Seniors Erect Memorial, Memory George Kramer

Thursday of last week, a Memorial Stone, four feet in height and bearing the inscription, "In Memory of George Kramer," was erected on the school grounds in front of the High School building.

This beautiful stone, erected by members of the 1948-'49 Senior Class, and given in loving memory of this man who was School Custodian for 21 years, is a symbol of the high esteem in which he was held, not only by the Seniors, but by all the boys and girls attending the Burkburnett Schools and faculty members.

No more fitting place could have been chosen to place this Memorial, than that of the beautiful Flower Garden, which represents many hours of his patient care.

Temple, Okla. Rodeo Dates Set For June 28 - 29

Temple, Okla. (Special)—You won't have to stand up when you attend Temple's annual rodeo, June 28 and 29, which promises to be "bigger and better" than ever.

There are plenty of seats at the big high school stadium for spectators, and there'll be plenty of parking space.

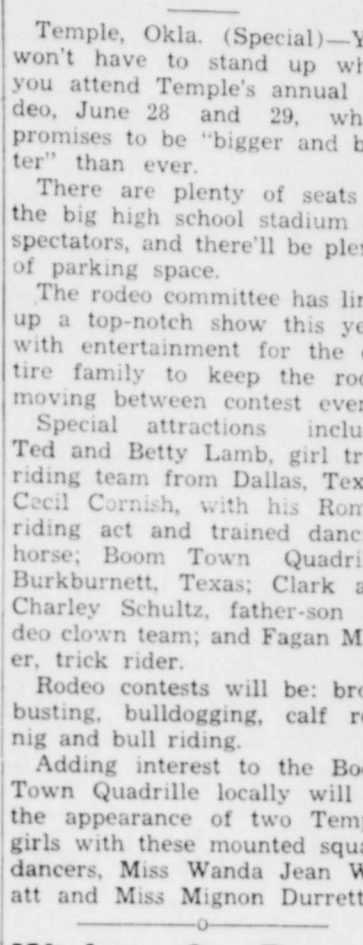

The rodeo committee has lined up a top-notch show this year, with entertainment for the entire family to keep the rodeo moving between contest events.

Special attractions include: Ted and Betty Lamb, girl trick riding team from Dallas, Texas; Cecil Cornish, with his Roman riding act and trained dancing horse; Boom Town Quadrille, Burkburnett, Texas; Clark and Charley Schultz, father-son rodeo clown team; and Fagan Miller, trick rider.

Rodeo contests will be: bronc busting, bulldogging, calf roping and bull riding.

Adding interest to the Boom Town Quadrille locally will be the appearance of two Temple girls with these mounted square dancers, Miss Wanda Jean Wyatt and Miss Mignon Durrett.

Paving on Ave. D. And Main to Start

Just as soon as heavy equipment can be moved in, paving on Avenue D and East Main Street will be under way.

The contractors, from Brownwood, have been here this week making necessary arrangements prior to beginning the project.

Some property owners on these two streets have not yet made arrangements with the City for paying for curbing in front of their property. Don't delay the project by failing to make the necessary arrangements. It is very important that the City collect for the curbing or get satisfactory arrangements now. Don't delay.

If it is not convenient for you to pay the full amount, which is only $1.00 per foot, monthly installments may be made. You are receiving almost $100,000.00 worth of paving for only $1.00 per running foot cost to you in front of your property. The State Highway Department is standing the expense of laying the street paving and black-topping it.

Rodeo Committes Hold Interesting Meeting Tuesday

A very enthusiastic meeting of Rodeo committeemen and C. of C. directors was held Tuesday night.

With C. A. Morgan, general chairman in charge, many important plans were made and many good suggestions were discussed and considered.

Two parades were planned. One to be held at Wichita Falls on opening day, July 19th, beginning at 2:00 P. M. Then at 5:30 P. M. one of the biggest parades ever to come down Burkburnett's streets will take place. Plans are to have the parade form at the Sales Barn on East Third, pass down Main street beyond the Shamburger Lumber Company, then double back up Main street again. That way people on both sides of the street may see both sides of all floats and other parade members.

