HELP WANTED

Now that vacation-time is here, we should remind American industrialists, great and small, of the patient work the Thomas Alva Edison Foundation has been doing to enlarge and improve our desperately needed annual crop of engineers.

For four consecutive years the Foundation, under the inspired leadership of its executive director, Vice Admiral Harold G. Bowen, USN (Ret), has been conducting "Institute" meetings to promote and expand the cooperation and mutual understanding of education and industry in these two-day sessions at Glenmont, the home of Thomas Alva Edison, each group has explored the means of helping youngsters to understand engineering as a way of life, to appreciate its opportunities and to prepare themselves for its rewards.

Among the several things to which the industry members pledged themselves was providing summer jobs to prospective engineers and scientists, with the opportunity of learning the whole plant operation, and the significance of the plant to the community.

Certainly no blue print is required for any industrialist to recognize such an opportunity to serve his country, his industry and his fellow man — in whom he should be able to see himself — a good many years ago.

ALL WE NEED IS CRUST

The Roumanian Government is protesting US action in sending Christache Zambeti, former first secretary at the Roumanian Legation in Washington — and so are a lot of American citizens, although on different grounds.

Zambeti was declared persona non grata, after Valeriu Georgescu, a naturalized US citizen revealed that the diplomat had offered to restore his two sons to him if he would become a spy for Communist Roumania. The two boys, Peter and Constantin are prisoners in a Roumanian concentration camp. The protest, in the usual Iron Curtain pattern, declares Georgescu to be a spy and traitor to the Roumanian people although he had waited patiently over there for six months for his legal visa to leave the country. Thus he feels they couldn't have had much on him.

But still, perhaps we should have kept Zambeti here in jail, along with his boss, and the rest of that Commie crowd — at least until Peter and Constantin were freed and placed in the custody of their heart-broken parents. If the Roumanian Legation is recruiting spies, or trying to, we have reason enough, certainly, to restrict their freedom.

One pigeon has flown the coop, at the invitation of the State Department. But the others might make a pie.

OLD GLORY

On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress officially declared the Stars and Stripes to be the flag of the United States. One hundred and twenty years later, someone resurrected this significant fact, and Flag Day became a day for annual observance in 1897.

On this 176th anniversary of the original event — which is 35 stars later, and should be 37 — seems a good time to recall the words of Woodrow Wilson on an earlier Flag Day.

"— this flag which we honor, and under which we serve is the emblem of unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation. It has no other character than that which we give it from generation to generation. The choice is ours."

News From The Congress

By FRANK IKARD

All indications are that the Administration has revised its thinking about what is "must" legislation for this season of Congress. It now seems highly improbable that any amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act will be considered before Congress recess. I doubt if any of the proposed amendments to this law will reach the Floor. It also seems that final action on Hawaiian Statehood is becoming less probable each day. There is also now practically no chance that any consideration will be given to Social Security in view of the fact that the chairman of the Committee that has jurisdiction over this matter in the House has stated that there would be no bills reported out during this session that would affect Social Security.

There is a great need for revision of our Social Security Laws, particularly in view of the fact that under the present Law, in many instances, those that need the benefits least are getting the most and those that have the greatest need are getting the least. However, the House did approve funds for a study of the complete Social Security Program by a subcommittee of the House Ways and Means Committee. Still on the program to be considered before Congress adjourns is legislation to admit 240,000 Eastern European Refugees, extension of the excess profits tax, reorganization plan of the Agriculture and Defense Departments, and extension of the reciprocal trade program. In addition to this and several other legislative proposals, of course, there are several appropriation bills that will be considered by the House just as soon as they are reported out of the various committees that are now working on them.

This week the House passed the Department of Army Civil Functions Appropriation Bill for 1954. As it passed the House, the bill was Seventy-five Million Dollars below the Budget estimate and, roughly, one Hundred and Sixty Million Dollars under the appropriations for the current year. As this action indicates, the House has so far been very economy minded in considering appropriations.

