E. J. Simons Wins $150.00 Shotgun At Turkey Shoot

Burkburnett's Quarterback club finally staged their annual turkey shoot last Sunday. It had been postponed from the previous Sunday because of rain.

An unusually large crowd gathered for the shoot, notwithstanding cold wind later to turn to mist. The first 37 shooters were extremely accurate. They clipped the Quarterback club for 18 turkeys, a losing proposition for the football boosters club. As intensity of the wind increased, and clouds hovered lower, shooters began to miss with more regularity which enabled the club to end up on the profit side of the ledger.

E. J. Simons won the big grand award—choice of any $150.00 gun. He chose for his prize an automatic shotgun.

Ladies of the Quarterback club deserve some kind of medal. They served hot coffee, pie and cake during the shoot. Their protection from the cold was a tarpoulin stretched between them and the north pole.

He moved to Wichita Falls in 1929 and since that time served in the tax collector's office as collector of delinquent taxes. Ill health stemmed from a stroke he suffered more than a year ago.

Send T-B Funds To Chairman

Mrs. Jack Mathis, chairman of the Burkburnett T-B fund drive, asks that checks, made out to the Wichita Co. T-B Association, be turned in to the chairman. Of course the money goes to the same worthy purpose, no matter how it is sent in.

Mrs. Mathis says she will be glad to pick up checks or cash contributions from any club, business concern or individual. Just call her on the phone.

Burkburnett is lending good support to this campaign. Please don't forget to get your contribution in.

Ed Foster, Jr. Texas' Safest Tractor Operator

Ed Foster, Jr., Wichita County Farmer, was named "Texas Safest Tractor Operator" today by Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council in cooperation with Texas Farm Bureau.

The announcement was made by C. G. Scruggs, associate editor of the Progressive Farmer magazine and president of the Council. Says Scruggs: "Foster's record of operating a tractor 35 years without an accident is a record to challenge every farmer in the state. Through the tractor operator's safety contest, we hope to make Texas farmers safety conscious and cut down the tremendous toll of farmers who kill or injure themselves operating farm equipment."

In addition to a certificate of recognition, Foster will be presented a $200 savings bond at Texas Farm Bureau Convention in Dallas. The award is made by the Texas Farm and Ranch Safety Council, which is affiliated with the Texas Safety Association.

Foster has two tractors on his 800 acre farm in Wichita county. He grows wheat, oats, and alfalfa hay and has registered and commercial Hereford cattle.

"Farmers can promote better farm safety with tractors and machinery, both drag type and three point hook-up, by following all the rules for safe tractor operations," explains Foster. "Modern tractors travel fast and when operating tractors at high speed the same care must be exercised as in operating an automobile in order to avoid accident and injury."

Midwestern University Homecoming Set For Nov. 21-22-23 With Parade

Graduates and former students of Midwestern University will be treated to a parade in downtown Wichita Falls when they return to the campus to celebrate homecoming Nov. 21-22-23.

The parade will be the first held since 1953. Since that date the floats have been constructed on the campus, eliminating the parade.

Students voted for the parade several weeks ago to entertain former students with a revival of the parade.

Former students will hold a get-together in the University Center from 6 P. M. to 8 P. M. Saturday prior to a basketball game with Stephen F. Austin College in the opening game of the season.

Graduates and former students will meet students at the highlight of the celebration, a dance to be held from 8 P. M. to midnight Friday in University Ballroom, for which Harry James will furnish the music. The band leader's appearance on the Midwestern campus will mark one of the few times the band will appear away from Hollywood this year.

Students recently voted to name the annual homecoming Tehegeda, a Creek Indian word meaning reunion.

Special events will begin with a variety show to be staged Thursday, Nov. 21, at 7 P. M., a program sponsored by the freshman class. It will be followed by the annual bonfire.

Former students of Wichita Falls Junior College, Hardin Junior College and Midwestern University will be included in the guests for the occasion.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

LONDON, OHIO, MADISON PRESS: "We've notice a trend in the thinking of the American people since the war. 'Let George Do It' is becoming a more and more popular attitude. Perhaps we should return to the old time policy of hell-raising every time we see a crooked politician or a bad deal. Maybe hell-raising isn't polite but it is effective and its AMERICAN! At least that's what the men at Bunker Hill thought and they seem to have accomplished quite a lot."

HANOVER, KANSAS, NEWS: "When big people get together they discuss ideals, when average people get together, they discuss things, and when small people get together, they discuss other people."

CARTHAGE, TENN., COURIER: "The railroad passenger train is the best method of travel ever invented, a fact not too strongly impressed upon the present generations which have grown up largely in automobiles."

COATESVILLE, PA., RECORD: "History makes it tragically clear that punishing the press for publishing facts is fatal to a nation's freedom. Aware of this, the framers of the first ten amendments to the U. S. Constitution provided that 'Congress shall make no law—abridging the freedom of speech or of the press.' And this principle has precedence as the first article of our Bill of Rights—not to favor the press but to perpetuate our people's freedom to be informed."

NEWPORT BEACH, CAL., NEWPORT HARBOR NEWS-PRESS: "There is nothing sinister or cynical in a newspaper being successful on a business basis, any more than there is in a market or a hardware store. The business success of a newspaper does not change its duty to print the news, to let the people know what is going on in their community, to give voice to the minority side of public issues as well as the majority side—This is not only fulfilling the duty and responsibility of a Free Press under the Bill of Rights, but it good business."

STOCKTON, KAN., ROCKS COUNTY RECORD: "There is no doubt about it. A quarter doesn't go as far as it used to unless you happen to drop it on the sidewalk."

THE GERMAN MIRACLE

The economic resurgence of Western Germany has been one of the apthentis miracles of the chaotic age. She suffered almost unimaginable physical destruction, followed by years of occupation by the victorious military forces. Yet today Germany's industry is booming; the country is extremely prosperous by European standards, her trade balance is highly favorable, and her currency is remarkably stable. Incredible as it seems, Joseph Alsop writes that Germany is likely to supercede Britain as the world's third power, after the United States and the Soviet Union.

Mr. Alsop gives several reasons for the German miracle and two of them are of great significance. First, is the "toughly conservation economic policies" of Konrad Adenauer, policies largely based on maintaining and strengthening a true free enterprise system. Second, is the awareness of the powerful German labor unions that living standards must only rise as output rises." In other words, these unions believe in doing more and better work and thus earning higher wages and other benefits.

There is a great lesson in this for every nation of the Western world—the United States included.

Where Advertising Is Welcomed

An impressive evaluation of the merits of newspaper advertising as compared with television advertising has been provided by Robert J. McBride, director of Research for the Detroit Free Press. He says: "People watch television because of the entertainment—commercials actually are intruders. A survey by Northwestern University shows that 61% of housewives would prefer TV without commercials."

"At the same time, advertising is an integral part of the newspaper. Readers buy the paper for the ads as much as for the editorial matter. Both men and women readers plan their shopping from the newspaper. The Northwestern survey shows that 92% of the respondents want their newspapers with advertising."

