Band To Sponsor "42" and Bridge Party Thurs. 13th

The Band will sponsor a benefit "42" and Bridge party at the Town Hall, Thursday night, November 13 at 7:30.

Admission will be fifty cents per couple and pie and coffee will be served. The proceeds will be used to buy instruments for the band. Everyone is urged to come out and help support the band.

A. J. Harris Opens Repair Shop Here

Announcement has been made here this week, by A. J. Harris, long time resident of Burkburnett, that he has opened a repair shop in the Gilbert building on Avenue D, Wichita Highway.

Mr. Harris is equipped to give car, truck and tractor repairing, welding radiator and battery service. He invites all his old customers and new ones to stop by to see him.

Parents Hosts To Football Boys

The parents of the football boys, will entertain the boys at the Town Hall, Monday night, November 24th at 7:30 o'clock. A Turkey dinner with all the trimmings will be served, and plans for entertainment are being made.

The expense will be carried by the parents, and if you have not made your donation, see Squirrel Harris or George Counter, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Mont Bowles visited their son, Mont Jr., and family in Lawton Sunday.

DON'T FORGET to place your order for your Xmas Fruit Cake at Henry's Pastry Shop.

Reserved Tickets For Friday Night Game Available

According to Ralph Davis, Supt., there are still some single game reserved tickets for Friday nights game available. These seats are in the North part of Section B, between the 40 and 45 yard line, and are priced at 85c.

Mr. Davis says the tickets must be purchased between now and game time at the High School building. They will not be sold after game time.

Valley View To Have Pie Supper November 19th

The annual Pie Supper of the Valley View, Oklahoma community will be held at the Valley View Church, Wednesday night, November 19.

The public is cordially invited and the proceeds go to the Xmas Fund.

Cotton Ginning Season Near End

A check with both gins and farmers in this area reveals that cotton gathering is about over. Yield per acre has been somewhat better than expected, ranging from one-third bale upwards, with staple of excellent length and quality.

Total number of bales handled by both gins to date is 1,994, with perhaps 95 per cent of cotton already harvested.

Fresh Pies baked daily at Henry's Pastry Shop.

Burk Meets Olney Here Friday Night

A game that will likely determine the winner of District 12-A foot ball will be played at Burkburnett stadium Friday night when Olney invades this city.

At present Olney leads the district standing, with no losses or ties. Burkburnett is in second place with no losses and only one tie. Seymour was the team that held the Bulldogs to a 7-7 tie.

With exception of one or two of the regulars out of the line-up, Burk will be at top strength.

Best indications are that the Olney club will go into the game with no regular player out for injuries.

Burk Stomps Crowell, 20-6

The strong Burkburnett Bulldogs ran up three touchdowns in the first half and then viciously fought off a Crowell Wildcat last half rally to win a 12-A district game at Crowell Friday night, 20-6.

The last half went scoreless with great defensive play on both sides. Crowell drove down to the Burkburnett 4-yard line late in the game only to lose the ball on downs. Star defensive player for the home team was left tackle Thomas Templen, whose play time after time halted potential Burkburnett scoring threats.

The Bulldogs opened the wild first half scoring after driving down nearly to the goal line and losing the ball on a fumble. But Burkburnett came right back after Crowell was forced to punt and with a strong ground game eating up yards drove to the 2 where Brown plunged over.

Burkburnett blocked a Crowell quick kick on the Crowell 30 a few minutes later and drove to their second score with Fewin carrying over from the 5.

In the second period Crowell recovered a Burkburnett fumble on their own 30 and with Dalton Biggerstaff quarterbacking and carrying the ball went for a touchdown without losing the ball.

Just before the half, however, Burkburnett put together a series of plays that went deep into Crowell territory. A 15-yard penalty put the Wildcats back to their 15 where Burkburnett substitute back Askins scampered around right end for the game's final score.

