Initiatives Aimed At Curbing Impact Of Soviet Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Carter administration is engaged in a flurry of diplomatic activity, involving a range of ideologically diverse countries, aimed at containing the impact of the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan. The initiatives, not all directed at nations friendly to the United States, include a series of sensitive diplomatic missions: Deputy Secretary of State Warren Christopher, officials said, will visit Pakistan sometime during the next two weeks to discuss the possibility of a multi-national effort to bolster that country's defenses. Diplomatic trouble-shooter Clark Clifford will go to India next week to assure Prime Minister Indira Gandhi that the proposed U.S. military buildup of Pakistan is designed for Pakistan's defense and not to tip the regional power balance against India. Under Secretary of State David Newsom will travel to Romania this Saturday to reassure Romanian authorities of American support for Romanian independence. Romania, like Afghanistan, has a long border with the Soviet Union, and the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan has heightened fears in Romania about its own security. These missions are coupled with a continuing U.S. effort to win foreign support for President Carter's proposed global boycott of the Summer Olympics in Moscow or transferring the Games to another site if the Soviet troops are not withdrawn from Afghanistan within one month. The United States also has been engaged in an intense effort to persuade its European allies not to undercut U.S. efforts to punish the Soviet Union through a partial grain embargo and other economic measures.

Perhaps the most difficult challenges to American diplomacy involves Iran. The administration has sent a series of signals to Iranian authorities in recent days that, once the Americans being held hostage in Tehran are freed, the United States is prepared to cooperate with Iran in resisting any Soviet effort to expand its influence from Afghanistan southward into the Persian Gulf region. The Soviet intervention of Afghanistan has placed the Soviets within striking distance of the Persian Gulf and the administration believes the United States and Iran share a common interest in keeping Soviet influence away from that strategic area. On the other hand, the administration has said the United States must move ahead with economic sanctions against Iran if there is any hope the American hostages, now in their 81st day of captivity, are to be released unharmed.

Shah's Arrest Denied

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP)—A Panamanian army spokesman denied an Iranian government announcement today that Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi had been arrested for extradition to Iran. A spokesman for the deposed monarch said he was asleep at his rented villa on Contadora Island and no move had been made to arrest him.

George Bush says a victory in New Hampshire primary would put him well on his way to winning the Republican presidential nomination and Ronald Reagan may intensify his campaign there after losing to Bush in the Iowa caucuses. Meanwhile, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy says he faces a must-win situation in New Hampshire after he was soundly beaten by President Carter in Iowa.

New Slick Being Watched

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Discovery of another big oil slick drifting just south of the Texas coast has prompted the U.S. Coast Guard to resume its daily reconnaissance flights over the Gulf of Mexico. The slick covers 9,000 square miles, according to Coast Guard Capt. Gerald Hinson, coordinator of federal anti-spill efforts in Texas last summer. He said the slick is 150 miles long and 60 miles wide, and was spotted by aerial surveillance Sunday. However, he said the slick is just where scientists had predicted and was not endangering the Texas coastline yet.

The SDN Column

Extremes attract attention for a time, but usually they begin to wear and eventually their effect is eroded. Such may be the case of what has come to be standard procedure for some of our brethren in the so-called "media." The appearance of John Connally on the 60 Minutes television program may have leached out a big cavity in the credibility of that system. In years gone by, some of the columnists and commentators acquired the image of "go-alongs" in that they appeared to make an effort to make their interviewees look as attractive as possible. In more recent times, this situation has reversed. Now, most of them seem to feel a compulsion to assume an adversary position and to turn their interviews into an attack rather than an attempt to acquire information. The public reaction to the treatment John Connally received on 60 Minutes has already created something of a stir, and this, along with a few other occasions in which it appeared that the interviewers had sharpened their axes before they went on the air, have evoked considerable criticism.

We may be witnessing the "beginning of the end" of an era which surged to the forefront during the Democratic National Convention in Chicago when the police of that city, along with Mayor Daley, absorbed the barbs of critics for what television viewers saw on their home screens during some mob activity by radical leftists. What they didn't see on their screens was the activity on the part of the mob that sparked police reaction, and which the television cameras carefully avoided. It was the old story that the instigator got off scott free, but those who retaliated paid the penalty. Athletes understand these situations. Subsequently, when some of the mob activity finally did hit the screens, most people had turned their attention to other interests, and the impact was lost, just as the showing of missed calls by officials in athletic contests after the games. Thus, the television people may rightfully claim that their cameras don't lie, but they can't deny that they do not necessarily show all and that they may create illusions.

Gold Continues Downward Trip

LONDON (AP)—The price of gold plummeted on world markets early today in an apparent continuation of Tuesday's nose-dive, then began rebounding in Europe. The dollar was mixed. The gold price dropped $209.65 in Hong Kong to close at $624.74. The metal opened in the Far East center at $685.48 and kept falling all day. Bullion opened in London at $615 and Zurich at $605 and dropped as low as $585 before making a comeback. By mid-morning, the price had climbed back to $665 in London and $645 in the Swiss center. Gold closed in London Tuesday at $705 and in Zurich at $733. In Tokyo, the U.S. currency dipped today from 239.70 yen at the opening to close at 238.175 yen, well below Tuesday's close of 240.35 yen. The London silver price was quoted at $38 an ounce, down from $38.50.

Registration Of Draft-Age Youth Said Considered

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Carter, in what would be an abrupt reversal of administrative policy, is said to be considering asking Congress to authorize peacetime registration of draft-age youths. Administration sources said Tuesday they believed the proposal came from within the White House staff. It comes amid unrest abroad, manpower problems in the military and a renewed defense orientation on Capitol Hill. White House officials declined comment Tuesday night. It was not known whether Carter would accept the proposal or include it in his State of the Union address to Congress tonight, said the sources, who asked not to be identified. White House officials said in July that the administration "is opposed to registration," contending "it is not necessary to impose this burden on our nation and its youth." All branches of the military fell short of recruitment goals for fiscal 1979, for the first time since the draft ended in 1973. But Defense Department officials concerned with manpower problems said Tuesday that the Pentagon had sent no staff papers recommending a renewal of registration to the White House. Defense Secretary Harold Brown told Congress last summer, "We don't propose to go to registration, let alone the draft, until we are convinced that other methods won't do the job." But senior military officers, particularly Army generals, have said peacetime registration is necessary to insure the nation enough military manpower to fill out regular forces in an emergency. These officers, noting that the Army National Guard and Reserve are below strength and largely unprepared for early deployment, have said U.S. security could be threatened if the country lacked effective standby draft machinery in the event of a Soviet attack on Western Europe. Some Army officials have estimated that without peacetime preparation and revival of the Selective Service System, it would take about seven months from a standing start to obtain the first trained and deployable draftees. Meanwhile, Senate Democratic Leader Robert C. Byrd and House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. said Tuesday the Soviet intervention in Afghanistan has revitalized the defense mood in Congress and brought talk of renewing the draft.

