Roy Magers presented, for the club, a huge birthday cake to J. S. Mills on his 75th birthday. Lion Mills has been a member of the local club 34 years, with a perfect attendance record! The cake, bearing the Lions colors, was made by Henry's Pastry Shop.

Colored slides were shown, made by Benny last June when he accompanied a ship load of livestock to Korea. The shipment was made up by Texas 4-H clubs and churches. J. C. Hinkle had sent a Holstein heifer as his contribution and saw pictures of her as she was being assigned to a 4-H club in Korea.

Young Rogers made several hundred slides on the trip and this was his 28th showing to groups all over North Texas.

First Christian Church

Bible School—9:45 A. M. Morning Worship—11:00 A. M. Sermon, "Speak Oft With Thy Word."

Evening Service — 7:30 p. m. (Acts 9.)

A few months ago I was talking with a very good friend of mine whom I like greatly. He is what might be described by some as a typical "American boy". He is good-looking, intelligent, athletic, a college graduate, sincere, serious, clean both in word and deed, and an all around nice guy. He does not drink, smoke, attend bad movies, or associate with question- able people. He has never been in trouble with the police. But one thing that has always bothered me is that he has never united with any church, although he attends one now and then. He explained this to me thus: "I feel that I can be as good outside the church as I could in it."

First, let's consider his statement. He states that he can be as good on the outside. What does that matter? Is this life all that is important to him? Does he have any hope or curi- osity concerning eternity? Did Jesus come into the world sim- ply to teach men how to be good? Or did He come here for the purpose of making them to be children of His Father? To be good is not the ultimate goal in life. But, rather, to find life beyond life, resulting in the betterment of the world thru faith in something greater.

Can a man be as clean stay- ing outside the bathtub as he can in it?

Monty Patton, small son of Mrs. Nadine Patton, suffered a serious head injury Saturday while playing at the City park. He fell from a slide and struck his head on a concrete slab. The child was taken to Ft. Worth Thursday (today) for further x-rays and examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Harms of Burkburnett, accompanied by Mike Harms and Miss Ruth Redman of Dallas spent a very en- joyable weekend in San Antonio. They met Mr. and Mrs. Desmond Harms and children of McAllen there and spent the weekend visiting and sight-seeing.

James Johnson and son James Warren of Haynesville, La., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Johnson, Sr. Bill and Joe Johnson who had spent three weeks with their grandparents, returned home with their daddy. James is with the Halliburton Cement Service Company.

Mrs. M. C. Archer has return- ed home from Frederick after several days visit with her sister in law who recently underwent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Scott visit- ed their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Noyes Silkwood and children in Odessa over the weekend.

She hung her laundry in the White House East Room!

ABIGAIL ADAMS was no clinging vine.

Wife of one United States President and mother of another, she exercised great influence on both the social and political life of her time. Besides, she did the Adams' family washing and ironing and cooking and dishwashing—and raised four children, practically alone, while her husband was away for long periods of time on business.

And Abigail did even more. She was an excellent business woman. She managed her husband's modest estate with such discretion and skill that John Adams was able to retire from public service to a life of comparative ease. And this was in distinct contrast to the poverty that embittered the closing years of some of his illustrious contemporaries.

John Adams would never have been able to gain this security without the invaluable help of his devoted wife Abigail.

AND THE SAME could be said about many successful men today. Many American wives not only inspire their husbands to set worthwhile goals—but also aid them in attaining them. And a family's sound financial standing is dependent as much upon a woman's ability to manage money as it is her husband's ability to make it. That's why a savings program should be a family program—as much the wife's responsibility as it is her husband's.

Many wives today are encouraging their husbands to invest regularly in U. S. Series E Savings Bonds on the Payroll Savings Plan. It's the easiest way to save—and one of the safest. Once you sign up for Payroll Savings, you can relax and know that your saving is being done for you automatically. Each payday your money goes into Savings Bonds—where the principal is assured and your returns guaranteed.

Help your husband gain financial security tomorrow—by inspiring him to invest in Savings Bonds today.

For the big things in your life, be ready with U.S. Savings Bonds

Junior Play Opens Friday, March 23rd

Under the direction of Mrs. Minnie Benton, history teacher, the Junior play will be present- ed Friday, March 23rd at 8:00 p. m. in the high school audi- torium. Bill Garland and Pat McCabe have the leads in this year's presentation, "Here Come the Brides."

