Bigger Egg

The first hen doesn't have a chance. One of Oscar Emerson's hens read in the Star where eggs were getting larger. She wanted to do her part so came up with an egg 6 3-4 by 7 3-4, perfectly formed. She is a White Roman.

Once there was a rooster in a pen next to some ostriches. He spied an egg next to the fence, scratched a hole under the wire and rolled the huge egg into his own pen. He called all the hens around him and said, "Girls, I don't want to complain, but just look what our neighbors are doing."

Clifford Wells Moves Paint Shop

Why is it they always give advice on how women may be better looking, when so many men need that kind of advice too?

Funeral Services Held Sunday For Fred (Cap) Boden

Burkburnett citizens were saddened last Saturday morning when they learned of the death of Fred (Cap) Boden.

It is presumed that Mr. Boden was fatally stricken with a heart attack Friday morning shortly after he entered his office over the First National Bank. He was not found until 9 p. m. Friday. When he left for work that morning he told his wife he would be home for lunch. When he failed to come in Mrs. Boden began to worry about him. She had tried to call the office about ten o'clock but failed to get an answer. About two o'clock Harry Creel, who lives next door went to look for Mr. Boden. He went to the office and found the door locked. They supposed he had possibly gone to Kamay on business, though it was unusual for him to leave town without notifying Mrs. Boden. Later in the afternoon Mr. Creel again went to the office but could not get in.

Just before 9 p. m. Francis Felty, and others went to the office and gained entrance through a transom. Mr. Boden was found lying on the floor near a gas stove which was turned on full force. Mr. Boden still had his hat on, signifying he had been in the office only a short time when the attack occurred.

Mr. Boden, 65 years of age, was business manager of the L. E. Harwell Estate. He served on the ration board during the war, rendering his community a distinct service, without compensation and with very little thanks and appreciation. Those who know the grief attached to the job know that Mr. Boden rendered the service with fairness and without complaint about the extra work and detail it brought him.

Funeral services were held in the First Methodist Church Sunday, at two o'clock, with the pastor, Rev. T. Herbert Minga, officiating.

Burial was in the Burkburnett cemetery under direction of Owens & Brumley Funeral Home. Pallbearers were: F. T. Felty, Ted Harwell, Cliff Cannon, Virgil Brookshear, A. R. Hill, Bob Tevis, Morris Bookbinder and Paul Browning, all of Burk.

Born Jan. 27, 1882, at Springfield, Tenn. Boden had been a resident of Burkburnett 29 years. He has served in the Spanish American War and World War One and had been a bookkeeper in the office of the late J. G. Hardin and a co-administrator of the Hardin estate. A member of the Burkburnett City Council the last two years, he had served on the ration board. He was a member of the Rotary Club and the American Legion.

Survivors include his wife; a son, Ted Boden, Wichita Falls; two daughters, Mrs. John H. Lynn, Wichita Falls, and Mrs. Marion Ragsdale, Burkburnett; two brothers, Caldwell Boden and Bloom Boden, both of Paris, Tenn., and two grandchildren.

Billy Brown Serving In Japan

Private Billy J. Brown, son of Mrs. Gertie Brown of Burkburnett, is now serving with "K" Co., 3rd Battalion, 187th Glider Infantry Regt.

Brown entered the Army at Ft. Sam Houston, Oct. 2, 1946, and proceeded on to Ft. Bragg, N. C. where he took his basic training. Then, on December 29, he departed from the States for Japan and on Jan. 9th he joined the 11th Airborne Division.

At the present time Brown is taking Basic Training, but when he completes this he hopes to become a projectionist. Prior to his entry in the service he was a telephone installer and when he has completed his enlistment he plans to go back to the same type work. He attended Burkburnett High School and was active in football.

POSTAL DEFICIT

We attach a 3-cent stamp to a letter automatically, not pausing to consider that it travels many miles, is handled many times by agents employed by the government who are in turn paid by you. It is a sorely taxed public service agency. The Post Office department is faced with a $325,000,000 deficit for 1948 and is trying to figure a way to reduce that amount. One large deficit is due federal agencies exercising free mailing service, which costs the post office $98,000 a year. An increase in cost of mailing post cards, money order fees, parcel post rates, magazines, newspapers, are some ways out. They hope to retain the present air mail and out of town rates on first class mail. The service offered by our post office system is one for which Burkburnett pays little in comparison with other costs of government.

THE CONSUMER ALWAYS PAYS

Some of our State legislators, especially younger ones, seem to have the impression that the State government can spend all the money it likes, send the natural resources industries a bill for the cost, and everything will be hotsy-totsy.

gas and sulphur in pending bills, those industries are viewed as old Santa Claus in person, a sugar angel with an inexhaustible treasury from which the most lavish extravagances can be supplied at no cost to the general public.

