Valentine Day

a sensational event, observed since the English
as first written and has a wide range in its exchanging messages and gifts. The fancy of may lean to hearts and flowers, sweet verse and orders, or it may be a comic Valentine that it and pokes innocent fun. The cruel wit of the type "comic" is less popular than it was a few for which we are grateful. This is the day for not sarcasm. There is no age limit for sending ing Valentines. The world can use more of the pid's darts and lover's knots. If you only say it shaped candies that carry "Why Not" and "I
at least say it.

From Boom Town To Home Town by W. A. Roberts

The City of Burkburnett emerged from the 1918 oil boom with acres of shacks, tents and sump holes, along with a top heavy bonded indebtedness acquired shortly thereafter and culminating in 1920 in a sum out of all proportions to its total taxable value. In spite of all this, we have managed to build rather steadily from year to year, until now almost every unsightly boom rubble and rubbish has been removed.

In 1920 there was more than one mile of shacks and shanties on West Main Street. The South side, in the school area, was mostly shacks and tents. There was hardly a tree in sight. All of these areas now are covered with rather desirable bungalows, surrounded by beautiful trees and shrubbery. The business district may look a bit in need of "Face lifting" to you, but imagine what it looked like in 1919 with no paving, no modern buildings of any sort. There has been built since then some expensive Automobile sales and service buildings, a Theatre building, City Hall, Fire Station and Town Hall, three beautiful brick and brick veneer Church buildings, several nice frame Church buildings, a modern High School building and a Grade School building second to none for a town of this size. Scores of nice dwellings have been built replacing shacks
and unsightly buildings. Streets have been paved and improved until we have miles of excellent streets. A Municipal Electric plant is efficiently operated by the city and was made possible by the gifts of the late J. G. Hardin, as were many of the aforementioned public buildings, and churches.

Our citizenship has joined hands on many occasions to make these things possible. In years gone by we have organized clean-up campaigns wherein oil companies, their employees, local business men and all citizens contributed their work, use of trucks and any other thing needed
to clear away the debris incident to an oil boom.
Many tons of old cars, tin cans and what-have-you were hauled away to the Red River and used as riff-raff to prevent flood damage to the highway, and to make this community a better place
in which to live.

There are many accomplishments we might point out for which we may justly be proud, and all has been accomplished in spite of the greatest of handicaps which follow a boom, and in spite of the efforts of those who would tear down for the sole benefit of their own selfish gains. Such people as would contribute their efforts to tearing down for selfish gain, might well be classed as dirt under the carpet and not to be shown when company is present. Then we can or should silently clean out from under the carpet when no one is looking.

There are so many good things to be thankful for in our community that they completely overshadow the unpleasant and unsightly that may still exist. There are adequate Food stores ready to serve your every food need with available merchandise of the best quality. Dry Goods Stores with stocks that would be a credit to many towns of much larger population. Automobile Sales and Service agencies to furnish service to most all makes of cars. Drug Stores featuring all the latest merchandise in their line and furnishings all the service usual to such stores. Barber Shops, Beauty Shops, Cafes, Shoe Shops, Dress Shops and every service one may need is adequately provided.

What more could one want for modern day living. We have the best water in North Texas the best people on earth, and no matter what kind of weather one may prefer, it will be forthcoming if one waits long enough. Just a good Old Home Town that has survived and been built out of and from a Boom Town.

Car Stolen While Man Visits Doctor

It's really something when a man can't pay a visit to his Doctor without having his car stolen in broad day light. Last Saturday afternoon about 5 o'clock
Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hosenmyer of Grandfield, Okla., were in town to receive treatment from Dr. Shores. The keys being left in the car, was too big a temptation for the thief, who got in and drove off. As yet no word had been received by officials
as to the whereabouts of either
the car or the driver.

Equipment in the department

tachment, a steam iron and elec-welcomed into the club.

Burk Still Gripped By Severe Cold

There is no let up in the weather man's predictions for continued cold in this area. Freezing or near freezing temperatures have been evident for the past month.

Wednesday morning the temperature dropped from 37 degrees at 7:00 a. m. to 20 degrees
just after noon. Low for Wednesday night was 16 degrees above zero, with freezing rain falling intermittently.

Thursday night the ground was covered with one inch of sleet and snow. Temperature at 10 A. M. was 18 above.

Streets and sidewalks, as well
as highways, are extremely slick and hazardous. A thin coating of ice covers everything. Traffic is moving very cautiously, with only emergency trips being made.

Farmers and ranchers are kept busy feeding stock and keeping the ice chopped from watering places. Livestock not in barns and exposed to the weather is beginning to suffer from prolonged cold.

Chickens Win At Oklahoma City

Floyd Thompson was honored recently when his chickens won prizes at a poultry show in Oklahoma City. With 10,000 birds competing for honors, this is the largest poultry show in the United States.

Mr. Thompson entered three Buff Minorcas and won two first places and one second place,
which would be exceptionally well in any show.

