Red Cross Drive Gets Underway Today

On E. Wing Burk Motors Collapsed Tuesday

Tons of sleet and snow on the roof of the East wing of Burk Burnett Motors caused the roof to collapse Tuesday afternoon about 4:00 o'clock. The roof was popping and cracking about 2:30. Efforts to place braces under the roof were abandoned when it was decided that a crash might come at any time.

The structure, 50x50 feet, was completely demolished. It crashed to the floor, windows were blown out as by exploding bricks walls crumbled. The east wall leans over several inches.

Debris was removed from the building except one. A car on blocks had to be removed because of the length of time required to get it out. Damage is estimated at $10,000. It is doubtful if insurance will cover this loss.

Memorial Service Today Afternoon For Jack Bunstine

A memorial service will be held Sunday afternoon at the First Church at 3 o'clock for Jack Bunstine, who was killed in action in Europe on September 10th. Services will be conducted by pastor, Rev. P. G. High, assisted by a Chaplain Sheppard Field. A color guard from Sheppard Field and other units will also participate. Musical music will be presented.

A cross to be placed in front of the church has been prepared by the Bunstine family and will be dedicated at this service.

Brother-in-Law Lt. Jack Bunstine Send Death Details

Capt. Hal Adamson, brother-in-law of Lieut. Jack Bunstine who was killed Jan. 10, missed seeing him by one day. The two had planned to meet on the 11th. Circumstances under which Lt. Bunstine was killed as related by the Capt. are as follows: On the night of Jan. 10 Lieut. Bunstine was out observing enemy mortar fire. He was presumably alone. A shell thought to be from a sniper's 30 calibre rifle, hit him in the left temple. Doctors said death came instantly.

The body was laid to rest in a cemetery near a large French city, the name of which cannot be revealed now.

Religious Census To Be Taken

Religious census to be taken by all the churches, Sunday afternoon, March 11th.

Further instructions will follow.

BURKBURNETT AND TERRITORY COVERED WITH SIX INCHES SLEET AND SNOW TUESDAY

School Census Starts March 5th

Burkburnett Schools will observe March 2 as a holiday. Regular school work will resume Monday, March 5.

School Census to begin March 5th.

The annual school census for the Burkburnett Independent School District will begin March 5 and continue through the month. The cooperation of parents in enumerating every boy and girl in the district between the ages of 6 and 17 inclusive as of September 1, 1945 is urged. The regular school census will be taken in the school March 5 and during the latter part of March the teachers will make a house to house census for additional students of school age.

Monday morning Burkburnett awoke under a blanket of sleet about one and one-half inches deep. Sleet continued to fall until mid-afternoon covering the ground to a depth of between two and three inches. Driving was hazardous because the sleet covered car glasses and stuck like glue. The paving was not so slick for agitation of spinning car wheels kept two tracks open on either side of the road.

Tuesday morning four inches of snow had been added to the sleet. The snow was powder fine in texture and fell silently in the night. From about seven o'clock until noon racing motors could be heard in all parts of town as impatient drivers tried to extract their cars from driveways piled high with snow and ice. Cars that were fortunate enough to reach town had to be helped away from the curb when they wished to leave.

By mid-afternoon Tuesday the sun was out bright and underfoot was a sloppy six inches of ice and water on all the paved streets. Thawing continued until nightfall when the thermometer dropped to the high twenties and glazed streets with slippery ice. Low for the night was about 24 degrees.

For the time being, at least, the fruit crop seems to be safe. Buds had begun to swell but most people believe they had not gone far enough to be damaged by the freeze.

Traffic between Burkburnett and Wichita Falls was halted a short time Tuesday morning, early. By noon buses and other traffic was going through, cautiously avoiding getting too close to the edge of the highway.

No serious accidents have been reported in this vicinity.

Lions Club

Lion members were entertained Tuesday night by Capt. McCosh, Veterinary Inspector at Sheppard Field. Capt. McCosh told of his duties and the precautions taken to insure sanitary food conditions at the camp. All meat for use in the armed forces is inspected before slaughter and at the time of slaughter. It is inspected again before shipment and again at the time it is received at various camps.

Clifford Dodson and Farris Cruce had charge of the program. Program committee for next Tuesday night will be D. F. Douglas and Harry Dodson.

There were no visitors. Sloan Mills had the privilege button last Tuesday night and followed the meeting auctioned off to the highest bidder. Clifford Dodson paid 75 cents for the privilege next Tuesday night.

Funeral Rites Held For Mrs. J. H. Trout

Mrs. J. H. Trout, 68 resident of Burkburnett since 1919 and formerly of Rotan, Texas, died in a Wichita Falls hospital Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24, about 2:20 o'clock after a week's illness.

The family resides on a farm near Burkburnett. Funeral services were conducted from the Owens & Brumley Chapel Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Rev. Otto C. Perry, pastor of the Nazarene Church, officiating. Interment was in the Burkburnett cemetery.