Bill plays the part of Jimmy Took, a good looking young American boy who is slightly lazy but can get away with it because he receives a fat check monthly from a rich uncle. He writes his uncle, Richard Siber, that someone is staying with him now. Uncle Dan Took, out of the goodness of his heart, starts sending larger checks, thinking his nephew has taken a bride. Actually Jimmy's guest is Bill Thompson, played by Billy Mize. When Uncle Dan comes unexpectedly to visit, a bride must be shown. Madge Burns (Pat McCabe) is elected because she is Jimmy's best girl. When Madge refuses to fool the old man and Peg West- field, Uncle Dan's ward, (Pat Lacy) it is decided that Bill must masquerade as the bride.

The results of this madcap mixup will be revealed in the annual Junior event.

Supporting this cast are Billy Baker as Mr. Oswald, an inno- cent bill collector, Vyvyan Mor- ris as Aunt Ellen Thompson, Bill's aunt who has her eye on Uncle Dan, Marcell Buckley as Mrs. Duvall Smythe, who has her eye on Uncle Dan's money, Colette Boyle, as "Bubble" Duvalle, Mrs. Smythe's sister, Cleona Mullins as "Lady Mac- Beth," a strange lady who ap- pears on the scene and Gary Woodard as McDaniel, a nurse.

IT'S THE PUBLIC'S MONEY

For many years the Texas Press Association — of which this newspaper, along with a vast majority of all Texas newspapers, is a member — has suggested laws that would require governing bodies of the state, various districts and municipalities, to open their record to the public.

In many instances, publication of minutes would be required, and in the case of agencies handling public funds publication of a financial statement would be mandatory.

Some progress has been made in these efforts, but not nearly as much as the importance of the project justifies. There never has been a great deal of opposition to the TPA proposals. But they have been shunted aside for other matters.

Apathy — not opposition — has kept them off the statute books.

Now all Texas is concerned over the numerous, unsavory circumstances that have come to light the past few years. There have been the Duvall County revelations; the veterans land investigations; the U. S. Trust and other insurance debacles; to say nothing of smaller local instances of corruption and abuse of public trust of which there have been many.

Men who are in a position to know — such as the Attorney General of Texas — say that none of these things could have gone on for long had there been adequate laws governing Public Notice. It is doubtful that any of them would have been attempted, had there been requirements that official actions be made public.

Proper public notice laws will prevent such things in the future. Such laws automatically lead to good government.

This is an election year. If you think public business should be made public, ask each candidate for the legislature how he feels about secrecy in government affairs. Vote for and support men who pledge themselves to help pass legislation requiring publication of financial reports by insurance companies, county treasurers, and any and all persons who handle public funds.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PORT HURON, Mich., Times-Herald: "Socialized medicine is just one of the socialist programs that does not work—and that never has worked. The United States did well to turn down socialized medicine — this Country is the healthiest Country in the world and free enterprise medicine is responsible for that happy state of affairs."

BROWNSVILLE, Pa., Telegraph: "What built the electric industry and gave the nation light and power? The answer is free enterprise. And Edison was the ultimate exponent of that free enterprise."

ALLENDALE, S. C. Citizen: "The federal government feeds on itself. The more power it gets the more it goes after. At times government agencies are guilty of using the people's money to buy control of them in areas where the people can well do without federal control."

KNOXVILLE, Iowa, Express: "The man who is hopelessly in debt is a lot worse off than the national government which is in the same fix. The individual is subject to laws which can seize his property—the government just raises the debt limit a few more billions and pays more interest which accounts for much of your high taxes of today."

PERPETUATING THE FORESTS

"Woodman spare that tree! Touch not a single bough. In youth it sheltered me, And I'll protect it now."

This sentiment was expressed by George Pope Morris back in 1830. "That tree," in a collective sense, did more than shelter America in her youth. It sustained and gave her strength. From the time of the first settlers in this country the seemingly limitless forests have been a primary resource from which the nation was built.

In 350 years twice as much wood has been removed as was standing when the first colonists landed at Jamestown and Plymouth. Only a little over one-third of this went for useful purposes, the rest having been lost to fire, insects and disease. Yet the forests still cover more than a third of the U. S. land area today for trees grow and replace themselves if given a chance.