Those who indulge such fancies are deluding themselves. And by publicly representing that such tremendous taxes on natural resources will not affect the taxpayers generally, they are deluding the people.

A substantial increase in the oil production tax would surely bring a substantial increase in the retail price of gasoline. Thus the consuming public would pay it in the end, or most of it—not the oil companies. Likewise a steep boost in gas and sulphur levies would be passed on to the consuming public.

The idea of sparing the people the cost of government by mulching special sources for revenues is an appealing one, but it doesn't work. Economic laws have a way of effectuating the constitutional mandate that taxes shall be equal and uniform, even when legislators fail to uphold it. Taxes are imposed on amusements, beverages, utilities and what not — and they are passed on to the ultimate consumer. Another idea is to tax produces that go out of the state, while exempting those in interstate commerce. That might be all right, but the courts have ruled against it in principle.

Such part of increased production taxes as the natural resource industries would have to bear would be felt as an added burden by the hundreds of thousands of Texans employed in those industries, and by the hundreds of thousands who are shareholders in the companies and royalty owners, large and small.

Already the natural resources contribute the lion's share of the cost of State, as well as local government. Those industries went through the war with little increase in prices of their products, while costs of materials, operations and wages have zoomed. A stiff additional tax on them would afford them a very convenient occasion for placing stiff increases on the prices of their products, and there is no doubt that they would do it.

Let the lawmakers earnestly consider these facts. And if they will devote less attention to finding new taxes to support prodigal appropriations, and more to keeping expenditures within present revenues, they will better serve the people. For the tax burden already is high enough for all.—The Houston Post.

Truman Modifies Tariff Cuts; Buffalo Teachers Point Up Drive for Higher School Pay

TRADE: Modify Program

Seeking to soften Republican opposition to the administration's foreign trade program, President Truman issued an order sharply modifying reciprocal trade agreements.

Acting after consultations with Republican Senators Vandenberg (Mich.) and Millikin (Colo.), Mr. Truman directed that hereafter reciprocal agreements contain escape clauses permitting the President to modify or eliminate low tariff concessions that jeopardize an American industry.

Agreements also will embody a "most favored nation" clause, giving the U. S. the same trade advantages afforded other countries. At present, some states have agreements with others which tend to discriminate against American trade.

Reiterating U. S. hopes for building a foundation for peace through the free exchange of goods and elevation of living standards, Mr. Truman said that this country looked forward to the forthcoming world trade parley in Geneva, Switzerland. He stated that the U. S. would negotiate for tariff reductions, removal of trade barriers and elimination of discriminatory practices.

U. S.-Red Harmony Suspension of Russian opposition to a U. S. trusteeship over former Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific virtually assured U. N. approval of the American proposal to hold on to the territories for security reasons.

Earlier the Russians had threatened to force this country into taking unilateral action on the islands by demanding that the trusteeship question be postponed until formulation of a Japanese peace treaty. While Britain and Australia had joined in the Soviet opposition, it was considered that it would be comparatively easy to adjust differences with them.

In making their about-face, the Russians proclaimed that the U. S. was entitled to the trusteeships because it had made incomparably greater sacrifices than the other Allied countries in wrestling them from Japanese control. Under the U. S. proposal, the islands would be held open for U. N. inspection, except for strategic military installations that may be closed for security purposes.

TEACHERS: Biggest Strike Seventy-one thousand Buffalo elementary and high school students had no classes as 2,400 instructors staged the biggest teachers' strike in U. S. history over substantial pay demands.

The walkout pointed up the increasing pressure for higher teachers' salaries throughout the country not only to keep present instructors within the educational system but also to make the profession more alluring for recruits in a day of increased remuneration in other fields.

Members of the Independent Buffalo Teachers federation and AFL and CIO unions, the teachers demanded a minimum salary of $2,400 for beginners and increases of $1,025 yearly for elementary teachers now making $1,875-$2,575 and high school instructors earning $2,175-$2,975, plus a state authorized $300 raise.

Federation President Ast said the teachers walked out after he had failed to receive assurances from Governor Dewey that proposed legislation providing for permanent salary increases would embody the organization's demands. Although some 568 non-striking teachers stayed on the job, the schools were shut down completely because of jostling picket lines and union teamsters' refusal to make fuel and food deliveries.

PALESTINE: U. S.-British Rift While diplomatic observers expected no major rift to develop between the U. S. and Britain over the heated exchange on the Palestine question, the outburst pointed up the apparent cross-purposes at which the two allies were working in the strategic Middle Eastern region with its oil-laden lands.

Foreign Minister Bevin's charge that President Truman had disrupted delicate British negotiations for settling the Palestine issue by demanding admission of 100,000 Jews into the Holy Land before the 1946 congressional elections to get votes was immediately denied by the White House. In a prompt reply, it was said that Mr. Truman's declaration merely reaffirmed the U. S. position on Palestine taken in the summer of 1945.

