Parmer Medical Center is proud to introduce Vincent Esparza, MD. Dr. Esparza completed his Medical School training at Texas Tech University Health Science Center, Paul Foster School of Medicine in El Paso, Texas. He completed his internship in Texas Tech University Psych Program (UMC) in El Paso, Texas and his residency in Internal Medicine at Mountain View Regional Medical Center, Las Cruces, New Mexico.

Dr. Vincent Esparza

Dr. Esparza relocated to Friona from Las Cruces on October 30th and started working at Friona Rural Health Clinic on October 31st. When asked, Why Friona?, Dr. Esparza replied, "I like taking care of the hard-working people of Parmer County. I really enjoy the sense of community that is fostered here, and I hope to get the opportunity to be part of that."

Dr. Esparza enjoys rebuilding old cars, playing guitar, and spending time with his family and friends. He has a tiny, sweet Yorkie named Sarah that he loves to spend time with. His proudest accomplishment is graduating from Medical School.

Dr. Esparza wants to remind his patients to always use antibiotics responsibly.

If you have not had the opportunity to meet Dr. Esparza, please stop by Friona Rural Health Clinic or make an appointment to see him. He would love the opportunity to become acquainted with more members of the health-care service area.

Bringing History and Heritage Home

Local dairy farmer takes traditions from his native country to impact the community he calls home.

Dairy Farmers care about the communities where they live and often give back, but in Friona, Texas, one local dairy farmer merged his family heritage and passion for serving to create a truly unique and special experience for his town. Harry DeWit was raised in the Netherlands and still visits often to see his family and it was on one of these visits that he witnessed a tradition that sparked an idea that would become a beloved event in his community.

The kidz building camp is a rural Dutch tradition that brings together young people from all backgrounds to build and create. Typically using pallets, the participants are encouraged to build any type of structure they can dream up. Seeing the benefit it could bring to the youth in his town, DeWit began hosting a Kidz Building Camp in Friona with the help of fellow dairy farmers Tom Alger, Koen Ally, and other volunteers from the community. Kids ages 5-12 participate in the week-long event. On the first day, kids are divided into groups and tasked with taking their pallets to create a structure fitting the theme of the building camp for that year. This summer, the theme was businesses around Friona.

"Some kids go on family vacations over the summer, but others in the community might not be able, and the Kidz Building Camp gives every kid the opportunity to take part in something over the summer," says founder and organizer DeWit. "We have seen 5-year-old kids who may have never held a hammer before be able to take their idea and make it a reality, thanks to our volunteers helping and guiding them safely in the building process."

Koen Ally, another dairy farmer in Friona, became involved in Building Camp when DeWit pitched the idea to him. At the time, his kids were also the perfect age to participate and are now a volunteer and lead the camp. A large component of the camp is encouraging kids to be independent and creative and learn how to use the tools they are given to bring a vision to life. Guided by one or two volunteers per group, the kids take the lead to create outstanding structures at the camp.

"Kids need to play. We are taking a chance giving 7,8,9-year-olds a hammer but giving the kids freedom and creativity is awesome. They can play the old-fashioned way. It always surprises us that kids don't need a cell phone at camp," says Ally.

The event has changed and evolved through the years, and this year families were invited to attend camp on Friday night to see first-hand what their kids had created and participate in different games and activities. The family aspect was one of the best parts of this year's event for Alger. This summer, two of his grandkids were also in town and were able to attend. After night one, they were hooked and now say they are coming back every year to go to building camp.

On top of the independence, creativity, responsibility, and hard work the kids are getting to learn, teamwork is one of the foundational skills that building camp focuses on. Alger said it best, "The kids learn to work with each other. They get a team with seven or eight kids, somebody turns out to be the leader, and they come up with their own ideas of what to build."

State Capital Highlights

By Gary Borders

Panic buttons, locked doors for Texas schools

Texas public schools would have to install panic buttons in classrooms and ensure all doors and windows are locked and monitored under new proposed safety standards released last week by the Texas Education Agency.

The proposal is the latest effort to strengthen school safety after 19 children and two teachers were killed at Robb Elementary in Uvalde last May in the state's deadliest school shooting.

The Dallas Morning News reported that school districts in coming weeks can apply for grants from TEA to cover spending on security-related items, including installation of silent panic buttons this year. Each district will receive at least $200,000, with funds awarded on a per-student count.

Districts would also be required to undergo twice-annual maintenance checks to make sure that two-way radio equipment used by law enforcement and first responders works inside their school buildings. Previous reports indicate poor radio communication was one reason law enforcement didn't confront the gunman for more than an hour in Uvalde.

