Hot Weather Cause Scarcity of Water In Burkburnett

No, it isn't that the wells are showing any signs of weakening and it isn't because Sheppard Field gets some 20 to 30 thousand gallons each day. The trucks from Sheppard Field get their water at the pump station and the amount they haul away in no way affects the amount coming to town.

It is rather difficult to watch the grass in a yard gradually turn yellow, especially after it has been nursed and cared for since early spring. The desire to turn the sprinkler on is very strong. But, if some steps are not taken to conserve water in town, it may become necessary to turn the water on only during certain hours of the day.

Only a certain amount of water can be pumped through the six inch line coming into town, and Dave McNeil says they are putting the capacity amount thru 24 hours each day. Another six inch line leading from the pump station would change the situation here considerably.

Use what water you actually need, but don't waste it.

Scouts Have Had A Fine Camp The Past Month

Citizens of Burkburnett who have been able to visit the Boy Scout Camp nine miles from town will agree that the Scouts have had a fine summer at Camp Perkins. A large number of local boys have attended the camp, and many from other sections of this district have been in attendance. T. B. Parnell, who formerly taught in the local schools has been in charge of the camp.

Carlos Baker has had a group of Scouts from Seymour at the camp during the past week.

Camp Perkins is a great asset to this section of Texas and every possible use should be made of it for our boys. These boys receive excellent training and need the encouragement and supervision of our men in their work. Lend your help in making Scouting outstanding for all of the boys of Burkburnett.

The Little Brown Wardrobe

In homes, on the farm, and cities too,
A little brown wardrobe all shiny and new
Is found in the corner out of the way
To hold our boys clothes while he is away.

In the secret compartments you'll find
Objects and items of various kinds,
Here his dress shirts, his trousers and shoes
And there his work clothes of various blues.

Then his ties, his socks, his old overalls,
His notebook, his hats, his own basketball,
Also his sweaters, in the bottom his boots,
His high school relics, and all his dress suits.

As you walk through the room, a glance of the eye
You behold this wardrobe, and heave a sigh,
Oh, Where is my boy . . . When can he be home?
How long must he stay . . . How far must he roam?

Ah! well I remember the very day,
He filled that wardrobe, then went away,
His country has called him, for service true,
That's why he purchased that wardrobe new.

That little brown wardrobe, not pleasant to see
Because of the thoughts, they bring you and me
Still serve the purpose of keeping secure,
Our Darlings belongings, while he is at wars.

—Mrs. Frank Simmons, Burkburnett.

Lions Had Lively Meeting Tuesday

Lions club members gathered at The Town Hall Tuesday night for their regular meeting, with nearly 100 per cent attendance.

They were accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Duke.

Donald McCullough was back in the club after being at Decatur for some time. He transferred his membership back to his home club.

Lion President D. F. Douglas called a meeting of the directors after the club dismissed, at which meeting the directors voted to send Past President Lion Wayne Chambers to the National Lions Convention which meets in Chicago the last of this month. The club allowed $125.00 to the delegate for transportation, registration, etc. After attending the convention, Lion Chambers will come back by Lexington, Ky., to spend some time with his mother.

Good Rain Fell In Burkburnett Thursday Morning

Ushered in by a strong wind, a steady rain began falling here early Thursday morning. Slow drizzles at times turned into hard rain for a few minutes all during the morning. At noon today rain was still falling, soaking the ground and quenching the thirst of sun burned vegetation. Some lawns had begun to turn yellow for want of water, but they were not so far gone to be saved by a prolonged rain.

Estimates place the rainfall somewhere between one-half and one inch for the morning. By nightfall the amount is expected to be much more.

CASHING THEM IN

Too bad that some will buy war bonds just for a show and then cash them in after the impression of patriotism has been made. They used to call this being an "Indian giver". There are cases where firms have compelled employees to be 100% perfect in their purchase record and then suggest that they cash in the bonds after the first full, impressive figures have been publicized. Sometimes it is necessary to cash in on bonds, often an excuse is understandable, but unfortunately the common habit finds the renegeing not justifiable. In Burkburnett campaigns where local money has been sought for projects, sometimes a promise is made and the promise is all the town gets. One should realize that holding on to a war bond is not only aiding the war effort but from a financial standpoint, a war bond is as sound and secure an investment one could have today.

