs the postal customer time and money to repair or replace, mailbox vandalism sometimes causes the loss or destruction of valuable and important mail.

The best way to prevent the destruction and vandalism of mailboxes is through education. International Trade Can Mean More Business American jobs and growth for United States companies is increasingly tied to international trade. In recent years exporting has accounted for 79 percent of all new manufacturing jobs in the U.S. As a means of reaching the important world market, more and more American firms are using the international trade fair.

In Dusseldorf, West Germany, for example, home of one of the world's largest fairground facilities more than 15,000 exhibitors and 1.5 million visitors attended 30 shows last year. These figures surpassed the record highs set the previous year.

Unlike trade fairs in the United States, international shows are heavily sales oriented. Some participants report writing up to 50 percent of their annual sales at one fair. For American businessmen, the international trade show can mean cutting entry time into exporting from six years to six months. An American exhibitor who took part in one industrial show in Dusseldorf, says attending put him on the "international trading map."
