Newspapers and Libel

If the "innocent" little bill that slipped through the Senate one night last week on the so-called "local and uncontested" calendar is not killed in the house, Texas newspapers had as well shut-up shop and the editors run for the Senate or something. This bill is the most serious threat to not only freedom of the press but to freedom of speech. Both branches of the Legislature should have a Bob "Iron head" Wood in its membership to watch just such proposals as these.

The big question mark in the senate race is O'Daniel. If enough who don't like him will support him in order to get rid of him in Texas, he may have a walk-away. Right now, (according to his own speech) with God, and Roosevelt on his side, he can't lose. However, the records of the four leading candidates are going to be spread and read and this may be a real race, after all.

Burk's Younger Set Playing A Dangerous Game

The parents of Burkburnett should wisely request the police department in its traffic safety campaign to put a stop to the game of "Ditch 'Em," played by youthful motorists. If these youthful motorists use other streets as they do Fifth street between Ave. D and E it won't be long until someone is seriously hurt. The remedy is the imposition of heavy fines upon the youthful offenders, but there should be added collaboration on the part of parents of such youths. Something comparable to the meeting of the father and son or daughter in the woodshed should be devised by the modern parent who obviously is failing in the scientific training of the offspring who are traffic perils and nuisances.

"Ditch 'Em," is a game played by two or more young motorists, in which each tries to force the other off the road. Lives of the participants and others are endangered by this pastime, and the former are guilty of a reckless disregard of human life which is to be discounted somewhat as an incident of youth itself. Some accidents unfortunately set examples in this respect for younger motorists.

Perhaps "ditch 'em" like some other forms of speeding and wild driving, is largely exhibitionism. If that is true the remedy might be found in convincing reckless youths that they make fools of themselves as well as traffic menaces in "showing off" in public. The short cut to a cure probably is heavy fines in court, followed by effective punishment of the offender at home.

Kelley Has 34 Dust For Rose Growers

In the last week's issue of the Burkburnett Star, J. F. Kelley ran an ad advising flower lovers that Magnetic Sulphur Copper 34 Dust is available at his store for dusting flowers afflicted with black spot, mildew and fungus diseases.

This treatment is for use only on roses afflicted with black spot. It will affect no other plants and is not for use on any other plants. It was only recently developed at a sub-experiment station at Tyler and is said to be the most effective treatment so far advanced for black spot on roses.

Seniors Entertain Local Rotarians

The Rotarians were entertained by three of Burkburnett's seniors at their weekly meeting Tuesday at noon. Miss Dorothy Warren, E. L. Blum, and Neal Hall Jr., were guests of Fred Brookman and rendered several musical numbers. Miss Warren favored the club with a piano solo and Hall and Blum entertained with a concert solo.

H. D. Smith and Fred Brookman, delegates to the Lubbock convention, made a report of their trip. The following Rotarians from Wichita Falls were present: Luther Robertson, A. H. Brittain, J. K. Estes, W. B. Hamilton, and Virgil Wilson.

Coronat'n Ball Draws Interest

As a fitting climax of the school year, the Football Queen will be crowned at the annual Coronation ball at Town Hall on Thursday, May 29. Candidates for the honor are: Dorothy Maben, Martha Parr, Billie Jane Roach, Jean Wills, Jackie Henry, Dorothy Browning, Rubnell Russell and Josephine Uts.

Officiating throughout the ceremonies at which Paul Seed's orchestra will play, will be: Hugh Frank Brown, honorary captain; E. J. Reed, Bill Bowman, Robert Robertson and Joe Bob Tyler, captains.

Tickets for the ball are being sold by the candidates for Queen. The price is $1.00 per couple. From the ticket sales it may be assumed that there will be a record crowd attending. The Coronation Ball follows the annual game between next year's team and the Exes which was played on Friday, May 16.

Star Has New Society Editor

Miss Helen Rhea Dickson this week accepted a position with the Burkburnett Star. She succeeds Mrs. Dorothy Gibson, society editor on the paper for three and a half years, who is moving to Longview.

