The 501: Barred Activities

HANABA MUNN WELCH

Ever wonder what you'd do with your time if you went to prison? I posed that question to my friend and faithful reader Jon, and he said he could see himself becoming a cockroach expert - specifically the "Cockroach Man of Cell Number Nine."

That's what I like about Jon. No simple answers. I'll spare you all his spin-off cockroach fantasies.

No doubt he saw that Burt Lancaster film "The Birdman of Alcatraz." You probably saw it too - either in 1962 or later on television. Quite a story.

All the prisoners took their pet birds to Lancaster (not his movie name) if the birds were sick or if they were tired of all their chirping. That's how I remember the movie. That's not to mention Burt's first bird - a sick sparrow that landed on the sill of his barred window. Wikipedia tells me the movie plot was based on a true story. The prisoner (real name Robert Stroud) really did become a bird expert and wrote a couple of substantial books on ornithology or whatever it's called. Good for him.

That shows what can happen when a person is not distracted by the need to murder someone. Yes, Stroud was a murderer in real life.

Me, as a jailbird I'd want to concentrate on learning to play the piano. But what are the chances they'd let me have one in my cell? And my cellmate might murder me if they did.

ABOUT THE COUNTY

By: Marty Lucke, County Judge

Everyone that received some rainfall had a prayer answered. As we all continue to pray for rain in moderation, remember the fellow Texans and Americans that suffered devastation of life and property from the severe weather in our prayers also.

The Great State of Texas is just 18 short days from the end of Regular Session of the 86th Legislature. Bills are moving at break-neck speed and 254 Counties are caught in the balance. There are several bills that could be beneficial to the citizens of Floyd County and several that are not. As the Legislators work to address, what they refer to as the big 3, the budget, school finance and tax-payer relief, County officials statewide are hoping that a Special Session is not needed. I'm not sure how much "tax relief" the citizens will receive if the State continues to control the appraisal process, but I am sure that it will not be as much as the tax-payer will be told they are receiving.

This month I am going to highlight the office of County Tax Assessor-Collector. What is a Tax Assessor-Collector? The Tax Assessor-Collector calculates property tax rates for the County, collects taxes for the County (and sometimes for other taxing entities) and collects various other fees for the State and County. What does a Tax Assessor-Collector do in Texas? The Tax Assessor-Collector in Texas has the following duties and responsibilities:

(1) Calculates property tax rates for the County, (2) Collects property taxes for the County, (3) May collect taxes for cities, schools and other local taxing entities, (4) Processes motor vehicle title transfers. (5) Issues motor vehicle registrations and licenses, (6) May process boat titles and registrations, (7) Register voters and may conduct elections, and (8) Collects various other fees for the State and County.

The Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector is Ms. Delia Suarez. Ms. Suarez was appointed to the Office on December 28, 2005 by the Commissioners Court. Ms. Suarez then ran for the unexpired term which ended December 31, 2008. Ms. Suarez took office for her first full term on January 1, 2009 and is currently serving her 3rd full term.

The Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector doesn't have to worry about calculating tax rates and collecting taxes because of the Floyd County Central Appraisal District. The Floyd County Tax Assessor-Collector has all the other duties described above and a few more. She is required to receive continuing education each year on the operation of the office of Tax Assessor-Collector. She also must receive continuing education in the operation of elections, the registration of voters and stay current on the requirements and changes in procedure of registering and titling vehicles.

Until next month - "Bye y'all!"

About Town

I was flipping through channels on the T.V. the other day and ended up settling on The Andy Griffith Show. Andy, Opie, Barney and Aunt Bea were all sitting on the front porch. They had just finished enjoying some pie.

DEON FINCHER

"Mmmm, mmmmm, mmmmm, mmmmm! Aunt Bea," said Andy, "I shore am glad that Emmitt Wilkins ran out of money before I did at today's pie auction. Had he not, we'd be sitting here wishing I'd had a few more dollars instead of lickin' our lips!" "Oh, Andy!" chided Aunt Bea. "I don't know why you had to go and spend all of your money just to buy a pie that I would have made just for the asking."

