Barney Landers, who was in charge of the program, presented Ralph DeShong, the well-known magician from Wichita Falls. For thirty minutes, Mr. DeShong entertained the club with a score of his magic tricks which were too fast for the human eye to follow. In fact they were too fast for any of the Rotarians to figure out, but the Rotary Anns seemed to understand just how he did them. The program next Tuesday will be in charge of Carl Morrison. Boy Scout Court of Honor Thursday night, October 25th, at Town Hall, 8 p. m.

By exceptional courage and leadership, American Merchant Marine Captain Jonathan M. Wainwright, son of Lt. General Jonathan M. "Guest Wife" At Palace Theatre Sunday-Monday

COLBERT AND AMECHE STARRING IN GAY COMEDY

"Guest Wife" will show at the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday, October 21-22. This romantic comedy is a fast moving tale of American life which is laid in the post-war era. The film tells the story of a middle-western bank executive who loans his wife to an old college chum to impress the latter's boss, a sensational newspaper publisher. By using permanent studio equipment together with giant photo backgrounds, it was possible to photograph the picture under one roof. Action starts off in a small Ohio town. There is a railway station and the arrival and departure of a Pullman train. A section of Penn Station in New York, streets, night club and hotel interiors and exteriors are all faithfully duplicated inside the studio. Ingenious use of prismic glass panels creates a new and interesting effect in one of the key sets of the picture. Double talk, source of many amusing situations in comedies, is increased to triple talk in "Guest Wife."

Mrs. Mary Belle Terry has joined the United Gas Corp. organization and is now in the local office, succeeding Mrs. Marion Ragsdale, who has accepted a position with another firm in Wichita Falls. This unit was assigned the job of clearing the way for infantry from Parang to Cotabato before the Japs gave up. These engineers worked day and night, often under enemy fire, in order to open a supply route for trucks. A 110 Bailey bridge was stretched across the Mulita River under constant harassment of the enemy, a feat which had previously been declared impossible. Mrs. C. O. Walling left Saturday morning for Big Spring, Texas, for a few days visit with friends and relatives. Pfc. Rudolph Burleson is now stationed in Japan with the 102 Engineers. He has been overseas 5 months.

ABOUT TIME

Maybe they are trying to entice men to enlist in the Navy, we don't know, but we are glad to learn the Navy is going to redesign the enlisted men's uniform. We have expressed ourselves previously in regard to the floppy, girlish tie and the tight-fitting middie and bell-bottomed trousers plus the middie collar that totals what the boys call the "monkey-suit." Since the first World War the Army and Marine enlisted uniform was changed, considering comfort and use. The uniforms of Navy officers have been changed and even the color. So should they have seen to the comfort of the Navy enlisted man. He probably didn't like to be so straight-laced and kiddish looking either. Hurray for the change, and it's about time.

DDT

They talked about how they were going to buy some as soon as it was on the market, and here it is, that chemical known as DDT. According to a Burkburnett reader it's power is greatly over-rated, but this often happens when you are expecting miracles. Anyhow, in using it, precaution must be taken to safeguard others from its killing effect. Dogs, cattle, birds have been killed by it, when used improperly. DDT comes in four forms and its application in each should be studied by Burkburnett farmers and homemakers. The fact that it destroys necessary insects may make DDT unpopular, but when it comes to killing flies and mosquitoes, the purpose for which most of us here buy it, then we are grateful for its power. But follow the directions in every instance.

DEEP FREEZE

No matter how isolated one hears deep freeze discussed. Growing in popularity frozen foods are here to stay. Nature provided us with the original plan of freezing to preserve and men in science have made it a real industry. There are many districts where it is possible to rent frozen food lockers. There are deep freeze units for homes, stores maintain their own and sell food frozen from them. Possibilities for the future are enormous. In the far north where freezing comes early and stays late, baking bread, pies, doughnuts, cakes in quantities and freezing them through the winter, to thaw and reheat later has been done for a long time. This process does not impair the taste. We like frozen foods and to sit down in Burkburnett on a cold December Sunday to a dessert of strawberry shortcake or berries we picked and wrapped and put to freeze, is something to mull over.

