LIONS CLUB Town Hall Each Tuesday 7:00 P. M.

Bernard Buck had charge of the program. The club was honored by the presence of Congressman Frank Ikard, who was introduced by Weldon Nix. The congressman stated that it was not the lack of money which caused the United States to get behind with the missile program. In his judgment it was the lack of co-ordinated management. He believes the new co-ordinating general will be able to overcome this fault. Ikard also cautioned against undue alarm because of the fact Russia sent up the first earth satellite. "It is not the first time we have been behind other nations in new developments. The first time I saw V-2 rockets they were being fired by Germans. The first jet planes were being piloted by German pilots. We were able to overcome this advantage. The one big difference between our people and peoples of other nations is our spiritual and moral fibre. Our economic system has also helped us out of other crises."

Next week J. L. Caffee will bring the program.

Major Houston Tuel of Itazuki, Japan visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Les Tuel, here over the weekend. Maj. Tuel attended a conference at Wright Patterson AFB in Ohio last week and then visited his parents here before returning to Japan.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

OZONA, TEXAS, STOCKMAN: "In 1956, a year in which the labor leaders and politicians were talking loudly of our unprecedented employment and prosperity, manufacturing profits (after taxes) sank to the level of recession years. From 4.9 percent in 1948 these net profits fluttered steadily downward to 3.1 in '56."

TEXHOMA, OKLAHOMA, TIMES: "It is generally agreed that the average driver reacts in three quarters of a second. At sixty miles per hour, a car will travel 66 feet in that time. At forty miles per hour it will travel 44 feet, at 20 mph, it will travel 22 ft."

ANAHEIM, CAL., BULLETIN: "Possibly the most terrifying news to come off the press wires in a decade is the advent of 'subliminal' commercials for television and movies. This diabolical idea involves the use of a visual advertising message flashed on the screen with such split-second swiftness that the eye and mind do not record it, but the subconscious does. Thus, Mother, while weeping over the forlorn fate of the soap opera heroine may all the time be building up an inner but inexorable urge to slink out and buy a flagon of 'Purple Passion' Perfume."

POINTE-A-LA-HACHE, LA., PLAQUEMINES GAZETTE: "We are dealing in 48 cent dollars today. That means that for every dollar we paid for life insurance during the past few years, every dollar we paid on a mortgage and every dollar we put in the bank is really worth less today than half of what we paid out."

Directions For A Ghost Town...

(Editorial by FREDERICKSBURG STANDARD)

Under the heading, "Guaranteed Direction for Producing a Ghost Town," the Colorado Springs Chamber of Commerce, gave six simple directions that are guaranteed to kill a town and quick.

Two things must be mentioned, before giving the six simple rules, which are not recommended for producing the ghost. The citizen can give his town a boost every time the opportunity arises, or if he is against his town he just stays home and keeps quiet. In the latter case just keeping quiet can upset other influence for producing the ghost.

Here are the simple rules for making any town a ghost town. Read 'em and don't do them:

1. Tell everyone you meet that you never buy anything at home; the merchants are a bunch of crooks, robbers and cheats.
2. Belittle all efforts for community betterment—the people trying to do these things are secretly making a lot of money, want to "run things" and their way of doing things is all wrong.
3. Never waste money by advertising or waste time trying to attract trade to the town—nobody reads the ads, there is never anything in the paper, it's always late, and why should anyone want to come to town—it's a dead place.
4. Turn down all appeals for contributions; and do it in a nasty way so you won't be bothered again. Because the money collected is eventually stolen by some "higher-up" anyway.
5. Refuse to serve on all committees having nothing to do with civic organizations—the chamber of commerce never does anything and is run by a bunch of dim-wits who want only to get their names before the public. All the city officials are in office to get a share of the graft.
6. Knock the town, knock its industries, knock the schools and churches, keep repeating the town is going to the dogs, things are better other places, to invest in such a dead place would be the height of foolishness—and keep on knocking like a drunken woodpecker.