The forests industries recognize that the demands of advancing civilization are out distancing the abilities of the forests to renew themselves without scientific propagation programs. The American woodsman is, therefore, perpetuating "that tree" in a costly nationwide effort of forest conservation which has become an integral part of his business. In the past 25 years the intelligent action of private industry, in cooperation with government in many instances, has brought the rate of new growth up to approximately the rate of removal.

By providing an endless supply of trees the American woodsman is enabling America to "have its cake and eat it too."

From where I sit ... by Joe M.

Information "On The Line"

I was reading the other day how a person can get all sorts of things just by dialing a number on his telephone.

In New York you can get the time, the weather, or a prayer. In Philadelphia it's the stock reports. In Boston a voice tells bird watchers what's to be watched in the park.

Over in Europe, they go further. Vienna offers a five-minute fairy tale for kids. In Switzerland you can get the news in any of three languages. And a couple of places have "talking menus" for desperate housewives.

From where I sit, it matter if ideas are put in person—as long as we them or leave them. I like a glass of beer with per. You may prefer coffee branch water. Well, then opinions . . . but if he force them on you, it's an American's privilege to ply "hang up!"

From Your County Agent

Coastal Bermuda grass offers a real opportunity for forage production where adapted and properly managed. B. T. Haws county agent says tests and farm experience with this hybrid shows its value.

The county agent lists several advantages for coastal over common Bermuda. It produces more grazing or hay, is deeper rooted and more drought tolerant; has larger stems and leaves and grows more upright; more efficient users of water and fertilizer; more disease resistant; grows earlier in the spring and later in the fall and under good growing conditions becomes established more quickly.

Coastal is a sterile hybrid and must be started from sprig or rhizomes. It is adapted to the area in Texas east of the 30 inch rainfall belt but under irrigation can be grown westward until the 3,000 foot elevation is reached. The grass has exceptional ability to respond to fertilizer and will produce well with medium fertility. Don't expect much on poor soil, says Haws. It is furnishing good grazing on some soil that have been considered worthless because of salt.

Haws believes a small nursery is the best starting point. The nursery will provide low-cost sprigs which can be planted when labor and moisture are available for larger plantings, and sprigs will be fresh and liveable high.

Coastal should be planted in three to three and a half foot rows. A three foot spacing between the sprigs will require about 8 bushels of sprigs per acre; 18 inch spacing about 15 bushels and a 12 inch spacing about 27 bushels of sprigs. The heavier planting rate will give faster cover and less weed competition. The sprigs may be hand dropped in a shallow furrow and the soil packed around them with the foot. They should then be covered two inches deep and packed with the tractor wheel.

The grass may also be planted with sprig planters or tomato, tobacco, cabbage or pine tree transplanters. It should be planted in a clean seedbed and weeds should be controlled until the grass has covered the ground. It should not be planted, says Haws in establishing sods of common Bermuda, Dallis or other grasses

Guaranteed purity, higher germination and top crop yields are all on the credit side of certified planting seed. While germination and final yields are dependent upon available moisture, B. T. Haws, county agent, says farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality.

Certified seed usually are the best seed of a particular variety available. Seed with a "blue tag" comes from fields that were inspected during the growing season, properly handled at harvest time, cleaned and tested for purity and germination.

Certified seed may cost slightly more, but the added cost is good insurance, says Haws. He advises farmers to buy now the seed needed for planting this year's crops. Seed supplies are generally adequate but last minute shoppers find local stocks depleted.

If the planting seed has not been chemically treated for seed-borne and seedling diseases, Haws recommends treatment. He points out that farmers have found this practice profitable and insurance against poor stand and plant loss during early growth.

Local county agents can supply information on seed treating and also on adapted varieties, says Haws.

TELEPHONE TALK

Telephone Growth Boosts Prosperity

Here are some facts about what's behind your telephone, what it takes to meet the needs of people all over Texas for telephone service.

Last year Southwestern Bell spent $91 million on new construction and $150 million for day-to-day expenses in Texas. In one way or another, nearly everyone in Texas benefited from this expenditure to keep your service going — and growing.

One result, we hope, was the best telephone service you've ever enjoyed. Another result, we are sure, was a healthy boost to the prosperity of the entire state.

