Preston's Dairy Wins Sunday Game

Sunday afternoon at the High school diamond Preston's Dairy had little trouble swamping the team from Addington, Okla.

Ralph Winkles, striking out seventeen men for the afternoon, went the full nine innings. He baffled each batter more than once. Dawson Owen was behind the plate for the Burk boys.

Woods, pitching for Addington, had the Burk boys guessing up until the third inning, when he gave up his first hit. After that they hit him almost at will.

Wichita County Farm Bureau News

From the Office of
MRS. M. L. HINES
Secretary-Treasurer

The basis for judging the contestants and the details for conducting the contest in choosing a Wichita County Farm Bureau queen were worked out in a meeting of the committee at the office of the county organization in Iowa Park Tuesday morning. Miss Cathryn Sands, Home Demonstration Agent, is chairman of the event and presided at the committee meeting. Assisting Miss Sands are Mrs. George Lewis of Iowa Park, Mrs. A. Evert of Burkburnett, and Mrs. W. T. Jenne of Wichita Falls.

The cards handed each of the five judges in the event will list the following as a basis for the judging: personal appearance, a possible 40 points; poise, a possible 35 points; and personality, a possible 25 points. The county winner will have her expenses paid to the district meeting and will also receive a cash award. The district winner will have her expenses paid to the state convention and also receive a $55.00 wrist watch. The state winner will receive $500.00 to apply on her expenses to the national convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

The contest to determine the Wichita County winner will be held at Fair Park Auditorium in Iowa Park on July 23, when the entire membership of the County Farm Bureau will meet in an all-day session with lunch at 1:15. To date, Miss Sands reports seven entrants in the contest.

Do you know the names and addresses of any out-of-town old timers who once lived in Burkburnett? If so, call J. S. Mills or W. A. Roberts. They want to send them an invitation to attend the Celebration July 21-24.

MY TOWN

My town is the place where my home is founded, where my vote is cast, where by neighbors dwell, and where my life is chiefly lived. It supports me and I should support it.

"My town wants my citizenship, not my partnership; my friendliness, not my dissension; my sympathy and my intelligence and not my indifference.

"My town supplies me with protection, trade, friends, education, schools, churches, and the right to a free moral citizenship. It has some things that are better than others. The best things I should seek to make better; the worse things I should help suppress.

"All in all, it is my town and is entitled to the best there is in me."

MASS MEETING CALLED FOR MONDAY NIGHT TOWN HALL

P. A. Wiggins, City Manager, has called a Mass Meeting at Town Hall, Monday Night, July 12th. All citizens interested in helping wage war on Polio will find a warm welcome at this meeting.

Dr. Philip A. Carpenter, City Health Officer, will be on hand to talk on the subject of how to combat Polio with preventive measures.

Come, and bring your neighbor.

City Health Officer Offers Suggestions To Combat Polio

Dr. Philip A. Carpenter, City Health Officer, has prepared the following article concerning the campaign against Polio:

The National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis says that Texas is experiencing the worst Polio epidemic in its history for this time of year. It is still quite early in the season for infantile paralysis, and up to June 26, 579 cases had been reported as compared to 150 for the same period in 1943, when a record total of 1,274 persons were stricken in Texas during the year.

At a recent conference called by Dr. George W. Cox, State Health Officer in Austin, the poliomyelitis problem in Texas was discussed.

It was the consensus of opinion at the meeting that intensive cleanup campaigns should be carried on throughout the state. It is definitely known that such campaigns will eradicate health hazards which cause certain preventable diseases. Among these preventable diseases are typhoid fever, typhus, malaria, and dysentery. Such campaigns also eradicate one possible source of poliomyelitis.

Last Friday Mr. R. A. Scott of the State Health Department was in Burkburnett at the request of local officials and methods of improving the sanitation of the city were discussed.

The virus which causes poliomyelitis has been found in the throats and in the stools of patients and certain healthy individuals. The virus has been isolated repeatedly from house flies and blow-flies during poliomyelitis epidemics. It has been shown that flies in the home of a case of poliomyelitis became contaminated naturally with poliomyelitis virus and conveyed enough of it to food which had no other contact with virus, so that poliomyelitis free chimpanzees developed infections of poliomyelitis shortly after eating the contaminated food.