More than 79,000 traffic crashes were recorded in 2021 in the state's five main energy sectors — the Permian Basin, Eagle Ford Shale, Barnett Shale, Anadarko Basin and the Haynesville/Bossier Shale — resulting in 1,119 fatalities. The Texas Department of Transportation launched its "Be Safe. Drive Smart" fall campaign to remind drivers to slow down, stay alert and be extra cautious when driving in high-traffic oil- and gas-producing areas.

Drivers are urged to follow the posted speed limit and adjust driving to road conditions; don't text or talk when behind the wheel; give large trucks plenty of space; pass only when it's safe to do so; and always buckle up.

"Be Safe. Drive Smart" is a key part of #EndTheStreakTX, which is attempting to end the streak of daily traffic deaths in Texas. On Nov. 7, the state marked 22 years since the last deathless day on Texas roadways.

Wildfire safety urged during hunting season

Deer season is underway, and the Texas A&M Forest Service urges hunters to be careful with activities that may cause a wildfire this hunting season. From 2017 to 2021 the forest service responded to 3,682 wildfires that burned 1.4 million acres. During that period, 42% of wildfires occurred during the major hunting season months of September through January.

"Texas A&M Forest Service wants all hunters to be safe this upcoming season," said Karen Stafford of the forest service. "We all have a role to play in protecting our state from wildfires, so remember to do your part and don't let a wildfire start."

Hunters are urged to avoid driving over and parking on dry grass, which could spark a fire; to check for burn bans in effect; never leave a campfire unattended; and to always carry a fire extinguisher, shovel and water to camp.

Emergency SNAP benefits again extended

Once again, emergency Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program food benefits have been extended through the U.S. Department of Agriculture and distributed by the Texas Health and Human Services Commission. More than $334.5 million in emergency benefits are going to about 1.6 million Texas households.

"As we head into the holiday season, we hope these additional allotments provide nourishing meals to Texans in need," said Texas HHS Access and Eligibility Services Deputy Executive Commissioner Wayne Salter.

All SNAP households will receive a minimum of $95 in emergency benefits by Nov. 30. Since April 2020, more than $8.7 billion in federal food benefits have been provided to eligible Texans.

Texas again leads nation in jobs added

The latest statistics from the Texas Workforce Commission and the Bureau of Labor Statistics show Texas led the nation in jobs added over the past 12 months and broke the state's record for total jobs for the 11th consecutive month.

The state economy has added 721,800 positions since September 2021. The state's unemployment rate was 4.0%

"More people in Texas are working today than ever before. In fact, more people in Texas are working than the entire population of the state of Pennsylvania," said TWC Commissioner Julian Alvarez. "TWC offers an array of free services to Texans to ensure their success — everything from free online learning courses to occupational training and hiring events. We're here to help."

Biggest-ever Buc-ee's coming to Luling

Buc-ee's is planning to bring the title of largest of its travel centers back to Texas by building a 75,000-sq-ft facility in Luling, about 50 miles south of Austin. The new facility will be 1,000 square feet larger than the current title holder in Tennessee, according to The Dallas Morning News.

The new building in Luling will have 120 fueling stations and is expected to open next year. Buc-ee's began 40 years ago in Lake Jackson and now operates more than 30 travel centers in Texas and nine in other states. The company plans to expand to Colorado and Missouri.

COVID-19 cases again remain steady

The number of new cases of COVID-19 cases reported in Texas by the Coronavirus Center at Johns Hopkins University stayed steady the past week at 11,535, with 62 deaths recorded. The number of lab-confirmed COVID-19 hospitalizations in the state recorded by the Texas Department of State Health Services also stayed steady at 974 as of Sunday.

Girl Scouts & Guides In Action!

Have you ever thought about joining a Girl Scout group? Millions of girls and women across the world gather to have meetings, plan their schedules and then spring into action! Girl Scouts can work in groups to help their communities and take part in fun activities. They also can choose areas of interest of their own and work by themselves to build skills and earn badges. Some of the scouts I know are interested in the fields of science, technology and engineering. They are designing or programming robots. I like to learn about and cook up dishes from around the world. There's something for everyone.

