L 5-1 In Technicolor Smokey,' Filmed Palace Theatre

Filmed in thrilling Technicolor and starring Fred McMurray with Anne Baxter and Burl Ives, "Smoky," the 20th Century Fox film version of Will James' beloved classic opens Sunday at the Palace Theatre.

James, who was a cowhand himself, wrote the thrilling tale from out of the rough and tumble West of cattle stampedes and gun-toting buckaroos he had known all his life. First printed in 1926, the book that tells a story of the West of today in the spirit of the West of old has been published in 32 separate edi-

In the film, McMurray is seen as Clint Barkley, the hard-hitting, danger-loving cowpuncher. Anne Baxter appears as the trim romantic minded ranch boss, while Burl Ives, the famous American ballad singer, plays the puncher who weaves his spell about desert compfires.

Others in the outstanding cast of more than 100 players include Bruce Cabot, Esther Dale, Roy Roberts and J. Ferrell MacDon-

To insure complete authenticity in filming the setting of the thrilling story, Director Louis King and Producer Robert Bassler, the same team that brought the memorable Flicka stories to the screen, took their company of players, photographers and technicians with them and explored the mountain regions around Kanab, Utah, and many other spots famous for their spectacular scenic beauty.

THE ARMY HAS A GOOD JOB FOR YOU!

NON-COMMISSIONED GRADES NOW OFFERED TO FORMER ARMY OCCUPATIONAL SPECIALISTS

Good jobs in non-commissioned grades are being offered now by the Regular Army to qualified former servicemen! Veterans discharged on or after May 12, 1945, who enlist or reenlist for 3 years may be enlisted in the non-commissioned grade for which qualified, provided this grade is not higher than that held at time of discharge, and provided that at least 6 months of former service was in one of 400 designated military occupational specialties in which enlistment is now desired. Important, interesting jobs are open in hundreds of skills and trades in the Army, with splendid training and educational advantages! These are in addition to free food, housing, clothing, medical and dental care, low-cost insurance. There's adventure, travel, education, a secure and profitable future in this vital, realistic profession. Get full details at your nearest Army Recruiting Station.

Highlights of Regular Army Enlistments

1. Enlistments for 11/2, 2 or 3 for men now in the Army with 6 or more months of service.)

2. Enlistment age from 18 to 34 years inclusive (17 with parents' consent) except for men now in the Army, who may reenlist at any age, and former service men depending on length of service.

3. A reenlistment bonus of $50 for each year of active service since stich bonus was lest paid, or since last entry into service, provided reenlistment is within 3 months after last honorable discharge.

4. A furlough for men who re-enlist within 20 days. Full details of other furlough privileges can be ob-5. Mustering-out pay (based upon length of service) to all men who are discharged to reenlist. 6. Option to retire at half pay for the rest of your life after 20 years' service — increasing to three-quarters pay after 30 years' service. All previous active federal military service counts toward retirement.

7. GI Bill of Rights benefits asoctober 5, 1946.

8. Choice of branch of service and overseas theater (of those still open) on 3-year enlistments.

SCHOOL BOOKS AGAIN

The free pursuit of learning gets under way again as millions of boys and girls return to the classrooms. Beforc this year closes many of them will have met with accidents to traffic carelessness. We have let down in caution through the summer vacation, but now motorists must protect the lives of these school children where ever we find them. School buses, school house neighborhoods, cross-streets, bicycle riders, ball-players, all call for attention of the man behind the wheel. We are trustees of the safety of hundreds of school children of Burkburnett. Let us serve on this board in honor.

Speaking for Italy, Premier De Gasperi stated that his country had contributed troops, naval power and materials for three years and that the Allies should think twice before internationalizing Italian dominated Trieste and submitting 180,000 Italians in Venezia Guilia to Yugoslav rule. He also asserted that excessive reparations would weigh down the Italian economy and reduction of armaments would imperil the safety of the state.

Foreign Minister Giorgu Tatarescu of Romania followed De Gasperi to the speaker's dais and asserted that no less than 385,000 Romanians had fought on the allied side during the last six months of the war. Furthermore, he said, German and Hungarian forces had inflicted large-scale damage of Romania after she had deserted the axis cause. Tatarescu asked for a larger army and scaling down of heavy reparations.

On behalf of Bulgaria, Foreign Minister George Koulishev claimed that his country had suffered 32,000 casualties during the eight months it fought on the allied side. He charged Greek demands for $750,-000,000 in reparations were excessive and asked that Bulgaria be permitted to disarm within reasonable limits. Regulation of traffic on the Danube should be the interest of all the countries bordering the river, including Bulgaria, Koulishev

Unable to come before the peace conference like Italy, Romania and Bulgaria as 11th hour co-belligerents, Hungary pleaded that, despite its participation on Germany's side, it never really was sympathetic to the Nazi cause. After this lame assertion, the Hungarian representative called for the return of at least one-fifth of the province of Transylvania from Romania.

We associate the jinrikisha with Japan, and rightly so, but here's something curious you'll want to know. The first jinrikisha there was made by an American.

Mrs. Jonathan Groble, wife of an American missionary, fell ill in Yokohama. Her husband, the Rev. Jonathan Groble, looked up a picture of a baby carriage and showed it to a Japanese carpenter. Between the two, they made a jinrikisha for Mrs. Groble's convenience.

Act Fast on Vets' Furlough Pay; Axis Allies Seek Soft Peace; Tighten Consumer Credit Rules

FURLOUGH PAY:

Application forms for vets' unused furlough pay will be available at all post offices by mid-September but disbursement of the five-year bonds will not take place before the end of the month because of time required in printing.