For these reasons it is believed that flies transmit Polio. How important fly transmission is in comparison with other means of transmission is not yet known.

With the above facts in mind it is believed that an intensive cleanup campaign is justified in Burkburnett. The epidemic of Polio has not yet reached this part of the state, so it will be much easier to prevent it from developing into epidemic proportions here if we act before it reaches us.

The City of Burkburnett has already made a good start at such a campaign by spraying DDT over as large an area as the available means would allow, and by spraying garbage cans as they are emptied, and cutting as many weeds as possible. If the citizens will now fall in line, and everybody make a concerted effort to do his or her part, we can make Burkburnett a cleaner and safer place in which to live.

For such a cleanup campaign the following measures are recommended:

1. Secure proper disposal of all human waste, and livestock manure. Where outdoor toilets must be used, they should be made fly tight. All waste should be covered with powdered borax, lime, sand, ashes, or dirt after each use of the toilet. The inside walls should be thoroughly sprayed with 5 to 10 per cent DDT every two weeks. Where livestock are kept, a leaflet on the proper care of animal manure may be obtained at the City Hall. The favorite breeding place for flies is in animal waste and their first choice is horse manure. However, the prevention of breeding in human manure is even more important, as the various germs in this material are much more liable to convey disease to humans. The importance of control of these breeding places for flies cannot be overemphasized.

2. Maintenance of proper care and disposal of garbage. Decaying food is a favorite feeding place for adult flies and many other insects. Garbage should be kept in a garbage can fitted with some kind of cover. The garbage should be collected regularly and the garbage can and surroundings sprayed with D. D. T. solution. Keep rubbish cleaned out of alleys and vacant lots, so that weeds may be cut by the tractor with sickle.

3. Eliminate breeding places for flies, mosquitoes, cockroaches, and other insects. This includes in addition to proper care of animal wastes and garbage, the disposal of cans, bottles, old tires or anything that can hold water. Drain or fill places where water stands, or if this cannot be done, apply some kind of oil to the surface of the water once a week. Check air conditioners for standing water where mosquitoes may breed.

4. Maintain adequate protection for all water, milk, and food supplies. When possible no water except city water should be consumed. If water from shallow wells or cisterns must be used it should be either boiled or analyzed by the State Health Department at Austin. Only milk produced under sanitary conditions should be used. All food should be kept covered to prevent contamination by insects or dust. The walls and ceilings of restaurants and dairies should be sprayed thoroughly with 5 per cent or stronger DDT solution at least every two weeks during the summer and fall.

5. Inaugurate measures to control rodents. Rats carry typhus fever, cholera, infectious jaundice and several other diseases. They are the greatest enemy of poultry and wild birds, and they sometimes nibble on infants in cribs. Garbage cans should be kept properly closed and other possible sources of food for rats should be eliminated. Buildings should be rat proofed as well as possible, and rat openings should be closed.

6. Practice measures of home sanitation and hygiene. In addition to the measures already mentioned, the following practices are suggested. Keep screens in good repair. Spray the house frequently with DDT or other insecticides. Keep your home and surroundings clean. All fresh vegetables and fruit should be thoroughly washed before eating. Wash your hands before handling food. Children should be kept well nourished by a balanced diet. Children should be encouraged to avoid over-fatigue.

To help facilitate a cleanup and keep clean program, the following additional suggestions are offered:

1. Organization of a group of

News of Burk Fire Reaches Los Angeles

Way back on June 12 Burkburnett Firemen were hosts to the district convention of Northwest Texas Firemen. While in the midst of the day's activities, local firemen were called to a fire on West Main. Visiting firemen looked on while the blaze was being battled. The news was picked up by a leased wire service and sent out over the nation.

Wayne Roberts, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Roberts, who lives in Los Angeles, California, picked up the evening paper there on June 22 and read about the fire in Burkburnett.

News of Burkburnett, some of it good and some of it not so good, has been spread widely in recent weeks.

PLAY YOUR PART

Lots of us don't like politics, consider it a dirty business, a case of smoke-filled rooms, whitewash, party bosses, noisy declarations not fulfilled. The man who lives in a free society, can't dispense with politics. You may prefer your book, garden, radio, ballgame and leave the politics to the fellow who wants it. But, if we wish to live in decency, in comfort, in harmony, we must attend to the business of politics. It can be approached with intelligence, handled in good taste. Conducted on these lines, it can be interesting. Considering all types of government, we feel ours is the best. Politics is representative of our form of government. Through this medium, our nation was made great, and it is the duty of everyone in Burk Burnett to take an interest in politics, to keep it great.

