The Council sponsors many activities throughout the year. In August, they sponsored the Welcome Assembly; October, Homecoming; November, Teacher Appreciation Day; December, Canned Food Drive, School Christmas Tree, and Christmas Dance. They sponsor Valentine's Day in February and a salad dinner for teachers in March. And of course, the famed Fools Day in April.

All the spirit ribbons sold at school this year are sold by the Student Council. And the popcorn at all football and basketball games is sold by them also.

In the mornings (8:40-8:50), the school store is opened and the Student Council members run it.

They are very active in charity drives and are always trying to help. Last year they had a hand in the Muscular Dystrophy drive and worked with the Red Cross during the Easter Egg Hunt at the State Hospital.

This year, BHS Student Council is district parliamentarian.

Mental Retardation Survey Announced

Wichita County is included in a 12-county area in which Wichita Falls Mental Health/Mental Retardation (MHMR) Center, with the authority of Nortex Regional Planning Commission, will be conducting a developmental disabilities survey, "Operation Search".

Objectives of the program will be to determine the number of infants, children and adults who have learning handicaps such as mental retardation, cerebral palsy and epilepsy.

Some 25,000 "flyers" will be distributed throughout the 12-county area and anyone knowing of someone with a learning handicap should fill out the referral card attached to each bulletin.

Based on the resulting survey information, proposals will be made concerning services which should be started or expanded in various communities throughout the area.

Results of the survey will be available through Nortex.

"Operation Search" will be directed by Ron Goggenheim, MHMR director of mental retardation services, and Randy Hampling, director of health planning with Nortex. Maria English, of Burkburnett, will act as project coordinator.

Letters Of Commendation Presented BHS Students

Letters of Commendation honoring them for their high performance on the 1972 Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMQT) have been awarded to four students at Burkburnett High School, Principal Billy Darland has announced.

Those named Commended students are Paul Deutsch,

David Phillips, Leah Rogers and Douglas Schneider.

The National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) has named 38,000 Commended students through the United States. These students are among the upper 2 percent of those who are expected to graduate from high school in 1974. Thus, the Commended students rank high, but below the 15,000 Semifinalists in September by NMSC.

Edward C. Smith, president of NMSC, said: "The high standing of Commended students in the Merit Program competition shows that they have great promise of continued success in college. Although Commended students advance no further in the Merit Scholarship competition, their attainment in this nationwide program deserves public recognition.

"The Commended students should be encouraged to make every effort to continue their education. Both these students and our nation will benefit from their continuing educational and personal development."

To increase their scholarship opportunities Commended students' names are reported to the colleges they named as their first and second choices when they took the PSAT/NMQT in October 1972. The reports include home addresses, test scores, and anticipated college major and career intentions of the Commended students.

BE A SCIENTIFIC NIBBLER

Leading nutritionists have found that eating a piece of candy an hour or so before mealtime elevates the blood sugar level and, therefore, makes it easier for people with hefty appetites to reduce the size of portions and turn down second helpings.

According to Luden's Inc. of Reading Pa., a leading multi-line candy maker, which makes more than 500 items including the famous 5th Avenue Candy Bar and Nut Log Bar, hunger-pacifying candy snacks don't add many calories. A sour ball, for example, furnishes only 14 calories; a filled raspberry, 14 calories; a chocolate-covered peppermint patty, 30; a caramel, 38; a caramel with nuts, 47; a miniature chocolate, 27; and a regular-sized chocolate, 47 calories.

These figures compare favorably with the calorie content of popular fruits, i.e., an average raw apple provides 53 calories; a banana, 85; and four large prunes, a whopping 265 calories.

Driving Expert Says Plan Ahead

Driving by intention instead of instinct can stretch gasoline mileage for America's fuel-conscious motorists, says the head of a group that drives test cars for a living.

"Most motorists tend to think about their driving maneuvers only in terms of immediate need or opportunity," said Fred Bardwell, manager of The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Company's 7,300-acre tire proving grounds in San Angelo, Tex. "Thus, they have to make quick stops when something comes up ahead of them and gun their engines when the way is clear again."

The net effect is wasted gasoline. "The key is planning and anticipation," Bardwell says, "planning ahead to avoid unnecessary quick stops and starts, driving carefully and basic preventative maintenance."

BENT HOOKS,
MISSED SHOTS
and OTHER TALES

by Jim Alexander

The two breeds of people on this Mother Earth that rate almost equal, are preachers and fishermen. Preachers brave all types of roads, weather hazards, and irate sinners to perform their duties. Fishermen brave the same weather hazards, same roads, and mad wives in order to catch a fish that will grow at least two pounds before it reaches the freezer.

Preachers rise out of bed all hours of the day and night to go and administer aid to the sick, the deceased, the injured, and to the troubled. A fisherman also rises at the same odd hours but for different purposes. A fisherman will brave gale winds, driving rain, cold weather, insects, and insults to walk five miles to his favorite fishing hole just to say that he "lost ole Blue".