In announcing the procedure to be followed, the war department stat-

1. Applications will be acknowledged when received to assure the vet his claim is on record.

2. Disbursing officers will accept sworn statements of applicants unless there is suspicion of fraud.

3. Army vets unable to determine how much unused furlough pay they have coming, figured on the basis of 21/2 days per month, can apply for information to the adjutant general's personnel records branch at St. Louis, Mo.

PARIS: Wanted: Softer Terms

Addressing the delegates of 21 Allied nations at the peace conference in Luxembourg palace, representatives of Italy, Romania and Bulgaria pleaded for moderation of terms on the grounds that, as cobelligerents of the victors in the closing stages of the war, they had made substantial sacrifices for vic-

Speaking for Italy, Premier De Gasperi stated that his country had contributed troops, naval power and materials for three years and that the Allies should think twice before internationalizing Italian dominated Trieste and sub 180,000 Italians in Venezia Guilia to Yugoslav rule. He also asserted that excessive reparations would weigh down the Italian economy and reduction of armaments would imperil the safety of the state.

Foreign Minister Giorgu Tatarescu of Romania followed De Gasperi to the speaker's dais and as serted that no less than 385,000 Romanians had fought on the allied side during the last six months of the war. Furthermore, he said, German and Hungarian forces had inflicted large-scale damage of Romania after she had deserted the axis cause. Tatarescu asked for a larger army and scaling down of heavy reparations.

On behalf of Bulgaria, Foreign Minister George Koulishev claimed that his country had suffered 32,000 casualties during the eight months it fought on the allied side. He charged Greek demands for $750,-000,000 in reparations were excessive and asked that Bulgaria be permitted to disarm within reasonable limits. Regulation of traffic on the Danube should be the interest of all the countries bordering the river, including Bulgaria, Koulishev said.

Unable to come before the peace conference like Italy, Romania and Bulgaria as 11th hour co-belligerents, Hungary pleaded that, despite its participation on Germany's side, it never really was sympathetic to the Nazi cause. After this lame assertion, the Hungarian representative called for the return of at least one-fifth of the province of Transylvania from Romania.

Discussing use of the latest endowment, Will E. Sitterly, 66-yearold farmer member of the board of trustees of Lithopolis, declared the money must be used to the advantage of both rich and poor. Although believing that it will take years to complete a program of sound expenditure, villagers looked for an immediate expansion in educational facilities.

Meanwhile economists figured that the total endowments amounted to $10,000 for each of Lithopolis' 288 residents.

LESSON TEXT-Exodus 20:15; Prov MEMORY SELECTION-But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: for where your treasure is, there will your heart be also (Matt. 6:20-21).

Labor Day temorrow! And much n the thinking of all America will be the right division of the fruits of investment of time and money. Property rights are fundamental. God's word teaches us the proper attitude toward our own rights and the rights of others; namely, honesty, yes, just plain old-fashioned honesty.

In such a time, the believer in Christ needs to be doubly vigilant lest he accommodate his own standards of honesty to those of the world. I. Honest in Purpose (Exod. 20:15)

We cannot tolerate anything in word or deed that can be regarded as stealing what belongs to another. The very commandment against stealing implies that men have a right to that which they have made, earned or saved.

If no one had any property rights there could be no stealing. Some of our modern political and social isms deny such rights, but their reasoning is clearly not biblical or Chris-

"Thou shalt not steal," forbids every kind of theft, and this includes more than robbery or ordinary stealing (see Lev. 19:11-13).

It relates to every kind of false dealing with another, such as oppression or the withholding of just wages. That, too, is stealing in God's sight.

Perhaps we ought to be more specific and apply the truth to our own day. Stealing includes such things as loafing on one's job, borrowing money from the cash drawer, taking goods from the stock with which one is working, stealing another man's sermon and preaching it as one's own, lifting material out Apprehensive over an inflationary of another man's book without credrend, the federal reserve board it, contracting debts which one can easy money in the face of a con- er material, "watering" milk for sale, selling worthless stock, dodg-The action came after consumer ing taxes or lying to the tax as-

Q. How high a fence should be used to confine our turkeys?

A. A fence to confine turkeys need not be high. One not over 4 ft. is most desirable and will keep practically all the birds confined as well as a 6 or 7 ft. fence.

Q. At what age should gilts be selected for their place in the brood sow herd?

A. Many hog breeders believe that growth and development are aids to selection. In the experimental hog herd at the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Co. at Gray Summit Mo., gilts are selected for future herd sows when they are six months of age. Until that time they are handled the same as the market logs for maximum growth and de-

Q. Can you give us some tips on sheep raising? A. Here are some pointers for the heepman as drawn up by Purdue

1. Wean lambs and rest ewes

2 months before breeding. 2. Trim feet of rams and ewes before the breeding season. 3. Tag the ewes. Clip the heads of woolly-faced sheep.

4. Shear breeding rams by

5. Use a strong, heavy boned, vigorous ram of good type for each 25 to 40 ewes. 6. Feed the ewes liberally during the winter, and use good rinter pasture when avail-7. Feed ewes so they will gain 25 to 40 pounds before lambing. 8. Feed loose iodized salt to ewes during the gestation period. Block salt wears down the teeth of sheep.

Q. What constitutes a "brace" of

A. Two dogs of the same breed, matched closely for color, type, and size. They do not necessarily have to be of the same sex.

Q. What breeds are used to produce cross-bred broiler chicks? A. Usually a Barred Plymouth Rock male is crossed with a Rhode Island Red or New Hampshire fe-