There you have it—six simple directions for producing ghost towns. It's hard for one person, working alone to get results; but if you keep at it, eventually you'll get some converts and Ghost Town.

Where There Are No Parking Problems

Adjacent to American automobile factories there are always big parking lots. And these lots are loaded with cars belonging to the workers.

But, as William Henry Chamberlin points out in a Wall Street Journal article, there are no parking problems around the auto factories of communist countries. The reason is found in the wage price relationship. As an example, he cites the principal car produced in Communist Poland, the Warszawa. At its state-fixed price, it would take the average worker five years to earn enough to buy one, if he put aside every cent of his earnings for that purpose. And the fixed price is way below the black market price.

This is what total government does to the masses of workers—the people it is supposed to serve and reverse. It forces them down to a subsistence basis of living, and keeps them there.

TAX MAN SAM SEZ

Most folks never keep a record of how much money they invest in capital additions to their home. They plan on spending their life in their home. The way folks move around nowadays, though, makes it profitable for most of them to keep an exact record of how much their house and everything they add to it cost them. This includes the lawn, the back room, and the tool shed they added to the garage. If they have to move, they are always able to figure out if they have a gain or a loss on their house. Nobody likes to pay tax simply because he did not keep a record and doesn't know how much something cost him.

Wichita County Witnesses to Hold Convention at Amarillo Community Center Nov. 15-17

Wichita County witnesses will be host to a convention of Jehovah's Witnesses which will be held in the Amarillo Community Center Saturday and Sunday, Nov. 15-17. The announcement, made by Harold P. Bruce, superintendent of the Wichita County witness congregation, stated that "preparations have been made to accommodate some delegates from a 44 county area in the Texas Panhandle and Western Oklahoma."

The north-wide Christian ministry of Jehovah's Witnesses is based on the prophetic command of Christ Jesus at Matthew 24:14 that this gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations, and then shall the Kingdom of God come. Their efforts to comply with this command, "the ministry of the Kingdom," is directed by the World Headquarters at Brooklyn, N. Y., which has over 16,000 congregations, more than 700,000 active members and ministers to the peoples of more than 160 lands throughout the earth.

The witness movement, though in its scope, gives special attention to community, family and individual needs. Bruce stated, "Even where no congregations have been formed, areas are assigned to the nearest congregation for attention."

Highlighting the Amarillo mission will be the public discussion on the subject "What Are the Prospects for Lasting Peace?" to be given Sunday at 2 p. m. by Kenneth R. Savoy of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Convention sessions are open to the public without charge and it is hoped that many of the witnesses throughout this area will be with them." Bruce concluded.

The University Study club met Wednesday afternoon of last week in the home of Mrs. I. E. Harwell.

Mrs. O. E. Melton, president of the program, the subject being Opportunities in Creative Art. She introduced two guest speakers, Mrs. Gilbow and Mrs. Campbell, who gave a lesson on ceramics. Mrs. Gilbow explained just what the word covered and gave a history of ceramics stating that as a hobby, modern ceramics was rather new, but as an industry it was quite old, dating back to the days of early Egyptian culture. Mrs. Campbell assisting Mrs. Gilbow, showed the club members samples of the materials used in creating ceramic objects and gave an account of the different steps taken to produce the finished piece. Several lovely examples produced by these ladies were exhibited.

Mrs. A. W. Newman chose for her subject, Metal Tooling which is a hobby of hers. She assured her audience that producing decorated pieces in aluminum and in brass was a very easy as well as a fascinating pastime. With simple tools she showed how attractive trays, wall hangings, etc., had been created and decorated.

Following the talks the speakers presented door prizes. A beautifully decorated bowl was given by Mesdames Gilbow and Campbell. Mrs. Lewis Brocker was the fortunate winner. Mrs. Newman gave a large attractive hand tooled aluminum tray and was won by Mrs. L. W. Mathis. Mrs. W. H. Holt won the hostess door prize given by Mrs. Harwell.