CORRESPONDENTS

Tribute is paid to all branches of the service, be it in military posts abroad or at home, workers in factories, homes, fields, churches, civic clubs, schools, Red Cross Centers, all have their part to play. Sometimes neglected but not because of no consequence or because it has not sacrificed, is the army of newspaper correspondents who are found wherever goes a uniformed soldier. From every point of combat you will find them risking their lives to give you in Burkburnett a picture of what is going on about them. They face the same danger as a fighting man are often called upon to do the same tasks as the soldier. It but in most cases without any regular army training. They are due them that you get news of what boys from such towns as this, are thinking, of what sons feel in Italy, see in France, want in New Guinea. This correspondent is the link between Main Street in Middletown and a foxhole in some God-forsaken jungle.

THEY TOLD US SO

We knew the paper bag shortage was coming and lots of us have made an effort to relieve the situation by saving the bags and returning them to the stores. The government now appeals to housewives to carry their own shopping bags when they go to shop and make these bags from cast-off material they might have around the house. Some women have purchased those wicker carriers on wheels that are handy, though more expensive. Shoppers are carrying market baskets who have never done so before this. We need not be ashamed to carry a home-made bag on our arm when we go to the store. It is a badge of patriotism as surely as contributing to any fat, metal or paper drive. It is a banner of co-operation. Then too, why must we have

Seven Years as Deputy

There is a right and wrong way to do everything, even in voting at the polls. You may listen to a lot of propaganda designed to get votes from an opponent or you may ask those who know. Judge a candidate by past performances.

Concerning this race, ask your abstractor, member of your real estate board, large property owners, in fact anyone who frequents the tax office. They will tell you H. L. Rice was always on the job, that he rendered courteous, efficient service, that he has no other business and no hobby to occupy his time. They will tell you that if elected H. L. Rice will always be found on the job doing the work he was elected to do. They will tell you he can save the taxpayers money by staying on the job and making a hand of himself.

If you believe rotation in office to be a fundamental principle of democracy, if you believe in promoting the experienced within the ranks, if you believe as your present tax collector believed when he was elected that 10 years time and $50,000.00 in salary is enough for one man in one office, then vote for H. L. Rice next Saturday, July 22.

all of our packages wrapped instead of telling the clerk to save the paper and we can carry it "as is". Just drop those unwrapped parcels into the bag you carry on your arm and proudly know you are doing your share of conservation. It all holds good until the war is over, the appeal that we save tin cans, fats and waste, salvaging metal, not asking for deliveries if possible, not buying gasoline coupons or using illegal gas in our cars, saving rubber, abiding by ceiling prices and playing square in regard to food stamps. The people of Burkburnett are behind the front but not behind in the fight.

Burkburnett History

As revealed by the files of the Star 17 years ago.

The Lions and Rotarians are all set for a baseball game. Johnnie Anderson, catcher; Jud Exley, pitcher; and Ray Hill first base.

Milford Tire Shop was destroyed by fire; $7,000 damage. Mr. Milford and his assistant were working on a gasoline pump when fumes were ignited by a vulcanizing machine. Both men were burned slightly. A new brick building will be erected to replace the one destroyed by the flames.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Jones report the loss of $420 taken from a purse in a dresser drawer, while Mrs. Jones was attending a sick neighbor.

B. H. Preston and family will accompany their sister-in-law, Mrs. A. D. Brown to Big Spring.

Rev. Paul Kaiser of Clara is attending the Synod at Thornedale.

Little Dial Rike Peevey is recovering from an operation for the removal of his tonsils.

The B. P. O. Elks met Tuesday with all the officers at their regular session.

Daily oil runs in Burkburnett averaged 11,515 barrels for the week ending July 4th.

Mrs. R. D. Laney and children returned Saturday from a visit in Fort Worth.

The Equalization Board composed of A. Lohofener and W. A. Roberts and Rex Smith have been serving this week.

Mrs. P. A. Wiggins was a visitor in Wichita Monday.

Mrs. W. R. Hill went to Eastland this week with Dr. and Mrs. Martin.

lacking in things to see and do. A bill poster was sure to have an audience of barefooted lads as he plied paste and brush; and so would a painter as he painted a Bull Durham sign on the side of a barn in the edge of our town.

There was a checker game to be viewed in the back of the drug store, provided a boy would keep quiet. Or we would watch the horse-shoe pitching on a vacant lot or another game in which the players tossed silver dollars into holes.

The presence of a stranger in town was cause for speculation among us. One such, in a derby and with a black mustache, we excitedly conjectured was a detective. (He turned out to be an agent, selling a world history in 18 volumes.)

Getting a new hat or a new suit or new shoes was an adventure. A boy wanted a pair of shoes that would squeak so that everyone would hear and then look, and they would see that he was wearing new ones.