Burkburnett History

As revealed by the files of the Star 10 years ago.

Eddie Young, star of last year's Bulldog football team has entered business in Burkburnett at the Marthon Filling Station on Main St. and Avenue B. The station was formerly owned by John Musick. Young has been a resident of Burkburnett for several years, and was nominated as the best blocker on the team for last year's excellent Bulldog squad. He is assisted by Lewis Walling and Pete South. The crew of workers promise efficient and complete service of cars of the area.

R. C. Gilbow has secured the agency for the Pontiac automobile in the Burkburnett territory and will have a new 1936 Pontiac on display Saturday, October 19, at the Gilbow Motor Company located on Main St. The salesman for this new firm will be B. O. Willis and G. A. Henderson.

B. F. Sanders, Buster Morgan and George Counter of Burkburnett bagged an unusual catch last Saturday night when they cornered a black coyote in an interesting chase near Electra. The coyote is not a rare animal in this section, but very few people have seen one of the rare black colored species. The fur is beautiful and will be highly treasured by the hunters.

What makes a Texan tick, anyhow?

To understand Texas, and therefore Texans, it must be borne in mind, first of all, that Texas is big. Senator Ben (Pitchfork) Tillman of South Carolina is credited with having said (and Texans gustily repeat it) that Texas has more trees and less timber, more rivers and less water, more cows and less milk, and you can see further and see less than any durned country in the world.

From north to south, the state is about 900 miles and it is nearly as huge from east to west. The Gulf Coast Line is 370 miles long and for nearly a thousand miles the Rio Grande separates Texas and Mexico. Amarillo is closer to the capitals of five other States than it is to the capitol of Texas. It is often said that the people in El Paso call the citizens of Tevarkana efete Easterners and that the inhabitants of Brownsville call those of Dallas durnyankees.

Not only is Texas big, but the State has a wide range of soil, of rainfall, of terrain and of climate and so it is a land of contrasts.

Improved Uniform International SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD D. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 21

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission.

MAKING THE HOME CHRISTIAN

LESSON TEXT—Luke 10:38-42; I Corinthians 13:4-13.
GOLDEN TEXT—Love suffereth long, and is kind.—I Corinthians 13:4.

Things do not just happen. It takes praying and planning and real effort to accomplish a worthwhile purpose. We are thinking these weeks of the home as a Christian center of influence. We trust that many are asking in their hearts, "What can I do to make my home really Christian?"

The answer is clear. A home will be Christian when those in it are Christian and put their Christianity into daily practice. First, you must be sure of your own salvation and that of the members of your household. Then you can proceed to put the principles of godliness to work. Our lesson presents the believing home as one that is well-balanced. There is both:

I. Work and Worship (Luke 10:38-42).

No home can be a place of comfort and pleasant fellowship without much work. A disorderly, dirty or run-down house is a disgrace and a discouragement to all that is finest in the relations of those who live in it.

Home need not be a mansion. It does not have to be richly furnished, but it does need to be clean and orderly. Meals must be made. Cleaning must be done. So far Martha was right, but she went too far. She let the labor of the household hinder her from what she so deeply needed—fellowship, not only with her family but with the Lord.

Now, notice that Mary had not shirked her duty to share the work. Observe the word "also" in verse 39. She had worked, but she also sat at Jesus' feet. She knew when it was time to call a halt to labor and make the most of good comradeship. Blessed wisdom! Would that many burdened housewives would learn of Mary!

Jesus made it clear that life in the home is to strike a proper balance between work and worship. If you do not know where to make the division in your home, err on the side of worship. Give that more time than it should have rather than less.