Missing Man Found Near Gladewater

Glenn Kincaid, prominent 60 year old Gladewater drygoods store owner, was found walking barefoot in Cypress Creek bottoms about 12:30 p. m. Monday after an intensive search for him had been launched by the Gladewater police department, state highway patrolmen and Gregg county sheriff's department. He had been missing since about 6 a. m. Sunday.

A lease worker, W. C. Henderson of Gladewater, told Gladewater Police Chief O. W. Odom that he had seen a car that matched the one Kincaid had been driving and accompanied Odom to the wooded area about two miles from the Bethlehem Baptist church in Upshur county where Kincaid was found clad in pajama tops and trousers pulled over pajama bottoms. He had last been seen by his wife driving away from their Gladewater home.

Eight State Highway patrol units and Sheriff Noble Crawford joined Gladewater police in the search which was ranging from Henderson on the south to Gilmer on the north. Kincaid had been under a doctor's care for some time. He recognized Chief Odom and was taken to a Gladewater clinic immediately after being found.

Odom said the Kincaid car had been driven across an abandoned and fallen bridge on Cypress creek and left near where a fence had been built across the road. The officers feared at first

LESLEY BOYLE PLACED IN POETRY SOCIETY OF TEXAS ANNUAL CONTESTS NOV. 9th

Lesley Boyle of Route 1, Burkburnett, was among Texas writers whose poems placed in Poetry Society of Texas annual contests, Dr. Martin Shockley, president of the society, announced at its annual awards banquet in Dallas Saturday night.

The Burkburnett youth's poem "Why?" placed second in the Teen-Age contest, which is open only to young Texans under 20.

The Poetry Society of Texas distributed $577.50 in cash prizes to first-place winners in 25 annual contests. These drew a record total of 965 entries, Dr. Shockley said.

GRADE SCHOOL 4H BOYS MET

The Burkburnett Grade School boys 4-H club held their first meeting in the auditorium on Wednesday, Oct. 30th.

At this meeting the following officers were elected: Rusty Cunet, president; Berry Davy, vice president and George Provence, chairman.

Some of the projects we will be working on through the year were discussed.

that Kincaid had fallen into the creek. But they found a pencil and a dollar bill near the fence and surmised that he had crawled through the fence. He was found walking in mud about a half-mile from the car, Odom said.

Kincaid is a former resident of Burkburnett.

STATE CAPITOL News

By VERN STANFORD
Texas Press Association

It's time for a showdown says the Senate investigating committee.

Our Texas Legislature has gotten a black eye, the committee feels, and it wants to find out why. Said the committee's chairman, Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, "There's been a tendency on the part of the public to blame the Legislature for everything that happens."

He attributed this to: (1) Acts of a few lawmakers who discredited the entire branch, (2) loose and irresponsible talk and (3) a tendency of other state agencies to blame the Legislature in an attempt to cover up their own shortcomings and "even dereliction of duty."

Herring promised a three-pronged attack against these sources of discredit. Grand juries and the Legislators themselves have already done "able work" in the first area, said Herring.

In its "loose talk" attack the committee called on the carpet Riggs Sheppard of Hondo, manager of the Medina Electric Co-operatives, Inc. Riggs said the Texas Co-op magazine misquoted him in saying he's been "told to see old so and so and he'll get your bill introduced for $500. He said a national magazine article on alleged corruption in Texas triggered his remark.

In the third phase of its operation, presumably designed to show that state agencies have fallen down on their jobs, the committee began by subpoenaing three insurance executives. First on the stand was Largent Parks, president of Preferred Life of Dallas. Parks was closely questioned about State Insurance Board charges that he owes the insurance firm some $194,000. Senate committee questioning emphasized that Parks' firm had been given a routine examination last March and another special examination in June, but that the report had never been made public. Also subpoenaed were Pierce Brooks and Lester Hall of National Bankers Life in Dallas.

