Morgan and May Have Successful Colo Elk Hunt

Buster Morgan and Buford May returned last week from a very successful elk hunt in Ouray county, Colo., in the San Juan National Forest. The hunt was just a little too successful for the first day they bagged the limit, after only four or five hours hunting.

The first day of the season they hunted a little in the morning and after lunch climbed a mountain side, got sleepy and stretched out in the sun. When they awoke several elk were crossing a creek about 350 yards below them. Buster picked out a nine hundred pounder and blasted away. The big fellow toppled over, shot near the head. May recovered sufficiently to see another large one trying to make a get-away. He closed both eyes braced himself and pointed the gun in the general direction of the fleeing meat. When the smoke cleared away they rushed down the mountain side.

May was congratulating Morgan on his perfect shot. When they approached the scene of slaughter, May was receiving all the congratulations, for his shot had gone through the big fellow, two trees, then glanced off a rock and killed a squirrel (so they are telling).

Their elk hunting over, they saddled horses the next day and started several miles North to prospect for a location next year. A snow storm caught them in the afternoon as they headed back to camp. The horses were having a hard time standing up so the hunters dismounted, grabbed the horses tails and trusted them to find camp, for the trail was completely covered by 12 inches of snow. Night overtook them and they were still miles from camp. Morgan led the procession, blindly and trustingly following the nag. They came to a sharp curve in the trail which Buster's horse negotiated, but Buster failed to turn. He walked off the side, rolled some thirty feet down the side and landed in a tree top. May heard the noise and hollered, "Hey, does the trail go that way?" An embarrassed voice replied "I don't think so." With only a few scratches the tired hunters finally made camp long after dark.

All net proceeds belong to the P.-T. A. for the promotion of worthy projects benefitting our girls and boys from the first grades through the eighth grades this ensuing year. The P.-T. A. takes this means of saying thank you, and we appreciate the co-operation and assistance of each individual and the merchants in making our Carnival a happy successful venture.

The following names were omitted last week from the list sending gifts to the shower given for Mrs. Carl Day.

Mrs. Ruth Hedgepeth of Hamilton, Texas, is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. L. Watkins and Mr. Watkins this week.

Mrs. Virginia Silkwood of Cisco, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Morris announce the arrival of a baby girl born Thursday, October 17 at their home on Hardin St. The little lady weighed 5 lbs. and 10 ozs. and has been named Charon Gail.

Would A Change Be Progressive?

In the recent petition for election to revoke the City Charter and return to the old and outmoded Aldermanic form of Government, it is easy to recognize the guiding hand of outside forces who would welcome any opportunity to dominate our City Government at the expense of all our citizens, whether or not they are tax payers. No doubt most of the folks who signed the petition, did so under the impression that a change of government would relieve them of a substantial portion of their present tax burden, when in fact, it would only tend to increase such burden and add other and more oppressive burdens.

Moreover many who signed the petition, no doubt did so just to be nice and agreeable and without a thought of there being any undesirable motive back of it. At least one local minister is purported to have signed the petition and it is undoubtedly safe to assume that his chief interest is in attending to the spiritual needs of his congregation and to try to inspire this community in higher ideals of Christian living, and that no thought was given to the fact that some underlying forces were trying to take our City Government apart and put it back together under a different pattern better suited to their selfish interest.

It is a known fact that such matters as these are always in evidence right after someone loses a job or there is something to agitate a group of citizens, either one or both, and in this instance it would have appeared to be an opportune time by reason of the fact that so many of our citizens were disgruntled on account of the diligent efforts of the equalization board to equalize property values, their efforts being evidently grossly misunderstood.

No change of Government could possibly prevent the placing of a reasonable tax valuation on your property and certainly the old outmoded Aldermanic form requires the services of an equalization board each year. Men who serve in such capacity are to be commended rather than criticized for the reason they are only trying to serve their community with no hope of reward and a certainty of creating ill will with many of their neighbors who lack proper understanding of the functions required of them in rendering such service.

Under our present City Charter we elect five men, two of which are elected one year and three the next, and who serve as a Board of Directors, so to speak. Every City Employee is responsible to this Board of Directors for the diligent discharge of their duties and subject to discharge for neglect of same or for inefficiency. It is to be admitted that some inefficiency is tolerated at times by our Board of Directors, (City Commissioners), generally due to lack of such being called to their attention in a manner befitting the case. Many of our citizens who are prone to criticize never take time to attend a meeting of our Board of Directors nor to make any other investigation in order to be able to base their criticism on fact rather than on hearsay or rumor.