Preachers always think of other folks before they think of themselves. Fishermen are just the opposite and always think of themselves first in every instance. Preachers go to the pulpit when their fever is running high, throats are sore, noses running, and the service goes on. Fishermen on the other hand, will go fishing when their fever is high because most likely it's "fishin' fever".

Fishermen only get sick during the week, never on weekends, because they will lose fishin' time. Preachers and fishermen are always very easy to pick out of a crowd. Preachers who do wave their hands are most likely to be giving directions to the church. Whenever you see a fisherman waving his hands it will be one of three things: How long the fish supposedly is, how he set the hook, or how he had to hold the scales over his head to keep the tail from dragging the ground.

You may believe the preacher but believe only a very small part of the fish tale that's going on.

A preacher will keep the inmost secret and in most cases will take it to the grave with him, while a fisherman has no scruples at all. He will tell everyone he sees including his wife and at the same time swear that's the biggest lie he ever heard.

A preacher spends many hours of his time trying to squelch rumors about the citizens of the community. A fisherman will start all types of tales and rumors about friends, foes, and fishin' holes.

He does it on purpose, then puts the blame on someone else. Preachers very seldom make excuses for anything, but fishermen have an excuse for every situation.

The quickest way I know to get a personal sermon from your pastor is to try and fib to him about your absence from church on Sunday morning. The pastor has every right to deliver this sermon, because you missed it Sunday. I'm taking up for the preachers, because I received my personal sermon on the street. Boy's, don't fib to the reverend, just tell him the truth, take your sermon, and don't go fishin' this coming Sunday. Preachers and fishermen are equal in some ways.

Rain and wind has been the story for the better part of the week. I only know of a few fishermen that did any good bass fishing. Johnny Cobb was singing the blues about the wind just about everyday this past week. Gary Teer was complaining about the fish moving before he found them.

Pat Patterson had a good success story on Lake Arrowhead with the fine string of bass that he was showing off. Pat caught them on spinner baits and six inch creme worms (purple). Pat landed five real nice ones up to five pounds. He fishes out of southmoor Marine and you can find him anytime in his shop for fish talk. Walkie Howe at the Minnow Ranch has been at fishing in Arrowhead and doing fair on goldfish.

Dove hunting continues to be spotty, although some birds did move into the area this past week. It remains to be seen if they will stay or not. Ken Holder, the state GMO reported on Friday of this past week more dove than he had seen for a long time. I certainly hope they stay.

Are you interested in soybean production? Would you like to know a little more about this important crop? If so, you will want to attend a meeting to be held in the ASCS Building, Iowa Park on Tuesday, October 9. The meeting will start at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Dale Lovelace, Agronomist from Vernon will be on hand to discuss varieties of soybeans that might be grown in Wichita County.

Mr. David Robnett, District Director, ASCS office, will discuss the 1974 ASCS Program. An election for a Director of Zone 5 for the Wichita Soil and Water Conservation District will be held at this time. This zone takes in an area east of Farm - Market Road 368 and south of the Old Iowa Park Road to the Expressway, then south of the Wichita River and extended to East County Boundary line. Zone 5 is bounded on the south by the Wichita County line.

This is an important meeting. Everyone is invited to attend.

Never before have soil tests been as important to Texas farmers as they are today. With limited supplies of nitrogen and phosphorus, nutrients must be applied where they are needed to maintain production and profits.

This is especially true for phosphorus, which accumulates in the soil and can be found in a wide range of levels on a single farm. Recent soil test summary data shows that 58 per cent of over 10,000 soil samples from the Blacklands were very low in phosphorus while 10 percent were high. Such differences must be recognized in planning fertilizer purchases for this fall and next year's crops.

A reliable soil test is the best place to start and fall is the best time to collect samples. Early sampling gives time to make plans and place fertilizer orders early.