Federal Force Denounced—Despite difficulties among themselves, pro-segregation representatives pushed through a strongly worded resolution against enforced integration.

By a vote of 112 to 24, House members criticized President Eisenhower's action at Little Rock. It did not, said the resolution, "reflect constitutional government deriving its powers from the consent of the governed."

Further, it asked the President not to send troops to Texas to enforce "modern sociological concepts" or interfere with the constitutional right of the State of Texas to provide, operate and discipline the public schools of Texas.

Difficulty came with Rep. Joe Pool's efforts to push through a demand to the governor resolution. Pool's proposal would call on Gov. Price Daniel to say at once when he will open the legislature for segregation bills. It was shunted aside for a week.

Many East Texans joined in the postponement move, thus indicating they had faith in the governor's intentions.

Marriage of Many—Lobby control proposals are going through the "agonizing reappraisal" stage.

Eight widely varying bills, 4 in the House, four in senate, were sent to subcommittees. Each sub-group is to make a four way marriage of the proposed bills in the hope of arriving at something that will be acceptable to all. Some points of difference: whether controls should apply only during sessions or year-around, only in Austin or anywhere in state, whether public officials should be exempted from church spokesmen, etc. Each author contends the rival bills have "loopholes."

A new proposal by Sen. Henry B. Gonzales of San Antonio is that the law should provide for a special enforcement agency. It would be a disclosure board to which information on who is lobbying for whom and how much is being spent would be filed.

Muddy Road

Proponents of a statewide water planning bill are having slow going too.

They're having to slog through waters muddied by scores of amendments and objections from various groups who fear an overall state plan might short change them.

House members have to struggle with two different bills and 35 proposed amendments. Rep. W. A. Stroman of San Angelo introduced a substitute which cuts out the provision for the state to buy storage space in federal reservoirs. It also would require the water planners to report to the Legislature in 1959 and would not allow the water Board to have final say on a state plan.

Gov. Daniel told the Senate committee he would not want to see the whole water planning bill ditched because of the storage buying feature. But he didn't want to "suggest you drop it."

"Murder Capital" Cited

Crime study and state practice act—the two other items in the governor's special session call, are generating less legislative static.

A House hearing on the crime study bill brought strong pleas for better law enforcement from Houston civic leaders. Houston (109 murders last year) has been called the "murder capital of the world," they said. Worse than Chicago's gangland days. It's time we face up to some of these things, said a Jaycee spokesman.

Sen. A. M. Aikin has introduced in the Senate the bill to regulate legal practice before state agencies. A similar bill already is in the House mill.

Nary A Dime

Don't expect to collect from the state for damages you suffer from a state employe. Again the State Supreme Court has held the state is not liable.

Even guarantees in the Texas' constitution that your property shall not be damaged to public use without compensation are not sufficient to turn this principle.

This latest decision damages to C. C. Bennett cotton crop was ruined of weed killer sprayed ploye of the Dallas Flood District. Similar decision handed down in 1949.

Local Control Urged—Local control and were front and center the state convention of Association of School Austin.

It's here and you're invited! Come take your First look at a smart performer

TODAY we're proudly displaying the 1958 GMC Money-Maker. And we think you'll find it the handsomest hustler you ever handled.

An eager 200 horsepower swings a top load like a cargo of feathers. Turning ease is like power steering's.

A fast-ratio cruising axle gives you an overdrive's road pace and gas savings. Foam-rubber seats cradle you in a roomy cab. Boulevard styling carries out the feeling of luxury.