Our present Charter is also subject to revision from time to time and has been amended in late years to eliminate the City Poll Tax. Should we revert to the old form of Government a City Poll Tax could again be levied and some offices would be created and become elective that are wholly of no use to us.

It has taken the time and effort of a good many worthy citizens many of whom have passed on, to draft the present Charter. Many of its provisions have been placed there from their experience of the soundness of such, and designed to eliminate many of the evils incident to the very form of Government that is now being advocated by these subversive forces. It would be the utmost in waste to cast it on the scrap heap and revert to a form of Government as outmoded as the ox wagon.

It is of topmost importance, therefore, to cast aside any prejudice you may have and make an unbiased and thoughtful investigation of the facts. When you have done with such investigation there is no doubt but that the present move will be relegated to regions suited to such moves and our present form of Government will be more solidly backed by our citizenry than ever.

Postmaster A. H. Lohoefer issues the information that packages may be mailed to overseas personnel up to November 15th. It is not necessary to have a request for such packages. Packages are limited in weight to 70 pounds and 100 inches in length and girth combined. They may be insured and registered, too.

Legion To Hold District Convention October 26-27

The 13th District Convention of the American Legion will be held at Electra Saturday and Sunday, October 26 and 27. Announcement has been made by Chef-de-Gare, J. T. Brady, that the 40-8 will have charge of the program beginning at 1:00 p. m. Saturday. This will include a Traffic Lane and Judge Roy Bean Court, followed by a dance Saturday night. Sunday morning, a Breakfast will be given for the Department, Division and District Officers. The program under the direction of C. F. Johnson, 13th Dist. The Oscar Frye Post of Burkburnett will attempt to have the Spring Convention held here in May 1947.

Scout Troop 155

We opened the meeting with out-door games and planned a parent night for November 7 at the Town Hall. The parents of the boys of Troop 155 are invited to come and bring a covered dish. We had a report on our compass hike taken last Monday night by Buster McDonald. We discussed the budget plan and it was decided that each boy should bring 10c every meeting night. This money will go for registration, Boy's Life and pay his way to summer camp. Buster McDonald was elected Senior Patrol Leader. Seven members were present. David Reed, Garland Hart, Thomas Mayes, Jimmy Harris, Buster McDonald, Donnie and Johnnie Ouzts. Woody Carter, committeeman, was present and J. W. Ouzts, Scoutmaster. Johnnie Ouzts, Scribe.

Large Crowd Is Expected

Friday night the Burkburnett Bull Dogs meet the Archer City team on the local gridiron for a conference game. Archer City has a strong passing team, which is expected to give the Bull Dogs plenty of trouble. Herman Green and Joe Glenn Gibson, both seniors, will spark the play for the local eleven. These boys are playing their first and last year of High School football. Big Red Green, blocking back, will definitely be out of the line-up with a back injury. Other members of the team are in excellent condition. Meredith, pass grabbing end from Archer City, is the man to watch. Against Chillicothe he had little trouble plucking passes from the air, although the defense used two men to guard him.

Regardless of the outcome of the game Friday night, fans will see a team of fighting Bull Dogs, in their playing every minute. They have lost some close games but not by being out played. What they lack in experience is offset by determination and fight. Coaches Short and Stevenson have accomplished wonders with a bunch of boys who never played a game of football before this season. The game is called for 8 o'clock. Plenty of good grandstand seats, and tickets on sale at the box office.

USE AIR MAIL
now only 5 cents

Air Mail Week Oct. 27-Nov. 2nd

Inauguration of the new five-cent United States flag rate Oct. 1 immediately brought a sharp rise in air mail volume according to Postmaster Lohoefer. Rapid air mail service, offered for the first time at a low postage rate, should stimulate commerce, business leaders here believe. For that reason, they are encouraging large air mailings during the nation-wide air mail promotion week.

"We have long advocated lower air mail rates," said Lohoefer, believing that rapid service between customers and manufacturers and distributors would foster commerce. "The Post Office Department has taken a leaf from the book of American business, reducing the air mail rate from 8 cents to 5 cents an ounce and simultaneously offering better and faster service." Meanwhile, Postmaster Lohoefer reported, air mail letters are being received at the post office with incorrect postage affixed. The five cent rate applies anywhere that the American flag flies, including all United States possessions. It is also applicable to the armed forces abroad, and to Canada and Mexico.