Survivors are the husband; two sons, C. C. and R. L. Trout, of Burkburnett; two brothers, Pat Large, Knox City; Bill Large, Phoenix, Ariz.; 19 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

City Manager Loy Nichols is still confined to his home with mumps. His wife and son are also victims.

SPEAKER

Honorable Walter F. George, United States Senator from Georgia, will be the speaker on the Baptist Hour next Sunday morning, March 4th, according to Mr. S. F. Lowe, director of the Radio Committee, SBC, Atlanta, Ga.

Mr. Lowe stated that Senator George, an honored leader in the United States Senate for twenty years, Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, a deacon in the First Baptist Church of Vienna, Georgia, and a Christian scholar of the first order, has a firm grip on the Christian verities as they apply to world affairs as well as to personal living, and is eminently qualified to speak on the subject.

"The Foundation of Freedom" And further, that from his wide experience in speaking over local stations and national chains he has come to be recognized as a top radio speaker.

Fan mail in the current Baptist Hour series is outstanding. The total number of pieces received for the week ending February 10th is 6,254.

The Baptist Hour program may be heard in Texas, over stations KPRC, Houston, WFAA, Dallas and KGNC, Amarillo, 7:30 CWT Sunday mornings.

Rites Read For Arthur A. Allen

Funeral services for Arthur A. Allen, 52, of Bryson, Texas, who died in a Graham hospital Tuesday were held Thursday, March 1 at 4 p. m. from the Owens & Brumley Funeral Chapel in this city. Rev. A. E. Harrison officiated. Interment was in the Burkburnett cemetery.

Allen formerly lived in Burkburnett, where he had been in the dairy business. He moved to Bryson some years ago and specialized in berry raising quite successfully.

He is survived by the widow, now living at Bryson, two sons, Lawrence Allen, U. S. Navy at Corpus Christi and Richard Allen, living with the mother; three daughters, Mrs. Edna Landes and Mrs. Emma Stanley, Webb City, Mo., and Miss Irene Allen of Bryson, and two brothers, C. L. Allen, Webb City, Mo., and N. R. Allen of Burkburnett.

The father, Ed Allen, of Webb City, Mo., also survives.

Pallbearers were Joe Majors, F. E. Cruce, Wylie Browning, O. A. Nichols, Ott Myers and Ely Buckner.

Rotary Club

The Rotary Club held its regular meeting Tuesday noon at Town Hall with almost 100 percent perfect attendance.

Fred Boden brought the program and talked on Rationing. Mr. Boden gave Chief Byrnes' reasons for the recent cancellation of outstanding ration points. He also gave a picture of the future outlook on the supply of tires and sugar as it will affect the nation.

Harry Dodson was a guest of Tom Boyd.

NOTICE To Parents

It is required of all students entering the first grade in September, 1945 that they be immunized against Small Pox and Diphtheria. Parents with children entering the first grade of September 1, 1945 are urged and requested to get in touch with their local physician so as to have these immunizations completed by September 1.

R. M. DAVIS, Superintendent.

HOME ON LEAVE

Chester N. Todd, powerful little blocking back who played with the Bull Dogs on the Regional Champion team, is still on the winning team. He is an Electrician's Mate 2/c on one of Uncle Sam's fighting ships which has been slugging it out with the Japs. Chester came in on the 19th for a visit with his grand mother, Mrs. Minnie Todd and other relatives, after spending 19 months in the Pacific. His ship has been in some hot battles the past few months and sent its share of Jap ships to the bottom. He said he went 14 months without seeing a white woman. Chester is enjoying his visit home and said Burkburnett is still the best place on earth.

Snowballers Break Window At A & P

Tuesday afternoon a group of youngsters used Main Street for a battle ground and had a real snowball fight. They probably didn't think of the damage they might do until a heavy snowball crashed into one of the plate glass windows in front of the A & P Tea Co. and broke it.

While the battle raged no passing car escaped a hail of snowballs. Even older folk and women carrying babies were genuinely peppered. Such thoughtless fun could lead to more serious damage than breaking windows.

Randlett Pioneer Succumbs At 100

His wish to live for 100 years more than fulfilled, Jefferson Jiles Bryant died at the home of his grandson, Johnnie Bryant, Friday morning, February 23rd, after a short illness.

On February 14th Bryant celebrated his 100th birthday. The recipient of congratulations, however, had suffered a stroke a couple of days before, but he knew it was his birthday and was fully aware of the gifts and attentions being showered upon him, until his death Friday morning at which date he was 100 years and nine days old.

Bryant came to what is known as Cotton County in 1908.

He is survived by four sons, L. J. Bryant, Shafter, Calif.; Steve and Elmer Bryant, Mineral Wells; and Eddie Bryant, of Burkburnett.

Funeral rites were held at the Randlett Methodist Church Saturday, with Rev. Vernon Thornton of Burkburnett officiating. Interment was in the Randlett cemetery under the direction of Pearson's Funeral Home.

