SCHMELZER-BRADY UNITED IN IMPRESSIVE CEREMONY, SEPT. 18

Double ring vows were read at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, September 18, by Rev. T. Herbert Minga to unite Miss Jessie Mae Brady of Burkburnett and Robert B. Schmeltzer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schmeltzer of Greendale, Wisconsin. The impressive ceremony was read at the home of the bride's parents. The decorative setting featured a background of greenery against which was silhouetted arrangements of white gladiolus and yellow chrysanthemums. Extending from the flowers were branched candelabra holding white tapers, which were lighted before the ceremony by Miss Martha Childers of Wichita Falls.

Music was provided by Miss Blanche Butler, pianist, and Miss Guynda Stevenson, vocalist. Miss Butler gave a pre-nuptial concert featuring "Poeme" by Fibich, "Polonaise" by Chopin and for the entrance of the bridal party, played the procession from Wagner's "Lohengrin", then gave a muted interpretation of "Claire de Lune" by Debussy, concluding her offerings with the recession by Mendelssohn. Miss Stephenson, accompanied by Miss Butler gave a vocal interpretation of "Always."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a blue frock ornamented with an Eisenburg clip. Her accessories were black and for something old wore a lavalier of her mother's. She carried a shower of gardenias arranged atop her white prayer book.

Attendants for the bride were: Miss Margaret Brady, sister of the bride, as maid of honor and Miss Wandean Garrison of Matador, Texas, as bridesmaid. Miss Brady wore a smart dusty pink costume suit with black accessories while Miss Garrison chose an autumn green frock. Both carried nosegays of yellow and white asters.

Best man for the groom was James T. Brady Jr., of Wichita Falls. His other attendant was Charles Goins of Burkburnett.

Mrs. Schmeltzer is a graduate of the Burkburnett high school and the Wichita General Hospital School of Nursing. She has recently been discharged from the Army Nurse Corps. The groom received his early education in Milwaukee and attended the University of Wisconsin. He was recently discharged from the Army Air Corps.

Immediately following the wedding, a reception was held in the Brady home. The refreshment table was centered with a lovely arrangement of yellow and white gladiolus around two lovebirds. Extending from the lovebirds were white satin ribbons ending in hearts of white satin with "Jessie" and "Bob" engraved in gold. On either side of the arrangement was the punch bowl and wedding cake. Miss Ester Luecke of New Orleans, La., presided at the bride's book. Miss Margaret Brady and Miss Wauden Garrison were assisted at the refreshment table by Mrs. T. L. Rosser of Wichita Falls.

The reception preceded the departure of the couple for a wedding trip through Texas, Tenn., Arkansas and Wisconsin. The bride chose to travel in a smart gray and blue striped suit with which she wore black and gray accessories. They will establish residence in Gary, Indiana.

"Heroes Yesterday, Jobless Today"

"God and soldier, we adore
In time of danger, not before
The danger past and all things righted
God is forgotten and the soldier slighted."

Although this bit of wisdom was written 250 years ago, it describes a current situation as well as any words could. Just one short year ago our men in uniform were the adoration of the Nation. Nothing was too good for them. They had guided the country through one of its most perilous periods and the grateful citizens would never forget the sacrifices made by those brave soldiers, sailors and marines.

But now the danger is past, and the promises and good intentions that existed one year ago are no longer in vogue. The jobs that were supposed to be waiting for the returning heroes have not materialized and the situation has become so serious that the Veterans Administration stated recently that there is a danger that many veterans will exhaust their government employment benefit without finding a job. And the V. A. has placed at least part of the blame on the absence of a "positive" job placement program.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

Since October 6-12 has been designated as Fire Prevention Week this year, now is a good time to take a look at what fire can do. Fire is one of man's best friends and one of his worst enemies. The difference is in the way it is controlled. Fire records show that all fires, approximately 60 per cent occur in the home. As this week has been dedicated to fire prevention, every citizen should pay close attention to the following suggestions:

1. Clean up the premises. Rubbish makes convenient fuel for flames.
2. Be sure that no benzine, gasoline, naphtha, and other similar liquids are left exposed on the premises. Do not use kerosene or gasoline to start fires. Use non-inflammable fluid for removing spots from clothing, and send clothing that needs extensive cleaning to the dry cleaner.
3. On occasions such as birthdays, Hallowe'en, etc., there should be no special fire hazards in the form of candles, lanterns, and flammable decorations.
4. Use caution in handling matches and cigarettes. Careless use of these cause more home fires than any other single cause. Keep matches away from children. Do not smoke while you are in bed, in the attic, or in the garage. By all means, observe your Company's rules governing smoking.