Tax Board Ponders Bids By Valuation Engineers

Special meetings of all governmental taxing entities will have to be called before the new, single unit Scurry County Tax Appraisal Board can employ a firm of valuation engineers. The five-member board, plus chief appraiser Ray Peveler, listened to bids last night submitted by three firms of valuation engineers, but took no action pending the approval of the other entities. The other entities consist of the City of Snyder, the county, the school districts in Snyder, Hermleigh, and Ira, plus the college board. They are parties to the agreement and each must pay its part in the overall budget. That agreement to share in the expenses must be obtained by the new county-wide taxing agency before the action of hiring a firm of valuation engineers can be taken. Last night, the firms of Latham & Stultz, Inc., of Dallas, Pritchard & Abbott Valuation Engineers, Inc., of Fort Worth, and Thos. Y. Pickett of Dallas met with the appraisal board, submitted bids, and discussed procedural operations, techniques, and expense charges in a three-hour long meeting. Pritchard & Abbott's bid was $62,250, plus inflation. The Thos. Y. Pickett Co. turned in a bid of $59,500, plus inflation, and the Latham & Stultz firm said it would charge a flat $63,725 fee. All bids are for terms of two years. Board president John Reed indicated the board will consider not only the fee charges of each firm, but also the procedural operations and operational techniques used by each in deciding which to employ. Reed also indicated the tax appraisal board will likely meet again the middle to later part of next week, providing the other entities meet between now and then and agree to share operating expenses, and employ a firm at that time. Attending the meeting last night were representatives of the city, county, and Snyder school district.

Claims Witch's Rights Violated

PLAINVIEW (AP)—Defense attorney Travis Shelton said law enforcement officers violated Loy Dean Stone's rights when they searched his property without telling him a teen-age girl had died or advising him of his rights. Four law enforcement officers testified Tuesday that no one read Stone his rights on Halloween 1977 after Roxanne Casa, 15, was slain while sitting in a pickup in Stone's driveway. Stone, 50, and his wife, Louise, are charged in the shot gun slaying and both have pleaded innocent. Mrs. Stone, 49, was granted a separate trial. The Stones are high priests in the Church of Wicca, a witches' group that believes in reincarnation and psychic powers. The Stones say they do not believe in Satan. Castro County Sheriff Granville Martin and Texas Department of Public Safety trooper Jackie Gunnels testified they asked Stone to hand over a shotgun when they arrived at his house near Dimmitt in the Texas Panhandle. Then Martin said he left all five of his deputies

some cheery news

It's not easy finding something cheery in the news these days, but it'd there if you look hard enough - or far enough.

Say as far as Brazil, from where a recent Wall Street Journal had a late report on the killer bees that should help take minds off multiple world crises for a few minutes.

You remember the killer bees. They are the African imports intended to revitalize the South American bee stock that turned out to be as bad tempered as they are industrious. When aroused, which is easily, they supposedly attack anything moving with a ferocity that has resulted in 16 recorded human deaths.

The bees caused a stir a few years back. Escaping from experimental stations in Brazil, they became something of a contemporary legend, good for at least one shock movie, as they advanced north toward the Central American isthmus and the United States, where they are expected to arrive in great numbers sometime in the '80s.

Well, the good news is that intermingling of the Africans with local bees has resulted in interbreeding. And the result of that is much tamer offspring. The hybrid bees have lost a lot of the old hostility but retained the industry. They can still be provoked more easily than ordinary bees, but beekeepers have several methods of dealing with that, including wearing heavy protective clothing of a color - all white - that is apparently a big turnoff for the bees.

So although the reformed killers are still moving steadily north, Brazilian experts say Americans no longer have anything to worry about.

Nothing to worry about? What about Afghanistan, and Iran, and...

new fortune cookie

A big story in Shanghai recently was China's manned space program.

As it happens, it's still on the ground. But when it's time to lift off, the Chinese, who have made a number of unmanned launchings since 1970, intend to be fully prepared. A team of "spacecraft pilots" has been selected and, according to the Shanghai press, is well into a training program that includes experimentation with space rations of a typically Chinese flavor.

One menu item is a pellet made of noodles, eggs and dried shrimp. Mixed with hot water in the mouth and swallowed, one pellet is said to be the equivalent of a full meal.

Actual flight testing could turn up a typical problem, however. After half an orbit, a spacecraft pilot may be hungry again.

my turn

by jo ann nunley

At one time or another we are all caught with embarrassment for something we say that doesn't sound exactly like what we meant to say.

Birds are entangled by their feet and men by their tongues," is a statement by Thomas Fuller we can certainly relate to. We have all felt the impact of this quote at one time or another. There is no need to feel alone or too badly about it, for everyone occasionally trips over his tongue, has brief mental lapses, and puts his foot in his mouth. Usually the bloopers come at a time when they can be most embarrassing.

Perhaps a brief look at some of the boo-boos pulled by others will help relieve your mortification the next time you trip over your tongue.

Possibly the most common bloopers are metaphors, the transposition of letters, sounds or syllables. A professor of a well-known university fell into the trap when he stated that some students too often "hisssed my mystery lecture." One day, we're told, he told a startled lady "Mardon me, padam, but you are occupying my pie."

Spoonerisms crop up frequently in the pronouncements of everyone from actors and announcers to masters of ceremonies and politicians. One thespian, for instance, was giving a butler direction on how to set the table. "Place the sporks and foons," he uttered. Pausing he tried again: "The pork and spoons..." The next attempt brought, "I mean, of course, the sporks and poons..." He never did make it.

An announcer giving a commercial says "Our bulbs give you less and less light for more and more money."

Many politicians apparently have a hangup for spoonerisms. One day the Speaker of the House recognized the late Sam Rayburn. "The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Rayburn, Mr. Texas." A vigorous senator campaigning for his party's presidential nomination, stumping Nebraska and beginning to feel the effects of rigorous routine, opened his talk with: "I'm glad to be here in New Hampshire."

Hard as you might try to avoid it, there's just no escaping tripping over your tongue occasionally.

Bloopers sometimes best result in calling a halt when there seems to be no way out like this poor judge.

Attorney: "How far is it between these two towns?"
Judge: "You mean as the crow flies."
Witness: "About six miles as the flow cries."
Attorney: "No, no, Your Honor. He means as the flow fries."
Witness: "That's not it. It's as the fry crows."
Judge: "Gad! I decourt this clare adjourned."
We won't go into bloopers in print. That's another column.

When the cornerstone of our civilization is laid, my personal entry for inclusion will be the 1040-A form put out by the Internal Revenue Service. Not only is it the only piece of mail to be sent third class bulk without a stamp that gets to your home in mint condition - within three hours after it is sent - but it is written in Taxese for an English-speaking population.

Every year someone says they are going to write it in English so that the average person can understand it and make out his own form, but this never happens.

I don't pretend to speak Taxese, but I'll try to translate some of the simpler terms for you.

Spouse: This is a married person, for which you get one exemption, providing your spouse is neither blind nor over 65. If the spouse is either blind or over 65, take two exemptions. However, if the spouse is both blind and 65 or over, then you take three exemptions. This term has made "fooling around" very popular.

Gains: An obscene word you do not use in front of the children.

Gross income: A term borrowed from kids, previously used to describe their allowance.

Abandoned Spouses: Married persons who live apart can file separate returns. "Abandoned" does not include couples separated by NFL, AFL, NBA, ABA, NHL, Olympic Games, or Wide World of Sports.

Death: This is no excuse for not filing a 1040-A form. If it has not been filed, a personal representative or heir must do so. Remember, you don't get a refund unless you file.

"If Line 13 is larger than line 15, the difference will be refunded to you." This is the IRS's attempt at humor, like the old line where someone calls you and asks if the street light is burning and when you go out to check, they say, "Then try to blow it out." Actually, it's a funny line. I personally have never known anyone whose line 13 was larger than line 15.

Paid Preparer: This is someone who helps you prepare your return. Some of them will go with you to your IRS agent when you are summoned, including the District of Columbia, the U.S. commonwealths and possessions and all foreign governments who have tax treaties with the U.S.

Have fun filing.

hopes luck holds out

NEW YORK (AP)—After watching the economy expand last year, contrary to expectations of his economic advisers, President Carter is hoping his luck might last a while more.

In doing so, however, he is conceding the administration's vision of the economic future is blurred and that maybe hope, rather than insight or perhaps control of events, is the beacon that guides it.