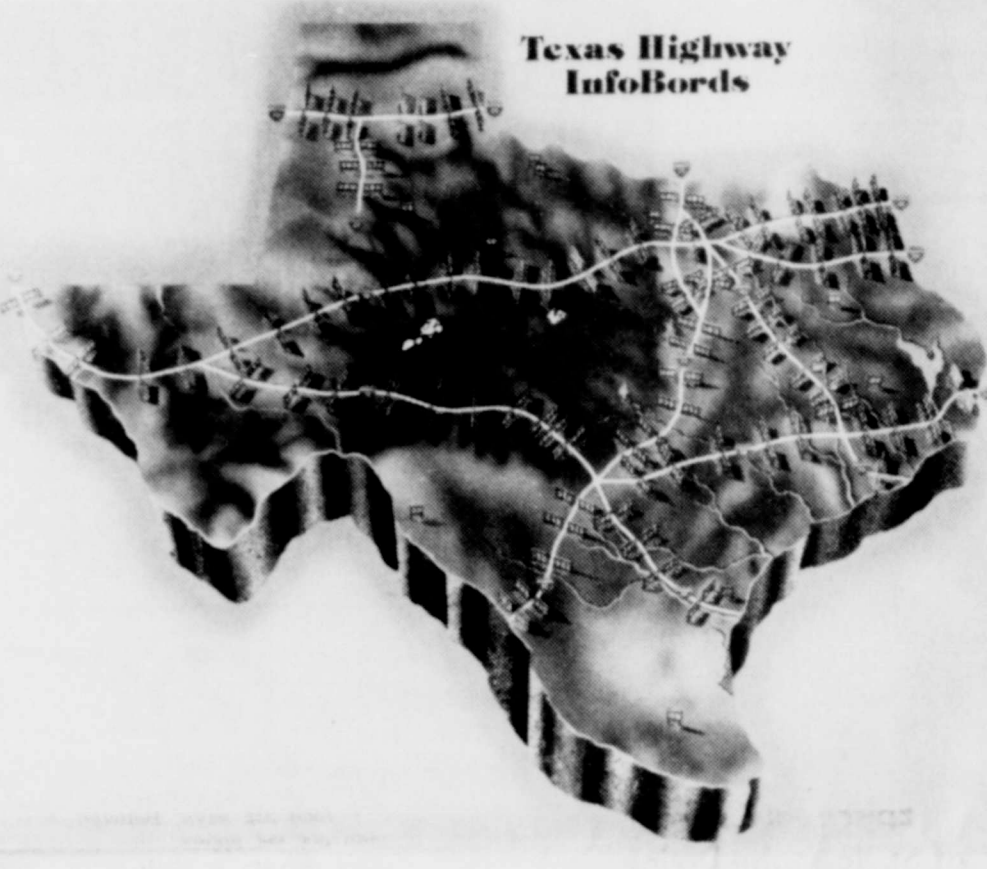

To provide a valid guide for fertilization, soil samples must be collected carefully. A slice or core of soil should be taken from 10 to 15 spots in each field to get a good sample. For field crops, the slices or cores should be taken to plow depth, while a depth of three to four inches has given best results for perennial forages. Put the soil in a clean plastic bucket, mix it thoroughly and remove a pint box full to send to the laboratory. Information sheets should accompany each sample to show past history and plans for next crop. These plus mailing cartons for the soil samples are available at the County Extension Office. Act now to insure that your fall and spring fertilization programs are based on a soil test.

Texas Food and Fiber Appreciation Month activities in November and Farm-City Week observances November 16-22, will be under the general supervision of Jack H. Barton of Houston. Already serving as president of Food and Fiber Appreciation Month, Barton also agreed to chair Farm-City Week activities, since both observances can be operated and coordinated as joint efforts within every Texas County.

A dirty air cleaner can cut engine performance drastically. Since a tractor or combine engine takes in about 9,000 gallons of air for every gallon of fuel it burns, it's important that the air cleaner be serviced regularly.

After every 10 hours of operation, the oil bath air cleaner cup should be removed and supplied with new oil. Scrape the dirt from the bottom of the cup and wash in kerosene or solvent before refilling.

Dry paper filters on newer tractors function much like air filters on automobiles. These filters can be blown out a couple of times with an air hose, but be careful not to puncture them. Clean and replace often when working in dirty conditions.

Texas Highway InfoBords

THE INFOBORDS on Texas highways have been cited as the nation's most significant new travel promotion concept by DATO, national travel trade association. When the program is completed, 188 InfoBords in rest areas along Texas Interstate and primary highways will interpret nearby scenic, historic, and recreational attractions for more than 44,500,000 travelers a year.

Beef may be scarce at the supermarket but there will be plenty on the hoof at Fair Park during the "World Gateways Exposition" in Dallas, Oct. 6-21 where the champions will compete for blue ribbons and cash. Featured attraction of the Pan-American Beef Cattle Show, Oct. 6-9 will be a Register-of-Merit Hereford Show, a special exhibit of the annual Pan-American Livestock Exposition. Goats, sheep, swine, dairy cattle and horses also will be vying for top prizes.

Now, more than ever, electricity is worth using wisely.

Electricity, like all forms of energy, should be used wisely—especially now, with growing shortages in supplies of natural gas and oil, the basic fuels used to generate electricity in Texas.

At Texas Electric, natural gas is our major fuel supply with oil used on a standby basis. To reduce our dependency on these fuels, we have well developed, long range plans to diversify our fuel sources.

We have joined with Dallas Power & Light and Texas Power & Light in acquiring long range supplies of east Texas lignite. We now have one lignite plant in operation and two others under construction. The three companies have also announced plans to have a nuclear fueled plant in operation by 1980.

One big advantage of lignite and nuclear fuels is that neither is being used extensively for any purpose other than the generation of electricity. A disadvantage is that generating plants that use these fuels cost much more to build. And, because of the long lead time required to plan and build these plants, it will be many years before natural gas can be replaced as our major fuel supply.