But this beauty is built like a pocket battleship. You'll see that in its massive spring hangers. In rear springs with the highest deflection rate of all light-duties. You can sit solidly on an unhooked end of its tail gate—and you can't crinkle the roof or door panels with a smack of your hand. You'll get the same quality instrument panel as on the big, $10,000 GMC heavy-duties. A radiator mounted on a bulkhead integral with the frame. A steering column braced like a mast. These and more tell the inside story of GMC stamina. Come in and see for yourself. Why not do it today?

If you are not one of those fellows who must have the very latest outboard motors.

If you are one who is satisfied with quality and service, regardless of the date on the motor.

And if you are about due to buy a new "power pack."

Then you can save a sizeable hunk of cash right now.

This is the time to buy a 1957 motor! New, 1958 models are on the market. Prices on '57 models, as on '57 cars, are down. Dealers will have considerable off 1957 prices to dispose of left-over models.

And too, the 1958 "sleeks" are higher priced.

However, those brand new '58's are beauties! and if you are one of those fellows who demands the very latest, with the smart new innovations, you'll find the outboard motor boys have learned a lesson from the car manufacturers, same as boat manufacturers did. They've gone streamline!

Buccaneer has just sent us a folder picturing its new, yet-to-be-released 1958 models. Gale products, manufacturers of the Buccaneer, now are producing a 35 hp electric. It starts and stops with an ignition key, like your car. It is slick in appearance and incorporates a top to bottom silencing system that keeps noise and vibration at a minimum.

Its teardrop construction is in all the deluxe models which come in 5, 12 and 25 hp. Deluxe electrics in 25 and 35 hp.

Nowdays when you speak of a fishing motor you may be talking of anything from a 3 hp to a 35, maybe even larger. Fishing is done today in anything from a duck boat, like the 6 foot one the boys in Coleman, Texas produce, to the big 18 footer and larger, such as Whitehouse builds in Fort Worth.

Demands for bigger boats for fishing purposes is the result of increased fishing on large bodies of water. Influential in Texas have been such large lakes as Texhoma, Travis and Buchanan, not to mention the Gulf of Mexico.

With the big boats of course had to come larger motors. However, the choice of most fishermen still is the 3 to 10 hp size, due to their "portable" weights.

Incidentally, this is not a bad time to buy a boat too. There is a lull in boat sales in November and December. An excellent time to trade in the old fishing rig, from stem to stern, if you are interested in saving money. And who isn't?

What About Baits?
Most fishermen wonder, at one time or another, what the other fellow is using as bait. Well, here's the bait successfully used by 20 different fishermen last week, in landing good strings of fish in various parts of Texas: six caught good strings on minnows; five on spoons; two on Hellbenders; and two on plugs. The remaining five used a Red and White Pico; Heldiver;

Shyster Spinner, Blood Bait and Chugger.

Good success also was reported by Carp fishermen with small hooks baited with oatmeal.

Just goes to show that you can catch 'em with any kind of bait, if you know where to fish and how to land 'em.

Come and Get It!

Nearly every fisherman has a choice fishing spot, a "fishin' hole" which he favors over all others.

Some of the really ambitious souls "bait up" the hole to attract the little ones so that the big boys will come in for a strike.

How many different ways do you know to tempt fish into the lair?

One seasoned fisherman tells us that he wraps a bale of alfalfa hay in chicken wire (about 2 inch mesh), anchors it with a rock and lowers it on a cable almost to the very bottom of the lake. The other end of the cable he attaches to his dock, or to a tree, so that he can retrieve or replenish when necessary.

Another veteran follows the same pattern except he fills a toesack with discarded meat bones obtained from the butcher shop. He claims the big cats will tear the sack all to pieces and eat the bones like a hound dog.

Still another fisherman finds that corn choppers in a toesack does the trick.

Another fellow uses cottonseed meal.

An unusual "come on" and probably as good as you'll find at this season of the year is this. Tie an unopened bucket of syrup to a cable, punch a small hole in the bottom of the bucket, and lower it almost to the bottom. The syrup oozing from the bucket is reported to bring the fish a flyin'.