For example, $104 million (one of the state's largest business payrolls) went into the pockets of 26,000 Texans who work for the telephone company. And most of this was spent in communities like ours for all the many goods and services which local merchants and businessmen provide.

How Others Benefited From Telephone Activity

Another $1,500,000 went to Texas service stations and garages to help keep the company's fleet of 3,529 trucks and automobiles rolling. This included the cost of 2,919,880 gallons of gasoline, as well as tires, accessories, repair parts and $500,000 in direct labor costs.

Three hundred twenty-six Texas automobile dealers profited from the sale of 589 new trucks and 110 new automobiles to the company.

Those in the building industry were paid $7,500,000 for their work on new buildings, additions, and major improvements. New building activity alone involved 254 different contractors directly and provided enough work to keep 4,500 skilled carpenters, bricklayers, plumbers, electricians, and other craftsmen busy full time for a year.

In addition, we paid $4,665,000 to independent contractors for jobs ranging from tree trimming to laying underground cable conduit.

Another $2,618,000 went to local suppliers of office furniture and fixtures, printing, office supplies, and the hundreds of sundry items to carry on our business. And $840,000 additional went to local people and firms outside the company for building maintenance and odd jobs, ranging from window washing to trash handling.

'56 Construction to Break All Records

This year's construction program will add up to $106 million, the largest in our history.

Many long months of planning and engineering have gone into this 1956 program. It is based on the company's faith that the Texas communities we serve will continue to grow and prosper — and on our ability to attract more, new investment dollars from outside the business.

To meet your needs for more and more telephone service, we must depend on finding people in all parts of the country who are willing to invest their savings in our business.

So, you see, one of the very important factors of good telephone service is the faith of investors that their savings can earn a safe and reasonable return in the telephone business. Another is the public's faith in us as one of the state's most necessary citizens, an important contribution to continuing prosperity.

Longest Waiting Lines In 4 Years For Car Inspections

The Highway Safety Council of Texas today warned motorists that they face the "longest waiting lines in four years" if they postpone inspection of their automobiles nearer the April 15 deadline.

State law requires every motor vehicle in Texas—passenger car, truck, and bus—to pass an annual check-up on mechanical safety. It is unlawful to operate a vehicle which has not been inspected after the deadline.

Highway Safety Council Executive Director G. C. Morris said today:

"For the past two years, '54 and 1955, the bulk of private passenger cars have been inspected well ahead of the deadline and there have been no bothersome delays or snarls at the last minute. This year, however, inspections are far behind schedule and auto owners who wait beyond March will probably have to buck the longest waiting lines in four years to comply with the law."

Morris estimated that more than 150,000 automobiles a week would have to be inspected during the next five weeks to complete check-ups before the April deadline.

Only 35% Vehicles Inspected to Date In Wichita County

April 15th is the deadline for having your vehicle inspected this year. In Wichita County only 35% of the vehicles have been inspected since the start of this inspection period which was Sept. 15, 1955. This means the other 65% must be inspected in the next 37 days.

If we all wait until the last few days the inspection stations will be unable to make all the inspections by the deadline. The inspections require checks of the following equipment: windshield wiper, horn, brakes, headlights, tail lights, stop light, and white light on license plate. Commercial vehicles require inspection of additional safety equipment.

The inspection program has greatly reduced accidents in which mechanical defects were a causative factor since the inspection program was inaugurated. Take your car or truck to an inspection station now. The longer you wait, the longer the inspection lines will be.

Notes From The County Agent and HD Agent

You get extra dividends from foods when the label says "enriched." Miss Thelma Wirges, county home demonstration agent says the added minerals and vitamins mean greater food value at no extra cost.

All refined wheat flour and bread products are enriched according to law. Enrichment of cornmeal, grits and rice is not required by Texas law. Several millers do enrich these products voluntarily. They are available in most food stores at no added cost.

Enrichment adds iron and the B Vitamins, niacin, riboflavin and thiamine, which are lost in the milling when the outer coat of the grain is removed. Calcium is sometimes added.

Studies show that enrichment is making a real contribution towards meeting needs for these minerals and vitamins, especially in low income diets.

Take advantage of this extra bonus in food value. Look for labels on these products that tell you the food is enriched.

Farm records have been called the eyes and ears of the Farm business. They reflect how the business is doing and may prevent costly management mistakes.