Ceilings Lifted Inflation Here

We learn that one of our local citizens, Mr. Jingle Hayes sold to Mr. Paul Lovelace some Khaki Pants and Shirts for $10.00. The delivery being made during the 2nd inning of the last game of the World Series. Mr. Lovelace believing in the Cards to win the pennant stated he would pay $20.00 or nothing for the wearing apparel. Mr. Hayes being a good business man immediately accepted as the Red Sox were in the lead at that time. Mr. Hayes later stated those were the cheapest Khakis sold he ever heard of. Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Gage had as their guests last week-end, Mrs. Gage's sister, Mrs. W. J. Starks of Rockwell, Texas, and Mrs. H. L. Gilger of Electra.

Rev. Gordon C. Bayless, noted evangelist of Dallas, will conclude a two weeks revival at the Baptist Church Sunday, October 27th. Attendance and interest in this revival have been high. A. Hudler of Austin, has been conducting the song sessions. Special mass meeting, men, women, boys and girls, at afternoon at three o'clock, on the subject, "The Who Could Not Take It", led by Dr. Bayless, 9:15 p.m.

MODERN HOMES

The taste in home decoration in America, results in our abodes probably being the most cheerful, attractive dwellings, any place. Fashion has changed styles as years push by, with feminine tastes ceasing to follow the trend of other lands and seeking reflections of our native culture. Few Burkburnett women can be at a loss to work wonders with upholstery fabrics, curtains, renovated furniture, lamp shades and all sorts of decorative bits. Whether with the advice of an interior decorator or inspired with their own talent, the homemaker is to be congratulated in raising the modern standard of pleasant living.

Certain comforts of yesterday may appear ugly and useless in a period that stresses harmony and utility. Today's is away from beaded curtains, Morris chairs and in-laid tables. The gay 90's were too much of tassels, plush and fringe perhaps. But there are always those who cherish the family "what-not" and the crocheted tidy, no matter what fad dictates. Only when decorators leave man without a favorite, lounging chair, his smoking equipment,

Kidneys Must Work Well

For You To Feel Well. 24 hours every day, 7 days every week, ever stopping, the kidneys filter the matter from the blood. Many people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus acids and other waste products from the blood. If they cannot stay in the blood, they are forced to leave the body through the lungs, the skin, or the bowels. This is a natural process, but if the kidneys are not working properly, the waste matter is not removed, and the body is poisoned. This is the cause of many diseases, such as rheumatism, backache, and headache. Doan's Kidney Pills are a medicine recommended by the best doctors in the world. They stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to do their work. They contain nothing harmful and are safe for everyone. Buy Doan's today. Use with confidence.

COLUMBIA, MISSOURI.—Judging from this picture, taken in a Missouri-Kansas-Texas Lines lounge car, the Southwest is again doing its part in contributing to the reputation for pretty girls enjoyed by Stephens College at Columbia. The girls, a few of the Oklahoma and Texas students on the Katy's "Stephens College Special Train," are part of the more than 2000 girls who poured into this city recently to attend the 114th school year of Stephens. The student body this year represents every state in the nation and 10 foreign countries. Special trains such as the Katy's enabled girls to renew old friendships and make new acquaintances among fellow students while enroute to the college and eliminated bother of changing trains at terminals.

Hold the Line

The Office of Price Administration died officially on June 30, 1946. Before it had been inoperative ten days, everybody whose life and work were affected by it knew the nation had sustained no serious loss. Calamities that were supposed to fall upon the consumers of America did not happen. Some prices rose a little; others fell. The law of supply and demand was still working. It had not been on vacation.

In the building industries, among real estate and lumber people, timid home seekers had predicted the wildest of run-away prices because of the unprecedented housing demand. Everything necessary to make prices sky-rocket was present, but the crepe-hangers were disappointed. Industrial leaders went into huddles and resolved for moderation, regardless of pressure from eager buyers.

Returned to Life
The dead bureau was resurrected on July 25 by political pressure. One powerful factor was the influence of thousands of bureaucrats whose easy jobs were all but lost. Lame and weakened by legislative modifications, the OPA lives and has certain functions. But those 25 inactive days proved something: The longer we lived without the OPA the more useless it appeared.