Barney chimed in. "Aunt Bea, you know that you're the best pie-maker in this area--probably in the whole county! Ain't that right, Andy?"

"Shore is," Andy said with a wide grin.

"Pa," Opie had to get involved, "how come you paid for this here pie? Aunt Bea is a makin' 'em every day! Seems like you could 'a been wiser to have spent your money on sumpin' you caint have all the time."

Andy stopped his rocking and leaned forward toward Opie. "Ahhhhh, no," he said pointing his fork at his plate. "You see, there's times when eatin' pie is just common--something you do--and then you say, 'Thank you' and go on 'bout your business. Then there's those times when you just feel the need to do some extra appreciatin' t'ward the baker of all those pies."

Or...something along those lines.

I like pie. No, I love pie. And I love Andy and his lessons. My mom was the best pie maker I've ever known. It was nothing for her to throw together the ingredients, mix them up, and be rolling out the perfect eighth-of-an-inch crust. For me, it's a three-day planning, preparing, and trying effort!

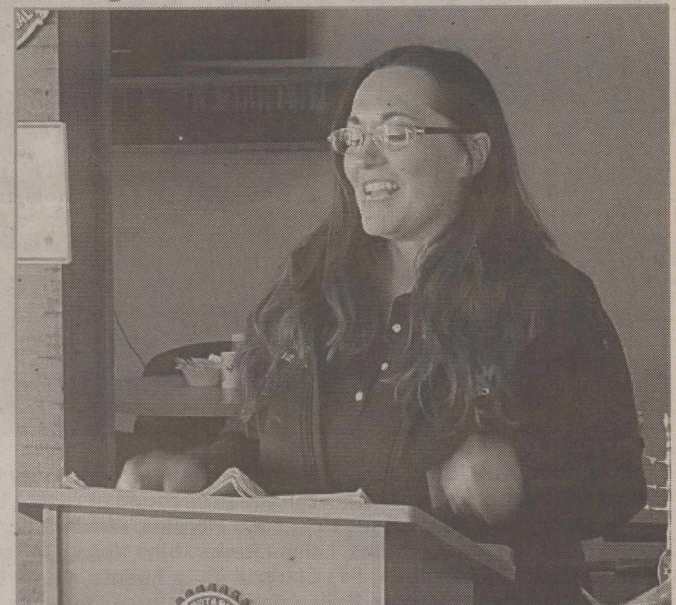

Momma would make her pies gorgeous! She would cut the lattice strips just perfectly (freehand, of course) and weave them in and out of each other until the cherries were snug in the pan and ready for the oven. She was also proficient at that "finger-pinching" crust. I must have had her show me that technique hundreds of times--to this day, I still turn out a 'beginner's-looking' mashup.

Pies and momma will always go hand in hand in my memories.

This upcoming Sunday has been designated the most special day of the year, specifically, to "do some extra appreciatin' t'ward" our moms. I hope your Mother's Day is as enjoyable as a front porch, a warm pie, and family all around.

I think I'm going to make a pie.

The Razzle Dazzle Red Hat Sisters May 2, 2019

By Mary M. Carter
Special for The Hesperian-Beacon

We met at the Ghost Horse Gallery in Silverton, Texas at 2:00 p.m., May 2, 2019.

Virginia Taylor, our Queen Mother, called the meeting to order. This meeting was a relaxing time of getting together for a dessert and drinks. Different flavors of coffee lattes, fruity flavored smoothies with whip cream on top, regular coffee and (yea!) chai tea lattes.

So, we got down to business and got our choices ordered. We enjoyed our time together and our treat. We looked at the wonderful art works and the other things in the store. If we wanted to we could go back and see a few of the birds. I saw a falcon and an owl. Beautiful is all I can say of God's creations.

Ethelyn Vernon had an announcement about the entries of quilts, aprons, and bonnets that is very IMPORTANT. The TIME has been changed to 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon on May 9, 2019 which is Thursday. I'm sure everyone is looking forward to the Old Settler's Reunion in Floydada, Texas on May 11, 2019 on a Saturday. So, get your entries in!! Ethelyn also told us about the open house from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Barrow Building that has just been renovated. It is very nice.