Camp Fire Girl Training Course Here Next Week

All mothers who are interested in "what makes Camp Fire Girls and Blue Birds tick" are invited to attend the Camp Fire Training Course to be held next Tuesday and Wednesday, February 17 and 18, at the First Methodist Church. The Burkburnett
District Council of the North Central Texas Area Council of Camp Fire Girls is sponsoring this course.

The course, conducted by Miss Elizabeth Owen, Executive Director, and Miss Mary Sue Tipps
Field Director, will be divided into sessions—morning sessions from 10 to 12 noon and afternoon sessions from 1 to 2:30 p. m.

Sessions have been planned to give as complete an orientation of the Camp Fire Girls and Blue Bird program as possible. Games, folk dancing, sing-songs, creative arts sessions, camping tips and a brief history of the National Camp Fire Girls organization will be some highlights of the program. Program planning for Blue Bird and Camp Fire leaders will also be featured.

Mothers whose daughters are anxious to form a Camp Fire or Blue Bird group will find this brief training course beneficial and informative, and are invited to attend all the sessions that they can.

the High School for the year
1948-49. I. C. Evans was also re-

Short was re-elected as football coach and teacher in the High school for a period of two years.
Chas Vick was also re-elected

Davis, superintendent, is still in effect.

Burk Ball Team Wins At Harrold

Last Saturday the Burkburnett basketball boys went to the finals in a tournament at Har-rold against some stiff competition.

The first win was over Chillicothe, 48-16. Next to fall before the Bulldogs, and probably the hardest fought game of the tournament, was Valley View, 53-36.

For the final game Burk drew South Lockett and lost by a score of 48-34. The boys brought back a beautiful trophy for their efforts.

Boy Scout Finance Drive Is Success

This week W. W. Carter received a letter of congratulations
from Carlos Baker, Assistant Scout Executive, for the work
he did as head of the local scout finance drive in going over the top for funds.

Some contributions were slow
in coming in and for a time it was doubtful if Burkburnett would reach the amount hoped for.

Mr. Carter extends his thanks to all workers who helped put the campaign over.

Drive To Repeal Tax On Oleomargarine

A determined effort to repeal the margarine tax which forces the housewife to color it herself is under way on Capitol Hill.

A dozen Senators and Representatives who have introduced tax repeal bills will lunch on Tuesday with a group of women's club leaders to plan strategy to get a repeal bill out of the House Agriculture Committee and onto the House floor for a vote.

The law now provides that each pound of uncolored margarine is taxed a quarter cent by the Federal Government. But if the color is put in before the housewife buys it at the store, the tax is 10 cents a pound. High license fees for both manufacturers and retailers, which tend to discourage the sale of margarine, also would be repealed by most of the measures introduced in Congress.

Forward March

In a recent statement Secretary of Interior Krug went to some length in warning the Nation that it "must do a better job of housekeeping with its natural resources or it will find the cupboard bare." He said that we must reclaim more soil, find more petroleum, save more coal and in general make better use of the things we have. The United States is losing 500,000 acres of top soil a year—enough to support 175,000 persons, observed Krug, and he explained that this great loss is caused by the deprivations of wind, water—and man.

Mr. Krug says that new oil fields must be developed, and that synthetic fuels must be brought into general use to fortify oil security. He tells the public that the phosphate-bearing strata of the Western States represents the greatest known reserve in the World.

The Secretary goes over the entire situation including the sugar, tobacco and coffee resources of Puerto Rico, which he doesn't describe as very hopeful. The Virgin Islands and Alaska have plenty of natural resources, but nothing much is being done to reap their harvest.

One thing must be said about the Krug report and that is that it is the most intelligent summing up of the possibilities for using our natural resources that has come from any quarter during the last year.

On Capitol Hill in Washington, Congress jumps up and down from one political debate to another. Up to the middle of February the record of Congress was "getting nowhere fast."

WHAT TO DO IF PRODUCTION DROPS

When your laying flock's daily production begins to slip unexpectedly, what's the answer? Often, disease or parasites must get the blame, but in many cases the drop in production is due to other less apparent factors.

Are They Eating Enough

Perhaps the most important of these factors are inadequate diet and feeding inefficiency in the layers themselves. It's not uncommon for birds which appear healthy in every respect to suddenly enter a laying slump without visible cause. In such a case one may usually suspect that the fowl either are not eating enough to keep up the production pace or that, assuming their ration is adequate, they are wasting feed internally.

Getting the slackers back into production often can be accomplished by changing feeding practices. It may be that crowding is your problem. If that is the case install extra feeding space. The same is true of the waterers; no hen will lay many eggs without an ample supply of water. The feeding of moist mash once a day often has the effect of increasing a bird's feed consumption.

Try A Tonic

Layers with poor appetites often can be induced to eat more by feeding a commercial appetizer in the mash. A stomachic drug of this type helps to tone up the fowl's digestive system and by supplying several needed elements. Thousands of poultry raisers use tonic conditioners regularly with good success.

Whatever the cause, a mid-winter laying slump can have costly consequences. It will pay you dividends to exert every effort to keep the flock in production.