ON THE HOME FRONT

with RUTH WYETH SPEARS

THIS bag was planned as a hospital gift for someone who was finding days in bed difficult enough without having books, magazines, writing materials and spectacle case scattered about and forever getting lost. If you like to take an assortment of reading matter to bed, sick or well, you will enjoy a bag like this. Its hanger hook may be sewed to box springs and there you are with everything at hand. The bag shown here was made of a remnant of heavy cotton upholstery material in tones of green with a touch of red in the pattern. The red was repeated in the saeteen lining. The sketch gives all the dimensions and shows how the lining and the outside part were made. A coat hanger was cut down to measure 12 inches from end to end and was placed between the lining and the outside; these being stitched together around the top, as illustrated.

NOTE—These directions for making a bedside bag are from BOOK 4 of the series of booklets which Mrs. Spears has prepared for readers. This book also contains illustrated directions for more than 30 other useful things to make for your home and for gifts. To get a copy send 15 cents with name and address to:

WOMAN'S PART IN NATIONAL LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Judges 4:1-9, 13-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—Who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?—Esther 4:14.

Women of our day have unprecedented liberty of action and almost limitless opportunity to show their ability to meet responsibility and to accomplish great things. They are measuring up to that opportunity both in the armed services and in the multitude of tasks they are creditably carrying on in civilian life.

To those who seem surprised at their response to the nation's need, the church could well testify that women have always served well in those things which count most for God and country.

I. A Woman Can Rule (vv. 1-5).
God has established an order in the world which places woman where she best fits—in the home. There, under the guidance and with the help of her husband, she exerts her most powerful influence in the rearing of children. That is her normal, most effective and most blessed position.

But all too often conditions in the world are not normal, and woman, like man, is thrown out of the customary orbit of existence. Deborah faced such a day. Israel had sinned and been given over to the chastising hand of the Canaanite. Then God heard their repentant cry and was ready to send a deliverer—as He did in the case of each of the judges. Apparently no man was ready to take up the responsibility, or willing to thus serve God, and so He called Deborah. She sat under her palm tree and Israel came to her for judgment.

She typifies many women who have been the leaders of their people, and her story has been an inspiration to women in the church. May many more be encouraged to take up the weighty problems of moral and social righteousness, which the men of our nation (and others) do not seem to care or dare to attack!

II. A Woman Can Lead (vv. 6-9).
Barak was a man of ability. Deborah gave him full credit for his capable service (5:1, 12), but evidently he lacked that initiative which would send him into conflict with his people's enemies. Without Deborah he would not go (v. 8), under her leadership he was willing and courageous.

It is easy to ridicule Barak, and no doubt he deserves some measure of censure, but let us not be too severe on him. When the records are all in, it will be known that many of the feats of courage, the high and noble decisions, the victories in the fields of science and culture, and particularly those things that have been accomplished in and through the church, were the result of the leadership of some woman.

Many are the distinguished national and spiritual leaders who have said that all they were and had accomplished they owed to their mothers. Others speak with high appreciation of a noble and inspiring wife.

Think also of the many social and religious causes which have been largely carried on by determined and sacrificial women. Yes, a woman can lead, and often she must lead out to get the men to follow.

Not all the pursuits of life are lived out in peace or in preparation for war. The time comes when battle must be joined, and then we see that

III. A Woman Can Fight (vv. 13-16).
True it is that it was Barak who led his army, but he went out at the word of Deborah. Hers was the responsibility for strategy, for the determining of that important D-day, when the blow must be struck.

The courage of women in the battles for country makes an inspiring story. Not the least of that courage has been shown by those who have quietly stood "by the stuf" at home, who have bravely parted with their cherished loved ones, who have borne the dark hours of loneliness, uncertainty and often of heart-piercing sorrow. They shall not be without their reward (see I Sam. 30:24).

This is the place to say a further word of appreciation of the women of the church who have fought such a valiant fight against liquor, social degradation, vice, evil politics, etc. "Hats off to them!" May they be encouraged to go on.

Then too, one ought to say a word of sad and earnest admonition to those countless women who have used their great freedom in our day as a license to live wicked and ungodly lives. They do not have the courage to stand against the loose moral standards, the common acceptance of intoxicants, the immodest apparel of the day.

Christian women have the golden opportunity of setting a fine pattern of useful living now. Let them make the most of it, for the glory of God.

Crews Sleepless, Fight On Night After Night Clearing Air of Axis

By Ernie Pyle

NORMANDY.—One of the most vital responsibilities during these weeks of our war on the Continent of Europe has been the protection of our unloading beaches and ports.

For over and through them must pass, without interruption, and in great masses, our buildup of men and material in sufficient masses to roll the Germans clear back out of France.