We Want Our County To STAY DRY

BECAUSE:

1. There were 3,038 arrests for drunkenness in the city of Wichita Falls in 1941, the last full year under so-called "Legal Control," and only 1,372 arrests for drunkenness in 1945, the last full year under local option. These are civilian arrests. Soldier arrests were made by military police and recorded only by them.
2. The County collected $7,174.11 from liquor licenses between July 1st, 1941, and June 30th, 1942. In 1943, the first full year under local option, the County collected $12,964.10 in fines from violators of the state liquor laws. In 1944, $14,956.85; in 1945, $17,900.40. There has been no loss in County revenue because of local option.
3. 140 other counties of Texas are dry.
4. In 1945 U. S. spent 8 billion for liquor, which could have been used for homes and family essentials.

5. Reports from the Department of Agriculture, shows that in 1945, 125,837,556 bushels of Grain, Grain products and Malts were used in the manufacture of Liquor and wine and beer.

SUGAR than was used in the previous year. While they made big PROFITS the American housewife was RATIONED with a very small allowance of SUGAR. The homes of America could have used to good advantage ALL THIS SUGAR to preserve food for the American table, but no, the liquor traffic must have its PROFITS.

Still

Just One Issue

And It's Clear

Words, words, words—just a lot of words—have dripped from the prohibitionists since the campaign opened. . . . How many of them sidestepped facts? . . . How many of them had to be taken back—corrected, retracted? . . . Some still stand, uncorrected. . . . The prohibitionists also have vainly attempted to muddy the water—yes, confuse the issue—by calling attention to conditions in far off places. There is only one issue here in Wichita County. You are familiar with it. ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES ARE HERE NOW—HOW WILL YOU HANDLE THEM?

BOOTLEGGER:

His business is flourishing. The minority vote of 1942 invited him into Wichita County and told him no strings would be attached to his business. He could do as he pleased—sell liquor at black market prices, sell liquor to children, observe no regulations, observe no hours, and pay no taxes. What has he contributed to Wichita County? He provides no employment; he adds nothing to the welfare of the county. His sole contribution is INCREASED DRUNKENNESS and GENERAL DISRESPECT FOR LAW AND ORDER.

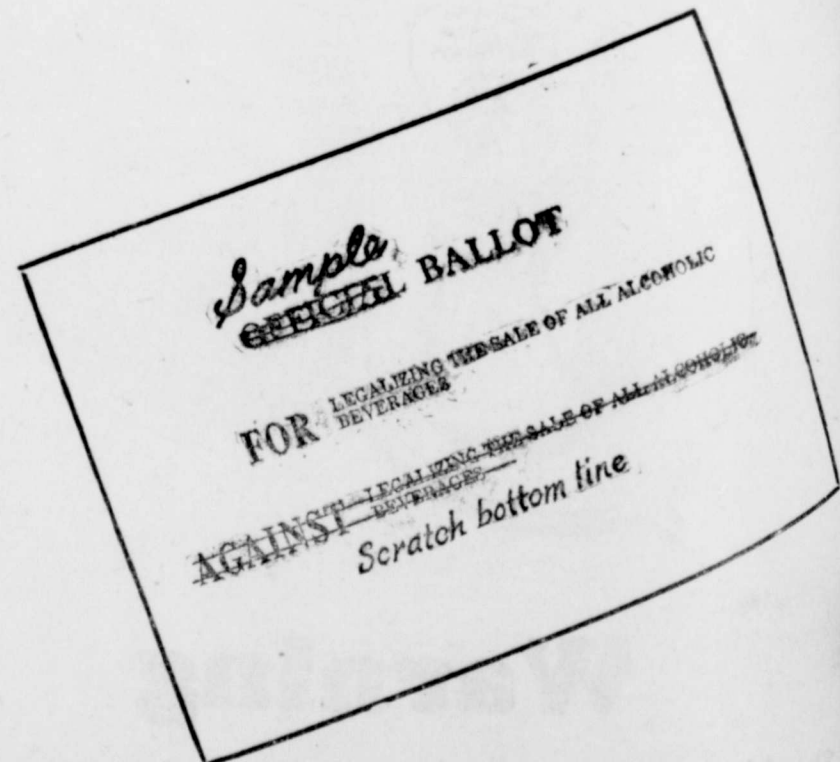

VERSUS

LEGAL CONTROL:

It means simply that the liquor business will be licensed and regulated by rigid law. It means that licensed merchants will open respectable places of business, contribute to the general welfare of the county by paying rents and providing employment. It means that more revenue will flow into the Old Age Pension Fund, and the fund that runs our schools. Legal control in Texas, since 1935, has produced more than 70 MILLION DOLLARS to pay old age benefits and nearly 21 MILLION DOLLARS for the school system.

Household Hints

A large paper bag slipped over the end of a furnace pipe will save a lot of dirt when cleaning the pipes.

For a door or opening which appears too small, the eye can be deceived with a wallpaper border of the right width around the door.

Glue thin sections of cork to the back lower corners of picture frames to prevent a dust line on the wall.

To remove decalcomanias from your walls before painting, soften them a bit with denatured alcohol. Then sandpaper the surface carefully for its coat of paint.

Before stringing small beads dip the end of the thread in glue which will dry quickly. The beads will thread easily without the use of a needle.

Ever think of keeping strands of embroidery floss straight between pages of a book? Lay strands of one color across one page, strands of another color across another page, and so on. Leave ends peek out the top to find the color you want.

When cleaning the floor use a mop instead of a broom and you get the dust and dirt all at once.

Church in Wichita Falls, was the scene of nuptial rites, performed Saturday evening to unite Miss Jean Wills and Lt. Eugene W.
Brock of Lawton, Okla. Rev. Paul C. Stephenson, pastor of the church was the officiating minister.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, O. C. Wills, and was a lovely picture in a Gilbert original suit of Rezeda green wool, the coat featuring the full shoulder, moulded waistline and three-quarter circular peplum closed with self-ties attached with gold buckles. Her hat was a Rickie original of brown felt with taffeta trim and her other accessories were of the same deep brown. The bride's flowers were Johanna Hill roses arranged atop her prayerbook.

Attending as maid of honor was Miss Jerry Logan of Tex-arkana. She wore a suit of tan wool with brown accessories and carried a small bouquet of yellow roses and bronze chrysanthemums.

Best man for the groom was Marion F. Slack of Fort Worth.
Ushers were Dr. Carl Morrison of Burkburnett and Dr. Harvey
B. White, Jr., of Wichita Falls.

The rites united two well-known young people. The bride daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. C.

versity in Waco and also is a Lovely Setting

A decorative setting for the wedding featured a background of greenery against which was silhouetted a sunburst arrangement of white and yellow chrysanthemums. Extending to the extremities of the nuptial space were branched candelabra which held lighted white tapers in long slender lines. Garlanding linked the candelabra and the setting was completed with clustered cascades of white and yellow chrysanthemums which extended to the floor from each of the candle standards.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Mrs. A. H. Mahaffey, organist and Miss Doris Jacks, vocalist. A pre-nuptial program was introduced by the organist with "Clair de Lune" after which she accompanied Miss Jacks for a vocal interpretation of "O Promise Me" and "Because." Mrs. Mahaffey also played the traditional processional, gave a muted offering of "O Perfect Love" during the ceremony and concluded the program with the recessional by Mendelssohn.

The wedding was followed by a reception at the Wills home where guests were greeted by a receiving line that included the host and hostess, the bride and groom, the latter's parents and members of the wedding party.
Signatures for the bride's book were secured by Miss Marilyn Bush of Eureka, Kan., a cousin of the bride. In the dining room,
Miss Ethel Freeman and Miss Anne Leach presided at the refreshment table and were assisted with duties of serving by Miss Colleen Mattingly.

The reception room of the Wills home featured a mantel decoration of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums reflected in a large mirror over the fireplace.
A nearby table which held the bride's book was ornamented with a small cluster of white roses in a figurine vase.

In the dining room, the refreshment table was centered with candles burning in a branched holder ornamented with a cluster of white flowers and greenery. Extending from that central decorative piece to encircle the punch bowl and wedding cake at the extremities of the board were garlands of tiny white flowers and the greenery Floral appointments in that room were completed with a large arrangement of white chrysanthemums and gladiolus on the piano.

The reception preceded the departure of the bride and for San Antonio where she to establish residence.