This brings Mr. McBride to his completely logical conclusion: "The advertiser gets the best results when his message is welcomed and desired."

Since 1950, according to J. Edgar Hoover of the FBI, the crime rate has increased four times as fast as the population. He finds the increase in juvenile crime especially alarming.

would accept it. In a public statement Gov. Daniel commended the lawmakers for their accomplishments.

- Briefly the new laws do this:
  1. Set up a water planning division to do research on Texas water resources and report to each regular session. No authority to draw up a statewide plan was conferred, and the appropriation was cut from a recommended $1,200,000 to $900,000. Water Board was given authority to negotiate for state water storage in federal reservoirs — with legislative approval.
  2. Require registration of those who seek to influence legislation "by direct communication" and reporting of expenditures over $50.
  3. Require registration of those who for pay, represent others before state agencies.
  4. Set up a commission to study Texas law enforcement and report to the next regular session.
  5. Appropriate money for a building for the State Insurance Department.

WHAT NOW? —

Senate rejection of the appointment of William A. Harrison as insurance commissioner put that department in a quandary.

Without an administrative head, the department cannot conduct even routine business; nor can it pay its employees. Members of the Insurance Board asked Atty. Gen. Will Wilson for guidance.

Under the constitution the Senate has the authority to pass on all appointments made by the governor to constitutional offices. It does not, however, pass on the appointments of various state boards within their departments.

When the insurance Department was reorganized last spring the new law authorized the governor to appoint Insurance Board members and the board to appoint a commissioner. But it specifically written into the law that the Senate would have confirmation power on the board's appointment of a commissioner.

Senate approved the governor's appointments to the board, but turned thumbs down on Harrison. A former assistant state auditor, Harrison had been serving in the $20,000 a year post since early last summer.

Board members asked Wilson's opinion on (1) Does the Senate have the constitutional authority to pass on a board appointment and (2) if so, what'll we do until we can find a new commissioner?

"NO URGENCY" — Insurance Department is being beset by the Senate from another quarter as the investigation into a delayed report continues.

Senate committee questioned two department officials on why three months elapsed between receipt of an unfavorable report on Preferred Life of Dallas and department action on the matter.

Paul D. Connor, assistant commissioner, said he saw "no urgency" in the report since it did not involve insolvency. E. B. Kelley, chief examiner, said he didn't think there was "anything significant about it."

Earlier the man who made the examination said he had found evidence of illegal stock manipulation involving some $994,000.

COTTON RAINED OUT —

Untimely rains probably have cost Texas cotton farmers some $100,000,000, says Agriculture Commissioner John White.

Rain kept harvesters out of the fields, said White, and greatly cut the quality of the cotton still on the stalks. "It's a real economic blow to many farmers who had prospects of the first good cotton crop in several years," White observed.

SHORT SHORTS —

Sen. William T. Moore of Bryan is president pro tempore of the Senate for the second called session. He succeeds Sen. Searcy Bracwell of Houston. . . . One of the things for which Texans can be thankful this year is that there will be only one Thanksgiving. Gov. Daniel proclaimed the Texas holiday for Nov. 28th, same as the federal holiday. . . . Gov. Daniel has asked President Eisenhower for emergency federal aid for Jefferson, Bell, Orange and Fayette counties, recently hit by floods and tornadoes. . . . A senate-passed bill clears the way for getting land for a Texas Employment Commission building just north of the Capitol. Bill would increase the site-buying appropriation from $350,000 to $1,100,000. Probable location now is occupied by a Lutheran Church.

Days of old seem to have dawned over Texas lawmakers. They ended their first called session this week and launched into number two.

It's the first time in more than a decade that a governor has convened a legislature in two rapid-fire special sessions.

Main topic for the second session is a bill to authorize closing of public schools threatened by occupation by federal troops.

Gov. Price Daniel issued the second call when it became apparent that this issue couldn't be squeezed into the final days of the first session.

House and Senate had difficulty coming to agreement on details of the first session's five point program: water planning, lobby control, Crime study, practice before state agencies and money for an Insurance Department building.

Senate Investigating Committees is continuing its drive to establish whether the Insurance Commission dilly-dallied with reports of irregularities in a Dallas firm.

Former Insurance Department Examiner Wayne Tinkler told the committee that he began an examination of Preferred Life last March. He ran into difficulties and asked for help from the department's legal counsel. He didn't get it, said Tinkler, and finally turned in a report in June.

His audit indicated that Preferred's President owed the company some $194,000 due to stock manipulations, Tinkler reported. "But no action was taken in the Department until September, when a brief conference was held."

BOND PROGRAM LAUNCHED. — At least one phase of Texas water conservation program now has the official go-ahead.

By approving a constitutional amendment, voters cleared the way for issuance of $200,000,000 in bonds to finance local water projects.

Though only about one-tenth of the electorate (185,000) turned out, all three proposed amendments received approximately 3 to 1 majorities.

Other two will provide increased retirement benefits for state employees and authorize higher old age pensions.

WHO FOOTS THE BILLS —

Texans depend on severance taxes, mainly on oil and gas, for nearly one out of every three state taxdollars.

Tax analyst John F. Sly of Princeton said this reliance on natural resource taxes has been increasing over the years. Sly, in addressing a meeting of the Texas Research League in Austin, gave what may be a preview of the searching study of Texas' tax structure being undertaken by the League.

Some Sly statistics: State taxes increased from $123,000,000 in 1940 to $625,000,000 in 1957. Severance taxes jumped from 16 percent to 30 percent of the total in that period. Texas' state and local taxes are $130 per capita compared to the national average of $158.

EMBARRASSMENT OF RICHES

Combination of late spring rains and early fall rains has caught many Texas farmers in a squeeze.

There wasn't enough time in between to raise a crop and get it out of the fields. Agriculture agents in North Texas reported that farmers there stood to lose millions from ruined cotton.

Some ranchers, according to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture, have a very unusual situation, more grass than stock to eat it. This time last year those same ranchers were selling off stock at a sacrifice because they had no feed.

Small grain and winter legume prospects are extremely good, says USDA, though dry weather is needed for additional planting.

COTTON ACREAGE TUSSELE —

For the third straight year East Texas and West Texas cotton farmers are at odds over acreage allotments.

State and county allotments are to be announced by USDA before Dec. 14th when cotton farmers will vote on whether they want a market quota program for 1958.

West Texas farmers contend that their area has been penalized. They say an undue portion of the state's cotton acreage is allotted to the older cotton-growing counties of east and central Texas. One group of West Texans went to federal court last year to try to get the allotments changed.

Opposing them is the Old Cotton Belt Association which has announced it will fight new efforts to wrest acreage from its area.

SPEED LAW QUESTIONED —

Gov. Daniel has been requested to ask the Legislature to rewrite the automobile speed limit law.

A recent opinion from the Court of Criminal Appeals called the law "vague and indefinite and therefore invalid. Involved was a conviction for driving 90 miles an hour.

If this law is too shaky for court tests, the Harris County district attorney told the governor in effect, a new and stronger one should be written immediately.