Republican senators were quick to rise to the President's defense. Brewster (Rep., Me.) said that Bevin was trying to make Mr. Truman the "sacrificial" goat for Britain's failure to work out an equitable agreement between Jews and Arabs, and Taft (Rep., O.) pointed out that Bevin had conveniently dropped his proposal for partition of the Holy Land in the face of stiff Arab opposition.

Thank Uncle Sam Fanatical in war, Japanese are mannerly in peace. Typifying trait, tiny Japanese primary school pupil stiffly addresses thank-you piece to members of U. S. food mission for American provision of nutritious hot lunches to Nipponese students. While the U. S. has contributed $2,700,000, 000 to UNRRA for relief of liberated countries, the army has spent millions of dollars for food and other essentials in occupation areas to relieve distress.

Tire Production Sets All-Time Peak With the increasing supply of material and manpower, production and shipments of automotive casings and tubes for the full year 1946 broke all previous records according to Rubber Manufacturers association.

The 82,013,412 automotive casings produced and the 81,859,857 casings shipped during the year exceed the previous all-time record year, 1928, when 77,943,814 casings were produced and 74,295,913 casings shipped. In 1941, the last previous peacetime year, production was 61,540,196 casings and 60,163,934 casings were shipped.

Passenger car casing production during the full year 1946 was 66,258,566 units, an increase of 135 per cent over 1945; shipments of 66,084,135 units exceeded the previous year by 146 per cent.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Improved Uniform International LESSON

By HAROLD I. LUNDQUIST, D. D. Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. Released by Western Newspaper Union.

LESSON FOR MARCH 16 INTIMATE FELLOWSHIP WITH CHRIST

LESSON TEXT—John 14:1-6, 12-18; 15:1-6. MEMORY SELECTION—Ye are my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you.—John 15:14.

The hour had come for our Lord's final intimate words with his disciples. It was indeed a solemn, but also a blessed, hour.

It was the night before the darkest day in the world's history. On the morrow the Son of man was to hang on Calvary's tree for the sins of the world—for your sins and for mine. But for the moment he was alone with his disciples.

The last Passover had been eaten together, the betrayer had been discovered, and the Lord has told them that he was soon to go where they could not follow. Peter had, by his bold self-assurance, brought forth the prophecy of his denial.

The disciples were disturbed in heart and mind. Then came from the Saviour's lips the words of comfort, assurance and power which have been the strength and solace of his people through all the centuries. Our life both here and hereafter is in his mighty hands.

We learn in this precious portion of Scripture that

I. The Christian Need Not Be Fearful (14:1-6).

That is indeed a good word—a needed word! Troubled hearts are everywhere—in the palace and in the cottage, on land, in the air and on the sea. There is a place of rest, thank God! There is One who still speaks the majestic words, "Let not your heart be troubled, believe in God, believe also in me."

His comfort is one which covers the future life, for he says, "I go to prepare a place" (v. 2). Concern about future destiny is settled at once when Christ Jesus becomes our Lord and Saviour. We need worry no longer. He has gone on before to the Father's house to prepare a place for his own. When we come to that ever-peaceful shore we shall not come as strangers, but as sons and daughters to a prepared place in our Father's house.

His words, "I will come again" (v. 3), gives present meaning to the future promise. He not only prepares the place, but he it who brings us there. The glorious hope of his coming again is the Christian's greatest comfort and mightiest incentive to useful, holy living.

II. The Christian Need Not Be Powerless (14:12-15).

Christ's followers are not here in a world of sin and need as a little group of hymn-singing weaklings, thinking only of the day when they shall be in a brighter land. Ah, they sing hymns and rejoice in them; they look for a better land; their weapons of warfare are not carnal. But weaklings? Oh, no! God uses them to do great and mighty things for his glory.

Note the blessed words of Jesus, "He that believeth on me" (v. 12). The army of God carries the royal banner of faith in a living Christ. "Greater works . . . shall he do" (v. 12). Jesus only began his work on earth; its greatest development was to be the joyous privilege of his followers. We are ashamed that we have not lived up to this great promise, but by his grace we will do better.

"If ye ask . . . I will do" (v. 14). Someone has called this a signed blank check on all the resources of God.

III. The Christian Need Not Be Distressed (14:16-18).

The Holy Spirit, promised by Christ as the abiding comforter, came so to abide in the believer on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2).

The ministries of the Holy Spirit are many, but here the emphasis is on his work as Comforter. What a blessed and helpful ministry, and how much needed by distressed and disturbed souls! The Christian may count on him — and not be distressed.

