Bulldogs and Exes Play Scoreless Tie

Foot ball fans were satisfied with the prospects for the coming year when they view the boys in action in a game with the Exes.

Levi Garrett and Harry Elliott, coaches for the Exes and both former Bulldog stars, had decided they would have to go easy with the inexperienced lads when they threw their champions on the field. They had instructed them to use no passes, no fake plays, and let the new boys have a chance. After the first few plays they saw their error and sent in a substitute to tell the Exes to shoot the works before it was too late. Although the score ended 0 to 0, the game offered lots of good foot ball.

Pat Morrison At Methodist Church As Guest Speaker

At the morning hour our speaker will be Mr. Pat Morrison of Wichita Falls. A former member of this church, Pat is well known and loved in Burkburnett, and his many friends will hear him gladly. The pastor will preach the baccalaureate sermon for Valley View High School next Sunday morning and be back here for the service in the evening.

There are only three more Sundays before our annual Conference meets at Dallas. The last quarterly conference of the year was held Tuesday evening when the business for this year's conference was completed.

We had a fine Sunday in our church on Mother's Day. Come to services this Sabbath day and enjoy the fellowship of our people. You need the church; the church needs you.

Oklahoma Student Named President Of Foreign Missions

E. W. Hatcher, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hatcher of Route 4, Randlett, Okla., was elected next year's president of the Foreign Missions fellowship on Wheaton college campus last week.

Now a junior in the Wheaton, Ill., college majoring in Bible, Hatcher spent approximately 3 years in the service before returning to the campus in the fall of 1945. Prior to his service as an air cadet, Hatcher worked as a mechanic for an Airlines company and also taught airplane mechanics under the ASTP at a State Teachers college in Oklahoma.

This year Hatcher has acted as prayer group leader of the Missionary Airmen's fellowship. Hatcher and his wife who were married during the Christmas holidays, plan to go to the China mission field when he has completed his studies.

Ed Richard Whitesides of Texas Tech, spent Mothers Day with Mrs. Artie Whitesides.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bowles, Jr., and daughter of Victoria spent the week end in Burk visiting his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hamilton of Oklahoma City visited last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Archer.

Mills & Fleming Announce Opening New Elevator Here

Announcement is made this week of the opening of Mills & Fleming Independent Grain Co. elevator, located on 2nd street, between Avenue A and Avenue B.

Location of the new business enterprise is the half block purchased from Mike Begun the first of the year. Actual construction was started January 10, and rushed to completion May 1st in time for the 1947 grain harvest.

The elevator is located on the West side of the lots, near the railroad tracks. A spur track to handle three cars was built to the elevator to facilitate loading directly to railway cars.

Capacity of the elevator is 15,000 bushels. With the rail cars and other facilities for loading overland trucks, the elevator was designed to handle bumper harvests with a minimum of delay for farmers.

Trucks are unloaded with the aid of an electric overhead lift. Large trucks and trailers may be handled as easily as small trucks. The elevator has five bins and a railway car and truck spout, which makes seven spouts all controlled from the floor.

Offices and scales are located on the Eastern part of the block, with graveled parking space for empty or loaded trucks. The scales are heavy duty railroad type, 43 feet long with a rated capacity of 136,000 pounds.

Harlan Mills is a successful farmer, living on the farm East of town formerly owned by B. H. Preston. It is one of the best valley farms in this section.

G. W. Fleming was manager of the Burkburnett Gin and Elevator up until the first of the year. He has had a number of years experience in the grain business and owns his home in Rose Lawn.

Mrs. Reger Hostess To Study Club

The University Study Club met May 7 in the home of Mrs. S. S. Reger for a 12:30 luncheon. Mrs. W. R. Hill assisted with the hostess duties.

The tables were beautifully decorated with spring flower arrangements. The social hour was enjoyed by seventeen members and four visitors. The afternoon program featured a short business session by the president, Mrs. Lincoln. Mrs. A. R. Bunstine presented Dr. Roberts, who gave a very interesting talk on New Medicines.

The installation of new officers was the high light feature of the afternoon. The clever installation ceremony was directed by Mrs. T. Herbert Minga.

The meeting adjourned to meet next September in our first fall meeting.

Mrs. I. E. Harwell spent the week end in Waco visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gene Robinson. Ike Harwell of Texas University was also a visitor in the Robinson home.

Mrs. Carl Miller, who has been seriously ill in the Wichita General Hospital for the past week, is slowly improving, and hopes to be able to receive visitors in a few days.

Light Pole Sitter Doesn't Like Job

There was a time when pole sitting was popular, but so far as a youngster in Burkburnett is concerned, the practice will never be popular with him.

Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock the fire alarm sounded and two trucks answered the call to Glendale street. There firemen found a small boy some twenty feet up on a light pole screaming to the top of his voice. He was above three hot wires, some carrying 220 volts. No one has yet figured just how he got there without touching a live wire. There was a tree near the pole, which some figured perhaps he climbed and swung Tarzan like to the pole. For kid four years old that was quite a feat.

When his mother found him he was standing on the neutral wire without a care in the world. Had he touched either one of the other wires he would have been killed.

