

Early CFC donations favor deduction plan

As the Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) kickoff date of Oct. 2 nears at Reese, officials have announced some early donations as well as an outline of some of the organizations that will benefit from the donations.

Undergraduate Pilot Training Class 74-02, in light of their graduation today, were asked to donate to the program before they depart Reese. Of those donating, 91 percent signed up for the payroll deduction plan. Capt. Frederick B. King, Reese CFC project officer, commented, "These are our 'pacesetters'. I encourage everyone to sign up for the payroll deduction plan. It really is the easiest way to give to this very worthwhile program."

One befitting organization is the American Cancer Society. This is a volunteer organization of more than two million Americans united to fight cancer. Steps are being taken to conquer the disease through balanced programs of research, education, service and rehabilitations.

The Society has 57 divisions covering every state as well as the District of Columbia with more than 3,000 units in practically every county in the nation.

Cancer is a disease characterized by abnormal growth and spread of cells. If this process is not checked, the patient will die. However, many cancers can be cured if detected early and treated properly. Treatment includes surgery, radiation, various drugs and chemicals.

There are now 1,500,000 Americans, alive today, who have been cured of cancer.

Another organization that will receive backing from the CFC will be the American Heart Association. Heart and blood vessel diseases are the leading causes of death in the United States, killing more than one million people each year. Heart attack alone claims 600,000 lives annually.

Major Role

One of the major roles of the Heart Association is to bring new knowledge concerning cardiovascular advances to physicians so that patients everywhere may benefit. Typical community service programs conducted by the Heart Associations across the country seek to prevent rheumatic fever, assist in the rehabilitation of stroke and cardiac patients, conduct school heart-sounds screening and encourage individuals to reduce risk associated with heart attack.

The Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America are other recipients of funds from the federal campaign. Muscular Dystrophy (MD) and the related neuromuscular diseases that are studied and treated by the Associations invade and destroy the voluntary muscles.

Most of these diseases are progressive, crippling their victims and in many cases weakening them to a point where a minor ailment, like a colic, could prove fatal. No effective cure has yet been discovered.

These diseases may strike at any time during life and there is no regard to age, sex or race.

Increasing Disability

Victims of the diseases look forward only to years of increasing disability and for many—premature death. Research has conquered many diseases which have threatened mankind. With sufficient support, that research may be expanded to conquer MD and its related cripples.

The only source of hope and comfort for those afflicted lies in the massive research and patient programs sponsored by Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America. The success of these programs depends entirely on voluntary support.

Proceeds from this year's CFC drive will also go to aid the Arthritis Foundation. More than 20 million Americans suffer from some form of arthritis. This disease claims 250,000 new victims each year. It strikes one in every 11 Americans and one out of four families. It does not respect age. It does not kill but it can make life a constant torture.

The symptoms may come and go, but arthritis is chronic. Twice as many women as men suffer from it. How do you tell if you've got arthritis? If you suffer pain in the joints; if you're losing weight and don't feel like eating and if you feel generally weak and tire easily, you may have arthritis and should see a doctor.

No Cure

There is no cure yet for arthritis. Experts in the field have developed care and treatment programs to control the disease and prevent crippling. Much of the productive new research in the cause and treatment of arthritis is being carried out at Clinical Research Centers and by Research Fellows supported by the Arthritis Foundation.

Lubbock, Texas September 21, 1973

Graduation day arrives for Class 74-02

Undergraduate Pilot Training Class 74-02 will pin on the wings of the Air Force pilot today after a year of intensive academic, physical and flying training.

Brig. Gen. Bennie L. Davis, vice commander of the AF Military Personnel Center and deputy assistant Chief of Staff for Military Personnel will be featured as guest speaker. The 41 members of Class 74-02 graduating will receive their wings at a ceremony scheduled for 10 a.m. in the base chapel.