IV. The Christian Need Not Be Detached (15:1-6).

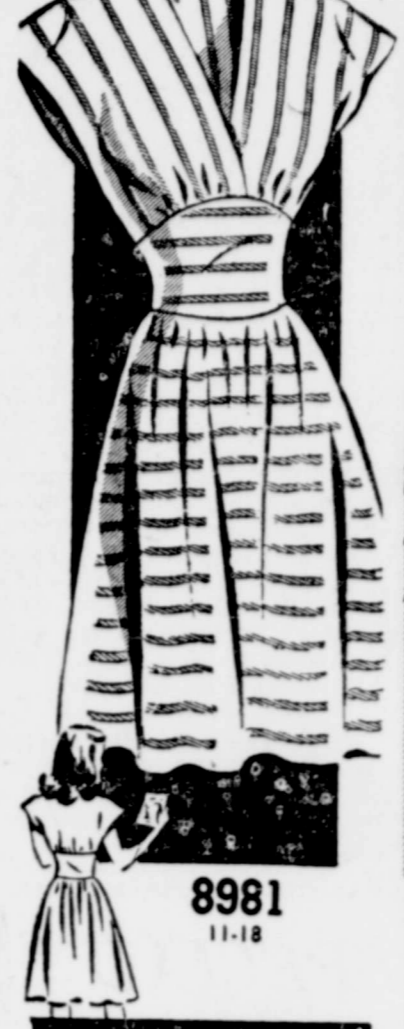

What is worse than the feeling that one does not belong to anyone else, that one is a detached individual! That is never true of the believer in Christ. We are as close to him as the branch is to the vine. We are in him.

Christ is the vine, and the believer as a true branch is united with him. There is a oneness here which is difficult to express, but delightful to receive and believe. He who is the vine needs no cleansing, but the branch needs constant, daily purification by the word. Are we permitting God's Word to keep us clean? Only if we are reading it, studying it, meditating upon it.

There is, moreover, a severer type of purging to which the husbandman subjects the vine that it may bear more richly, and that is pruning (v. 2).

Some branches must be cut away altogether and burned (v. 6). They lack the evidence of life — fruit bearing—and must be destroyed.

Junior Frock THIS smart, brief-sleeved frock has young ideas—tiny waist, full skirt and the popular surplice closing. Junior sewers can put it together easily and quickly. Use gay solid tones or stripes, going this way and that.

Special Occasion Blouses TWO lovely, dramatically simple blouses for special dressed-up occasions. Each blouse has few pattern pieces, requires very little fabric.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Cut worn out bath towels into rectangles to put under table place mats. The toweling protects the table from hot dishes which may mar the surface, especially if the mat used is of a thin material.

For removing rust from steel or iron, a combination of steel wool and kerosene is good, although considerable elbow grease certainly will be necessary.

If the collar of a man's shirt is badly worn, cut it off with a razor blade and use it for a pattern in cutting a new collar from the tail of the shirt.

If a shingle stain has been exposed to the weather for three or four years it can be safely painted. Earlier than that, there is a chance it will become discolored.

Have you ever thought of making cupboards or sliding racks under the stairs? It's a handy place to keep bridge tables, folding chairs, games and other bulky equipment.

Touch of Home A sergeant, stationed in Germany, was given a pass to visit Paris. He was very excited about visiting the famous City of Light, but he was most anxious to see the Mona Lisa in the Louvre.

When he returned to Germany one of his friends asked him if he had seen the famous painting. "Yes," he said, with little enthusiasm.

"You don't sound very enthusiastic about it," replied his friend. "Well," said the sergeant, listlessly, "I've heard hundreds of stories about her 'enigmatic smile,' so you can imagine how disappointed I was to find that she reminds me of Aunt Bessie asking me to please pass the salt."

MRS. D. C. McNEILL ENTERTAINS BIBLE CLASS THURSDAY

Members of the Ladie's Bible class, which meets on Thursday afternoons at the Church of Christ, held their monthly covered dish luncheon on March 6 at the home of Mrs. D. C. McNeill on 4th St.

The lunch was served buffet style, from a lace covered table in the dining room. The guests were then seated at quartet tables which were scattered through the spacious rooms. The menu consisted of fried chicken, salads, vegetables, pies and cakes.

After an informal social hour, those present were joined by other members at the church, where the lesson was conducted by the Minister, Roy Foutz.

Those present for the luncheon were the minister, his wife, and Mesdames Louis Cashwheeler, G. C. Nunn and Brenda Joyce, N. H. Harris, Jess Hageman, M. R. Hewell, Wm. Wilhoit, I. E. Harwell and R. P. Reagan, and Miss Fay Wilhoit, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. McNeill and Patricia.