Engineers Urge Water Plan —

Texas Society of Professional Engineers has added its voice to those urging an extensive, long-range water program.

Importance of water to Texas future justifies an annual expenditure of $100,000,000 in the opinion of TSP's special water study committee.

TSPE's report recommended: (1) adoption of the governor's proposed legislation, (2) salary increases for the water Board members, (3) planning on the lowest level possible to allow proper development of an over-all program, (4) sale of water storage acquired by the state in federal reservoirs to any qualified political sub-division, as quickly as possible.

SCHOOL WORK OKAYED —

Improvements have been authorized by the state Board for Hospitals and Special Schools for nine schools and hospitals. Included are state schools at Abilene and Austin, state hospitals at San Antonio, Kerrville, and Harlingen, the Austin State School Farm Colony and the Confederate Home for Men. Costs will total $261,000.

Mrs. F. K. Wilson Hostess Nov. 18th To Gay Ladies Club

The Gay Ladies Garden club met in the home of Mrs. F. K. Wilson Monday, Nov. 18th. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. A. Janke. Plans were made for the annual Christmas party. Each member is to bring their Christmas gift wrapped to be judged for the most original wrapping. The party will be held in the home of Mrs. Henry Connell with Mrs. I. R. Reagan as co-hostess.

The program was given by Mrs. A. W. Newman on the Hand Book for Flower Shows, and was enjoyed by the nine members present.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Marion Reagan.

Mrs. Wilson was hostess for the meeting with Mrs. J. A. Janke co-hostess.

News From The HD Agent

Though washable garments, such as slips, blouses, skirts, in the new synthetic fibers are tops in ease of care and length of wear, they sometimes tend to cling to the body in cold, dry weather.

Thelma Wirges, County HD agent says that scientific research, which developed these fibers, has now come up with an effective, easy way of combating this tendency, just add a small amount of liquid detergent fabric softener or a special liquid anti-static agent to the final rinse water.

Liquid detergents and fabrics softeners often marketed as "laundry rinses" can be purchased at most grocery stores. Liquid anti-static agents can be obtained at notion counters in drug or department stores.

Proper care can keep white nylons looking bright throughout their lifetime. Thelma Wirges county HD agent offers suggestions for care.

Wash white nylons separately. Colored articles included with white garments are likely to fade and discolor the white.

Wash nylon garments thoroughly after each wearing. Home furnishings articles, too, should be laundered as often as necessary to maintain a pleasing appearance.

Pretreat heavily soiled areas with a paste of water and heavy-duty detergent before placing in the machine or hand-washing.

Machine washing, whenever possible, is the most effective way to launder white nylon. After pretreatment, wash in warm water, using a heavy-duty detergent, a non-precipitating type-water softener and a liquid sodium hypochlorite bleach.

Nylon brighteners such as pronyl or Nylonu, available for consumer use, will help maintain the whiteness level of nylon garments when used repeatedly.

Metallic yarns are used in many kinds of fabrics. They do give unusual or interesting effects to fabrics. However, they are a luxury fabric and call for special care and treatment when it comes to cleaning and handling.

Here are some suggestions on care given by your county HD agent.

Check before you buy. Find out if the garments or fabric can be washed, or if it must be dry cleaned. The majority of these fabrics do dry clean satisfactorily. All metallic yarns are subject to abrasion; so avoid excessive rubbing. Use the acetate setting on the iron if you need to press. Imported metallic yarns of copper filament coated with gold or silver have a tendency to tarnish in dry cleaning. They may discolor from wear and perspiration.

American made metallic yarns usually dry clean satisfactorily and wear well. However, here are some exceptions.

Sunlight may affect the color. If the fabric has not been stabilized for shrinkage control, puckering of the fabric results after cleaning or washing because the textile yarn shrinks, the metallic yarn does not shrink. Spots or stains may, in some cases leave a color change.

If there is no label on the fabric or garment, check with your dry cleaner on suggested care.

Wichita County HD Club women are decorating for the annual Bridwell Awards Banquet next week. A number of club members are receiving awards for outstanding accomplishments in the field of soil conservation. Members of the decoration committee are Mesdames J. L. Graham, R. F. Krull and W. E. Karstetter. They are using materials grown on Wichita County farms, for their decorations.

County Agent and HD Agent

The Wichita County Home Demonstration club women gathered together this past week to observe their annual Achievement Day. The meeting was held as part of a luncheon at Underwood's in Wichita Falls.

Mrs. J. L. Graham, council chairman, introduced club presidents who gave reports of the year's achievement. These club presidents are: Mesdames T. H. Barwise, W. P. Wyatt, Tom Witherspoon, George Emmert, C. V. Lamb, Cad Bryant, W. R. Stimpson, W. E. Varner, W. E. Karstetter, R. F. Krull, R. C. Huggins and Woodrow Harris.

Mrs. R. C. Huggins introduced Dr. C. C. Collins from the State Hospital. Dr. Collins spoke to the group on "Parent Liability to Delinquency."

Folding, or accordion-type doors require almost no clearance into a room when opened. They do away with problem door openings often encountered in remodeling or in building new homes.

They are especially useful on wide closets because the entire width of hanger space becomes available at one time, according to extension home management specialists.

In the past, many storage areas could be closed off only with curtaining. Now accordion doors can be used. They are attractive, easy to care for and easy to open.

Folding doors come in a package complete with necessary hardware and instructions for installation. Stock sizes usually are 6 feet 8 inches or 8 feet high.

The width varies from 2 to 6 ft. An opening up to 12 feet wide can be enclosed by either one door or a pair of doors. Only a few inches need be allowed on the room size for opening and 4 to 6 inches in the closet itself.

If stock heights do not fit your door, a special height can be ordered.

Last year more than 6,000 4-H club boys participated in the Texas 4-H tractor program. B. T. Haws, county agent, says plans have been perfected which should make possible an increase in this number. Local leaders who will guide the 4-H members will be trained in a series of district schools beginnings in late November. Last year more than 400 local leaders in 204 counties were active in the program. A district tractor clinic will be held in Wichita Falls on Dec. 5 and 6th.

One out of seven or about 7 percent of Texas' population is composed of persons 65 years of age or older. In rural areas, the percentage is even higher, says B. T. Haws, and their needs are of growing interest.

Winterizing the home can cut the fuel bills and add to the winter comfort of the family. A good place to start the job is with the doors and windows. The addition of weather stripping to these exposed outside openings will reduce heat losses. Insulating the attic is a heat saving practice and next summer the insulation will help keep the house cooler.

Small grain varieties developed and released by plant breeders of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station during recent years have enabled Texas farmers to increase both grain and forage production from small crops. 70.5 percent of the State's wheat acreage last year was planted to such improved varieties as Comanche, Wichita, Webster, Concho and Quanah.

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District News

Stubble Mulch farming to control wind and water erosion can be seen on Fred H. Lalk and Fred W. Lalk farms of Electra, Elvy Sargent, Soil Conservationist of Iowa Park reports.

Good distribution of stubble was obtained by the use of a rotary hoe as the last operation in seed bed preparation. Fred H. Lalk stated. All other tillage operations have been with sweep and chisel type equipment, except on one field producing large yield of wheat and extra heavy straw which made it practical to use a disc type plow for one plowing.