Six grandchildren acted as flower girls.

Paul Browning Chairman Of Burk Drive

Paul Browning has assumed responsibility for putting Burkburnett over the top in the Red Cross drive by accepting the duties of chairman. Mr. Browning has called a meeting of about forty workers to gather at the City Hall tonight when detailed plans for the drive will be mapped.

This precinct has a quota of $4,600 to raise. Individual captains will be selected at the meeting tonight and each captain will in turn be assigned a particular area to work and be given the privilege of selecting workers to help in the canvassing.

Although the drive opens today and lasts all through March, every effort will be made to reach the quota in two weeks, or by the 20th of the month at the latest.

Many volunteer workers will be needed to contact every person, and no one should refuse to lend their time when called upon to help with the work.

Citizens are asked to give generously when a volunteer worker solicits their contribution. Volunteer workers will not only be giving their time to the drive. They will be giving their money, too. Don't put them off. Your cooperation will make their task easier and assure the quota assigned Burkburnett.

It is hardly necessary to mention the many things the Red Cross does. We are all familiar with the Red Cross. The Red Cross serves our boys and girls in uniform all over the world. It helps in time of disaster. It teaches home nursing and engages in many other activities of a humanitarian nature. Let's give all we can.

Joe McCluskey New Manager Farmers' Co-Op Gin

Joe McCluskey, prominent farmer of the Randlett, Oklahoma, community, took over the duties as manager of the Farmers' Co-operative Gin of Burkburnett Feb. 15, 1945.

Mr. McCluskey is the former manager of the Farmers' Gin in Randlett, Okla.

He has had many years experience in this business and will serve the people to the best of his ability.

Camp Fire "Hi Neighbor Project"

The Burkburnett Camp Fire Girls joined with the Wichita Falls organization Friday evening in the Reception room of the First Methodist Church in their 1945 Birthday project, "Hi Neighbor."

Featured during the evening was the presentation of guests of foreign birth, some in gala costumes of their native land. The girls especially enjoyed Private Chung, who was born in Hawaii and is of Korean descent. He sang the Hawaiian war chant and answered questions asked by the girls.

Camp Fire songs opened and closed the program.

Refreshments were served to 18 Camp Fire Girls from Burkburnett.

A Job Well Done

We have supplied gasoline, fuel oil, lubricants, and hundreds of other petroleum products to our fighting men and our allies throughout the world in quantities beyond comprehension. The Office of War Information estimated recently that it requires 6,480,800 gallons of petroleum products for an initial invasion of 250,000 men in a given area, and 32,424,000 gallons to maintain this force for 30 days. This gives an idea of the tremendous job the American petroleum industry is doing in seeing that our armed forces never lack oil.

How it has supplied our military demands and kept the wheels turning at home, is a story of accomplishment almost without parallel. While meeting the demands of war, the industry is not failing to think in terms of peace, and its obligation to maintain unending reserves for the greatest oil using nation in the world.

We are just discovering, as it were, the vast potentials of our great natural resource, oil, that has transformed our way of living—discoveries brought about by individual initiative and spurred on by free competition.

Inflation Must Be Combated

During the four years 1941 through 1944, consumers have accumulated a record volume of saving 90 billion dollars. Some 45 billion dollars of war bonds have been bought. Another 45 billion dollars has been stored up in bank deposits and in currency. And that 90 billion is superimposed on pre-Pearl Harbor cash assets of 50 billion dollars. In reporting conditions of the present, together with recommendations, the head of the Government "War Mobilization and Reconversion" states: "In part, these holdings will remain a financial nest egg, but in part they represent potential demand for new houses, automobiles, refrigerators, furniture, and other consumer goods—both durable and non-durable. But whether they are used depends on whether there will be jobs". The report adds: "Also, inventories of consumer goods will be low—as after the last war. Wholesalers and retailers alike will try to build up stocks. This could force up prices, for which we must be prepared.

The problem can be solved by holding to a middle course—to stop a runaway market in the prices of goods which may be in high demand as a result of pent-up, unfilled wartime requirements, yet without checking the forces working toward expansion.

The official report adds: "At the same time deflationary forces, as a result of the drop in munitions production, must be combatted."

When Sgt. Walter E. Fletcher of Taylor went overseas, he said goodbye to his wife, Pfc. Della Fletcher of the WAC, in Washington. That was 16 months ago.

Meanwhile, Sergeant Fletcher went through the African, Sicilian, Italian and Northern France campaigns.

A few days back, the sergeant was walking along a Parisian boulevard, taking in the sights of the French capital, when he saw a pretty WAC approaching. "You're right! It was his wife, Private Fletcher.

The sergeant's wife, whose parents live in Granger, Texas, is now aerial photo librarian for the engineer corps in Paris.

Parachutists are often superstitious about their 13th jump. But Corp Burton Meador of Waco passed that hurdle quickly and without injury, when he made the leap—from a third story window in Belgium, and without a chute.