When firemen arrived, two sirens wide open and people running excitedly about, the lad became frightened. Not so much afraid he would fall, but afraid he might be punished for trespassing. Jim Ady surveyed the situation, strapped on his pole climbers and started up after the screaming child. Nearly to the top he decided the boy might turn loose and fall, so he braced himself for a catch in mid air. By talking with the little fellow to quiet him he was able to get near enough to take him in his arms and away from the hot wires. He descended half way down the pole and met O. D. Bernethy coming up a fire ladder. He transferred the burden and slowly reached the ground where he sat down from weakness brought about by the realization that he might have witnessed a terrible tragedy.

Likes The Star

We know one of our far-away readers thoroughly enjoys reading the Star, for he has written to tell us so. Raymond A. Shaffer, a former Burkburnett boy, writes in from San Francisco to tell of the anxious moments while he waits for his Star each week. Raymond is with the American President Airlines.

He also says those who work in the office with him share the paper with him each week. By the time it makes the rounds of 65 other people, it is time for another issue.

To quote from a part of the letter: "It does the heart good to know that, though living in a thriving metropolis, in a world of modern trends and unceasing activity, they still can't deprive you of a few, appreciable things which go to make up our personal individualities—this is what MY paper, the Burkburnett Star, means to me."

Very sincerely yours,
Raymond A. Shaffer

Mrs. A. C. Houser is in a Wichita Falls hospital for surgery.

Mrs. A. B. Morton of Sanger, Calif., and former resident of Burkburnett, visited here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Holland and children have been visiting her parents. Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bunstine.

What Kind of A Country Have We, Now?

About 50 years ago Speaker Reed of the House of Representatives faced a flock of noisy Congressmen who complained that there was no excuse for spending outrageous sums of public money. One of the Members challenged the Speaker to explain why a billion dollars was being appropriated for one year's expenses. The Speaker replied: "This is a billion dollar country."

It is a lamentable fact that no one has the answer to the question of why, how, or for what reason, the public debt is now over 300 billion dollars—and going up.

President Truman has submitted a budget for the coming year of $37,500,000,000. Is this country that big in dollars?

Senator Taft is the outstanding Republican leader in Congress, by reason of being chairman of the Senate Policy Committee and a member of the Senate Finance Committee.

He challenges Mr. Truman's position and recent remarks on higher wages and cheaper prices, and denies that the President's budget proposals are a "real remedy", because they are not a tax cut. Taft leads the Senate fight to slash Federal spending by reducing the numbers of agencies and employees in Washington and throughout the nation and curtailing a lot of moonshine activities. He asks for a four billion dollar cut in government spending. The Lower House has already favored similar action and the cuts will undoubtedly be made.

The benefits of that tax reduction will go to 46 million taxpayers, and increase their purchasing power. The political point seems to be in behalf of white-collar workers and small business.

Taft seems to have the advantage over Truman, and the two men may head the Democrat and Republican tickets in 1948 as Presidential nominees—keep your eyes on Truman and Taft.

MAY'S WEEKS

When we mention that we observe enough special weeks without adding more by act of Congress, we may have May in mind. With four weeks in which to work, various organizations give us quite a list. There has to be an overlapping of dates. There is Family Week, Baby Week, Boys and Girls Week, Buddy Poppy, World Trade and First Aid are weeks worthy of notice, also. Comes Posture and Foot Health with a week each. Tennis, Golf, Music and Fisherman each have their seven days. Cotton, Restaurant and Raisin Weeks are designated. This paper hasn't enough space to devote editorials to individual weeks when so many crowd the calendar but we realize that each is of importance to some people, and some weeks are of vital importance to all people.

Mrs. Artie Whitesides visited relatives in Snyder and Rocky, Okla., Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Harris, Mrs. Louvaine Charles and Linda plan to spend the week-end in Chullichothe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Riddle and Jimmy left last week for Vanderbilt, Texas, to make their home. Mr. Riddle, has been transferred there by the Magnolia Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Daniel of Midland were here over the week-end for a visit with Mr. Daniels' mother who is ill.

Bruce Good, 1943 graduate of Burkburnett high school, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Good of Iowa Park had his name placed on the honor roll for the third nine weeks at Abilene Christian College, Abilene, Texas, as a result of his making a grade of "Superior" in one subject. He is a junior in Abilene Christian College.

Burkburnett . . . . History

As revealed by the files of the Star 10 years ago.

The staff of the Owens & Brumley Funeral Home this week, moved the facilities of the Company into the old Collier Funeral home building on Ave. D and 1st St., and announcement was made of the reconstruction of a brick home at the site of the present building.

Henry Grace, H. D. Smith and Leonard Mattingly were delegates to the WTCC Convention in Brownwood this week.

MILLS & FLEMING ELEVATOR
ERECTED UNDER DIFFICULTIES OF SHORTAGES AND WINTER

Many difficulties had to be overcome during the construction of Mills & Fleming Independent Grain Co. Elevator. Cold, winter weather added to the difficulties of shortages of materials and labor throughout its erection.

On some days concrete work was held up because of below freezing temperatures. After the foundation was poured and the building began to take shape, Harlan Mills donned an apron, took his hammer and saw and went up to work several feet above the ground in weather that was anything but comfortable because of cold wind.

At other times heavy lumber was not available just when it was needed and work was necessarily slowed down.

Despite all the hardships and inconveniences, work progressed somewhat on schedule under the direction of Woodrow Fleming. Once the building got under way, expense was more or less forgotten. Original estimate was that the completed structure would represent an investment of slightly over $30,000. At present, the total expenditure is nearing the $50,000 mark.