The only Department of the Government that I know of which has some real record of economy is the Department of Agriculture. The Agriculture appropriation in 1953 was 39.4 percent less than was appropriated for that Department in 1940. During this same period of time the Department of Commerce received 1.370 per cent more. The Labor Department received 54.3 per cent more. The State Department received 1.148 percent more, and the Treasury Department appropriation was greater by 203 per cent. Also, since 1939, the Department of Agriculture has reduced its employees by 28.7 per cent. No other Department of our Government has shown any such decrease. There undoubtedly can be more progress made in economy and efficiency in this Department, but I think they should be commended for the progress that has been made during the last thirteen years, and many of the other Departments should certainly follow their lead.

Visitors from home this week were Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Davis of Bellevue, Dr. D. C. Eiland and son, Allen, of Munday; Mrs.

Grover C. Johnson, Professor A. F. Edwards, Mr. David Robinson, Miss May Harrison, Miss Bertha Taylor, Mrs. William Newell, all of Wichita Falls; and Cpl. Anthony Fenoglio now stationed at the Army Chemical Center in Maryland whose home is Nocona.

Gift Bible Adds Sentimental Note To Lovely Service

The white Bible which was a wedding gift from her groom served as a base for the orchid and stephanotis nosegay carried by Miss Jo Ann Spiser when she exchanged nuptial vows with Guy T. England, Jr. The Trinity American Lutheran church was the scene of the marriage service which united the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Spiser of Wichita Falls and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy T. England of this city.

The couple recited their marriage lines Friday evening under the direction of Rev. Lee Roy Brandes, pastor of the Trinity American Lutheran church, who was assisted by Rev. Hal Dean Mabry, Jr., a student in the Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in Ft. Worth.

The bride was a dainty picture in a gown of white chantilly lace over nylon tulle and satin. In design, it featured a full ballerina length skirt and a closely fitted strapless bodice topped by a bolera featuring long sleeves and a brief Peter Pan collar. Her headdress was a Juliet cap of pearl and sequin-sprinkled lace which held a shoulder length veil of imported illusion. Her accessories included her mother's bridal bracelet and a dainty lace-trimmed linen handkerchief loaned by Mrs. H. B. Carson. The young lady was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor for the bride was Mrs. W. B. Hicks, her sister while Miss Dorothy Dubberly participated in the ceremony as bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of blue organdy over taffeta, the dress styled with extremely full ballerina-length skirt and closely fitted cap-sleeved bodice that featured unusual collars. They carried colonial nosegays of red delight roses mingled with puffs of blue mair.

Delmar S. England of Burkburnett was best man for his brother. Other masculine members of the wedding party were Ertis B. Gibson of Duncan and E. A. Gebert of Wichita Falls.

Miss Ernette Gebert, a niece of the bride, and Joe Weldon, both of Wichita Falls provided the wedding music.

The ceremony took place in a setting featuring handsome arrangements of white gladiolus and marconi daisies alternated with pyramided groupings of white candles. Small clusters of the chosen blossoms ornamented the prie-dieu on which the bride and groom knelt for their exchange of vows. Similarly decorated were extremities of pews reserved for family members.

Immediately after the service the newlyweds were honored with a reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Of major decorative interest there was the refreshment table which was centered by a silver candelabra bearing white tapers in branches ornamented with clusters of white Esther Reed daisies. Green and white garland extended thence to encircle punch bowl and cake which marked extremities of the board.

With duties of serving and entertaining the guests, the host and hostess were assisted by a house party consisting of Miss Ann Craven of Vernon, Mrs. H. D. Mabry, Jr. of Ft. Worth, Misses Patricia Phelan, Louise Hilley and Betty Sae Scott, all of Wichita Falls.

The reception preceded departure of Mr. and Mrs. England for a honeymoon in Denver, Colo., the latter traveling in a smart navy blue suit complemented by navy blue and white accessories. On their return to Texas, the couple will establish residence at 203 1-2 South Avenue B in Burkburnett where the groom is connected with the Magnolia Petroleum Company.

The bride, a graduate of Wichita Falls High school and Draughton's Business College, has been employed here as a secretary in the offices of the Texas Employment Commission. Her social affiliations in the city have included those of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority's Zeta Epsilon chapter of YWCA and the El Dorado Club.

Mr. England, a longtime resident of Burkburnett, recently was released from active duty with the United States Navy to which he was recalled in June, 1951. His first tour of duty covered a two year period during the war.

Wichita State Teachers Ass'n

Officials of the Texas State Teachers Association said today administration leaders had consistently refused to consider any reasonable solution to the teaching problem and had insisted on increasing local property taxes to finance any raise.