REN-O-SAL FOR FASTER GROWTH
Chicks raised on Dr. Salisbury's REN-O-SAL grow faster, mature sooner, and lay eggs earlier. Yes, REN-O-SAL'S growth-stimulating benefits increase the poultry earnings of flockowners. You, too, can boost your poultry profits by using this popular drinking-water medicine. Just mix two REN-O-SAL tablets in each gallon of drinking water. REN-O-SAL in larger doses also controls cecal coccidiosis.

WHAT KIND OF A TOWN WOULD THIS TOWN BE?

A town may be likened to a chain, and "a chain is only as strong as its weakest link." "Am I contributing to the strength or weakness of my community?" is a question every citizen may profitably ask himself.

The individual cannot be responsible for his neighbor's activity, but he can keep a close check on his own actions. Such actions should add to the strength of his home town.

"If you want to live in the kind of a town, like the kind of a town you like," you'll have to be a builder with vision. Your town will progress as you grow in outlook and endeavor.

The municipal light plant is a community project worthy of your loyalty. If you want a prosperous place in which to live, remember — "It isn't the town, it's you."

Study Club Meets With Mrs. King

Fine Arts day was observed in the University Study club on Wednesday with a program on Music presented in the home of Mrs. S. A. King. Mrs. L. E. Harwell presented the speakers, Mrs. R. H. Henry and Mrs. Virgil Brookshear, Mrs. Henry discussing "The Great Master of Music," and Mrs. Brookshear giving a paper on "Music in the Home."

The hostess served an attractive refreshment plate. Plans were laid for a covered dish luncheon to be held at the home of Mrs. R. P. Reagan on February 18th.

E. E. Clack was confined to his home last week with the flu.

Mrs. R. L. Gragg spent several days last week visiting her daughter and husband in Chickasha, Oklahoma.

FARM FACTS
WORTH KNOWING

Q. What can be done for roosters having frozen combs? Is it all right to keep these roosters for breeders?

A. There is little that can be done for frozen combs, although smearing the comb with petroleum jelly is often recommended. Where frozen combs are a problem, flock owners often resort to dubbing the males—that is, cutting the combs off. This should be done in warm weather. Frozen combs will usually heal within two weeks, depending upon the severity of freezing. The fertility of the roosters will not be affected, although these birds will be inactive while suffering from the frozen comb condition.

Q. How many pigs should be marketed from each litter in order to make a profit over production costs?

A. Long-term records from the Research Farm of the Ralston Purina Company indicate that when farrowing two litters per year, the returns from five pigs per litter are required for payment of production costs of the entire litter, and six pigs must be marketed to make a profit. Marketing seven pigs per litter increases the profit 100%.

Q. What causes cows to have chapped or cracked teats?

A. This condition usually occurs if the cow's teats are wet when she is turned out of the milking barn after milking. The chief cause of this is wet-hand milking, although in some cases enough moisture will be formed on the teat by a milking machine. There are a number of good commercial ointments on the market to keep teats soft and cover the cracks, or carbolated petroleum jelly has proved to be a good home remedy.

Q. What is the treatment for blackleg in calves?

A. Usually calves die so quickly that treatment doesn't have a chance. Vaccination for prevention is recommended when calves are between the ages of four and six months. Two and three-year-old animals are rarely affected by this disease.

A MILLION MILES of telephone wire

PROGRESS REPORT ON TELEPHONE SERVICE
This year we will install a million miles of wire in telephone cables in the Southwest.
These cables will connect telephones to switching equipment in the telephone office. Inside the lead cable sheath are hundreds of tiny wires, and it takes one pair of those wires for each telephone line.
Most telephone cables are full today. All wires are in use serving as many people as possible. New applications keep coming in almost as fast as we can install new cables to connect telephones. That's why we need more cables practically every telephone exchange.
Even a million miles of wire isn't enough. We need to connect and place cables to connect you—so that one pair of wires may serve many as four families.
If you're one of those waiting, you may be sure that we're working to get and place cables to connect your phone as soon as we can. We don't want to keep anyone waiting for telephone service.

HOW TEXAS INDUSTRIES PUT NATURE'S RESOURCES TO USE FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND

IF Cotton HAD A SQUEAL...

Pork packers take pride in saving "everything but the squeal." The cotton industry, too, is making valuable by-products of everything produced in the field. The wonders of chemurgy have given new values to the cotton seed and the stalk, and new promise to the fruits of Texas soil.

This is adding worth to Nature's resources... putting them to work for mankind. This is practical conservation.

It's the same way with natural gas, for gas would be worthless if it remained unused in the ground. It takes companies like United Gas—gathering, processing, transporting it... making it available for use—to give it value. A natural resource thus conserved furthers industrial development, creates jobs, benefits every family in Texas.

COTTON
Texas is cotton capital of the nation, producing 1,650,000 bales on six million acres. Texas cotton farmers received over 278 million dollars for their lint and more than 49 million dollars for their seed in one recent year. Yes, and thousands of other Texans earn their living in the handling or processing of cotton. This is Free Enterprise at work—private capital and private citizens working together to bring prosperity to Texas and all her people.