Local Boy Scouts will have charge of the Flag Planting ceremony and will recite the Scout pledge and motto. Dink Lawson, member of the local American Legion post, will speak. The audience will be asked to join in reciting the pledge of allegiance and all songs have been arranged to conform to the patriotic program.

Bulldogs Yield To Ex-Stars

The Burkburnett 1941 football team took a 20 to 0 drubbing Friday night from an aggregation of stars who have played with the school in former years. Joe Stoker, Jack McKown and Freddy Brown, three of the most efficient ground gainers who ever played with the team, scored the three touchdowns against the new edition of Bulldogs.

Volney Hill's 1941 team showed a remarkable defense most of the game against the big and experienced squad of stars. Stoker scored the first touchdown early in the first period when he plunged over from the 1-yard line. McKown and Brown scored in the last few minutes of the game. The game was Burkburnett's first official preview of the new $25,000 stadium. The new project will be dedicated at the first conference game here next fall.

John Moore Manager Of Ice Service Co.

Mr. Moore has been an employee of the Ice Service Co. for a number of years and is well qualified for the deserved promotion.

Twenty-four states in the United States, or half of those in the nation, now produce oil.

NOT GUILTY!

It is our understanding that a great many members of this year's high school graduating class and their parents were dissatisfied with the commencement announcements, and that the Burkburnett Star has been held responsible for the quality, price and type of announcement chosen.

The Star acted solely as agent for the Star Engraving company of Houston and had nothing whatever to do with the selection of the announcements.

These were chosen by a committee selected from the class who looked at the samples shown them by a company representative and made the selection.

We have been informed that Volus Bowman, Neal Hall, E. L. Blum, Helen Graham and Mary Blackstone composed this committee and that they chose the announcements early in the school year, many months before the orders were turned in to the Burkburnett Star.

Our only part in the transaction was to send in the order and to deliver the announcements when we received them.

We regret that some of the customers were disappointed and hope that if it is our pleasure to serve next year's senior class we will be able to do so without incurring criticism.

Each team consisted of twelve players. This was Burkburnett's first game in the North Texas Golf association series.

Electra Pastor To Hold Calvary Baptist Revival

The Calvary Baptist church, Ave. B and College, begins a two weeks revival campaign Sunday May 29, with Rev. M. M. Griggs, of Electra doing the preaching.

Bro. Griggs is one of the pastors of the Fundamental Baptist Fellowship, most sought after for evangelistic meetings, and he has had much success in this field, as well as success in the pastoral field. He has a straight from the shoulder, plain, scriptural message that can be understood and appreciated by both old and young, and preaches with sincerity and power. Calvary Baptist church feels fortunate in securing the services of this man, and extends to all an invitation to come hear him preach.

Following is a list of some of the subjects which he will discuss during the meeting:

1. Will the armies of Germany be turned back on the Plains of Palestine?
 2. The World's darkest hour.
 3. The Mark of the Beast—What is it?
 4. How near is the Lord's return?
 5. The thousand year's reign of Christ on earth—What does the Bible say about it?
 6. What is baptism?
- And other interesting subjects. Thursday, May 29, there will be an all day fellowship at Calvary Baptist church, to which the public is invited. Fundamental Baptist pastors throughout this district will be on hand to bring instructive and inspiring messages and there will be special and congregational singing. The services will begin at 9:30 in the morning and continue through the day.

The principal theme to be discussed by visiting preachers is, "What Fundamental Baptists Believe—And, What Is Their Relation and Attitude Towards Other Churches?"

We invite the public to attend this revival, and also this all-day fellowship. You will not be mistreated nor high pressured to join our church, but will be treated kindly and courteously.

Dean Spoke To Lions

M. S. Dean, instructor of vocational agriculture at Burkburnett High school, spoke on "Dairying" at a regular meeting of the Lions club held Tuesday evening at Town Hall.

Mr. Dean stated that Texas has made rapid progress in dairying but is losing leadership at the very time when advancement in this field is needed.

He pointed out that Texas dairy men have let their herds run down and this fault must be remedied if Texas is to take its place in the defense program.

