A total of $106,000 in scholarships will be awarded this year. The national winner will be named April 17th at a banquet in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in New York City. The scholarship of the All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow will be increased to $5,000. Girls who rank second, third and fourth in the nation will receive $4,000, $3,000 and $2,000 scholarships, respectively. National Boy Scout Week Set for February 7-13th for 4,700,000

The 4,700,000 boys and leaders of the Boy Scouts of America will launch a yearlong National Safety Good Turn during Boy Scout week, Feb. 7 to 13. The Scouts' national service project was suggested by President Dwight D. Eisenhower, Honorary President of the Boy Scouts. In a White House message, President Eisenhower told the Scouts: "In our land each individual is of inestimable worth, yet in no other land do accidents cause a more terrible loss of human life and limb. This fact cannot be passively accepted. We must seek new ways to save the basic resources of our Nation: its people. Encouraged by the splendid results of your Conservation Good Turn four years ago, I now urge you to adopt Safety as your service project for 1958. Thru the concerted action of your members, and in cooperation with other organizations, you can alert the public to the urgent need for reducing the tragic toll of accidents. This is an opportunity for service to your country in the highest tradition of the Boy Scouts of America." The Scouts' National Safety Good Turn is being coordinated nationally and locally with other safety programs and campaigns. National safety organizations have advised and assisted Scout leaders in developing plans and projects. During March, April and May, the projects will involve traffic safety. Outdoor safety projects will keep Scouts busy in June, July and August. Home safety will be featured in September, October and November. Next October, the Boy Scouts will distribute to approximately 35,000,000 homes a civil defense booklet on family preparedness for emergencies.

Survey Shows Allies Think Little Of U. S.

The Chronicle long has contended that the United States has bought little friendship with the $60,000,000,000 in foreign aid it has lavished on foreign countries. The Chronicle also has noted that the people in the countries receiving the aid have been told little or nothing by their government officials of the United States generosity.

A survey conducted by the New York Herald-Tribune and the International Research Ass'n., Inc. proves up these points.

Of 11 countries surveyed—all of them so-called allies—the people in only two countries showed a majority sentiment that their countries would join in a war between the United States and Russia. Neither of these two countries was Britain, France or Italy, which have received the bulk of American foreign aid. The two were the Netherlands and Australia, and only the former nation has received any appreciable amount of foreign aid.

Among the people polled in Britain, 54 percent said Britain should stay out of any war between the United States and Russia. Only 41 percent favored participation, and most of these were among the educated classes. In France, 66 percent opposed French participation, while 28 percent favored it. In Italy, a whopping 72% opposed participation and only 21 percent favored it. Persons polled in Brazil, West Germany, Norway, Belgium, Austria and Sweden were predominantly opposed to their countries getting into a Russo-American war.

If the internationalist bureaucrats in Washington were rational persons, the findings of this survey, plus the multitude of other evidences justifying the same conclusion, would jolt them. But they aren't rationalists. They are dreamy-eyed ideologists.

Unless congress, spurred on by public sentiment at home, clamps down on the purse strings of foreign aid, the senseless spending of American tax money will go on forever. As long as it does, the national debt will remain high, taxes will remain high and the vicious circle of excessive spending in the federal government will continue.

Foundation At The Crossroads

This is a critical time for the Gonzales Warm Springs Rehabilitation Foundation. It is not the first such time, because the Foundation is a relatively young institution and it has had its share of growing pains.

Through good times and bad, through ups and downs, the Foundation has survived and progressed until now it exemplifies physical medicine in its finest expression. Its files are filled with case histories of citizens who came twisted, weakened, and ravaged by disease and accidents and who departed with new strengths, new resolve, and new hope. Many recoveries have been little short of amazing.

That this is not a biased evaluation is attested by the fact that the Foundation is fully accredited with the Joint Commission on Accreditation of Hospitals, the nation's most significant guardian of high standards in the medical profession. This accreditation was only recently reaffirmed.

The very excellence of this program, which certainly has not been an overnight achievement, behooves us now to bend our best efforts to see that it is perpetuated. Let us examine briefly the problems that face the Foundation today.

The effectiveness of the Salk vaccine, in which all the world glories, has resulted in a shift of emphasis in the Foundation rehabilitation program from poliomyelitis—although certainly a vast amount of care is still needed for polio patients. The shift is toward the rehabilitation of accident victims and persons handicapped by such conditions as cerebral palsy, muscular dystrophy, strokes, arthritis, multiple sclerosis, encephalitis, etc.

Currently receiving treatment are citizens who have been in auto accidents, have been shot or poisoned, have fallen off scaffolding and power poles, have been in landslides. There are others too. All are benefiting from the round the clock, many faceted, comprehensive care at the Foundation, care effected by a competent team of doctors, therapists, nurses, orthotists, and other rehabilitation workers.

That the ranks of humanity are filled with citizens who need the Foundation's services is a matter of pure statistics. It cannot be denied.