The ladies of Silverton wanted people to know that there have been some new stores to open up in town. One is the Dollar General.

The ladies of Lockney and Floydada have some new places. Lockney, O Charlie, a ladies shop, and a Dollar General. Floydada, Fit on the Square, a workout center and Nutthouse Designs, a T-shirt design and more, store. If you are out and about sometime stop and check a few out.

Our hostess was Virginia Taylor. Thank you Virginia! We enjoyed the day.

The attendees were Margie Sue, Virginia Taylor, Mary Quattlebaum, Emma Pate, Sandy Fuston, Wilda Fuston, Karla Kindberg, Barbara Edwards, Mary Lou Zinck, Joy Turner, Gloria Fannon, Sue Daniels, Ethelyn Vernon, and Mary M. Carter. Our guest was Elaine McNeill. Elaine is really one of us. She has been a caregiver for a while now and it is good to have Elaine back.

THE FLOYD COUNTY HISTORICAL MUSEUM MEMORIES 1979

THE HUGH NELSON FAMILY

William and Mary (Rardin) Nelson and three children-Oscar N., Lessie Lee, and Hugh J.- Moved from Atwood, Illinois to near Houston, Texas in 1900. They survived the Galveston flood. They soon moved to Johnson County, Texas and later to Rhome, Wise County, Texas.

My father, Hugh J. married Lydia Ann (Lena) Ford in 1906 in Wise County. Six children were born to them there; Opal, Raymond, Carl, Herman, Lloyd, and Deane. William Nelson died in 1909 and was buried in the Fairview Cemetery near Rhome.

The Hugh Nelsons moved to Floydada, Texas in June, 1917, and settled one and one-fourth miles northeast of the Lakeview School. Oscar Nelson and mother Mary moved December 1916 to Floydada, near Lakeview. In early 1918 Hugh had the chicken pox followed by the children, then all had whooping cough, measles, and roseola. The latter part of 1918 we had influenza. Alma Ruth was born in 1917 and Lena Mae in 1921 in Floyd County. The day Lena Mae was born I took the smallpox. Eight or ten days later Mother and baby had smallpox. Dr. Andrews had vaccinated us but the vaccine was no good. Two brothers had already had smallpox and also several families in the community.

Lakeview had a good school in a nice brick building with four class rooms and a large auditorium above them. Several non-denominational churches used the auditorium for church services by taking turns. It was also used for school programs and funeral services.

Our household things, farm implements, and horses were shipped to Floyd County by train. Cows could not be shipped because of the ticks. On arrival they had to buy cows. The horses were accustomed to eating threshed oats so they had to learn to eat maize heads. We had to learn how to burn coal for heating and cooking instead of wood.

Many covered wagons (prairie schooners) passed by our house-people moving west. They often stopped for water at our place because the windmill was near the road. The mirages on the plains fascinated me.

At present I (Opal Nelson Higgins) live in La Mesa, California, Raymond and Estella in Plainview, Texas, Carl (a World War II veteran) in Dimmitt, Herman and Ethel in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, Lloyd and Fannie Ruth in Borger, Texas, Deane and Clovella in Beliflower, California, Alma Ruth in Floydada, Lena Mae and Klyce Ooley in Plainview, Texas. I am thankful that after seventy years all eight of us are still living.

My parents, Hugh and Lena, grandparents, Jasper and Sonora Ford, grandmother Mary Nelson, Uncle Oscar Nelson, Aunt Jessie and Harvey J. Newberry, their son Paul Newberry, and Great Aunt Ida Reeves are all buried in the Lakeview Cemetery.

Red Steagall to Entertain at Western Art and Gear Show

Special to The Hesperian-Beacon

LUBBOCK - Red Steagall and the Boys in the Bunkhouse will headline the Sixth Annual Summer Stampede Western Art and Gear Show from 6 to 11 p.m. Saturday, June 1 as guests dine, dance and view Western art at the National Ranching Heritage Center (NRHC) in Lubbock, Texas.