It is his opinion that local people and all of Texas, for that matter, will realize more profits during the defense program by supplying needed foods and raw materials than all the allotments of government projects will bring into the state.

High on the list of required foods are milk and all other dairy products and Texas has a golden opportunity to produce these essential foods in quantities large enough to supply its own needs and those of the nation, Mr. Dean stated.

City and Chamber of Commerce officials were informed Wednesday by telegrams from Ed Gossett, congressman, that the President has approved a $20,983 project for street improvement in Burkburnett.

Application for this grant was made about two months ago, according to City Manager Lynn Kincaid.

Mr. Kincaid also stated that the money has been appropriated but no particular improvement has been designated. Expenditure of funds will be left to the discretion of city officials who will use it for paving streets and sidewalks or improving them as the need arises.

The project is eligible for operation at the discretion of the state Works Projects administrator.

Rains Damage Grain Fields

Area farmers viewed water logged fields and damaged grain crops late Wednesday following general rains during the night which pushed Lake Wichita to the 18.1 mark and swelled major streams during the day.

Red River at Burkburnett was still rising late Wednesday at the rate of eight inches an hour and was expected to reach its stage of three weeks ago during the night. Highway traffic had not been interrupted, but department employees planned to remain on guard during the night for any emergency.

Travel Blocked

Only interruption in highway travel in the area Wednesday was at Elm creek on state highway 24 10 miles west of Newcastle in Young county which was blocked during the afternoon the highway department reported.

Water flowed over state highway 251 between Olney and Graham during the afternoon, but travel was continuing.

Considerable damage to the oat crop and to ripe wheat was reported by County Agent G. R. McNeil following a survey among farmers Wednesday. Some of the wheat bent by wind may straighten up, but ripening grain damage in some sections was estimated at 20 per cent.

Many farmers who began cutting oats this week will be delayed, while cotton planting will be postponed because of watered fields, McNeil said.

The Foolish Wise Shoemaker

In the days when lotteries were in flower, a poor shoemaker drew a prize of $10,000. With the exception of small change he had never had any money before. In celebration of his good luck, he put all of his shoemaker tools in a bag, tied the bag and threw it in the river. He was through with work, he was going out to lead a high life and enjoy himself.

In about three years, one evening between sundown and dark, a farmer observed a man gouging in the river with a long pole. As he came near he recognized this man as the shoemaker who had left the community three years before. The shoemaker told him the story of his rise and fall. He had spent everything in the high life, and was left without money and without friends. He was fishing for the bag containing his tools that he might start over again and find his life in the only way real life can be found, by hard honest toil.

The chief trouble with the country today, it is believed, is that millions of people are under a hallucination that they have drawn a rich prize in government aid and government support that has eliminated the necessity of hard work and strict economy, and put them on the easy road. The one thing we need for real preparedness today is an influence that will disillusion this stupid crowd and lead the millions that compose it to follow the example of the foolish wise shoemaker.

Plenty To Eat

The effect of the defense program on demand and supply of food products, and means by which the entire food industry can cooperate to help make that program effective, was the vital topic recently discussed by the National Food and Grocery Conference Committee. The Committee is composed of all branches of the food industry, including chains, independents, cooperatives and others.

The Committee's discussion produced some good news for the consumer. It acknowledged and reaffirmed the industry's obligation to feed the nation with maximum economy during these trying times. It stated that a survey of available and potential food supplies reveals no cause for alarm on the part of the public. It pointed out that purchasing in excess of normal requirements is unwarranted and inadvisable, and only creates artificial shortages which result in unnecessarily raising the cost of food to all.

Speculation and profiteering in foods were especially condemned.

This Committee represents practically the entire food industry, and speaks for it. That industry renders this country a far greater service than is generally realized. The American can walk into a store almost anywhere in the country, in a little town, no less than a great city, and buy precisely what he wants and at a standard, competitive price. An extraordinarily efficient system must prevail in warehouse and distribution center, in processing plant and transportation system, no less than in the actual retail outlets themselves, to make that possible.