However, unlike polio patients who could turn to the March of Dimes for financial assistance, the non-polio patients have little financial support with which to purchase the costly rehabilitation care. Recent statistics show that of the Foundation's operating costs about 5 percent currently comes from individuals able to pay, 10 percent from State agencies, 20 percent from insurance, 35 percent from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. This leaves about 30% which must come through voluntary contributions.

This percentage of so-called welfare, in some months recently has been as high as 40 percent, and it is almost a certainty that the average percentage will continue to increase as National Foundation participation decreases.

In the face of this need for more funds to provide rehabilitation for non-polio patients, the Foundation is confronted with (1) rising costs generally and (2) public apathy resulting from the misconception that the Foundation treats polio patients only. Every effort is being made to publicize the facts of the matter, but public information in a state as large as Texas, is a great and costly problem.

A part of the answer is a serious and continuing effort by every employe to eliminate wasted effort and material wherever possible. Another part is management's continuing campaign to tell the Foundation's story to the people of Texas. They have responded nobly and generously before in establishing and promoting this great humanitarian program. Surely, given the facts they will do so again.

Your interest and assistance will be appreciated.

Mrs. R. C. Tevis Luncheon Hostess Burk Garden Club January 22nd

The Burkburnett Garden club met in the home of Mrs. R. C. Tevis, Jan. 22nd for a lovely luncheon. Mrs. Bill Crosley was co-hostess. This was the 23rd anniversary of the club having been organized in the same room 23 years ago. Three charter members were present, Mesdames Carl Morrison, J. C. Adams and Mrs. Tevis.

The party rooms were beautifully decorated with blooming potted plants grown by the hostess. The hostess' daughter, Miss Sadie Beth Tevis, played several selections on her new organ during the luncheon.

Mrs. Walter Riley, president, presided over the business session. Discussion of plans for the spring flower show to be held in the home of Mrs. D. C. Dodson were made and committees appointed. A rising vote of thanks was given to Mrs. Glen Bear for her work with the Junior Garden club girls and their project of placing Christmas decorations in front of the elementary school during the holidays. Thanks was also extended to Mrs. Paul Browning, an honorary member of the club for her gift of a book which was added to the club's growing library.

Mrs. B. N. Cauthorn was program leader for the day. She introduced Mrs. J. C. Gay, who gave a discussion on the Best Trees for Burkburnett's new homes.

Mrs. D. C. Dodson, who has recently landscaped the yard of her new home, has made quite a study of satisfactory shrubs to grow here and shared her knowledge with us. She found that chimes and burpe holly does well and Elliagres is good for contrast. Also that horiope grass grows and does well in the shade and partial shade for this area.

Mrs. Glen Bear gave a splendid report on plantings by members on Arbor Day and also from her Junior Garden club group.

Mrs. J. B. Riley made the flower arrangement for the month and it was used on the main luncheon table.

Kitowa Campfire Girls

The Kitowa Campfire girls met on Jan. 23rd in front of the grade school. From there the girls went to Roy's Studio for a group picture to be used in the paper for polio drive publicity. After the pictures were taken, the girls went to the camp fire cabin for their regular meeting.

Roll call was answered by all ten members. Refreshments were served by Linda Beaver and Carliss Fisher. The meeting was then adjourned.

On the following day, Jan. 24 the girls met in the camp fire cabin. Polio posters were given to the girls and were distributed in the stores downtown. The girls then went back to the cabin and were given some material to be distributed in the schools. The meeting was then adjourned.

Clem Hardy Circle Met Mon. Jan. 27th

Those on the refreshment committee are Hazel Meyer, Sue Cantwell and Olive Carter.

Motion was made and second to elect Hazel Meyer as Mission study chairman. Oma B. Van Cleave was elected secretary and treasurer.

Devotional was given by Olive Carter. Program was given by Mildred Dodd, and Sue Cantwell. Prayer by Helen Grizzle. Nine members and four visitors were present.

"We live in an age of interesting inventions," I said to Ted Fowler. "H bombs, color TV, Sputniks, atomic powered submarines, and now an artificial sun. It's truly amazing."

"But, Ted," I continued, "science still hasn't invented a practical, every day car which won't fold up like an accordion if crushed head on into another one at 60 miles per hour or more. As a result, autos alone cause about 40,000 deaths a year, plus hundreds of thousands of severe, crippling injuries. And each year, millions are badly injured in other accidents at home, at work, or at play."

"That's true," Ted said. "There's no sure cure for bad accidents despite the brilliant inventions in other fields."

"For the present, then," I said, "and probably for a good long time to come, the best solution is to be careful—and to carry a suitable amount of accident insurance. We can tailor an accident policy to fit your needs."

"Does it provide coverage for hospitalization and medical expenses?" Ted asked.

"Yes," I replied, "and also a certain amount per week to reimburse you for the time and pay checks you miss at work. Let me show you exactly."

Ted looked over the figures. "That's a good deal," he said. "Fix it up."

May we show you the "Figures" which will fit your needs?