Sponsored by Capital Farm Credit, the Western art and gear show will give collectors an opportunity not only to purchase new art pieces but also to meet the artists and craftsmen whose work will be on display.

Summer Stampede provides a unique mix of art that combines both Western paintings, jewelry and gear such as knives, spurs, stirrups, belt buckles and bits. The show includes both a dinner and dance with a portion of the proceeds benefiting the educational and restoration programs of the NRHC. Advance ticket purchase is required.

Artist and craftsman participation is by invitation only and will include Russell Yates, Baru Forell, Edgar Sotelo, Peter Robbins, Bob Moline, Mary Baxter, Billy Klapper, Brian Asher, Wayne Baize, Jason Scull, Garland Weeks, Michael Tittor, Stewart Williamson, Herman Walker, Jayson Jones, JaNeil Anderson, Jan Mapes, Emily McCartney, Buddy Knight, Dustin Payne, Tanner Crow, Matt Humphreys, Rosie Sandifer, Gary Dunshee, Jerry Lindley, T.D. Kelsey, Kim Robbins, Cotton Elliott and Trent Greeley.

Although the center only sells art once a year in June, Western art is on exhibit in the museum galleries throughout the year. "Western art and museum artifacts complement each other," said Dr. Scott White, Helen DeVitt Jones Endowed Director of Collections, Exhibits and Research. "Our galleries depict the ranching life. You can see the art and then walk into the historic park and see authentic ranch structures like those in the paintings."

White said the Summer Stampede art and gear sale "is unique for this part of the country." The NRHC takes a lower commission than most galleries and doesn't require a bidding process. Buyers can meet the artist, pay the posted price and take the artwork home that day.

Tickets can be purchased online at ranchingheritage.org/stampede/ or by calling Vicki Quinn-Williams at (806) 834-0469. The cost is $75 for Ranching Heritage Association members, $100 for non-members, $1,500 for a reserved table for eight under the tent, or $1,000 for a reserved table on the open patio. Western entertainer Red Steagall and the Boys in the Bunkhouse will provide entertainment as guests dine, dance and view the work of 29 artists and craftsmen at the Sixth Annual Summer Stampede Western Art and Gear Show on Saturday, June 1 at the National Ranching Heritage Center. Tickets must be purchased in advance.

Wayland Graduation set for May 11

By Jonathan Petty
Special to The Hesperian-Beacon

PLAINVIEW – Approximately 120 students are scheduled to participate in commencement ceremonies at Wayland Baptist University's Plainview campus on Saturday, May 11. The ceremony will begin at 2 p.m. in Herral Memorial Auditorium.

Wayland's spring graduation is typically held in Hutcherson Center to accommodate larger crowds, but an air conditioning failure has prompted the change of venue. With larger crowds expected for the event, overflow rooms with audio and video will be available.

The student address will be given by Sean Bohnet of Sherman. Bohnet is graduating with a Bachelor of Arts degree in music. Bohnet will continue his education in pursuit of a master's degree at University of Idaho.

Three graduates will be recognized as graduating from the honors program. The honors program is for students who want to go above and beyond the general curriculum by taking additional coursework focused on research. Holli Foster, of Keller, will graduate with a Bachelor of Arts with Honors degree. Leagh Ann DeMerritt and Makayla Nicholson will graduate with Bachelor of Science with Honors degrees.

Dr. Paul Sadler will be awarded Emeritus Professor of Religion status as culmination of his 29 years of service to Wayland. Sadler has served primarily in the School of Religion and Philosophy as professor and dean of the school. He is retiring at the end of the semester from his current position as Director of Church Services.

Dr. Otto B. Schacht will also be recognized as Emeritus Professor of Business. Schacht retired in 2018 from the School of Business where he served for 20 years as professor and Dean. Schacht and Sadler, along with Dr. Lewis Lee from Wayland's San Antonio campus, were granted emeritus status by the Board of Trustees at the Board's spring meeting on April 25.

Quotes in honor of Mother's Day – May 12

A mother's happiness is like a beacon, lighting up the future but reflected also on the past in the guise of fond memories.