Joe McCluskey was appointed to pick judges for Riding clubs, and arrange for hosts for each club. C. M. Archer heads a committee to select judges for the various floats.

Parade Prizes
Parade prizes will be the same this year they were last, with $25.00 added to be given to the Riding club that comes from the greatest distance.

Kiddies' Parade
A Kiddies' Parade, one of the most popular days last year, will be staged this year Friday afternoon, July 22, beginning at 5:00. H. D. Smith is chairman for the Kiddies' entertainment to follow the parade. There will be bike races, foot races, and all kinds of stunts for the kiddies. Prizes will be offered in each of the events.

Queen's Race
Several clubs, Rotary, Lions, American and Legion and others are planning to enter a candidate for Queen of the Rodeo. The winner will be decided by points, secured from advance ticket sales.

Next meeting of committees working in the interest of the Rodeo will be held Friday night, July 8th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted L. Crosthwait and Karen of Morehead, Ky., and Kent Reger of Dallas visited last week in the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Reger.

Livestock Sale Last Saturday Topped Market

Last Saturday a very successful sale was held at the Burkburnett Livestock Sales Barn. A high bid of $26.50 on cattle topped both the Oklahoma City and Fort Worth market for that day.

Bidding on all kinds of stock was lively. A good representation of all kinds of stock was noted as they passed through the ring at the barn on East Third Street.

Sales are held each Saturday, beginning promptly at 1:30.

Expresses Thanks

J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, today sent a telegram to Sec'y. of Agriculture Brannan commending him for his action in meeting the critical storage problem by making price support loans available on grain piled on the ground or placed in temporary storage.

"Under the Secretary's three-point program, all producers may take advantage of the government loan," Hammond said. Full text of the telegram to the Secretary follows:

"I want to commend you for your courageous action in offering storage requirements which will enable farmers to secure government loan on grain. Circumstances justify such action, but will probably bring a storm of protest charging government waste from those who were all set to steal the grain crop. The saving to producers of millions of dollars will far outweigh any chances of loss incurred because of the action."

Announcement of the Secretary's program immediately after President Truman signed the Commodity Credit Bill authorizing the Secretary to provide storage, climaxed the fight started by Hammond in April when he began contacting officials in Washington apprising them of the storage problem in Texas and urging that action be taken to remedy the situation, thereby sparing producers a loss of millions of dollars on the 1949 crop.

HE HAS SOMETHING THERE

Before the House committee on agriculture on April 30, the Master of the National Grange, Albert S. Gross, said:

"Subsidies once accepted are very hard to abandon. They break down that commendable spirit of independence which is largely responsible for progress, and substitute a dependence on government which is abhorrent to our strongest traditions. They tend to make beggars of us . . . Important issues involving the welfare of the nation or other groups would be bartered to get bigger and better subsidies or to prevent ruin to farmers who could not live without them."

FACTS BEFORE FAIRIES

Fairy tales for the very young aren't as popular reading as when we were children. . . . Adventure yarns that used to hold the juvenile public has given way to literature dealing with actual events and real people. After all, when you live in an age with the airplane, radio and television, the magic carpets and Aladdin lamps are not so thrilling. However, at a time when many youths are going to be looking for unavailable jobs, they might go back to a favorite of a few decades ago and get a little encouragement from a Horatio Alger hero. But there are many in Burkburnett who will insist that the Alger books were fairy tales too.

OUR FLAG

Our Flag is the emblem of our freedom, the symbol of our strength, the promise of our unity as an independent country under the banner of God. Men in battle have added to its fame. Selfless sacrifice has enriched its colors. Steadfastness of spirit of those who salute it, has carried its meaning into the far corners of the world. From battle field to peaceful village square, from the nation's Capitol to the most isolated country school house, flies the standard of justice and democracy, of freedom for common man.

Our Flag is the American's tribute to the defense of tolerance. It is fitting, at a time when there is much discussion of civil rights, when there exists intolerance for other races, colors and creeds, that we stress the tolerance symbolized by this Flag. We cannot say "unity" and then fight it within our own village. We cannot say "noble living" and mount the platform for racial prejudice. We cannot say "comradeship" and then persecute. There is a vision, a promise, a blessing, in Old Glory, but we must hold it forth as an expression of these things in sincerity, in deep compassion for those not enriched by it. We must BELIEVE.