Wheat now being seeded on the Lalk farms is being fertilized to insure plants having adequate plant nutrients while straw stubble is being decomposed.

Albert Brockriede of Punkin Center near Electra has about 350 acres of land with good stubble mulch cover, the Soil Conservation reports.

Good Austrian winterpeas and alfalfa seedings are on Richard Fritzsche and Albert Brockriede farm of Punkin Center and Ralph Swinford of Friberg-Cooper Community, Bob Crocker ASC Office Manager, John Sibley, Iowa Park Vocational Agriculture teacher and Elvy Sargent report.

R. J. Bradley, Jr., Kamay rancher, is making good progress in improvement of native range by control of brush and moderate usage of grasses. Bradley and Sargent recently checked on grass utilization on each pasture on the ranch.

Gordon Douglas of Electra and Sargent looked at improvement of grasses on one of the pastures deferred from grazing during the growing season. Improvement in plant vigor and range cover was noted.

NEW HOME FOR THE RED RAIDERS—Here is an architect's conception of the expanded and remodeled Clifford B. and Audrey Jones Stadium Texas Tech football teams will play in beginning in 1960, the first year of Tech participation in Southwest Conference football title play.

When completed the Stadium will, in conformity to Southwest Conference standards, seat 55,000 persons. Details on the expansion plan was announced at half time of Texas Tech's homecoming game with the University of Tulsa in Lubbock, November 9, 1957.

It was bluebird weather when duck season got under way this year. Nevertheless many hunters shot their limits—from the Red River to the Gulf.

Then came a good norther. And now the weather is better for duck and goose shooting.

This type of hunting is about the hardest and most difficult gunning in Texas. So much depends, not on what is done in Texas, but on conditions in Canada throughout the early part of the spring and summer.

If conditions are right north of the border, and there is a big hatch, Canada will send more ducks down the various flyways into the United States. Many will stop before they get to Texas. But countless numbers have wintered on the Texas coast for so long that it is family tradition for them to return to the Lone Star state. And here they head.

More and more ducks remain in Texas waters every year, in order to produce their families in the South.

However, they represent but a small amount of the total duck population. And this number is reduced considerably after the first few days of shooting.

Good Shooting is Everywhere
Most duck and goose hunters think of the Texas coast as the best hunting place in the state. That isn't necessarily true. There are thousands of ducks killed each year on the streams and farm tanks of Texas. Excellent hunting exists on all the major impoundments in the state and in the grain fields of the Texas Panhandle.

Grain field hunting is about the easiest on the gunner. He hides behind a shock of grain or in a hurriedly thrown up blind.

Duck hunting under most conditions is hard work. Usually the worse the weather the better the shooting. It usually takes a cold drizzle to get the ducks and the old honkers to come down close to the ground. That is, close enough to reach them with a blast from the shotgun.

Of course the ammunition manufacturers have learned to load the standard length shells with a little more powder and shot. But, the duck and geese are smart too. They just fly a little higher.

No Motor Boat Hunting
Most waterfowl shooting is done on water. For this reason it is necessary to have a good boat and or waders.

Boat hunters can use outboard motors to take them to blinds or bring them back to the shore. They also can be used to pick up dead ducks, providing the gun isn't used. But, the law is strict on the use of any kind of power boat for hunting ducks.

There was a time when most hunters had well trained dogs to retrieve their birds. But the growth of cities has slowed down the raising of good duck retrievers. Now it's largely a do-it-yourself job.

Duck hunters have to get up early, as the season opens a half hour before sunrise. Usually a hunter will want to have his decoys spread out on the water a half hour earlier than that. Then he crawls into his blind and starts tooting on a duck call. Frankly, more ducks are frightened off by callers than ever come in. However, many won't believe this.

There are a few hunters who really can talk to the ducks on these wooden callers. Too many of us, however, don't have the proper ear. We have not been around ducks long enough to know their language or to understand them.

One of the most disconcerting things that can happen is for the man in the next blind to blast away on his duck call when a flock is coming down to your decoys. They take to wing and that's the last you ever see of them.

It may be helpful for a hunter on a large body of water, to have a call. But only if he uses it in a very limited manner. Just one or two quick quacks will be heard by the flying ducks. If they are interested in the decoys no more calling is necessary. On the other hand, human hunters achieve the same results by whistling or by barking like a dog. This is a common practice on the coast.

Care Of The Gun
It must be remembered that duck hunting usually is hard on the gun too. Especially is this true when hunting around salt water. It doesn't do much good to carry a gun onto the water in a soft lined case, then let the gun get wet and put it back into the case. That salt water remains and the gun is soon covered with rust.

Perhaps one of the simplest ways is to use one of those plastic bags that your cleaning comes in, nowadays. You can haul your gun onto the water and bring it back in this plastic bag, and then throw the bag away. Then, as soon as you can wipe the gun off with some good rust inhibitor or oil. In that way you can keep from having a badly pitted gun.

Tell your wife to save these plastic bags for you. You can use them to save your feathers in when you return from a hunt. Then make some nice feather pillows.

Another way to do yourself a good turn is to keep a record of the ducks you kill. Then send the information to the Game & Fish Commission. Also be sure and send in any bands you find on the birds you kill. These bands provide valuable information. They help the boys in the commission office select the season dates next year.

Fishing Is Good Tool
Just because it is duck season you don't have to neglect fishing. Fact of the matter is that some of the finest strings of fish are caught by duck hunters after the flight has gone on for the day.

If you have waders along, try some in-in-the-water fishing. You may find a new thrill there that you have been overlooking.

Note of Appreciation
I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the Burkburnett Fire Dept. for their prompt and efficient service in extinguishing a small fire at my home recently.

Lasting Peace In This Generation Is Predicted

District Supervisor Kenneth R. Savoy of Brooklyn, N. Y. told a group Sunday at a conference of Jehovah's Witnesses that "lasting peace will come within this generation."

The local minister, Harold P. Bruce, said the Wichita Falls Congregation had a large delegation of witnesses attending the 44-county semi-annual circuit conference held in Amarillo.

Speaking to 682 persons at the Community Center, Savoy closed out the three-day conference by saying, "Lasting peace does not come by means of men's efforts, but by means of Jehovah's Kingdom through Christ Jesus upon whose shoulder the government of lasting peace rests."

The conference theme was "Qualified to Teach." Savoy pointed out that the chief weakness of the 18 convening congregations is meeting attendance.

Savoy said, "To become 'qualified to teach' it is necessary to attend all meetings and through use of your perceptive powers tell others the 'good news of the Kingdom.'"

Circuit Supervisor Wendell Phillips in his closing talk, "showing Respect for Jehovah's Organization," he said, "We do not live our own lives any longer, our lives, which he purchased through Christ Jesus, belong to God. For this reason we should have the greatest respect for the Theocratic Organization."