DON'T TAKE A CHANCE

The National Board of Fire Underwriters has issued a timely warning concerning fire hazards that are especially great during summer and early fall.

The fire rate in vacation cottages and resort hotels runs high—due almost entirely to simple carelessness. Many summer homes are far from fire departments, and once a fire gets going, a total loss often results. The only defense is constant watchfulness. Don't overlook electric circuits with extra appliances. Don't use refrigerators and similar equipment which have been out of service for months without oiling them. And above all see that stoves and pipes are all protected from woodwork, and that fireplaces are screened.

Keep some sort of fire fighting equipment ready at hand. If a fire is detected quickly, a garden hose or a hand extinguisher may check it before serious damage is done.

The best part of a vacation is getting out of doors. But, in time, there won't be any enticing out of doors to visit if we fail to control fire. Watch your smoking materials. And never leave a camp fire until it has been thoroughly smothered with water and damp earth.

In short, don't take a chance. Then you'll have a happy healthful vacation—and so will everyone else.

ing were business men, agricultural experts, public utility executives, government officials and many other representatives. The principle study was in the alarming rapidity that this country is losing its soil resources. Since the future of the land is at stake, such a problem is of paramount interest to Burk Burnett. This section has a billion acres of farm croplands, open grazing lands and farm pasture lands. Of these, over 250 million acres have been damaged, ruined or severely impoverished. We have depleted our timber supply 44 per cent in the last 36 years. The result of this on water resources is alarming. We are warned that many rivers have stopped flowing, that the underground water table, the main support of entire regions, is steadily falling to critical points. You never figure that this vast land could become a desert. In order to keep it from becoming one, we must work out some system to protect our land and water resources. It is up to the public spirited people, more interested in the welfare of the nation than of their political standing and personal aggrandizement, to take a definite stand to organize to see that we get on the right road, that we have a policy for lands-use.

SAVE FEED BY CULLING RUNTS

Culling has always been an important factor in poultry raising. At this time of the year, the producer can go a long way toward keeping his summer feed bill within bounds by practicing wise culling. Getting rid of the birds that are lagging in development will save feed and give the poultry raiser an opportunity to produce a uniformly better flock by fall.

Culling Saves Feed

An added reason for strict culling now is that while feed prices are so high, you can't afford to bother with lagging birds. For this same reason, it is a good idea to start examining your laying flock closely to find any hens that may be 'loafing'. The lag-gards should be culled and sold.

If you haven't done so already separate the cockerels from the pullets. Market all surplus cockerels just as soon as possible, keeping only those which appear to have the best breeding qualities. Usually, it is desirable to retain enough cockerels to maintain a proportion of one male to 15 females among your medium and heavy breeds. For Leghorns, keep only one rooster for 20 hens. This will save feed for you, besides reducing the number of cockerels to a number that will allow close care and encourage the development of better breeding stock.

How To Pick Cockerels

In selecting the cockerels you are going to keep, pick those birds that had long pin feathers in their wings at hatching time or tail feathers at 10 days of age. The flock owner should prepare for this by making the promising cockerels early in life. Keep for cockerels at 8 to 12 weeks of age. Hold on to those cockerels that are free of standard disqualifications and have no bodily deformities. Look for points on the sides of the comb and feathers on shanks, toes, and between the toes. Get rid of any with these disqualifications.

MRS. MOLLY CROMER PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Molly Watkins Cromer, 87, died at the Duncan hospital, July 6th, 1948. Molly Watkins was born near Longview, Texas July 21, 1861. Spending nearly all of her life in that community. She received her education as liberal as the times afforded, in Texas. She was married in 1883 to Mr. Cromer, who preceded her in death several years ago. They had one son who passed away early in life. Both are buried at Ardmore, Okla.

Mrs. Cromer came to Devol in 1920 and has since made her home at her little house on the west side of town. As old age crept on she had been failing in health, and a few weeks ago was moved to the home of a nephew, Delbert Bukholt and her sister, at Duncan. She returned home about two weeks ago, but had again to be taken to Duncan for attention.