Odd Fellows And Rebekahs To Sponsor 42 Party

Monday night, November 17, the Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodges will sponsor a "42" party at the Town Hall. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Uncle Sam Says

"What's in it for me?" Any time you buy something or invest money in something you should ask this question and get a gilt-edged answer. Supposing a U. S. Savings Bond could talk—it would say: "Here's what's in it for you. When you exchange your money for me you get for yourself these things: future security, safety of your investment, profit ($4 for $3 in 10 years), the means to take advantage of opportunities, a nestegg to handle any emergencies." Tickets on Sale for Lions Minstrel To Be Presented Here Dec. 3rd-4th

Tickets are already on sale for the Lions Club Negro Minstrel show to be presented December 3rd and 4th at the Palace Theatre, according to Milton Archer, who heads the ticket committee.

Each Tuesday night Lions are using the program time for rehearsals on their funny show. Other than the funny end men, many specialty numbers are being worked into the show by production manager Louis Littlefair.

Three performances will be given. The first will be Wednesday night, 3rd, beginning at 9:30 and two on Thursday night, 4th. The shows Thursday night will start at 7:30 and 9:30. A picture in keeping with the spirit of the occasion will be shown on the screen for each performance.

General admission tickets, good for any one of the three shows, are going at 40c each. Reserved seats for 65c each must be purchased for given performances, and will not be honored except for the date printed on the ticket. All prices include admission plus tax.

Coming Election to Decide City Limits

An election has been called for the 2nd of December for the purpose of voting on a proposal to extend the city limits of Burkburnett.

Roughly, the area would include:

North limit to remain as at present.

East, the limit would extend 300 feet East of the Oklahoma Cut-off, starting at River Road and extending one block South of Wichita Highway.

From that point West to the LaSalle property, including LaSalle Street, then West on road in front of Preston Dairy to road running North and South in front of Knauth farm, thence North to a line running West from city limits North line.

Mrs. W. T. Vance has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. E. McNeill in Ft. Worth; a granddaughter, Mrs. Wanda Knowles at Ervin, and Mrs. Edith Goodlett in Dallas. Mrs. Vance visited these places while her son, County Sheriff Hammett Vance was in Dallas taking 32nd degree in Masonic work.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Customary roll film and a simple box camera can yield appealing pictures like this one, taken in sunlight with an exposure of 1/50 at f/11.

What About Film?

ONE of our readers—new to photography—writes to ask what he should know about film. "I realize that good pictures must start with good film, but the question is, what type of film?"

The answer to that, of course, depends on what he intends to photograph, what kind of camera he will use, and what type of lighting he expects to use. Even so, the problem of the right film is not too complicated.

Let's start by saying that the average snapshotter uses a "chrome" film—a roll film which gives excellent pictures on sunny days with a box camera. Such a film generally has a speed which makes it suitable for use with either a box or folding camera. It produces good negatives of average subjects in sunlight with an exposure of approximately 1/50 of a second at an opening of f/11.

However, there are faster films available—films which provide good negatives with half the exposure necessary with the more common types of film. Such fast films are particularly helpful for action photos where high shutter speeds must be used; for shots at night where a minimum of exposure must be con-

A BIT OF A MUDDLE

How frequently we run into a situation where shortage and surplus is muddled, because of inefficiency some place along the line. It therefore affects our national economy. How many times we have had goods at hand, a crying need, and no transportation for it. A hungry world and a surplus of grain without enough storage. A call for gasoline, lack of transportation and storage utilize what we have. A report of a committee that the country is over-built and yet families all over, trying to find homes. We could follow this line further. But, take the recent statement from the scrap iron and steel industry, that "a scant five weeks' supply of iron and steel scrap remains in the hands of dealers and consumers." Yet, it is pointed out, more than a million jalopies lie rusting, the car "graveyards" that dot the landscape, and there are, on the average, about 500 pounds of castings contained in each car. We have a jumble of rusted old cars as an eyesore, yet those trucks and cars could be a relief to the steel industry. We would be benefitting industry and removing a litter of scrap from the roadside, if we could get rid of these unsightly graveyards.