First Tuberculosis Christmas Seals Were Sold In Denmark In 1904

Oral Jones, general chairman, joined by Mrs. Jack Mathis, Christmas Seal Sale Chairman for Burkburnett, have sent a letter of appreciation to A. H. Lohofener, postmaster thanking him and the Burkburnett post-office for their outstanding contribution to the success of the Christmas Seal Sale, always handled as a mail sale rather than through personal solicitation.

The Christmas Seal idea originated in the mind and heart of a postal employee of Denmark. Einar Holboell kept thinking to himself as he handled the millions of Christmas letters what a wonderful thing it would be if people, everybody, would buy a special "stamp" for all their Christmas letters & use the proceeds to help cure those little children in the tuberculosis hospitals which he passed every morning and afternoon going to and from his home to the post-office.

They, and others, were quick to appreciate the possibilities of such a "stamp." There was no known treatment for tuberculosis at that time. Tuberculosis was the leading cause of death all over the world. The first "tuberculosis stamp" bearing the Denmark queen's photograph was sold in 1904.

The first Christmas Seal was sold in the U. S. in 1907. At that time a few private physicians were operating an open-air tuberculosis "shack" near Wilmington, Del. The doctors had reached the end of their financial rope. Unless funds could be raised immediately, they would be forced to close their tuberculosis hospital which accommodated eight charity patients.

At that time, most persons, including many medical men, still shared the long held belief that tuberculosis was hereditary and incurable so why waste time and money in trying to save its victims and why experiment with fresh air treatment.

In response to an appeal from the doctors to raise $300 to keep their charity hospital operating during the winter months, Miss Emily Bissell, a social worker, had read about the Denmark tuberculosis stamp and she decided to try that plan. Her stamp plan was highly successful. Instead of raising the necessary $300, she and her workers raised $3,000.

Christmas Seal funds have carried on the work of tuberculosis associations annually since 1907. The overall tuberculosis control program includes prevention, treatment, education, research, case-finding, rehabilitation of patients and now the Wichita County Tuberculosis Association is hoping to sell enough Christmas Seals to take care of the salary of a full time tuberculosis public health nurse.

There are no funds available in the Wichita Health Unit's budget to employ an additional public health nurse. With only 3 nurses on duty, it is impossible for them to take on the added county-wide job of "follow-up" on our county tuberculosis patients and their contacts. Mrs. Mathis, Mrs. Joel Butler, President of the County Tuberculosis Association and Oral Jones urge us to make an increased contribution this year so that of the tuberculosis control program can be more effective in 1958.

Assembly of God Churches Rank 10th In Enrollment

Statistics released in the 1958 yearbook of American Churches indicate the Assemblies of God is the 10th ranking denomination in Sunday School enrollment in the United States.

The revised church ranks also placed the denomination 8th in number of ministers, ninth in church, 28th in church membership, seventh in Sunday School workers and teachers, and eighth in number of Sunday Schools. The Assemblies of God is the fifth largest missionary denomination in the world and stands first in number of foreign Bible Schools.

Included in the national release of statistics was the Assembly of God, 211 East College, local congregation of the denomination. According to the Rev. Lonnie H. Finney, local pastor, the church has a current Sunday School enrollment of 101.

At the beginning of the past Sunday School year, the local congregation began to emphasize Sunday School and its importance of the church of today and the church of tomorrow.

Because of this, no teacher or Sunday School worker or officer was absent more than two Sundays, the Sunday School was properly arranged under the leadership of Sunday School Supt., Oyt Nunn, and the average attendance for the year was 101 as compared to 62 for the last Sunday School year. The present average attendance per Sunday is 114. This is the result of working a workable Sunday School program.

Growth of the Assemblies of God can be credited to an active home missions and Sunday School program, according to the Rev. Finney. The denomination has averaged opening one church a day for the past six years.

Churches of the Assemblies of God number 7,929 in the United States and some 8,747 abroad. Membership of the American Assemblies of God is approximately 471,115.

Although the number of churches placed the denomination ninth, membership-wise it is 28th. However, many of the churches have no roll and others place little emphasis on membership, the Rev. Finney stated.

The Sunday School enrollment of the Assemblies of God is more representative of the size of the denomination, the Rev. Finney indicated. As of 1956 Sunday Schools had 878,080 members and 88,296 workers and teachers. A drive is underway to boost enrollment to one million by 1960.

Statistics released by the 1958 yearbook of American Churches were compiled by the National Council of Churches in Christ. The publication includes all denominations of the United States, including those not a member of the National Council. The Assemblies of God is a member of the National Association of Evangelicals, and does not hold membership in the National Council of Churches.

Burk Loses District Bid

Buildings' hopes of the district title were shattered here last Friday when the Electra set them back 28 to 14 in the half time period. The game was tied up, 7-7, when Gilbert for the Tigris scored upon a Burk pass to set up the first of the game in the first quarter. Snider scored easily on a Carter kicking extra point. The first score came before the half time was called. The ball was in scoring position and yard pass and run were used. Walker, a combination used this Mike Lacy cleared the field on a desperate 4th down. Johnny Veach came back strong three times in the quarter. Jerry Snider, Haynes and Bill made the scoring runs. Snider added only extra conversion. This gave a total of 26 points. After two points came a Burk back was tackled of his own goal. Burk had been able to Electra, the district have been thrown in away tie—Burk, Electra and Olney. Since Electra they have a clear cut to the title. Electra met Lewisville in Den-Friday night, November the winner of this tilt probably meet Terrell following week.

Shut Hot Air Out of House For Cool Day

"Capturing" cool night air is one way to keep a house from feeling the full effects of hot summer days.

In most homes, this can be done by closing the house up as tightly as possible in the morning to keep sunlight and hot daytime air from warming the cooler air that has entered the house during the night.

Even during long, mid-summer heat waves, there is often as much as a 20-degree difference in temperature between the coolest early morning hours and the hottest part of the afternoon.

The method of capturing cool night air works best in a well-insulated house. Thick mineral wool—at least four inches in ceilings and three inches in the walls—slows down the penetration of outside heat. Owners of existing houses can have mineral wool insulation blown pneumatically into these areas. Batts and blankets are available for installation by home-owners or professionals where the wall or ceiling construction permits the material to be fitted in place.

Awnings, shade trees, reflective screening, and vine-covered trellises also are important, since these block direct rays of the sun.

Once a house has insulation and outside shading, a good routine to follow for more summer comfort is:

1. Close all windows before the sun has had a chance to warm up outside air.
2. Draw shades, curtains, or drapes tightly on the sunny side. The heavier and more opaque these are, the more effective they are.
3. Keep doors closed throughout the day. Teach children to go in and out quickly.
4. Use kitchen exhaust fan to get rid of cooking heat and moisture. Automatic clothes dryers also should be vented outside.

Burk Invited to Have "Day" At Fat Stock Show

Burkburnett has been invited to have a "day" at the 1958 Southwestern Exposition and Fat Stock Show in Ft. Worth by President, manager, W. R. Watt.

In his letter to Burkburnett, Watt urged that a cowgirl sweetheart be named so that she can be introduced to the rodeo audience in Will Rogers Memorial Coliseum. The city also is invited to send its high school band so that the students may give a concert on the stock show grounds. The band members will be guests at the rodeo performance.