Barring difficulties with our existing natural gas supplies or delays in the development of our lignite and nuclear generating capability, we will be able to provide the electricity our customers need. However, the much higher cost of diversifying our fuels and inflation make it inevitable that the price of electric service will rise.

As rising costs and the energy squeeze make electricity increasingly valuable, we will continue to encourage its efficient use. Now, more than ever, electricity is worth using wisely.

NRA Announces Hunter Magazine

WASHINGTON, D. C.--General Maxwell E. Rich, Executive Vice President of the National Rifle Association, has announced the publication of a new monthly magazine, THE AMERICAN HUNTER, effective October, 1973.

The decision to publish a new magazine devoted almost exclusively to sport hunting was implemented due to popular demand for more information on hunting by NRA members.

"Our goal," according to General Rich, "is to provide our members with a quality experience; to help achieve a strong sporting ethic; and to demonstrate good, safe technique properly applied in the field."

The four-color offset reproduction publication is available for $5 yearly to all NRA members as a "satellite magazine", in addition to THE AMERICAN RIFLEMAN, the official journal of the Association, now received as a benefit of membership by the million plus members of the non-profit sporting organization.

THE AMERICAN HUNTER editor Ken Warner states the magazine will cover only hunting and hunt-related subjects. "Conservation? Ecology? Yes," he says, "but by hunters for hunters from a sporting point of view. Camping? Woodcraft? Sure--what a hunter can use, presented by hunters."

The new publication is concerned with sport hunting, and not subsistence or market hunting--except to oppose it where it is illegal. "Those who take game animals or birds by unsporting methods or in unfair chase are not hunters," says Mr. Warner, "but poachers of the game. This magazine is not for them."

Our subject to discuss this month is "Christ is coming back again. --- Why?"

Lesson No. One-- "Christ is Coming Back To Be Glorified In His Saints." II Thessalonians 1:10.

I John 3:2 says, Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be; but we know that, when He shall appear, we shall be like Him; for we shall see Him as He is."

We are children of God now - being born again, through faith in Christ, Galatians 3:26; Romans 8:15-16; John 1:11-13; I Peter 1:23.

But we still live in sinful, corruptible & dying bodies, Psalms 51:5; Ephesians 2:1-3; Romans 7:17-25; Romans 8:10. And in these bodies we groan - "Waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body", Romans 8:22-25; II Corinthians 5:2-5.

Yes, it is good to be a child of God, now, with all the blessings and assurances thereof. He began a good work in us when He created us anew in Christ Jesus and sealed us with His Holy Spirit, II Corinthians 5:17; Ephesians 2:8-10; Also Ephesians 1:13 and 4:30. And in this Holy Spirit sealing, He guaranteed us something better at His coming again, II Corinthians 5:5; Romans 8:11; Ephesians 1:10-13.

Surely, "He which hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ." Phillipians 1:6.

These vile, corruptible bodies shall be changed and fashioned like unto His glorious body, when Jesus comes to meet His Saints in the air, Phillipians 3:20-21; I Corinthians 15:50-57; I Thessalonians 4:13-18.

Our full salvation is nearer than when we believed, Romans 13:11.

No wonder the cry of Gods' children goes out - "even so, come, Lord Jesus", Revelation 22:20.

Hill Country

by JIM HILL

Hi yo, typewriter take it away!! The Italian Cowboy rides again! Well, if not ride, hangs on again.

You need to talk to me! 322-3127 is the telephone number at KLUR radio, after 2 p.m. weekdays to give me your news of activities that you feel would be entertaining and/or interesting to your neighbors. Lets hear from you, hmmm, today!

Don't forget homecoming activities lined up to begin on Friday, October 12th here in Burk Burnett!!! Hope you got your registration form in the mail on time! Hey, it's going to be great times all around with those exciting Burk Bulldogs!!!

Did you read Jim Alexander's column in last week's Informer/Star? About dipping, chewing, and other activities affected by humans. Well, I thought that I would add my two cents worth to the whole subject. About ten years ago, maybe less, a good friend of mine named Paul and I were really doing some "cowboy" up north. A little quick horse-breaking for a guy who ran auction sales would net us

$10 or $15 per horse that we would divide between us. We both had regular jobs, so we didn't do it for the money. Anyway, back to chewing, dipping etc.

Paul and I were out with two of the horses we were gentling, when my buddy produced a pouch of the chewing stuff. Having never tried it before and both being rootin', tootin' cowboys (ho, ho) we each grabbed a handful of this stuff and popped it into our mouths.

Well, this was the goods that try mens' souls!!! The more you chew that stuff, the more it grows in your mouth!!! We both chewed and grinned, neither one of us wanted to "chicken out" first. The horses seem to get jumpy and a bit snorty, the tobacco grew larger and our stomachs began to rival those horses! Finally we both stopped chewing and riding, looked at one another and with a grin that was kinda green, got rid of our chewing tobacco. We decided then and there to leave the chewing to the real cowboys and lit our filtered cigarettes and went to the house to find something cool and wet ... to rid the taste that to this day, I can experience on days that are damp. Now that drinkin' and cussin' part, well, that is a story of another column. Thanks Mr. Alexander, for helping me remember an old experience from another time, another place. Memories, memories.