Garden Club Meets Wed. Afternoon

"The Outdoor Living Room" provided an interesting program theme for the meeting of the Burkburnett Garden Club held Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 26 at the home of Mrs. Milton Conroe, 2705 Wenonah, in Wichita Falls, with Mrs. O. E. Melton as hostess.

Before the meeting was called to order, the guests had the pleasure of inspecting this new modern home with its many unusual features. The roll-call, used as a part of the program, was responded by brief remarks on subjects previously assigned to the members. In the absence of Mrs. Tom Britton, Mrs. C. J. Morrison, read an instructive paper prepared by the former, on "The Rock Garden as a part of the Outdoor Living Room."

During the social hour, Mrs. Melton and Mrs. Conroe served refreshments to 10 members and one guest, Mrs. C. M. Archer.

Former Resident Wed In Alvord

Announcement has been made here of the marriage of Mrs. Leona Ferguson of Alvord to Mr. Troy Davis. The double ring vows were read at the home of the brides parents in Alvord, Sunday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, March 2, with the Rev. W. D. Thompson, pastor of the Alvord Methodist church officiating.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal March, the couple and their attendants entered the room and took their places near an improvised altar of white gladiolas, stock and ferns.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Howell, was smart in a street suit of bridal blue wool gabardine with navy accessories. A corsage of dusty-rose gladiolas completed her costume.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Davis, former residents of Burkburnett, moving to Alvord in 1939. He is employed by the Consolidated Co. in Ft. Worth where the couple will make their home at 3304 Richardson.

Immediately following the ceremony, the guests were invited to the dining-room, where the lovely white two-tiered wedding cake was served with punch to approximately 50.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lawson and Mrs. O. L. Inman of Burkburnett; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Rogers and Billy Don and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Price of Wichita Falls.

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.
You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pain, headache, dizziness, peeing up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.
There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won country-wide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and sold many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

Easter Services At Lawton, Oklahoma

Every citizen of the Lawton community of 50,000 persons is becoming aware of the approach of Easter—because Easter to Lawton means the annual Wichita Mountain Easter Sunrise Service.

Easter work never stops at Lawton. As soon as one pageant is presented, plans are started for the next year's performance. However, each year about six weeks before Easter, citizens begin in earnest to consider the problems of the pageant, which in 1946 drew an audience estimated at more than 200,000 persons.
 The pageant is being given for the 22nd time this Easter, April 6. It will start at midnight and last until sunrise, at Holy City in the hills 22 miles northwest of Lawton. A thousand characters will participate; scores of other Lawtonians will be busy Easter Eve and morning with work on wiring, stage setting, sound effects, traffic policing, safety problems, costuming, and the like.

The pageant is a non-profit, non-denominational worship service to which all persons are invited. It is financed by the citizens of Lawton, who contribute to local money-raising drives, and by worshippers at a free will offering at the pageant.

HELPS ON HANDLING PUPPY IN NEW HOME

"Paper Breaking" During Winter Weather Urged by Dog Research Center

Every year tens of thousands of people, especially children, receive puppies as gifts. The following suggestions by the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City, are intended to simplify and facilitate the establishment of a puppy in his new family circle.

Before planning a dog or puppy as a gift, the donor should assure himself that it is wanted; that it will have a good home; that it will receive proper care; that there is someone in the household willing to take full responsibility for the animal's welfare.

The giver should also consider the type of dog most suitable for the recipient. For a lively child, a bumptious, frisky dog is indicated, whereas a little girl might prefer a small, quiet dog. The environment in which the prospective pet is to live should also be considered. For city apartments small or medium-sized dogs are best, but in a country home a large dog would not only have room for exercise but would also furnish welcome protection.

When a puppy is purchased from the breeder or original owner it is wise to ask for instructions which tell in detail how often the puppy should be fed, what type of food he is accustomed to getting, and directions for preparing any formula he should have. Another useful thing which should come along with the puppy is an instructive book on the general care of dogs. This will be especially appreciated by the prospective owner who has had no previous experience with a dog.

A check-up should also be made with the breeder or raiser on whether the puppy has been wormed or not and if any further treatment will be necessary. If worming is in order, it is a job for the veterinarian. Medicine which is drastic enough to eliminate worms is of necessity a potent drug which may prove harmful to the puppy when administered by an inexperienced dog owner.

It is well for the recipient to remember that a young puppy is really a baby, often a timid baby. Children should not be allowed to handle the puppy or play with it until they have learned how easily its small body can be injured. The puppy should have plenty of rest and sleep. Loud noises around the pup should be avoided, and feeding of delicacies should be forbidden.

The puppy should have a warm, dry box of his own to sleep in, out of drafts, with an old blanket or shredded newspapers in it for bedding.