Nothing must be allowed to interfere with that unloading. Everything we can lay our hands on is thrown into the guarding of those beaches and ports. Allied ground troops police them from the land side.

Our two navies protect them from sneak attacks by sea. Our great air supremacy makes daytime air assaults rare and costly.

It is only at night that the Germans have a chance. They do keep pecking away at us with night bombers, but their main success in this so far has been keeping us awake and making us dig our foxholes deeper.

Here on the beachhead the falling flak becomes a real menace—one of the few times I've known that to happen in this war. Every night for weeks, pieces of exploded shells have come whizzing to earth within 50 yards of my tent. Once an unexploded ack-ack shell buried itself half a stone's throw from my tent.

A good portion of our army on the beachhead now sleeps all night in foxholes, and some of the troops have swung over to the Anzio beachhead custom of building dugouts in order to be safe from falling flak.

For a long time I have intended doing a series about the anti-aircraft gunners. I'm glad I never got around to it before, for here on the Normandy beachhead our ack-ack seems to have reached its peak.

Figures are not permissible but I can say that right now we have many, many ack-ack soldiers on the beachhead and that by the time everything has arrived the number will be much larger.

And that is speaking only of ack-ack men who do nothing else. In addition there are thousands of gunners attached to divisions and other units who double in brass when planes come over and shoot at anything that passes low.

Our ack-ack is commanded by a general officer, which indicates how important it is. His hundreds of gun batteries even intercept planes before they near the beaches. The gun positions are plotted on a big wall map in his command tent, just as the battle lines are plotted by infantry units. A daily score is kept of the planes shot down—confirmed ones and probables. Just as an example of the effectiveness of our ack-ack, one four-gun battery alone shot down 15 planes in the first two weeks.

Up to the time this is written the Germans don't seem to have made up their minds exactly what they are trying to do in the air. They wander around all night long, usually in singles but sometimes in numbers, but they don't do a great deal of bombing. Most of them turn away at the first near burst from one of our 90-mm. guns. Our ack-ack men say they think the German pilots are yellow, but having seen the quality of German fighting for nearly two years now that is hard for me to believe.

Often they will drop flares that will light up the whole beach area, and then fail to follow through and bomb by the light of their flares. The ack-ack men say that not more than two out of ten planes that approach the beachhead ever make their bomb runs over our shipping. You are liable to get a bomb anywhere along the coastal area, for many of the Germans apparently just salvo their bombs and high tail home.

It is indeed a spectacle to watch the anti-aircraft fire when the Germans actually get over the beach area. All the machine guns on the ships lying off the beaches cut loose with their red tracer bullets, and those on shore do too. Their bullets arch in all directions and fuse into a sky-filling pattern. The lines of tracers bend and wave and seem like streams of red water from hoses. The whole thing becomes a gigantic, animated fountain of red in the black sky. And above all this are the split-second golden flashes of big-gun shells as they explode high up toward the stars.

The noise is terrific. Sometimes

'Ma Petite Cherie'—Is Now a Jeep in Normandy

It is the custom throughout our army, as you doubtless know, for soldiers to paint names on their vehicles. They have names on airplanes, tanks, jeeps, trucks, guns and practically everything that moves.

Well, the boys have already started painting French names on their vehicles. I saw a jeep named "Bientot," which means "soon," and a motorcycle named "Char de Mort," which means "Chariot of Death."

Pretty soon we will be seeing jeeps named "Yvonne" and "Ma Petite Cherie."

Head Infantile Paralysis Expected Increase

Infantile paralysis can be expected to occur more frequently during the next three months, according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. This disease is more frequent during the summer months.

Infantile paralysis is so small that it escapes detection even with the most powerful microscopes. The first symptoms are usually vomiting, headache, fever, stiffness of the neck, pain in the legs, irritability and drowsiness. Complete recovery may follow such an illness; but in more severe cases, the germ penetrates the nervous system, resulting in paralysis of nerves controlling one, or more, groups of muscles. Some remarkable recoveries have been noted.

Flies, or other insects, while under suspicion, have not been demonstrated to play a part in the spread of this disease. Infection spreads from person to person with the droplets attending and sneezing. Children and grown people that are healthy may be carriers of the germ. When present in epidemic form, about one child in each hundred is apt to suffer an attack.

Early recognition and diagnosis are essential. The use of immune serum may be a factor in preventing paralysis. A period of complete rest is essential for muscles that are affected. If parents note any symptoms of illness in their children, the family doctor should be consulted at once.