What is true of food, is true of most other consumer goods. There is plenty of all, and if shortages of certain raw materials appear, adequate and inexpensive substitutes are known. The entire retail industry, chain stores and independent stores alike, is today working harder than it ever did to keep prices down and so maintain our standard of living. There will be no bread lines here.

In The Name Of Liberty

The excesses of labor are alienating some of its oldest and best friends.

A letter recently written by Senator George Norris to the heads of the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O., is extremely significant. "During all my public service," the Senator said, "I have been, I think, a consistent friend of organized labor. But labor itself cannot expect its representatives, either in Congress or out of it, to sustain any action that requires a man who is out of work to pay a fee of $50, $100, $150, and in some instances $200, for membership in a local union, in order to get a job." Unless labor mends its ways, he added, "I am satisfied that Congress is going to be called upon to take action in regard to it."

Army construction officials at Fort Meade, Maryland, estimate that under closed shop agreements, two unions took $400,000 or more as "initiation fees" and due out of wages paid to workers. In many of the principal crafts, no man is permitted to work unless he "kicks through" with a sum of money far beyond the ability to pay of the average worker. If he doesn't pay, he can starve or go on relief for all the union cares.

It is this sort of thing that is breeding widespread public enmity for labor—and threatening to destroy all the legislative gains labor has made over many years.

If the average newspaper man has five hours in which to write a story, he will stand around and talk for four hours and then rush his copy.

Burkburnett History

As revealed by the files of The Star 10 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. J G Hardin have this week established a permanent endowment fund of $1,250,000 for Buckner's Orphan Home in Dallas

Oscar Kemp stated to a Star reporter that he has a pair of felt-lined gloves, fur overcoat and a pair of woolen socks which he will trade for a cane fishing pole and a can of worms. He surely has the fever and doubtless a good trade could be negotiated.

A surprise party honoring Mrs. A. C. Houser was given at Hardin Park on the morning of May 12th.

Announcement of the wedding of Miss Hazel Stevenson and B. O. Willis was made here this week. The wedding was an event of April 26 in Lawton, Okla.

Mrs. Ray Mills, assisted by Miss Marie Rainey, entertained a number of children at her home on the Texas lease Saturday, May 16, with a party in honor of her little daughter, Betty Jewel, who was celebrating her fifth birthday.

T. E. Buckner last week secured a patent on a 12-inch or larger belt cutter.

I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

The King ranch must be the center of the world because it is as flat as a floor and the sky comes down at an equal distance all around. Its vastness offers a series of pictures as one traverses it.

Over there is the Santa Gertrudis ranch-house (which can be seen from the highway)—a grand old building with a castle-like tower. Yonder is a Mexican cowboy who barely leans over to unfasten a gate without leaving the saddle. Here is a pasture filled with cattle of the Santa Gertrudis breed—animals of maroon hue with a splotch of white on the face, and a hump on the shoulders, (a reminder of the blood of the Brahma cattle from India), and with broad, table-like backs. They look as sleek as contenders for the championships in the judging at the Fort Worth Fat Stock Show.

Many of the Mexicans are members of families that have lived on the ranch for four or five generations. A contrast is furnished by two or three—fat George Garcia, with gray mustache, who moves with dignity; and wiry little Aurelio, a lad of not more than 10, who is as much at home on a horse as a Hawaiian youngster is in the water—and he has been ever since he was 5 and used to skinny up into the saddle by the extensive use of his toes. In fact, when Trainer Egan gave Aurelio his first pair of shoes, the boy had to develop a new technique.

But there he is on a well-trained pony whose presence helps to reassure the high-strung young thoroughbreds that are being taught how to enter the starting-gate and how to go from the post at full speed, preparatory to carrying the King Ranch colors on tracks in California, Florida and elsewhere—but of course not in Texas because the law bars races here.

You would enjoy seeing "the Congressman's horse." He belongs to Congressman Richard M. Kleberg and, with a vaquero in the saddle—the Congressman was in Washington—the handsome creature made a long circle changing gait from time to time; then he would check speed; go on an in-and-out course; pivot; turn around and around; then back up for 75 feet, then turn and back up to the starting point. After that, he sidestepped the width of the paddock and, at last, knelt and allowed his rider to step to the ground. You would want to wave your hat and say "Bravo!"