THE VALUE OF PAPER

Paper plays an important role in the U. S. We consume millions of tons of paper each year, with newspapers, books, writing paper, building boards, wrapping paper, cartons and many paper products.

We credit the Chinese with having made the first paper, in the Second Century, B. C. Arabs attacking, in 751 A. D. captured some Chinese paper experts and brought paper to Arabia and Persia. Traders then took paper into Greece. The manufacture of paper didn't begin in Europe until the Twelfth Century in Spain. Brown paper was introduced in the 16th Century and was 100 years after blotting paper was in use. The Oriental paper was made from cotton, the European from rags, while today all commercial papers are made from wood pulp.

Having so much paper about us we have wasted it. The war taught us conservation, but soon we forgot. The increase in the price of paper is reason to recognize its worth in the American market. There is no "power of the press" without the greater power of paper. Tins and glass containers will do very well, but imagine no paper bags. What would you do without cartons, though you may find a substitute for building board? It is impossible to imagine living without paper. Perhaps we should value it more highly in Burkburnett in our daily use of it and conserve paper in peacetime as well as in time of war.

How I love picnics and porch suppers—and my, but they're kind to my budget! And with the A&P full of wonderful picnic or light luncheon foods for open-air-eating, I can have variety as well as economy! Do try these summer taste tempters:

PICNICS AHEAD!

Summer calls for sandwiches, and that's where A&P's thin-sliced MARVEL SANDWICH BREAD really shines. Finest ingredients, expertly blended, make Marvel deliciously tender, yet firm and smooth-textured, so it spreads readily. And its tasty "dated" freshness is just what hearty appetites go for.

PICNIC SALAD TRICK

Try this hit-maker salad. ANN PAGE SALAD DRESSING from A&P gives it tempting, distinctive flavor. Cook 8-oz. pkg. of Ann Page Elbow Macaroni as package directs. Drain. Add 1 small onion, chopped; 1/4 green pepper and 1/2 red pepper or pimiento, sliced; 1/2 cup Ann Page Salad Dressing. Dressing, 1 cup diced cheese, salt and pepper. Chill; pack in jars; wrap jars in paper to keep cold. Serves 6.

TWO-IN-ONE TREAT

Here's a Pennsylvania Dutch recipe for picnic eggs and delicious beet-and-onion relish, too. Hard-cook and shell 6 large, fresh SUNNYBROOK EGGS from A&P. Combine 1 can sliced beets, 1/2 cup water 1 cup Ann Page Vinegar, 1 tsp. salt, 2 tps. sugar, 1 sliced raw onion, and 2 or 3 whole cloves. Drop eggs in mixture. Chill. Serve these Sunnybrook Eggs—the relish, too—at your next picnic or porch supper.

BACKPORCH BANQUET

Try this festive, "on-the-spot" creation with A&P's canned FRUITS FOR SALAD. Arrange the luscious peaches, pears, pineapple and apricots on lettuce top with a red cherry. Or serve A&P's Fruits for Salad as an "instant" dessert—chilled of course!

How deep is an oil well? . . . How long is a piece of string!

This is an exploratory well being drilled by the Humble Company on the Continental Shelf 7 miles offshore from Quatre Bayou, Louisiana. It will be drilled to a depth of 14,000 feet.

Humble has production 12,026 feet deep in the South Mays Field in Chambers County, Texas.

The great East Texas oil field was discovered in 1930 at an average depth of only 3,570 feet. Today, most oil is found in the United States at much greater depths.