Mrs. J. W. Nicholson and Mrs. E. F. Pfleger from the City View Home Demonstration club reports that their club is working on an exhibit entitled "Family Records." This exhibit will be on display during National Home Demonstration Week. Mrs. Nicholson is the family economics demonstrator for the City View club.

Mr. and Mrs. Simons began their Farm and Home Development plans and records this past week.

Farmers can't afford to gamble with planting seed of questionable quality. The cost-price squeeze makes necessary both efficient and high yields from all crops. Certified seed may cost slightly more but their use is good insurance, says B. T. Haws county agent.

The ratio of capital investment to value of production in egg producing poultry flocks influences the earnings of one poultryman, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

Coastal Permagraas offers a real opportunity for forage production where adapted and properly managed. It is adapted to the area of Texas east of the 30 inch rain fall belt under irrigation can be grown westward until the 3,000 feet elevation is reached. It has exceptional ability to respond to fertilizer.

The soil testing laboratory, operated by the Agricultural extension service at College Station, has proved it value to the state's agricultural industry, says B. T. Haws, county agent. Last year 10,111 soil samples from every section of Texas were tested by the lab's personnel.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Nix and children spent the weekend in Brownfield, visiting relatives.

News From The County Agent

Worthless trees rob Texas farmers of thousands of dollars each year. Trees, more deeply rooted than other plants, take a larger portion of yearly rainfall than do cash crops such as cotton, corn, grain, sorghum or grass. B. T. Haws, county agent says a 2000 pounds of water to produce one pound of leaves and bark, but only 800 pounds is required to produce a pound of cotton and about 600 pounds to produce a pound of grass.

Trees along a fence row increase the difficulty of fence maintenance, prevents the farmer from plowing close to the fence and if thorny, cause flat tires. A single tree would offer great wildlife protection if it were cut and piled so wildlife could get under the brush, says Haws.

A mesquite tree 10 inches in diameter and 20 feet tall can keep cotton and grain sorghum from growing on 7,650 square feet of land or 1-6 of an acre. It costs the farmer about $9.10 in reduced yields to maintain this tree for one year.

To stop this loss of vital soil moisture and nutrients, a one quart mixture of 2, 4, 5-T and 10 gallons of oil should be sprayed around the base of the tree says Haws. This mixture costs about 40 cents a gallon, while cost of labor and chemicals amount to about three cents a tree. If oaks and other hardwoods are to be treated a stronger solution is required, such as one quart of 2, 4, 3-T to 6 gallons of oil.

Home Builders Class Met March 7th For Regular Meeting

The Home Builders class of the First Methodist church met for their regular monthly meeting in the home of Mrs. J. P. Lawler Wednesday, March 7th. The meeting opened with the songs Take Time to be Holy and Amazing Grace. Devotional service was brought by Mrs. J. M. Patterson from the book of Romans. Mrs. R. L. Gragg was in charge of a very interesting quiz game.

A motion was made and carried that the club give $4.00 for flowers to the church on the 5th Sunday of the month. Cards were signed by the members to be sent to those that are ill. Collection of dues totaled $6.20. A lovely refreshment plate of cake and punch was served to the following Mesdames: Jones R. A. Neal, J. B. Grace, D. M. Lowery, W. C. Gage, J. M. Patterson, Hoffman, R. L. Gragg, R. H. Henry, Homer Gilbert, J. P. Lawler and C. L. Schoch.

The next meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. R. H. Henry Mrs. J. P. Lawler, reporter lions of oil. Such a mixture will cost about 63c a gallon.

Methods of treating trees include the frill, cut-off stump and trunk base. In the frill method, the 2, 4, 5-T solution is applied to the ax cuts of the frill. For cut-off stumps the solution is applied next to the bark allowing some to run down the outside bark channels.

The trunk base method is used on trees having diameter under six inches. The solution is applied to the lower 12 inches of the tree, running down the bark channels, and coming into contact with the bud zone. Using these methods, one gallon will treat about 25 to 40 trees.

Best time for application, says Haws, is during the winter months, December thru March. Too many sprouts results if the tree is sprayed when it begins to leaf out.

A top kill will probably result at this time, allowing the tree to put out again during the next growing season.