Watt expressed the hope that the city also would have a delegation of citizens wearing hatbands or badges proclaiming their hometown. They will be offered a special section of seats at the rodeo.

Annie Oakley, Western heroine of TV and motion pictures, will be star of the 1958 rodeo. Dates of the Ft. Worth exposition are Jan. 24 thru Feb. 2nd.

"We believe you will agree," Watt's letter states, "that each city having a day will derive worthwhile recognition and that everyone participating will have a good time."

You also will be giving wonderful assistance to your fat stock show — oldest in the nation — which has been serving the great livestock industry for 62 years. We are grateful for your cooperation.

Building Material Dealers Welcome Handyma'am

Add the local building-material dealer to the list of places from which the "Men Only" sign is disappearing.

An executive of the Goodman Lumber Co., of San Francisco, says women are taking an ever increasing part in the selection of such materials as roofing, siding, windows, and doors—"Anything that has a role in the appearance of a house."

Jack Pelzner, of the Goodman firm, says the reason is that women today are insisting on more colors and textured materials on the outside of their homes as well as on the inside.

"And we've got more colorful materials to offer these days than ever before," says Pelzner. "For instance, it's pretty rare when a woman can't find the color she's looking for in our rack of paint chips or our display of asphalt shingles."

Wives' Help Sought

The Goodman firm, one of the largest building-material dealers in the San Francisco area, encourages husbands to bring their wives when they buy building materials.

"As a team," says Pelzner, "the man and wife can decide more quickly what they want, and they're more likely to be satisfied."

"The husband usually is looking for quality and a product that will be easy to apply or install, while the wife generally is concerned only with appearance. She wants materials that come in colors, or which can be painted to suit her tastes and harmonize with the decor of her home."

Pelzner described one instance in which a man and wife were shopping for new roofing for their home.

Woman Was Right

"The husband took a liking to a soft, green blend of asphalt shingles in a deep tone, but his wife explained that a dark-color roof on their ranch style home would make it look smaller, while a light color would give the house an appearance of height. They selected a light beige and later the husband came back and told me she was right, that the house does seem larger with its new light roof."

Most building-material dealers are welcoming the feminine invasion of their yards and buildings, Pelzner says, and are stocking more and more items appealing to women.

These include shutters and louver doors of ponderosa pine which add texture to home decor, and greater varieties of pine panel doors and wood windows which can be painted or stained to suit the housewives' tastes.

Paint departments have been expanded, wallpaper lines have been added, and many dealers now carry a line of light, specially-designed tools for the home handyma'am.

INSURANCE TIPS

by Vestal Lemmon, General Manager
National Association of Independent Insurers

How Insurance Rates Are Set

Insurance rates for a particular auto coverage vary all over the lot. A New York businessman (to take an extreme case) may pay $45 for a single insurance coverage that costs a Pennsylvania farmer only $15. At that, the New Yorker may be getting a bargain.

How are such auto rates set? They are set by the risks you run. Using a lot of tables, charts and statistics the rate-makers put a price tag on your risks—considering three things mainly: the price of your car, the territory you live in, and whether or not you have a "youthful driver" in the family.

If you drive a Cadillac, your fenders will cost more to repair than Ford fenders. This means your rates for collision and comprehensive insurance must be higher.

The territory you live in affects both your collision and your liability rates. If the accident rate in your territory is high, your insurance rates are pegged higher all around because all your driving risks are greater—risks to yourself, your car, to other people and their property. Different territories show different auto repair costs, too, and they are reflected in the price of all your auto coverages.

For drivers under 25 most companies charge liability rates that are nearly double the regular adult rate. The rate-makers' tables show that untrained youthful drivers, as a group, have about twice as many fatal accidents as other age groups.

Two other factors affect liability rates. If you don't drive your car for business purposes, your rate is somewhat reduced. Also, some companies give a reduced rate if you drive less than, say, 7,500 miles a year.

Bluebonnet Club Met Tuesday With Mrs. B. H. Preston

The Bluebonnet Garden club met in the home of Mrs. B. H. Preston, Sr., Tuesday, Nov. 12th for their Thanksgiving luncheon. Co-hostesses were Mesdames Loretta Griffen, Elizabeth Brady and Earlyne Chambers. The house and tables were beautifully decorated in keeping with the Thanksgiving motif. The dining table added decor to the party. It was covered with a green cloth and was centered with a small cornucopia filled with flowers and a larger one filled with fruit.

After the luncheon Mrs. A. L. Gilbow, national flower show judge, gave an interesting program on the Horn of Plenty, and color in dried arrangements. She brought a number of beautiful arrangements using dried material and fresh flowers.

Mrs. A. C. Reeves of Farmers Branch was a guest of the club. Mrs. Reeves is a past president of the club.

Nineteen members and two guests enjoyed the good luncheon and interesting program.

A lovely fall meeting of the Current Literature club was held in the home of Mrs. W. B. Short with Mrs. O. L. Clark as co-hostess, Thursday, Nov. 14th.

Mrs. Ralph White, president, conducted the business.

The budget committee's report for the year was read by the chairman, Mrs. Jo Brookman and accepted.

All reports were interesting, well given and accepted.

Names were drawn for the exchange of gifts at the Christmas party to be held Dec. 12th in the home of Mrs. W. W. Chambers with Mrs. J. L. Caffee and Mrs. F. M. McMurtry as co-hostesses.

Miss Ella Billingslea, club counselor, gave a very good counsel talk.

The theme of the program was "Know and Grow through Fine Arts." Mrs. F. G. Jeffers, program leader, quoted "The more things thou learnest to know and enjoy, the more complete and full will be for thee, the delight of living," and introduced the following, Mrs. Roy T. Magers whose interesting topic was "Diplomacy through Music." Mrs. E. B. McCabe talked on "Art and Artists," then displayed many beautiful and interesting paintings of area artists as well as her own.

After viewing and discussing the beauty of each painting, the club members felt a deeper and finer sense of admiration for fine arts.

Delicious refreshments were served to 16 members.

News From The County Agent

The Wichita Valley DHIA Association ranked third in the state last month in average lbs of milk, which was 670 lbs, and fifth in the state in average lbs. of fat, which was 25 lbs. In the Wichita Valley DHIA Association there are 22 herds of dairy cattle, with 741 animals.

Recent frost has caused the pecans in the Wichita Falls area to start falling. It looks like we will make a 60 to 75% normal crop.

In 1956 pecans were plentiful and pecan kernels were priced as low as 70 to 75c per pound. The almond industry kept its prices up to roughly 95c per pound. The result was that many users of almonds switched to pecans, and almond growers had a big tonnage of almonds left in storage, and they still have many of them.

Opening prices for pecans of the 1957 crop are quite encouraging. And pecan growers feel that good pecans merit a good high price. There are certainly ways of increasing the demand for good pecans and for thereby improving the marketing situation. But in the present marketing channels, pecan kernels are highly competitive with a long list of other nuts.