Alas, it is not true that in most homes, even in Christian homes, worship is almost, if not entirely, forgotten! Something should be done about that. Will you do it in your home?

II. Love and Longsuffering (I Cor. 13:4-7).

We are apt to think of love as the warm feeling of interest and emotion which suffuses one's nature in moments of special pleasantness or of intimate fellowship. But life is not made up of a succession of pleasant incidents, of sunny afternoons and moonlit evenings.

Life is real; it is earnest, and often it is drab and irritating. What about such times? Can love meet them? Yes, for love knows how to be longsuffering.

But someone may ask, Does love really work, or is this just a fine-sounding but obsolete theory? It works!

Think of the things in life which irritate and depress us. Then put opposite them the qualities of Christian love as given in verses 4 to 7, and you will agree that what this world needs most of all is love.

Remember that talking about love, or reading about it, or studying it in the Sunday school will not make it effective. We must put it into practice. Why not start now? You will be surprised at the results.

III. Promise and Perfection (vv. 8-13).

Christianity has a hope, and that is not just a vague wishing that something might come to pass; it is a sure hope. In Christ all the rich promise of prophecy, of faith, of hope will come to pass.

The Christian home is the place to teach boys and girls to believe with assurance that He who has begun a good work in us "will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6).

We who see only dimly shall one day see our Lord face to face, and love shall abide through all eternity.

Many gifts are only temporary in their usefulness; in fact, almost everything that man makes or does (apart from his service for God) is transient.

As vital a matter as prophecy shall one day find its end in fulfillment. Hope shall eventually find its longing expectation satisfied. Faith will be justified in seeing what it has believed. Childish things will be put away by the full-grown man; knowledge will increase and darkness disappear.

But love—love is eternal. It never fails, and will never fail. God is love, and God is eternal. From all eternity and unto all eternity love continues. Therefore, we agree with Paul who, in the verse preceding this chapter (I Cor. 12:31) says that while you may covet the best gift, here is the more excellent way

TOO much has already been written about the "T." And yet it is surprising the number of sideliners who keep writing in to ask just what the "T" is and how it works. We'll try, with no promise of success, to make it simple—for the last time.

- 1. The "T" doesn't demand old-fashioned blocking or hard body pressure. It depends more on speed and deception.
2. It needs a hard-hitting fullback who can split an opened line.
3. It needs a fast-moving back who can circle a massed or tightened line.
4. It demands a good passer who can work with deception and smooth ball-handling.

These latter three qualities put heavy pressure on any defense. The greatest pro "T" I ever saw operate was the old Bear brigade with Luckman, Standlee, Gallernau and McAfee, if my memory isn't too fuzzy. They hit you every known way.

The greatest college "T" I ever saw at work was Notre Dame's 1943 outfit with Bertelli, Creighton Miller, Kelly and two or three good fullbacks. They fell far away when Bertelli left, who was not only a great passer but the smoothest and trickiest ball-handler I've seen around. Ask Rip Miller, Captain Johnny Wheel of Navy or Bill Alexander of Georgia Tech.

It's true that the old Bears and Notre Dame's 1943 squad would have been hard to handle under any system. Material makes the system more than any system ever made material. And material has made more coaches than any coaches ever made material.

The main answer to football success is your playing strength—the forward wall and the backfield—your man power. And don't ever let anyone tell you a different story. Football coaches have done great jobs. Their general average is the highest in sport. But the best still need good football players to have winning teams.

After all, they can't rush out on the field and do their own passing, running, blocking and tackling.

Sports Fans' Squawks

Sports fans who move up into the 50 or 60-million class, ranging from ages between 10 and 80 years, are certainly entitled to their beliefs, their squawks, their praise and their blame.

For, after all, they are the big part of sport, the major part by at least 90 per cent. They pay all the expenses, all the salaries. They make both amateur and pro sports possible. And in too many cases they only get shoddy treatment and take the big show around by both amateur and professional promoters.