North Texas Exe's Will Meet March 23 In Wichita Falls

Final plans for the largest gathering of North Texas State College ex-students in Texas, the annual North Texas Day banquet, are being completed, officials of the NTSC Wichita Falls branch ex-students association of- fice announced here this week.
The banquet, to be held in Wichita Falls at White's cafeteria on Call Field road on March 23, will feature a program presented by Fessor Floyd Graham along with an address by Dr. J. C. Matthews, president of NTSC.
Arrangements for 500 ex-stu- dents in the large White's cafetorium have been made for the banquet, which will begin at 6:45 p. m., March 23rd.

Last minute reservations from Burkburnett may be made with H. J. Powell at Burkburnett. Ex- students attending from Burkbur- nett will be seated at a special table and recognized in a group. Reservations are $1.75 each.
We want to emphasize that anyone who has attended NTSC is considered an ex-student and is invited to the banquet," Ulys Knight, president of the NTSC, Wichita Falls branch ex-students association, said.
This year, the banquet will be celebrating the 57th anni- versary of the founding of North Texas State College in Denton. Attending the annual meeting in Wichita Falls as special guest will be Dr. J. Harold Farmer, executive secretary of the NTSC Ex-student association in Denton.

Farmers are urged to check their small grain and alfalfa closely for green bugs, yellow aphid and cut worms, as they are showing up in fields in the Friberg-Cooper, Punkin Center and Burkburnett communities, according to B. T. Haws, county agent.

Many farmers are busy getting their garden ready for planting. Now is a good time to plant the following vegetable: cabbage, car- rrots, collards, lettuce, mustard, onions, Englishpeas, Irish potatoes, radishes and turnips.

About 2-3rds of the poultry losses in brooding period can be traced to management factors and the balance to specific dis- ease, according to B. T. Haws, county agent.

800,000,000 pounds of surplus foods were distributed by the United States during the last six months of 1955 to school- children and needy persons in this country and abroad.

A mesquite tree requires about 2,000 pounds of water to produce a pound of leaves and bark while 800 pounds of the precious liquid will produce a pound of cotton or 60 pounds of grass. Worthless trees are moisture- and money robbers, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

Veteran Texaco Worker Retires After 36 years

Ray Mills, a man who is said to have built and operated more gasoline plants than any other man in The Texas Co., is retiring after 36 years with the company.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills have moved to Burkburnett, where they lived before moving to Electra five years ago. Mills although born in Indiana was reared in Kansas and was graduated from high school in Holstead, Kansas.

His first connection with oil field work was before World War I, when he worked for the Gulf Oil and Refining Co. in the old Glenn pool near Tulsa, Okla., before he volunteered for the service in 1918.

He was stationed with the Air Corps at Ft. Worth as an engine mechanic. After the war, Mills returned to oil field work in Oklahoma but left the Sooner state in October 1919 to come here at the height of the boom days.

He joined the Texas Co. as a pumper, living in a tent before he moved to a "nice" bunkhouse on the Fowler lease.

Mills received promotions which, in 1920, resulted in his helping to build and then to supervise operations of a gasoline plant on the Fowler lease.

During the time he was superintendent of that plant he met and married Miss Zella Garrett, daughter of Mrs. H. I. Garrett of Seminole and the late H. I. Garrett. They were married in the First Baptist church of Burkburnett in 1923 and their daughter, Betty, was married in the same church 25 years later.

In 1928 Mills helped build a gasoline plant at Olney and moved his family there for a time but later returned to Burkburnett. The next move was to Crowell in the 1930's where they lived three years while he supervised the building and operation of another gasoline plant. The chalk Hill plant in Archer County was Mills' last installation, but he lived at Burkburnett and commuted during that time.

Five years ago Mills was named superintendent of the Electra plant, replacing T. E. Shaw who was retiring and Mr. and Mrs. Mills moved to Electra.

In all his years with the Texas Co., Mills has never had a traffic accident of any kind nor has a fatal accident ever occurred in any of the plants under his supervision. In 1935 he helped pioneer promotion of safety and first aid projects for company employees. He was paid special tribute for this safety record, and for his many years service, at a recent safety award banquet of The Texas Co. gasoline plant in the Electra Methodist Church, by A. E. Wilig of Fort Worth, superintendent of gas and gasoline plants for West Texas producing Department of Texaco.