All that remains to complete the project is several more loads of gravel on the yard. One-half block accommodates the elevator, office and scales and parking space for trucks waiting to be unloaded. To cover that much ground with gravel to a depth to where heavy trucks won't stick in wet weather takes several square yards of material.

Scales in front of the office are heavy duty railroad scales. They will handle any load that can be pulled upon them with a truck. An overall load length of forty-three feet can be handled, which will take care of the largest truck and trailer generally used in this part of the country.

Everything is in readiness for the first grain to be harvested here this year.

Weyand, holds an assignment on the north 28 acres of the north 56 acres of the two 100 acre tracts herebefore described; F. E. Butler, L. F. Smith, S. H. Smith, Goldie or Zoldia Persky and husband, I. B. Persky, R. E. Fisher and W. W. Chambers claim an overriding oil payment in the amount of $1000.00 payable out of one-fourth of the oil produced therefrom; and that further W. W. Chambers holds an assignment of the South 28 acres of the North 56 acres of the two 100 acre tracts herebefore described and that New Tex Oil Company claims an oil payment or overriding royalty out of 1-8 of 7-8 of the oil produced therefrom and H. D. Smith claims a right to develop the oil and gas under said lands by virtue of a contract with the New Tex Oil Company dated July 10, 1922 and recorded in Volume 193 page 438, Deed Records of Wichita County, Texas and John F. Weyand whose independent executor, Charles B. Weyand also claims some interest in this tract. Plaintiffs further allege that defendants have not used due diligence in developing said leases assigned to them and that title and estate of each of these defendants has long since terminated and that their legal remedy for damages against these defendants is totally inadequate as some of their residences are unknown. Wherefore plaintiffs pray that defendants be cited to appear and that they have judgment cancelling the leases herebefore described in so far as said leases pertain to the North 56 acres of land described in the two 100 acre leases herebefore mentioned; and in the alternative Plaintiffs pray for an order of the Court requiring defendants to reasonably develop said leases in so far as it may be assigned to each of said defendants and that a reasonable development would be the drilling of a test well with reasonable diligence to a depth of 1400 feet within 30 days from the date of the court's order on the North 28 acres of said North 56 acres and the drilling of a similar well within the same time upon the South 28 acres of the North 56 acres, and the drilling of additional wells upon each of said tracts as may be directed by the Court upon the completion of each of such test wells, either as dry holes or as producers of oil or gas, and in the event defendants do not comply with such Order of the Court then plaintiffs pray for a decree of absolute cancellation of all said leasehold interest and all claim, title or estate of all these defendants in said North 56 acres, and for such other relief, general or special, in law or in equity, to which plaintiffs may show themselves justly entitled. If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of issuance, it shall be returned unserved. The Officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law and make due return as the law directs. Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said court, at office in Wichita Falls, Texas, this 19th day of April, A. D. 1947.

of the following described land situated in Wichita County, Texas, to-wit: A. First tract hereinafter referred to as the West 100 acres and described as follows:

100 acres of land out of the Oscar Farris Survey in Wichita County, Texas, Abstract 383 with field notes as follows: Beginning at a point 332.8 varas North and 479.8 varas West from the Southeast corner of said Farris Survey; Thence North 1176.5 varas to the South Boundary Line of 60 acres of land out of said Survey owned by O. Plaintiffs further allege that on the day and year aforesaid the defendants unlawfully entered upon said premises and ejected plaintiffs therefrom to their damages in the sum of $1000.00 and that the reasonable annual rental value of said property is $1000.00. Wherefore plaintiffs pray that defendants be cited to appear and that they have judgment for title and possession of the above described land and premises, for writ of restitution, for rents, damages, cost of suit and general relief. And on second count plaintiffs further allege that on April 24, 1917 they executed oil and gas leases on each of the 100 acre tracts described above to A. G. Itseing, W. L. Mann and N. A. Dodge; that each lease was let to the lessees for the sole and only purpose of mining and operating for oil and gas and for laying pipe lines, building tanks, power stations and structures to produce oil and gas, and that said leases should remain in force for a term of one year and as long thereafter as oil and/or gas was produced by lessee and provided that 1-8 of the oil should be delivered to the lessors as royalty and that if gas was discovered and used that $100.00 per year per well was to be paid to lessors; that said lessees agreed to develop said premises with reasonable diligence; that said leases were given for the real and true consideration that said leases should be developed with reasonable diligence by lessees or their assigns; that lease agreements ceased upon the failure of lessees or assigns to carry out terms of said leases and ceased also upon abandonment of said leases by lessees or their assigns.

Plaintiffs further allege that defendants are assignees of the original leases by mesne assignments to certain portions of the lands hereinbefore set out and that they have wholly breached the terms and conditions of said leases and have wholly abandon-

Attractive Bride-Elect Named Shower Honoree

Miss Nora Muller, a popular bride-elect was named honor guest for an informal party and miscellaneous shower given Thursday afternoon at the home of Miss Irma Kiesling.

A profusion of spring flowers consisting of peonies, roses and iris decorated the party rooms. Center of interest was the refreshment table which was covered with a white lace cloth, and attractively decorated with pink, green and yellow streamers of the bride-elects chosen colors. Centering this arrangement, was an artistic display of pink roses and larkspur, flanked by pink candles in crystal holders. Twin satin hearts, edged with pink ribbon and blue net ruffling, held in gold letters, the message, "Nora and Don, June 8." A lovely floral piece to harmonize with the other decorations was used on the coffee table, holding the guest book.