Good cotton planting seed likely will be scarce next spring. This word comes from B. T. Haws, county agent, who says the situation could be serious come cotton planting time. This situation is the result of the continued wet weather that halted harvesting operations in much of the late planted cotton. The early frost further complicated the situation, Haws says, particularly in the late planted cotton that still had immature bolls. The net result of all this is that some of the seed were lost, and the germination of much more was damaged.

So, if you have good cotton seed, Haws advice is to take good care of them by giving extra attention to aeration and storage.

The nation's top authorities on irrigation and related fields will be featured speakers on the program for the first statewide irrigation Conference sponsored by the newly organized Texas Inter-Industry Irrigation Council. The conference will be held at Lubbock on Nov. 14-15. The meeting place is Hotel Lubbock and any person interested in irrigation and the industry is invited, says B. T. Haws, county agent.

The annual Dairy Short Course sponsored by the Dept. of Dairy Science of Texas A and M College will be held on Dec. 5-6. All meetings are scheduled for the Memorial Student Center. Prof. A. L. Darnell, now retired, will be honored at the annual banquet to be held the evening of Dec. 5th.

Growers of upland and extra strong staple cotton will vote in referendums on Dec. 10th to determine whether or not marketing quotas will be operative on their 1958 crops. At least two-thirds of those voting in referendums must approve quotas if they are to be effect. Texas has been 7,474,661 acres of upland cotton and 27,829 acres of long staple cotton for 1957.

Nov. 16th is Texas 4-H ment day, 4-Hers all over State will tell the story of year's work and display achievements. Special city programs, exhibits, ment banquets and other ties are planned in the counties throughout the State.

Make A Festive Holiday Candle

A pilsemer-type beer glass provides the mold for this gay little Christmas candle that you'll find fun and easy to make. You'll probably want to have several around the house during the festive season, as well as some to give away as gifts.

Inside the glass, you'll need a double boiler (NEVER over heat), a little star-shaped holder or ash tray found at any five and ten-cent store, a wick, several pipe cleaners and an assortment of colored waxes that are used for decorating cakes, cookies, etc.

Grate the inside of the glass thoroughly with a vegetable shortening and chill. The chilling makes the wax candle easy to remove from the mold.

Melt the 3 bars of Gulfwax in the double boiler (NEVER over heat). Let it cool slightly, then pour into the pilsemer glass. The wax is completely melted, remove from mold and pour into the glass. Scatter colors at random or you may follow a special color scheme.

While the candle is cooling, take the glass star-shaped holder or ash tray and pour a little of the melted wax into it. Place the pipe cleaners crossed at the center to form a star. The melted wax will adhere them to the container. When the candle is cool, place it on top of the pipe cleaners. No glue will be needed since the wax on the pipe cleaners will make the candle stay in place.

Attach metallic stars in your favorite colors to the pipe cleaners in an irregular fashion. A plastic lace doily may be placed underneath the container.

Last of all, heat an ice pick or a steel knitting needle and form a hole in the center of the candle. Place a wick all the way down and pour melted wax in to fill the hole. You may use a wick from an inexpensive candle.

Should you want to make the cone candle in color, just dissolve ordinary wax crayons in the melted wax—dissolve them whole, break them into segments or shave them into the melted Gulfwax. You can control the range of color, from pastel to deep shades, by the number of crayons you use.

If you would like an illustrated booklet, giving step-by-step methods for making any one of eight other gay holiday candles, send a self-addressed stamped envelope to the Woman's Page Editor of this newspaper.

Two Easy Hot Bread Tricks

Start with the convenience of popular Home bake rolls. Add a dash of imagination. Delicious freshly browned hot bread comes from the oven ready for ladies' brunch, late evening snacks or family dinner.

Here are two easy serving suggestions from Mrs. Baird's. All you need is a package of HomeBake Rolls plus a simple ingredient or two.

CINNAMON TOPPED ROLLS
Brush melted butter over Mrs. Baird's HomeBake Rolls. Sprinkle with cinnamon sugar and chopped pecans. Place on baking sheet and bake at 375 degree F. 12 to 15 minutes. Serve piping hot.

CHEESE ROLLS
From the top of each Mrs. Baird's HomeBake Roll, cut a small wedge and brush with melted butter. In the wedge, place a small wedge-shaped piece of your favorite cheese. A cheese that melts easily is best. Grated cheese or cheese spread is also tasty. Place on baking sheet. Bake at 375 degrees F. 10 to 12 minutes, until cheese is bubbly and brown.

Texas Safety News

"Parents, more than anyone else, are responsible for setting a good example to their children in safety practices."

J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, made this statement, today, in behalf of TSA's current program to develop healthy safety attitudes.

"Parents often treat children as if they were deaf, dumb and blind, he said. They don't realize that children have keen minds and pick up their first habits, good and bad from their parents. This is especially true of safety habits.

Truly safety begins at home, and parents should be sure their actions set the right pattern of safety practices for their children to follow.

He also said that parents themselves are often victims of their own carelessness, or are responsible for accidents to their children through failure to stress safety measures in their own behavior around children.

Many parents, he said "will drive carelessly, jaywalk or use unsafe tools around the home, in the presence of their children. Yet these mothers and fathers will scold their children for doing the same thing."

Musick reminded parents that past National Safety Council figures indicate that more than 10,000 children under 14 years of age will die in accidents of all types this year, unless better safety education is provided in the home.

"It simply doesn't add up," he said. "If parents want to do right by their children, they must set a good example in everything they do. If they want to instill in their children the necessary precaution which will keep them out of the list of scheduled accidents, they had better inventory their own safety habits.

"Be Safe parents," Musick concluded, "and you'll have safe children."

Mrs. Glen Schroeder flew to Houston over the week-end to visit her husband who is employed by Eastern Air Lines in Miami Florida. Mr. Schroeder was in Houston on business for a short time.

Farm Bureau Membership Totals 72,680

Loys D. Barbour, Iowa Park, secretary-treasurer of the Texas Farm Bureau, revealed here today that the organization ended its fiscal year with a membership of 72,680, the largest in its history.

In a report to the opening session of the 24th annual Texas Farm Bureau convention, Barbour said that figure represented a gain of 2,521 members over 1956 and marked the fifth consecutive year for the state's largest farm organization to show a gain.

He said the present membership figure represented less than 50 percent of the 182,000 commercial farmers classified in the 1954 agricultural census.

With the cooperation of the leadership in all county Farm Bureaus, we should be able to increase the membership total next year to 100,000 members," he said.

In reviewing briefly the history of the Texas Farm Bureau, Barbour related how its first headquarters in Waco 20 years ago consisted of a small up-stairs office.

"Since then we have moved twice, each time to larger and better quarters," the TFB secretary-treasurer said. "I am happy to report that next spring we will move into a new building, now under construction, which we have contracted for 28,000 square feet of office space."

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Young are the proud parents of a 7 lb. baby boy born Monday, Nov. 11th. The baby has been named Robert Lynn. Mother and baby are at home now and doing fine.

