High School and Junior High Girls Organize for Volunteer Hospital Work

The NIBS, Nurses In Bobby Sox, are completing initial training and will begin duty at the Haskell County Hospital on Monday morning, announces Mrs. W. F. Trice, county school nurse. The NIBS is a new organization for Haskell. It is composed of High School and Junior High students who have volunteered their time to assist in the work at the hospital. Among their duties will be bed-making, serving trays, folding and putting away linens, making tray favors and other articles. Although doing no work in the medical sense, they will relieve nurses for more essential duty. They will be on duty during the summer, after school and in emergencies. A film, "Jugs," was shown to the trainees at 1:45 p. m. Monday in the visual aids room of Haskell High School. A group similar to the NIBS, the "Jugs" is a group of school girls in Akron, Colo., who were among the first to become actively engaged in this work. Discussed Monday were the uniforms the NIBS will wear. They are tentatively planned to be blue and white in the jumper style. The girls are: Gail Ratliff, Barbara Elliott, Martha Jane Bynum, Freddie Gilliam, Barbara Koerner, Amy Cook, Brenda Faulkner, Tinka Greer, Sara Lees, Suzanne Lane, Jan Herren, Twyla Hipp, and Janice Hattox. The Progressive Study Club is sponsoring the group. The members of the Study Club Committee are: Mrs. Bob Herren, chairman; Mrs. Willie Johnston, R. A. Lane, Jack Pippin, and Miss Charlene White. Native of Turkey Will Study Soil Methods Here

A soil classification survey now being made in Haskell County by Irvin Mowery, soil scientist with the SCS, has attracted the attention of a young Turkish student in Texas A&M College, who is majoring in soil use and management. He is Memet Akdogon of Istanbul, Turkey, a second year student at A&M, who will spend the summer here working with Mowery in learning more of the science of soil study and its relation to soil management. Akdogon will resume his studies at A&M next fall. The soil classification survey now underway in Haskell County is the only one being conducted in the state at the present time, Mowery said. In completing the survey, which was started last fall, Mowery will check the terrain and soil types over the entire area of Haskell County. The information and material collected in the survey will be classified and eventually published by the SCS for use in improving soil use and management practices.

Planting of 3,500 Acres of Peas in County Indicated

In order to determine whether growing of blackeyed peas on a commercial scale is profitable in Haskell County, at least 3,500 acres will be planted in peas in the next few weeks. This was indicated by the purchase of planting seed by area farmers during the past two weeks, reports A. T. Ballard, manager of Market Poultry & Egg Company here. A program designed to secure a trial planting of at least 2,000 acres in peas was announced two weeks ago, and since then orders for the planting seed have exceeded the initial supply. County Agent F. W. Martin, who says that the peas can be profitably grown on cotton land, believes that the acreage of 3,500 acres in prospect in the Haskell area should determine the income possibilities of the crop in this section. Yield of peas under normal conditions runs from 600 to 1,600 pounds per acre and last year's crop brought from $6 to $7 per 100 pounds. The peas require very little cultivation, and have proven to be one of the best soil building legumes for this section. Ballard has announced that his company would establish a market for all peas produced from seed sold by his concern. He also explained that harvesting of the matured crop can be done with a grain combine. If the crop proves profitable here, it is believed that a market for the fresh peas can be established here. This would provide income from the crop in two stages, with the market for fresh peas opening in late June or early July.

Funeral service for Felix Frierson, 73, prominent retired farmer of this city, was held at 3 p. m. Friday in the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Frierson, in ill health for some time, died Thursday morning in the Haskell hospital. Dr. R. K. McCall, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, officiated for the rites. Burial was in Willow Cemetery under direction of Holden Funeral Home. Mr. Frierson moved to Haskell County in 1908, a year after he was married to the former Lois McBurnett at Lila. He was born at Rockdale Dec. 24, 1863. He was an elder in the First Presbyterian Church. Mr. Frierson was preceded in death by his wife, one son and one daughter. Surviving are two sons, F. E. and A. D. Frierson, both of Haskell; three daughters, Mrs. Geo. F. Holloway of Sudan, Mrs. Gene Campbell and Mrs. W. C. Steege, both of Haskell; one brother, Calvin Frierson of Haskell; four sisters, Mrs. Loyal Cameron of Haskell, Mrs. Bailey Evans of Pecos, Mrs. Tom Harvins and Mrs. Riley Lewallen, both of Brownwood; and eight grandchildren.