Everybody knows that the ranch was established by Captain Richard King, who made a fortune steamboating on the Rio Grande more than three-quarters of a century ago and that the brand is the running W or "little snake," as the Mexicans call it.

But perhaps everyone doesn't know that Robert J. Kleberg Jr., who is at the head of the ranch, sent to Africa and obtained Rhodes grass, a tall and hardy species which thrives in its new environment.

Because Caesar Kleberg, down at Norias, and others responsible for the management of the ranch are firm believers in wild life conservation, there are numerous deer, turkeys and quail.

All the way to Argentina, the ranch sent for a specially-constructed chute. It is made of iron wood. (You needn't be ashamed; I had never heard of it before, either.) The wood is almost as heavy and durable as iron. There is an elaborate device of steel which clamps an animal into position so that deborning or whatever is called for can be done readily.

Yonder is a pen but—unlike the ones around railroad depots—it is round. That's to keep the cattle from "cornering up," it is explained.

Yes, sir, as impressive as the size of the King ranch is, stretching in all directions until the eye aches, the attention to the smallest detail is, in its way, equally impressive. Where bolts come through a fence, they do not project but are inset so that a steer can't hurt himself and they've even found a use for old automobile casings—they're nailed to the corners of gate-posts to protect the cattle.

Back again on the highway, the visitor turns for a last look at almost a million acres of waving grass and peaceful cattle and riders that are centaurs-like in grace—and wonders how Houston's battlements of trade and Dallas' streets, choked with humankind, can exist in the same state as all this Wonderful Texas, with its infinite variety!

Texas Topics: Unveiling of a painting of United States District Judge James C. Wilson marks deserved recognition for an able and splendid public official. More than 300 attorneys of the Northern District of Texas participated in the tribute. Judge Wilson has served 22 years on the bench, the signing of his commission being the last act of President Wilson before sailing for the European peace conference. . . . An invitation from Ed Van Zandt of the Jacksonville Daily Progress to attend the eighth annual National Tomato show and festival, June 8-10. . . . Preparedness is an Important Job with Your Electric Service Friends

MOST of your fellow-citizens, whose combined efforts supply your electric service, work every day under conditions similar to war. Like every good soldier, they hope for the best but prepare for the worst—never knowing at what instant flood, fire, wind or other cause will create emergency conditions.

Even routine daily jobs are dangerous missions for some of your electric service friends — and throughout the entire organization, from power plant boiler rooms to accounting department files, every man and every woman receives highly specialized training to enable the entire organization to function perfectly no matter what demands you place upon it.

Mobilized for swift expansion service to you as well as for maintenance of adequate service under all conditions, your electric service people also continually apply their science, skill and effort to make your cheap electric service steady, cheaper—knowing that your greatest inducement to wider use of electricity—in industry, commerce, home—is lowered cost.

The average kilowatt hour cost of electric service has been steadily reduced. Your increased use helped make this possible — your steady increased use of your most versatile servant plus the ability of your electric service people accurately to estimate your expanding needs and provide for them most economical and officials of the company. Southwestern Life representatives, by producing a specific volume of business during the previous year, win the right for themselves and their wives to attend the company's annual convention with their expenses paid.

A program replete with discussions devoted to the business of life underwriting has been planned for the convention, President O'Donnell's announcement indicated.

A. M. Brown of Tyler will call the general convention of the Southwestern Life club to order on Thursday, June 5. Convention proceedings will include the annual address of Company President O'Donnell, and among other officials who will appear on the program are Arthur Coburn, vice president; Richard R. Lee, vice president and agency director; and Ben H. Williams, CLU, director of sales.

Convention headquarters will be located at the Buccaneer Hotel and the facilities of both the Buccaneer and Hotel Galvez will be utilized by the delegates.

More than 50 life underwriters and their wives, members of the Southwestern Life's Top club, will assemble in Galveston on June 4 for a one day convention preceding the Company's 37th annual agency convention. The Top club is composed of life underwriters whose annual production exceeds $200,000 of new business.