A Closet That Fits Into Waste Space

THIS closet will fit into any waste space because it has a shade-roller door that does not swing out to conflict with other doors and furnishings. Here, a space only nine inches deep is used for a linen closet with shelves.

A handy laundry bag matches the striped material used for the door, which rolls up in back of the attractive frame of wooden scalloped used to finish the front.

Pattern 256 gives an actual-size cutting guide for the scalloped frame and step-by-step illustrated directions for making the entire closet and the laundry bag. This pattern may be obtained by sending 15c with name and address direct to:

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS

Local Governments Build Up Huge Public Works Program; Develop New Horror Weapon

Released by Western Newspaper Union. EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.

Protesting against Russian policy of withholding information of whereabouts of war prisoners, Japanese from all the home islands gathered in Tokyo to demonstrate their disfavor.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS: Trade Pact

Pres. Juan Peron and his entire cabinet looked on as British Ambassador Reginald Leeper and Argentine Foreign Minister Juan Bramuglia signed trade accords cementing commercial relations between the two countries. Pleased by the event, Peron announced that he had ordered three shiploads of meat to be sent to Britain before Christmas with the compliments of his government.

Peron might well have been tickled with the agreement, which calls for Britain's purchase of 83 per cent of Argentina's exportable meat surplus in the first year at prices 25 per cent over prevailing levels. During the second year, Britain will take 78 per cent of Argentine supplies. The latest price boost brings the total increase up to 45 per cent over the 1939 level when Britain first went in for large-scale buying.

In another accord, the British relinquished their control of Argentine railways in exchange for shares in a new company including Argentine government and private capital. Under a third agreement, Argentina will be permitted to utilize blocked wartime trade balances in Britain for retiring sterling debts, buying out British investments, or making cash withdrawals of 25 million dollars annually.

PUBLIC WORKS: Huge Backlog

Helped by federal aid in planning, states, cities and counties have drawn up a huge $4,107,136,000 public works program. Along with federal projects running into the billions, the nation's overall program not only promises to provide necessary public improvements but also a possible source of bolstering employment in the event of a business let-down.

State, city and county programs are broken down into those using federal funds for planning and others blue-printed by the various governmental units themselves. In obtaining U. S. money for planning, applicants must show a capacity to build within four years with their own funds and agree to repay federal advances without interest at the start of construction.

Of the 4,630 projects totaling $1,296,997,051 mapped with federal funds, sewer, water and sanitary improvements costing approximately $546,000,000 constitute the largest item. Following are school extensions or new buildings, $319,000,000; public buildings, $117,000,000; hospitals and clinics, $73,000,000; highways, roads and streets, $46,000,000; parks and other recreational facilities, $30,000,000; bridges, viaducts and railroad overpasses, $28,000,000; airports, $20,000,000; and miscellaneous projects, $116,000,000.

WARFARE: New Horror

Add the latest to science's horror weapons: A new poison so deadly that less than one-seventh millionth of a gram is enough to kill a man and a one-inch cube could wipe out every person in the U. S. and Canada.

Existence of the new terror weapon was revealed by Dr. Gerald Wendt of New York City in a General Electric Science Forum. Describing the latest killer as an innocent looking crystalline toxin, he revealed the poison was invisible, microscopic in size and easily spread. Because of its great destructiveness and cheapness in manufacture, any small nation possessing the toxin could become a formidable world threat.

Wendt declared that the U. S. already has spent 50 million dollars in research on the new weapon, a small sum in comparison to expenditures on radar and the atom bomb.

MEAT: Crisis Widens

No less than 36,000 butcher shops throughout the nation were said to have closed and almost 100,000 clerks and packing house employees were reported idle as the crisis in meat continued.

Receipts of cattle and hogs remained far below the high levels established during the suspension of OPA and ran considerably below last year's runs. As packers awaited the large seasonal fall shipments, they were compelled to bid ceiling prices for lean, grass-fed cattle and inferior grades of hogs. Some of the stock received was said to be suitable for by-product purposes only.

Meanwhile, OPA promised to act upon restaurant operators' protests against imposition of June 30 ceilings on meat dishes. With the restaurateurs claiming that the restoration of old prices in the face of increasing costs would force them to close, OPA said it would modify ceilings to assure adequate earnings if evidence of hardship were offered. Whereas restaurants spent 40 cents of each dollar of revenue for food, they now expend 55 cents, it was said.