Preceding the informal entertainment of games and readings the honoree was presented with a lovely corsage. High score winners for the contest were Mrs. A. Holtzen and C. Mingus, who in turn presented their awards to the honoree, who also received a useful assortment of gifts from the guests.

During the late afternoon, dainty refreshments were served to approximately 35 guests. Hostesses for the affair were Mesdames E. A. Birkman, O. W. Preschel, A. Holtzen and Misses Irma Kiesling and Emma Goetze.

pet theories is that more families would eat better if we homemakers would get more variety into our menus. So how about serving a different kind of meal, or eggs fixed a new way tomorrow morning? Family will sit up and take notice... and "seconds"!

BRIGHT BEGINNER
Syrups from canned fruits are rich in healthful vitamins and minerals, but I couldn't get my family to drink them till I hit on the idea of combining them with tangy A&P GRAPEFRUIT JUICE. It adds the extra zip these sweet syrups need... and extra vitamin C as well. I always keep a few cans of this refreshing grapefruit juice in my refrigerator, along with a jar into which I pour all left-over fruit syrups.

Looking for a dessert that's super-simple to make and simply super to eat? Then here's the recipe for you: Cook together 1 cup of diced rhubarb, 1/4 cup of sugar and 2 tbsps. of water till rhubarb is tender. Add 1 cup of your favorite berries, cook 1 minute and then pour over 4 slices of toasted JANE PARKER POUND CAKE...that wonderfully fresh, fine-textured cake that comes from the A&P and tastes as if it had just come from your own oven!

Industry Looks at Our Town

Maybe you read how a group of industrial experts have decided that the small town is the place for industry—not big cities. Reasons they give are better housing, pleasanter living, and more opportunity for wholesome recreation.

As Doc Walters says, that sort of life just naturally sets you up for work the next day... whether it's in office, mill, or field. And Doc should know. He works fourteen hours, but never misses his morning "constitutional" or his evening glass of beer with friends.

Well, looking around our town I'd say that was about right. Most of us own our homes, and keep them looking nice; we enjoy each other's company; and our recreations are mostly simple outdoor sports, and in the evening a mellow glass of beer with pleasant company.

From where I sit, any industry could profit from being in a town where wholesome living, temperance, and friendship are the rule.

Cooperative Action Nets Homes

Some Cities 'Talk' Housing; Memphis Actually Builds

By BAUKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

WNU Service, 1614 Eye Street, N. W., Washington, D. C.

(This is the fourth of a series describing how American ingenuity is helping to solve one of America's biggest problems—the G. I. housing shortage.)

WASHINGTON.—Thirty-five hundred new homes started in one year is a pretty good record for any fair-sized community—especially when the year is 1946, and the city, Memphis, Tenn., had never started more than 2,400 units a year before.

Some two thousand of last year's "starts" were completed in 1946. Now in the spring of 1947 while some communities still talk about and wish for housing, Memphis is going right ahead finishing up the rest of the 1946 starts and undertaking more.

The answer to this old southern city's success in housing lies partly in the cooperative attitude of city officials who are very conscious of the veterans' housing problem, and partly to individual builders who have been willing to make price sacrifices, work long hours and do whatever was necessary to overcome shortages of materials.

Take Wallace E. Johnson for example—a builder who started in December, 1939, to construct one house and who now has to his credit several thousand.

He is devoting all his energy and ingenuity to housing veterans these days. It takes energy and ingenuity too, but this man who, during the war, was completing a house for a war worker every two and a half hours has what it takes.

For example, last September when lumber couldn't be bought for love or money, Johnson bought land with standing merchantable timber and a sawmill camp near Potts Camp, Miss., close to Memphis. This purchase made possible a triple play which has paid off in savings of time and money. Johnson cuts his own timber, hauls it to his own sawmill for sawing, drying and cutting, then hauls it direct to his own building sites in size and amount wanted. So much waste is eliminated that the leftover lumber from a whole house can be hauled away in one wheelbarrow.

When brick couldn't be had in the Memphis area, Johnson still managed. He got brick on a swap basis—obtaining critical materials and labor for a brick-making concern which used the items thus supplied to make brick for Johnson projects.

If he couldn't find the materials he needed around Memphis, he went where he could buy them. He has sent employees by air all the way to the west coast to pick up windows and doors, even paying retail prices for them when he had to.

But Johnson couldn't do as well as he does nor keep his costs to veterans so low without cooperation of the community. In Memphis the city repays builders of approved subdivisions for their expense in installing utilities. The Memphis light, gas and water division, which is publicly owned, has gone so far as to permit utility connections even when no meters were available. Thus, quite a number of houses were finished and families were housed, without having to wait for the hard-to-get meters.

As a result of this cooperation Johnson last fall had completed 55 two-bedroom houses which went to Memphis vets for $1,250. Other prices are comparably low, $6,000 to $7,000, and even in the lowest brackets Johnson tries for good design. He switches roof lines or the set of a house on a lot, and utilizes other means to avoid the sameness generally characteristic of rows of houses in developments. Incidentally he recently was awarded a prize by National Home Builders association for "Meritorious House Design in 1947."