Amusement and entertainment features typical of the port of Galveston have been planned and special entertainments have been arranged for wives of the underwriters.

A significant part of the program will be the annual banquet to be held Friday night when annual prizes will be awarded members of the company agency force who have achieved outstanding records during the previous business year. The principal address on this occasion will be delivered by Rev. Harry Knowles, pastor of the Central Christian church of Houston, Texas.

The convention will conclude with a brief business session and luncheon Saturday noon, June 7.

Methodist Announcements

"Babes in Christ" is the sermon subject chosen by the Rev. Boyd I. DeVore for the 11 o'clock services Sunday morning.

The Golden Cross enrollment is also being observed Sunday. Mrs. M. C. Tucker is local director of this movement which is the annual participation in a program designed to raise funds for the Methodist hospital in Dallas. The money thus raised goes to defray cost of charity work which amounts to better than $1,000 a month. The hospital, which now has only a very small indebtedness, has recently added a new wing to eliminate the crowded conditions existing. Each floor of the hospital has a room with hotel accommodations which is available to relatives or friends of critically ill patients. This system is an innovation to hospitals.

The Rev. DeVore, dean of the Intermediate Camp work for this district, called a meeting of workers last Saturday at Gainesville. Eighteen were present for the all day affair. Those attending from Burkburnett were Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Gladden, the Rev. and Mrs. DeVore.

An encampment for boys 12, 13 and 14 years old will be conducted at Camp Atika, Lake Murray, Okla., from July 21 through the 26th. The Dallas, Denton, McKinney, and Wichita Falls districts will be represented. Several other camps will be held for smaller units which will be able to spend only the week-end throughout the summer.

BIRD CROP IS HIT

Many quail, prairie chickens and other ground birds lost their nests during the recent high waters throughout many parts of Texas, according to reports from game managers and wardens reaching the executive secretary of the department. Especially hard hit was the Attwater prairie chicken of south central Texas. Many quail and some other species of birds will renest.

Good Sailing!

"Soul and body" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 25.

The Golden Text is: "I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ" (I Thessalonians 5: 8).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle is dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens" (II Corinthians 5:1).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The material body and mind are temporal, but the real man is spiritual and eternal." (page 302).

CONFIDENTIALLY...

Confidentially, Fido, I'm going to College when I grow up to be a lady, because Daddy and Mother have told me they've got it all fixed up with the Southwestern Insurance man..." So might the little girl speak...

and, confidentially, Daddy couldn't have made a wiser, or more sound investment, either, nor at a lower cost of insurance because Southwestern Life has the record of having the lowest lapse ratio of any old line company doing business in Texas, and low lapse ratios reduce the cost of life insurance.

Bible study and memory work, hand-work, and worship and mission study will be part of the school.

Rev. Glen Bales of Thrift Baptist church will bring the evening message Sunday while the pastor is at Electra for the Baccalaureate service for the High School graduates. Let us give him a good hearing.

Our revival meeting starts June 15; McKinley Norman preaching, and Wayne Norman, singing. June 8 will be Children's Day and June 15, Father's Day, with programs on these days to fit the emphasis.

An open Bible and a sincere welcome await you at the First Baptist church.

Local Center Make 325 Comforts

Mrs. A. A. Evert, supervisor of the local mattress center, states that since April 24, when the present allotment of materials was received, 325 comforts have been made here.

All those who are eligible for comforts who have not received notices that they are to make the comforts are asked to notify Miss Ruth Farquhar, county agent, 305 Federal building, Wichita Falls. Matching comforts for all mattresses already made will be finished before the next allotment of material.

Wiseman Tells Seniors To Face Life And Fight

The Baccalaureate sermon, delivered by Dr. C. L. Wiseman, Professor of Education at Southern Methodist University at Dallas, on Sunday, May 18, at the Baptist church, was the first of a series of programs scheduled for Commencement week.

Dr. Wiseman's address to 102 graduates was based on the question, "Will Life Get You Down?"