The Texan was on the third floor of a house in a Belgian town when it suddenly caught fire. Gasoline spilled inside made it a veritable inferno. With no other means of exit, the Texan paratrooper dived out a window, landing unhurt in a deep snow drift.

Thousands of Texans and particularly former students of the University of Texas will recall genial, well-liked Jim Lanham, the former university instructor of business administration. And they will be glad to know that he is now on duty with the 10th AAF in Burma, where he has recently been promoted to lieutenant colonel.

Mrs. Lanham received the good news last week at her home in Dallas.

And Texans continue to win decorations for bravery wherever they are fighting:

Sgt. Frank Bordovsky of La-Grange has been awarded the Silver Star for gallantry displayed while fighting in Italy.

Lt. Don Radtke of Elgin now wears an Oak Leaf Cluster on his Air Medal for attacks on German targets.

The bronze medal has been given to Sgt. Raymond Kudelka of Ross, Texas, who was cited for achievement while serving in a medical detachment in Italy.

T-Sgt. Eustaco Cox (and don't let the name fool you) wears the Purple Heart and Oak Leaf Cluster, along with the Silver Star, after being twice wounded in Europe. The Purnela, Texas, boy has fought in Africa, Italy and France with the famed 36th (Texas) division.

Leaders of the United War Chest of Texas will meet soon in Austin, to make plans for the coming year. At the session, officers will be chosen for the vital 1945 program.

Despite good news from the battle fronts, war chest leaders are determined that no American service man will suffer from lack of home-front support as long as he remains in uniform. This means that greater public support than ever will be needed in the 1945 National War Fund campaign, which serves our fighting men, our allies and war refugees through 22 war relief agencies. The drive will not open until fall, but it is well for Texans everywhere to remember that in the meantime all out support is going to our boys overseas.

Closed Fishing Season May Be Abolished

The Burkburnett Star is in receipt of the following statement from State Senator George Mofett, at Austin:

"Texas fishermen ought to be assured of more fun and more fish in the next few months, and they won't have to throw back Black Bass longer than seven inches. For many years there has been either a two or three months' closed season on fishing. Scientific research has brought about the conclusion that the closed season does not necessarily increase the supply of fish, and therefore it has been thought wise to abolish the closed season. The prevailing restrictions as to the use of trotlines, seines or artificial lure have not been changed. The bill abolishing the closed fishing season is now on the Governor's desk, and he has indicated that he will sign it.

"Another bill, of which I happen to be the author, will reach the Governor's desk within a few days. It provides that returning service men and women may have their driver's license extended for one year without charge and further provides that drivers licenses may be issued to persons for limited use in

Ernie Pyle With the Navy: Fame Prevents G.I. Joes' Biographer From Resting

Visits to Old Friends and Places Keep War Correspondent on Go

By Ernie Pyle

Ernie Pyle is with the navy in the Pacific. Pending receipt of his dispatches from that war theater this newspaper is publishing a few articles he wrote before his takeoff from San Francisco, of which the following is one.

SAN FRANCISCO.—Some of you oldtime readers who've hung on faithfully to this column for years, might like to know how some of my personal affairs are getting along, since I've always worn all the family intimacies on my sleeve.

Take "That Girl," whom you used to read so much about before the war, and who, for all those long years of peace-time traveling, rode beside me.

I haven't written much about her in recent years, because I haven't seen much of her. The war has done the same thing to us that it has to millions of others.

She has kept the hearth in Albuquerque—kept it under difficulties. She has been burdened by recurring illnesses, and has had to revolve between home and hospital.

She is back there now, trying to cope with the prospect of another year alone. She is still, by remote control, my guiding star.

She lives only for the day when the war is over and we can have a life together again. And that's what I live for, too, for life to a man isn't much good without "his woman."

My father still limps from his hip fracture of a year ago. And his eyes are very bad now, and he can't see to read. But he gets around all right, and even drives the car to town now and then.

My Dad listens a lot to the radio, and helps with the dishes, and Aunt Mary reads to him at night, and last summer he even helped some with the harvesting when the neighbors were hard up for help.

JESUS TEACHES FORGIVENESS

LESSON TEXT.—Matthew 18:21-35. GOLDEN TEXT.—If ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you.

Forgiveness is the very essence of Christianity. In Christianity only do we find an adequate and proper dealing with sin, leading to forgiveness.

Since God has so willingly and wonderfully provided for our forgiveness, it would seem that we would need no urging to make us forgiving in spirit toward one another.

Yet it is indeed "a melancholy fact that there are few Christian duties so little practiced as that of forgiveness. It is sad to see how much bitterness, unmercifulness, spite, harshness and unkindness there is among men."

I. The Extent of Forgiveness (vv. 21, 22). "How long do I have to stand it?" is the question of the human heart, especially if untouched by the spirit of Christ.