The oil industry is going deeper to find more oil for your needs, to discover reserves of oil that will be available for long-range increasing needs and for national emergencies. Fifteen years ago, the average depth of a Humble well was 4,362 feet. Ten years ago, the Company went 700 feet deeper, to about 5,000 feet, to find oil for you. And the average depth of producing Humble wells drilled in 1948 was 6,695 feet. That's average. The oil companies go a lot deeper if they think they can find oil farther down. The deepest well drilled in 1948 was 17,696 feet; it was a wildcat well which discovered neither oil nor gas. How deep is an oil well? It's as deep as it has to be to find or produce oil, or to prove that there's no oil there. Costs go up as wells go deeper. A well 10,000 feet deep costs, on the average, about three times as much as a 7,000-foot well; a 15,000-foot well may cost 12 times as much. To find and produce more oil for you requires a tremendous lot of money. And in any territory, there's a considerable risk involved, for only by drilling can you prove, or disprove, that a geological or geophysical "prospect" actually contains oil. In fact, a good many hundreds of millions of dollars have been invested in drilling "dry holes." In an unproved area, the odds are 9 to 1 against the chances of finding oil. But the oil industry continues to drill wherever scientists think there is a possibility of finding oil; it will go as deep as today's equipment will permit in its hunt for oil... because it is a responsible, dynamic industry whose major interest is to supply the oil you need today, and to provide reserves of oil for your needs, and those of the country, in the years to come.

Faith Without Works Is Dead-

JAS. 2:26

Dear reader please open your Bible and read 2:14-26. As you read remember that it is the word of Holy Spirit as revealed through James. Note especially verses 24 and 26 which reads: "Ye see then how that works a man is justified, and not by faith only." "The body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also."

Now, do you believe your Bible or do you believe "faith only" with its justification without works? That cannot be embraced is plainly evident in the light of foregoing scripture. All scripture is in harmony and nowhere contradicts himself (1 Cor. 14:33) and the plainness of the above scripture is beyond question. We either accept the truth or reject it.

Read again, for example, the 24th and 26th verses. Ask yourself how any responsible person with any respect for God's Word can countenance the fallacy of "faith only" and justification without works." The truth is so very plain you will have to have help in order to misunderstand and "if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch."—Matt. 15:14

Since you can NOT believe "faith only with its justification without works" and at the same time believe the Bible, "how long halt ye between two opinions? If Lord be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him (1 Kings 18:21.)

James has given us the truth in the matter. "If thou come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: for he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. Jesus has said of all such, "But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men (Matt. 15:9).

Dale Gets Back To Boots But Saddle Will Have To Wait

For two long years Dale Evans has been yearning to get back her boots and saddles.

After playing opposite Roy Rogers in over 20 pictures, she retired from the screen shortly before her marriage to Roy.

Now in response to the clamor of thousands of fans, the pair are reunited in Republic's Truecolor production, "Susanna Pass", and may be viewed as a screen two-some at the Palace Theatre Friday and Saturday.

But does Dale get back her boots and saddles?

No indeed! All she gets is a pair of hip boots! In the picture she's an Ichthyologist, one who putters about in lakes and streams supervising the hatching of fish.

LOOKING AHEAD

Lesson from Britain Hard times and doing without—that's still the order of life in Britain. "Austerity" is the official name for it.

Fact of Life But at the moment, the British experience is helping underscore an economic fact that needs more understanding here in America.

Another Round? You see, the British are driving to get into as much of the American market as possible. Sir Stafford recognizes that if British workers should demand increases in wages, prices of British goods would make it impossible to compete successfully on the American market.

Forced Prices Foreign trade is good for our nation, just like it is good for the British. It's a two-way street. If we fail to get into the competition ourselves, then our goods will stop moving as fast as we know our production lines can move them.

Uncle Sam Says

Flag Day, June 14, holds significance for every American. Under the waving Stars and Stripes each citizen knows that he still possesses the most cherished of all ambitions—freedom and opportunity. He also knows he can retain these just so long as our country is economically sound, and he knows, too, that one of the most effective methods ever devised to keep it strong is an investment in U. S. Savings Bonds. Your purchase of Savings Bonds strengthens not only your own economy but your country's as well. If you are not now enrolled for the Payroll Savings Plan where you work or, if self-employed, the Bond-a-Month Plan at your bank, now is your BIG CHANCE to start.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Sports Shots With Simple Camera