"In recent months the economy has displayed much more strength than earlier forecasts had predicted," the President announced in his State of the Union message, a preliminary to tonight's address to Congress.

Therefore, he declared, "Forecasts of impending recession might... prove to be as wrong as previous ones."

They might, but Albert Cox, a former presidential economic adviser who now heads Merrill Lynch Economics Inc., a relative of the big brokerage firm, has just raised the odds on a "major downturn" to 75 percent.

While, like Carter, that still leaves Cox with hope that one might not occur, it is rare for economic forecasters to commit themselves so strongly. Remember, survival dictates that they learn double-speak.

Cox foresees "a steep drop" in economic activity beginning soon, if not already, and persisting into the third or July-August-September quarter. It would be followed by "modest" recovery later in the year. "Look for declines in consumer spending and inventory liquidation to trigger production curtailments across most major industries," Cox and his associates say in their "Plan-ward the election of someone to run the country for the next four years.

They also mark the start of a long, almost confusing process whereby Iowans of both parties choose who they want to nominate at their respective national conventions. That choice, contrary to popular belief, is not made at the Jan. 21 caucuses (although the winner definitely has the inside track when the final choice is made).

What actually takes place is a far cry from the winner-take-all preference vote newspaper stories seem to suggest. All that happens at each party's 2,531 caucuses is the choosing of delegates to its 99 county conventions that will be held in the spring.

At those 99 county conventions, delegates will be selected for their party's state convention to be held in late spring or early summer. Finally, at the state convention, delegates will be chosen for their party's national convention to be held this summer (in Detroit for Republicans and New York City for the Democrats).

Despite the not-so-important nature of this media Big Event it is interesting to see how the caucuses work.

In larger towns and cities, the night's voting takes place in schools and churches. In smaller communities, most are held at private homes or farms.

Any voter who is willing to state a party preference is eligible to attend and vote in a caucus in his or her precinct. Prior party registration is not required, so crossover are possible, although unlikely this year because both parties have hotly contested races.

The precinct-level caucuses differ slightly in the two parties. In the Republican Party, each person attending a caucus gets to vote for whoever he or she wants. Some caucuses have secret ballots, while others simply use a show of hands. The delegates to the county conventions from each precinct are then apportioned according to the percentage vote the presidential candidates get at each caucus. Candidate organizations then select who will be the delegates to the county conventions.

The Democrats do it differently. Once it is determined by a show of hands how many of those attending at each precinct are for a given candidate (for the Democrats, uncommitted is a possibility), the total delegation to the county convention is divided proportionately among the contenders. The supporters of each then separate into sub-caucuses to select their delegates to the county conventions.

At the same time, the exact number of votes for each candidate, Republican or Democrat, is totaled statewide and is reported as a straw vote.

Historically, only a small percentage of the state's voters turn out for the caucuses.

In 1976, for example, 619,000 Iowans cast their votes for Jimmy Carter in the general election; only 38,000, however, bothered to vote in the Democratic caucuses that year. The record turnout is only 75,000 - and that was in 1968, when the caucus vote amounted to a referendum on the Vietnam War.

On the GOP side, 632,000 Iowa voters went to Gerald Ford in the November 1976 election, but only 22,000 people participated in the Republican caucuses.

Thus, the Iowa caucuses stand not so much as a popular preference vote but as an organizational test of which candidate can deliver the most supporters to each of the 2,531 meetings. The candidate who best translates popularity into warm bodies on caucuses night emerges the "winner."

All that candidate wins, of course, is some great publicity. But that is what counts as far as presidential hopefuls are concerned. Because, by the time Iowa does select its convention delegates, each hopeful hopes to be the far-and-away front-runner in his party, meaning that nothing that happens at the Iowa state conventions will matter much anymore.

Messy Fridge Frosting Her

By Abigail Van Buren
1980 by Chicago Tribune & News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing about a problem that is perplexing to me. My husband is absolutely perfect in every respect except for one habit that I cannot seem to break him of.

Instead of throwing out empty food containers after he has emptied them, he puts them back in the refrigerator! I can't begin to tell you how many empty cartons, bottles and cans I have found in the refrigerator.

No amount of scolding, pleading or nagging seems to help. He offers no explanation for this screwball behavior. I think he's too lazy to walk to the trash can on the other side of the kitchen.

Can you, or your readers, offer any kind of a solution so that I can have a perfect husband?

FRUSTRATED

DEAR FRUSTRATED: You're crying with a loaf of bread under each arm and an empty ketchup bottle in the refrigerator. If a man must have but one flaw in an otherwise flawless character, I can think of none so harmless, inoffensive and easy to forgive as your husband's. Cherish this paragon of virtue. He's a candidate for sainthood!

DEAR ABBY: My problem may be unusual, but no more so than some of your other mail.

I am a mature young woman, and my problem concerns my height. I am 5 foot 4 inches and very slim. I would normally be quite happy with my height, but my dream has always been to be a top-notch fashion model, and I need to be 4 or 5 inches taller to qualify.

Do you know of a doctor who would be willing to give me hormone shots to make me grow? If so, I would also like to know about possible side effects, fees, etc.

I respect your advice, and trust your judgment.

EAST COAST MODEL

DEAR MODEL: I consulted an endocrinologist. He replied, "If she is a normal, healthy, fully-developed young woman, hormone shots would not help. And no ethical physician would treat her with the promise of adding to her height."

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I are not up on all the social graces, and we want to know what is proper.

When a man and woman are seated and an elderly lady approaches them and introduces herself, are both the man and woman supposed to stand? Or just the man? What if the elderly person were a man?

NONAMES, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAMES: When an elderly person of either sex approaches a younger couple, both the man and the woman should stand — out of respect to age, not sex.

DEAR ABBY: In your reply to ANGRY IN SAN MATEO, you wrote that "love generates love."

The late Martin Luther King Jr. showed us that hate generates love, too. In his "Stride Toward Freedom" (New York: Harper & Brothers, 1958), he wrote:

"I can only close the gap in broken community by meeting hate with love. If I meet hate with hate, I become depersonalized, because creation is so designed that my personality can only be fulfilled in the context of community. When I love, I restore community."

Gymnastics Program At Northeast

A group of gymnasts from grades kindergarten through sixth grade presented a developmental gymnastics demonstration for the Parent Club at their January meeting.

Kenneth Parker, P.E. teacher at the school, explained how skills were built beginning at the kindergarten level. Students demonstrated skills on the high bar, mini-tramp, balance beam, parallel bars and floor exercise mats.

Parker conducts a weekly gymnastics program on Wednesday in which students are given the choice of many gymnastic stunts. This training has sparked many Northeast students to seek after school help from professionals in the area, he said.

Each grade builds on the skills learned at the previous level; many skilled athletes are produced by the end of the sixth grade. Gymnastics is a portion of the varied P.E. program at Northeast.

On the lead of the last trump West was squeezed. If he pitched a heart, dummy's three hearts would be winners so he had to blank his spade ace. South pitched the now worthless heart six from the dummy and led a small spade from his hand, forcing West's ace. The spade king was now declarer's game-fulfilling trick.

Pre-emptive jump overcalls can be a very useful weapon and are preferred by most bridge experts in tournament play. Ironically, just such a bid enabled South to play today's hand with mirrors. East had a very good seven-card suit, little outside strength and was able to communicate all of this with a weak jump overall of three diamonds. South, who had no way of knowing three notrump was the best contract, bid four clubs and North raised to game. The opening diamond lead was won by East with the ace. At trick two he returned the queen of hearts, won by declarer's king. South could count 11 tricks, but wasn't able to take them. He had three heart winners, six club tricks and two diamond ruffs in dummy. South could win the heart king, ruff a diamond and lead a trump to his hand. Then he could ruff another diamond with the ace of trump.