The Jews had an answer. He said three times is enough. Forgive once, yes. Again, yes. But the third time, no. Peter was bigharted enough to more than double that allowance of mercy.

The spirit of Christ swept all of that aside. He said that one should forgive 70 times seven. In other words, Christian forgiveness is to be unending, unlimited, to know no weariness and have no boundaries.

A word of caution is in order at this point. Let no one suppose that our Lord's instruction means that offenses against the law of the land or against the good order of society are to be overlooked and condoned.

It relates rather to the cultivation of a personal spirit of forgiveness, the laying aside of revenge, of malice, of retaliation which do not become the Christian.

II. The Motive of Forgiveness (vv. 23-34). Two motives are given. The first is that since we ourselves are daily and hourly in need of forgiveness at the merciful hand of God, we should in turn be merciful toward those who sin against us.

Compared with our offenses against the law of God, we know that the misdeeds of our neighbors against us are usually mere trifles. Remember what God has done for you, when you are tempted to be hard and ungracious with your brother.

The second motive is the remembrance that a day of judgment is to come. There is always a time of reckoning ahead, even as was the case with these servants. Remember not only what God has done for you and is doing for you, but what you must yet expect Him to do in that day of judgment.

It will make you merciful and gracious in your judgment of others. Forgiveness has a fine quality which commends itself to others. Note the sorrow of the fellow servants (v. 31). There is, then, a social value in true forgiveness.

III. The Importance of Forgiveness (v. 35). A man dealing with his fellow man is apt to think that it is merely a matter between man and man. We are not dealing with a straight line between ourselves and our brother (that was Peter's error), but with a triangle at whose apex is God Himself.

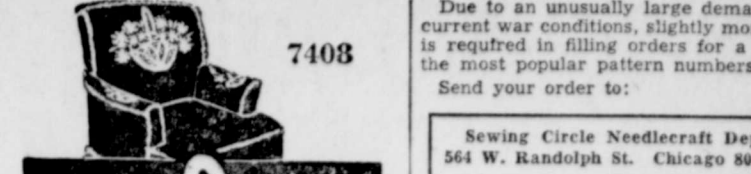

If I expect God to forgive me, I must let my forgiveness flow out to my brother. If I deal with him as though God had nothing to do with the matter, then I must not try to count God's forgiveness into the picture when I stand indebted before Him.

God does not play favorites. He is no respecter of persons. He is as interested in the other man as He is in me. The Christian should have the same spirit.

Here we need a word of explanation. Let no one suppose that our redemption in Christ is contingent upon what we do toward our brethren. "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of your selves: it is the gift of God; not of works, lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2:8, 9).

Nor does the truth of our lesson mean that we are somehow going to bargain with God, trading a bit of our forgiveness toward others for His forgiveness of us. God is not interested in such transactions. But it does mean that if you can not or will not forgive, you may well consider whether you are a Christian at all, for it is Christlike to forgive.

Bowman-Russell Rites Read At Home Of Bride's Parents Wednesday

The home of Dr. and Mrs. I. D. Russell was the scene of a lovely wedding Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The couple united with Miss Rubinell Russell and Bill Bowman BM 2/c.

Rev. P. G. Hightower officiated at the double ring ceremony in front of an embarkment of candelabras, calla lilies, snapdragons, sweetpeas and ferns.

Cpl. and Mrs. Colonel F. Kirby served as attendants.

Mrs. Kirby was dressed in brown and aqua with a lovely daffodil corsage.

The candle lighter was Johnny Gibson, nephew of the bride.

Music for the ceremony was furnished by Mrs. Vernon Duke, pianist, who played several pre-nuptial selections and the traditional wedding march. Mrs. Floyd Cates, soloist, sang "Because."

The bride, given away in marriage by her brother-in-law, was attractive in a dusty rose suit with a white sheer blouse and navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white carnation with ribbon and showers.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Russell home. The bride's table was decorated with snapdragons and sweetpeas.

Mrs. Clyde Gibson, sister of the bride, served the cake and Mrs. Colonel Kirby at the punch bowl.

After cutting the cake, the couple slipped off for a wedding trip at Austin and other points south.

Guests were close friends and relatives.

Missionary Society

Mrs. S. H. Shrum was hostess to the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Central Christian Church Wednesday, February 23rd. The group met at the home of Mrs. Shrum's mother, Mrs. Wallace, on West Main.

Mrs. R. A. Lincoln was in charge of the meeting. Plans were discussed for an apron and rummage sale to be held in the near future.

Members present were Mesdames R. A. Lincoln, Sid Gamblin, Jim Haley, Myers, Wallace, S. H. Shrum, S. A. King, and Miss Lilly Roark, one visitor, Mrs. Lively.

John Wiggins visited Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wiggins last week.

Mrs. Leo Foster Hostess To Unity Garden Club

The Unity Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Leo Foster with Mrs. F. B. Hughes as co-hostess Wednesday, Feb. 22.