YUGOSLAVIA: Jail Archbishop

Acting upon the testimony of the voluble secretary to Archbishop Alojzije Stepinac, head of the Roman Catholic church in Yugoslavia, Marshal Tito's communist government arrested the high prelate and prepared to try him for "crimes against the people."

With 12 priests already on trial on the same charge, inclusion of the Archbishop would further tend to discredit religion in the Russian-dominated nation, following the pattern of communist hostility to all creeds. While the powerful Croatian peasant leader, Vladimir Macek, was implicated in the Archbishop's alleged machinations, the government hesitated to move firmly against him for fear of political repercussions.

Talking freely against the Archbishop, his former secretary alleged that the prelate's castle in Zagreb was the center of an anti-Tito movement to set up an independent Croatian state. Charging that the Archbishop worked closely with one of Draza Mihailovich's ex-aides in promoting anti-government bands, the secretary declared that the high churchman planned to finance a terrorist campaign for separation.

FREIGHT RATES: Wind Up Hearings

Department of agriculture representative bucked the railroads' petition for a 25 per cent rate increase in final hearings before the Interstate Commerce commission in Washington, D. C., while the carriers argued that the boost was necessary to prevent deficit operations. Department opposition was based upon two points: First, that an increase in freight costs to farmers would retard the electrification of rural regions, and, second, that it would impose a heavy burden upon the fish industry and curtail the movement of its products.

Railroads are destined to lose more than 200 million dollars at present rates next year, the carriers argued. Since 1939, wages, fuel and supplies have risen 50 per cent to a total of 2 billion dollars, they said, and even with the present high volume of traffic they only figure to earn 30 million dollars in 1946. Pending settlement of the carriers' petition, the ICC held over a temporary 10 per cent wartime raise.

WORLD LABOR: Wage Warning

As delegates to the 29th general conference of the International Labor organization convened in Montreal, Que., Director Edward J. Phelan issued a warning against rising wages not based upon increased production.

Hitting against inflationary wage boosts in a 113-page report reviewing the world reconversion picture, Phelan told delegates from 51 member countries including the U. S. that workers should refrain from strikes crippling resumption of large-scale output; employers must keep prices within reasonable limits, and governments should act to bring capital and labor into harmonious agreement.

Wage boosts based on increased productivity are essential to continued prosperity, Phelan declared. While more goods will tend to lower prices, higher pay will permit a greater consumption, bolstering both employment and business. Under those circumstances, profit-sharing represents a fair measure for wage determination, Phelan said.

MARRIAGE: Rocky Road

For every three marriages in 1945 there was one divorce, the Federal Security agency reported in the first government reporting of such statistics.

From the rate of 1.9 divorces per 1,000 population in 1937-39, separations jumped to 3.6 in 1945, it also was revealed.

Except for the depression years, the divorce rate has gone steadily upwards in the U. S., even rising through the wartime period when marriages dipped between 1942 and 1945.

Marriage offers no problem to Mr. and Mrs. William H. Saver of Pittsburgh, Pa., who celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary. Mrs. Saver still ranks at the top of the deck with her husband.

EUROPE: Proposes Union

Winston Churchill echoed U. S. Secretary of State Byrnes' proposal for a strong, unarmed Germany in calling for a united states of Europe to work within the framework of an international organization to preserve peace.

Speaking at the University of Zurich in Switzerland, Churchill suggested that a reconciled France and Germany form the cornerstone of a continental union, with the British empire, U. S. and Russia lending assistance. In welcoming Germany back into the family of nations, Churchill asked that the people be distinguished from their Nazi leaders.

A united states of Europe established to preserve peace in the old world would not conflict with the United Nations, Churchill argued. On the contrary, he said, success of the U. N. was dependent upon a natural grouping of western countries strong and desirous enough to meet threats to security.

TIRES: Passenger Car Tire Shipments Reached Record

Passenger car tire shipments reached a record during the first seven months of 1946, the Rubber Manufacturers association reported. However, the day when motorists can walk into a dealer's shop and buy new tires "all the way around" is still months away. Manufacturers shipped almost as many replacement passenger tires between Jan. 1 and July 31 of this year as they did in the entire year of 1941, which was the highest since 1929.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for October 6

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education; used by permission. PAUL'S BACKGROUND AND EARLY LIFE. LESSON TEXT—Acts 21:39; 22:3, 27, 28; 26:4, 5; Philippians 3:5, 6. MEMORY SELECTION—Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth—Ecclesiastes 12:1.