Housebreaking during winter weather is a risky business, for sudden changes of temperature frequently cause illness. Rather than put the puppy outdoors in the snow or rain, a good procedure is to spread a double thick-

Winter Colds

What causes colds? Colds are caused by germs too small to be seen under a powerful microscope, they are known as Filterable Virus. They are present in discharges from nose and throat. They are spread from person to person by sneezing, coughing, spitting, or on any freshly contaminated article, as a drinking glass, which will pass on the infected saliva. A cold is not likely to be passed on during the first 24 hours.

If we could each live like a hermit, apart from others, we would probably never catch cold. People living in Greenland and Labrador, we are told, do not have colds in the winter even when exposed to the most severe weather.

The busy person in everyday life cannot avoid exposure to colds. We expect to be sprayed by careless coughers and sneezers. Young children, elderly people and invalids who suffer most from the effects of a cold should certainly be protected from those who have colds. Children with colds should be kept home from schools, and if rest and light food do not help the cold to disappear shortly, then the family physician should be called. This may not be a cold but even more serious, as most of the communicable diseases start with some of the symptoms of a cold.

What can we do to avoid colds

Mystery of the Rocking Chair

Ma Hoskins has a favorite rocking chair that's worn and shabby, with a noisy creak. Pa Hoskins has listened to that squeak for thirty years . . . and he decided to do something about it. So he bought a new rocker, and hid the other in the barn.

Ma allowed as how grateful she was . . . but when Pa missed her one afternoon, he heard a familiar sound that led him to the barn. There was Ma rocking happily in her old chair—squeak . . . squeak. No need to tell you how Pa felt.

Quick as a wink he hid the new rocker and then brought Ma's old chair back to the house. Now when he hears that squeak, he looks at the mellow glass of beer he's drinking and says to himself: "She's just as contented to her small pleasures as I am."

From where I sit, that's one of the reasons the Hoskinses are the happiest, oldest-married, peace-fules: folks in our town.

bright, sparkling eyes of children? Help them keep their sparkle—their perfect vision. One school child has lost part of that sparkle because of defective vision. More than half the people over 35 have eyesight troubles.

