FATHER'S DAY

Sunday, June 20 is designated as Father's Day. This is a sequel to Mother's Day, since Father should come in for his share of affectionate attentions, as well. The purpose of this day may be for commercial reasons, as so many of our "special" days and weeks are, but to pay tribute to the millions of those who are the heads of our American homes, is an obligation where money is no factor. Most Burkburnett fathers are embarrassed with the fuss and ado of the occasion, but they still like it.

Fatherhood is a challenge to the best that is in a man. His responsibility is the care of the family, the maintenance of the home, no simple, easy job in any generation. Many years ago, the relationship between father and children was built more on a basis of law and order. The authority of the parent, the obedience to the parents will was adhered to with firmness. Naturally this must be observed in families today. However, fathers are making more earnest efforts to bring companionship, mutual understanding, sharing interests and occupations, with their children. The authority, the obedience, is still there, but by investing time and even trouble in doing things as a companion with children, the bonds of family life are strengthened, and what better investment can a man have than this.

A WOMAN'S PLACE

Time was, when women either married or single, were ostracised by society if they entered the field of business. Their's was to sew fine seams, study music or china painting, prepare themselves for the delicate art of homemaking, leading protected, secluded lives that gave unto man the rights of the rigors of the world of trade. Ladies didn't go into the realm of business, indeed if ever true it was then, that a woman's place is in the home. The passing years have changed all that. Women became active in the professions, becoming teachers, then as the scope widened, entering the business of men, engaging in all lines of industry. Women have been highly successful in many lines of endeavor, scaled political heights, brought feminine hands to work in factories. Today's woman has assumed the position of wage earner along with the man.

Marriage has been the goal for many women who wished to remove themselves from the wage-earner class. But, as strange as it may seem, married women today, outnumber the single women, with paying jobs. The U. S. Bureau of Census, gives proof that the husband is the sole provided in only three-fifths of the households. Since 1940 there has been a fifty per cent increase in wives working. This is supposed to improve the standards of living in the homes, but yet we have been told that much of the juvenile delinquency problem rests upon the lack of parental guidance in homes where both parents are employed. So it becomes a subject for readers to discuss and decide.

GOOD FLOCK HEALTH PAYS

A healthy environment in the brooder house and on the range gives your growing birds a better chance to develop into profit-making layers in the fall and winter. So guard the health of your young stock and you will enjoy the benefits of increased egg yields a few months from now.

Worms Are A Menace

One of the commonest health hazards in poultry raising, especially for a growing flock, is the worm menace. Intestinal worms are an economic factor, no matter what is the age of the flock affected. They are a particularly costly factor when the birds are in the growing stage. Heavy worm infections in birds six to ten weeks of age slow down growth, cause emaciation, and sometimes are responsible for the death of a few fowl. Worms create many culls and may have the effect of reducing the future layers' capacity for producing eggs.

To allow worms to multiply and severely damage the health of a growing range flock is to permit the loss of a large percentage of fall and winter eggs.

Keep After Worms

Keep after worms constantly. While birds are on the range, enforce all of the recognized rules of sanitation. Frequent removal of filth and regular moving of shelters, feeders and waterers will

PREVENT POX WITH VACCINE

For assured immunity to fowl pox or fowl laryngotracheitis, vaccinate your growing birds when they are 6-12 weeks old. Use Dr. Salsbury's dependable, economical vaccines. Vaccines cost you little, prevent heavy financial loss later when birds reach market or laying age. Available in 100- and 500-dose sizes.

Camp Fire News

Camp Letoli, operated by the North Central Texas Area Council of Camp Fire Girls will open for the first session of the 1948 season on Sunday, June 20. This will be a two-week period and will be followed by two-one week sessions, closing on July 18. The camp is located at Lake Fannin Ranch, north of Bonham. Registrations are still being taken and girls do not have to be members of the Camp Fire Girls or Blue Birds when there is room.

A staff of qualified trained counselors has been selected by the camp committee. Miss Elizabeth Owen, Area Executive Director will have charge of the camp. She will be assisted by the counselor staff, including members of the professional Camp Fire staff in this area, Miss Mary Sue Tipps and Miss Sadie Beth Tevis.

Red Cross Water Safety Instructors will have charge of the waterfront each day for the regular swimming classes. Girls will enjoy horseback riding, handcraft, outdoor cooking, overnights, archery, nature lore, games and sports, folk dancing, music and dramatics.