Bike riding!!! What fun!! and getting to be more and more popular with young and old alike! My son, Jimmy, is the bike rider-king of our "rancho" and he has a collection to prove it! He seems to have a different bike under him every time I see him.

More people are finding that riding bikes is not only fun but a great way to keep in shape and save money on gasoline. If more folks would take up cycling this would be a better world.

Most of us would be so tired after pedaling all over creation that we would be unable to cheat, rob, murder and all those other little things that people do to one another in the name of "excess energy".

Seriously, bike riding is fun, is healthy and will add years to your life, unless you're a hundred years old and trying to cycle for the first time in fifty years, then don't write, complaining to me. Just get a TS pass (Tell Schwinn).

I hope that you don't mind this rambling column today. It's just that time of year, for me at least, when I have a rambling, talking or in this case, writing urge to go on and on almost about nothing.

Football fans, or should I clarify it more by saying Bulldog fans, hope you catch the Burk Burnett Bulldog Report on KLUR after your games and of course we carry, live, the Hirsch Huskies on the radio.

Football, movies, bowling, roller skating and golf, all fine recreational activities located here in Burk Burnett. Check them out soon, o.k.?

That's all for now, thanks for letting me kinda go on and do my rambling for a while. I'll settle down and get on the ball real soon, I hope! ... See you next time!

Governor Dolph Briscoe officially launches the Governor's Roundup for Scouting in Texas by serving a Roundup pocket patch on Paul Carr, Troop 233 of Uvalde, who recruited another young man into his troop. Looking on is Dr. Howard Carr, Scoutmaster. The Roundup's goal is 50,000 new members in scouting this Fall.

GOVERNOR LAUNCHES SCOUT ROUNDUP

AUSTIN—The Governor's Roundup for Scouting in Texas—aimed at recruiting 50,000 new members in Scouting this fall—has been officially launched by Governor Dolph Briscoe.

Governor Briscoe pinned the first Governor's Roundup pocket patch on Paul Carr of Troop 233, Uvalde, for recruiting another young man into Scouting.

Troop 233 is sponsored by St. Phillip's Episcopal Church. Dr. Howard Carr, Paul's father, is the scoutmaster.

Governor Briscoe has been active in Scouting in the Concho Valley Council for many years. He is presently a member of the Council's executive board and on the board of directors of the South Central Region, which serves five Southwestern states.

During the Governor's Roundup, which will end December 13, every youth member who recruits a new member will receive a Governor's Roundup pocket patch. Every unit leader who meets his goal will receive a Governor's Roundup coffee mug. Units meeting their goals will receive a Governor's citation and every Explorer recruiting another Explorer post member will receive a personalized citation from Governor Briscoe.

"The most important thing, of course, is that every eligible youth in Texas have the opportunity to join Scouting and to participate in this program of adventure and development," the Governor said.

"Young people in Scouting are learning about today's world, not the world in which Scouting's early images were formed. Tomorrow's Scout will be better prepared to meet the demands of his age than ever before. All of our programs are meaningful for today's youth.

"During the Roundup for Scouting, we are asking every Cub pack, every Scout troop and every Explorer post to open their doors and invite every eligible non-member in their neighborhoods to join them."

Girl Scouts Sponsor Do-It-Yourself Weekend

The NorCenTex Girl Scout Council is sponsoring the 11th annual Do-It-Yourself weekend on October 6th and 7th. Do-It-Yourself is a weekend camp composed of Junior, Cadette and Senior troops from the eleven counties of the Girl Scout Council.

Each troop comes to camp at Lake Pauline, Quanah, Texas, as a fully equipped unit. They bring their own shelter, food and other equipment. The girls are responsible for setting up their own units as well as preparing their own meals. This outing provides every NorCenTex Girl Scout an opportunity to learn troop camping.

This year NorCenTex Girl Scouts will begin building toward the bicentennial celebration. The theme for this year's Do-It-Yourself is Bold Explorers in the New World. Each troop will choose their camp site theme as one of the explorers. Contests will be held for the Best Campsite, Best Explorer Display, and Best Latrine.

The Schedule will keep everyone busy. Saturday troops will arrive at 10 a.m. and will begin to set up units. Camp will officially open with a flag ceremony. After lunch there will be a Mound of Knowledge where the girls of all levels will learn new skills and participate in some fun activities.

There will also be surprise visitors during the weekend. Saturday night there will be an all camp campfire. On Sunday there will be a Scouts' Own and exhibits. The closing ceremony will have the awards given, the patch unveiling and the closing flag ceremony.

Can anyone do what you do any better?

You're pretty darn good at your job. But today, we all have to consider how we can do our work a little better. That's how each of us can help keep our jobs here in America. For now and for the future.

America. It only works as well as we do.