- Honore de Balzac

It may be possible to gild pure gold, but who can make his mother more beautiful?

- Mahatma Gandhi

There is nothing in the world of art like the songs mother used to sing.
- Billy Sunday

The babe at first feeds upon the mother's bosom, but it is always on her heart.
- Henry Ward Beecher

Children are the anchors that hold a mother to life.

- Sophocles

Sometimes the strength of motherhood is greater than natural laws.
- Barbara Kingsolver

A mother's arms are made of tenderness and children sleep soundly in them.
- Victor Hugo

To describe my mother would be to write about a hurricane in its perfect power.

- Maya Angelou

A mother is clothed with strength and dignity, laughs without fear of the future. When she speaks her words are wise and she gives instructions with kindness.

- Proverbs

When your mother asks, 'Do you want a piece of advice?' it's a mere formality. It doesn't matter if you answer yes or no. You're going to get it anyway.

CHURCH DIRECTORY

Faithful Service

Whatever you do, work at it with all your heart, as working for the Lord . . . It is the Lord Christ you are serving.
—Colossians 3:23-24 (NIV)

As a new social worker, I quickly realized that counseling teens through trauma, anxiety, depression, and conflict can be draining and overwhelming. I began to feel discontent with the job I had dedicated years of education to and was discouraged by the problems that never seemed to be solved in the lives of my clients.

When I started attending a new church, I wondered about their logo — a series of arrows pointing upward. The pastor talked about the idea of "vertical living": doing everything for the glory of God. It took time for this radical idea to sink in. Going to church, reading the Bible, praying, donating to those in need — these aren't the only ways to bring glory to God. When my view of doing everything for the glory of God expanded to include the mundane details of my life — cleaning the house, taking care of my family, showing love to my friends, and even going to work every day — the burden of being unable to solve all of my clients' problems lifted. I realized that my role was not to solve every problem but to be the light of Christ in their lives, to bring God the glory through my faithful service. That has brought new meaning to my life's work, no matter how mundane at times — eternal meaning that surpasses any earthly satisfaction. To God be the glory!
—Heather Artushin (Michigan)

Orr qualifies as Finalist for FFA Scholarship

By Deon Fincher
The Hesperian-Beacon

(FLOYDADA) - Senior Allison Orr successfully made it through an Area interview last week to qualify her as a finalist for a Texas FFA Scholarship.

Thanks to the generosity of numerous scholarship donors, the Texas FFA will award more than 140 scholarships to outstanding graduating seniors through its academic scholarship program. These scholarships are awarded based on academic and FFA achievements as well as the member's performance in a thorough and comprehensive interview process. The interview is not easy! Candidates must first give a 90-second introduction and then they randomly draw a pre-determined number of questions to answer for the committee. That committee is made up of Animal-Science teachers from the area and representatives of the agricultural industry.

Allison's scholarship application is on its way to Austin to be scored on to find out if she advances to State Interviews at Stephenville, June 6th.

With all these cool, moist, foggy mornings of late, my garden seeds are pushing their heads out of the soil! Although that is always such an amazing thing to me, it also means that I've got to get into gear and start making their support systems. Which brings me to a great accomplishment!

Today, Terry and I got our large arbor completed. I've had it marked out for months; however, gathering some of the materials and finding the time to dedicate to the job turned out to be a bit longer than expected. I needed to get our spaghetti squash seeds in the ground, so this ended up being 'the weekend.'

What a beautiful sight to behold! Standing on the southern end of our garden, our arbor is eagerly waiting for those squash vines to start crawling up and over the wire. We will also be planting our watermelons and some of our cantaloupes alongside the arbor so they, too, can grow up rather than sprawling all over the ground. And, of course, our vining okra.

Not only does 'growing vertical' help control killing fungus, but it keeps the fruit off the ground and its moisture. For those with limited space, growing vertically solves those problems with "I need more room for planting!"