MORE PUBLICITY

One of the arguments about sending more food to Europe and cutting down on our family supply here, is that we don't get any credit for our help. They feel we owe it to them, says a critic, and mentions what a to-do was made when Russia sent in to France an amount of wheat. Parades and slogans and tributes. We unloaded hundreds of times the same amount and there was scarcely a ripple. Perhaps we should give the U. S. more publicity, show Europe that it is the effort of American families, that is back of this countries foreign aid. It isn't just a matter of government in high places, it is the case of the people reducing their own supplies, of saving bread, doing without meat, to help European families. It is a personal interest, a banding together of Americans for helping others. What we need is to have Europe realize that this is the way to work at democracy.

Keep A Flock Record System

One of the best ways to cut costs and avoid unnecessary expense in the management of a laying flock is to use a flock record system. If you do not already have one, why not start a system now?

A simple bookkeeping system will suffice. About the only requirements are that your figuring is accurate and that entries are kept up to date to avoid the omission of certain items.

Cut Production Costs
By keeping daily records, the poultryman not only is able to see how much money his flock is making, but also, by studying the record, he can probably visualize more easily how production costs could be reduced and how he should plan for the future. Flock owners who keep no records run the risk of letting their expenses get out of hand.

The poultry raiser has two big expense items. These are the cost of his chicks and the cost of feed; together, they may account for 90 per cent or more of his total expense. Others which must be calculated are cost of medicine, litter, insurance, fuel, miscellaneous supplies, and depreciation on buildings and equipment. Another is bird mortality — and this presents the greatest opportunity for boosting profits. Mortality of 15 per cent is considered about the average in many sections. If this could be cut to 10 per cent or less the cost of production per bird would be reduced and income would be greater.

Increase Laying
If your birds are laying, care of eggs and the rate of egg production are the important factors. Do what you can to keep egg production from falling, and establish a system for handling and storing eggs in such a way as to maintain the highest possible quality between the time they are hatched and when they are taken to market.

How you manage your flock will probably determine whether your expenses are greater or less than average. Be alert for every opportunity to spare your costs. A flock record book will help you do this.

Local Girls Pledge TSCW Literary Club

Misses Dorothy Boyd and Wilma Jean Boyd have finished the informal initiation period and are now active members of the Delian and L'Allegro literary and social clubs at the Texas State College for Women.

Delian and L'Allegro are two of the eleven clubs on the campus, and the total number of girls pledged by the organization is 279.

Chores imposed upon the pledges during the initiation period included the usual "maid service" for the old members, carrying loaded suitcases to classes, and counting all the steps on the campus. Some of the clubs required pledges to appear in class without make-up and wearing large ribbons, corsages, and signs.

The purpose of the club is to stimulate interest in literature, art, and music, to promote social activities for members, and to encourage the achievement of high scholastic standing.

Miss Dorothy Boyd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Boyd, is a sophomore Journalism major.

Miss Wilma Jean Boyd is an English major and is a second term sophomore. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boyd.

Mrs. J. M. Gower Hostess To Bible Class Thursday

The home of Mrs. J. M. Gower on Magnolia St., provided an exquisite setting, when she entertained members of the Ladies Bible class of Church of Christ on Thursday of last week, with a delightful covered dish luncheon.

The party rooms were attractive with floral and fruit arrangements placed at advantageous points. Particularly outstanding was an all white arrangement of chrysanthemums on the mantel reflected by a large mirror. The dining table laid with a lace cloth was a decorative addition as was the breakfast nook.

Lunch was served buffet style with Roy L. Foutz, minister of the church and teacher of the class, offering the invocation.

Following the social hour, the group went to the church building, where they were joined by others who were unable to attend the luncheon, for their regular Bible Study.

Present and enjoying the hospitality were: Roy L. Foutz, Clem and Danny McClurkin, Mesdames R. P. Reagan, D. C. McNeill, I. E. Harwell, S. E. Daniel, Clark Gresham, Wm. Willhoit, C. N. Ellis, Roy L. Foutz, N. H. Harris, Bertha Smith, T. A. Banning, M. R. Hewell, S. C. McClurkin, D. E. Barnhill, W. E. Goins, John Netherlain, J. M. Matthews, Miss Nola Faye Willhoit, and the hostess, Mrs. J. M. Gower.