Also, there will be competition in cutting horse classes for both Quarter Horses and Palominos in senior and junior divisions. These events will not compete for show awards, and will be on a jackpot basis. Dr. T. W. Williams is superintendent of the show, which is sponsored by the Haskell Saddle Tramps. Other members of the horse show committee are Gene Hunter, Myron Biard, Buster Shelton, Jetty V. Clare, Fred Gilliam. No admission will be charged for the show events and the public is invited to attend both afternoon and night performances Friday and Saturday.

Rice Springs Roundup Financial Success, Contestants Paid $2,179 in Cash Prizes

Contestants in this year's Rice Springs Roundup were paid $2,179.35 in cash prizes, according to the detailed report of activities and financial statement of the 1936 show made at a meeting of Saddle Tramp officers and directors Friday. In addition to the cash prizes, several awards with a value of several hundred dollars went to winning individuals and groups. These included a showman's saddle for the champion roping, and the Old Timer's Calf Roping, and trophies for the top three riding clubs taking part in the opening day parade. The 1936 Roundup returned a net profit of $1,305.48 after all expenses of the show were deducted, the report revealed. Gross receipts were $7,845.39, and total expenses amounted to $6,539.91. Largest source of income was gate receipts $3,264.29, and entry fees $3,245.01, with concessions and other miscellaneous receipts amounting to $789.00. Freak Windstorm Causes Damage in Rule Sunday

Freakish winds hit Rule about 5:30 Sunday, causing damage to a four block section of the town. Damaged were a cotton oil mill, a compress roof and a column. No injuries were reported and the late afternoon hail and windstorm appeared to have struck only the far side of town. Only a sprinkling of rain fell in the sections of town escaping the full blasts of the storm. Accompanied by hail and rain, the windstorm hit the Rule section of town about 5:30 p. m. Approximately ten minutes later the wind shifted to the north and a heavy rain fell from 8:00 p. m. to 10:00 p. m.

OUT ON A LIMB

By CHARLENE WHITE

Mr. and Mrs. Jetty Clare were interested spectators at Waco when President Eisenhower spoke at the Baylor University commencement exercises. Mrs. Clare also had a close-up of the president when he was trying to cross the street when President Eisenhower and his entourage drove by. "Felt like I should have thrown a rose, a brickbat or something."

We hear that Tom Barfield decided recently to go on a diet. He got out his summer shoes and tried them on. Too small. So he got hold of a high protein diet and fasted for a week before he remembered. Last fall when he put the shoe trees in his shoes they weren't quite long enough so he stuffed the toes. That, needless to say, was the last of the diet.

A memo was stuck in our typewriter one day last week while we were out scouring the town for news. It is, reputedly a joke. "They found it necessary to fence the cemetery," cause so many people are just dying to get in." The author refuses to come forward and be recognized and can't say we blame him.

Mrs. Dan Collier recently told us of a letter from her husband, Col. Collier, who is stationed in Erzurum, Turkey. In a letter written May 20, Col. Collier told of driving between snow drifts lowering 20 feet high. Col. Collier goes out on inspection tours lasting two weeks and as he, his driver and interpreter aren't too fond of Turkish food they generally take their own. One day they were coming down a particularly steep mountain, even for that mountainous country, with Col. Collier at the wheel of the jeep. He tried the brakes and found to his horror that they weren't working. He gunned the motor, put the jeep in reverse and turned the switch which stopped the car. He started thinking of the items in the food supply. It appears that for hydraulic brakes the fluid consists of vegetable oil and alcohol. So he got out the olive oil salad dressing, poured it into the brake drum, and as Jackie Gleason would say, away, we go!

This is a story we heard happened in Quanah. Two men were driving away from the curb in town when a bullet suddenly whizzed through the windshield. A third man walked over to the men, who for obvious reasons, now were crunched on the floorboards. "Oh, pardon me, I thought you were someone else." S'possible.