The Blue Birds, girls seven, eight and nine years old, and the seniors will each have separate units where activities will be planned to their own age group interests. Many all camp activities are planned each year such as picnic, minstrel shows, talent nights, scavenger hunts, worship services on Sunday and Council Fires.

Chartered buses will take all girls to Lake Fannin on the opening day of every session and will bring a group back to Wichita Falls on the same day.

Shirley Ann Britton has already registered for the first two week session and several girls from Burkburnett will be going the last two weeks. Those who have not registered are urged to do so immediately. Camp bulletins and registration cards are available from Mrs. Tom Britton, Mrs. Jack McClain and Miss Faye Willhoit.

Lovely Ceremony Unites Popular Burkburnett Couple

Miss Jessie Ruth Preston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Preston, and Curtis W. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Smith, were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at four o'clock. A lovely white archway, artistically entwined with woodwardia fern and white Esther Reed Daisies, formed a beautiful background for the ceremony, which was directed by Rev. T. Lynn Stewart, pastor of the church. Baskets of White Gladiolus flanked the archway on both sides against background of white and green palms and fern. An effective grouping of candles completed the setting. Gladiolus and white satin ribbon marked the sections reserved for the families of the bride and groom.

The musical presentation which preceded the ceremony was offered by Mrs. Melvin Gragg, who played Schubert's Serenade. Mrs. Gragg also furnished accompaniment for Mrs. Willard Mills, vocalist, who sang "If I Could Tell You and Grief's I Love Thee." Mrs. Gragg remained at the piano to play the professional from Wagner's Lohengrin, to give a muted interpretation of Debussy's "Clare de Lune," as the couple exchanged vows, and to play the recessional by Mendelssohn as the wedding party left the church.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white satin designed with a delicate lace yoke. The long sleeves of the lace formed points over the hands. The skirt featured a peplum which extended to form a short train. The fingertip length veil of illusion cascaded from a bonnet halo of the illusion which was interspersed with pearlized orange blossoms. Selected as Something Old and Something Borrowed was a ring belonging to Miss Mary Sweet. She further carried out tradition by wearing the sixpence in her shoe. She completed her costume by carrying a bouquet of florette of white gladiolus with garlands of white tuberose, with streamers of white satin.

Miss Beth Brookshead attended the bride as maid of honor. She was attired in a dress of blue taffeta designed with a lace yoke extending to short sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt.

Complementing the gown were long lace mitts and a halo of yellow carnations. Her bouquet was of the same flowers.

Attending as flower girls were little Misses Patsy Preston and Mary Read, a niece and cousin respectively, of the bride. They wore identical dresses of yellow and blue organdy and carried nosegays of blue and yellow daisies.

C. O. Smith, Jr., served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Brack Preston, Jr., brother of the bride, and Willard Mills. Preceding the ceremony, Bill Browning and Nayland Smith, brother of the groom, acted as candle lighters.

The reception following the ceremony was held in the home of the bride's parents. Peonies and Gladiolus were used in decorating the reception suite. In the dining room, the refreshment table was an interesting picture with its cover of pink organdy over a cloth of white. Garlands of white satin ribbon were caught at intervals with dainty little nosegays of spring flowers. Miss Gayle Preston presided at the punch bowl which graced one extremity of the table, while Mrs. Harold Preston and Mrs. Shelby G. Read directed the serving of the three tiered cake which was adorned with roses and a miniature bride and groom. Miss Grace Preston secured the signatures of the guests at the register. Other members of the house party were Misses Mary Sweet, Mary Alice Dorsey, Mamie Browning and Mesdames Bill Short and Willard Mills.

Immediately following the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Smith departed for a short wedding trip, the latter traveling in a smart blue gabardine suit, pink blouse and white accessories. Her corsage was of white gladiolus. Upon their return, they will establish residence in Burkburnett, where the groom is engaged in business with his father.

The ceremony united two well known young people, both of whom are graduates of Burkburnett High school. Mrs. Smith is a 1948 graduate of the local High school where she was valedictorian of her class and also very active in all school activities. Upon his graduation from high school, Mr. Smith attended A. & M. College at College Station and Hardin College at Wichita Falls.