MOST of us tend to think of sports shots as the province of the professional, ignoring the fact that many excellent action pictures can be made by the casual picture taker armed with an inexpensive camera. If you're inclined to doubt this statement, look at the pictures which appear here—one of them made with a simple box camera, the other made with a shutter setting of 1/25 second. Neither required a "fast" lens or a high-speed shutter. Together, they illustrate two simple rules which—regardless of your equipment—will help you in picturing sports. The first is: Know your sport. In almost all sports and games a moment exists, somewhere in the sequence of action, when all action is halted: the shot putter poised before making his heave, the pitcher at the top of his windup, the diver at the peak of his rise, the golfer at the end of his backswing. All of these moments suggest action—yet all can be "stopped" with nominal shutter speeds. For pictures of this type a high shutter speed is far less important than your own alertness. The second rule which today's pictures portray can be summarized briefly by stating that action toward or away from the camera may be stopped with nominal shutter speeds. Action which is "across" the camera axis requires faster shutters. The picture of the boat, made with a box camera, is sharp despite the fact that the shutter speed was only about 1/40 second. This is because the boat was headed straight toward the lens of the camera and because the picture was snapped when the boat was still some distance away. Motion appears to be less at a distance than at close range, as you've probably noticed in watching cars whiz down a road. So don't hesitate to try pictures of sports, regardless of the type of camera you use. Alertness, ability, and careful planning will help you to get good pictures. You'll find that the more shots you make and the more familiar you become with these shots, the better your results will be. —John van Gulder

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

Back lighting often helps to make seascapes effective by dappling the water with bright flecks of light.

Marine Scenes

Few scenic pictures appeal more to those of us who live inland than seascapes with their sun-flecked waves, their rolling, crested breakers. Because of this, vacationers are quick to try their hand at seascapes—sometimes with results that fall far short of expectations. In general, views of this type are somewhat more difficult than landscapes since a broad expanse of sky and water often has no single, central point of interest. Such a point of interest is important for good composition and you'll find it helps to introduce one in your pictures. A boat, a flight of sea birds, or a rock may do the trick. Or you may find that a great white pile of clouds or a crested wave will serve to capture interest. Exposure for marine scenes is not difficult. The important thing to remember is that less exposure will be needed than for most land subjects. A seascape with a boat in the foreground, for example, might require an exposure of 1/100 second at 1/11. The same scene, with no foreground object, would require a smaller lens aperture, say 1/16 with the same shutter setting. Often in marine views you will find that back lighting helps. Coming across the water toward your camera, light will leave a dancing pattern of glinting waves to give life to your picture. Don't fail to shield your lens, however, from direct rays of the sun. This may be done by using a lens hood or by having someone hold his hand or hat so that it will cast a shadow on the lens. Be sure, however, that the shading object is outside the field covered by the lens. While seascapes, of necessity, are "vacation shots" to all save those who live along the coast, the same rules will hold good when making snaps at nearby lakes. So, vacation time or not, try making shots of water. You'll find that a point of interest and a short exposure will help give you better pictures whether of the ocean or an inland lake. —John van Gulder

"3 Godfathers," Bandit Tale With Action Loaded

Death Valley, California, forms the spectacular background for MGM's thrill packed Technicolor of outdoor drama, "3 Godfathers", starring John Wayne, Pedro Armendariz and Harry Carey, Jr., at the Palace Theatre Sunday.
 Based on Peter B. Kyne's memorable tale of three western badmen who make a desperate attempt to escape over the desert, fighting storms, a harrowing thirst and the ominous shadow of their pursuers, this Argosy production carries a dramatic wallop in every reel.
 Wayne is the amiable, two-fisted leader of the desperados, Armendariz is the sentimental Mexican, Carey the youthful member of the trio who is wounded after their attempt to hold up a bank. Together they match their wits against the pursuing posse led by Sheriff Ward Bond. Complications arise when they come upon a dying mother and are persuaded to adopt her infant child, a situation which gives way to both tender and humorous moments. In the end, Wayne is the lone survivor, and although he is apprehended, a twist of the tale turns him from a villain into hero.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Bear and Jon Hi, and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Dodson and Norman drove to Dallas Sunday where they took a plane to Mexico City. Enroute home they plan to visit Acapulco and Monterrey. They will be gone about 10 days.