West Point Grad

General Davis was graduated from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., in 1950 with a bachelor of science degree and a second lieutenant's commission. He entered the Air Force and basic pilot training at Goodfellow AFB, Tex., later that year. After initial training he was assigned to Vance AFB, Okla. and then to James Connally AFB, Tex. as a twin-engine mission pilot.

After a tour in Okinawa as a B-29 aircraft commander, he returned to the United States in 1954 to serve as a B-47 pilot and later a B-47 commander at Pinnacle AFB, Fla. From Pinnacle the general went to Homestead AFB, Fla., to remain until 1961 as a B-47 commander.

After graduating from the Armed Forces Staff College, Norfolk, Va., in 1964, he was assigned to Headquarters, Strategic Air Command as Requirements officer. After graduating from the National War College in 1967, he was assigned to Clark Air Base in the Philippines as a tactical bomber pilot. Later he flew 142 combat missions over North Vietnam.

Ops Officer

In 1968 General Davis was assigned as Operations officer, Operations Directorate for the Joint Chiefs of Staff in the nation's capital. He became chief of Current Operations Branch, Strategic Operations Division for the Joint Chiefs of Staff in 1969, and the Air Force member of the Chairman's Staff Group, Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff the next year.

The general became vice commander, AF Military Personnel Center at Randolph AFB, Tex., and deputy assistant deputy Chief of Staff, Personnel for Military Personnel in 1972, the posts he now holds.

His military decorations include the Silver Star, Legion of Merit, Distinguished Flying Cross with one oak leaf cluster, Bronze Star, Air Medal with one silver and two bronze oak leaf clusters, Joint Service Commendation Medal, and Air Force Commendation Medal. He is a command pilot.

General Davis married the former Patricia Grafe of McAlester, Okla., and has two sons.

"There are those . . . at Reese who are AGAINST because they don't want to be FOR."

By Col. Walter H. Baxter III Wing Commander

Last Saturday while attending the Texas Tech vs. Utah football game, I realized that a young man sitting behind me was not rooting for Texas Tech although we were seated in a section of predominately Red Raider fans. When bad luck befell Tech, he cheered and I assumed he was a Utah fan.

It didn't take me long to realize, however, that this young man was not for Utah, either. He wasn't pleased when the Utes did well—he was against them, too. He complained about the game officials, and in general griped about everything. He only seemed happy when things went wrong for somebody—anybody.

He wasn't FOR anything; he was just AGAINST everything.

After the game while driving home, I thought a lot about that young man who had a completely negative attitude and I began to feel sorry for him. He must have had a terrible time at the game being AGAINST and never FOR. He must have gone to bed dissappointed because both sides didn't lose.

Unfortunately, there are those among us here at Reese who are AGAINST-not for any specific reason, but because they don't want to be FOR. Some are that way all the time-others of us, just part of the time.

Have you run an attitude check on yourself recently?

Drive begins Oct. 2

Editorial cites apathy as big trouble maker

Editor's note: The following editorial is taken from the "Catholic Chaplains' Bulletin" of Nov. 5, 1972. It is titled, "Nobody Gives a Darn".

Something has happened in our society. We live with constant sickening frustration which goes beyond racial problems, pot, and pollution. More and more, nobody gives a darn.

The sickness is national in scope . . . each of us feels more and more abandoned by his fellowman. We live only for ourselves. We look to our own ease and profit. We don't care about anyone else's river, lake, or forest; just give us a longer coffee break.

Services are deteriorating. It's hard to find repairmen who will do a good job. Expensive cars or other products lose knobs or fail to operate like cheap toys. Waiters act as if they're doing you a favor. Sales people don't want to be interrupted. Doctors offices schedule appointments in thoughtless clusters. Cleaners not only fail to get the spots out, but end up by losing your pants. Fewer trains are running than a decade ago, but there are nearly twice as many derailments.

Granted, good services and products can still be found-but it's something to talk about when it happens.

No man can live without caring. He loses his drive to be responsible and competent. He ends up without pride or purpose. Mutual caring, trust and cooperation are the adhesives of society.