The Hoy Harrells are taking another trip, this time to Canada. They aren't planning to leave until July, but Hoy's the anxious type. He's already trying to get the wife to start packing.

Our landlord is as honest as the day is long. But accidents will happen. Even we'll admit that. Mr. Landford was out running his trotline 'bout a week ago, when, well, whaddayaknow! It wasn't his trotline, after all. He had already caught a fish and he couldn't stand to throw it back. On the other hand, he couldn't eat a stolen fish either, albeit stolen unintentionally. So he did the only honorable thing. He cooked it and gave it to the neighbor.

MRS. GENE OVERTON

I never saw people any busier. There's cotton to plant and grain to cut, and wheat land to break all at once. But it is so fine to have enough moisture to plant that nobody is complaining. In fact everybody is so glad to be able to work in the fields, that even the machinery breakdowns seem minor troubles. And goodness knows when farm machinery breaks down parts are sure hard to find, and when you find them, you can't afford them. We have had to go to Wichita Falls for some parts, and Vernon for others, and Anson for others. But there's something about harvest time that makes it the best time on the farm, whether it's wheat, or cotton harvest. There's that good feeling of having raised a crop, and gathering it, and taking it to town keeps everybody so busy, and hungry, and dirty, and tired, and happy that it just makes us glad we farm even if we don't make any money doing it.

Some of the wheat that didn't get hail is surprisingly good. There is a patch over by the lake that Howard Montgomery farms and someone said it was making 18 bushels. Gene lost a little more than half of his in the hail, and he is averaging about 5 bushels. But he hasn't cut the best wheat yet, and it was the most damaged. There will be about a third of it to cut. Allen Isbell had a fair yield on his.

A. P. Williams, Rudy Raughton and Buddy Russell spent last week vacationing in Colorado. They visited all the scenic vacation spots between here and Denver, and fished, and rested. As they were unloading the car when they got home Buddy dropped a piece of iron on his foot, and nearly ruined it. He will have to stay home from his job and school in Abilene another week until his foot is better.

Mr. and Mrs. John Carlos Montgomery and son John Paul returned home from school at A&M for the summer. Pat and John Paul will remain here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Smith, and Carlos' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Montgomery, while Carlos goes to summer camp at Camp Gordon, Ga.

Willie Lee Medford, Dan Riley Griffith and Arvie Bergstrom came home Friday from Alpine where they attended the FFA Area meeting last week. Arvie won second in the Public Speaking contest in Area competition. The president of District 3 (our district) Pete Baker of Anson was elected Area President.

Mr. and Mrs. Durward Livengood and children spent the week end in Kaufman visiting his mother, Mrs. Beatrice Livengood and his sister and her family. Mrs. Livengood came home with them for a visit.

Mrs. and Mrs. James Marie Raughton and daughter, Jean Ann are home for the summer from their school in Eola.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. LaFevre and Elizabeth were guests Wednesday in the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dan LaFevre.

Mrs. E. C. Smith spent Saturday afternoon with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Eldon Thane and son Larry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Howard of Texline are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Terrell at the Pardue Ranch before they travel to Abilene where Mr. Howard will finish the work for his Master's degree this summer.

Recent visitors in the community that I forgot to write about were Stanley and Judy Adcock from Crowell who spent the week with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Livengood while their parents, Rev. and Mrs. Grady Adcock were at Big Spring attending the annual Methodist Conference. The family was returned to the Crowell church for another year.

The Adult Class in the school's Homemaking department will finish their work this coming Thursday when they will display or wear the garments or pillows or bonnets they have made. Miss Clements has been supervising this class, and there have been several interesting demonstrations given during the month's work on making sleeves, idea for good summer drinks, salads, and other summer foods, and several have made dresses and blouses and shirts. There were ten adults registered in the class.

Miss Magdalene Clements spent the Memorial Day holidays with her family in Hastings, Okla.

Polly Tipton had surgery for ingrowing toe nails that required an hour and a half in the operating room. She went home right after the surgery, but it will be a month or two before her toes are well. She plans to be a nurse and her doctor advised the surgery so she would be able to be on her feet.