Mrs. Joe Majors Entertains Wesley Bible Class

Members of the Wesley Bible Class of the First Methodist church met November 8th in the home of Mrs. Joe Majors, with Mrs. Reger and Mrs. Melton as co-hostesses.

The president, Mrs. Felty, presided over a short business session which was followed with the Thanksgiving Devotional by Mrs. Reger. Game and contest winners were awarded prizes.

Delicious refreshments were served to: Mesdames Brumley, Rigby, Lepley, Morris, Harms, Bunstine, Felty, Caffee, Wiggins, Anthony, Cauthorn, Hill, Minga, and one guest, Mrs. Bazell, and the hostesses.

Calvary Baptist Church News

Last Sunday was another high point day at the Calvary Baptist Church. Rev. Ray C. Morrow, former pastor, has accepted the unanimous call to be pastor again, and announces that the entire church and Sunday School is laying plans to reach more people for Christ than ever before.

Next Sunday morning, the Sunday School lesson is 1st Cor. 5th chapter. There is a class for every age, with a friendly, competent teacher for every class. Plan now to be present with us. S. S. meets at 10 a. m. Preaching service at 11 a. m. with the pastor preaching on, "What Is God's Salvation, and How Complete is it."

Evening services begin with young people's meeting at 6:30. Preaching and song service at 7:30. Good singing, and the pastor's message "What a Liar Man Is, How True God Is." Come and bring your family and friends. Ray C. Morrow, Pastor.

Local Boy On John Tarleton Basketball Team

Kenneth W. Gibson of Burkburnett, freshman Physical Ed. major at John Tarleton College, is now taking part in early-season basketball drills.

Gibson, smooth-operating pivot man, is looking very good at his center slot. The former high school star has the inside track on a first string center job on Coach Marshall Hughes' well-regarded five.

Horses Born Scene Thieves

Horses are natural born scene stealers. So spoke William Boyd, currently appearing as Hopalong Cassidy in "Dangerous Venture," at the Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday. This is the third in the new Hoppy series produced by Lewis J. Rachmil, and featuring Andy Clyde, Rand Brooks and blonde Betty Alexander.

The Hopalong Cassidy of the screen says that in all his years of picture making he's seldom had to worry about actors stealing scenes in the background.

But with horses it's different. Take Topper, whom I ride, Bill continued. I've got to watch him every second. If I don't he'll be pawing dirt behind my back, or curling his lips while I'm doing an important scene.

10 ways you can help yourself to good telephone service

Telephoning is easy. But more depends on the user than people realize. What you do when making or receiving a call often has a lot to do with how satisfactory that call is. Here are ten suggestions:

- Before you call, make sure of the number. If you're not sure of it, look in the telephone directory, and thus avoid wrong numbers.
- Give the called party time to answer. He or she may be some distance from the telephone. A minute isn't too long.
- Speak directly into the mouthpiece. About an inch between it and your lips is right for best results.
- Move the switch hook slowly up and down to recall or signal the operator. "Jiggling" the hook rapidly often won't cause a signal to come in and is useless.
- Replace the receiver carefully when you have finished talking. A receiver partly off the hook puts the whole line out of order.
- Answer calls promptly. It's courteous to do so and often keeps the caller from hanging up—thinking you're not at home.
- Identify yourself when you call or answer. Not everyone recognizes you by your voice. Telling who you are saves time and sometimes embarrassment.
- Space calls on party lines. If you have a series of calls to make, allow a few minutes between each one so others can use the line to call or be called.
- Keep calls brief on party lines. Other folks on the line will appreciate your thoughtfulness and—who knows—may follow your good example.
- Avoid calling in busy hours if possible. Switchboards are usually busiest during midmorning and late afternoon.

Valuable Information On Adopting a Child

HAVE you often thought about adopting a child and let the matter drop — just like that? Granted the first step is always the hardest but even that one can be easy if you know which way you're going.