But South would not be able to return to his hand to draw the remaining trumps. The ace of hearts would be ruffed by East and the ace of spades was obviously in the West hand. East's weak jump overall could hardly include the spade ace. South knew all of this before he played to trick three.

He ruffed a diamond at trick three and ran five rounds of trumps. The position with declarer needing four of the last five tricks was:

Mexico Says Clements Established As Friend

By JACK KEEVER
Associated Press Writer
AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Alfonso Martinez Dominguez of Nuevo Leon, Mexico, says Gov. Bill Clements established himself as a "good friend of our country" by refusing to blame Mexico for the offshore oil spill last year.

Clements said Martinez Dominguez's trip here Tuesday—the first state visit by a governor of Nuevo Leon to Texas—would be followed by visits by the governors of three other northern Mexican states.

Clements visited the four states—Nuevo Leon, Coahuila, Tamaulipas and Chihuahua—in 1979.

"We will have other visits in the not distant future and on a continuing basis," Clements told a news conference.

He added that Martinez Dominguez would come to Texas again soon to look at recreational and amusement areas.

The news conference at the Lorenzo de Zavala State Archives and Library Building climaxed a day in which the two governors toured the Capitol and the Lyndon B. Johnson Library, ate lunch on the University of Texas campus and met privately for about an hour.

In welcoming ceremonies in the Senate chamber, Clements said he hoped the meeting would show Washington how to treat foreign neighbors as equals.

Martinez Dominguez responded by stating he would never forget that Clements had stood by Mexico during the outcry over the Mexican oil spill that flowed onto Texas beaches.

Clements proclaimed Tuesday as "Texas-Nuevo Leon Friendship Day," and Martinez Dominguez said he would see that a similar resolution is adopted in his state.

A 19-gun salute and standing ovation from some 500 spectators greeted Martinez Dominguez's arrival.

Young children waved small flags from the balcony, and the Mexican governor waved back.

"I am hopeful that these meetings and discussions between the people of Texas and the people of Mexico will serve as an example to our leadership in Washington of the need and benefits of dealing with our neighbors in a setting of respect and equality," said Clements in a speech translated into Spanish.

"Our two great nations have shared a border for many years, but that is no longer enough in this turbulent world of ours," said Clements. "We must also share a respect for each other as equals and we must work to strengthen each other and to strengthen our bonds, for such bonds will serve both nations well and provide both with a brighter future."

In a speech translated into English, Martinez Dominguez said Mexico had "recovered from the economic crisis we went through some years ago" and would try to double its industrial capacity within the next decade.

Nuevo Leon will reach that goal within six years, he said.

The Mexican governor said he would "never forget" that when "many voices condemned our country" because of the Bay of Campeche oil spill in June "the voice of Gov. Clements arose and was heard, and stated his friendship."

HEALTH Lawrence E. Lamb, M.D.

She wants to shape-up

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB—I've read about so many different diets and now I'm concerned as to what not to eat and what to eat and how much or how little. It seems like every book has its own version of the perfect diet. I sat down one night and read a number of diets and almost all of them contradicted each other. What's a person supposed to do?

I was wondering if there is any certain diet you could recommend for me. I'm 19 and a half and I'm approximately 5 feet 2 and I weigh 110 pounds. I know that may not sound too bad but instead of having the weight distributed evenly, I've got a stomach that bulges terribly and my legs are too big. Last summer I looked fine but during the winter I got depressed and ate constantly and, of course, it all just settled on me. Is it possible for me to lose all of these inches and look like myself again? I hope so.

DEAR READER—Yes, there's an unending maze of information about diets. There are a wide variety of foods so it's not too surprising that you'll run into a lot of variation in different diets that are recommended. There are some basic facts, however. We know that fat contains more calories than any other food component. That means that any diet that intends to restrict your calories should limit the fat intake. This, in turn, means eliminating butter, margarine, cream, whole milk and removing the fat from any meat which one eats, as well as avoiding preparing foods by adding additional fat as in frying.

Another source of calories that can be eliminated is excess sweets. While you're on a reducing diet and trying to limit calories, it's important to eat foods that provide bulk and water in them. That's why vegetables and fruits without added sugar are a good source of carbohydrates for your diet.

I don't think you sound too bad and I would hate to see you on a starvation diet as some young women are prone to follow. Rather I would like to see you start an exercise program. Your description of your body build suggests that you should be walking, running and developing exercises that use calories, and that you ought to start some strength exercises to develop your arms and shoulders.

Many American women are particularly weak in the arms and shoulder area. Testing has shown that large numbers of women and young girls cannot even do a single chin-up. That's mostly from neglect and lack of training.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 3-7, Girth Control: Avoiding The Big Middle. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019. It will help you some with the kind of exercises that you ought to be doing to help reduce the size of your abdomen. Nevertheless, if you do have fat inside the abdomen, you can't expect to have a real thin waist without getting rid of the fat.

Why don't you exercise and just eliminate the excess fat, sweets and desserts from your diet and see if that isn't enough to help you gradually improve yourself without going on an overly restricted diet.

'Tumbleweed' Due At API Meeting

Noted humorist and radio personality Tumbleweed Smith will highlight the American Petroleum Institute's monthly meeting Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Snyder Country Club.

Tumbleweed, whose real name is Bob Lewis, can be heard Monday-Friday on KSNV Radio with his three minute program featuring interviews with interesting and humorous people all across Texas.

Tumbleweed Smith is the first of many well known personalities and entertainers who will appear at API meetings, according to Bill Lemen, local API president.

Thursday's program is open to the public and all tickets will be sold at the door.

our chapter's attention to community projects and charities," Lemen said.

Thursday's meeting will begin a membership drive, Lemen said. We would like to have members from all segments of the community, not just petroleum-related industries.

For further information about Thursday's meeting or membership in the API, you may contact any API member.

Airline Employees Blamed For $1 Million In Baggage Thefts

DALLAS (AP)—Airline employees may be responsible for almost $1 million dollars worth of baggage thefts at the nation's largest airport during the past four years, a federal prosecutor said.

"FBI agents have recovered merchandise worth almost $1 million," said assistant U.S. Attorney Gerhard Kleinschmidt, after he secured indictments from a federal grand jury Tuesday.

"We don't know how many other items were taken, but it is apparent that massive thefts from freight shipments were taking place at the airport," he said.

The indictments name six former airline employees and a seventh man, accused in separate thefts totaling $250,000. The items taken range from a $39 pair of shoes to a $170,000 jewel shipment, according to the indictments.

One former Braniff Airways employee, who ran the air freight receiving office, was charged with mail fraud in connection with a $12,000 payment the airline made on a loss claim submitted on a race car engine.

The indictments name three other former Braniff employees, former workers for American and Delta airlines, plus a Farmers Branch businessman.

Kleinschmidt said the FBI entered the investigation last summer, at the request of Braniff officials.

The indictments cover a wide range of alleged thefts.

The largest single theft mentioned in the indictments occurred at Delta Airlines. Former employee, William Cordell Abshire, 39, of White Settlement, is charged in the taking of a $170,000 shipment of diamond rings enroute to a Dallas jeweler.

Undercover FBI agents posing as thieves purchased some rings from Abshire, Kleinschmidt said, and used a search warrant to recover more than 500 rings from the man's home.

Delta officials said Abshire was fired after the theft was reported.

Two indictments name James Vern Cox, 33, of Dallas, former head of Braniff's air freight cargo receiving office at D-FW. Braniff officials said Cox resigned after the investigation began.

He is charged, along with two other Braniff employees, with stealing various pieces of electronic equipment, including the April 1976 theft of a weather radar system destined for a customer in Abilene.