The tenants appreciate this. Not long ago one couple, the first tenants in a new subdivision, gave a Sunday night supper for all of Johnson's workers—the shipping clerks, timekeepers, the general manager, the truck drivers and all the people who helped build the house.

Community cooperation aids home builders of Memphis, Tenn., in completing badly needed housing projects. These homes are typical of the low-cost projects completed by Wallace E. Johnson.

THEY SOLVE HOUSING PROBLEM . . . Confronted with a housing problem, Dee Ainsworth and Mrs. Marion MacConnell of Los Angeles purchased a wartime LCV (landing craft, personnel) for $700 and converted it into this trim boat with living accommodations. They will sail to Central America ports aboard their floating home.

Tornadoes Wreak Havoc; Blast Kills Eight Miners

TORNADOES:

Path of Destruction

Devastating tornadoes cut a wide swath through midwestern and eastern states, leaving a wide path of destruction in their wake.

Striking in a thickly populated rural area south of Fairmont, N. C., a high-rising twister killed at least one person, left an estimated 300 homeless and caused severe damage to tobacco crops.

The death toll from a tornado which leveled the communities of Bright Water and Garfield in north-west Arkansas was placed at nine. The business section of Bright Water, population 100, was virtually destroyed.

Most destructive of the twisters was one which tore through small towns in Missouri and Iowa, causing 13 casualties in the small town of Worth, Mo. More than 50 others were injured and property damage was estimated in the thousands of dollars. The same tornado lashed on across into Iowa, striking at Clio, where extensive property damage resulted but no loss of life was reported.

Narrowly averting the heavily populated city of Dallas, Tex., a tornado smashed briefly to earth on the city's eastern outskirts, then bounced skyward and disappeared. In its wake, two persons were dead and four were injured. Two other Texas twisters caused less damage.

MINES:

Another Tragedy

Disaster struck again in the ever-dangerous coal mines, an underground explosion in the Small Spring Hill mine near Terre Haute, Ind., snuffing out the lives of eight miners. Three others survived the blast.

The 11 miners were repairing and improving the ventilating system of the mine to prepare it for federal inspection. Closed since the general safety shutdown of April 1, the mine had failed to pass the first federal inspection.

The disaster was the fourth serious mine accident of the year. Major catastrophe was the Centralia, Ill., explosion of March 25, which took a toll of 111 lives. Ten miners were killed April 10 in a gas explosion at Exeter, Pa., and 15 lost their lives January 15 at Plymouth, Pa.

WRECKS:

Third for Penny

In the eerie pre-dawn hours, the third wreck on the Pennsylvania railroad's middle Pennsylvania division in three months killed four persons and injured 34, eight seriously.

The American, New York to St. Louis flyer, jolted into rods of sheet steel protruding from the sides of two gondola cars of a moving freight train, the impact ripping a tremendous hole in the side of the fourth car of the American and damaging the engine, mail car and another coach. No cars were derailed.

A moment later another freight train ripped into the sheet steel protruding from the other side of the

Just Like the Movies

Just like in the movies, Film Actor Errol Flynn was the hero of a real-life rescue of Tom D'Andrea, another actor, who was thrown from his horse. The actors were galloping in the Battle of Gettysburg with the Union general when D'Andrea's horse stumbled in a gopher hole and threw him. Flynn grabbed him from under the flying hooves. To provide a typical movie ending, neither was injured.

Screen husbands and wives must sleep in twin beds one foot apart in films shown for the British public. British censors ruled. That, they explain, "discourages coupling." Because censors spotted a scene in "My Auntie Kate" in which Franchot Tone and Lucille Ball snuggle in twin beds; pushed together, the scene must be re-shot. Cost, $30,000.

The collision occurred at Boyer Ridge, near Huntington, not far from sites of the previous Red Arrow and Sunshine Special train wrecks, both of which also were in the pre-dawn hours.

PALESTINE:

Explosive Issue

The explosive Palestine question, was marked by the usual wrangling and confusion in action before the steering committee of the United Nations general assembly.

The 14-nation steering committee rejected requests from the Arab countries for the assembly to debate at this session the question of canceling the British mandate over Palestine and freedom for the Holy Land.

Dr. Oswaldo Aranha of Brazil, assembly president, failed to effect a compromise before the crucial committee meeting.

The Arabs denied that their proposal called for immediate independence for Palestine. They insisted they merely wanted a full discussion of the Arab problem and recognition by the assembly of the principle of ultimate independence.

ALEMEN:

Cordial Welcome

First Mexican chief executive ever to make a state visit to Washington, Pres. Miguel Aleman was given a cordial reception on his trip to the nation's capital.

As the personal guest of President Truman, the visiting dignitary participated in a full schedule of events arranged in his honor by the state, war and navy departments and Mexican embassy officials.

In speeches before the Pan-American union and congress, President Aleman urged Western Hemisphere republics to assure "the independence of each nation through the solidarity of all."

The Mexican chief executive utilized the visit to begin preliminary discussions on an American loan.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

By HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST, D. D., Of The Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Released by Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for May 18

Lesson subjects and Scripture texts selected and copyrighted by International Council of Religious Education, used by permission.

GOD IN NATIONAL AFFAIRS

LESSON TEXT—Amos 5:4-15, 21-24. MEMORY SELECTION—Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live.—Amos 5:14.