For the twelve o'clock luncheon, the home was beautifully decorated with beautifully arranged tables.

Following the luncheon, the program consisted of roll call answered by each member on "Healthful Hints for Flowers."

Then a lively time was spent in an auction sale with Mrs. Hughes acting as auctioneer.

Mrs. C. O. Smith gave a talk on "Pruning."

Officers were elected for the year as follows: Mrs. H. A. Goodwin, president; Mrs. J. M. Hayworth, vice president; Mrs. F. M. McCurtry, secretary; and Mrs. J. C. Hinkle, treasurer.

There were 19 members and two visitors present.

Preaching Services, 8.

Sunday the first Sunday of March—what shall it mean to us and our church? The Lord has been mighty good to us throughout the past two or three winter months. Hardly an ugly Sunday. Then too, He has been with us in spirit. There have been 33 additions during January and February, seven of which were for Baptism. Yet the "hem" of the garment of possibilities have hardly been reached. What part are you playing in reaching the unsaved, unenlisted, and indifferent church members?

The Training Union attendance was a bit off Sunday night. Under the 100 mark by 11, but yet we had good services.

Friday night March 2nd we are to have a Church Family Supper. Each person is urged to bring a covered dish. We'll have a lot of fun, fellowship, and a good time in general.

The Open House for the Young People was a success. Not quite as many as we had anticipated. Yet good attendance.

Each Sunday afternoon, from three to five-thirty we are to have a "come and go" program. During these two and a half hours a program will be carried on. You may come and leave as you desire. All young people of the town from 13 years to 25 years are invited. Let's give our young people something to do that will make better christians of them.

Hear the broadcast Sunday morning by Honorable Walter F. George, United States Senator from Georgia, at 7:30 over KPRC-WFAA and others.

Welcome to all our services every Sunday.—Pastor.

Mrs. A. H. Bazell Hostess To WSCS

Mrs. A. H. Bazell was hostess to circle No. 1 of the Woman's Society of Christian Service Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Caffee, circle leader, presided during the business session.

Mrs. Bazell gave the devotional "Behold, I Stand at the Door and Knock."

A very interesting program was presented by Mrs. Pilkenton, study leader.

During the social hour, delicious refreshments were served to Mesdames Paul Browning, R. A. Brickson, J. H. Rigby, B. H. Alexander, F. L. Pilkenton, J. L. Caffee, Blake Browning, P. G. Hightower, W. S. Duvall, and Mrs. A. H. Bazell.

WAC Needs Medical Technicians

The Texas State Department of Health has been asked to assist in recruiting WAC Medical Technicians. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, believes that this offers a splendid opportunity to learn and be of real service to men recovering from battle wounds and illness in government general hospitals.

The first and most important qualifications for hospital service is the earnest desire to render service to the sick and wounded soldiers in our Army hospitals. The applicant must be between the ages of 20 and 50 years. She must be a citizen of the United States. And she may be single or married, but she must have no dependent children under 14 years of age. She must pass a physical examination before enlistment. The minimum educational requirement for enlistment is the completion of 2 years of high school or equivalent, such as business, vocational, or trade schools. She need not have previous medical experience; the Army will train her.

General hospitals located in Texas are Harmon, Longview, Ashburn, McKinney, McCloskey, Temple; Brooke, San Antonio; Williams Beaumont, El Paso. Women enlisted under this program will be assigned, after completion of training to the hospital selected at the time of enlistment.

It is expected that at least 17 platoons of 15 each will be recruited in Texas. Applications can be secured at any county seat post office.

At least 85 per cent of the women recruited under this program will be trained and used as technicians. A small number may be used in clerical and administrative capacities. Women will, therefore, be recruited for duty with WAC General Hospital Company.

P.-T. A. News

Although the weather was disagreeable, there were about fifty fathers and mothers who braved it to come out for an enjoyable evening at the regular meeting of the P.-T. A. Friday night, Feb. 16th.

There was a very short business session, during which the fathers and mothers were counted. Fathers counted "two" since this was Dads night. Mrs. Evans' first grade had the largest number present and was awarded the prize of $1.00.

Mrs. Bill Bean and Mrs. D. D. Vaughn had charge of the entertainment for the evening which was "progressive 42". After seven games were played, the scores were counted and prizes awarded to Mrs. Jess Hagerman and Mr. Jack Duke for having high scores, and Mrs. C. D. Henderson and Mr. I. C. Evans received low score prizes.

Refreshments of pie and coffee were served to the adults present and cookies and punch were served to the children.

The next P.-T. A. meeting will be March 20th at 3:45 p. m. The subject for the afternoon is "Home-Index of the Nation." Let's all try to be present.

the probability of obtaining a better stand, especially if conditions are unfavorable for quick germination; and reducing damage from seedling diseases, such as damping off, sore shin and anthracnose. It also reduces damage from angular leaf spots and bacterial boll rot. Another advantage is increased seedling vigor, enabling plants to make more vigorous and healthy growth during the first few weeks. This makes possible earlier cultivation to control grass and weeds.