The indictment further alleges he took a set of golf clubs being shipped from Nevada. That same indictment also accuses Andre Safford, 36, of Lewisville.

Cox, Safford and Don Ray Gibson, 25, of Grand Prairie, are charged with the June 1979 theft of 336 videotapes being sent from Tokyo to Irving.

A second mail fraud indictment names Cox and James David Ray, 37, of Dallas, with concocting a scheme to make it appear Braniff had lost a $12,000 race car engine, then submitted a false loss claim.

Kleinschmidt said Ray, operator of Off-Road Enterprises in Farmers Branch, had shipped the engine in November 1977 to Illinois, but the recipient refused delivery and it was returned.

Ray and Cox then removed the engine and filed the claim, he said.

Karl Pierre Knutson, 19, of Arlington, is charged with stealing a 9mm automatic pistol from a suitcase belonging to an agent of the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms.

An American spokesman said Knutson was fired after the Dec. 19, 1978, incident.

A fourth Braniff employee, Janet Lynn Day, 20, of Dallas, is charged in the September 1979 theft of a $39 pair of shoes from a passenger's suitcase.

"We are going to prosecute the small cases along with the high value cases," Kleinschmidt said, "to stifle talk we heard from employees who say they won't be charged if it is a small amount."

Kleinschmidt said the thefts were the result of greed on the part of the employees, some of whom earn up to $30,000 a year and all of whom qualified for free travel and other airline benefits.

"That's the only thing that bothers me," he said. "They had no reason to steal. They all had good paying jobs with the airline."

Rehab Center Telethon Draws Flock Of Nation's Top Stars

To support continuing treatment for the handicapped of the Southwest, the West Texas Rehabilitation Center will hold its 10th annual telethon, Rehab '80, from 8 p.m. until 3 a.m. Jan. 26-27.

The program will be aired by 13 television stations in Texas and Oklahoma both to inform the public of the services offered by the West Texas Rehabilitation Center in Abilene, San Angelo, and Snyder, and to launch the private, non-profit facility's year-long funding program.

Pat Boone, Shari Lewis, Slim Pickens, and Rex Allen, Jr., are among the stars who will be on hand to promote the Rehab Center.

Other stars who will perform during the seven-hour show are Anacani, Arthur Duncan, the Otwell Twins, Johnny Desmond, Helen Forrest, Bill and Susan Hayes, Eileen Barnett, Sammi Smith, Stuart Hamblen, Margo Smith, Tex Williams, Pedro Gonzalez Gonzalez, Jimmy Weldon, Grant Teaf, Johnny Gimble, Chris Christian, Mac Wiseman, Montie Montana, the Angle Sisters, the Texas Travelers Cloggers, Pat Atteberry and the Rehab '80 Orchestras. Bidding on more than 60 items, valued at approximately $85,000 will go on throughout the evening. A 1978 "Indy Pacer" Corvette, a 25-inch Philco television set, farm and ranch supplies and equipment, 300 pounds of beef, cut and wrapped, and smoked turkeys, furniture, ties, boots, and bronze sculptures by well-known western artists will be among the items on the auction board.

A special auction of handmade quilts and afghans donated by accomplished needlewomen from across Texas will be featured during the evening.

Reports from the Colonial Rehab Rangers, special gift presentations and informative messages about WTRC are included in the program. Messages will be narrated by Bob Hope, Shari Lewis, Rex Allen and Rex Allen, Jr.

The seven-hour production will originate live from the Abilene Civic Center in Abilene and San Angelo Convention Center in San Angelo. Tickets are available at $6 for reserved seats and $4 for general admissions.

A special microwave link between Abilene and San Angelo will permit live switching between the two San Angelo viewers can watch the local telethon on KCTV-TV, which will join the full network for the final portion of the show.

Television stations on the Rehab '80 network include: KRBC-TV, Abilene; KACB-TV, San Angelo; KCTV-TV, San Angelo; KXTX-TV, Dallas; KTVV-TV, Austin; KSWO-TV, Lawton, Okla.; KAMR-TV, Amarillo; KLBK-TV, Lubbock; KMOM-TV, Monahans; KWAB-TV, Big Spring; KZTV-TV, Corpus Christi; KVTU-TV, Laredo, and KDBC-TV, El Paso.

Beef Down; Onions Up

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department says that, while hamburger supplies may be a bit short, there's plenty of onions.

Beef output in February still is expected to be only "adequate" in retail stores, but pork and broilers will still be in "plentiful" supply, the department says.

Onions also will be plentiful.

Another of USDA's "food marketing alert" reports, issued Tuesday, gave these rule-of-thumb forecasts. Adequate means "enough to meet normal needs" and plentiful indicates "more than enough for requirements," according to the report.

February beef output will be 8 percent to 10 percent below a year earlier, but pork supplies will go up 18 percent to 20 percent. Broiler shoppers will see supplies up 4 percent to 6 percent next month over a year ago.

And Onions? The February outlook calls for supplies to be up sharply.

2 Men Hurt In Truck Mishap

Palmer EMS picked up two men from a truck wreck early this morning. The men, John W. Anderson of North Richland Hill, and Frederick R. Jackson of Grand Prairie, were taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital. The men were admitted for observation and released late this morning.

The one-vehicle accident occurred about 12:40 a.m., approximately five miles east of Snyder on Highway 84.

Banquet Scheduled By Scout Council

The 56th meeting and annual banquet of the Buffalo Trail Council, Boy Scouts of America, is scheduled for Friday night at Midland.

The site will be the First Presbyterian Church, 800 W. Texas, in Midland. The annual business meeting will begin at 6 p.m. and the banquet will begin at 7 p.m.

Merle Krulish of Dallas, regional director of the South Central Region of Boy Scouts of America, will be the featured speaker. The banquet program will include recognition of outstanding volunteer service performed by adult scout leaders from throughout the 18-county Buffalo Trail Council. Officers of the council for 1980 will be elected and installed and four Silver Beaver awards will be presented. The Silver Beaver is the highest recognition a local Scout Council may give to the volunteer.

Loud Snoring Called Harmful

DENVER (AP)—Loud snoring can be a health hazard because the snorer steals sleep from himself and may develop heart and breathing problems, say the co-directors of a sleep laboratory here.

"Snoring does more than keep a spouse awake, although that can be bad enough," said Dr. David W. Hudge, a specialist in respiratory problems. "It prevents people from getting the deep, restful sleep that they need."

Storm System Spreads Rain

By The Associated Press A storm system in the East continued to spread rain from the mid-Atlantic Coast through the Florida Panhandle this morning as rain changed to snow over the Appalachians.

Another frontal system in the northeast brought snow to the Great Lakes, the northern lower Ohio Valley and much of the North Atlantic States.

Said Check Scheme Was For Benefit Of Islam

BROWNSVILLE (AP)—An Iranian student was told police he was asked to take part in an alleged scheme to pass forged checks for the good of his country.

"They appealed to my patriotism, they talked me into it for the good of Islam, my country and my leader," police quoted Gholam Reza Pakyari as saying following his arrest Monday.

Pakyari, a 23-year-old student at Texas Southmost College, was charged with trying to pass a forged check and jailed in lieu of $20,000 bond.

The student said persons in Houston asked him this summer to open a bank account and deposit the questionable checks, said Brownsville police detective Tony Hess.

Hess said Pakyari had deposited checks totaling $13,000 since December on an account of the National Bank of Kuwait in the Pan American Bank of Brownsville. The Kuwaiti bank had an account with the Irving Bank and Trust Co. of New York.

After placing the funds in a Pan American account, most of the money was then transferred by check to other accounts, Hess said.