She survived her sister, who was also aged, by 5 days; the sister passing away July 1 at Duncan, and Mrs. Cromer July 6th. Her nephew, Mr. Delbert Bukholt of Duncan is the only survivor we have learned to date.

SOCIAL

bride-elect of Charles Moran, was honored with a lovely pre-nuptial event last Friday evening, held on the lawn of the Frank McClendon home. Guests were welcomed by Mesdames Vernon Lagrone, and B. L. Jenkins; Mrs. McClendon presided at the bride's book. Little Francine McClendon played two piano numbers and accompanied Mary Ellen and Joyce Hutson, sisters of the bride-to-be, as they sang "Moonlight and Roses." After a presentation reading, "It ain't the gift a feller gits," a large assortment of beautiful gifts were presented to the honoree who was assisted in opening and passing them by her mother, Mrs. Hutson and Miss Catherine Moran, sister of Miss Hutson's fiancé.

Refreshments of individual ice cream bars and white cake were served to about 60 guests by the hostesses: Mesdames Frank McClendon, Vernon Lagrone, C. O. Woodley, Johnny Helms, K. B. Uthe, A. J. Mays, Jim George, Bob McCullough, Vernon Spier, B. L. Jenkins, Ross Wright, Elmer Rogers, John Coker and Joe Davis.

A non-hostess going away party was tendered by the community to Mr. and Mrs. Jim George and sons last Tuesday night at the Devol school building. Mr. Clayton Landis made a short talk and presented the community gifts of an eight place set of china, a table cloth and numerous individual gifts.

Mr. George has been superintendent at Devol the past year, and also taught here in other capacities. He has now accepted a position in the Tuttle school system, and with his family will move there soon.

The ladies club of Devol served lunch last Tuesday, Primary election day, and were very well pleased with the addition made to their "Butane for the Club House" fund thereby. Club will meet in regular session on next Tuesday.

MISS HUTSON WED TO CHARLES MORAN

The wedding of Miss Marie Cleola Hutson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Hutson, Devol, and Mr. Charles Moran, foster son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Minter, 125 twelfth street, Frederick, Okla., was solemnized in the home of the brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. John Moran, 310 W. Wharton St., Electra, Texas. The marriage took place at 4.00 P. M., Sunday, July 4th, Rev. W. W. Rivers, pastor of the First Baptist Church, reading the ceremony.

The bride was attended by Miss Ava Fawbush, Walters, Okla., who wore a suit dress of white linen with a corsage of carnations. Mr. Theo Tanner of Mt. View, Okla., served as best man for the groom.

The bridal space was tastefully set off with a beautiful arrange of greenery and gladiolus. The bride chose for her wedding gown a dress of light blue crepe with navy blue accessories and a two strand of pearls. Her corsage was of gladiolus, and she carried a white Bible topped with two white gardenias.

Mrs. Moran spent her school years at Devol and Central State College, Edmond. She taught school at Devol 8 years previous to her marriage.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN has the unique distinction of having approved several bills which he had signed as president of the senate. He vetoed a private bill as President of the United States which he had signed as president of the senate when he was vice president.

U.S. Forecasts Price Troubles For Housewives

WASHINGTON.—Complicated figures just released by the federal reserve board and the department of commerce carry storm warnings for housewives who are already having trouble making both ends meet.

The story is just more of the same old thing: shortages. We want more than is being turned out.

The possible dynamite under prices lies in three new large sums about to go into circulation: (1) money "saved" because of lower income taxes, (2) increased installment payments, (3) increased defense appropriations.

Taxes have been cut 4.8 billion dollars. Much of that tax cut went to working families who are expected to spend it instead of save it.

Americans are expected to go on the cuff for at least 3.2 billion dollars worth of goods this year. They'll get them through installment buying and through charge accounts.

That kind of buying dropped off through the war because there were government controls on it, but congress let the controls go in November. Immediately there was an upsurge.

Funds for the Military War clouds have forced the government to talk of spending more for the army, navy and air force.

Even so, that would have meant so much more money competing for steel, woolen yard goods, leather, autos. But now there are plans to increase that by another three billion dollars.

Prices Skid Down There have been flurries of lower prices which gave rise to hopes among the majority of Americans that live on weekly pay checks.

By way of advertising for his new store, Olin Austin offered to sell each adult customer two $1 bills for 89 cents apiece.