So what can we do? We must strive to get back our sense of personal worth, that our job does count. Let's encourage responsibility where we find it, and praise the efforts and good work of others. On the other hand, when we are hit by a foul up, raise hell, and go to the top if necessary. If this fails, take your business elsewhere. It is better to do without, than to have a purposeless second rate existence.

Air Force News Summary

Eight more bases have been added to the Joint Uniform Military Pay System which provides for a more efficient and timely pay system. JUMPS integrates the individual's military pay and leave information into centralized master accounts maintained and updated by computer at the Air Force Accounting and Finance Center in Denver.

The 1973 overseas Christmas mailing deadlines have been announced by the USAF Postal and Courier Service. Officials urge patrons to mail Christmas parcels at the earliest possible dates to insure timely receipt.

The first modified E-4E Phantom jet to come off the production line at the Ogden Air Material Area, Hill AFB, Utah, has been test flown successfully and delivered to Tactical Air Command. The modification consisted of placing two slats on the leading edge of each wing to improve maneuverability.

Palace Chase, the program which releases active-duty people to join the Air National Guard and Air Force Reserve units, has expanded to include more than 200 enlisted specialties and shreds. Airmen in all Air Force Specialty Codes, except 234XO, 303XO, 464XO, 543XO and 311XO, are eligible to apply for transfer to the guard or the reserve.

Eleven-minute tours of an enlisted Air Force center are available at consolidated base personnel offices. It all takes place in Palace Flicks Film Report No. 100, "TOPCAP-Airman Force Structure" (Total Objective Plan for Career Airmen Personnel), one of 75 personnel films available at CBPOs around the world.

The total force concept moves another step forward Oct. 1 with the beginning of a field test of integration of active-duty and reserve records at three active-duty bases and two reserve installations.

Commander's CARE Line

Sir:
My husband is retired Air Force but we are living here. My complaint is about the Commissary not having things such as salmon, beans—there's just a lot that you can't get. They just don't have things here like they do other places.
Mrs. Lee

Sir:
We've been on base for approximately five months now, and in that short time we've been going to the Commissary at least every pay day, if not in between pay days. It seems to me that the Commissary is either having a staff problem or management problem in getting the shelves stocked between pay days. What is the reason the Commissary cannot be stocked from day to day?
SSgt. Stokes

Sir:
For months now the Commissary has been out of raisins, Mountain Pass pinto beans, Mandarin oranges, applesauce and other items. Why are so many shelves bare? What is the problem with our Commissary?
Mrs. Niemala

Mrs. Lee, Sergeant Stokes, Mrs. Niemala:
The Commissary has been unable to procure canned or frozen fruits, raisins, pinto beans, and various other items for the past two or three months. We have been informed by company representatives that these items are not available at the present time. Continuing orders are placed monthly. With the harvest season rapidly approaching, it is anticipated that the situation will be alleviated soon. Another factor was that the beef shortage changed everyone's eating habits, resulting in excessive purchases of canned fish, meat and prepared foods.

To further compound our problem, sales during the month of July were $66,000 above normal, and August sales also exceeded the normal operation. This resulted in a depletion of warehouse stocks and underordering for August and September deliveries. Presently all normal items are on order and new items are inbound and will be stocked upon receipt.

Sir:
I was wondering if there could be something done about the water in Barracks 320. The water fountains—all of them—when you get a drink, have a very rusty taste to them, and sometimes the water is discolored. I would like to know if there could be something done about it.
Airman Shote
J-69 Section

Airman Shote:
I referred the complaint on the water of Price Hall to the Billing Office for action. They checked with the building custodian, who expressed the same dissatisfaction you expressed. The chlorine content was increased from approximately .5 parts per million as an added precaution against the spread of hepatitis. This increase commenced July 18 and will continue until the threat is controlled.

I have instructed that an assessment be made of all the water coolers in the dormitories. Those that are adding mineral content to the water that you drink will be replaced or cleaned internally as is appropriate.