God works through men. When we study his work we study the lives of men—all types of men—but all yielded to him, and used by him.

Paul stands out as one of the most influential characters in all history. His life and letters, which we are to study the next three months, have had a tremendous effect on the human race. Especially is this true of his position and influence in the Christian church.

Under God he was the one who carried the gospel to the Gentile world, and then began the great missionary program of the church, which goes on to this very day. His writings are the steady and extensive foundation of much of our study and teaching of Christian doctrine.

I. Birthplace (Acts 21:39).

The place of a man's birth has a definite influence on his personality and usefulness. Tarsus, where Paul was born, was one of the most cosmopolitan cities in the world of that day. It was a Roman province, where men proudly held their citizenship in the great empire. Greek, the language of world culture, was spoken there.

Tarsus was a great educational and university center. It was in a rich and fertile area. It was at the head of navigation on the river Cydnus and on a great Roman highway. It was the capital of the province.

II. Education (Acts 22:3).

After his early training in the home and under rabbis in Tarsus, he went to Jerusalem to study in what was probably the best-equipped Hebrew college of that day, under one of the greatest teachers, Gamaliel.

Somewhere in his hearing he was taught a trade, for every Jewish boy learned to support himself with his own hands (see Acts 18:3).

He was instructed in the Word of God, and had a consuming zeal for religious things. Until he was converted, it counted against Christianity, but afterward it became a flaming fire to spread the truth in all the world.

His combined zeal and knowledge made him a man of truly broad mind and tolerant spirit (Acts 5:35-39).

III. Citizenship (Acts 22:27, 28).

The mighty power and prestige of Rome stood behind every Roman citizen. Paul used his citizenship for protection. It helped him in his service for the Lord. His prestige was used for God's glory. It is a good sign when a man is proud of his national background, and it speaks well for the nation to which he belongs. But Paul came (as every Christian does) to know and appreciate a higher citizenship.

IV. Religion (Acts 26:4, 5).

Though a free-born Roman citizen, Paul was a Jew, and loyal to the religion of his people. He was a member of the strictest sect, the Pharisees, in which his family had held membership for generations. He lived conscientiously in the observance of the law and customs of his religious faith, and none could point to any flaw in his doctrine or failure in his life.

When he became a follower of Christ, there was no ground on which anyone could dismiss his conversion and his witness as the outbreak of a new viewpoint on the part of a renegade Jew.

It is to a man's credit that he faithfully lives up to the beliefs of the religion he professes. The result of such sincerity will be conversion, if he, like Paul, meets Christ and honestly faces the question of loyalty to him.

V. Race (Phil. 3:5, 6).

Paul counted it to be an honor to be known as a Hebrew and gloried in the fact that he was born, trained and lived within that racial as well as religious circle.

No one need ever be ashamed of his race, although he may be ashamed of things which members of his race have done. But there are even more things of which to be proud, and a man may add to the standing of his race by living his own life in cleanness of character and nobility of purpose. It is never a commendable thing to be ashamed of the race of one's fathers.

We must remember, however, that all the things in which Paul gloried, he found to be but refuse when he compared them with Christ (see Phil. 3:7, 8). Everything worthwhile in a man's life God can glorify and use. But none of them, no matter how precious they may seem to be, compares with fellowship with and service for the Lord.

Northwest Indians Placed Wealth in Copper Plaques

Until a generation ago, the numerous tribes of Northwest Coast Indians used a standard woolen blanket as their medium of exchange, says Collier's. To concentrate their wealth, men invested their blankets in "coppers," painted and engraved copper plaques, the value of which increased through resale.

At a ceremony held by the Haida Indians on the Queen Charlotte Islands off British Columbia in 1893, one of these coppers brought 7,500 blankets and, incidentally, lived up to its lengthy name—"All Other Coppers Are Ashamed to Look at It."

One more row to hoe

The boy from the farm is on foreign soil today! Instead of overalls, he's wearing his country's uniform. He's standing watch over the hard-earned peace. He's safeguarding your future!

At heart, he's still that farm boy. His laughter sounds the same—when he can laugh. He still goes for cokes and cakes—when he can get them. And he still gets mighty homesick—when he has nothing else to do but think of home.

Your USO has one more row to hoe. Another round of laughs to plant. Another crop of cheer.