STA officials advised the organization's 53,000 members no real compromise was offered by those opposing the $800 teacher pay raise bill.

President R. L. (Bob) Proffer, Executive Secretary Denton H. Tennyson of Austin and H. W. Stilwell of Texarkana of the TSTA legislative committee, also outlined several compromise overtures by supporters of the $600

the bill but refused to raise taxes to finance it.

"Soon after Senate Bill 24 passed the House," they said, "it was obvious that administration forces in the legislature would not permit passage of a tax bill which would raise enough money to finance Senate Bill 24, thereby making the legislative act a futile and useless one. We immediately contacted administration leaders in the house and senate to see if something could be done. These conferences were futile."

Proffer said he had called on Gov. Shivers on May 14, in the hope that some solution might be found, but that the "Governor flatly refused to cooperate."

The TSTA leaders pointed out that they opposed the so-called Kilgore bill, which would have given teachers a $306 raise if and when the natural gas tax is upheld by the Supreme court, because it would have increased local property taxes and would have eliminated some of the services under the Gilmer-Aikin program.

Administration leaders flatly refused to support any pay raise measure which did not include a provision to increase local property taxes. They also insisted on eliminating state financial aid for supervisors and counselors. An attempt by House sponsors of the $600 bill to take those features out of the Kilgore bill was rejected.

"TSTA should not be and has not been in the position of being willing to cripple or sacrifice its school program for the conditional promise of a small salary increase," the organization's members were told, "when the principles involved were so far reaching."

Brilliant Acts Will Be Seen At Graham's Rodeo

The Possum Kingdom Round-up has a reputation for presenting the very best and most unusual of specialty acts at the annual rodeo and this year's show will maintain that reputation, four night performances, June 24 through 27.

No less than seven specialty acts have been booked, including the Roy Rogers liberty act, eight beautiful Palomino horses presented by Glenn Randall, trainer of Trigger, Trigger, Jr., and other famous movie horses. The Palominos perform in a 40-foot ring, a series of precision drills as well as doing a waltz in pairs. The animals work at liberty, no lines being used.

House sponsors also offered administration forces another compromise which was rejected. It would have given teachers a $306 raise Sept. 1, 1953, plus an additional $90 on September 1, 1954. It also would have put a dedication tax on natural gas reserves to pay for the raise and the tax would have become inoperative if the Supreme Court upheld the gas gathering tax. Gov. Shivers, although he favored this type in 1951 refusing in 1953 to consider this tax, which was designed to collect a great deal of revenue from out-of-state consumers of Texas gas. Administration leaders again insisted on local property tax increases instead of a tax on long-line natural gas pipelines.

The TSTA spokesmen said their cause is not lost because there will be another session of the legislature. They mentioned the possibility of a special session, which they noted the governor can call "for the express purpose of solving this vital problem at any time he desires."

"We stand ready, now as in the past, to discuss this problem at any time with the governor or members of the Legislature and to help in every way possible to try to solve it," they added.

He's a lucky man who has a wife and a cigarette lighter, and both working.

Observations

By R. D. L.

The wheat harvest will soon be over in this vicinity. A quiet kind of peace will settle over the land when the fall season comes in. In the country to the north of Red River the crops are not yet ripened, but for the most part the fields and gardens have done their year's work. Nature's seasons rise and fall like the tides of the sea.

The night of the year when the fields sleep, will soon be with us. The migratory birds will begin to get ready for their long flight over land and sea to their winter homes. But this is only temporary rest, and it is those wonderful fields and birds we love, gain strength for another year. With the same care and proper fertilization, the field will yield with the same old productivity in the coming spring. For migratory birds the winter season is a period of rest, a time when they have no cares other than those associated with daily search for food or escape from their natural enemies.

After a long winter, many of us are impatient for spring to wait for the swelling of buds the opening of early flowers, and the springing grass. Several weeks lie between the end of winter and the truly genial spring days, during this interval we look for something to herald the settled spring season. And the thing that gives us that for which we are unconsciously looking, more than any other signs, is the arrival of the flowers and the birds. To be a lover of birds is in itself a good recommendation for any one.