Washington News Letter

Congressman Ed Gossett
unsolicited invitations, I recently addressed the Chapter of the Association of University Men and the Rural Women's Conference of the State of Maryland on the subject of displaced persons. In each case, large audiences were apparently unanimous in approving my views. Recently, I have been severely criticized by Time Magazine and by an editorial in the Wichita Daily Times for opposing the new Displaced Persons Act. Most of those taking me to task have not read of my speeches on the subject and know nothing of the facts.

Two-third of the avowed communists in America have come from Russia. 100,000 of those now in our DP camps came from behind the iron curtain 18 months and 2 years after the war was over. They came with the conviction and assistance of communist governments. Under the bill which I fought and which was passed in the House, at least 75 per cent of these people will come to America.
While a great many sincere people are advocating the opening of our doors to the so-called DP's, they should also consider that every radical, every red, and every subversive organization in America is strongly in favor of doing the same thing.
One Texas Congressman polled 100 American officers while overseas last year on this subject and every single one of them was unalterably opposed to these DP bills which have been sponsored by the Congress by those seeking votes in Chicago and New York. I have yet to talk to an informed person, other than those affiliated with organizations sponsoring DP's, who does not agree with my views on this legislation.
No person can come to this country under any of the proposed DP bills unless he has registered with the International Refugee Organization (IRO) as a DP. It is well-known that IRO is controlled by so-called liberals, most of whom would immigration barriers altogether. Furthermore, IRO will not classify as a DP any person with German blood. It is admitted that 14 million persons (expellees) were driven out of Poland, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Rumania, and other countries behind the iron curtain, simply because they were of German-Ethnic origin. These 14 million people have been thrown bodily into allied military zones, most of them in Germany. Most of them are in greater distress and greater need than any of the DP's who have lived off American charity for 3 and 4 years. Still, no one pleads the cause of the expellees. They lack money and propaganda. It's a sad commentary on American morality to find how many people's convictions are influenced by money. If one were given the job of picking 300,000 people to bring into this country immediately, over and above immigration quotas, he would not go to the jails and asylums to get said 300,000 persons. Still, that is substantially what we propose to do. If we need additional farmers and craftsmen, there are millions of them available, but not in the DP camps.

It so happens that the biggest and best paid lobby in the City of Washington for the past several years has been the DP lobby.
One disgraceful thing of recent occurrences has been the picketing of the Federal Court in New York in which a number of communists are on trial. Several hundred commies and fellow-travelers have been obstructing the Court area with their so-called picketing. Such an insult to the Judiciary should not be tolerated. We have a bill in the Judiciary Committee at this time introduced by Congressman Hale Boggs of Louisiana, to make such picketing unlawful. Such bill should be enacted.
I have a card from the "National Liberal League" of New York City, condemning Mr. Churchill for advocating training for the curtailment of juvenile delinquency. This league says religious training increases juvenile delinquency. Such league is doubtless another commie outfit that opposes and condemns all religion and morality. I am sure this league is strongly in favor of the Displaced Persons Act.

Farm Bureau News
By Mrs. John Wesley

Mr. Loys D. Barbour was called to Waco and Austin this week by president J. Walter Hammond. Mr. Barbour explains to area Farm Bureau members as well as all rural people in regard to the Colson Farm-to-market road Bill as passed by the present session of the Legislature. "It will be of little assistance toward getting the farmer out of the mud." The Colson Bill calls for $15,000,000 appropriation per year to be expended by the State Highway Commission for the construction of Farm-to-market Highways. There is nothing in the Colson Bill to prevent the Highway Commission from using $10,000,000 of this appropriation to match the Federal Farm-to-market appropriation, which has been matched in the past from the motor fuel Tax. This means that there will only be $5,000,000 more money to construct Farm-to-market roads than we have been receiving in the past, or about 2 additional miles per county a year.
"Farm-to-market roads are nothing more than secondary roads in the State Highway system. Construction cost of Farm-to-market Highways throughout the State averages about $9,500 per mile, which means the $5,000,000 appropriation will only construct slightly more than two miles per county a year."
"Texas has a good highway system, in fact the best in the union. The farmers number one problem is to get from his farm to the Highway. If the farmer can reach the highway he can go to market, or anywhere else he desires.
"The McLellan Rural Road Bill, which was backed by the Farm Bureau and all other groups interested in getting the farmer out of the mud; was designed to construct the types of roads necessary to bring the farmer out of the mud to the Highway, at a cost which would construct more than 4500 miles per year in the State, or a little more than 17 miles per county per year. It will take at least 60,000 miles of rural roads to enable all the farmers in Texas to reach the Highway or an average of 236 miles per county. Under the McLellan Bill it will take nearly 14 years to get all the farmers out of the mud whereas the present Farm-to-market system with a cost of $9,500,000 per mile it will take about 40 years to get all the farmers on all weather roads."