Your USO needs your help, as much as ever. For millions of American boys still need the USO. They need the camp shows and clubhouses—the hours of relaxation and entertainment—a place to hang their hats and loosen their belts.

They need to know that the folks back home are still thinking of them—are still willing to pitch in and make their task a lighter one.

Tell the farm boy you're with him—every step of the way. Say it through the USO. Say it with dollars!

Keep it up... USO Don't let them down!

Bert Childers and the Melon Patch

Bert Childers put an ad in the Clarion the other day. Here's what it said:

"Planted more melons than I can eat this year. Stop by and pick as many as you want. All free."

As you can guess, plenty of folks sent their kids over and plenty of the parents came too. Stripped Bert's melon patch in no time. And as they went away, Bert treated the kids to lemonade, and offered the grownups a glass of ice-cold sparkling beer.

Naturally it pleased... but Bert explains a kick to share things afford to—whether it's or the lemonade, or he just like to indulge in "self-indulgent" people—who believe in share alike, live and let live world would be a whole off!

BAND NEWS
Well, everyone is working hard in band classes. We have started reading music. Nearly everyone has his instrument by now, and we are working hard to make the Senior Band.

Mr. Vick, our director, says that if anyone overturns a stand they will be fined 10c. (All in fun, of course). This way we will make money for our cold drinks when we march on the field. Dana Sue Mansey was first to turn over a stand, so we'll leave you wondering who will be second.

We the Burkburnett Hi-Band wish to thank all who contributed towards the band fund and to the Rotary Club and Mr. Tom Britton for being directly responsible for raising the fund. We hope we prove worthy of the efforts.
—Charles Vick.

Get Ready For Fall Housing

Now is the time to prepare for what some poultrymen consider a tedious task—fall housing.

Your chickens are going into their winter home. After a summer of freedom on the range, they will spend the next several months crowded closely together in the poultry house. Under these conditions, the state of their health and the rate of their winter egg production is going to depend a lot on what you have done to protect their health and provide them with comfortable quarters.

Fall House Cleaning
To help insure good winter livability, spend some time in cleaning and repairing the poultry house before the flock is put into it. Make sure it's sanitary by removing or destroying all of the old litter, scraping dirt and droppings from the floor, and then scrubbing thoroughly with hot water and strong soap. Give the equipment—nests, feeders, waters—the same treatment. Then disinfect the entire interior—equipment and all—with a reliable disinfectant.

Next examine the building closely—every square foot of the interior for cracks or openings that might permit drafts to enter. These must be plugged and if it hasn't already been done why not see to it that the walls and ceilings are insulated, if possible. A well insulated house will keep your birds warmer and will eliminate the danger of sudden temperature changes. In most poultry houses it is not difficult to add an inner wall and stuff insulation material between this and the outer wall.

Dormitory scene at a typical accredited school of nursing in Texas, showing modern, spacious living quarters for student nurses. (FYI—above picture from Harris Memorial Methodist Hospital, Fort Worth).

Check over the ventilation facilities, too. While drafts must be avoided, the chickens do need fresh air and a good ventilation system will provide it without causing extreme drops in the temperature.

Protect Birds' Health
While you are corraling your chickens for housing, it's a good idea to separate the culls from the healthy birds. Eliminating them will lessen crowding besides removing non-producers that will consume valuable feed. Look over each bird for lice, too, and use a good louse powder when birds are heavily infested. Some poultrymen give each chicken a good individual worming treatment at this time, and find that it pays dividends later on during the season of high egg prices.

Ask The Citizens Who Own Their Own at Home—

Those communities which have been far-seeing and wise enough to establish municipal light plants will tell of innumerable benefits derived from such projects. They will mention advantages aside from dollars and cents, and they will speak of profitable revenue.

They see the wisdom of owning their own at home. Examination of facts in the light of reason, convince all that citizens are wise who loyally back municipal ownership by PATRONAGE of home-owned light and power plants.

How much light is ENOUGH to study arithmetic?

Arithmetic requires concentration, close attention to small type, extra work for young eyes. BETTER LIGHT is needed for such exacting work to help prevent unnecessary eye fatigue, drowsiness, lack of interest.

Check carefully the lamp your children use for studying—be sure the lamp bulb is large enough—at least 100-watt or 150-watt size—and see that it has a shade which spreads the light—prevents glare.