Not only in the early spring, but through summer and autumn, we have a succession of flowers of every kind. Some last but a little while, and some feast our eyes for a long time. They come one after another. Each has its own season, and opens at its appointed time each year. In this succession of flowers we are never, without some of them before us till the cold weather of winter comes. Nature has thus kindly provided us with beautiful things to look upon, in the garden and in the field, through all the warmer months of the year. Flowers have habits, or ways of acting just like people do. There are some flowers that shut themselves up at night as if to go to sleep, and open again in the morning. The pond lily closes its pure white leaves, at night as it lies upon its watery bed. But it unfolds in them again in the morning. How beautiful it looks as it is spread out upon the water in the sunlight. The little mountain daisy is among the flowers that close at night. But it is as bright as ever when it awakes in the morning. All nature has its periods of relaxation. In human life also, there needs to be these same periods of relaxation and rest. After the days work is done, there should be the night of rest. Some people attempt to do their day's work, and then keep it up through the night with their dissipations. But this continued activities goes contrary to nature. The field cultivated in that way without fertilization and rest, would soon wear out. Human life will also.

VETERANS Administration

Q—I expect to graduate from law school under the Korean GI Bill. After I finish, would I be allowed to take further training on-the-job in a law office, for the study of clerkship?

A—You would be permitted to take this job training under the Korean GI Bill only if your State requires it as a condition that must be met before you may be admitted to the bar examination and to practice.

Q—I am the widow of a World War I veteran and I have a daughter age 20, who is in school. The VA has been paying us a pension that covers us both. My daughter is planning to get married and drop out of school. Will she still be entitled to a pension?

A—No. Under the law she may not be paid a pension after she marries or drops out of school, or both.

Q—I have been paying premiums on my GI insurance by having VA deduct the payments out of my monthly disability compensation check. My compensation has just been reduced so that it no longer covers the amount of the premium. Could VA continue to apply the compensation toward my premium payments, if I send in a check for the difference each month?

A—No. One of the requirements that must be met, for VA to pay premiums out of compensation, is that your monthly compensation pay be at least equal to the amount of the premium.

Q—I have a 20 year endowment GI insurance policy. I have elected to receive installment payments, after the endowment period is up. What would happen if I die before I receive all the payments, and I fail to name a beneficiary?

A—in such a case, the unpaid installments would be paid in one sum to your estate.

Senior Trip To New Orleans

Early Friday morning, May 29, thirty three Burkburnett seniors and three sponsors boarded a chartered bus for the annual senior trip — destination New Orleans.

Our first stop was Dallas, Texas, where we made a tour of the Dallas Morning News plant. We ate box lunches at a city park and had as our guests, Mrs. Hendley, a former teacher, and Mrs. Minga, whose husband was Methodist minister here several years ago.

The drive to Alexandria, La. was long but broken by a stop for supper at Shreveport. The afternoon was very hot and our five gallon water can was visited very frequently. We were glad to sight Alexandria and more than glad to climb out at the Bentley Hotel, collect our bags, and head for a cooling bath.

After breakfast the next morning we were off again. We passed through Le Comte, where the Louisiana home of James Bowie has been on Bayou Boeuf. The flat landscape became very interesting. The plantations were large, and scattered all over were the Negro cabins whose architecture has not changed in the last 175 years. The fields, clean and laid out with precision, were mostly cotton and sugar cane. Live oaks bearded with Spanish moss lined both sides of the highway, and canals full of water hyacinths ran parallel to it.

In Baton Rouge we visited the capitol, considered the costliest in the United States. It is beautiful and seems guarded by a statue of Huey P. Long, whose body is buried on the grounds. After driving through the grounds of LSU we were off again, this time for New Orleans.

We arrived at the Skyline Motel, our temporary home, about sundown. We were delighted with the clean, cool rooms and showers. That night we went to Lake Ponchartrun. An amusement park is there, and while some swam others rode the scary roller-coaster or shrieked their way through Circus-Haze. It was a tired group that stumbled into the air-conditioned rooms that night.

Sunday morning a few went to church — most rested. At 2:30 p. m. we went down to the harbor for our cruise. Down famous Canal street we rubber-necked. When we boarded the boat, the group scattered to all three decks. The water was smooth, and so no one suffered motion sickness although a few were apprehensive. We passed the enormous warehouses and ships (mostly freighters) from every nation. To land lubbers this was very interesting.