The checks on the Kuwaiti bank's accounts were made out on a typewriter to Maxx Jake Makly. Hess said Pakyari opened his account in that name and when arrested had a set of identification in the name "Jake Makly."

The student was arrested by trying to deposit a check at a drive-in window. Officials at the bank had called police after learning through a bank clearinghouse that other checks deposited from the Kuwaiti account were forged.

Loud Snoring Called Harmful

"I think we just got the tip of the iceberg right now," Hess said. The FBI is investigating the case to see if federal laws were violated by transferring stolen property across state lines through bank transactions, said FBI agent Bob Nixon of Brownsville.

Nixon said it was too early to tell if the arrest represents part of a larger scheme by Iranians to set up cash pools across the country.

"We're not working at it that way, but if we get information from other parts of the country, we'll pursue it. Houston is part of the investigation," Nixon said. "From what the guy told the police, it could be a larger plan. We just can't say at this time."

Loeffler To Keep Eye On Plan To Shutdown Goodfellow Air Base

By SOLL SUSSMAN Associated Press Writer WASHINGTON (AP)—A Texas congressman has promised the Air Force he will be monitoring closely its preparation of an environmental impact statement on the proposed shutdown of Goodfellow Air Force Base in San Angelo.

"I remain unconvinced that it makes any sense at all to close a vital cryptologic training center, located in a safe and secure location, at a time when our national security is being challenged on so many fronts," Rep. Tom Loeffler wrote Tuesday.

"The proverbial ball, however, is in your court," the Republican congressman said in his letter to an Air Force official. "I take the Air Force at its word and look forward to an EIS of which we can all be proud. One which answers satisfactorily the substantial questions raised by the citizens of San Angelo and me."

Loeffler, whose district includes San Angelo, had sponsored an amendment to a military construction bill that required the Air Force to complete an environmental impact statement before it could close Goodfellow.

The congressman said he hoped the additional step would push the decision to close the base into a presidential election year. Loeffler wrote to the Air Force in December after concerns were voiced that military officials would put together the EIS hastily in an effort to proceed with the decision to shut down Goodfellow.

Pointing to the language of the amendment requiring the EIS, the congressman wrote: "It does not say that the Air Force shall rehash old reports, which are replete with inaccurate information; then reargue preordained conclusions... and then pretend that you have complied with the law of the land and prepared an EIS. That clearly will not do!"

Joe Meis, an acting assistant Air Force secretary, replied recently that the EIS would be comprehensive. He targeted June as the time the EIS would be available for public comment and October or November as a likely time for its final submission to the Environmental Protection Agency.

Meis added that a review of the Air Force's rationale behind its proposal to close Goodfellow did not indicate any better alternatives. "In managing our resources as effectively and efficiently as possible, many times we must make hard decisions that adversely affect a particular area," Meis wrote. "Earlier, we indicated that consolidation of cryptologic training will not adversely affect our defense posture."

Goodfellow provides military intelligence training for the Army, Navy, Air Force and Marine Corps. It has about 2,200 military positions and 300 jobs for civilians.

CBS Scores Big With Super Bowl

NEW YORK (AP)—CBS outscored the opposition with Super Bowl XIV and the postgame show, then went on to win the networks' prime-time ratings race for the fifth week in a row, according to figures from the A.C. Nielsen Co. CBS' triumph in the week ending Jan. 20, though by a narrow margin, pulled the network even with ABC for the season to date.

Two-thirds of the TV audience Sunday evening watched the Super Bowl game between Pittsburgh and Los Angeles, which began at 6 p.m. EST, an hour ahead of the start of prime-time. More than half stuck around for the post-game show and "60 Minutes," which followed.

The rating for the game was 46.3. Nielsen says that means of all the homes in the country with television, 46.3 percent watched at least part of the game. CBS had six of the week's 10 highest-rated programs, and compiled a rating of 22.5. ABC was second at 20.2, and NBC third at 16.2. The networks say that means in an average prime-time minute during the week, 22.5

percent of the homes in the county with television were watching CBS.

For the season to date, both CBS and ABC have ratings of 19.4 to NBC's 17.7. The networks calculate weekly and seasonal averages, and though CBS and NBC call it a tie, ABC maintains it still has the lead, 19.4 to 19.2 for CBS and 17.5 for NBC.

Several programs introduced since the first of the year showed signs of promise. CBS' "House Calls" was No. 13 in the ratings, and ABC's "One in a Million" finished 24th. "Knots Landing," a companion of sorts to CBS' popular "Dallas," was No. 30 in the ratings, and NBC's "Skag" finished right behind.

Because elephants digest only 40 percent of their food, they may consume up to 500 pounds and 60 gallons of water a day.

Snyder In Spot To Win First Round As...

Felines Get Past Sweetwater!

Sweetwater's highly-touted varsity girls team came into Scurry County Coliseum a little too tight and a lot too physical, or so the officials apparently thought last night.

The end result was a 65-49 victory by Coach Ken Housden's Snyder Felines, and a three-way lockup in District 3-AAA competition.

Housden's girls built an early 5-0 lead and never trailed in the game, outpointing the Mustangs in every quarter to lead 29-22 at the half and 47-37 after three periods.

Sweetwater got into foul trouble early, to the vocal disapproval of Mustang fans. The Mustangs, who ventured into the coliseum with a bulging 18-3 record and needing only a win over Snyder to clinch the first-round loop crown, were ticketed for 17 first-half fouls while the Felines were flagged for only six.

The visitors got tagged for 15 in the final two quarters while Snyder received 11, though nearly half of those Mustang fouls occurred late in the game as a desperation tactic.

Snyder missed on 11 of its first-half free throws, and hit only 25 of 48 for the night. Sweetwater came up with 13 of 20 from the line.

Neither team shot well from the floor, though exact statistics were unavailable. Snyder took advantage of a workable fast break in the early going, but Sweetwater shut it down later in the game.

After a cold start, Tracey O'Day got warmed up and zipped in 19 points to lead the hosts. Teammate Jamie Hataway had 17 points while Brenda Anderson basketed 14. Pam Gray countered with nine; Sandy Sewell had four; and Suzy Fisher added two.

Sweetwater, led by Teresa West's 20 points, trimmed the margin to 30-28 in the third quarter as the Mustangs rattled off six straight points. But a basket by O'Day, two free shots from Hataway, a single point from Gray and a 15-footer by Hataway got Snyder back in front 37-30 and the Felines' lead never dwindled lower than five again in the game.

With two minutes to go in the contest and the score 57-47, Sweetwater decided to put Snyder on the line, hoping for missed shots and rebounds. But the Felines hit eight of 12 charity gifts to seal the victory.

The win gives Snyder a straight shot at the loop title when the Felines take on Lake View in San Angelo on Friday at 8 p.m. Snyder, 3-0, remains the only unbeaten conference team, and by virtue of last night's win has clinched at least a tie for the first-round loop title.

A win over Lake View would give the Felines that crown. A loss would put Snyder, Lake View and Sweetwater in a three-way tie.

At the high school gym yesterday, Snyder junior varsity finished Sweetwater 61-33. The Felines, boasting a 13-2 season record, out-scored the Mustangs 33-12 in the second half; 23-4 in the final quarter.

Michelle Townsel led the Snyder scoring with 21 points; Shana Koonsman had nine and LaDonna Halford and Kelly Jones added seven each.

Aggies Grab Top Tackle

PORTLAND (AP)—Texas A&M has won a commitment from prize defensive tackle Tommy Robison of Gregory-Portland to play his college football with the Aggies.

Robison, recently named the state's No. 1 football player by the Amarillo Chamber of Commerce, visited the A&M campus over the weekend and announced Tuesday he has canceled planned trips to Texas, SMU and Notre Dame.