Progress Shown In Fight Against Tuberculosis

In a recent comment, Howard W. Bosworth, MD., President of the National Tuberculosis Association, observed that "the last few years have been extraordinary ones in the history of tuberculosis. They have been marked on the whole by advances, but the advances have brought with them problems which must be solved if we are to eradicate the disease. The American people can look with justified pride on the progress made in saving the lives of victims of tuberculosis. We must confess that we have not been so successful in preventing people from contracting tuberculosis. We cannot forget that approximately one-third of the nation, 55,000 Americans are infected with the germ which causes tuberculosis and that many of them will break down with the disease."

Dr. Boswell pointed out that 80,000 new cases of tuberculosis are being reported annually but that unfortunately many other thousands are not being found and reported to health authorities.

As one looks at the tuberculosis picture today, at the gains made at the weak spots, at the new problems which have appeared as old ones were being solved, it seems clear that three parts

Grade School News

We are very happy to see many of the boys and girls back in school the past few days. Old man "flu" had a very wicked punch that put several in the bed for a few days, but we are slowly gaining strength and hope that we have him on the run back to Asia for a permanent home. We are hoping that he does not make another appearance around in this part of the country. Our attendance is higher now than it has been for six weeks and we are going to try real hard to keep all the boys and girls in school.

Our second grade has been very much excited the past few days by moving into the new classrooms. The boys and girls are anxious to have parents and friends come by and see them in their new homes. They are anxious to have each of you to see the beautiful new classrooms.

Mrs. Rancier's room has been very busy working and reading about Indians the past few days. They have gathered a very nice Indian collection and have many very fine stories about Indian Legend and early times in this vicinity. It has been very exciting for them.

Harry Elliott Heads Burk Alumni Ass'n.
Harry Elliott was elected President of the newly organized Burkburnett High School Alumni Association at a meeting Friday night following the Burkburnett-Electra football game. Vernon Duke, class of 1942, was elected vice president and Mrs. Lowell Wood, class of 1940, was elected secretary-treasurer. Elliott is a member of the 1933 class. Representatives of classes from 1922 through 1937 were present at the meeting with the exception of the 1933 and 1944 class members. The group will meet again in November of 1958 when a queen will be selected and awards presented to the oldest member and the one who has traveled the greatest distance to attend. Roy Silkwood, principal of Burkburnett High School, presided over Friday's meeting.

Burk Leader's Ass'n
Mesdames Robert Beavers, W. B. Halsey, Cope, Six, Logan and Glover met at the home of Mrs. Cope and decided to donate $50. to Mrs. Loretta Hunt for the use of the Youth Center for the meetings of the Blue Birds and Camp Fire Girls, whenever the dates did not conflict with any activities being held at the Center. We wish to thank Mrs. Hunt for her wonderful cooperation. We have secured plenty of suitable meeting places for the Blue Birds and Camp Fire girls and any mother who would be interested in being a Leader or helper in either the Blue Birds or Camp Fire Girls, please contact Mrs. Robert Beavers or Mrs. W. B. Halsey.

Mrs. W. C. Davis Hostess Tuesday Alma Jackson Circle
The Alma Jackson Circle met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. W. C. Davis. The meeting was opened with the group repeating the Lord's Prayer in unison. After a short business session conducted by Mrs. C. A. Reed, circle chairman, Mrs. R. P. Thaxton and Miss Jewel Reed presented a very interesting and inspirational lesson from a mission study book on Africa. Continent in Commotion, by Ira Patterson. The book dealt with the people of Nigeria, their many idol worshipping religions, their high death rate due to lack of doctors and medicine, their superstitions and slavery problems and the blessing of having Christ brought into their lives by our missionaries. Each member brought canned foods for two Thanksgiving baskets to be presented to two needy families. We were happy to welcome Mrs. J. C. Gay and Mrs. Marilyn Farrell as our guests. The meeting was dismissed with prayer by Miss Hazel Wagner. Lovely refreshments were served to Mesdames R. P. Thaxton, W. A. Minick, Carl Miller, C. A. Reed, Ruth Beldon, H. L. Lawrence, Claude Bowman, Ruth Ramsey, G. W. Varner, Marilyn Farrell, J. C. Gay, W. C. Davis and Luke Warren; Misses Bessie McKnight, Hazel Wagner and Jewel Reed. Next meeting will be with Mrs. Ruth Ramsey. Dromedary is a camel, either one- or two-humped, of a breed and training fitting it riding purposes.

"How much liability insurance is enough?" many businessmen have asked. With the trend towards more lawsuits and for much higher amounts, it is difficult to accurately determine the proper limits. However, a recent study by the American Management Association shows that higher limits are being frequently purchased — approximately 3 times the limits of 4 years ago. It is important to have "enough". Right here in Burkburnett we have seen cases where a person was sued for several times the amount of their liability limits. In such cases the insurance company usually advises the person to hire an attorney to represent his interests on the portion of the claim above the policy limits. With just a slightly higher premium the entire cost of defending the suit would have been borne by the insurance company. Not long ago, a client asked us for limits 10 times higher than he had formerly carried. When we pointed out that his operation was not unusually hazardous and without any obvious possibilities of a catastrophe loss, he just smiled and replied that the extra high limits represented "sleep insurance". Let us review your liability coverages in the light of recent court awards. We'll try to be realistic, yet perhaps add just a measure more for your own "sleep insurance".

The Picture Of Health
By Robert A. Arens, M.D.
DROWNING
Every summer brings a tragic toll in lives lost by drowning. Following a few simple rules can help cut the number this tragedy claims. First, those who swim should keep a responsible eye on those who don't as well as on each other. Toddlers may wade in, and do, when you least expect it; novices get swept off their feet; swimmers hit their heads or get entangled. Second, if you don't know how to handle yourself in the water you should learn fast. Learn to float—that will meet many swimming emergencies and keep you going for hours. Third, don't swim alone. Fourth, don't tempt the ocean currents by letting yourself get too far offshore. Fifth, hold down the horseplay; in the water it can be disastrous. Don't be ashamed to call for help if you need it; if you wait it may be too late. And of course, you know how you should relax for sixty minutes after eating before going in. It's helpful to know life-saving techniques. Scouts, the Red Cross and other fine organizations teach them regularly. You may save a life by knowing artificial respiration. Did you know that it can also help equally those who are electrocuted or poisoned by barbiturates or other drugs which paralyze breathing? A fairly recent technique, based on the Neilsen method, gets more air into the lungs than the old-style manner. In the new method, place the victim flat on his stomach; left hand under right cheek, right hand under right neck, elbows spread and head turned to the side. See that his tongue will not shut off air. Put your knees on either side of his head and kneel facing his shoulders. At the count, "one, two," press the heels of your open hands, thumbs pointing at each other, against his shoulder blades, putting the weight of your arms behind your stiffened arms. At "three," rock back on your heels and bring hands along upper arms to point of elbow, and at "four, five," pick up elbows and bring them a little toward you. Work out a rhythmic, comfortable motion to simulate normal breathing. Keep at it till help comes.

An accident is usually the only winner in the race against time—Drive Safely Better be safe than sorry—Drive Safely.