Out-of-town guests for the occasion included the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Preston and daughters Joy, Charlene and Patsy of Ackerly, Texas; Miss Mary Dorsey of Big Spring; Miss Mary Sweet of Espanola, New Mexico; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dunn of Walters, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Baber, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Longnecker, Mrs. L. L. Leissler, Maurine Leissler, Mrs. Florence Johnson, Mrs. Lucy Clopton, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Young and sons, David and Stephen, Mr. Bud Kolter and son Skipper, and daughter, all of Wichita Falls, Texas; Mrs. John Martin, day, Texas.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

How to Live Longer

Someone asked Pappy Miller last week how he stayed so spry at ninety. Pappy told him:

"Well, sir—when I work, I work hard. When I set, I set loose. When I think, I go to sleep."

According to Doc Hollister, that formula isn't far amiss. "Hard work," says Doc, "never wore out anyone before his time, providing he knew how and when to relax."

Doc himself works overtime, with his daytime patients at the office, and his evening calls. And when he gets home he takes it easy with a mellow glass of beer and chats with the missus until it's time to go to bed.

From where I sit, relaxing is a fine art—especially in these tense, fast-moving times. And there's nothing like a temperate glass of beer—enjoyed with pleasant company—to restore that easy frame of mind that one needs after a hard day's work.

Fields Rites June 6th

Normal loveliness will be remembered by friends who attended the wedding ceremony performed in the spacious auditorium of the First Baptist church uniting Miss Iva Jo

Fields and Mr. Charles Goins in marriage, under the direction of Rev. T. Lynn Stewart, pastor. Before a background of banked greenery and potted fern ran a miniature white picket fence leaving an open gateway flanked by two white stately baskets of pastel blue, gold and white lilies and gladiolus. The same flower color scheme blossomed in profusion throughout the improvised garden and glowed softly under the illumination provided by the white tapers placed in candelabra in a pyramid arrangement.

A musical setting was provided by Mrs. Margaret Alexander, pianist, and Miss Christine Suttles, vocalist, who sang I Love You Truly, and Because. Mrs. Alexander continued with the professional from Wagner's Lohengrin, during the ceremony played a muted interpretation of Clare de Lune, and concluded as members of the wedding party left the room with the recessional by Mendelssohn.

Ivan Fields gave the bride in marriage. She wore an original Jeanne Durrell creation in bridal white linen designed with a sweetheart neckline cutwork on net. Long fingerless gloves and halo-bonnet of flower clusters and net completed her ensemble. She carried a white Bible topped with an orchid. Miss Gwendolyn Turner attended as bridesmaid. She wore a dress of heavenly blue, with white accessories and beautiful yellow corsage, a complete complement to the bride's chosen colors.

Mr. Tommy Goins attended his brother as best man.

Immediately following the wedding the bride and groom were honored with a reception held at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Goins. Mrs. Edward Bankhead attended the bride's book to register the guests. Throughout the house were many large arrangements of the bride's chosen flowers and unique was the mantle in the living room whereon the bride and groom's pictures were placed before a colorful flower arrangement and clustered wedding bells.

In the dining room, the refreshment table was an interesting picture with its cover of Madeira and its appointments of silver and crystal highlighting its floral centerpiece drawn by a huge swan with miniature bride and groom in their place of honor atop the tiered wedding cake.

Mrs. Frank Young and Mrs. Mary F. George directed the serving courtesies.

The couple plans to establish residence in Burkburnett after their return from their wedding trip.

Rotary Club

Grady Cantrell was a visitor from the Wichita Falls Rotary Club at the luncheon last Tuesday. Carl Morrison had as his guest, Pat Morrison, also of Wichita Falls.

Alvin Hill gave the luncheon invocation. Morris Bookbinder, program chairman, introduced Judge Temple Shell of Wichita Falls as guest speaker. Judge Shell made a brief talk on Texas History, prior to its annexation to the United States.

Absent members included Tom Britton, Paul Browning, B. Landers, Herb Minga and Gene Robertson.

Next week Tom Boyd will bring the program.

Mrs. G. D. Stacy of Burkburnett and Mrs. Hubert Thompson and daughter of Wichita Falls are visiting Mrs. Stacy's brother, Dewey Chapin and wife in Graham.

Women's Society Meets At Church

Members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church, met at the church Monday, June 14 at 2:30 P. M. for a Christian Social Relations program. The opening song, Just When I Need Him Most, was followed with an inspiring devotional from Isaiah by Mrs. Hugh Jones. Mrs. Henry Prinzing led in prayer. Mrs. D. M. Morris had charge of the program and gave a very interesting talk on Texas State Prisons, and plans and suggestions for a prison reform system by proposed legislation.