Whatever your "lure," it's recommended that you drop it close to an old tree. Then be sure you mark the spot. And not on the side of your boat either.

DID YOU KNOW?—
Old fisherman never die; they just smell that way. Coney Island got its name from the many "conies" or wild rabbit, found on the island. The starfish eats oysters in the shell. It pulls the bivalve open with its suction tentacles, then turns its own stomach inside out to digest the treat. "Bullfrogs" refer to a specific species of large frog. The sex of the animal is not involved in the name. Therefore the female also is a bullfrog. The Giant Water bug carries his unborn on his back, where they have been placed by the female. Not all crows are black. The Clark's crow, named after the explorer of the Lewis and Clark expedition, is a gray and white bird, with black trimmings. According to Government experts, the annual value of a single black snake is approximately $3.75 in rodent control. Any hunter's wife can tell you that a bird in the hand is worth about $12 a pound.

If you ever had your soil tested and results didn't turn out as you expected, there may be a reason.

B. T. Haws, county agent says, oftentimes when results don't turn out as they should, it's due to an improper balance caused by changes in the recommendations or when they're not completely followed. Haws says with out proper nutrient balance, fertilizers will not be as profitable. Lack of other necessary practices such as control of weeds, insects or diseases could give poor results also. Other reasons given are acid soils where plant nutrients are not available freely to plants.

So, Haws' suggestion is, have your soil tested, then follow those recommendations carefully for best results. You'll get more for the dollar spent for having your soil tested than for any other dollar spent on producing a crop. Your county agricultural agent, vocational teacher or soil conservation service representative can help you or show you how to take soil sample and send it, as Haws says it's money in your pocket.

One practice that will pay big money on next year's cotton crop is to destroy cotton stalks early. B. T. Haws, county agent, says that early destruction of cotton stalks and bolls not only adds to the reduction of cotton insects winter carryover, but it meets the recommended soil improvement practices. He points to tests which show that certain power operated stalk-shredders kill up to 70% of the pink bollworm larvae during the shredding operation. Stalk destruction is important, too, he says, because the pink bollworm is the only major cotton insect that passes the winter in the larval stage in old bolls and locks left in the field or in seed cotton taken from the field.

The Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council passes on this reminder, "Don't give fire a place to start on your farm." With the coming of cooler weather, they add, heating equipment will be put into service and the chances of fires will increase. Make sure equipment in your home is ready for service by having it checked by a qualified person.

An acre foot of water is 325,851 gallons—the amount required to cover an acre to the depth of one foot.

"THEY'RE CATCHING ON, BUT THEY CAN'T CATCH UP." That's how lots of people feel about the "new 1958" cars that are trying to match the Dodge Swept-Wing look. These other cars have been lowered some, but still seem high and boxy by comparison. A few are "catching on" to fins, but they're years from "catching up." And the air suspension offered by some cars (at well over $100 extra) can't compare with the sway-free, dip-free ride of Dodge Torsion-Aire (standard equipment on all models). So on your way home from someone else's new car showing, stop in and compare it with Swept-Wing '58 by Dodge. You'll see what we mean.

Plutarch said years ago: "Fear is the mother of foresight."

How true this is with insurance.

Many times property owners are congratulated for their foresight, when an insurance company check pays for a loss after a tragic happening. Yet deep down, the owner probably realizes his "foresight" was not due to brilliant judgment, but rather to FEAR.

Fortunately, however, such fears are controllable with good insurance.

Picture the results otherwise. The average person is not convinced that his home will burn tomorrow, or that he will be hit by a bus, or run into someone.

If he were, he would go mad with worry. And the current fad for tranquilizers would become a national addiction.

Yet, many people realize such things "could" happen. And, as a result, order the proper forms of insurance protection.

NOW is the time to prove you, too, have foresight. If you wait until a loss occurs, it will be too late.

Drop in or phone for complete details on any form of insurance.