Thank for your concern and interest in making the dormitories more liveable for all!

flick flack

An adaptation of the internationally popular stage musical "Godspell" will herald this week's schedule of features at Simler Theater tonight.

Featured movies at the theater begin at 8 p.m. Tuesday through Sunday unless otherwise noted. The Saturday matinee begins at 2 p.m.

Tonight

Victor Garber and David Haskell star in the visual magic of "Godspell". The story is the gospel according to St. Matthew boosted by a contemporary rock music score and set in modern day New York City. There is also a great deal of comedy in this G-rated flick, general audiences admitted.

Matinee Tomorrow

"The Railway Children" is rated G.

Tomorrow Evening

Rod Steiger and James Coburn will "blow you apart" in

"A Fist Full of Dynamite" (formerly "Duck You Sucker"). Set during the Mexican Revolution in 1913, the story tells of a rascally peasant who is goaded into heroism by an Irish revolutionary and explosives expert who is haunted by ghosts of his own people's revolution. The show is rated PG, parental guidance suggested.

Sunday

Michael J. (Bonnie and Clyde) Pollard and Lee Purcell star in "Dirty Little Billy", the offbeat western story of the "real" Billy the Kid. Instead of the usual glorified version of the character, Billy in this flick is an ugly, nearly demented youth, an oafish misfit whose loyalty to a half-crazed saloon owner leads to a career of crime. The hilarious film is rated R, patrons under 17 require accompanying parent or adult guardian.

Tuesday

"The Master Touch," starring

ing Kirk Douglas and Florida Balkan, is a film with more than the usual number plot twists and turns. An archcriminal masterminds the ultimate heist, succeeding only in destroying himself. The show is rated PG.

Wednesday

The story of the end of the world's most infamous dictator, "Hitler: The Last Ten Days" details how Adolf Hitler sealed his own doom and that of his troops as he saw World War II lost for "The Fatherland". The PG-rated film tells of his last days, his last hours.

Thursday

Burt Reynolds leads a star-studded cast in "The Man Who Loved Cat Dancing," the story of an ex-Army captain who stages a train robbery. The story continues in a series of confrontations between various polarities both in and out of his band. The violent drama is rated PG.

Sir:
I would like to know why when I go to chow at 5 a.m. I cannot get the same thing they serve at 7 a.m. They don't have hash browns at 5 but will serve them later in the morning. The day cooks have the keys to all the food supplies and on a few occasions have been late to work, resulting in no bread or potatoes for the early eaters. Also I would like to know why they don't have chocolate milk more often, and why can't get change for a $1 or $5 bill. Thank you.

Sergeant Harris:
Hash browns do not appear on the Master Menu every day, however we try to have them every day.
Hot rolls appear on the Master Menu two or three times a month for the breakfast meal, thus reducing other breads when the rolls are served. Chocolate milk does not appear on the Master Menu at all, however we try to serve it for the few people who do like it.
Due to the limited change fund at the dining hall, they are unable to change large bills. The change box determines the size of the bill they are able to change. It is suggested that small bills be used when eating at the dining hall.

Sir:
I know you are aware of the excellent quality of your people, but I wish to tell you of some examples.
We hear of all the excellent work done by the flying and aircraft maintenance squadrons. This is true, but we forget the hundreds of others on base who are just as vital. I cannot individually name everyone, but I hope through you to express my thanks and appreciation to them all.
Capt. John Richardson
Capt. Richardson:
Your letter is self-explanatory, and I am pleased to concur.

Sir:
I would like to point out a case involving the conviction of a group of people without a fair trial. The case involves those living in bldg. 420, Alexander Hall. These people have all been accused and sentenced because of the sloppy acts of others.
No steps have been taken to seek the culprits, the command has taken the simple way out and condemned everyone for everything. I don't feel this is right. Most people leave the latrines and all else in a decent state for the bay orderly to clean up the next day in a minimum of time. I feel that people who make the mess should be the ones to clean up in the future during a G.I. party or should be assigned bay orderly more often.