When we docked we went to "The Two Sisters" restaurant for dinner. As it is in a patio at dusk, when the candles were lighted, the atmosphere became very French. The sea food was delicious and expensive. When the orchestra played "The Eyes of Texas" vociferous handclapping came from our table. We had a group picture made here which will revive memories in the years to come.

The next day we had a guided tour through New Orleans. We went over the Huey P. Long Bridge, the longest free bridge in the world; saw the battlefield of the Battle of New Orleans; saw the homes of Aubobon, Dorothy Dix, Lafcadio Hearne and Long; and visited the oldest cemetery in New Orleans, where every body must be buried above ground.

The St. Louis Cathedral is not the prettiest one in the United States but one could spend hours or days in it and the Cabildo. There can be seen the original document transferring Louisiana to the United States, Napoleon's death mask, Catlines paintings, the Madri Gras costumes, and on and on. The open market place was small but enticing, and the square doughnuts and cafe au lait at the morning Call was delicious and for wonder, cheap. We just got a glance at the International Mart but wished for more time there.

We left New Orleans for Galveston Tuesday morning. We went over more bridges and saw more miles of flat country. At mid morning we took a short side trip to the Evangeline country near St. Martinsville. When we recrossed the Texas border yells and whoops went up thru the bus.

In Galveston Kefauver had closed the amusement pier but we saw the seawall and swam in the Gulf. We came in by ferry, which was an extra pleasure, and left by causeway.

Our next day's destination was Burkburnett via San Antonio and Austin. In San Antonio we parked the bus near the Alamo where most of us spent our time. This place will always be sacred to Texans.

Near Lampasas we ran into hills which looked good after all that flat country. In Austin we drove right up Congress Ave. to the capitol. The pink granite glowed in the late afternoon light and we toured it thoroughly. Shiver's office, the senate chamber, and rotunda. Then, after a very brief ride through the University of Texas campus we were headed for home.

We drove in about 1:30 a. m. Thursday — sleepy, grateful, and quiet. The seniors of 1953 were now alumni and alumnae. We had covered 1682 miles and used the same driver the 1952 seniors had, Mr. Tom Chesher. This was a wonderful trip. We couldn't have done it without your help.

Those who went to New Orleans were Philip Baker, Norman Mullins, Jerry McClure, Jon Hi Bear, Bill Lundberg, Jake Jacob, Norman Dodson, Joe Bill Dodson, Donald Blackwell, Donald Mills, Jimmy McMurtry, Tom McNeil, Woodrow Bilby, Bennie Woodrow, Byron Key, Earl Landers, L. W. Teel, Donald Gee, George Powell, Patsy Sutterfield, Louise Stamps, Shirlee Tyler, Mary Lou Cox, Martha Wolf, Patsy Wright, Shirley Wilford, Donnie James, Erma Smith, Joyce Malone, LaVeta Prueitt, Lovonne Burns, Lillie Brazdil, Eva Joe Dickson, Mr. Whitaker, Miss Emily Moore, and Mrs. Minnie Benton.

Mrs. C. W. Costen and her two daughters from Kilgore, Texas were visiting among old time friends in Burkburnett the past week.

AUSTIN Highlights

By Senator "Cotton" George Moffett

The 53rd series of the Texas Legislature adjourned on May 27 after being in session 135 days. It was the shortest regular session in ten years. Nearly 1300 bills were introduced in the two branches. They covered a wide variety of subjects. Naturally, a good many of these bills never passed.

In a democratic form of government any member has a right to introduce a bill on any subject of his choice, but a favorable vote of the majority of the members of each branch legislature is required before any particular bill may be placed on the Governor's desk. This is often hard to secure.

Expressions from the people about proposed laws were more numerous at this session than any other which I have attended. It is not unusual for a member of the Senate to get above 50 letters in a single day. The people saw fit to express various beliefs and opinions and generally the members were glad to have the benefit of such information. Because of the variety of opinions expressed upon proposed legislation, it was not possible to secure the passage of many of the bills introduced. Their sponsors will have to await the time with patience until another session when a more favorable attitude may prevail.