Social justice, though much spoken about in recent times, has been the concern of right thinking men ever since sin entered the world and started man's inhumanity toward man. In the prophet Amos we find the eloquent and plain-spoken voice of one crying out against such conditions almost 800 years before Christ.

This lesson is one which is of utmost importance, because in our present-day struggle with social injustice we have come to assume that it is primarily a political or economic question.

The book of Amos and all other scripture rightly gets at "the focus of infection," which is sin. Sin in the heart leads to sinful actions, and these inevitably involve others, and thus bring about social problems.

I. God Is Great and Just (vv. 6-9). From the little village of Tekoa and out of the wilderness in which he had been a herdsman came Amos, the man of God, to hurl his prophecy of disaster upon the heads of the complacent people of Israel and to take up a lamentation over those in Israel living in luxury and prosperity.

It was true that the common people were being ground under the heel of cruel oppression, but who cared about the poor as long as they could be squeezed for taxes to support the luxurious comforts and pleasures of the rich? A prosperity which does not reach the homes of the poor is not a real prosperity at all. When in addition it encourages the "haves" to oppress the "have-nots" it becomes a grave danger, a real cause for lamentation.

Over against the social sin and sorrow of his day Amos placed the almighty and righteous God. The people were urged to seek him and his righteousness. Would they do it? The answer came quickly.

II. Men Are Small and Wicked (vv. 10-13).

Thank God that it is not true of all men, but those of Amos' day (and many are like them in our day) turned away in hatred of the one who dared to rebuke their wickedness.

Sin is always a horrible thing, but when men who have fallen into sin are responsive to correction and ready to repent and forsake their sin, there is hope. The thing which made Israel's state so serious in the sight of God and of his prophet was that they had only hatred for those who were bold enough to reprove them or to live among them according to God's standards (vv. 10, 13).

"They who will endure no criticism have slammed the door in the face of truth. When we get to the place where we cannot endure having our faults pointed out, we are on the way to moral collapse" (Douglass).

III. Men Should Hate Evil (vv. 14, 15).

God loves the sinner, even when he is in his sin. God wants to help him, and so pleads with him to hate the evil enough to forsake it, and love the good enough to turn to God in repentance.

God's Word condemns sin, but it also presents a remedy. In Christ we have the perfect, final, and complete answer to the sin question. Amos, speaking centuries before Christ, admonished Israel to repent and to turn away from the evil which they had cultivated with such assiduity, and to be equally zealous about doing good, in the hope that "it may be that the Lord God of hosts will be gracious" (v. 15).

How favored we are to be permitted not only to urge people to turn from evil to good, but to offer them the One who is the way, the truth, and the life.

Israel did not repent, but in folly depended on their religious ceremonies to satisfy an offended God. The prophet therefore declares that

IV. God Hates Hypocrisy (vv. 21-24).

God had no pleasure in their religious observances and rites, because they were presented with unrepentant hearts and by hands which were soiled by the oppression of their fellow man.

Mark it well, God has no delight in the attendance upon church services, beautiful though they may be; he does not listen to the sweet strains of sacred music, nor does he accept the rich "offerings" of those who live in unrepentant sin and who pay for magnificent church buildings and beautiful church services with money gotten by crooked dealings and social injustice.

God is righteous, and God's Word always cuts right through the hypocrisy of men. Let us heed the plea of Amos, that righteousness should run through our personal and national life "as a mighty stream," and then we shall be ready both as individuals and as a people to worship him aright.

Keep old pieces of fine, soft wool. They make excellent dusting cloths.

If the paint job is to be interrupted for several days, or if a new shade of paint is required, the brush should be thoroughly cleaned in a solution made for that purpose or in turpentine.

Underpass Dooms Old Trees

With some friends I sat looking through a window on Lafayette Square just as the leaves reached the point where they screened Andrew Jackson, sitting on a horse which somebody described as having two feet firmly planted (like a radical) in the air. Soon the foliage will come down like a hood, covering the skeleton branches which now are still showing through the green.

Trees were on our minds for we had just walked down Connecticut avenue, which for several blocks is being deforested so that a tunnel can be drilled underneath Dupont Circle. Washington is famous for its trees but of late years the automobile has caused the destruction of many of the finest. Wrecking of streets sometimes necessitates removal of trees. Frequently ancient oaks, elms or ginkgos are cut down and replaced with saplings.

Underpasses to take care of the traffic have burrowed under two of our circles already and now "my" circle Dupont (I live only three blocks from it), is to experience a similar operation. It will never be the same. Of course, Dupont Circle is not quite the same as it was when I first saw it three decades ago when it was the center of the social and diplomatic section.

I was bemoaning this "official vandalism" which robs these spots of their charm, as we looked out over the five varieties of elms in the park before us. One of our group, a naturalist, identified the elms as American, English, Scotch, Dutch and Smoothleaf, not to mention the horsechestnuts, maples, beech, dogwood, a beautiful cedar, an ash, which he reminded us was the mystic tree of Yggdrasil, its crown in the heavens and its roots in the nether world.

How much better would we be, I insisted, with our surreys with the fringe on top instead of our automobiles and our trees instead of parking space?

A survey made by the highway director of the District of Columbia, H. C. Whitehurst, shows that 52,000 vehicles skirt the circle every day, not counting buses and trolley cars. It is estimated that in less than 10 years 68,000 cars a day will be nosing by. That is the reason for the underpass.