W. T. (Slim) Holman Asks For Re-election As Commissioner

W. T. (Slim) HOLMAN

In announcing for re-election as your County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2, I first want to express my deepest appreciation to my friends and voters of Precinct No. 2, for the privilege of serving you for the past four years as your County Commissioner. For the honor and confidence you have manifested in me and for your hearty cooperation given me in the discharge of my duties, the time has come for you to choose your Commissioner for the next two years.

I earnestly and sincerely submit to you my application for re-election as your County Commissioner of Precinct No. 2 upon my past record of service rendered. I have while serving you as your County Commissioner constructed 8½ miles of asphalt roads, 33 concrete culverts and bridges, 27 miles of sand stone roads, and I hope in the very near future to have the school bus and mail routes all hard surfaced.

For the past three years the county has been operating on a budget system and at the present time all funds of Wichita County show a cash balance. On July 1 Precinct No. 2 had a cash balance of ninety three thousand (93,000) dollars, and has post-war plans under way for asphalt-ing all major lateral roads as soon as men and material are available.

I have attended court regularly and have done everything within my power to take care of Precinct No. 2 interest to the best of my ability. I have worked in full co-operation with the County Judge and Commissioners Court on any and every matter that has come before the Court. I also wish to thank the employees of Precinct No. 2 for the help and co-operation in helping me to perform the duties you have bestowed upon me. In these trying times, we are all called upon to do our utmost in the defense of our nation in all this all-out war requires us to serve our best in any capacity or duty assigned us which I have done to the best of my ability.

In conclusion, if you want a continued efficient administration, and approve my past record of service as your County Commissioner I will be deeply grateful for you re-electing me to serve you and I will work hard to serve you to the best of my ability.

Sincerely and gratefully yours,
W. T. (Slim) Holman,
Your County Commissioner.

The classes were conducted by instructors of the highest type and supplied to the school by the Eighth Service Command.

The local guardsmen attending have many new and interesting facts to bring to the local company and earnestly request that the readers of this report who are not treading members of the Texas State Guard to make application for enlistment in our local company on any regular drill night, which is 8 p. m. each Friday or to any of the members of the local company. It is the plan of the local company to go on all night maneuvers with the battalion at an early date, at which time a large part of the instructions used at Camp Bullis School will be followed through the all night maneuvers.

Paper Salvage Drive at Wichita Sets New Record

Initial response to the plea for more waste paper salvage spurred the bi-weekly residential collection figure Sunday to a new high of 81,500 pounds, it was announced by W.O. Kimmell chairman of the accelerated campaign. The poundage was 23,000 above the previous high.

Twenty full loads of newsprint, magazines, cardboard and miscellaneous paper were collected by 26 employees of the city garbage division who worked from 8:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m.

Special attention to business district paper salvage will be given beginning Tuesday, Kimmell reported. A committee of four "persuaders" has been named for each block in the business district to remind business houses that they should flatten and bundle all paper salvage daily for night pickups.

Mrs. Edith Goodlett of Dallas and Mrs. Pettijohn and Wanda Allison of Wichita Falls were visitors of Mrs. W. T. Vance the first of the week.

EUROPE: Yanks Gain

Developing their offensive on the western end of the French battlefront, U. S. troops drove through marshy land to envelop the communications hubs of La Haye and St. Lo against the bitter opposition of an enemy taking every advantage of the soggy ground and hedgerow landscape.

On the eastern end of the front, British and Canadian troops battled large concentrations of German forces on the approaches of the defensive pivot of Caen, from which Field Marshal Rommel was sending out strong detachments in counterattacks to impede the Allies' thrust inland toward the important Paris region.

As the Allies nudged forward in Normandy, Berlin announced the replacement of Anti-Invasion Chief von Rundstedt by Field Marshal von Kluge, who led the Nazi sweep through France in 1940, and was at the helm during the drive on Moscow during the first year of the Russian war.

Other Fronts Calling massed artillery into play from dominating heights, the Germans poured fire on Allied troop movements in Italy to slow their steady drive up the long peninsula to the rich agricultural and industrial regions of the north.

In Russia, German forces continued to give ground before strong Red armies massed along a 350-mile front in the north to escape encirclement and destruction. Near Wilno, the Reds milled on the threshold of the Baltic states, while farther to the south their pressure forced evacuation of Kowel, bending the enemy line farther back toward Warsaw.

Focal point of German resistance in Italy was below the famed port of Livorno (Leghorn), whose capture promised to give the Allies another good Mediterranean harbor for the easier transport of troops and supplies for the crucial fighting in the north.