During a business session the society voted to send a cash offering for missions to South America. The next meeting will be in circles on June 28th. Mrs. M. W. Majors dismissed the group with prayer.

Mr. B. D. Wagner of San Angelo who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. H. R. Garrett and family, returned to his home Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Troy Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Miller spent Sunday in the A. M. Corder home in Kingston, Okla.

MARKETING with Marjorie

When graduations, engagements and weddings, June is one of the most "entertaining" months in the year. So today I'm going to give you a few suggestions to help you give everyday a party air.

WEDDING RING

Luncheon in honor of a bride. Then I can't think of a more appropriate main course than a ring filled with chicken or a better way to make one than with SUNNYFIELD RICE. This fine rice from the A&P cooks up as white as a wedding gown and as light as a honeymooner's heart. For a luncheon, combine 4 cups with one of these: 1/4 cup peas, 1 cup cooked peas or sliced mushrooms.

WEDDING CAKE

If you're entertaining newlyweds, are still up in the clouds, or just feel at home by serving a light JANE PARKER FOOD RING! This cake is so luscious they'll be fresh from your own oven. Add a personal touch, a top and sides with the frosting I'm going to give you for right now.

ENTICING ICING

Boil 1/2 cup A&P's ANN PAGE SYRUP until small amount dropped in cold water forms a soft ball (238° F.). Gradually pour hot syrup over 1 stiffly beaten egg white, beating constantly. Beat until spreading consistency, and add 1 tsp. A&P's ANN PAGE VANILLA EXTRACT.

IN THE PINK

Is your guest of honor a sweet girl graduate? Serve a salad that looks as rosy as her future! To make it, pare a whole honeydew melon, cut a slice from end, remove seeds, and scoop out center portion. Fill cavity with A&P's SPARKLE STRAWBERRY GELATIN prepared according to package directions, and chill till gelatin is firm. Soften 6 ounces of cream cheese slightly with milk, add a few drops of red vegetable coloring, and frost entire outside of melon. Stud with strawberry halves, slice and serve on greens.

HOW TEXAS INDUSTRIES PUT NATURE'S RESOURCES TO USE FOR THE BENEFIT OF MANKIND

Cooking A TEMPEST IN A TEST TUBE

The chemical industry is making giant strides in Texas. No other industry in the nation is expanding so fast. The development of the chemical industry forms a dramatic example of the way natural resources can be put to use to serve mankind. And natural gas has been of enormous value in the expansion of that industry.

But natural gas, like other natural resources, must be gathered, processed and moved to places where it can be used before it becomes of value to anyone. This is the work of the United Gas companies—converting what might otherwise be a valueless resource into an efficient fuel for hundreds of cities, towns and industries. This is practical conservation, for it creates jobs, stimulates industrial development, and benefits all the families in Texas.

CHEMICAL INDUSTRY

The chemical industry is of vast importance to the security and prosperity of our nation. Its products are going into practically every manufacturing process... its research is opening bright new vistas for the whole world. Here, indeed, is Free Enterprise at work—with private capital and private energies combined for the benefit of all.

Soil Conservation News

Application for help in planning conservation and irrigation work on their farms were received this week by the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District from Roy Munger on 2300 acres, Kempner Estate on 1850 acres and James Cates on 36 acres.

Lee Triggs of the Valley Farm conservation group, has cut his irrigated alfalfa again this week, receiving over one ton per acre. He has 15 acres of alfalfa. This is a good soil improving crop to use in rotation.

Wiley Thomas, of the Valley Farms conservation group, is cutting his alfalfa for the second time. He expects to receive over one ton per acre this cutting. Over one-half of the cultivated land on Thomas' farm is now in alfalfa. He plans to plant the remainder of the farm in alfalfa and pasture clover this fall and next spring. He fertilized all alfalfa land last fall with 20 per cent phosphate at a rate of 200 to 300 lbs. per acre.

Rufus King, of the Kamay conservation group, cut 4500 bales of alfalfa the first cutting on 180 to 200 acres. The second cutting is now being harvested and will yield a good deal more than the first. At present, another tract, or approximately 50 acres of alfalfa is being used as pasture for steers and milk cows. The soil analysis on this farm showed a deficiency of 250 to 350 lbs of phosphate per acre.