The two circles already operated upon were Thomas Circle, an eight-point intersection, and Scot Circle, six-points. Since then the accident rate has dropped 75 per cent, the commission reports.

It is going to cost $3,800,000 to operate on Dupont Circle—and the trees.

COSTS UP, INCOME DOWN

Farm Product Prices Decline

WASHINGTON.—Prices of farm products declined about 1 per cent during the month ended April 15 after reaching record levels in mid-March, according to the monthly summary compiled by the bureau of agricultural economics.

The index of prices received by farmers in mid-April was 276 per cent of the 1909-14 average compared with a mid-March index of 280 and with 107 for the 1935-39 average.

Prices paid by farmers for production materials and cost of living items, including interest and taxes, continued an upward trend which has been under way for many months.

The index for these prices in mid-April was 230 per cent of the 1909-14 average compared with 227 in mid-March and 128 for the 1935-39 average.

This advance in the index for prices paid pushed farm parity prices slightly higher. Parity prices are theoretical standards used by the government in determining levels at which it will support prices of farm products.

Increased prices paid by farmers occurred primarily in feed, clothing and building materials, although the bureau reported that "prices of nearly every group of products bought averaged somewhat higher than the final figures for March 15, based on quarterly reports from more than 16,000 merchants."

Leading the general decline in meat animal prices, hog prices received by farmers fell $2.10 a hundredweight in the month to an average of $24.30. Butterfat prices fell 5 cents to 69.5 cents a pound and milk prices were lower because of seasonal production increases. Wheat prices averaged 4 cents lower and rye was off 34 cents a bushel.

Checks To Needy Old Age and Blind Being Mailed

"Warrants to recipients of Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind and Aid to Dependent Children were being mailed from the State Department of Public Welfare offices in Austin, Texas, Monday, May 5 and will continue as rapidly as possible according to Mrs. Ruby L. Piester of the local office of the State Department of Public Welfare. Mrs. Piester states that this means recipients will receive their warrants for May a few days later than normally. This delay was occasioned by a delay in the Federal Congress on a deficiency appropriation making Federal money available to the states.

Mrs. Piester stated that the state money was available and that warrants were written in accordance with the usual procedure but that the mailing of such warrants could not begin until Federal matching funds were received by the state.

Mr. John H. Winters, Executive Director of the Texas State Department of Public Welfare announced that checks were being mailed to 194,042 persons on the Old-age Assistance rolls who are to receive $55,612,586 this month. This is an average Old-age Assistance payment of $28.92. 5,276 blind persons were to receive $166,241 with an average payment of $31.51. 13,935 families representing 35,169 children are being paid $584,488 this month. This is an average of $41.94 per family."

Non-operating railroad unions are demanding still another raise of

$568,000,000<sup>00</sup> a year

You would foot the bill!

Look out! There's another big railroad wage demand headed your way!

The non-operating unions alone—whose members do not actually operate trains—are demanding a flat increase of 20 cents an hour. These demands would cost the railroads of the country five hundred sixty-eight million dollars a year!

Last year these employees had an increase of 18½ cents an hour. This was their third major wage increase since 1939. Their average weekly pay has gone up 75%, as against a cost-of-living rise of 54%.

Since 1939, railroad wage and material costs have gone up more than three times as much as freight rates, and five times as much as passenger fares. That is why in 1946, with the largest peacetime traffic in history, the net income of railroads went down to the equivalent of only 24% of the net property investment.

—special payroll taxes on railroads have recently been increased; —and passenger traffic has declined.

Where Would the Money Come From?

We can't pay out what we don't take in. And we are not taking in enough now to meet present costs and to complete the improvements in service that you need and that we want to give you.

What About 1947?

Even with the recent freight rate increase, preliminary figures indicate that the railroads will make only about the same low return in 1947 as in 1946. This will be because: —the wage increase made in 1946 will be in effect for all of 1947;

SEPARATE PULLETS AND MALES EARLY

When chicks are 5 to 6 weeks old, or whenever you can easily distinguish the cockerels, it is time to separate the sexes. Remove the male birds and place them in a separate enclosure, finishing them off as broilers. Retain only those cockerels needed for breeding purposes.

Removal of the males gives pullets additional room and eliminates crowding at the feed troughs. They will do better as a result. And the poultry raiser realizes a saving in feed costs.

Keep in your flocks a medium and heavy breeds only one male to every 15 females. For Leghorns and other light breeds the ratio should be about one rooster to every 20 hens.

Keep the best cockerels for breeding stock. To pick the best males, here are some guide rules to follow:

High quality chicks are the cheapest in the long run. If you haven't already purchased your chicks, plan to get the best available at your hatchery.

Look for good feathering. Mark all chicks which have long pinfeathers or tail feathers at 10 days of age.

Keep for later selection the largest cockerels at 8 to 12 weeks of age.

Retain all cockerels that are free of standard disqualifications and have no body deformities. Look for points on the sides of the comb and feathers on shanks, toes and between the toes. Get rid of any with these disqualifications. Eliminate the runts and slow feathering birds.

When your pullet flock begins laying, do not house males and females together until the production of hatching eggs is started. It is best to produce market eggs which are infertile.