NATURAL GAS serves more...
costs less than ever before.

WEEKLY NEWS ANALYSIS Gandhi's Death Leaves India Bitter; House Prepares Tax Slash Debate; GOP Leaders Confident of Victory;

Released by WNU Features. (EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysts and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

DEATH: Gandhi:

Mohandas K. Gandhi, India's champion, peacemaker, patient saint, was dead at the age of 78—a victim of an assassin's bullets. He died barely two weeks after Hindus, Sikhs and Moslems alike, overjoyed at the possibility of peace that Gandhi's latest fast had procured for their dominions, were shouting "Gandhiji ki jai" (long live Gandhi) in the streets of Delhi. It was a violent ending for the mahatma who all his life had preached and practiced a philosophy based on an abhorrence of violence. A Hindu from Poona approached him during a prayer meeting and fired three shots into his body from close range.

To India and to India's Hindus to whom Gandhi had devoted his life, his death was a bitter experience and a shock that left the already turbulent sub-continent in an even more complete state of turmoil. After the partition of the country into the dominions of India and Pakistan Gandhi had been the man of strong spirit to whom all three opposing factions, Hindus, Moslems and Sikhs, had looked for guidance. And in his last fast, of five-day duration, he had given it to them. He had provided the three clashing religious groups with a foundation for peace. His action had tended to narrow the schism between Moslems and Hindus, had lessened the talk of war.

Whether his death would undo the good that the last days of his life had accomplished remained, for the time being, an open question.

TAX SLASH: Debatable

All signs pointed to an income tax cut of one kind or another this year as the house of representatives clanged the bell for the opening round of crucial, election-year debate on that much-belabored issue. Joseph Martin (Rep., Mass.), speaker of the house, started things off with the assertion that an income tax slash is in the bag. He conceded, however, that it might not run as high as the 6.5 billion dollars provided in the Knutson bill, now up for debate.

But in the end, he said, the Republican congress would override a presidential veto "of the tax bill we send to the White House." In order to beat the veto that Mr. Truman might slap on the tax bill, however, the Republicans would have to line up a few Democrats to vote on their side to make the necessary two-thirds majority. And to bring enough Democrats around, it was thought, the senate Republicans would tone down the bill.

Rep. Robert Doughton (Dem., N. C.), ranking Democrat on the tax-fixing ways and means committee, pointed out the obvious fact that Republicans would have to trim the size of the cut to get anywhere. Otherwise, he said, congress will uphold the veto "and we will have no tax reduction at all."

As far as Knutson's 6.5-billion-dollar measure is concerned, GOP congressmen were touting it on the grounds that it would spur business, increase production and relieve the price-pressure on taxpayers in addition to leaving the government enough revenue for an 11-billion-dollar payment on the public debt in the next two years.

Democrats, of course, take the diametrically opposed view, holding that a tax slash that big would force the government to borrow money, threaten national security and hinder the European recovery plan upon which so much of the current phase of U. S. foreign policy is founded.

HEADLINERS

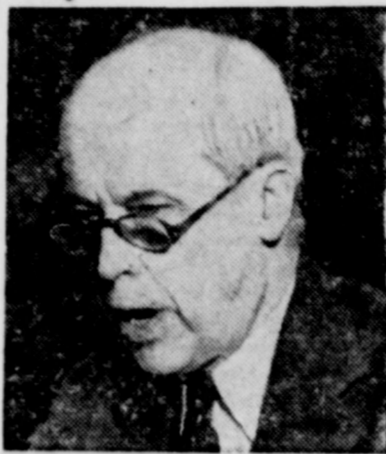

IN LOS ANGELES... Film actor Allen Jenkins (above) booked on suspicion of drunken driving, maintained that his cat, Smiley, was doing the driving, stoutly asserted, "I just went along for the ride."

IN MEMPHIS... Henry K. Buck, railway terminal superintendent who donated free cinders to the city to neutralize icy streets, was fined $206 for making too much smoke.

IN GREEN COVE SPRINGS, Fla. ... G. B. Mobley, who sank a 30-foot shaft through the town's main street in search of four million dollars in pirate gold, stopped digging, sifted for gold dust.

IN CLEVELAND... Mrs. Adeyn M. Schweiz complained in a divorce petition that her husband, a shoe store proprietor, made her pay cash for her shoes.

He's in Favor

It isn't only loyal Democrats who are lining up to express their views in favor of the Marshall plan. Norman Thomas, perennial U. S. Socialist leader, also endorsed the scheme in his testimony before the senate foreign relations committee. Then, in a biting statement, he added that he did not like: (a) commodity speculators, (b) Herbert Hoover, (c) Henry Wallace and (d) the Truman doctrine.

NO BLOC: 'No Need'

When Moscow's official Communist party newspaper, Pravda, declared editorially that it was opposed to any federation of eastern European states it signalled the disclosure of an interesting development in Russia's relationship with her Balkan satellites.