Individuals who want to stay in government, whether they serve any useful purpose there or not, may be expected to keep on trying, during the next few months, to justify a supposed necessity for governmental price-fixing. In reality, increasing production may be depended upon to hold most prices down. Prices of some things will advance in spite of anything the OPA can do.

Look for Advances
In subsidized industries, where sharp advances were expected at first, operators are using moderation in making upward revisions. While industrial leaders "hold the price line," channels of trade are filling up steadily with new production and growing stocks hold prices down. Meat is only an example. Livestock hurries to market. Steaks and chops are on the menu again.

There will be exceptions! It is likely that the human race will never be free from opportunists ready to profiteer when there are no restraints and crafty enough to run black-markets when restrictions are in force. Maybe there actually was an unhappy couple in California on July 2, whose sandwiches advanced in price from 15c to 40c while they were being toasted. Anyway it was a good story.

Good Citizenship
We, the American people, are heirs of a dearly bought liberty. We have an opportunity to prove that we are worthy to inherit it. We can do this by a fair approach to every price problem. Whether we are manufacturers, marketers, or consumers, we have a part to play. We do not need anyone to play the role of dictator. Truly no price was ever fixed successfully by statutory law. Consumers can keep prices right by shunning racketeers who play their customers for suckers, by patronizing merchants who appreciate their confidence and by refusing to buy unnecessary things. We should be slow to retaliate against price rises that are needful. If workers, especially, will let growing production adjust prices before calling for higher wages, it will go far toward hastening recovery for everybody.

Whale Hunters Carry Along Philco Portable Radio

Whale hunters at Point Barrow, Alaska, still use the harpoons of their ancestors but their radio entertainment is strictly 1946 version. The Philco portable radio, with its 14 pounds including the new war-developed miniature and a tuned radio amplifier stage developed for greater pick-up of distant stations without need for a large antenna. For seal expeditions in his kayak, Eskimo Nusunginya can listen to his favorite radio programs on his long paddles through the ice.

Harmony
During the recent months of industrial strife and popular confusion, current events have been almost as common a topic of conversation as the weather. Wherever people congregate, somebody opens the subject of "What's the world coming to, anyhow?" It's a wholesome condition. The common sense of Tom, Dick and Harry has saved this nation from many a bad spill. Recently an old man (slightly deaf) sat near me on the train. With him was a teen-age girl, a grand-daughter perhaps. They had divided a newspaper between them. Granddad spoke first. "There's nothing wrong with this country if everybody would get together and do the right thing," he observed. The girl looked at him, shifted her gum and replied, "Many an honest heart beats beneath a wooden head."

Not a Dreamer.
Maybe she lacked respect for her elders but the young woman was practical. People in a country this large don't get together. Moreover they don't do the right thing unless they know what it is, and their education in economic matters has been sadly neglected. Unless that very situation is corrected before long, our people will trail the British into the wilderness of Collectivism. I believe in specialization but I think no specialty should be so narrow as to exclude good citizenship. I believe in versatility, but how can any collection of miscellaneous knowledge be complete without some facts about how men became free to pursue knowledge and get understanding? No people can remain free long after their youth cease to appreciate their sacred liberties.

Young Ideas.
Within the last 12 months, I have been privileged to talk with the students of a great many high schools and colleges in widely scattered states. I have discussed private enterprise and state socialism with them, and I can testify that most of them seem to consider private enterprise a failure. Some of them have been extremely well coached to debate against it. Questioning them sympathetically, I find that very few of the students I meet have a clear idea about what private enterprise is. They consider it a system that gives special advantages to rich men and big corporations. They point out that our system has not maintained full employment, has not prevented alternate depressions and booms, and has never equalized living standards.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

On Playing the Fiddle Badly

—with nothing more exciting than old songs, and a glass of moderate beer or cider.

From where I sit, it's a heap more important to be a poor fiddle player, than not to play at all.

More important to be a part of the American scene—with its community music, home entertainment, friendly glass of beer—than to hold out for professional perfection. (Besides, I like to play the fiddle—even badly!)

Ask The Citizens Who Own Their Own at Home--

Those communities which have been far-seeing and wise enough to establish municipal light plants will tell of innumerable benefits derived from such projects. They will mention advantages aside from dollars and cents, and they will speak of profitable revenue.

They see the wisdom of owning their own at home. Examination of facts in the light of reason, convinces all that citizens are wise who loyally back municipal ownership by PATRONAGE of home-owned light and power plants.