As to the garden, it is doing well! Our Indian corn and our first planting of sweet corn are standing tall enough to make out the rows. Both types of peas have pushed their leaves out to the sunshine—another trellis will be needed by the end of the week. I've got squash, honeydew, and a variety of pumpkins all coming up in various parts of the garden—mostly where the fruit got left last fall. I suspect that I will thin some of those out, but the majority will get to stay where they are and flourish.

We planted clover instead of grass in one area and it is now a bright, green, lush carpet! It's still tiny, but the coverage it has given to this 'soon-to-be-breakfast-spot' is far more than I had expected. We will be sprinkling that seed around in different garden beds to help with the soil condition as well as to provide a nice blanket to hold in the soil's moisture.

What's planned for this week? My green-tomato seedlings have gotten stronger with the warm days, so I hope to get some of them planted where our winter garden produce is bolted and seeding. I have another variety of cucumbers that need to get into the ground, and now that the corn is up, I need to plant my beans in and around them.

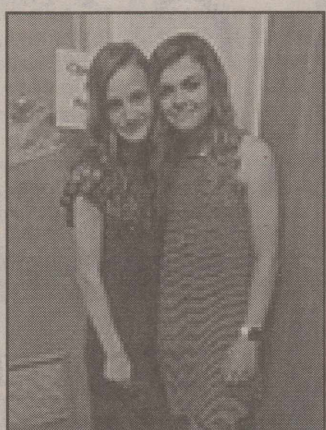

This time of year, when those seeds are poking out their heads and I can identify them, is one of my favorite seasons. I am overwhelmed and amazed at nature's ability to create such beauty!

Our 4-H Club was represented well by three teams of Educational Presentation Contest by three different teams speaking in three different categories. What is an Educational Presentation and how much effort is put into the program? Going way back to the beginning years of 4-H, public demonstrations were one of the key elements in which youngsters participated. These days, those demonstrations are called Educational Presentations. Basically, it is a demonstration of the member's knowl-

Floyd County's two 4-H clubs merged into one club-The Floyd County 4-H—the primary point of action at the club's first meeting in April.

"They all end up doing everything together anyway," stated Agent Cristen Brooks in her report to the County Commissioners. "With the two groups merged, we can combine our resources and provide more opportunities to these kiddos."

Officers for the 2019-2020 year were elected by the group. (See

The first activity will be an End-of-the-Year Dance. The dance is open to anyone (not just 4-Hers) to attend, and will get started on May 31st at 7:00 p.m. and will continue until 11:00 p.m. There will be some live music and some DJ music for dancing. Teenagers love to eat, and this get-together has that covered with a Taco Bar. The event will be at the Friends Unity Center in Muncy.

Organizers ask that attendees please RSVP by May 24th so they can buy plenty of meat for those tacos! The easiest way to do that is to go to the Texas A&M Agrilife

Fourth Graders create Freedom Quilt

By Deon Fincher
The Hesperian-Beacon

(LOCKNEY) - The 4th grade students at Lockney Elementary have been studying about the Civil War in their social studies classes and reviewing for the STAAR Reading test.

Combining the two studies together, the students read the book Night Boat to Freedom by Margot Theis Raven. This book tells a true story about a boy who helped slaves escape to freedom. Each night when he returned home, his grandmother would ask what color the person wore to freedom. Giving her grandson all she had in support of his life-saving efforts, she made a quilt using all of those colors.

After the classes finished reading the book, each student was asked to relate back to the story and come up with a theme statement on love or freedom. Once completed, each 4th grader made quilt square incorporating that statement. All the quilt squares were tied together to make the Freedom Quilt.

A big thanks to these teachers for making learning active and engaging.

knowledge and skills in a certain project area. It can be accomplished using props (method demonstration), posters or media presentations (illustrated talk), or it can be a simple persuasive and educational speech.

The 4-H Educational Presentations can be done as an individual, or as a team of two to four 4-H member friends.

The common factor in all educational presentations is speaking in front of an audience; therefore, the judging of the contest is based on the ability to effectively deliver a message. Other judging factors include the organization of the presentation, current and verifiable information, and the resources used to put together the presentation.

Congratulations to each and every one of these youngsters! They are using 4-H systems of learning to build a foundation for their futures.