DIPLOMACY: French Problem

U. S. support of the De Gaulle administration of liberated French territory without formal recognition of it as a legal government was the latest diplomatic problem up for settlement in Washington, D.C.

With De Gaulle's arrival in the nation's capital for discussions with President Roosevelt, De Gaulle winged his way over from North Africa to seek approval of his negotiations with Britain, under which his administration would take control of liberated territory, arrange for supply and equipment of underground forces through lend-lease, and settle disputed property rights caused by transfers of ownership under Nazi occupation and Allied requisitioning for military purposes.

Although long complimentary to De Gaulle's Free French movement, the U. S. has been cautious in recognizing it as the legal representative of the people, declaring that only an election could determine their choice when circumstances permitted.

Highlights... in the week's news

FARM HANDS WANTED: The War Food administration estimates that 700,000 extra workers will be needed during the harvest season.

UNREST: Uprisings in Honduras and Nicaragua are reported as unrest appears to be spreading throughout the small nations of Central America.

PACIFIC: Subs Take Toll

With the Allies pressing closer to Japan's inner supply lines feeding her booming war industry, U. S. subs and air forces can be expected to take an increasing toll of enemy shipping, navy secretary James Forrestal declared.

In reporting that U. S. subs recently had sent 15 Jap cargo vessels and two warships to the bottom, Forrestal said such losses crimped the enemy's whole war program, since he must move about 75 million tons of water-borne freight into the home islands yearly, including 75 per cent of his oil and gas supply from the East Indies.

Despite heavy marine losses, Forrestal said, the Japs have lightened the effects through use of huge stockpiles of materials built up before the war, lessening of transport to encircled South Pacific areas, and the utilization of surplus prewar shipping tonnage.

LEND-LEASE: Steady Shipments

Lend-lease shipments of food to the Allies continued at a steady pace during the first five months of 1944, with some commodities being sent in larger volume and others in smaller amounts, with little net effect on domestic supplies.

During the period, 9.3 per cent of the total U. S. meat supply was shipped under lend-lease, with the major portion consisting of pork. About 15.6 per cent of the nation's pork was sent abroad.

The United Kingdom and Russia continued to receive most of the lend-lease food, with the U. S. supplying 10 per cent of British needs.

TRAGEDIES: Circus Fire

Overhead the famed Wallendas prepared for their celebrated tight-rope act on bicycles as 6,000 happy spectators awaited the performance under the big canvas tent of the Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey circus in Hartford, Conn.

Near a sidewall of the tent, a small flame was noticed. Suddenly, it flared and leaped upward, with great patches of burning canvas falling when fire had seared them off. The cry of "Fire! Fire! Fire!" spread through the panic-stricken spectators, and their frantic shouts mingled with the din of roaring animals in the corral outside.

As the great sheets of burning canvas fell on top of the milling crowd below, adults and children struggled to make their way to safety, but scores were trapped, with some running into the steel ramps through which animals were led into the arena.

As rescue workers dug into the debris, they extricated the bodies of 135 victims, mostly children, and more seriously injured.

Miners Trapped

As scores of relatives of 64 miners trapped in the Powhatan pit near Bellaire, Ohio, waited hopefully at the mine entrance, officials grimly announced that the shaft would have to be sealed off to prevent the flow of oxygen feeding the raging flames underground.

In one last desperate effort to free the men entombed in a dead-end tunnel when a rock fall broke a high-voltage trolley wire along the main passageway and sizzling sparks ignited coal, skilled crews prepared to drill down 350 feet to open a shaft for lowering food and water.

In a previous effort to free the entombed men, rescue workers were cutting a new 500 foot tunnel through coal and rock to bypass the flames and reach the victims, when new fires halted their work.

Train Wreck

Climaxing the string of major tragedies was the derailment of a Louisville and Nashville train in Clear Fork River gorge near Jellico, Tenn., with early reports listing 25 dead and many injured.

Casualties on the troop-carrying train resulted when the locomotive and two coaches left the track and plunged 50 feet into the gorge, and two other cars overturned on the edge of the decline and caught fire.

Although hindered by darkness, rescue workers used acetylene torches to probe the wreckage and remove victims, while mountaineers hoisted the stricken up from the gorge with block and tackle.

CHINA: Bloody Fighting

Fighting with their backs to the wall, Chinese troops stiffly resisted strong Japanese efforts to seal off the embattled territory's whole east-seacoast and strengthen their grip on the Asiatic mainland.

Chinese forces far to the south sought to join up with Allied troops driving through Burma to open up a new supply route to China from India. Only 26 miles of mountainous terrain stood between the two armies.

The 14th American air force joined in the savage battle in China, bombing and strafing the enemy and dropping tons of ammunition to the valiant defenders.