Mrs. and Mrs. Lennis Jones of Rule were Sunday guests in the home of their daughter's family, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Overton and sons.

SO NICE FOR ICE!

'57 Servel gas iceserver refrigerator

with exclusive 10-year guarantee

IT'S SWITCHCRAFT — that's what it is!

You'll see when you try Buick's new Variable Pitch Dynaflo!

IT TAKES a new word to describe the magic at your command when you drive a '56 Buick — with the newest transmission of them all.

It's full power go-ahead on the instant. You can get where you were just looking in a shaved second's time — with the most modern and most thrilling surge of safety acceleration in the land today.

It's smoothness, too. Complete freedom from the "bump" and lag of gears shifting. Only with Dynaflo can you go winging away with so smooth a sweep.

And only with a '56 Buick can you enjoy Dynaflo's newest marvel. It's something the engineers call "double regeneration." Lets you start off like an Olympic sprinter, with the pedal pressed just an inch or less. (And driving that way, you get better gas mileage.)

There's more big news, too, that goes with this new Buick magic. And that covers a lot more than styling.

Sure — you'll like the graceful new beauty of the V-shaped prow and sweep-ahead look. And you'll like the extra room inside.

But as you drive you'll find that this Buick responds with the new might of a big, record-powered V8 engine of 322-cubic-inch heft.

It handles easy as butter to a warm knife. Tracks the curves like a plane on the beam. Makes any road seem paved with pillows.

And what's responsible for all this are more new engineering advances than Buick has ever made in one model year.

So why not come in and see — and feel — the difference they make? You'll soon know why owners find it's the best Buick yet — and the best buy yet, by far.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Book by Stamford Woman Deals with Area Pioneers

Of interest to Haskell residents and those of surrounding area is the new book published recently by the American Guild Press of Dallas, "The Pioneer Life" written by Annie Vaughn Clary, of Stamford.

The book is a history of this section of Texas and includes the life of Mrs. Clary written against the background of the old days as well as the exploits of the cowboys and cattlemen with whom she was associated.

In the preface, Mrs. Clary says, "In those days there were no fences except what was called stack and rider fences around small farms. Part of the cattle was wild and unbranded. The grass was fine and there was no trouble except sometimes the settlers and cowboys were killed and scalped by the Comanche Indians."

Included in the book are the names of many local residents who had a part in the shaping of Mrs. Clary's life. About them she says, "This work would not be complete without an expression of gratitude to many true helpful friends, whom it has been my privilege to know and be associated with."

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Brown and Mrs. Carl Anderson and sons, Darel and Tom spent last week end in Shawnee, Okla., where they visited Mrs. Anderson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Groves. The Haskell people also visited in Ada, Okla., while away.

Mr. and Mrs. Mack Matthews, Tommy and Jan spent the week end in Gustine visiting with their mothers, Mrs. Tom Matthews and Mrs. Lee Turnbow.

Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Rainey of Weinert visited with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hill of Abilene.

Haskell Men Kill Huge Rattlesnake Near Sweetwater

A huge diamondback rattlesnake, measuring six feet four inches in length, was killed by Leroy Isbell of this city and a companion, J. P. Drake, one day last week.

The diamondback, Isbell declared, was the largest he had ever seen. He and Drake were working near Sweetwater when they came across the monster reptile near a tank on the Daventport Ranch.

Isbell said one surprising thing about the encounter was that the diamondback didn't "rattle" nor attempt to strike as the two men approached within a few feet before discovering the snake.

The reptile measured nine and one-fourth inches in circumference, and had 14 rattles. Isbell believes a number of rattles had been broken off. The men counted 26 diamonds and nine spots on the skin of the monster snake.

Isbell removed the snake's head, placed it in a glass jar, and was exhibiting the fearsome looking "trophy" around town last weekend.

Marine Home from Japan is Weekend Visitor Here

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Edwards had as visitors in their home during the weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones and children Marilyn and Marine Cpl. J. V. Jones of Plainview. They also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roberts and other relatives and friends here.