Do you know when to pick your sweet corn at its sweetest and juiciest? When your snap beans are snappiest? Your Swiss chard leaves most tender and the stems at their crispest? Every vegetable in the Victory Garden has best stages for eating, before and after which their goodness is considerably less than one hundred per cent.

Snap beans should be picked before the seeds inside the pods have formed. If some of them get past that stage before you can use them, let the beans grow to full size and use them as green shells. Peas should be picked when the pods are plump and bright green. When pea pods are somewhat wrinkled and show streaks of white, the peas are too old for enjoyable eating.

Cut the outer leaves of Swiss chard when they are no more than ten or twelve inches long. Let the inner ones continue to grow, always cutting before they are grown to full size.

Be sure to cut sprouting broccoli while the buds are green and tightly closed. When they open and begin to show a hint of yellow, they have lost their fresh new goodness. Cauliflower, cousin to sprouting broccoli, should have heads that are firm and creamy white. Spongy looking heads are past their prime.

Too young sweet corn has neither flavor nor substance; too old, it is mealy and usually tough. It's exactly right when ears are well filled and kernels spurt milky juice at the prick of a thumb nail.

Cut kohlrabi bulbs when between one and three inches in diameter. Larger than that they are likely to be tough as shoe leather. Turnips are best at medium size, rutabagas when fully grown under cool moist conditions.

Let parsnips and salsify or vegetable oyster stay in the ground until late fall. Then the roots should be fully developed. Some of them can be dug for winter use, but plan to leave at least part of the crop in the ground over winter. Dig them in early spring for flavor unsurpassed.

Burkburnett History

...regrets to announce that Edw. Owens, ...corresponding for ...more than twenty ...the Big Rabbit Creek ...suffered very dam- ...painful injuries to his ...late last Wednesday afternoon while enroute from Lawton, Okla., to Walters on the Lawton-Waurika bus. Ed was riding crowded in the rear seat. The bus stopped at Geronimo to let out a passenger. When the man left the seat Ed was attempting to move over into a more comfortable position. He caught hold of the door, and it was while he was in that position that the door slammed, mashing the two middle fingers on his right hand. He continued the trip to Walters, where he received medical attention. The fingers were badly lacerated, but good medical attention may save them.

Mrs. J. N. Hicks spent last weekend with relatives in Wichita Falls.

John P. Marrs, candidate for County Judge, was in Burkburnett this week attending the district meeting of the Knights of Pythias lodge Monday evening.

J. D. (Dad) Strange moved this week to Durant, Okla., where he will be with relatives in that city for a while.

Burkburnett has been given a 15 per cent good fire record by the state fire insurance commission, it was revealed in a telegram from Austin received Tuesday afternoon by Fire Chief J. J. Blackstone. Burkburnett has had a 15 per cent credit for the past three years which is the maximum credit allowed by the commission for good fire record and ranks among the first cities of the state for small fire losses during the last three years.

Treated Cottonseed Gives Better Results

Treating cottonseed chemically before planting the 1945 crop is good insurance for increased yields and income for growers and greater production of cotton and cottonseed products needed in the war, says E. A. Miller, agronomist, Extension Service, A. & M. College, in a statement released by the War Cotton Production Committee of Texas.

Miller said Texas Agricultural Experiment Station tests show cotton yields were increased by seed treatment by averages ranging from 4 per cent at the Lubbock Station up to an average of 25 per cent at College Station. Increases varied from year to year, depending on soil conditions.

In recent tests at the Temple Station several chemicals gave good results, Miller said. Increased yields as high as 204 pounds of seed cotton per acre were obtained with an expense of only about 10 cents per acre for the chemical.

Advantages of treating planting seed listed by Miller include:

Red Cross Hospital Workers

More than 1,600 Red Cross hospital workers overseas help the wounded in all their personal problems. They provide recreation for them, communicate with their families, distribute comfort articles and, in general, help in every way possible.

He comes to speak for G. I. JOE

Welcome your RED CROSS Volunteer Solicitor

OPEN your heart to him, when he comes. He speaks for wounded men lying in hospitals; for American boys stagnating in prison camps; for lonely men who have not seen home in years.

Through him, you'll hear the thanksgiving of these men in whom the bright flame of reason, faith, and hope might have died... if your Red Cross had not been beside them.

So you'll give more this year... you'll know the need is greater than ever.

And you'll greet with a smile the faithful neighbor who comes to your door! For this volunteer not only comes to speak for "The Boys," He comes to save you time and footsteps. He's saving you a trip to the Red Cross headquarters to make your contribution for your boy.

Boys In Service....

Truman Garland RDM 3-c writes his wife from the Pacific that he is alright. Truman has been overseas since the first of the year but can't write much about where he is or what he is doing.