TEXAS COMMISSION ON ENVIRONMENTAL QUALITY

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND PRELIMINARY DECISION FOR WATER QUALITY LAND APPLICATION PERMIT FOR MUNICIPAL WASTEWATER RENEWAL

PERMIT NO. WQ0010211001

APPLICATION AND PRELIMINARY DECISION. City of Lockney, P.O. Box 387, Lockney, Texas 79241, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) for a renewal of TCEQ Permit No. WQ0010211001 which authorizes the disposal of treated domestic wastewater at a daily average flow not to exceed 350,000 gallons per day via surface irrigation of 112 acres of non-public access agricultural land. This permit will not authorize a discharge of pollutants into water in the state. TCEQ received this application on September 5, 2018.

The wastewater treatment facility and disposal site are located approximately 0.45 mile south of U.S. Highway 70 and 0.5 mile east of Farm-to-Market Road 378, and southeast of the City of Lockney, in Floyd County, Texas 79241. The wastewater treatment facility and disposal site are located in the drainage basin of White River in Segment No. 1240 of the Brazos River Basin. This link to an electronic map of the site or facility's general location is provided as a public courtesy and is not part of the application or notice. <http://www.tceq.texas.gov/assets/public/hb610/index.html?lat=34.107727&lng=-101.4305&zooom=13&type=r>

The TCEQ Executive Director has completed the technical review of the application and prepared a draft permit. The draft permit, if approved, would establish the conditions under which the facility must operate. The Executive Director has made a preliminary decision that this permit, if issued, meets all statutory and regulatory requirements. The permit application, Executive Director's preliminary decision, and draft permit are available for viewing and copying at Lockney City Hall, 218 East Locust Street, Lockney, Texas.

PUBLIC COMMENT / PUBLIC MEETING. You may submit public comments or request a public meeting about this application. The purpose of a public meeting is to provide the opportunity to submit comments or to ask questions about the application. TCEQ holds a public meeting if the Executive Director determines that there is a significant degree of public interest in the application or if requested by a local legislator. A public meeting is not a contested case hearing.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A CONTESTED CASE HEARING. After the deadline for submitting public comments, the Executive Director will consider all timely comments and prepare a response to all relevant and material, or significant public comments. Unless the application is directly referred for a contested case hearing, the response to comments will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments and to those persons who are on the mailing list for this application. If comments are received, the mailing will also provide instructions for requesting a contested case hearing or reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision. A contested case hearing is a legal proceeding similar to a civil trial in a state district court.

TO REQUEST A CONTESTED CASE HEARING, YOU MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN YOUR REQUEST: your name, address, phone number; applicant's name and proposed permit number; the location and distance of your property/activities relative to the proposed facility; a specific description of how you would be adversely affected by the facility in a way not common to the general public; a list of all disputed issues of fact that you submit during the comment period; and the statement "[I/we] request a contested case hearing." If the request for contested case hearing is filed on behalf of a group or association, the request must designate the group's representative for receiving future correspondence; identify by name and physical address an individual member of the group who would be adversely affected by the proposed facility or activity; provide the information discussed above regarding the affected member's location and distance from the facility or activity; explain how and why the member would be affected; and explain how the interests the group seeks to protect are relevant to the group's purpose.

Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

The Commission may only grant a request for a contested case hearing on issues the requestor submitted in their timely comments that were not subsequently withdrawn. If a hearing is granted, the subject of a hearing will be limited to disputed issues of fact or mixed questions of fact and law relating to relevant and material water quality concerns submitted during the comment period. TCEQ may act on an application to renew a permit for discharge of wastewater without providing an opportunity for a contested case hearing if certain criteria are met.

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR ACTION. The Executive Director may issue final approval of the application unless a timely contested case hearing request or request for reconsideration is filed. If a timely hearing request or request for reconsideration is filed, the Executive Director will not issue final approval of the permit and will forward the application and request to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting.

MAILING LIST. If you submit public comments, a request for a contested case hearing or a reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision, you will be added to the mailing list for this specific application to receive future public notices mailed by the Office of the Chief Clerk.