The SWC signing date is Feb. 13.

The 6-5, 250-pound athlete was named recently to the Parade Magazine High School All-America football team.

Snyder missed on 11 of its first-half free throws, and hit only 25 of 48 for the night. Sweetwater came up with 13 of 20 from the line.

Neither team shot well from the floor, though exact statistics were unavailable. Snyder took advantage of a workable fast break in the early going, but Sweetwater shut it down later in the game.

Westerners Still On Top Though Kankakee Close

HUTCHINSON, Kan.—Western Texas College remains undefeated and at the No. 1 spot in the latest NJCAA men's basketball poll.

Midland, No. 4 last week, fell to No. 5, while ninth-ranked Tyler dropped from sixth. Neither team lost a game since the last polling, however.

Kankakee College of Kankakee, Ill., continues to press WTC's Westerners. Western Texas lost 13 votes, down from 202 to 189, while Kankakee which jumped from No. 3 to No. 2 this week ahead of Three Rivers - picked up eight votes from 140 to 148.

Interestingly, Three Rivers improved its record from 15-1 to 17-1, but like Midland and Tyler, dropped in the poll.

WTC To Resume Action Thursday

Western Texas College, which racked up four conference wins between its men's and women's teams in the past seven days, goes back in action Thursday.

Joe Cushing's Dusters, 16-6 on the season, take on East Texas State at 8 p.m. in round-one of the Tarleton State Tournament, while Westerner leads his undefeated men's team against unbeaten Midland.

According to Cushing, his Dusters were going into the three day tournament in Stephenville looking for the championship crown, but added, "The conference game with South Plains is what concerns me most. We're going into the tournament and play hard, but we're going to have fun, too."

In other words, that conference race—which is currently locked in a three-way tie between WTC, Odessa and Howard College—is the No. 1 item on the agenda. The Dusters play South Plains on Monday, following the tournament.

And speaking of No. 1's, Richardson's Westerners will have their hands full when 18-1 Midland College finds its way into Scurry County Coliseum on Thursday at 8 p.m.

Midland's only loss came in the ABC Classic at the hands of the Westerners. But Richardson was quick to point out, "There's a lot more on the line this time than an ABC championship. We've got to be ready."

Bird Among 'Star' Team

NEW YORK (AP)—Three Boston players, including rookie forward Larry Bird, were named today to the East squad for the National Basketball Association All Star Game.

Besides Bird, East Conference coaches chose guard Nate Archibald and center Dave Cowens from the Celtics. Also picked for the East team in the Feb. 3 game at Landover, Md., were forward Elvin Hayes of the Washington Bullets, Atlanta forward Dan Roundfield and guard Michael Ray Richardson of the New York Knicks.

Hayes will be appearing in his 12th consecutive NBA All-star game, one short of the career record of 13 shared by Wilt Chamberlain, Bob Cousy and John Havlicek.

The East reserves join a starting unit of forwards Julius Erving of Philadelphia and John Drew of Atlanta, Houston center Moses Malone, and guards George Gervin of San Antonio and Eddie Johnson of Atlanta. The starters were selected in fan balloting.

The reserves for the West team will be announced later today.

The passing percentage of quarterback Turk Schonert of Stanford in 1979 was 67.58, the result of 148 completions in 219 attempts.

Celtics Conquer, Sign Maravich; Spurs Win Too

By The Associated Press
The Boston Celtics signed Pete Maravich but it was the Chicago Bulls who were hot as a pistol Tuesday night.

The Celtics, battling the Philadelphia 76ers for the best record in the National Basketball Association, announced the signing of free agent Maravich shortly after Pistol Pete watched them defeat the Houston Rockets 112-106. The Bulls, on the other hand, had all the weapons they needed in shooting a team record 70 percent from the floor in trouncing the Detroit Pistons 145-131.

In other action, the Kansas City Kings downed the Atlanta Hawks 101-89, the Utah Jazz overthrew the Milwaukee Bucks 127-122, the San Antonio Spurs crushed the San Diego Clippers 129-109 and the Cleveland Cavaliers whipped the Washington Bullets 114-91.

Rickey Sobers and David Greenwood scored 26 points apiece as the Bulls rolled up their highest point total in four years. The Bulls and Pistons set a Chicago Stadium mark by scoring 92 points, 50 by Detroit, in the fourth quarter.

The Bulls shot 83 percent in the first quarter, raced to a 67-52 halftime lead and coasted the rest of the way.

Maravich no sooner signed than he said he planned to go on the injured list until he recovers from a "slightly pulled groin muscle." "I would rather have him here than defend against him at Philadelphia," said Boston Coach Bill Fitch.

Fitch was able to joke after the Celtics blew a 22-point lead following an injury to Dave Cowens early in the second half but rallied down the stretch to beat Houston with reserve Gerald Henderson contributing six key points.

Cowens made nine of 10 shots before leaving with a jammed ankle with Boston in front 67-53. The Celtics built it to 77-55 before the Rockets began their comeback. Led by Moses Malone and Rick Barry, they pulled into a tie with 4:29 remaining.

NEEDS ASSISTANCE—Snyder's Eric Arnold dumped in 16 points against Sweetwater last night, but needed some help on this instance. He got it, and some scoring help too, as the Tigers had five players in double-figures to defeat the Mustangs 70-56. (SDN STAFF PHOTO)

Exit Sweetwater, 70-56...

Tigers Take Opener

Snyder's Tigers, ranked No. 2 in the state in class AAA, opened the 1980 district campaign with a victory here last night, whipping Sweetwater 70-56.

The Tigers, now 18-4 on the season, will take on Lake View in San Angelo, Friday.

Double-figure shooting by five players helped earn Snyder's eighth straight win. Eric Arnold led with 16 points, followed by 14 from Brad Richardson, and 10 apiece by Kyle Short, Mark Preston and Kris Seale. Thomas Selmon chipped in seven points, while Barry Blackmon, who led in the rebounding category with 13, had three points. Richardson pulled down nine rebounds.

Solid defense was the key to Snyder's victory. Sweetwater — which had trouble getting inside all night — picked up 16 and 19 points in the second and third quarters, but was limited to only 10 and 11 in the first and fourth.

Snyder built a 20-10 lead in the first quarter and was never threatened in the game. The Tigers advanced the margin to as much as 16 points in the third and fourth periods.

For Sweetwater's Mustangs, paced by Johnny Cummings' 25-point effort, it was the 15th loss in 21 tries. The Mustangs are 0-2 in loop play, having lost to Brownfield 60-50 last week.

In other play here last night, Snyder boy's junior varsity won 54-52 over the Mustangs.

Tommy Gressett and Keith Wallace had 14 points each for the locals, while Goodman led the

TCU Upsets Cougars, Texas Falls Aggies Nail Razorbacks

By The Associated Press
Texas A&M stands alone at the top of the South west Conference basketball race, and by Coach Shelby Metcalf's standards, the Aggies are standing pretty tall.

"This may be our best team ever, defensively," Metcalf said after his team put away Arkansas, 45-39, Tuesday night to claim sole possession of first place in the SWC race.

The victory gave the Aggies a 6-0 mark, a game ahead of Arkansas and Texas Tech at 5-1. Next closest is Texas, 3-3, which dropped a 62-49 game on TV at Baylor Tuesday night. Another team is playing at 500 in the race.

"But it's too early to say who's going to win it. This is not the Iowa caucus," Metcalf said. "Our defense is carrying us right now."

In other games Tuesday night, Texas Christian surprised Houston 71-69 and Southern Methodist escaped Rice, 85-83.

Texas A&M led Arkansas most of the game. But the Aggies committed four turnovers, allowing the Razorbacks to fight back from a 24-20 halftime deficit to tie the game and finally take a four-point lead.

