W. W. EARLY DOING IMPROVEMENT WORK

W. W. Early and Son are making an addition to their building on James and Willis streets this week, with the view of enlarging their business. The annex will have a west front with a door opening into the new produce house which they will open up when the building is completed.

Hermleigh badly needs a modernly equiped produce house, and Mr. Early has plans looking forward to this accomplishment. He declares it is his purpose to pay the selling public of Hermleigh the right price for their produce, and to sell them groceries and auto fittings at the right price.

His business is growing very rapidly since the opening of his grocery a few weeks ago. Mr. Early declares he knows what the people need and that he intends to see that they get it.

Mr. Early came here from Arkansas a number of years ago, and has been eminently successful in his every undertaking in a business way since coming here.

CITIZENS DIS-SATISFIED WITH ADMINISTRATION

With a Garzar County Judge on the bench, Hermleigh citizens go to law "against themselves" in District Court to-morrow to begin a series of court tests concerning the legality of the city's incorporation. Judge Fritz R. Smith is disqualified to hear the case on the ground that he has been advised with in connection with the incorporation and the action of administration in erection of the high water tower, the purported tax burden of which seems to be at the base of the trouble. The Post City Judge will decide whether or not the City of Hermleigh shall be enjoined concerning the administration of government, according to the statutes governing city and town incorporations.

If the injunction is granted the city will fight with tied hands to defend its incorporation and should the injunction not be granted, a trial to test the legality of the incorporation will be ordered, it is understood.

The people of any commonwealth or municipality is the government. A united people, a mighty government; a divided people a weakened government.

ELECTION RETURNS

J. Lewis was elected as treasurer, and T. N. Mims was elected marshall. No large vote was polled, it is understood.

 Hermleigh, Texas, as second class mail matter, according to Act of Congress, March 3, 1897.

WHOM WE SAW SATURDAY

Mr. Pat Lofton of the Pyron community paid our office a visit and our paper a subscription Saturday. Mr. Lofton is one of the county's thriftiest citizens.
 Somehow he uses his time to the best financial advantage. He is not a cotton farmer, as we understand, and his success, therefore, is an evidence that money can be made on Scurry farms in other ways than growing cotton.
 Being a representative man of the community, it might not be bad for others to pattern after the
 "no cotton" part of his success.

Mr. Lofton is a good church and school man.

Mr. J. H. Hays was in town Saturday. He stopped his wagon on the street, pulled out his pocket book and paid for a renewal of his subscription to the Herald.
 We love to send our little paper to men like this. There is no better expression of appreciation of an editor's efforts than for good men to evidence their interest by paying subscriptions. Dissatisfied readers never offer to renew their subscriptions.

We remember visiting Mr.
 Hay's home last summer and noting how he cares for the smaller things about the farm. We think Mr. Hays is a fine example of farm economy. "Take care of the dimes and the dollars will care for themselves," seems to be his policy concerning the smaller things about his farm.

Bert Standifer was in town
 Saturday.

Sunday morning C. B. Gleas-tine spoke to us concerning his interest in making a bigger paper of the Herald. He said he had thought the matter over and had planned in his own mind how it might be done. If the Herald had a lot of friends like Mr. Gleastine, it would be only a short time until it "would grow into manhood."

Since Gleastine Bros. sold their grocery here, there are only five businesses in town that support the paper weekly. This is the reason, Mr. Gleastine, that the Herald doesn't have on its "long britches." It is our ambition to publish a paper, big or little, which is concerned about the interests of the masses of the people, giving every man a fair deal so far as we know. If there are those who are not interested in helping us do this, it is our misfortune.

It is peculiar that our friends are interested in a bigger and better paper for Hermleigh. We greatly appreciate this, and shall honestly endeavor to master circumstances and give them an increasingly better paper.

Misses Rosa May Hodnett and Kattie Marie Louder of Snyder visited with us Saturday. Roses decline to bloom in presence of pretty little girls like these.

Mr. J. E. Martin was in town
 Saturday.

Mr. John Neitzler was a pleasant caller at the Herald office Monday, renewing his subscription while in. Thanks, Mr. Neitzler.

The hatching season is in full sway. Most of the smaller hatch-eries are full. We have made special preparations to meet this rush which invariably comes at this time of the year, and have recently increased our capacity.
 We can handle your eggs. Send them in. Our large hatchery is just as close to you as your home town, Hermleigh or Inadale.

 town Tuesday.

Mr. O. C. Powers of Dallas is family here this week.

Mrs. J. L. Sligh and Dave were

THE "P" WHICH THE PRINTER REJECTED

Our readers have all doubtless noticed that a 'P' was left out of IMPLEMENTS in Fargason Bros. ad last week. This was not an error. It was a force of circumstance. It was announced that the injunction trial which is to come up tomorrow was announced to be coming up last Thursday, and that scared the "P" out of us.

Our good friend J. A. Kaysinger who recently moved to Wasteller is back in Hermleigh. Good Mr. Kaysinger.

Mr. Hollam was in town Monday selling maize at $18.00 per ton. Looks good Mr. Holman. The producer should be selling. The consumer should be buying.

Joe Merritt was in town Tuesday evening. He is at work now in connection with the county fair. Mr. Merritt is one of the county's leading citizens and is very influential as a county leader. He is thrifty, capable, conservative, and above all he sticks to what he thinks is right.

My horse and two jacks will make the season at my barn until sold. Terms, to insure, $10.00 with half down.

J. S. Farr.

I am still operating my home laundry and solicit your laundry work. Why leave town for work which can be done here by home people?—Mrs. Sligh.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peterson had the sad misfortune of losing their baby son, Doyle, last week. He died in a sanitarium at Sweet water and was buried here Saturday afternoon.

George Peterson has been very sick of pneumonia this week.

Misses, Opal Gleastine and Ruby Kimzey and with Messrs Louie Brock and Weldon Patterson of Inadale and Pyron attended the singing convention at Pleasant Hill Sunday afternoon.

Among those riding in the big air plane Misses Hallie and Sallie Rea, Opal Gleastine and Bill Rea. Ask Opal about the joy of riding in the air.

Mrs. Mobley entertained the little folks with a birthday party given in honor of Charlotte's eight birthday last week. All the kidies had a great time.

THANKS

The large majority of votes which I received in the city election Tuesday merits an expression of my sincere appreciation. I shall endeavor to live up to the trust the people of Hermleigh are placing upon me.

Our readers have all doubtless noticed that a 'P' was left out of IMPLEMENTS in Fargason Bros. ad last week. This was not an error. It was a force of circumstance. It was announced that the injunction trial which is to come up tomorrow was announced to be coming up last Thursday, and that scared the "P" out of us.