A1C Michael J. Hagerty
Airman Hagerty:
I appreciate your position on this matter and your concern to "keep a neat house." However, it is unfair of you to label as an act of discipline the fact that you had to clean the barracks. The building was filthy and it was impossible to identify the culprits since they didn't step forward. I hope the barracks will remain clean as they are now so G.I. parties won't be necessary in the future.

Of course you know your baby's shoe should fit. But did you know he'll need several different kinds of shoes? Creeping, toddling and walking. Enrollment records fall as semester begins

The Reese Education Office announced that as of Tuesday, the military enrollment for the on-base college program had reached 154 students, taking a total of 296 courses. In addition, 27 students are enrolled in 56 courses off base making the total 181 students in 352 enrollments. A great increase has also shown up in the number of civilian enrollments in the college programs. There are presently 140 civilians enrolled in 256 courses. This tremendous increase has permitted 31 South Plains College classes to achieve their minimum enrollment requirements. A Texas Tech graduate business class plus two University of Northern Colorado courses have also been offered for the first time. All of the courses offered are resident credit. A grand total of 321 students in 608 enrollments includes military and civilian enrollments for both on and off-base programs in both undergraduate and graduate courses. The previous record was 243 students in 476 enrollments. The civilian enrollees include several referrals from the Texas Rehabilitation Commission. Reese's Education Office readily volunteered to accept these enrollees as a public service for the Lubbock community. New courses being offered for the first time include auto mechanics, speed reading, typing, fashion merchandising, busness law, and principles of marketing and management decision making on the graduate level.

UNC masters program offers business, psychology courses

The University of Northern Colorado has announced a schedule for the Fall term seminars to be conducted for Reese and Lubbock residents on base. Three business courses will be offered. The first being Seminar in Operation Analysis, UBUS 695 (1533) which will meet Oct. 11, 12, 13, 25, 26, and 27. Marketing Management, UBUS 505 (1534) will meet Nov. 15, 16, 17, 29, 30, and Dec. 1. Seminar in Administrative Theories, UBUS 650 (1535) will meet Dec. 13, 14, 15, 20, 21, and 22.

For psychology students, two courses will be available under the classification of guidance and counseling. Dynamics of Group Behavior, Upsy 662 (1573) will meet Oct. 18, 19, 20, and Nov. 1, 2, and 3. General Psychology, Upsy (1573) will meet Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1, 13, 14, and 15. The three consecutive days of meeting for each course will meet on the following schedule: Thursday, 6 to 10 p.m.; Friday, 2 to 10 p.m.; and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday. The UNC program offers a liberal entrance requirement and a liberal transfer policy. Grade point average and Graduate Record Examination are not requirements for admission to this program. A maximum of 20 quarter hours may be transferred into this 48-quarter hour requirement for the masters degree program. Highly qualified teachers from leading universities are involved nationwide in the UNC program. Veterans may take two seminars per quarter to qualify for fulltime classification. More information may be obtained by calling ext. 2634 or 2469 during duty hours.

Requests for classes due as soon as possible

Residents of the Reese and Lubbock communities are reminded that requests for classes for the Spring semester from Texas Tech should be submitted as soon as possible. The Education Office is required to submit applications for classes to Tech by Oct. 1 for consideration. Requests for both undergraduate and graduate courses are now being accepted. Requests should be made to the Education Office, located in bldg. T-1, ext. 2634 or 2469.

NCOWC announces activities

The NCO Wives Club has announced its Dutch Treat Dinner scheduled for 7:30 p.m. tomorrow in the NCO Open Mess.

Also announced by the organization was their choice for NCO Wives Club member of the Month, Brenda Yaughn. The wife of Sgt. Troy Yaughn, Personnel Division, she has been elected recording secretary and welfare chairlady of the club after one year as a member.