The first thing to do is consult the authorized adoption agency nearest you. Go prepared to answer questions—such as kept confidential—about your home life, your marriage and the type of child you want.

Is there a minimum income? No—Farm people for instance have small actual cash income, yet provide most of their needs from the land. Moderate means and good home environment are sufficient.

Single Hair Convicts Murderer of Crime

While criminal investigators can rarely state that a certain hair came from a certain person, a case occurred recently in which a single hair, found at the scene of a homicide, led to the positive identification of the murderer, says Collier's.

After hairs taken from three suspects were found, in a microscopic examination, to be nearly alike in length, diameter and color, they were subjected to ultraviolet light which caused the hair in question and that of one suspect to emit a purple fluorescence.

The glow was produced by aspirin which the man took daily in such quantities that traces of it had worked into his hair.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Meat and Wheat Bode Ill for 1948; Marshall Plan Ready for Congress; Public Backs 'Tough' U. S. Policy

Released by WNU Features. EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.

FOOD PUZZLE Meat vs. Wheat

Domestic food situation in the U. S. is entering a critical stage, with two aspects standing out in sharp opposition to each other:

1. The government, determined to ship 500 million bushels of wheat to Europe by next June, is campaigning to save a major portion of that amount by cutting down on the feed consumption of cattle, hogs and poultry.

2. The supply of meat is going to be considerably less than it has been and the demand will be greater. Meat prices are expected to go much higher in 1948.

There is no danger of a bread or food shortage of any kind this winter because of the nation's bumper wheat harvest. The pinch, if it comes, will appear after the middle of next year, precipitated by a currently threatening drought and failure of the winter wheat crop.

Meat, which right now is a little cheaper than it has been because more animals are being slaughtered, will continue in great demand next year because consumer buying power will remain high.

The supply, however, will be less. The agriculture department estimates there will be only 21.5 billion pounds of meat produced in 1948, compared to 23.2 billion pounds this year.

Meat, which right now is a little cheaper than it has been because more animals are being slaughtered, will continue in great demand next year because consumer buying power will remain high.

Time Out From Crises

Paul Ramadier, French premier, chats with a bed-ridden tot during a tour of a Paris hospital. Possibly feeling that he would like to be in a hospital himself, Ramadier is sorely beset with economic crises and cabinet crises, as well as a more recent political crisis brought about by the sudden ascendancy of Gen. Charles De Gaulle's Rally of the French People party.

supplies (food) would be free; recovery supplies (machinery) would be financed with loans.

3. Sums from the U. S. would be de- crease each year as recovery progress was made.

4. The plan would be administered in the U. S. by a new government agency and in Europe by an organization representing the 16 nations which drew up their estimate of needs at the Paris conference.

GET TOUGH: U. S. Approves Soviet leaders, who cry "warmonger" every time an American diplomat splits an infinitive, are gravely in error if they suppose there is any major cleavage between the American public's views on Russia and the state department's so-called "tough" policy toward the Soviets.

PLAGUE: Egypt Stricken Cholera, the dreaded black plague is spreading so swiftly in Egypt that a total of 6,000 dead has been predicted by year's end.

LOW EBB: Russian Trade Two years after World War II, trade between the U. S. and Russia wartime allies, has dwindled to the extent that shipment of U. S. goods to the Soviets is expected to reach the lowest point in 10 years before the end of 1947.

THE BIBLE TODAY International Uniform Sunday School Lessons By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D.D.

SCRIPTURE: II Peter; Jude; Luke 2:40-52. DEVOTIONAL READING: Matthew 5:3-16.

Building Character Lesson for November 16, 1947

WE SHALL need to read carefully Second Peter if we are to profit most in the study of Sunday's lesson. Peter tells us:

"According as his divine power hath given us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue."

We may partake of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust. That, I realize, is very difficult for us to understand, and yet it is within the grasp of every boy and girl, every man and woman, in all the world.

In addition to Second Peter, we are asked to read Jude and Luke 2:40-52. The passage in Luke tells how Jesus grew and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom; and the grace of God was upon him.