Read the clues to learn about the Girl Scouts and to fill in the puzzle:

1. in Savannah, Georgia in 1912, Juliette "Daisy" Gordon Low held the first meeting (18 girls) of what would become the Girl _____ of the USA
2. in the U.S. there are over one _____ members (including adults); worldwide there are 10 million girls and adults in 152 countries
3. _____ are grouped by grade: Daisies (K-1), Brownies (2-3), Juniors (4-5), Cadettes (6-8) Seniors (9-10), Ambassadors (11-12)
4. they meet in groups at schools, churches and homes and are led by adult scout leaders who help them _____ what they want to do
5. Girl Scouts keep learning and doing; they earn _____ of their choice
6. they learn about _____ and wildlife while having fun - hiking, camping
7. they gain _____ skills by selling cookies and earning money
8. they take field trips to visit places and mingle with _____ everywhere
9. Girl Scouts try to be honest, friendly, caring, _____ and respectful...
10. they learn _____ tips, how to live well, and even learn some first aid
11. _____ service projects, like food drives, are high on their lists
12. Girl Scouts work to "...make the _____ a better place"

Hmmm, we need to test the motor for our robot again.

Learning and Earning!

Girl Scouts can choose areas of interest, like photography, and work on skills that will earn badges for those areas. During the first years of the Girl Scouts, there were about 25 badges to choose from. Today there are hundreds of badges offered, ranging from cooking and product design to entertainment technology and programming robots. You can even create and design your own badge (to build a skill!)

Small Town Cookin' By Jeri Lynn White

Thanksgiving Sides

The Best Squash Casserole
www.southyourmouth.com

INGREDIENTS

- 4 lbs fresh yellow squash
- 1 small onion
- 1 large carrot
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 10-oz can cream of chicken soup
- 1/2 cup butter, melted
- 1 12-oz bag herb seasoned stuffing

INSTRUCTIONS

Preheat oven to 350oF. Wash squash well then cut into slices (about 1/4 inch thick). Boil or pan-fry until very tender (see recipe notes) then drain well. Meanwhile, using a box grater, grate carrot and onion (just like you would shred cheese) then add to a large mixing bowl. Add sour cream, creamed soup (do not prepare first) and butter then mix well. Add 3/4 of the bag of stuffing and cooked squash to the bowl then gently fold until well combined. Pour mixture into a greased 2-quart baking dish. Top mixture with some of the leftover dry stuffing (not all of it, just enough to make a uniform top crust). Bake for 30-40 minutes or until heated through. Cover loosely with foil after 20 minutes to prevent overbrowning.

NOTES:

- To boil the squash, simply add the sliced squash to salted boiling water then cook for about 7-8 minutes or until tender. Drain well.

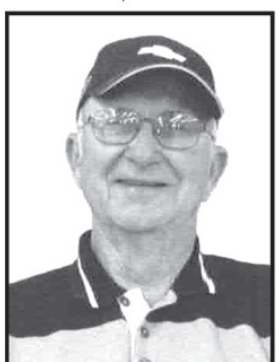

- To pan-fry the squash, heat a little oil (or bacon grease!) in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Add squash, season with salt and pepper, then sauté until tender (about 10-12 minutes). Drain liquid from pan if present.

- I use Pepperidge Farm's Herb Seasoned Classic Stuffing
- You can use other Cream of Something soups but Cream of Chicken tastes best.
- Don't use the whole bag of stuffing or the casserole will be dry.

Dinosaurs and the Bible

By Brett Hoyle, Pastor, First Baptist Church

As a kid I was so fascinated with dinosaurs. The majestic, gargantuan creatures could hold my attention when taught about them in class and when reading about them in books. The vast fossil record of their existence is varied and widespread, and ignites the imagination regarding the lives of these amazing beasts. These ‘terrible lizards’ have consumed countless hours of research and excavation, filled the screens of Hollywood with larger than life blockbusters, and have filled the pages of a plethora of books. Have you ever wondered, though, does the Bible say anything about dinosaurs?

That’s a great question and the space of this article requires a quick answer. YES, the Bible has something to say about dinosaurs! The first chapter of the Bible tells us plainly that they were created on day 5 and 6 of creation. Beyond that, in Job 40-41 there is a description in one of the oldest books of the Bible that describes two dinosaurs. The Behemoth and Leviathan are their names, and a literal reading of the text paints a clear picture of these amazing beasts.

The Bible not only tells us that dinosaurs existed, were created by God, and lived alongside humans, but the Bible also tells us what happened to most of the dinosaurs. In Genesis 6-9 God sends a flood that “blotted out every living thing on the face of the earth” (7:23), which also included dinosaurs. The handful of dinosaurs who were on the ark, didn’t grow into a flourishing population as before the flood. The biblical flood is significant when considering dinosaur fossils, because that explains how there is such a vast, varied, worldwide and layered fossil record. For something to fossilize it needs to be buried rapidly, and that is exactly what the flood did as the face of the earth was impacted by the forces of nature that God unleashed. The biblical flood is the best explanation of the fossil record and explains why fossils are found so intact, fossilized in the action of life, and why so many sea creature fossils are found great distances from the sea.