Midget Football

An open meeting of the Burk Burnett Midget Football League will be held Monday, October 15, 7:30 p.m. at the Reddy Room for the express purpose of electing officers for 1974. If your child participated this year or is interested in participating next year, please attend.

stand will be open and admission is free.

The Oiler teams will face the Rockets from Wichita Falls at Jaycee Park. Fans will find Jaycee Park off Fairway Drive near the northside of Lake Wichita. The date is Thursday, October 4, 6 p.m. and 7:30 p.m.

Next week the Eagles will play the Missiles at Hayes Field in Burk Burnett October 10 and the Oilers will meet the Longhorns at Hayes Field, October 11.

8th Grade Football

The B.J.H.S. 8th grade team put the romp on Iowa Park last Tuesday 28-0.

"Everyone played" says Coach Tex Yeager.

There was good effort everywhere, especially defensively. The 8th graders had 2 on the injured list; fullback Jeff Mc-

Williams and Steve Williams at linebacker.

The first score came from Charles Lewis, and the second on a keeper by Q.B. Joe Horn. Jose Thomas added the third touchdown while on another keeper. Joe Horn put the last six on the board.

7th Grade Football

Last Tuesday the 7th grade took on Iowa Park and won by a safety, 2-0.

"We didn't start playing until the 4th quarter," says 7th grade coach Allen Willett. "We had a solid defense except on the corners. We contained the runs up the middle pretty well."

The young men had a little bit of trouble catching the football, although Tight End Schmidt who rode the bench came in and made a couple of good catches.

The coach made a few changes last week. Cosby was moved to tackle. Shirley was moved from tackle to end and Schmidt is now starting tight end and defensive end.

The only score came when Cuffey, defensive tackle, tackled the "Green" quarterback for a safety.

Junior Varsity Football

B.H.S. Junior Varsity football team took on the Iowa Park Hawks last Thursday and won by a score of 14-6.

Randy Burke scored the first touchdown and Bill Lindstrom added the second tally. Lindstrom picked up 55 yards on the ground while Randy Burke trudged 87 yards in 6 carries.

There was real good effort by everyone on the team. The Bulldogs while stopping the run, forced the Hawks to pass, and late in the game it paid off; Kevin Tory intercepted a pass from the Iowa Park quarterback.

The J.V. takes on Rider Saturday morning at 10:00 a.m. at Memorial Stadium.

Freshman Football

There was the smell of burned feathers on the field last Thursday night when the Freshmen plucked the Hawks 22-0.

"This was the best effort of the season," says Coach Clyde Johnson. "We played our best game."

The defense looked real good with Darryl Dickey at linebacker. (Dickey made 12 unassisted tackles). Bret Patty, Matt

Horn and Mark Brinkley were wiping people out all over the place.

Both Simon Zavala and Jeff Buckley picked off the Iowa Park quarterback's passes one time apiece.

The offensive played well. Especially the offensive line. The Freshmen take on Rider Thursday at 3:30 on the astrograss at Memorial Stadium.

One of life's more sombre but necessary tasks is facing up to the reality that all of us need a legally recognized will. And it should be regarded as a positive instrument not something to remind us that we are mere mortals.

In simplest terms, a will is a vehicle providing for the orderly distribution of property in accordance with your predetermined wishes at time of death. Every adult properly needs a will, even those in modest circumstances.

Americans today often begin building sizeable estates in their early twenties. The relatively liberal fringe benefits now provided in most occupations can have a dramatic impact when one takes a stock of his total financial worth. With group life insurance, company profit sharing, home ownership, pension plans and the now increased social security benefits, many people on the lower end of the economic ladder can point to estate potential for exceeding what one might normally estimate, without taking an exact personal inventory.

According to John D. Goethal, associate legal counsel of the John Hancock Mutual Life Ins. Co., here are the three steps you should consider now to prevent grief and potential hardship later.

1. Retain the services of a trusted family lawyer or contact a local professional lawyers organization for the names of lawyers in your area who will be pleased to assist you in the drawing up of the will. Of course fees can vary but a basic will for someone of modest means should be relatively inexpensive. Don't hesitate to ask the attorney in advance to estimate what his fee will be. You will need to plan, ahead of your appointment, a complete inventory of assets. Include: savings, shares of mutual funds; stocks and bonds; life insurance, whether purchased individually or through a group plan at work; all property (home, car, furnishings, etc.); a coin or stamp collection, in fact, anything of value to you or your heirs. Then go over the list with your spouse, a relative or close friend. They often can remind you of other assets that have been overlooked.

2. After review of your list of assets, the lawyer will need to know your plan for distribution. He should be shown deeds, bank books, stock certificates, appraisals and other similar documents to best advise you whether a change in title might be prudent in order to save taxes or to carry out your desires. Also in the event of death of your will's chief beneficiary - for instance your wife is killed in a car crash that also takes your life - who would receive the benefits in her place? If one is not designated, the state in its impersonal way will take over and distribute in a way contrary to your current wishes. Think this over carefully since it can be the most crucial aspect of determining the will, and any probate lawyer will be quick to recall examples of the least conceivable events as -- the ones that did result!