In addition to her duties in the club, Mrs. Yaughn is employed at the Reesette. The Yaughns, both from Macon, Ga., have been married for four years and have a three-year-old daughter. They reside at 342 Mitchell in Reese Village.

The club expressed sorrow at the fact that the Yaughns will be leaving Reese soon for a new assignment at Randolph AFB, Tex.

All club members are invited to participate in the visit to University Convalescent Home Tuesday. According to a Wives Club spokeswoman, "all the girls attending these visits enjoy the evenings as well as the residents." Club members enjoy refreshments and entertain with the residents of the home. Interested persons may call Mrs. Yaughn.

A Family Services Orientation has been scheduled for Wednesday to acquaint new arrivals and anyone else interested with services provided by the agency. More information may be obtained from Family Services Center, ext. 2306.

Redman, Martinez share paddle crown

After the dust from the Open Racquetball Tournament settled, Raul Martinez emerged as the base champion, with Michael Redman holding co-champion honors.

David Rail took third place, with Hank Ussery coming in fourth. Close games were reported in the finals, with Martinez winning the first game 21-18 and the second 21-20 against Redman.

Rumor has it that the Intensive Care Unit was present in the stands in an on-duty status during the games Ussery played in. It is also noteworthy that the performance of Ussery was reputed as to be "completely superior to that expected of a man of his age," according to an unidentified spectator.

In other gym news, The Lower Three NCO team chopped the Top Three NCO's self-made ladder to pieces by beating them soundly 23-4 in slow-pitch softball action, despite high winds. No comment was available from the losers, who defeated the Top Three Officer team some weeks ago.

Intramural flag football results are in for the Sept. 11-17 period. Two games are played at 5 and 6 p.m. Many shut-outs were tallied in the action.

Civil Engineering (CE) wiped out the 64th Supply Squadron Sept. 11 by a 24-0 margin in the first game of the day. Following that game the 54th Flying Training Squadron (FTS) lost to UPT Class 74-03 in a 8-6 bout.

The next day saw 2053rd Communications Squadron shut out 64th Field Maintenance Squadron 6-0, followed by an astounding victory by 35th FTS over Class 74-05, 36-0.

Sept. 13 action had CE getting shut out this time, with 54th FTS rebounding from their earlier defeat to tally a 28-0 score against the Engineers. The second game of the day saw USAF Hospital personnel excel over Personnel Division, 36-0. Sept. 17 again saw powerful Hospital trip up FMS 38-0. The second game of the day witnessed Class 74-03 again emerge victorious this time over Supply by a 12-6 margin.

Gym officials have announced the need for volleyball and basketball players, and volleyball or football coaches. Interested persons may contact SSgt. Raul Martinez in the gym, ext. 2207.

ATC man leads way to victory

Norton AFB, Calif. (ATCPS)—Air Training Command's Jamie Gough won the Open Division championship and led the Air Force Open Team to victory in the 1973 Interservice Golf Tournament which ended here Sept. 7 on the Palm Meadows course.

Gough completed the four rounds at one under par 287 beating the Navy's Mark Sullivan by seven strokes.

When asked how he felt about winning two major military golf events (he also won the Air Force Open Title), he stated, "Very fortunate, it seems competition became much keener as we progressed up the ladder."

The Forrestal Trophy for the Open Team Championship was captured by the Air Force Team with 1,180 strokes, 14 strokes less than second place Army's 1,194. The Navy finished with a score of 1,218 while the Marines had a 1,240.

In the Senior Division, Air Force's Billy Halbert had the lead until the 18th hole of the final round when he triple bogeyed and fell to a second place finish with 314.

Final standings in the Senior Division were: Army 1629, Air Force - 631, Marines - 633, and Navy 640.

Jamie Gough's father also won the Interservice Open Championship back in 1948, but he was disqualified for taking a practice stroke on the 71st hole.

Asked if he would like a shot at Lee Trevino or Jack Nicklaus, Gough simply stated, "No, we're in very different classes—I fly airplanes for a living."