The New York and Hollywood Scene:

Faces About Glammerville: Al Jolson spellbinding a squad of U. S. Marines at the Beverly Hills Hotel pool... Bette Davis and Sec'y Morgenthau thrilling the uniformed men at the Hollywood Canteen...

Veronica Lake, tiny as a doll, floating to the rhythms of Emil Coleman's and Phil Ohman's crews at the Mocambo... Lovely Marianne O'Brien of the Warners' factory surrounded by Marines in the Clover Club...

Miriam Hopkins at La Rue with her constant companion, who never was itemed as her favorite male. He's a Greek piggie... Bob Hope and his Johnny Weismuller hair-do. "No cracks," he warns with a threatening finger, "I'm doing a pirate picture."

Marshal Rommel (according to Britishers who made their escape back to our lines) has a sense of humor, he thinks... He made several British officers attend his frequent lectures, during which he affected a pose that the Battle of Africa was a sporting event.

He would give these prisoners a testimonial dinner with all the pomp he could muster on the desert. Big entrances, place cards, introductions, salutes and so on... And then, while the German staff dined on excellent cuisine, the British prisoners were served a meal consisting of their own K-rations captured with them.

Rommel said he was delighted in pointing out their errors and why they were captives. He was asked by a correspondent: "To what do you credit your success? How will the enemy ever beat you?"

With a gleam in his monocled eye Rommel replied: "The German Army is great because of its great organization. I know exactly when I will enter a town. One month ahead I know what suite I will have in which hotel. If, however, some day, I march into a place and go to my suite and find another German general—then I will know we are licked!"

The "Oklahoma" cast is reported doing so much ad libbing that "they are spolling the show." Guild execs shrug and say: "Look at the box office." The New York Post office has broken all records in the district. To date this year it has done business totaling 103 millions.

The book now on FDR's bedside table is "Rendezvous with Destiny." The only comment on the book appeared in a Chicago paper briefly and a story in the Christian Science Monitor. Not a single review has appeared on it yet...

Hepburn's newest interest, they say, is a famed polo player... Add ditty similarities: "Time Waits for No One" and "Tales from Vienna Woods"... Lana Turner won't bark about it until she sees it here, but those delicious canapes Ray Bourbon served with cocktails the other sundown were made from dog food... R-R-Ruff-Ruff!

The Late Watch: Shirley Ross and her husband, Kenneth Dolan (who parted last season), are happier than ever. They reconciled after he was quoted here as saying the fault was all his because: "I neglected my wife instead of my clients"...

There will be a copyright war over U. S. rights to the song popular with the troops, "Lili Marlene"... Douglas Miller, who wrote "You Can't Do Business With Hitler," told OWI chiefs that the war with Germany will last at least another year and with Japan two... T. Casey, the B'klyn Citizen editor, has written two songs with Johnny Tucker of Hook and Ladder Co. 117 in Astoria... All major networks banned the song, "Don't Change Horses," which has nothing to do with politics. It has been networked since April. The authors wrote "Mairzy Doats."

Quotation Marksmanship: Noel Coward: The most terrifying thing to a man is a woman who cries in advance... E. Hemingway: The saddest thing in the world is the affection of man and woman; the most fortunate ending is by death... J. Porter: She whines him around her finger... Mable Bandy: Eye-lashes that could sweep the cobwebs from any man's heart... L. Corning: Low clouds on the verge of tears.

Sallies in Our Alley: Bob Dunn's office boy requested the afternoon off (on the day of a double-header) saying: "Boss—my grandmother..." Dunn cut him short: "Oh, come now, son. You're not going to pull that chestnut about your grandmother, or being dead?" "No, sir," was the reply. "She's home on furlough!"... At La Conga some velvet-knockers were gabbing about a gal whose beauty was in dispute then down, and when the hay rots the grass grows, effectively holding down the soil.

ATHLETE'S FOOT NEWS "80.6% of sufferers showed CLINICAL IMPROVEMENT after only 10-day treatment with SORETONE" Foster D. Snell, Inc., well-known consulting chemists, have just completed a test with a group of men and women suffering from Athlete's Foot. At the end of only ten-day test period, their feet were examined in two ways: 1. Scrapings were taken from the feet and examined by the bacteriologist. 2. Each subject was reported by a physician. We quote from the report: "After the use of Soretone according to the directions on the label for a period of only ten days, 80.6% of the cases showed clinical improvement of an infection which is most stubborn to control." Improvements were shown in the symptoms of Athlete's Foot—the itching, burning, redness, etc. The report says: "In our opinion Soretone is of very definite benefit in the treatment of this disease, which is commonly known as 'Athlete's Foot.'" So if Athlete's Foot troubles you, don't agonize with this nasty, devilish, stubborn infection. Get Soretone! McKesson & Robbins, Inc., Bridgeport, Connecticut.