The will is a very flexible document and as many alternative plans as you desire can be incorporated in it. Allow logic to prevail - a family squabble is no time to make a resentful decision that you may not live to regret.

Another extremely important consideration if you have minor children is to agree in advance who will be the guardian if you should die prematurely. The surviving spouse will almost automatically be appointed but in the event of a common disaster, it is comforting to know that a relative or friend with child rearing beliefs similar to yours will assume the heavy burdens of parenthood.

The lawyer will also ask you to appoint an executor whose chief responsibility is overseeing distribution according to terms of the will. A simple, modest estate (one in which assets consist primarily of cash or property easily convertible to cash) could be served, in the interest of economy, by your spouse or trusted relative as executor.

A more complex estate should probably have the services of a co-executor -- frequently a bank. There is a fee for this service but it is invariably worth the nominal charge since settling your estate might involve a highly technical real estate transaction, liquidation of common stock holdings at a favorable time, or a host of other problems that can arise. In the case of substantial assets it might be wise to consider the services of a qualified estate planner. All lawyers can draw a simple will but a lawyer who specializes in estate planning may be more versed in ways in which you can better accomplish your aims and often save substantial amounts on estate and inheritance taxes.

According to John Hancock's law department, if you already

More and more new faces are being seen "trying on the BOOM COUNTRY JAMBOREE" every Saturday night. And no wonder, "The Good Word" is spreading. Good pickin' and singin' is at the Burk Burnett Civic Center weekly for your enjoyment. It's purely a shame to let a Texan let so much fine country music go to waste. So let's all get out there this week.

A special event will be taking place at this coming Saturday's performance. A treat and surprise for all those who dare. One of the JAMBOREE's cornerstone figures was absent from the stage this past week.

The resounding and eloquent voice of KLUR's own Jim Hill was announcing a rodeo and was unable to lend his usual humor and enthusiasm but he will be back in all his glory this week.

Filling in for Hill, and quite an established JAMBOREE celeb himself, was the Rexall Ranger, Jim O'Keefe. He made his singing debut under the pseudonym of "Arvis Peasley". Band regulars, Carl Woods, Don Bowers, Darrell Nichols, Nocona Star and Reuben Darnell, provided backing for each performer - no holds barred. These guys really work hard up on that stage.

Performance quality was in abundance, starting off with the Finleys, Ron and Clint. JAMBOREE favorites, Reuben Darnell and Jim Barnes lend much; Reuben to the standards and Jim to the newer country hits.

The ladies are getting their bid in. JAMBOREE again welcomed the Bowers Sisters to the stage. Their soft harmony and gentleness, create a sound in country, folk and gospel music that anyone could appreciate.

Misses Kathy and Michele Nixon are delights anytime they grace the BOOM COUNTRY stage. Each with her own style, can put that song across and sing their way into your hearts.

By popular demand, The Master's Gospel Singers were back. Their words of inspiration set to music adds another side to the JAMBOREE.

Sports Afield

By Ted Kesting

The salmon's life history can be read on its scales. The scales grow in rings at the rate of about 25 a year, varying slightly with individual fish. When the rings are close together they make a dark band indicating a period of slow growth (winter). When they are spread apart with greater space between each ring, it indicates a rapid growing period (summer). Thus the years of a salmon's life can be counted both as a parr and as a sea fish.

—SPORTS AFIELD

Snakes do not "hear" in the same manner as humans because they cannot detect air vibrations. Instead, they are ultra-sensitive to ground vibrations and can feel your presence long before you are able to see them.

OUTDOORS IN TEXAS
BY VERN SANFORD

"Wildlife is a product of edges." This statement has long been an axiom in game management circles. Although hunters may not have thought of it in these terms, this principle is one that most of them realize instinctively.

What does it mean?

Dr. J. P. Linduska of Remington Arms explains it this way. When you go hunting for cottontails (and that's legal in Texas anytime) you don't put your beagle down in the center of a cornfield, or in the middle of a dense wood. You work the hedgerows, brushpiles, and woodland borders... the edges.

It's the same with quail and pheasants. For every one of these birds you find out in the center of the field, you'll stir up a dozen on the borders, on the banks of ditches and just inside the thickets. Again it's the edges.

Of course the real give-away as to where game hangs out is to watch a bird dog with a couple of seasons of savvy behind him. He won't putter around in the big uniform places. He will skirt the edges of the field, the edges of the plum thickets, the edges of the orchard, and all the other edges where different types of vegetation meet.

Dr. Kinduska says "It's no mystery why game inhabit the edges. That's where they find, in close proximity, all the things necessary for a good life."

He points out that the center of a picked cornfield offers food aplenty and occasionally the birds will wander to the center. Also the center offers protection, so now and then the birds will stray in. But by far the greatest advantage to the hunter is to be found at the edges... since that's where the game spends most of its time.

Succinctly put "it's a matter of safety and logistics".