By Congressman ED GOSSETT

Insofar as action on the floor of the House of representatives goes, most of this week was taken up by a long, sincere, and oft-times bitter debate on the Greek-Turkish Aid Bill. The bill finally passed the House by a vote of 287 to 107. It provides $400,000,000 to bolster the economy of Turkey and Greece. American experts will supervise the use of this money. Some of it will go for military supplies and equipment. The avowed purpose of this bill is to prevent communism from over-running these two strategic nations. All congressmen from Texas voted for the bill. Many members supported the bill with their fingers crossed, hoping rather than expecting it to accomplish the desired objective.

My personal feeling is that the base on which foreign policy is determined should be greatly broadened. That is, congress, as the representatives of the people should be consulted before foreign policy is determined. In my opinion, Secretary State Marshall and President Truman should call into conference the Foreign Affairs Committee of the House, the Foreign Relations Committees of both houses, and a definite foreign policy and program should be outlined and agreed upon before declarations of policy are made either by the President or by the Secretary of State. If a congressman did not approve of the Greek-Turkish Aid Bill, he could hardly oppose such a measure after it had been advertised to the world as American Policy. To defeat this bill at this stage of the game or to back out on it would be to cut the ground from under the Secretary State and to lend encouragement to the aggressors and expansions within the Soviet Union. Opponents of this bill weakens the United Nations. Proponents contend that the United Nations has no money or force to act in this matter at this time, and that while we can not rely upon it, for the and support the United Nations, we can not rely upon it, for the present at least, for peace and security.

May 18-25, 1947 Naval Reserve Week

Often in peacetime, we Americans are inclined to forget the price of peace. There seems a tendency to forget that those same elements of strength that obtained victory will continue to be factors in obtaining a just and permanent peace for all concerned.

That is why the new Naval Reserve will be a vital force in the lives of every American. That is why every naval reservist will be in truth, a factor in world affairs.

Our post-war economy could not, of course, stand the burden of a Navy as large as the one we possessed in 1945. Yet it is clear that this force for good must somehow be kept in being. The logical solution then, is a small compact ready fleet, backed up by a large, well-trained Naval Reserve.

The new Naval Reserve provides excellent educational opportunities for the men and women who will compose its ranks. And these people will in turn contribute to their communities by reason of their self-improvement and group readiness.

Our efforts to obtain this needed support for the regular Navy will reach their peak during Naval Reserve Week, commencing May 18. Our goal, the enrollment of 11,48,000 Reservists will be achieved if our citizens lend to the drive their active and wholehearted support.

Picture OF A HAPPY FAMILY

Yes, sir, this is the picture of a happy family—one whose home will always be on the street... in the neighborhood where Daddy and Mother want their youngster to grow up—a happy family whose present and future are both protected by Southwestern Life Insurance.

It's the picture of a family that didn't stop with building a home. Mother and Daddy both realized that unforeseen circumstances beyond their control might stop Daddy's check. They wanted the mortgage on the home paid, in any event... an income for Mother... a retirement "nest egg" with a guaranteed return. They wanted baby's education assured, all the way through high school and college. So they arranged a program of protection through Southwestern Life Insurance.

How about the future financial picture of your family? Have you guaranteed it? Southwestern Life protection can be patterned to fit your needs, at a cost so reasonable you never miss the few dollars a month you put away to make it possible. Start your family on a plan of guaranteed protection today.

FACING THE FUTURE WITH HOPE

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benediction and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding religious character. State-men today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you"—form a combination for good.

Women's Society Meets At Church Monday, May 12

The Women's Society of Christian Church met at the First Methodist Church, Monday afternoon at 2:30, with Mrs. S. S. Reger, presiding.

Mrs. M. W. Majors, leader, presented Mrs. H. W. Prinzing, program chairman. Mrs. M. C. Tucker and Mrs. A. H. Bazell, followed by Mrs. Prinzing, gave very interesting papers on "The Christian Way in Race Relations."

It was decided to change the time of meeting from 2:30 to 3:00 p. m. through May and June. There were eighteen members in attendance.

Miss Blanche Butler spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Edna Butler in Rhome, Texas.

George Byerly spent the weekend with his parents in Jasper, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Hill left last week for Pasadena, Texas, where they will make their home.

Mother's Day was a good day for all of our church, even though many visited away to be with Mother, or loved ones and friends.

We climbed back up the ladder in attendance in Sunday School, 367, and one of the largest morning crowds we have had, outside of the revival, for many months.

Throughout the day we had good services—there were two additions to the church, for which we are all grateful.

The Training Union attendance just a little off—maybe several were afraid of the cloud, as many of us have become "Cyclone-Shy", and it may not be a bad habit—from the way they are striking other places.

If you were absent last Sunday we urge you to be in your place next Sunday in all the services. If you were present let's repeat it and keep our attendance records up.

The Men's Bible Class had about the best average from April with an average of 48 each Sunday in April. Many of the other classes did well.

Remember you have a great big welcome at the First Baptist Church every Sunday for every service.—Welcome to you.
—Pastor.

He is a Freshman in Abilene Christian College and is majoring in Bible.

Guests in the home of Mrs. W. T. Vance last week end included Mr. and Mrs. E. E. McNeill and daughters, Maurine and Myrtle of Fort Worth; Sheriff and Mrs. Hammet Vance and baby Carol and Mrs. Nita Petyjohn of Wichita Falls.

Miss Dorothy Boyd, student at T. S. C. W., Denton, spent Mother's Day with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boyd.