Gifts were presented to both Mr. and Mrs. Mills at this banquet. Mills, who is 60, has survived three serious heart attacks and is on the road to recovery from the last one which placed him on sick leave basis for more than a year. Following company policy, he will be retired on company pension at the end of his current sick leave, but he hopes to find something to keep him busy.

"A man who has become as active as I have will never be happy on the sidelines if he is able to work," he said.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills are members of the Electra First Baptist church. She has been active in the Women's Missionary Union and the Sunday school. She has served as president of both the Texas Centennial club and the Chrysanthemum Group of the Electra Garden Club and is currently parliamentarian of the Texas Centennial Club. She was recently honored with a farewell party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Roy Reynolds.

The Mills have one daughter and three sons, Betty, who is Mrs. Joe Anthony of Vernon, Donald Mills of Burkburnett and Horace and Earl Wayne Mills who are respectively senior and sophomore students at Midwestern University.

All four were graduated from Burkburnett high school. They also have three grandchildren.

Mrs. Paul Browning entered a Wichita Falls hospital Tuesday where she will undergo surgery.

Mrs. A. G. Reeves and boys of Wichita Falls spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Charlie Kirsh.

Mrs. Huck McDonnell is in Hugo, Okla., this week with her father who is ill.

New Credit Terms Now Available at Burk Implement Co.

International Harvester Company has announced new and more liberal credit terms for the sale of tractors and farm machinery, according to Joy Sessums of the Burkburnett Implement Company.

The new, liberalized terms involve both lower down payments and longer periods for deferred payments by farmer purchasers.

Under the new terms, it is now possible for farmers to buy new McCormick farm equipment in most areas of the United States with as little as 20% down and the balance of the purchase price can be paid off in a period running as long as three years.

The liberalized terms, Mr. Sessums said, have been adopted to indicate the confidence of the Harvester Company and its dealers in the fundamental soundness of American agriculture and the fine credit record made by farmers over many years. The new terms are specifically intended to make it possible for farmers to buy new machines which they need to accomplish cost reductions in 1956.

Scientist Foresees Climate Selected for Each Room

Practical ways to "dial" the desired temperature for any room in the house can be expected within five or ten years, says A. B. Newton, engineering vice-president of the Coleman Company, Wichita, Kan.

Writing in a "beyond today's horizon" issue of Practical Building magazine, he foresees the day "when Mrs. Home-owner will be able to prepare a big dinner in a kitchen that at its usual temperature of becoming almost too hot."

The engineer also much-simplified air conditioning equipment, which often is situated outside the house interior space. New fuel gas will reduce air conditioning operating cost, he says.

SEALED BIDS will be received in the office of Dow Estes, Tax Assessor and Collector on March 29, 1956, at 4 o'clock on a school bus, 1948 motor, 1944 chassis, being offered for sale. This equipment may be secured by contacting the Tax Office, High School Building.

Send bid to Burkburnett High School, P. O. Box 308, Burkburnett, Texas. R. M. DAVIS, Supt

The school reserves the right to accept or reject any bid submitted for the best interest of the school.

Miss Alva Dane of Gladwin, Texas has returned to her home after visiting her sister, T. Deekard, here for the several days. Mrs. Deekard at her home two weeks ago suffered painful injuries reported to be slowly mending.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 3 — Don't Pay Tax on Wrong Income

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

You may think that listing your income is the easiest part of tax filing. Actually, according to the Internal Revenue Service, this is where taxpayers make the greatest number of errors.

Not all the money that may have come to you during 1955 needs to be reported on your tax form.

For example you may have received "dividends" on an insurance policy. Don't list them as dividends, because they are considered merely a refund of part of the premium you paid.

Don't include Social Security benefits, Railroad Retirement Act benefits, or payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws.

Don't list gifts you received, although the giver may have to pay a gift tax. However, tips and other compensation for services must be reported.

Do not report inheritances and bequests. The estate may be taxed but not the recipient.

Prizes and Awards
There is an interesting rule on prizes — they are only taxable if you worked for them. Even the slightest action on your part to earn the prize — such as appearing on a quiz program or writing a slogan — makes it taxable income. But prizes awarded for scientific, literary or other achievements without any action by you to bring about your selection would be regarded as gifts to you rather than taxable income.

Some income, such as limited amounts of "sick pay" and the first $50 of certain dividends, must be explained in the tax return but are not taxed.