Mrs. Arlis D. Key received word several weeks ago, that her husband, Pfc. Arlis D. Key who has been in Belgium for several months, is now in the hospital in England and getting along pretty good. Pfc. Key has been in the service for 14 months and has been serving overseas since October, 1944.

Pvt. Lloyd M. Hitt, tractor operator of Burkburnett is a member of the 19th Combat Engineer Regiment, Mediterranean Theatre veterans now maintaining roads, bridges and trails for the Fifth Army in rugged mountain terrain before the Po Valley in Italy.

The 19th has maintained or re-built more than 4,000 miles of road and built or repaired more than 200 bridges in the Italian campaign and has served in combat for more than 550 days, including action at Kasserine Pass, Tunisia, and Sassinio, Italy.

The engineers took up defensive positions against a possible Japanese invasion of California early in the war when a Japanese submarine shelled Santa Barbara.

While serving in support of a Ranger battalion in the Tunisian campaign, the 19th Engineers removed more than 15,000 mines from a single minefield at Eened.

Typical of thousands of Air Forces ground personnel who hold vital, although unglamorous jobs is Sgt. Stanley Gum of Burkburnett, Texas.

A supply NCO in tech supply, Sgt. Gum has been overseas almost a year. He entered the service in 1941 and for a time was stationed at Amarillo.

His wife, Mrs. Mona Gum, lives with their two-year old son James and an eight-months old daughter, Judith, at Rt. 1, Burkburnett.

He was graduated from Hindman High School with the class of 1937. He was a member of the school's basketball team.

Sgt. Gum's squadron is part of Service Wing, under command of Col. Franklin S. Henley. The service wing men are responsible for keeping the Troop Carrier planes and gliders in operation.

Mental hygiene problems affecting nursing, the home, the school child, and the military personnel will be discussed when the Texas Society for Mental Hygiene meets in Austin March 8-9. A series of meetings will be held in eBaumont, Denton, Dallas, Galveston, Houston, San Marcos and San Antonio.

Jessie Lee and Estella Uselton returned Friday after a visit with relatives in Littlefield.

Raise Some Vegetables You Can't Buy

The only way you can be sure of having certain delicious vegetables for your table is to raise them in your own garden.

Take Swiss chard, for example. Those appetizing greens have been widely grown in Victory Gardens these war years. The reason you don't see them in the markets is because the delicate foliage withers quickly after picking. To enjoy Swiss chard at its best, you should use it shortly after cutting. The same planting will furnish many a "mess o' greens" over a long period if only the outside stalks are cut each time, allowing the center leaves to go on growing. (See illustration).

Savoy is a type of cabbage not at all improved by being hauled from place to place... the crinkly brittle leaves bruise so easily. By growing a few heads in the garden, you can have this tender, delicately flavored, nearly odorless variety at its finest. It takes no more exertion and care than raising plain cabbage. Chieftain is the variety which has become a universal favorite.

Friends who come to dinner will exclaim over edible pod peas from your garden vines. This is a type of pea which is cooked and eaten like snap beans, pod and all, when the young peas have barely begun to form. The liking for this mouth-watering dish may have originated in France or Holland. Folks of Dutch ancestry are the ones most familiar with edible pod peas in our own land. Once grown in anyone's garden, they are likely to be on the repeater list year after year.

Do you know that odd shaped vegetable, kohlrabi? Plant a row of it and give the family something out of the ordinary. Although related to cabbage, it is milder and more delicate in flavor. It looks like a turnip growing above ground. Kohlrabi matures quite rapidly and should be eaten when about two inches in diameter.

Anybody can have common cucumber pickles. You can add that extra touch to your list of appetizers by raising West India gherkins. The prickly little oval fruits, picked when fairly small, make unusually good sweet pickles... nearly impossible to get these days for love or money.

Timber Mapping Project Started

Lacking definite information on Texas timber regions, the Texas Forest Service, A. & M. College, has launched a broad-scale mapping project to determine the exact locations and boundaries of all major forest regions of the state.

Director W. E. White of the forest service said today the project would take a year to complete and would cover more than 60 million acres.

Most of the work will be done by airplanes in cooperation with the Civil Air Patrol Texas Forest Patrol. Existing aerial photographs and maps obtained from the army are being used to line out flight missions for the planes and for checking purposes.

When completed the timber maps will serve as the basis for planning forest fire protection activities, White revealed. They also will be used for economic surveys of the various forest resources of the state and for general forestry conservation and administrative work.

Plane crews have completed the initial survey of the East Texas pine and hardwood commercial timber region. Preliminary reports on the "lost pines" in Bastrop and Fayette counties already indicate those pines may not be lost after all. White said his aerial crews found spots of pine between this area and the East Texas belt, which might mean that once there was a narrow belt of pine joining the areas. The mapping work will be started next in the post oak belt and will then cover the cedar brakes, cross timbers, mesquite and live oak regions and finally the West Texas mountain tree area.