Mr. Barbour concludes by saying, "Although the McLellan Bill did pass this session of the Legislature, the Farm Bureau has already made plans to continue the fight to get the farmers out of the mud."

SOIL CONSERVATION NEWS

3,050 feet of diversion terraces were run this week on the A. E. Bailey farm southwest of Iowa Park. These diversion terraces will direct pasture water from the cultivated field. Mr. Bailey is now in process of eradicating mesquite by applying kerosene. His pastures will be cross fenced and a rotation grazing program followed.

Terrace lines have been run on the E. E. Clack, Gale Lowrance, and the Van Lesley farms this week. Personnel of the Soil Conservation Service assigned to the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District run the lines.

Irrigation laterals are now in the process of being constructed on the Mike Hartmangruber farm Southwest of Iowa Park. These irrigation laterals are constructed or elevated mostly above natural ground to insure good head of water. County equipment of Commissioner E. E. Voyles is doing the construction work.

Elevated irrigation lateral ditches are now being constructed on the Hardin College farm. The work is being done by equipment owned by the irrigation district. Most of the land that is now being leveled, bordered, and prepared for irrigation will be planted to alfalfa or legumes and grass mix this fall. Legumes are the best crop that can be grown on land to increase the permeability or water intake of the soil. Most of the land has formed a hard pan from plowing approximately the same depth year after year. Legumes with their large taproot help break this hard pan. Some farmers are using a large pan breaker to break this hard pan before planting legumes and then planning on legumes from then on to keep the soil in a more loose friable condition.

Some farmers have burned off wheat stubble after wheat harvest. From results of tests this is not a recommended conservation practice. A mulch of wheat straw on or near the surface of soil retards wind erosion in Fall or early Spring, and the straw also helps hold moisture. Straw on surface of soil helps control water erosion. The more organic matter a soil has the more capable it is of holding water, and organic matter can only be added to the soil by decayed vegetation or animal matter.

Doctor Encourages Control of Flies

During the last several summers, considerable enthusiasm was shown by various local organizations such as Chambers of Commerce, many Civic Organizations, and others in the arranging of a fly eradication program. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, says that for taking interest in this work, the responsible parties are to be commended.

However, without year-around community sanitation the ultimate result, which is so important has not always been too successful; in some areas that has given rise to rumors that flies are DDT resistant.

"The Texas State Department of Health heartily endorses a fly spraying program, provided it includes a general clean-up program carried out during the entire year," Dr. Cox said. "For example, why spray a garbage heap that not only invites but actually breeds flies when it should have been removed. Why spray the city dump when it really should be covered. I fear the unplanned spraying program is similar to the application of perfume or toilet water come B. O. or the use of powder to cover dirt.

In a well planned control program, Dr. Cox says, all places where flies such as dumps, rubbish garbage piles, decayed material should be cleaned up, hauled away and buried. Proper garbage and rubbish containers with fly tight covers should be demanded. All buildings should be fitted, preferably with one hose each manned by an operator and spray where flies and other will light. It does little to spray the center of the ball diamond, or to walk. Spray the surface insects light or breed.

A residual spray remains until the DDT wash is covered with green soot. This usually lasts six weeks. After that, spray is recommended the item of clean-up being carried out.