Business itself was so optimistic that in 1947 more than 200,000 new concerns opened shop. During those 12 months only 3,476 concerns failed, the lowest number since 1871.

Cut-Rate Sale of One Dollar Bills Attracts Few Customers BLUEFIELD, W. VA.—One-dollar bills don't sell very well here—even for 89 cents.

By way of advertising for his new store, Olin Austin offered to sell each adult customer two $1 bills for 89 cents apiece.

But most people thought there was some catch to it and business has been "pretty slow," Austin reported.

Some hard-to-please customers have even grumbled that 89 cents is more than a dollar is worth anyhow.

MEAT: Too Popular

With the exception of vegetarians and some carrot juice addicts, nearly everyone likes meat. And in the U. S. everyone eats a lot of it.

That is why all the Mr. and Mrs. Jack Sprats in America are deeply incensed whenever the meat supply falls off from the normally prodigious amounts available to the consumer.

A condition of that general description currently prevails in the U. S. and, according to R. J. Eggert of the American Meat Institute, it will take at least a year following good crops in 1948 to bring about any substantial increase in the amounts of beefsteaks, pork chops and bacon on the table.

Biggest trouble, Eggert said, is that the ratio of the eaters to the edibles has grown too top heavy since the war.

War-time drain of flocks and herds and last year's short corn crop are responsible for the currently declining animal population.

But there is no comparable decline in demand in sight. The meat industry forecasts a continuing steady demand for meat because: Incomes are near an all-time high; the real income (actual purchasing power) of the average consumer is one-fourth greater than in 1939; population has increased 15 million in the past decade; people are convinced of the nutritive value of meat.

Whether that imbalance will turn out to be strategically unfavorable to the U. S. if the controversy with Russia continues to expand is a question that the next few years probably will answer.

In its simplest form the situation is a paradox. It is an axiom in international relations that unrestricted trade among nations is one of the best guarantors of peace. Yet the restrictions on export trade to Russia last April were imposed to prevent shipment of potential war goods to the Soviets.

Significant is the fact that U. S. imports from Russia were higher in April than in any other month this year except March, indicating that there has been no immediate effort by Moscow to retaliate for the tightened U. S. controls.

One oddity, perhaps also significant, was Russia's shipment of $1,312,382 worth of manganese and chrome, both basic items in the manufacture of war materials.

Job Done Sen. Arthur Capper (Rep., Kas.) is 83 years old and has represented Kansas in the senate for 39 years. Now he has announced that he will not run for re-election.

He thinks it is time for him to step aside in favor of a younger man.

MAGINOT: Try Again? France's Maginot line, that supposedly impenetrable, concrete-and-steel system of static defense that failed to stop the Nazis in 1940, is being touted now as a shield against possible Russian attacks.

Some French army engineers even go so far as to say that the United States would be wise to finance the reconnoitering of the Maginot line as insurance against the Red army.

And at least one of France's top military leaders, Gen. Jean de Lattre de Tassigny, is reported to believe that the line should be investigated with the idea that its immense underground forts might be transformed into atomic bomb shelters.

When the fortresses came into Allied hands near the close of the war it was discovered that the Nazis had removed much less of the armament and equipment than had been believed. Most of the guns, minus only the breech blocks, had been left in place.

Simple fact, however—and it is accepted by most U. S. military men—is that the Maginot line is badly outmoded by present swift and mobile methods of warfare, and further, that it was outmoded even before the start of World War II.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS By ROBBIE D. NEWTON, B. D. SCHULTZKE Exodus 21:1-11; 25:10-29:12; 1:1 DEVOTIONAL READING: Exodus 2:1-17.

Bezalel, The Craftsman Lesson for July 11, 1948

THE dignity of labor, the source of artistic ability, the secret of mechanical skill, and the service of good workmanship—these are the facets that break across the ages, pointing us to worthy effort, as we study again the achievement of Bezalel and his associates in the construction and furnishing of the Tabernacle at Sinai.

You wish to read the scripture passages for the lesson and the devotional reading, Exodus 20:1-17, and the golden text: "Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might," Ecclesiastes 9:10.

A MAN WHO DID FINE WORK BEZALEL, grandson of Hur, son of Caleb, was called of God to superintend the building of the Tabernacle. His name means "under the shadow of God."