Whether it's game or some other species of animal life it's not enough simply to have lots of food and cover. Unless they are properly distributed... one in relation to the other... the amount of wildlife an area will support will be limited well below its real potential.

That's why, other things being equal, 10 one-acre ponds will produce more ducks than one big 10-acre pond.

It's a large part of the reason, too, why the small patch farms of yore were more productive of game than the big, consolidated, Texas ranches of today.

Modern day game management strives to improve habitat partly by increasing and bettering "edge" conditions.

Naturally, such a program doesn't allow for too many generalities. In a large timber stand it might well mean creating openings to insert food producing units in a uniform habitat of trees. In a large area of open fields it might call for hedges, or fence-row plantings of shrubs and trees to add cover to a barren landscape.

Whatever the formula, it will vary with the nature of the countryside and the type of game you want to encourage. But you can be sure that giving wildlife an edge on numbers will require, first of all, giving them an edge on which to live.

Weekly Health Tip

from JOE GILLESPIE

Hunters should learn first aid treatment for emergencies in the field. In gunshot wounds, severe bleeding must be controlled by applying pressure on key arteries to retard the blood flow and staunching the wound with a clean compress to keep out air and dirt. For chest or facial injury, speedy medical help may be most urgent because of breathing difficulties. Get the emergency help of a local doctor before transporting long distance to a hospital.

Famous Mothers

There may have been a real Mother Goose, an Elizabeth Foster of Boston who was married to Isaac Goose. She sang fables in rhyme to her grandchildren around 1750.

Though Mother Goose lived to be 92, the oldest age at which a woman has become a mother is 58. That record was set by Mrs. Ruth Kistler of California in 1965.

According to a recent Gallup Poll, women now consider two children to be the ideal family size, compared with four just a few years ago.

Probably women are more aware that besides the pill, diaphragm and loop, there are other good birth control methods including some--like Conceptrol or Delfen--they can get in drugstores without a doctor's prescription.

In 1938 a British mother bore the smallest baby to survive, 10 ounces. The biggest, 25 pounds, was delivered in 1961 in Turkey.

1040 U.S. Individual Taxpayers Ask IRS

This column of questions and answers on federal tax matters is provided by the local office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service and is published as a public service to taxpayers. The column answers questions most frequently asked by taxpayers.

Q. My wife and I are going to purchase one U.S. Savings Bond each month for my son's college education. Would it be more advantageous from a tax standpoint if I purchased the bonds naming my son and myself as co-owners or naming him sole owner?

A. From a tax standpoint, naming your son sole owner of the bonds would be more advantageous, since interest on U.S. Savings Bonds bought in the name of the child is income to the child not the parent. This is so even if the parent paid for the bonds and is named beneficiary. However, interest on bonds purchased by a parent naming his child as co-owner is taxable to the parent. For more information, see IRS publication 576, "Tax Information on United States Savings Bonds." Contact your local Internal Revenue office for a free copy.

Q. Are brokerage fees deductible?

A. Fees you pay a broker to collect your bond interest or dividends on shares of stock are deductible as miscellaneous deductions. But brokerage fees paid to acquire investment property, such as stocks or bonds, are not deductible. They are added to the cost of the property.

Q. I work as a waitress in a restaurant. Occasionally, a group of customers will use our banquet room for a private party. Instead of tipping, customers are required to pay a service charge which is split among the waiters, waitresses and other employees. Should I report this amount as a "tip" to my employer for tax purposes?

A. No. Your share of this service charge is not a tip, but is part of your wages paid by the employer. As such, it is taxable, but does not have to be included in your report of tips to your employer.

Q. My son is 20 and works full time during the day and goes to school at night. Can I still claim him as a dependent regardless of how much money he makes?

A. Generally, you may not claim a person as a dependent if he had gross income of $750 or more during the year. The only exceptions to this rule occur if your child is less than 19 at the end of the year or a full time student during five months of the year. In your son's case, he is over 19 and is not considered a full time student because he is attending night school and is employed full time during the day.

How would you like to sign the work you do?

Would you be willing to tell the world, "I did this?" After all, you're pretty good at what you do. Probably proud of it, too.

Well, most of us will never get to sign our work. And maybe that's a shame. Because as good as we are, it might make us better. And we can afford to be. Whether we're teachers or short-order cooks, farmers or steamfitters, sales managers or city managers.

We'll all have more to show for it. More money, for one thing.

Because we'll be giving each other our money's worth for the products, the services and even the government we pay for.

For another thing, we'll be giving America a better chance to take on our foreign business competitors. Not just here. All around the world. That would help bring the lopsided balance of payments back onto our side. And make your dollar worth more.

Best of all, as we hit our stride, we'll be protecting jobs here at home. For ourselves and the future. And we'll have a deeper sense of satisfaction in the jobs we've got.

You don't have to sign your work to see all these things happen. And more. Just do the kind of work you'd be proud to have carry your name.

America. It only works as well as we do.