ON HIS RECORD OF SPLENDID SERVICE.
HE KNOWS THE JOB WILL DO HIS DUTY
WE NEED HIM LET'S KEEP HIM IN SERVICE

The Texan's share in this war is truly a big one. Of every 18 men in the Army, Navy and Marine corps, one is a native of the Lone Star State. Recent reports show approximately 650,000 Texans in the services.

Every dispatch from the fighting fronts reminds us that the descendants of the heroes of the Alamo are first-string scrappers. The recruiting officer who told the boys up north that they should "join the army and help Texas win the war" was not too far from the truth!

Here's the latest on some of the Texas fighting men:

Captain John A. Paul of Kerrville is wearing a bronze star won in the hard fighting at Bougainville—Lt. Bill Hogan of Clarksville, now recovering from wounds, has been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for heroism in wiping out an anti-tank gun crew—and the same medal has gone to Lt. Delbert C. Gates of Joinerville, with a citation which attests his "extraordinary heroism" in fighting off a Jap attack while armed only with an automatic rifle.

Lewis Schatz of Dobbin, who is back home for hospitalization after being twice wounded in Italy, met his brother, Pfc. August Schatz, at Salerno. August is still in Italy chasing the retreating Nazis.

"Lucky boots" have carried Lt. E. W. Bridwell of Winters thru 23 bombing missions over Europe. The high-heeled Texas footgear, first worn by Capt. L. A. Brumley of Del Rio, were passed on to Lt. Bridwell. When he completes his flying tint, they will go to Lt. Bob Deveney of Waco, who thinks they will bring him luck too.

"Commando" Kelly, the Yankee Irishman who became a Texan and won the Congressional Medal of Honor by Fighting heroically with Texas' 36th Division, stopped off in Austin recently to thank the "home folks" for their contributions to the war effort.

"We know Texans are behind us," he told Wayland D. Townner, manager of the United War Chest of Texas, "because we got National War Fund services even up close to the front lines. USO camp shows, War Prisoners Aid and other agencies are doing a great job, thanks to the $5,000,000 given by Texas last year. Keep up the good work, and we'll keep hitting the enemy hard."

The Nazis in Normandy made a mistake when they made a Texan mad one day last week. When a German bazooka knocked out his tank, Lt. Dick Martin of Fort Worth got sore, jumped on top of the stranded machine, cut loose with a sub-machine gun, and personally killed 35 Nazis.

Lt. Dan Gilmore, whose home is Luling, has made six bombing runs over Berlin, and still is in there pitching. Now he holds the DFC for heroism and the Air Medal with three Oak Leaf Clusters.

Lt. Neilan Bemis of Denison is towing more glider troops to France, after winning the DFC with cluster—Lt. Winfred Alfred of Commerce is back home after 28 missions over Europe as a Flying Fortress pilot—Sgt. Julian Barkman, whose home is near Texarkana, has been taken prisoner by the Germans. But his lot will be made easier by War Prisoners Aid, National War Fund agency which provides sports equipment and dother supplies for our men behind enemy barbed wire.

One of the youngest generals in the Army is C. D. "Casey" Vincent, veteran fighter pilot. He is only 29, but strictly a Texas fighting man. His home is Gale.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...

"I don't blame the fellows overseas for gettin' all het up over it, Judge. For the likes of me I can't see what's all the hurry about holdin' these local prohibition elections while they're away."

"I agree with you, Steve. Time after time... in their letters, in articles, in polls taken to get the views of our fighting men... they have indicated in unmistakable terms that they don't want any action taken on prohibition, either local or national, until they get back."

"Too bad there isn't a law or somethin' to be sure their wishes are carried out, Judge."

"There is in one state I know of, Steve. Just recently it passed a law prohibiting the calling of any prohibition election until a year after the peace is declared."

"That really makes sense to me, Judge."

Loan Sharks Seek to Evade Monopoly Laws

Is money a commodity? The question is raised by about 100 loan sharks" indicted by the Federal government for violation of the Sherman Anti-Trust law.

They say money is not commodity and, therefore, cannot be described as "commerce" which would bring it under the anti-trust law.

Unfortunately for the "loan sharks", the Supreme Court the other day decided that insurance was enough of a commodity to come under the anti-trust statute and surely money is as much of a commodity as insurance.