He spread approximately 300 lbs. of 20 per cent phosphate on the alfalfa land last fall. All alfalfa land is bordered for irrigation. Running of borders, assistance on irrigation ditches, leveling, etc. was from the Soil Conservation Service assigned to the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District.

Doyle Parmer has received two good cuttings of hay from his first and second year alfalfa. He plans to plant more acreage this fall.

Dewey Steed has cut 4 acres of irrigated white biennial clover for hay. He expects to receive over 1 1/2 tons of hay per acre. Clover is an excellent soil improving crop. Steed, who has an irrigated farm, was one of the first to sign a cooperative agreement with the Supervisors of the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District.

Dinner Guests

Dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Minick Sunday, June 13th included: Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Blanset and sons, Lawrence, Jo Weldon and J. R. of Baytown, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Engleman and son, Miborn, Monterey Crump, all of Ft. Worth; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Vessels and daughters Janie and Nancy Beth of Wichita Falls; J. A. Blanset of Wichita Falls; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Nolen, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Everett; Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Minick and Dean Moxley of South Carolina.

Conservation Pays

In the summer of 1946, Arthur Ramming, then a member of the Board of Supervisors of the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District, contacted some of the land owners adjoining his mother's farm pertaining to conservation work. Since the supervisors prefer that farmers make application in groups adjoining or on the same watershed or drainage area, it was necessary to get several farmers interested in conservation work. The Clara conservation group of farms now consists of 11,193 acres and comprise 14 farms. All farms are adjoining.

The first conservation plan with the soil conservation district was worked out and approved by the supervisors in July 1946. The first conservation work was started in the fall of that year. This group of farms has done the following conservation work: contour planting, 2136 acres; crop residue management, 3285 acres; range properly stocked, 4703 acres; seeding range and pasture, 54; terracing, 66.8 miles; diversion terraces, 12,500 ft.; planting legume or cover crops, 1313 acres; and farm ponds, 6.

At present, 66 per cent of their long time conservation plan with the soil conservation district is complete. Two farms have completed all of the conservation work, they are: W. F. Ramming and Herbert Kfiesing on the C. Birk Estate farm. This conservation group of farms has three tenants that are going ahead with their conservation work as if they owned the farm. They are: Arnold and Herbert Kfiesing on the C. Birk Estate farms and E. G. Muller on the Clara Schultz farm.

Other cooperators besides the ones named above are: Frank Foster, Margaret Holtzen, W. W. Heins, Mrs. L. F. Ramming, Karl Mertins, R. W. Ramming, F. M. Myers, Walter Kasper, Wilbur Prechel and Edward Simons. In this community, there are increased yields of wheat following legumes. The terracing and contour cultivation shows up. There is a definite change in farm landscape at this time of year than yesteryears. The purple bloom of vetch, the lark green color of clover and alfalfa, the strips of corn and small grain can be seen. These farmers are getting results from conservation farming.

Mr. and Mrs. John Smith returned home Saturday after an extended visit in San Antonio.

Salvation In Christ

Lesson last week, under the same heading as above, showed how that salvation is in Christ and that we are saved by faith in Christ. See 2 Tim. 2:10, Eph. 1:3, Rom. 6:3 and Gal. 3:27. Faith, repentance and confession are also essential, and are necessary before one can be scripturally saved, but it remains that it is the act of baptism into Christ. It is the consummation of our obedience to God. We believe UNTO righteousness, Rom. 10:10; we are baptized INTO life, Acts 11:18; we confess UNTO salvation; we are baptized INTO Christ, Rom. 6:3 and Gal. 3:27.

From these scriptural observations, we make the following syllogisms. (1) Salvation is in Christ, 2 Tim. 2:10. (2) We are baptized into Christ, Rom. 6:3. (3) Therefore, we are saved into salvation. Again (1) Redemption and forgiveness are in Christ, Eph. 1:7. (2) We are baptized into Christ, Rom. 6:3. (3) Therefore, we are baptized into redemption and forgiveness. One more. (1) We are new creatures in Christ, 2 Cor. 5:17. (2) We are baptized into Christ, Rom. 6:3. (3) Therefore, we are baptized in order to be new creatures. In reasoning by syllogism, if the major premise is true, then the conclusion must necessarily be true. In the above syllogisms, the premises are true because they are from the Scriptures; therefore, the conclusions must be true.