He possessed wisdom—wisdom which comes only from God. Wisdom which means understanding in the sense in which Solomon speaks in Proverbs.

Picture life with every workman filled with the spirit of God, and possessing an understanding of his task in the light of God's eternal will. Here, I fancy, Henry Van Dyke may have got the inspiration for his great poem on "Work."

HANDS THAT SERVE GOD AHOLIAB, meaning "the father of God to be tabernacle," was called of God to help Bezalel in this high and holy task. He was of the tribe of Dan—which tribe furnished Hiram as chief artist in building Solomon's temple.

And there were many others who helped—"wise hearted," we read. Here was a task God's task, and here were leaders, Bezalel and Aholiab, ready to serve God; and here were helpers, wise hearted.

WORK FOR EVERY DAY TURNING now from the fascinating story of how Bezalel and Aholiab and their helpers constructed and furnished the Tabernacle at Sinai, according to the minutest detail as outlined in the passages above cited. Let us ask, What about our work?

There is work for everyone every day. "To every man his work." And every task is essential in bringing to pass the Kingdom of God on earth. God did not make us for idleness. He made us for a purpose—that purpose to do our particular work. None other can do what God has ordained that we should do.

"My father worketh hitherto, and I work," said Jesus. "Work, for the night cometh when no man can work."

Will my work be done ere the night come? "Time worketh, Let me work, too, Busy as time my work I ply, Tell I work the work of eternity."

FIRST AID to the AILING HOUSE by Roger C. Williams

QUESTION: Could you give me any information on tile flooring? Can I do the work myself?

ANSWER: Whatever type you choose, remember that a solid color will show dirt very quickly. Mottled colors stay clean-looking much longer. It is perfectly possible for a home owner to lay tile, provided he is handy with tools and has a good guide book. Any kind of tile must be set in the proper "bed" no matter whether it is clay tile, asphalt, rubber or anything else.

QUESTION: Should one patch plaster that has come off in a basement?

ANSWER: If it's ordinary plaster that is used for living rooms, it would be best to remove all of it instead of trying to patch it. This type of plaster is affected by dampness and is not intended for use in a basement.

QUESTION: How can I polish hard scratches off my glass table top?

ANSWER: That type of polishing cannot be done at home. It is a job for a dealer in plate glass who has the equipment.

Lt. Tuel Receives Letter From The "Palace of Justice"

Dear Lt. Tuel: I should have written to you a long time ago but unfortunately I didn't have any time. Since Xmas I have been going to almost every part of Germany except Coburg and so I didn't have much of a chance to send you the pictures DENA took of us when we were in Mannheim. So here they are and I hope you'll like them. Did you get the pictures you took of me in Mannheim enveloped yet? If you did, would you please send me some of them. It looks like I'm going to stay here in Nuernberg for a while now and cover the war crimes trials. If you ever come to Nuernberg, let me know. I would sure like to see you sometime again. Sincerely yours, Martin W. Fritze Jr., (13 a) Nuernberg, Palace of Justice, DENA, Room 594.

Pallbearers were Forrest B. Pridden, E. O. Foreman of Shreveport, La., C. E. McWhirter, Frank Wolf, Staley Hawkins, Leroy Daniel, Ernest Robertson and R. L. (Bob) Brumalaw.
One of Eight Children
Mrs. Willis was one of eight children — five daughters and three sons — of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Hawkins. She was born Nov. 22, 1876 at Friendship, Crockett County, Tenn.
There were four children in the family when her parents in 1878 made the tedious trans-Mississippi trip by train to Johnson County, Texas, and moved on within a year to more prospective farming country in the vicinity of present day Burkburnett.
The only neighbors of the Hawkinses were the J. G. Hardin and M. Dodson families. The late Mr. Hardin, who with his wife became widely known for their philanthropies, was an uncle of Mrs. Willis.
The first home of her parents was a dugout, and in time the settlement became known as Nesterville. Later the name was changed to Gilbert and still later to Burkburnett.