The idea of such a federation, similar to the union of Western Europe proposed by Britain's Bevin, was put forth by Georgi Dimitrov, Communist premier of Bulgaria and endorsed by Marshall Tito of Yugoslavia.

Dimitrov said that the eastern European nations in the Soviet orbit intend to form a federation of states as allies to Russia when the time is ripe, but first, he added, they would organize a customs union. Prospective members were to be: Bulgaria, Albania, Romania, Yugoslavia, Hungary, Poland, Czechoslovakia "and even Greece."

But Pravda answered with an emphatic "no." And Pravda's rejection of the idea meant that Stalin himself (who founded the paper) was administering a public hand-slapping to Dimitrov for thinking of it.

"The editors of Pravda," the statement said, "consider that these countries stand in need of not a problematical and far-fetched federation or confederation, nor do they stand in need of a customs union. What they need is consolidation and defense of their independence and sovereignty by mobilization and organization of internal popular democratic forces."

That meant simply that Stalin and his petlboro did not want the Balkan nations ganging up, even as ostensible Russian allies. The Soviet regime is perfectly content to let the Communist party in each nation control and direct its destinies. With the existence of a federation, the Balkans conceivably might get out of hand.

Pravda's editorial amounted to a reluctant and tacit admission that Russia has found it practicable and worth while to follow Hitler's old formula for international relations: Divide and rule.

ALLOCATIONS: Steel

Tentative answer to some of the nation's most exasperating shortages came into being when the government's voluntary allocations program moved into low gear with a commerce department request that the steel industry guarantee freight car manufacturers enough steel to build 10,000 cars a month.

How much good this would do was, like steel supplies, an unknown quantity. Present government plans call for concentrating on freight cars, petroleum equipment, farm machinery and building materials. Steel leaders previously had agreed to cooperate in the voluntary program.

Major emphasis for the time being will be on freight cars, but the commerce department also plans to describe other key programs it believes will require steel allocations within the next month.

Many government transportation experts believe the 10,000-a-month freight car goal is inadequate.

KEY HARVESTS: For Inflation

Any crop failure this year would endanger greatly the fight on inflation, and the size of the 1948 and subsequent harvests must be looked to as the "key" in arresting inflationary trends, Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the President's council of economic advisers said in a Chicago speech.

If there were better than average crop conditions this year, prices would level off, he said.

TRACTOR GAS: Spring Fever

For millions of U. S. families whose homes this winter were ranging from chilly to downright cold, the most pressing problem was how to get enough fuel oil right now, while farmers, at least in the Midwest, were doing their worrying over how to get enough gasoline for their tractors come spring.

That there would be tractor gas shortages in some areas was an agreed fact; and the oil industry was beginning to make preparations to keep farm tractors and food production rolling this spring in the face of a tighter gasoline supply.

Concern over tractor fuel was reported particularly high in the rural Midwest because fuel oil for home heating is being produced at the expense of gasoline.

"We have been reviewing the possibilities closely," said a spokesman for one of the big companies. "Gasoline will be tight but not critical, in our judgment. Shortage spots may develop but we don't expect any severe conditions."

More than 90 per cent of commercial farms in the Midwest today are dependent in whole or part on tractors for power. If the gasoline or distillate supply should fail, millions would face starvation. Gasoline and oil demand in agriculture literally doubled between 1941 and 1947.

Farmers already are being warned to conserve gasoline, and National Petroleum council has taken note of the impending spring demand by recommending that refineries switch back from fuel oil to gasoline production within 90 days.

LITTLE MAN

And What Now?

To the senate banking and currency committee came a representative of America's beloved "little man" to talk of inflation and ask the question "What now?"

Economists may define an inflationary condition as an excess of demand over supply or a disproportionate amount of money and credit in relation to exchange, but to Cyrus J. Waud of Camden, N. J., inflation simply means that his $50-a-week salary can't take care of his wife and six children.

Waud, a cannery worker, told a story familiar to millions of his cohorts across the nation: The endless, insufferable rise in prices; the hand-to-mouth struggle to keep even with the implacable economic circumstances which gradually were beating him down.

WAUD AND FAMILY 'We're not living...'

With the dispassionate bitterness of a good U. S. citizen who knows that it is within his rights but not within his power to have economic freedom and comfort for his family and himself, Waud summed it all up in the 1948 "little man's" tragic cliché: "We're not living, we're only existing."

FARM FAMILY: Changing

Mr. American Farmer is not in a class by himself; he is subjected to the same influences as his city cousin and is tending to become more like his urban relative, two sociologists have disclosed.

When he acquires a college education, a higher income and culture, he has fewer children. And paved highways, radios, movies and push-button agriculture are making farmers more like city dwellers, including the tendency to smaller families.

George W. Hill and Douglas G. Marshall, University of Wisconsin and University of Minnesota sociologists, arrived at those conclusions recently reported in the Journal of Farm Economics after studies of selected counties in Wisconsin, Illinois, Iowa, Minnesota and New York.

"Farm families who should be the most able to provide their children with social and economic advantages are the very ones who are having the fewest, if any children," Hill and Marshall said.