But with his team leading 25-32, Arkansas coach Eddie Sutton got too vocal in protesting the officiating, and A&M closed the gap to 35-34 on a pair of free throws on the technical midway through the second half.

The Aggies got the ball out of bounds after the free throws. Vernon Smith scored after a rebound to put Texas A&M ahead to stay.

After getting a couple of more free throws, the Aggies went into a four-corner stall with 7 1/2 minutes to play. Arkansas guard Scott Hastings fouled out, and the Aggies cruised in for the win.

"A&M has a great team and played extremely well. Their defense was very good, and A&M did a good job of executing its four-corner offense. That's the primary reason we scored only four points in the last 10 minutes," Sutton said.

TCU's victory over Houston was the first time in 10 1/2 seasons the Horned Frogs have pulled off back-to-back SWC wins. In beating SMU Saturday, TCU won its first road game of any kind since 1976.

"I'd be in the wrong profession if I didn't think it was because of good coaching," Houston coach Guy Lewis said in praise of TCU's Jim Killingsworth.

Deckery Johnson got the winning basket for the Horned Frogs when Larry Micheaux was called for goaltending on his layup with 43 seconds to play. Trailing 70-69, Houston stalled the next 40 seconds but missed its final shot, and TCU made a free throw to wrap up the triumph.

'Bear' Predicts Grid Playoffs

NEW YORK (AP)—Bear Bryant says a national championship college football playoff is inevitable. He doesn't know when it will happen, but he thinks he knows why.

"We'll go to it someday because we'll run out of money," the 66-year-old coach of Alabama's 1978-79 national champions said Tuesday as he accepted one of the many No. 1 awards this university has received following the Crimson Tide's 12-0 season.

Bryant envisions not only a great deal of exposure from a playoff during the time when pro football's Super Bowl commands the headlines, but plenty of television foot, as well.

"The big thing is exposure," he said. "They'd be coming to our house once in a while instead of to the Super Bowl. But someday it will come down to money, and when it does, we'll win over the academic people."

One of the major objections to a postseason, post-bowl playoff, even though it might involve only four of the 139 Division I-A teams, is that the players would miss too much schoolwork. Bryant shrugs that one off.

"Football players don't really miss many classes," he said.

"For instance, we leave for a game on Friday night and come back on Saturday night. Basketball and baseball players are the worst; they miss more classes than anyone."

The Bear said fast-rising costs of college athletics might help to push through the playoff idea, which never reached the floor of the National Collegiate Athletic Association's convention earlier this month although it had the support of the Extra Events Committee.

Boxers Will Vie In Russia

By The Associated Press
Despite President Carter's call for a possible American withdrawal from the Summer Olympics in Moscow, sports contacts between the United States and the Soviet Union are continuing.

A United States boxing team left Tuesday night for a three-city exhibition tour of the Soviet Union, joining a team of American wrestlers already there for a tournament beginning later this week.

The 20-man boxing squad was delayed for nearly three hours before taking off from Dulles International Airport in Washington when ground personnel balked at servicing the flight as a protest to the Soviets military intervention in Afghanistan.

Finally, after Soviet Aeroflot employees took over baggage handling and ticketing tasks which members of a local Teamsters union had refused to handle, the flight was able to leave.

The team is scheduled for matches in Moscow, Tbilisi, and Vilnius beginning Saturday and the American boxers were anxious to get on with their trip, despite a State Department request that they pass it up in view of recent events.

"I feel I want to go because politics shouldn't mix with sports," said Alex Ramos, a 156-pounder from New York.

"All the guys deserve to go because they've been training so hard and so long," said Lonnie Epps of Greenville, S.C.

Early today, a team of track and field athletes from the Soviet Union was scheduled to arrive in Portland, Ore., where they will compete Saturday, beginning a five-meet tour of the United States.

Another Soviet track and field team is scheduled to compete in Los Angeles, Albuquerque, N.M., Louisville, Ky., and Houston from Feb. 1-16. A Soviet hockey team is supposed to travel to Denver next week to begin training with exhibition games scheduled against Erie of the Eastern Hockey League Feb. 7 and the U.S. Olympic hockey team in New York Feb. 9.

The American wrestlers will compete in a tournament against the Russians Friday through Sunday at Tbilisi. A Canadian team has withdrawn from that event, although Pierre Trudeau, leader of Canada's Liberal party, said he does not support the boycott movement.

NEW VENTED GAS SPACE HEATERS.

Available Now at Lone Star Gas in Snyder.

The ideal replacement for unvented gas space heaters. Sensible, economical source of heat for add-on rooms, garages, workshops. Excellent supplementary heat for central heating systems in new and older homes.

• Safe • Reliable • Can be installed in frame or masonry exterior walls • Vents directly outside • Uses only outside air for combustion chamber • Requires no special flues or chimneys • Automatic heat regulation • Works with or without the optional forced-air blower for one-energy reliability

Financing Available Lone Star sells and installs these vented gas space heaters. Terms are available. Phone us for more information. Or visit our office and see these new heaters on display.

Direct vent heaters require only an outside wall through which concentric tubes vent the products of combustion and allow air to enter for support of combustion. Heated room air is not vented to the outside.

Limited time only — special trade-in allowance on your unvented gas space heater. Now at Lone Star Gas Company.

Suspect Soviets Used Nerve Gas

By FREDS. HOFFMAN, AP Military Writer.
WASHINGTON (AP) - U.S. intelligence sources say there are indications the Soviets may have used death-dealing nerve gas against anti-Marxist rebels in five areas of Afghanistan.
The sources, who declined to be identified, said the evidence is not conclusive enough to permit an open accusation by the United States.
But they said U.S. intelligence specialists give credence to descriptions provided by a number of Afghan refugees, including a defecting army officer.

This development comes less than a week after U.S. intelligence sources told The Associated Press the Soviet army had brought chemical decontaminating equipment into Afghanistan.
According to the new reports, the gas apparently was contained in bombs dropped from airplanes. The bombs were said to have burst in the air, spewing the gas in vapor form.
This vapor caused vomiting, breathing difficulties, bowel eruptions, blindness, paralysis and then death, the sources said. There was no estimate of the number of deaths.
U.S. specialists said the effects, as described by the Afghan refugees, correspond to known results from a Soviet nerve agent called Soman. They believe the same kind of nerve gas was used against Laotian tribesman resisting communist forces in Southeast Asia.
One intelligence report suggests the lethal agent was used against Afghan rebel tribesmen as early as last August or September in the Panjshir Valley

Newest Wave Of Smoker Research:
MERIT favored 3 to 1 over high tar brands in tests comparing taste and tar level.

Merit Sweeps New Tests!

---

Smokers Report: MERIT Taste Matches High Tar Cigarettes.

New taste tests with thousands of smokers prove it.

Proof: A significant majority of smokers rate MERIT taste as good as—or better than—leading high tar brands. Even cigarettes having twice the tar!

Proof: Of the 95% stating a preference, 3 out of 4 smokers chose the MERIT low tar/good taste combination over high tar leaders when tar levels were revealed.

MERIT: Proven Long Term Alternative To High Tar Brands.

New national smoker study results prove it:

Proof: The overwhelming majority of MERIT smokers polled feel they didn't sacrifice taste in switching from high tar cigarettes.

Proof: 96% of MERIT smokers don't miss former high tar brands.

Proof: 9 out of 10 enjoy smoking as much since switching to MERIT, are glad they switched, and report MERIT is the best tasting low tar they've ever tried.

You've read the results. The conclusion is clearer than ever: MERIT delivers a winning combination of taste and low tar.

A combination that's attracting more and more smokers every day and—more importantly—satisfying them long term.