They are taken for granted. They are rarely given any consideration from baseball, football, racing, boxing, golf or other sporting directors.

They are usually the goats, who have grown accustomed to taking the worst of it. Their hardihood and their capacity for punishment is the most amazing feature of sport.

They are too often packed in after the manner of human sardines at race tracks and other sporting centers. They are too often overcharged.

It has been said there is no law that forces them to take this beating. This is true. But they happen to love their games, whether it is boxing, baseball, football, racing, golf or something else.

They are astonished at little courtesies they are so seldom shown anywhere or any time by the hired people who live off their main outlet for recreation and entertainment.

They are really an amazing breed. They take it on the chin and on the shin, back of each ear, in the stomach and also in the pocketbook.

Courses Too Tough

Take golf, for example. It has always been my belief that any golf course should be tepped only for the star player. Put all trouble out beyond the 200 yard mark which the average player can't reach.

The duffer or average player has enough trouble trying to hit the ball or get his bogeys. Why should he pay uncounted millions to make his golfing life more miserable?

We have built too many golf courses against the skill of the pros and the crack amateurs who, after all, give most of their life to golf—and who pay nothing in return.

Who cares whether a pro shoots a 63 or a 58? Why build courses to keep him from breaking par on courses which the average golfer can't handle in a 95?

The Nelsons and the other par-breaking stars are a breed apart. Let them go around in even 3's. Who cares? But why keep punishing the 98 per cent who pay all the freight?

Golf is our greatest playing game for everyone. It is a friendly and a companionable game, demanding its share of psychology, philosophy, sportsmanship and nerve control—as well as physical skill.

HOUSE SWEATING RUNS INTO MONEY

While sitting in your home on a winter day, did you ever see droplets of water running down your window pane? This "sweating" is a form of condensation caused by warm, moist air striking a cold surface, and this same action is taking place on your walls, floors, furniture, and draperies. This is called "house sweating" ... and "HOUSE SWEATING" RUNS INTO MONEY!

ADEQUATE, VENTED, AUTOMATIC GAS HEATING PREVENTS "HOUSE SWEATING"

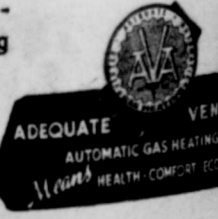

The major cause of house sweating is the excessive moisture in the house produced by combustion. By using VENTED heating equipment, this moisture is delivered directly to the outdoors through the vent.

However, because of extreme humidity, venting alone cannot eliminate condensation. As long as cold areas remain in the house, some sweating will occur. ADEQUATE heating, used in conjunction with VENTED heating, evenly warms the entire area to be served ... leaving the warm air no opportunity to condense.

AUTOMATIC heating, with its simple and inexpensive thermostat control, completes the picture of comfortable, convenient and healthful heating by maintaining exactly the right temperature 24 hours a day without any attention whatsoever. Your home is deserving of the benefits of this wonderful device.

IMPORTANT

ADEQUATE, VENTED, AUTOMATIC GAS HEATING is limited to any particular brand. Buy your equipment from a dealer. Install it in the most desirable place in your home. It is best suited. This equipment is within the reach of the homeowner. You're sure to be satisfied if you insist on ADEQUATE - VENTED - AUTOMATIC GAS HEATING, thus taking full advantage of natural gas, the world's finest fuel, for greater comfort and health protection in your home.

Now... TELEPHONE EQUIPMENT for Peace!

Telephone factories are getting into the swing of peacetime production.

Thousands of men and women in these factories have turned from making radar and gun directors to the complex job of making telephone equipment once again.

It's a change that pleases everyone. As more and more telephone equipment comes from the factories, it means that telephone people here can make faster and faster progress in caring for the 246,000 waiting for telephone service.

Such a big job takes time. Equipment is complicated. Making switchboards and dial equipment requires thousands of precision parts, thousands of intricate connections. And thousands more are needed to connect them as working parts of the telephone system.