"The trend in farm family fertility is stark evidence that farm people are just as ready and willing to accept new 'social' ideas, ideas that are influencing their biological behavior."

Germ 'Flypaper'

One of the latest developments in this century of scientific whing dings is a bacterial flypaper to keep rooms free of disease germs.

It is a chemical that can be put on floors, blankets or curtains to catch and hold tiny organisms, including those which cause colds, when they settle out of the air. Unlike flypaper, it doesn't kill, but it does keep germs from circulating around the room.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons By LOUIE D. NEWTON, D. D.

SCRIPTURE: John 14:25, 26; Acts 2:14, 3:1 to 4:31; Galatians 5:22-26. DEVOTIONAL READING: Ephesians 6:10-20.

Power of Holy Spirit

Lesson for February 15, 1948

TWO decades ago, the famous preacher, Rev. Reginald J. Campbell, declared, "The 18th Century may be characterized as the Century of God the Father; the 19th Century as the Century of God the Son; and we are praying that the 20th Century may be experienced as the Century of the Holy Spirit." That was a brave and hopeful prayer. May we claim the same hope.

Dr. Newton

"These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you." John 14:25, 26. Go on to read Acts 2:1-4; 3:1 to 4:31; Galatians 5:22-26 and you will have the Scripture passages for Sunday's lesson, with Ephesians 6:10-20 as the devotional reading.

PETER ACTS BRAVELY

IN THE passage in Acts we have the picture of Peter and John about to enter the temple on the Sabbath, when suddenly they find themselves confronted by a sick beggar. What would they do with him and for him? He was asking for money.

Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but such as I have give I thee, in the Name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk!"

The lame man stood up, leaping and walking and rejoicing, and went into the temple with Peter and John. Only the power of God can do such mighty works. Peter was not afraid to tackle the man's needs, since he relied upon God's wisdom and strength.

WHY PETER WAS BRAVE

PETER is often pictured as a very quick-tempered person. He was usually the first to speak in every situation. He was the leader of the group—a natural leader of men. But Peter did not assume to meet the poor man's need in his strength. Only "in the Name of Jesus."

When we forget self and rely upon the Holy Spirit for direction, we are enabled to meet and master any situation. Juniors will do well to remember these words, "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, saith the Lord of hosts," Zechariah 4:6.

Junior boys and girls can meet life's tasks in the same assurance in which Peter dealt with the lame man. If we rely upon the Holy Spirit.

SECRET OF CHRISTIAN POWER

"YOU shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you." Acts 1:8. That is the secret of the Christian's power. It does not originate elsewhere. It is God's gift to those who implicitly trust in him.

This great truth is particularly appealing to intermediates and seniors. Young people are keenly sensitive to the times in which they live. We live today in an hour of unprecedented power—atomic energy! But all of the marvels of modern science have not been able to give young people the sense of mastery. Rather, we are afraid. The scientists themselves tell us that this is history's most precarious age.

Only when the Holy Spirit is regnant in our hearts can we possess the power of which Paul is writing in Galatians, when he says, "But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance."

WHEN WE HAVE THAT POWER

WHY, then, should we ever be weak, when we may always possess that power? This is the most searching question for any Christian. The answer will lead us to certain inevitable admissions. We become weak spiritually when we forget to pray, when we forget to read God's word, when we allow the interests of this world to blind our eyes and deafen our ears to the reality of God's presence.

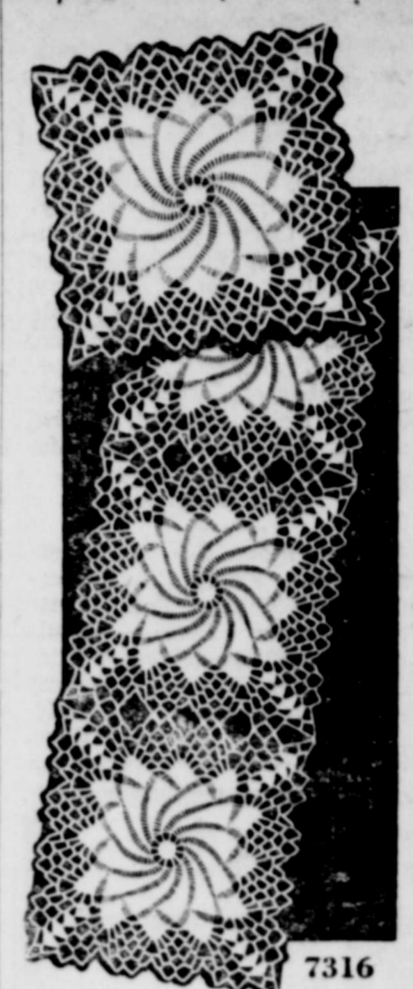

The Holy Spirit will dwell within us, if only we will welcome him. He will not come unbidden; he will not remain unwanted. He cannot be made secondary. Either he guides or surrenders the reins to us.

Our lives are spiritually strong and healthy when the Holy Spirit governs. Our work is effective, our words are compelling. We speak not our wisdom, but the wisdom of God. We go not in our strength, but in his strength.