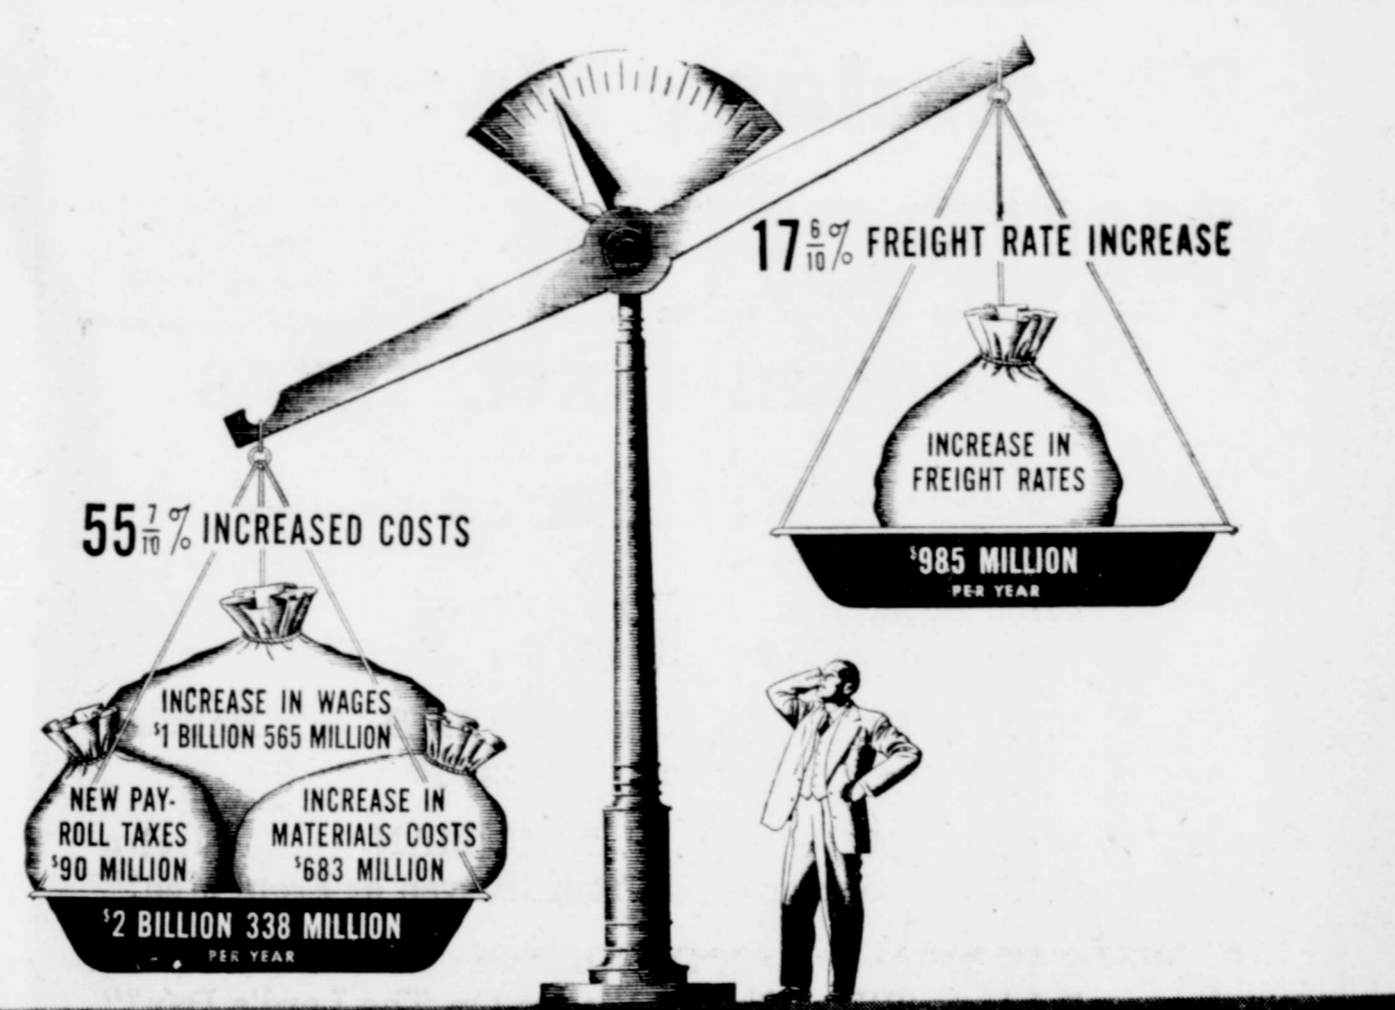

Do not conserve precious eyesight by following the three commonsense rules on the right:

1 Do all reading, studying, sewing or other visual tasks close to a good light source, preferably a modern reading lamp.

2 Avoid shadows. Make sure you have good light directly on your back or work. Use at least a 150-watt bulb.

3 Avoid glare from bare bulbs. Don't sit facing the light. Glare strains eyes.

Why freight rates are going up...

Since 1939, railroad employees have had three general pay raises totaling 52 1/10%, and the prices of fuel, materials and supplies have risen 61 1/10%.

But when the war ended in 1945, the railroads were still hauling freight at rates no higher, and in some cases lower, than when the war began.

Without increased revenues, railroads could not meet these costs and also provide improvements in equipment and facilities—improvements that are essential for the low-cost freight and passenger services which are necessary to America's high standard of living.

Under these circumstances—and almost a year after the last major wage increase—the Interstate Commerce Commission recently approved an average increase in freight rates of 17 1/10%.

Of all the price increases in America today, few have been so little and so late as that in the price of railroad transportation.

How important are healthy railroads to a prosperous country?

Only when the railroads are financially healthy can they provide the new equipment, improved road beds, and better terminal facilities needed for still better service to you.

The defense of the nation depends upon the continuance of the efficient transportation which served the nation so well in the last war.

The railroads are among the largest employers of labor. They buy over 100,000 different products. They pay big taxes—taxes which are spent not only for public schools, public health, and police and fire protection, but even for highways, airways, airports and inland waterways.

Railroads are America's lifeline—keeping goods flowing among the 48 states day and night in all weather.

They can continue to do this only if there is a reasonable balance between income and outgo. Like yourself, the railroads must make ends meet!

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk with you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

Chick Chats

(By Clark Gresham)

Respiratory and bowel disturbances get a big share of the blame of early death losses among baby chicks. Neither of these conditions causes widespread damage among older chickens, but in the brooder house they very often cause severe harm to birds only a few days old.

SALSBUARY SAL

Please, Boss—
Give Me REN-O-SAL—
It'll Make Me
Strong 'n' Tall!

Dr. Salsbury's REN-O-SAL is a drinking water medicine for chickens. Used with customary rations, it helps chicks grow faster, mature earlier! Economical, too!

CORNER DRUG STORE

Once a brood of baby chicks is attacked by trouble of this type the poultryman may find that it is a difficult task to restore them to normal health. If the disease is severe enough this rarely can be done without sustaining the loss of a number of future egg producers. The best advice, then, is to keep bowel and respiratory diseases out of the brooder house by following the right kind of chick management routine.

Clean The House

Before the chicks arrive, clean and disinfect the entire interior of the brooder house and every bit of the equipment that will be in use. See that the house is in good condition; make whatever repairs are necessary to eliminate drafts.