Cpl. Jones had just recently returned from 14 months duty with the Third Marine Division in Japan and Pacific outposts. He brought with him several souvenirs picked up on his foreign tour.

One of the most striking objects was a milk-white coral formation resembling a petrified twig or limb from a small tree. Cpl. Jones found the curious object near the top of famed Mt. Surabachi on Iwo Jima, immortalized by the heroic achievements of Marines on planting the U. S. flag on its summit.

The Third Marine Division in which Cpl. Jones was serving held extensive maneuvers on Iwo Jima, including a "mock" invasion landing of U. S. fighting men. Other souvenirs brought back by Cpl. Jones included shells and other objects from Okinawa, Japan, and other countries.

Scott Memorial Park Rapidly Developing Into Popular Recreation Spot of Area

By CHARLENE WHITE

Scott Memorial Park 12 miles southeast of Haskell has become widely known as one of the most popular recreation spots in this section of the State. The park, now entering its third season, is attracting hundreds of visitors each weekend, from points as distant as New Mexico and Oklahoma.

The park is located adjacent to Lake Stamford, a municipal water source developed by that city by building a dam across Paint Creek, one of this section's best known streams.

In addition to the recreational facilities provided the people of this section, the park has been a distinct asset to Haskell business concerns, a spot check with local retail concerns shows.

Vacationers and fishing parties have provided additional business for local service stations, sporting goods stores, motels, drug stores and grocers.

"People from Lubbock, towns on the South Plains, and from New Mexico have been in to buy provisions before going to the lake," Buster Gholson, manager of Gholson's Grocery, commented. "Some even come during the winter, and it's really year round business. It's the best fishing place close to the Plains," he added.

Hill Gates, owner of Oates Drug Store, said his store had noted increased sales of vacation items since the park was opened, and he attributes some of this business directly to the park and lake. "They purchase bathing caps, suntan lotions, and other swimming equipment," Oates said.

Jay Weaver of White Auto Store, said the park and lake had been a boon to his line of business. "It has helped our business," Weaver declared. "Business is down some from its peak last year. There are still lots of people coming from the Plains, but they formerly came in droves. However, we have done considerably more business than we would have without the lake. Glad it's there," he concluded.

Cecil Gregory, owner of Piggy Wilgily, another Haskell grocer who considers the park and lake beneficial to business, said "During the summer the lake accounts for a part of our business volume. I would say it is an asset to the town as a whole."

In addition to downtown retail business, the many visitors attracted to the park and lake account for a major share of the business volume of a number of smaller concerns established along the highway leading to the park.

Others benefiting directly from tourist trade are the several fishing camps located in the park area. These include Veda's, Earl's, Cobb and Shaw's Camps. Excellent fishing in the lake has resulted in many parties returning week after week, camp operators report. Majority of the out-of-town fishermen are from the South Plains and all are ardent boosters of the new lake as a "fisherman's paradise."

Scott Memorial Park includes 52 1/2 acres donated to Haskell County by the family of the late S. W. Scott. The entire tract is dedicated to the free use of the public, regardless of place of residence.

Since the tract was donated, Haskell County has expended more than $20,000 in permanent improvements at the park. Major items include the building of a boat landing dock and a combination residence and store building for the Park Superintendent.

Also, grounds have been cleared, barbecues pits, tables etc., have been built throughout the grounds, and a tree and shrubbery planting program has been started.

Lights have been installed in the picnic area of the park, for the convenience of visitors at night. Roads have been graded throughout the area, and additional sections of the tract will be cleared when needed.

Campers and picnickers have free access to all facilities of the park, and may set up camp and stay as long as they desire.

Park Superintendent Alton Middleton, who operates a general supply store in the park building, has also erected several rental cabins which are available to visitors. Middleton also operates a boat and motor rental service for the convenience of park visitors.

D. Joseph Moves Store to New Location

National Outlet store has moved its location from the east side of the square to the building on the west side formerly occupied by the Re-Sale Shop. The move was made Wednesday afternoon, May 30, according to D. Joseph, owner and manager.

The concern was officially opened for business Friday morning, June 1. In Haskell since April 1 of this year, the business firm was previously located in Ranger and Lubbock.