It was in the Hawkins' dugout that the first Baptist church in the county was organized, an event that Mrs. Willis could recall.
"The first church I ever attended was organized in our home when I was six," she wrote in a brief historical document left with each of her children. "Mother and father were true Christians and the first instruction I ever had was from them. There were no Sunday schools until after I was 12."
When there were sufficient school age children in Nesterville a log house was constructed and Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins boarded the teacher without charge. The school year first was two months, and was gradually lengthened to six months. Mrs. Willis recalled when it got too cold in the log schoolhouse, the students were taught in the Hawkins' dugout.
Married in 1893
Mrs. Willis was married to H. Willis Dec. 24, 1893, and they celebrated their 50th anniversary here in 1943. Two of her brothers Simon and John, and their friends, Nannie Willis and Mollie Walters, were attendants for the wedding for which Rev. J. W. Morgan officiated. Their wedding trip was to a neighbors home, that of Mrs. S. M. Daniel.
Mr. and Mrs. Willis first rented a farm, then farmed on her father's place before purchasing approximately 150 acres in the Cashion community in 1897. They added acreage as the years went by and at the present time the Willis farm covers 850 acres.
The Willis lived on the farm until October, 1918, when seeking greater advantages for their own children, they moved to Wichita Falls and within a few years occupied the present family home at 1414 Tilden.
The Willis farm is marked on the southeast corner by the Cashion Baptist Church, for which they gave ground, liberally financed, and for which Willis hauled much material and took part in building.
Sunday School Teacher
Baptized in Gilbert Creek when 12 years old, Mrs. Willis became a Sunday school teacher the same year and "it was one of the greatest joys of my life," she had said, that she continued as a regular Sunday school teacher for 53 years. She remained active in church work until illness forced her to remain at home for a number of months.
Mrs. Willis was a member of the Woman's Forum, United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Woodmen of the World Circle.
Mrs. Willis is survived by her husband, four children, Mrs. Bryan W. Lovelace of 1408 Kemp, Mrs. Glen H. Bear of Burkburnett, Truman G. Willis of Shreveport, La., and Ernest W. Willis of 2113 Brown; eight grandchildren, Bryan Lovelace Jr., Mattilyn Lovelace, John Lovelace, Bob Lovelace, Janet Lovelace, Gayle Willis, Curtis Willis and Jon Hy Bear; three sisters, Mrs. J. I. Staley of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Guy S. Weathers of Frederick, Okla., and Mrs. Elizabeth Chancellor of Brownsville; and three brothers, W. L. Hawkins of Wichita Falls, G. S. Hawkins of Frederick, Oklahoma, and J. L. H. Hawkins of Denver, Colo.
The fourth sister, Mrs. C. McKnight of Pampa, preceded her in death.
Mr. and Mrs. Drey Aven and sons, Forrest and Danny visited in the C. W. Ramsey and Troy Miller homes this week-end.
Mr. and Mrs. Silkwood and baby of Breckenridge have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott.

Echoes of Giant Wheat Harvest Still Being Heard Here

Raymond A. Shaffer, who has spent the past 15 weeks roving around the United States, has finally returned to his home in San Francisco. This week the Star force received a letter from Raymond, relating some of his experiences during his tour.

"I have just returned from a trek covering 11,046 miles. I thoroughly explored 8 National Parks, 8 National Monuments, and 10 State Parks.

"I first heard about the giant wheat harvest in Burkburnett while at the Roosevelt Hotel in New Orleans. Next while at Hot Springs National Park, Arkansas. When I got to St. Louis, Mo., I saw the picture in the afternoon paper that convinced me wheat was actually stacked on the streets in Burkburnett.

"While at the Spruce Tree Lodge in Mesa Verde National Park, I looked up and who should be sitting only two tables from me, but Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Kent of Wichita Falls; Gordon and I attended high school together at Burkburnett.

"My heartiest congratulations to you, the staff of the Star, with your initiative, your cooperation with Messrs. Mills and Fleming. You have achieved a greatness, which is seldom excelled. Keep the presses rollin'. Have fun for me at the Boom Town Celebration, hope it's the best ever."

Sincerest regards,
Raymond A. Shaffer

Raymond is one boy who left Burkburnett that never forgets his home town. He takes the Star and reads every line—ads and all every week. Ed.

Soil Conservation News

Terrace lines have been the past week on the farms of Gale Lowrance and Mrs. Lee Jackson, 3 1-2 and 1 1-2 miles respectively, in the East Iowa Park Conservation Group. The terrace lines were run by personnel of the Soil Conservation Service, assigned to the Willbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District.