But the good news is that we're on our way. We are working as hard as we can toward the day when anyone who wants a telephone can get it when he wants it.

The six weeks' tests are over and everyone is relieved. We have our fingers crossed, hoping we passed with flying colors.

If we did stay home last week studying, it's more than I can say for this week. The fair is coming! We'll eat, ride, and be merry 'cause tomorrow we may be sick.

We entertained the Juniors, Friday night, with a hayride and weiner roast. Everyone seemed to have a good time. All the sponsors and practically all the pupils were there.

We're all waiting patiently for our pictures to come in. As much as we dread seeing them, we can't wait till they get here.

Civics News

The first period Civics class organized a Congress and passed four bills, this week. The bills were:

- (1) Compulsory Military Training.

Calvary Baptist Church

(Fundamentalist)
(by RAY C. MORROW)

Well, folks, I am not the pastor of Calvary Baptist Church anymore, but I am writing this last announcement before I leave concerning the services there next Sunday.

First, let me say this: I am leaving the Church in the best of fellowship. Anyone who was in the morning or night service last Sunday could vouch for that statement. What a great day of mountain-top blessings, as the Church expressed itself in love toward the departing pastor. The house was pretty well filled for both services, and a splendid love offering was given me. There is no greater people than those of Calvary Baptist, and the Church is a going Church for a coming Lord in spite of what critics might say or do. Those who have fought against it have fought to their own destruction, and the same will be true in the future.

Each Sunday there will be a visiting preacher filling the pulpit, until a pastor is called. You have a cordial invitation to come and hear these men. Soon a hard working, Bible preacher pastor will be called, and then watch the church move onward. Don't fool yourself into thinking the Church is defeated, or you'll be surprised. The Sunday school lesson for next Sunday will be Leviticus 17 through 20.

You always have a warm-hearted welcome at Calvary Baptist Church—the Church with the open Bible.

CHICK CHATS

FOWL POX AMONG LAYERS

Fowl pox is much more common than most poultrymen realize and a lot of it goes unrecognized until the outbreak has spread throughout the flock. Vaccination to prevent fowl pox should be done during the early summer, but oftentimes this is neglected and fowl pox breaks out among the laying birds in fall or winter, causing loss in egg production and sometimes high mortality. This is often very costly but a temporary solution is found in vaccinating with pigeon pox vaccine which supplies an immunity for several weeks and will not cause great loss in egg production.

What to do for Fall Outbreaks
If an outbreak of fowl pox appears in your laying flock, vaccinate at once with Pigeon Pox Vaccine which supplies an immunity of short duration. If permanent immunity is desired, re-vaccinate in 30 days with regular Fowl Pox Vaccine which will establish immunity without a serious reaction and without unduly affecting egg production. Plan to vaccinate for fowl pox next year, before birds reach a mature laying stage.

Convenient? There's nothing easier than mixing Dr. Salsbury's AVI-TAB in wet or dry mash to give those unthrifty birds in your flock a tonic appetizer. Just try a ten-day treatment and see how heartily they respond. Stop for AVI-TAB the very next time you're in town.

He's the Sole Owner of the Business Now

Mr. Johnson is the sole owner of the business now. But wouldn't it be, if he hadn't insured in Southwestern Life Insurance. His business, you see, began as a partnership; a business that started from scratch, and blossomed into a thriving enterprise. And just at the peak, Mr. Johnson's partner died, leaving his life in an accident.

Death terminates a partnership business—and unless proper arrangements have been made to continue it in some other form, the business must liquidate. The firm name, property, trade, good will—every asset passes away with a partner's death, unless the partners have taken sound steps to perpetuate that business.