As Jesus Grew

WE HEAR a great deal today about juvenile delinquency. The question everywhere arises, What can we do to prevent juvenile delinquency?

We have the answer in Sunday's lesson. As Jesus grew in wisdom and stature and in favor with God and man, so can every youth in America grow into strong and beautiful manhood and womanhood.

The parents of Jesus, we are told, obeyed God in doing for the Child all that they were commanded to do.

The Love of God

"KEEP yourselves in the love of God," Jude 21. There is the formula for building Christian character.

This business of building Christian character is based on a formula—keeping within the circle of God's love.

It is just as essential to have the proper nourishment in building Christian character as in growing a fine ear of corn. Progress is not accidental. It is the result of right thinking, right behavior, right purpose. Only in the love of God can the young life find the nurture for Christian character.

Christian Mathematics

TURN again, if you will, to Second Peter, and read his mathematical formula by which Christian character is realized:

"Add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, and to knowledge temperance, and to temperance patience, and to patience godliness, and to godliness brotherly kindness, and to brotherly kindness charity. For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Old-fashioned stuff, someone will cynically observe. Aye, old-fashioned it may seem, but only from this old-fashioned formula can character be built—Christian character.

And what is it that our needy, frightened world is asking for above everything else today? For the certitude of hope that is found only in hearts that are steadfast upon God.

We may smile at Peter's mathematics, but his formula is the only hope for United Nations, the only hope for world peace, the only hope for civilization.

Jude's Benediction YOU have read, I hope, the brief Book of Jude, only 25 verses. You have followed his pungent, cogent argument. You have followed his exhortation. And now you come to his benediction—a very fitting climax for Sunday's lesson:

"Now unto him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, to the only wise God our Saviour, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and evermore. Amen."

FARM FACTS
WORTH

Q. How long must hens be confined in a broody coop, and after they are cured of setting how soon will they lay again?

A. Tests conducted at Massachusetts State College show that an average of six days in the broody coop is necessary to break hens of setting, with individual hens taking from three to eight days before they are ready to be released. After release from the broody coop, it takes an average of seven days for a hen to resume laying, with individual hens varying from three to thirteen days.

Q. What is the most common cause of stiffness in pigs when there is no actual disease present?

A. Such stiffness is usually due to a nutritional deficiency, chiefly calcium, and occurs among swine that are fed almost entirely on grain. Grains are low in calcium even though they contain plenty of phosphorus. Feeding a supplement to give hogs a balanced diet will usually overcome this trouble, and a good supplement can also save grain—an important item to consider in the present conservation program.

Q. What is the proper age for breeding Jersey heifers?

A. Heifers should be bred by body size rather than age, according to experiments conducted at the Ralston Purina Company's Research Farm. Purina recommendations, by breeds, are as follows:

- Jerseys 500 lbs.
- Guernseys 550 lbs.
- Ayrshires 650 lbs.
- Holsteins 750 lbs.
- Brown Swiss 750 lbs.

Q. Is there an effective treatment of swine-crypsidias in turkeys?

A. Yes, the U. S. D. A. has announced that penicillin is apparently highly effective against the swine-crypsidias organism in turkeys. Experiments showed that penicillin reduced mortality of infected birds to 10% while mortality of untreated turkeys was 100%. Suspended in peanut oil, the drug was given in doses of 20,000 units four times, with one-day intervals between doses.

From where I sit ... by Joe Martin
Prissy's Got a Man (Maybe)

Yesterday Sis Martin, our librarian, found an article cut from their file copy of the Clarion. When she compared it with another copy that I gave her she found it was my column on "How to Keep a Husband Happy."

Nothing unusual about that. Except the last person seen reading the paper was Prissy Hoskins (our town's proverbial Old Maid)!

Well, if Prissy has finally got a man, more power to her. And more tolerance to both of them ... because that's what my column was about: Tolerance of a taste for old hats, old friends, and mellow tolerance on the husband's wife's tastes and habits.

From where I sit, I grudge Prissy taking ping from the Clarion. I to hint that if she'd just she'd get my thoughts of firsthand. And in return her to a glass of beer.