Applications for soil conservation and irrigation assistance have been received on farms of James Cates, 36 acres, E. W. Roderick, 100 acres; C. A. Hoge, 170 acres; Jas. L. Barbour, 56 acres, and A. E. Bailey, 358 acres.

Vetch seed is being harvested on farms of Henry Vaughn, John Story, E. O. Mullins, M. T. Riley and Norb Zimmerman this week. Because of dry weather during the early spring months in vetch growing areas of Texas and floods in Oregon, there will probably be a shortage of vetch seed this fall and it is necessary.

There were 2 1-2 miles of terrace lines run on Arthur Peyton's farm of the Barwise Conservation Group this week. Their terraces will be constructed with a Whirlwind terracer belonging to Clyde Bryant.

The 1949 Ford station wagon is new and revolutionary in every respect. It is the first to use two extra-wide safety doors; the first full-size eight-passenger wagon to employ all-steel construction. Wood panels are bolted directly to the steel frame. Extra strength built into chassis and body assure quiet, trouble free operation.

YOU HAVE TO Clean THEM BEFORE YOU CAN EAT THEM

Yes, if you could catch them ready for the frying pan... fishing would be an even greater pleasure. But Nature's "gifts" are never free. Nearly all the products of Nature must be processed in one way or another, and then moved to market before they become of real value.

Take natural gas, for example. Our company and others like it are actually giving value to natural gas which would otherwise remain worthless in the ground by gathering, cleaning and moving it to places where people can use it. This is practical conservation, for it stimulates industrial development, creates jobs and benefits all the families in the South.

United Gas invested nearly 60 million dollars in exploration, development and construction during the past three years alone... to assure a continued dependable supply of natural gas for homes, stores and factories all over the South.

The New Testament Church

In connection with this article, we will study a series on this subject. We hear about the New Testament church, but what is it and many claims are made for it. What is the New Testament Church today? If so, what are the characteristics for making this claim? What are the characteristics for identification that make a church in the 20th century the true New Testament church? The name implies, the New Testament church was the church that existed in the days of the New Testament, the days when it was being written. Under the leadership of the Lord was established upon the earth, having written the things that were needed for the faith, and practice of the early church. Until sinful desires entered in the early apostolic church was true and to Jesus Christ. We can all agree that the church, of which Jesus said he would build, Matt. 16:18, that purchased with his shed blood, Acts 20:28, and that for which he gave himself, Eph. 5:25.

There is one way, and only one, that a church today is the New Testament church. It must be like the church that we read in the New Testament. It must have the same name, the same organization, the same teaching and the same worship. In this series of studies, we want to go beyond all denominational differences and divisions and learn of the true New Testament, and then try to identify it. Study with us.

Sunday School begins promptly at ten a. m. with all classes studying 1 Peter, chapter two—"Giving An Answer To Every Man." The Bible is our only literature and we have a class for every age.

Preaching service at eleven o'clock. After a good song service, the pastor will bring the second in a series of messages on the Seven Churches of Revelation—"Smyrna, The Suffering Church." We want you to hear these messages if you are interested in what has caused a decline and decay in religious systems, labelled "Church," through the ages since Christ and into the 2nd coming of Christ. God in these messages gives the characteristics of each church period to the end of the church period. He shows how the leaven of evil is at work corrupting and defiling the whole lump. But the note of encouragement is emphasized in every period.

Young people meet Sunday night at 7:15 under the direction of Clifford Wells. Every young person is invited.
 Preaching service begins at 8 p. m. with a good gospel song service. Sermon subject of pastor, "Do You Have a Hiding Place From The Coming Storm?" Neighbors, this will be a message of grave warning, and glorious hope to the one who heeds the warning. Plan now to attend this old time, fundamental, Bible teaching Baptist Church, where the plain truth of God's Word is taught and preached without fear or favor. A warm, friendly welcome awaits all.

If you can't write a good big figure in the space above then you'd be smart to adopt a method of savings that millions of Americans have found to be absolutely sure fire. This method is the regular buying of United States Savings Bonds. People buy Savings Bonds now on two convenient plans. If you are on a payroll, through the Payroll Savings Plan. If you are a professional man or woman or self-employed, through the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank. By signing up on either plan, twelve months from now you will be able to write a nice healthy sum in that space up above. U. S. Treasury Department