In conclusion, evolutionary science has hijacked the topic of dinosaurs, fossils and archeology in many ways, which is very sad because God’s Word also speaks to this topic. As you see God’s truth in regards to such magnificent creatures, it leads to a greater amazement at the Creator’s power, creativity and wisdom in creation and history.

Panhandle Parables

God and Country

By Jeff Procter, Minister, 6th Street Church of Christ

By the time you actually get to read this the dust of the election will be settled, well sort of. This I do know, God remains on His throne, Christ is still King and one day all will be made right according to Him. But beyond the politics and 1st and 2nd Amendment arguments there is a group of men and women of whom I would like to take a moment to thank for protecting our process and all the rights and privileges that we are blessed enough to appreciate if we are paying attention.

I would like to thank those who have served this country and were able to come home and become veterans. I am thankful for all that have served our nation. Because of these veterans, I can stand before a crowd each Sunday and preach from God’s Word. I can assemble and worship in freedom. Because of these veterans each of us can cast a ballot that allows our voice to be heard. Because of these veterans I can travel across the United States because that is what they fought to protect. Both my grandfathers fought in World War II. My dad served during Vietnam, my cousin served several tours in Iraq and Afghanistan and retired with over 20 years of service. I pray we not take lightly the sacrifices of the thousands and thousands that have served to protect our way of life. Paul says in Romans 13 to give honor where honor is due. For those who served this great nation, thank you. To those who continue to serve thank you. May God grant you blessing and peace. May we give you honor.

Tomorrow is Veterans Day. If given the opportunity shake a hand of a veteran and thank them. You can never appreciate someone too much who is willing to die for you. Happy Veteran’s Day.

Choosing to Live a Blessed Life

By Teena Hughs

This afternoon, I worked the election. I enjoy working elections because I get to see people I haven’t seen in a long time, and I get to meet new people.

At today’s election, I met an 80 year-old lady who just made me smile and feel good!!! Her name is Billie, and she was telling us she rode her motorcycle trike to a rally in Hot Springs, Arkansas, over 600 miles from here, and she did it by herself!!! She is this tiny lady, and to look at her, you would never dream she could, or would, do something like this.

Billie said that while she was at the rally, her trike broke down, and she had to have it hauled home, but she was so blessed. The people at the rally took up a collection to help her get her trike fixed. She was just so blessed because people took care of her, and somehow, she got home.

Billie has, and lives, a blessed attitude because she loves and enjoys life. She was so happy, even though she hadn’t been feeling well for the last few days. By the time she left, I was hoping I could be as positive and cheerful as Billie is, and enjoy life to the fullest like she does!

The attitude we choose makes such a difference in our day-to-day lives. Billie may not have been feeling well the last few days, but unless you heard her say it, you wouldn’t know it. I believe Billie is the kind of person who chooses to enjoy life; who chooses to be blessed in whatever situation she finds herself, even when her trike breaks down over 600 miles from home; who chooses joy and being blessed as the way to live her life.

I am watching AT the election results. They aren’t the blow-out I was hoping for, so at first, I was a little down. I got to thinking about Billie, and I am willing to bet, she isn’t feeling down about the results. I imagine she is just feeling blessed that the candidates she voted for are doing as well as they are.

I am glad I met Billie today. I could be choosing to have a bad night over something I have absolutely no control, but because of her, I am not. Isn’t it amazing how God puts people in our lives to show us positive ways to live? I thank God for using an 80 year-old lady to remind me of the benefits of choosing to live a blessed life!

Friena High School FCCLA students recently visited the Snack Pak 4 Kids headquarters in Amarillo. While they were there, they learned how to build the Snack Paks. The group also selected some new items to add to the student-run Snack Shak at FHS.

Seven Friena students: Antonio Vasquez, Uriel Piña, Eduardo Juarez, Alexis Rivas, Edward Trevino, Alan Faudoa, and Kenneth Morales completed the TCEA (Texas Cattle Feeders Association) Feedlot Tech Certification program. To obtain this certification, the students had 2 days of training plus online videos and test training. They visited Warren CAT in Amarillo where they learned how to drive large wheel loaders and skid steers. They were also in Dalhart to tour and learn about the inner workings of a feed mill and learn about Lock Out Tag Out and the XIT Five Rivers Feedlot. Finally, they went to West Texas A&M and were tested on Welding, Cutting, and Bending on iron. They then took a written test, tested over Lock Out Tag Out and finished off with a mock Job Interview.