Make these pinwheel squares for doilies or scarf. Pattern 7316 has directions for square.

Our improved pattern—visual with easy-to-use charts and photos, and complete directions—makes needlework easy.

Fold a dishcloth twice to form a square, then crochet a simple edge around it with bright thread. Presto!—a washable pot-holder or a cheery table mat.

When disconnecting electrical appliances from outlets, do not pull on the cord. Grasp the plug itself firmly and pull it free.

Keep the family sewing machine covered when it is not in use to protect it from dust.

To cut up raisins for baking, use a pair of old scissors which have been dipped in hot water.

When planning to add a room to the house, don't change the location of the bathroom unless you want to get into the expense of moving extensive plumbing. Another thing to watch is the building line. It's so easy to encroach upon your neighbor's property if you are not careful.

Kayrene Davis Is Five Years Old

On Wednesday afternoon February 4th, Kayrene Davis was honored with a birthday party in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Davis. The home represented "Candyland." Signs were placed outside directing the guests to Candyland. The dining table was centered with a birthday cake topped with five candles and one end of the table held a toy house representing Candyland. The fence around the house and a tree in the yard was made of candy and gum drops.

The guests had been sent keys before the party, and when blindfolded, tried to open Candyland book by pinning the key as near as possible to the key hole. Bee Ann Gilchrist won the prize. Other birthday games were played and pictures were made. Kayrene opened many lovely packages and refreshments were served to 22 guests and the little honoree. After the refreshments, the guests passed around Candyland and each was given a lollipop and a candy cane from the Candy house.

Those present were: Bee Ann and Linda Gilchrist, Carolyn Clement, Joyce and Reba Fields, Irma Ned Riley, Eloise Morris, Diane Brookshier, Margaret Franks, Shirley Smith, Pat Kay Inlow, Charles Morris, Grady Grizzle, Eddie Sullivan, Barney Fudge, and Mesdames Riley, Brookshier, Fields, Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Collier George and the honoree, Kayrene and her mother, Mrs. Davis.

Hardin Club News

The Hardin Home Demonstration club met Wednesday, February 4th at the home of Mrs. J. C. Muller for an all day quilting with a covered dish luncheon at noon. The house was called to order for a business meeting at 2 p. m., with the president presiding. After a song and prayer, roll-call was answered by 16 members and one visitor, Mrs. Celo Muller. Reports of different committees and recommendations were read. Mrs. Bert Lepley had charge of a ten minute recreation period. A resolution was made for the members to quilt two quilts each month this year.

Recent Bride Named Honoree For Shower

Thirty-four hostesses complimented Mrs. John Ralston, the former Wanda Burns, with a bridal shower in the parlor room of the First Baptist Church, Friday, February 6th.

The party room was beautifully decorated in the bride's chosen colors of blue and gold. The blue hyacinths and blue dutch Iris as well as the huge gold baskets of ivy, gave the guests a breath of spring as they stepped inside, out of the cold night. As a background for the honor guests, Wanda, Mrs. Joe Burns, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Claude Reed, the groom's mother, who were presented corsages, hung a huge lacy and glistening heart upon which suspended wedding bells, the chosen theme of the evening program.

Miss Katherine Beckham graciously presided at the bride's book. About forty guests registered.

Gold punch and lovely tea-cakes, iced with blue, were served by Misses Gloria Minnick and Betty Ruth Goble.

Mrs. Willard Mills and Mrs. Jack James were presented in a duet, "Serenade of the Bells," accompanied by Miss Mamie Browning. A quartet of girls, namely Misses Vivian Suttles, Ruth Preston, Nathalie Foster and Christene Suttles, were presented laden with school books and singing "School Days", then "Those Wedding Bells are Breaking up that Old Gang of Mine." One by one, a quartet of young men broke up the musical gang, who tossed their books aside. The young men were Wayne Lax, Willard Mills, Jack James, and the highlight of the evening was when the groom himself appeared as the fourth in the quartet astonishing the bride to the delight of all present.

The gift presentation was left in the capable hands of Carolyn Clement, dressed as a miniature bride and Jon Evans, miniature groom. They sang "Some Sunday Morning," as they presented the gifts to Wanda and Johnny.

Death A Minute ...
From Heart Ills

One person dies every minute in the United States due to disease of the heart and circulation, declared Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. Deaths from diseases of the heart and blood vessels are three times as high as cancer, six times as high as accidents, eight times as high as pneumonia, and eleven times as high as tuberculosis.

Heart disease is no respecter of age. It is the leading fatal disease among children between the ages of 5 and 19. Rheumatic fever and rheumatic heart disease cause almost five times as many deaths as infantile paralysis, whooping cough, diphtheria, scarlet fever, measles and cerebrospinal meningitic fever combined. Rheumatic fever causes 40 per cent of all heart disease at all ages and 90 per cent of all heart disease in children.

The American heart association has named the week of February 8-14 as National Heart Week. This week will emphasize through many avenues this and other basic information about heart disease and rheumatic fever. Knowledge is the strongest weapon in the fight.