Practice wise and careful brooding methods. Avoid overcrowding. Keep the house warm enough to prevent chilling but not so hot that the chicks will be overheated. Do not allow them to eat coarse feed which is likely to cause bowel trouble. In this regard, bear in mind that baby chicks often eat litter until they have learned how to feed. To prevent this, spread newspapers over the litter for the first several days.

Keep the house and equipment clean at all times, and never allow wet litter to remain on the floor. Replace wet areas with dry litter. About once a week depending on the conditions, disinfect the feeding and watering equipment. Be alert constantly to detect anything which might lead to trouble.

Should disease gain a foothold in spite of your precautions, remove the dead birds immediately and put sick birds in separate enclosures. Double and redouble cleaning and disinfecting efforts. It may help to increase slightly the brooder stove temperature, and it is also likely that feeds and treatment which will relieve constipation and furnish easy to digest nutrients will prove beneficial. Consult a feed or poultry remedy dealer on this problem.

Uncle Sam Says

Have you stopped to consider that save-as-you-go is as important to you as the pay-as-you-go plan, which millions of my nieces and nephews are rediscovering this month as their best friend in meeting income obligations? When you are signed up on the payroll savings plan or have arranged with your bank for regular monthly purchases of U. S. Savings Bonds, you're on an automatic, easy save-as-you-go plan which will enable you to meet future personal and family obligations, or a business of your own, pay for a new home, travel or education for your children. As a good American, you are paying your income tax bill to your Uncle Sam to help pay for the war. As a good American, you also have the opportunity to turn the tables on your Uncle Sam. Investing in U. S. Savings Bonds regularly, your Uncle Sam will pay you $4 for every $3 in ten years.

SPEAKING OF MY RELIGION

I have heard old people like me contribute their long lives to eating plenty of eels, lettuce and poke-salad. I contribute mine to the influence of my church. Through thick and thin she has stood there welcoming friend and foe, christian and non-christian. Of course what a fellow eats has to do with the length of his life but HOW HE LIVES has much more to do with it. That's why I'm so happy now, I suppose. My formula for living a long time is traceable to my church. Why, I was married there. I brought up my family with the blessings of my church to help. If you want to know something about this church business—I count myself a real citizen and it's because of my church. You know character is about all that's lasting and worthwhile and the church is where you mold it.

If a lot of our DELINQUENT FATHERS and MOTHERS would shoulder their responsibilities like fathers and mothers should there would be little necessity for all this talk about JUVENILE DELINQUENCY. The parents miserably fail and what else can you expect?

It would be your greatest decision—to resolve right now that you will support your church with your money, your presence and your prayers regularly.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. State leaders today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Confirmation Class Thursday, 6:30 p. m.

The morning service centers about the suffering Christ endured during the early hours of the first Good Friday morning. After the Jewish High Council denounced Jesus worthy of death, the soldiers took Jesus and made sport of Him. They made sure His hands are bound (just as cowards are always certain their victims are helpless) and beat Him mercilessly. When they had blindfolded him, they struck Him on the face, and asked Him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote Thee? Then to show that man can be viler than even the beast, they while away the hours before sunrise by spitting into Christ's face. We ask, why didn't God strike these blasphemers down then? But God's ways are not our ways. He gave even those cruel men another chance. The divine Savior of the world endured this agony and anguish for all, for each of us, that whosoever believeth in Him should not depart this life to enter never-ending torture in hell, but everlasting joy in heaven.

Welcome, H. J. Schelter.

The Wednesday evening meeting will be held March 19th. All the conversational groups should be present at that time. In spite of the ugly weather we had 331 last Sunday in Sunday School and 95 for the Training Union, with fair crowds for both preaching services.

We also had two additions, one by letter and the other by baptism.

Next Sunday afternoon we are to take a city-wide census. From the nine churches we are calling for 169 workers. We are to meet in the Town Hall at 1:30 p. m. Sunday for 30 minutes of instruction, and organization.

If the workers will respond the task can be completed within one hour or one hour and a half. Let's not depend upon someone else to do this—but put yourself to the task.

This is a movement that every church will benefit from, as well as the individuals themselves.

With the coming of spring the attendance of every church and Sunday School should increase. However, just wishing, or wanting, will not get the job done—Let's work at the job. Welcome with First Baptist Church always.

CONSTIPATION
Risky in BAD COLDS
Detained undigested food becomes putrefactive, causes toxins, which overload the liver and other vital organs of the body, lessening your resistance to colds and other winter ills and interfering with their treatment. Why take this chance when you can take Calotabs? Calotabs thoroughly yet pleasantly act on every foot of your intestines, sweeping out toxin-laden putrefactive foods and virus-laden mucus, enabling you to more effectively avoid or fight a cold. Nothing acts like good old Calotabs. Use as directed. 10c and 25c at all druggists.