Again, we ask this question. How is it possible to be saved in Christ, before baptism, when the New Testament teaches that baptism puts people into Christ?

Former Pastor Writes to Star

Greenville, Texas June 8, 1948

Dear John:
 Someone surely has been playing fast and loose with your name. (About the wheat piled here in the streets). I even found it in the Greenville Morning Herald this morning and also heard it on two radio news casts this morning. It brings back some very fond memories of our pastorate there. (First Methodist Church).
 We are starting out fifth year here with a great spirit in the church. Our entire church building is being rededicated and it will be a month yet before we can get back into the auditorium for services. We bought a 7 flat apartment house adjoining the church for Sunday School expansion and are filling it with new classes and departments. Our total finance last year was $53,910, a part of which was put into a fund for a new auditorium. Keep up the good work and come to see us when you are down this way.
 Cordially yours,
 Boyd I DeVore, Pastor

Minga Hears From War-Time Friend

This week Rev. T. Herbert Minga, pastor of the Methodist church, had a letter from a war time friend written Memorial Day. The letter follows:
 P. O. Box 139
 Ft. Collins, Colo.
 Memorial Day
 Dearest Friend, Chaplain Minga:
 On this day, I have been recalling, quite naturally the War days. This day is rather to me a day of recalling those who died the most. Among those, at least to me, you are the foremost. You gave understanding to those who needed when others like myself had not time for them. You gave understanding to those who perhaps, like Fogleman, did not even deserve it. In your chosen profession there must come a deeper understanding than other persons like myself are capable of possessing. There will be sufficient people paying homage to the dead this day, would you permit me to give my respects to someone living who deserves it equally, YOU.
 We have not seen you in so long there is little in common to tell you of. But anyone who would arise from a sick bed to come to my wife's side when her brother was killed shall always have much in common with us.
 Always your friends and admirers,
 Mr. and Mrs. Howard Haworth

Sunday School at ten a. m. with all classes studying the 5th chapter of James—"Corrupt Riches". The Bible is our only text book, and we study it as it was written—chapter by chapter, verse by verse. In this way we get an understanding of each entire book of the Bible. God wrote the Bible for people to understand.
 Preaching services at eleven o'clock. E. F. McCurley, who is conducting our revival services, will speak at this hour. He will have a message of encouragement and instruction for God's people. Come and hear.
 Night services will be on the lawn of the church. This will be the last night of the revival, and Bro. McCurley will be preaching his farewell message to us. You can't afford to miss this service. The sermon subject will be, "The New Heaven and the New Earth."
 Remember, there will be services each night this week, including Saturday night, on the lawn of the Church, unless it rains. In that case, the services will be on the inside. Bro. McCurley has been thrilling our hearts as he opens God's word to us on things to come, and the messages have been a stern warning to those who are not ready to meet God. Don't miss a single night of these remaining prophetic messages. They are timely and scriptural. Good singing with special each night.

"Current In the Bank"

● The great Southern orator, Henry W. Grady, once said, "Cotton is gold from the instant it puts forth its tiny shoot. Its fiber is current in every bank." He could well have added that its real value in dollars and cents in the pocket-book of the cotton farmer depends upon the staple and grade he produces.

The staple of the cotton is determined primarily by the variety of cotton planted. The quality is determined by hereditary factors, weather, and care in picking and ginning.

When the farmer grows a long staple and harvests a high grade of cotton, he wins the blue ribbon of quality, and wherever that premium goes extra dollars in cash go with it.

The State Extension Service and the experiment stations are glad to send you the information you need to grow better cotton—enabling you to look forward to the happy prospect of having more of your own fiber "current in the bank."

The message above is published by this institution in behalf of the cotton industry of surrounding counties in Texas and Oklahoma.

with grain in the Chicago Tribune of June 8th.

We are interested in learning who built the Pneumatic Blower on the trucks loading grain into the streets.

As our line of equipment which you will note from the enclosed catalog is Pneumatic grain handling we are interested in this unit and would also like to figure with your elevator operators on reclaiming the grain back into trucks.

Would appreciate your passing this catalog to such interested parties and thank you for securing the information we seek for us please.

Yours very truly,
The Brady Conveyors Corp.
H. H. Weiss, President

Note: The catalog was a very elaborate publication. It showed conveyors several hundred feet long loading grain in barges on rivers and the sea, made by this company.