The physicians in your community are doing more than their share in combating the ravages of these diseases. Won't you enlist the support of your friends and neighbors in the fight against the greatest destroyer of American lives? Send for information to the Texas State Health Department, Austin, Texas.

Ladd's Newest Film
His Most Exciting

According to Alan Ladd, his current Paramount picture, "Wild Harvest", due to arrive Sunday at the Palace Theatre, is the toughest and the roughest picture he's ever made — and he's been starred in some that are plenty rugged, to say the least.

An action-crammed drama of wheat harvesting that depicts the adventures of a combine crew from the Texas Panhandle to the Canadian borders, Wild Harvest co-stars Ladd with Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan. It features Dick Erdman, Allen Jenkins, Will Wright, plus every known stunt man in Hollywood, the latter to add realism to the fight scenes.

Even the love interest is tough, as lovely Dorothy Lamour portrays an ambitious, unscrupulous girl who sets her sights first and always for Ladd, but marries Preston to get even, after she has been rudely jilted by Alan.

In addition to a wild dancehall free for all and a slug fest with Preston, Ladd, as leader of a combine crew, figures prominently and athletically in such action scenes as a wheatfield fire in which he orders his combines driven into a coulee to escape the flames; a wild automobile chase in which Ladd deliberately wrecks and explodes one of the huge combines to effect a road block; an argument scene with Dorothy Lamour, during which he receipts for a couple of hard slaps from the infuriated Dottie and several other smaller fights in one of which Ladd is hurled bodily through a plate glass window.

Frank Clement was returned to his home Saturday from the Wichita Falls General hospital. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Boswell of Stockton, California are the proud parents of a baby girl, Gayla Ann, born February 9th at 3:00 a. m. Mr. Boswell is well known in Burkburnett, having attended the local schools. Mrs. T. R. Hupp of this city is the proud grandmother.

SLED DOG TEAMS SERVE MANKIND

Indispensable in Arctic Regions for Transportation Over Land, Sea-Ice

In a world where all forms of transportation have been brought to a high state of speed and perfection, there are still sections of the globe where the colorful sled dog team reigns supreme, states the Gaines Dog Research Center, New York City.

Sled dogs are still considered to be the only reliable means of transportation over land and sea-ice in the Arctic regions. Eskimos, trappers, traders, mail-carriers, explorers, police and missionaries all depend upon and use sled dogs for travel. The Army has successfully employed sled dogs for airplane salvage operations, rescue missions, and for normal travel and freighting. In the early days of World War II, the Army tested dog teams against three million dollars' worth of snow vehicles, and found the sled dog team indispensable for transporting supplies and equipment, and carrying on ambulance service over terrain where motor vehicles can not operate and in weather when aircraft is grounded.

A fine dog team is more than just a group of dogs. It is a hand-picked working unit of dogs which are matched in gait, size and stamina. The training starts at six months of age, when one or two youngsters are hitched with an older, experienced team of dogs and are taught by their example. The young dogs soon learn that they must keep their proper place in the team, must pull a fair share of the weight, and that the lead dog is the boss.

There are four distinct breeds of sled dogs, the Alaskan Malamute, the Eskimo, the Siberian Husky and the Samoyede. All are popularly called "huskies," but the name is applied properly only to the Siberian breed. While all four breeds do the same work, they vary considerably in abilities and characteristics.

There probably is no more dramatic story of the North than that of the heroic serum dash from Nenana to Nome, Alaska. A severe epidemic of diphtheria broke out in Nome in the winter of 1925, and the entire supply of antitoxin was completely exhausted. An appeal was sent out by radio for serum to be sent to the stricken city, but because of raging blizzards no aircraft could make the trip. A sled dog driver named Gunnar Kasson volunteered to make the over six hundred-mile dash with the serum. His lead dog, a Siberian Husky named Balto, was hitched with a team of twelve other dogs and the dogs and their driver set out in a raging blizzard. Under the most adverse weather conditions, a distance of 665 miles was covered in 5 1/2 days, a record for speed which still stands. Today Balto is immortalized by a larger than life-sized bronze statue in New York City's Central Park.

Methodist CHURCH

T. HERBERT MINGA
Pastor

At the meeting of the Board of Stewards on Monday evening plans were formulated for the raising of money for the Methodist Youth Camp which is being built at Bridgeport. This item was included in our budget for the year, but because many persons did not increase their pledges we have a deficit in this important item. Shortly letters will be mailed to members of our church along with a bulletin explaining this worthy project.

Much interest is being manifested among our congregation in the observation of Lent. During these days let us not forget to practice some form of self denial, to undertake some special endeavor of unselfish service, and to spend more time in personal devotion.

If you did not come to the Church School and to the worship services last Sunday, let nothing hinder your attending this coming Sunday. Our church is important, and if we neglect it, we fail in making our lives what they should be. Attend church every Sunday during Lent. You will be welcome at the Methodist Church.

Mrs. B. H. Alexander, Jr., suffered a fractured foot in a collision at Tenth and Holliday in Wichita Falls Wednesday morning.