At this time, I desire to call attention to a special bill providing for the registration of out of state trucks which I introduced and which may be of considerable importance to those who employ out of state trucks during wheat harvest. This bill was signed by the Governor about a month ago and provides for a special 30 day license for out of state wheat trucks who desire to transport wheat from the field to the elevator in this State. The old law expired and a new one was necessary. However, the old law provided for a 60 day license, and it was thought a 30 day license would fit the condition better. I am glad to have been of some assistance in this matter. The new law is permanent and will be helpful in the future when our part of the state produces a heavy wheat crop, thus calling for hundreds of wheat trucks from other states to help handle the Texas crop. In the absence of a law providing for this special thirty day license, these out of state trucks would have to register in Texas for the full twelve months if they hauled for hire here. Not many would care to purchase a twelve month's license, and thus a shortage of wheat trucks transportation would develop. The new law fills the gap.

I will discuss other bills in a latter issue.

SO BEAUTIFUL! SO POWERFUL!

SO ROOMY! SO LOW IN PRICE!

Judge Pontiac purely from the standpoint of quality and it's hard to believe that it is actually a low-priced car. Certainly it's as distinctively styled as any car on the road—and its beauty carries through into its luxurious, roomy Body by Fisher. Performance-wise, Pontiac is second to none, with power to spare that whisks you through city traffic or cruises with remarkable economy. And Pontiac is a big car, with a long, 122-inch wheelbase.

But Pontiac's outstanding feature is its price—a price so low that if you can afford any new car you can afford a Pontiac. Come in and get the facts that prove that dollar for dollar you can't beat a Pontiac!

YOUR HEALTH

By Geo. W. Cox, M. D.

With spring house cleaning and the anti-moth battle under way, housewives all over Texas have been using insecticide spray. Because most of these are poisonous and some are inflammable, special precaution noted on the labels should be observed, says Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

Common sense safety rules include protection of food, dishes, silverware and cooking utensils from moth, mosquito or fly spray. If you spill concentrated insecticide solutions on yourself wash off immediately with soap and water.

Don't expose yourself or members of your family unnecessarily to insecticide dust or spray mist. Provide extra ventilation by opening doors and windows when extensive jobs are being done.

Care should be taken not to spray liquid insecticides into electrical outlets or on exposed electrical connections because of danger of short circuits. Don't apply oil-base sprays near fire, flame or sparks and don't smoke while applying them.

Special precautions should be taken to store insecticides where children will not be able to reach them. Never put into a kitchen cupboard where they might be mistaken for food.

Mrs. Artie Whiteside is a Burk Burnett visitor this week. She is on business and visiting also.

Golden Study Club Holds Installation Service May 28th

The club presented Mrs. Bette Parsons, retiring president with a lovely gift and Mrs. Brookman a beautiful corsage.

Those present and enjoying a delicious dinner were Mesdames Beaver, Bills, Burton, Elliot, Lee Lilley, O'Branovich, Maag, Parsons, Thaxton, Vaught Wampler, Kennett, Coles, Taylor, Wise, Flanagan, Simpson and our guest Mrs. Brookman.

Homebuilders Class Meets June Third

The Homebuilders class of the First Methodist church met June 3rd in the home of Mrs. J. P. Lawler with Mrs. W. A. Browning co-hostess.

Mrs. Gage, class president, opened the meeting by the group singing "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and repeating the Lord's prayer in unison.

In the absence of Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. H. C. Gilbert brought a beautiful devotional from the 23rd Psalms. After a brief business session and voting not to meet during the summer months, Mrs. Gilbert and Mrs. Hugh Jones with Mrs. R. H. Henry at the piano, favored the class by singing "Whispering Hope". The meeting closed with class benediction. Lovely refreshments were served to 17 members.

Veterans Administration

"To the Home-Buying Veteran," a 32 page guide for veterans planning to buy or build homes with GI loans, is now available at all Veterans Administration offices.

VA said the pamphlet is designed to help World War II and post Korea veterans get started on the right foot under the GI home loan program.

The pamphlet discusses what a veteran should look for in selecting the neighborhood, the lot and the house itself.

It also covers the costs of home ownership, the contract of purchase, final settlement or closing the loan, and what to expect before and after moving into a new home.

The responsibilities of the veteran home owner and what the VA can and cannot do to assist the veteran are also discussed.

A copy of the pamphlet will be sent to each veteran applying for a certificate of eligibility for a GI loan. Veterans also may obtain a copy by writing the nearest VA regional office. There is no charge for the pamphlet.