Thanksgiving Community Service is Nov. 20th

The Annual Community Thanksgiving Service is set for Sunday, November 20, at Calvary Baptist Church, located at 1500 Cleveland Avenue. The service will begin at 6:00 p.m. and is hosted by Friona Christian Ministries. It is always an uplifting time of worshipping the Lord Jesus as a community of believers. An offering will be taken and the proceeds will be used throughout the year to help people in our community with basic needs. There will be a time of fellowship immediately following the service.

Bringing History and Heritage Home

Local dairy farmer takes traditions from his native country to impact the community he calls home.

This year, one group even designed a dairy farm which was fitting since the dairy foods and beverages provided to the kids were a fan favorite, especially the chocolate milk. "Every night, we have someone provide a free meal, like the Lions Club, local bank or other groups. We make sure all the kids have plenty of water and chocolate milk, and I tell you what, chocolate milk is a favorite for all of them," said DeWit. The people who are cooking or bringing a meal are also given a judging sheet, and they can go around the camp and rank each group based on several different criteria and prizes are handed out on Friday night.

DeWit, the kidz building camp board, and the many volunteers keep coming back year after year to host the camp because they know the value in getting kids outdoors and teaching them to have fun as a team. "It is a joy for me to give back to the community and see how creative the kids are and how the whole community bonds and looks forward to this camp. It is just good to see the kids work with their hands, create something and develop ideas," said DeWit.

The experience of Kidz Building Camp is genuinely unlike anything else, and DeWit would love to see it spread to other towns and communities as well. "If anyone wants to get in contact with me, I would love to share what we do so other towns can take the idea, find some volunteers and get started as well.

If you have questions about how you can start a Kidz Building Camp yourself or want to learn more, please reach out to your local Dairy MAX representative.

Unknown but not forgotten

By John Grimaldi and David Bruce Smith

There are approximately 400,000 veterans in Arlington National Cemetery with engraved ranks, branches of service; dates of birth and death; on their headstones. Except one:

History.com reports that "Exactly three years after the end of World War I [on November 11, 1921], the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier [was] dedicated at Arlington Cemetery in Virginia during an Armistice Day ceremony presided over by President Warren G. Harding."

According to the Arlington National Cemetery, a "Vietnam War Unknown lay in state in the U.S. Capitol Rotunda from May 25 to 28, 1984. On Memorial Day, May 28, a military procession transported the casket to Arlington National Cemetery for burial. President Ronald Reagan presided over the interment ceremony." When DNA became available in 1998, it was used to discover the identity of the unknown soldier, who was then reinterred in accordance with the wishes of his family.

"On September 17, 1999 — National POW/MIA Recognition Day — [his tomb] was rededicated to honor all missing U.S. service members from the Vietnam War."

The Grateful American Book Prize recommends Twenty-One Steps: Guarding the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier written by Jeff Gottesfeld and illustrated Matt Tavares.

Come and Get It

Friena Seniors Citizens (FSC) requested financial assistance from both the Friena City Council and the Parmer County Commissioner's Court through the Rebuild American funds provided to the City and County. Both entities made a 24-month financial commitment from these funds to help FSC recover from the impact of the COVID-19 Pandemic. As an organization, we are so grateful for their support.

Friena Senior Citizens is an important asset for residents of Friena and the surrounding areas.

It provides nutritious meals, great socialization, and we are the only provider of Meals on Wheels for Friena.

Delicious meals are served at noon on Mondays and Thursdays at the Friendship House located at 1410 Washington Street. Everyone is invited and there is no minimum age requirement. Attendees have ranged in age from 2 years to 90+ years.

Meals are $5.00 for members and $6.00 for non-members. Takeout is available for an additional 50 cents. Membership is $40 per year and those funds help fund this organization throughout the year.

If you are interested in receiving Meals on Wheels on Mondays and Thursdays, you may contact Mary Joyce Barnett at 806-265-3583 or 806-265-5030.

You may call Susan Gonzales at 806-344-6333 by 10:00 a.m. on Monday and Thursday to order a takeout meal and/or find out what is on the menu for the day. Come join us for lunch sometime. You'll get a tasty meal and an opportunity to visit with friends and neighbors. We look forward to seeing you there!