Fortunate for Mr. Johnson, he and his partner had wisely arranged through Southwestern Life Insurance that either survivor should have the right to purchase the deceased's interest—and, equally as important, the money to do it with. That's how Mr. Johnson became sole owner of the business, and how he has arranged for his heirs to carry on when he gets ready to quit.

most effective method of offsetting the losses, ironing out complications and solving the problems of readjustment that death causes. Through Southwestern Life Insurance, you can do for your business just what Mr. Johnson did. You can have the ready cash, when you need it, to replace a key man, buy out your partner's widow, strengthen the financial structure of your business. Assure the future of that business today with Southwestern Life Insurance.

Why Buy Bonds In the Victory Loan Drive?

Why should I buy Bonds now that the War is over? A good question with many answers. Buy them for the sake of our boys . . . the millions still in uniform . . . the hundreds of thousands on the way home. To help bind the wounds of the suffering. To help them start life anew.

The shooting has stopped, but it's not all over yet . . . not 'till the last man is back can we on the home front consider our obligations met. Obligations we owe to every man who served in the cause of Liberty. It's a costly undertaking, a responsibility we must not neglect. That's why our Government needs Eleven Billion Dollars invested in Victory Bonds. Could there be a better reason?

Why America Is Asked For 11 Billion

- To help bring our men home again
- To care for the wounded and battle weary
- To administer the G. I. Bill of Rights
- To clear the dacks for quick reconversion

Friday Night, October 19th is designated in the revival as "Sunday School Night", with every teacher sitting with his class.

Last Sunday we fell short of only 8 in reaching our 450. This Sunday we should reach the 450 Goal. Will you be one of the Four Hundred-fifty?

The revival is making progress. The spirit of God is working in the hearts of many of His people. However, not too many of the lost people are coming. There are many unsaved and many unenlisted that should be reached during this meeting.

Sunday night, October 14th, we had 134 in the Training Union. Next Sunday night the goal has been set at 175. It has been designated as Friendship Night, each member is urged to bring a friend with him to the Training Union!

Sunday we will have our regular services. Each teacher will have the regular time for teaching the lesson. Each teacher is urged to stress in the class, the importance of surrendering to Christ and taking a place in the church and living for the Lord. Let's make Sunday, October 12 the greatest day we have ever had.

First Methodist Church

Next Sunday is the last Sunday of this Conference Year of the Methodist Church. The next week we go to Conference, and someone has said that you can never tell what the weather and a Methodist conference will do. So far, we have nothing on the conference work, and of course we do not know what the future holds in store for us, still on the other hand, we are anxious that Sunday be a good day in our church.

At the beginning of our work here, the world was locked in the most destructive war that we have known in our history. Each day we knew that news might come which would break our hearts, and to some it did come. During this year this terrible war has come to a close, which makes it, even though we could record no other progress, a great year. Many of us have gone about our work with great burdens upon our hearts. We could not be ourselves, but now the world is again at peace, some of the burdens are gone, and we hope to move forward in a more wonderful way.

During this unusual year, our church has made progress. We show a better attendance in the church school than the year before. We have raised more money for the Orphans Home than any year in the churches history, and the best year in general finances in a number of years. This record is due to the fine spirit of our people.

Now, help us make next Sunday, the last Sunday of this conference year, the best we have had. The pastor will bring the message at both hours. You are invited to worship with us.

United Gas Co. Wants War Vets For Old Jobs

The United Gas companies have jobs for all their employes in the armed services whenever they come back. This was the substance of a letter sent recently to all employes of the United Gas companies, serving in the armed forces, it was announced today.

With the letter went a questionnaire, asking the employe if he wished to return, whether he wanted his old job back, and whether he felt that he had developed through military training to a point where he could handle other lines of work.

"With but few exceptions practically all of the hundreds who have returned answers to the questionnaire said they wanted to come back," the company statement said. "A large number of employes want their old jobs back. Many others said their experience had broadened them so that they felt competent for larger responsibilities."

Jonita Majors spent the weekend here visiting home folks. She is a student of Texas University at Austin, Texas.