State Capitol NEWS

By VERN STANFORD
 Texas Press Association

The Panhandle to the Gulf, a good, safe topic for a speech right now is The Gulf. They're All ours. They haven't been stirred in the issue since 1953. That the year Congress passed the Texas Lands Act which gave the coastal states' off-shore lands to the state boundaries. The state was to land three miles (10 1/2 miles) from shore under an independence treaty with Mexico. At least were considered the historic boundaries. Hence, the state began operating in the three league territory to oil, gas and other companies to gain for the public school.

the fat's in the fire again year outgoing U. S. Atty. General Brownell filed in the U. S. Supreme Court claiming Texas' claim to more than three miles of tidelands. He said, he belong to the federal government. Texas officials say:

WILL WILSON Louisiana who knocked the coffee pot. "We were going along fine with the 1953 law, until Louisiana to three miles tide-landed that if Texas have three leagues so they Louisiana filed suit for extra land. Federal government said that no state more than three miles."

observed Wilson, "Texas in a tender spot. Louisiana not other states have the same of case as Texas, he emphasized. At the time Louisiana ended the Union, the commonly used boundary of a country from shore—or three miles. However, said Wilson, right to three leagues in War for Independence, and officials recognized this the state entered the value of the land is estimated at $500,000. Hopefully, Wilson noted, been allotted only one hour to the court to argue for it.

PRICE DANIEL:— This lawsuit is another step in the process of chipping away authority of the states. It is not only to repudiate the Union, but to destroy the intent of Congress the president has by every means. Yet his own attorney has sued.

Governor Daniel expressed the belief that Brownell who filed the Texas suit on his last day at attorney general, acted out of pure spite.

LAND COMM. EARL RUDDER
 If U. S. Court knocks down Texas claim to the 10 1/2 mile shoreline, then Russia, Mexico or anybody else can claim it. Rudder took note of reported discussion among Mexican attorneys. Their view: If Texas did not get title to the territory from Mexico in 1836, then Mexico still owns it.

READY FOR BUSINESS
 A new state board has opened shop. It's business: to lend money for dams and reservoirs to hold some of the water that has been rushing wastefully into the Gulf.

Water Development Board instructed its executive secretary to notify some 1,000 cities and water districts that its ready to start considering applications for funds. Board can lend up to one-third the cost (with $5,000,000 limit) of a water conservation project.

Newly organized Development Board met jointly with an older group, the State Board of Water Engineers. Members of the two boards promised to work harmoniously with no trespassing on each other's territory. Development Board will pass on the legal and financial angles of a proposed project: Board of water Engineers will study from the engineering viewpoint.

NEW TRAFFIC DIRECTOR
 Brad H. Smith, Rio Grand valley newsman, and past president of the Texas Press Association, becomes Texas first state traffic safety director on Feb. 1st. Gov. Daniel said that Smith will spearhead one of the most intensive traffic safety campaigns in the state's history. Daniel has made war on road deaths one of the prime goals of his administration.

Smith will work with the Texas Traffic Safety Council created by the Legislature last spring to coordinate the safety activities of state agencies. He has been doing volunteer safety work for 18 years.

WEAKEST LINK
 Bearing on the same problem speakers at a traffic courts conference in Austin said the courts must command respect for the law.

Traffic courts conducted by laymen or part time judges in ill-housed courtrooms may be partly responsible for the casual attitude many have toward traffic offenses, said one speaker. Such courts, it was charged are the weakest link in the traffic enforcement chain.

SMALL FRY NOT WANTED
 Texas Board of Insurance has problem of deciding whether to grant permission to charge lower rates to casualty companies which avoid the "littlest business."

Five companies are requesting the special rates. They said they plan to insure only more expensive homes. Loss ratios are higher in the $5,000 and under bracket, they explained and cost of handling offsets commissions. Board recognized this, but asked, "who is going to take care of the $5,000 home owner?"

CREDIT RULING CONTESTED
 An Amarillo insurance firm has filed suit to prevent new lower credit insurance rules from going into effect March 1. State Board of Insurance had issued an order that would bring an estimated 50 percent slash in credit insurance charges.

Attorneys for Cosmo Insurance Co. contend the Board exceeded its authority. Credit insurers say the order would wreck their business.

Numerous state officials had urged the change on the premise that excessive insurance charges were being used as a means to charge borrowers exorbitant rates.

TAKE IT EASY
 Convenient step stools make for greater working comfort; new designing places seats some what lower than in older models Vinyl plastic upholstery provides both color and ease in cleaning. The entire stool can be swabbed with a sudsy cloth or sponge as needed.

More No-Iron Fabrics
 Looks like easier days for homemakers, with even more no iron fabrics coming up. This time it's the table cloth manufacturers who are campaigning for easier laundering fabrics. They are aiming at a finish that will eliminate ironing cottons, rayons or linen table ware. Of course, we already have table cloths that require little or no ironing. Look for the new finishes when you shop for yourself or for the bride.

Clean Up Fire Hazards
 Closets, attics and cellars are where the majority of home fires start. Thus, good housekeeping is not only one of the best ways to prevent fires but also to curb its spread.

Cleaning the Washer
 It's easy to wash out your washer after tinting or dyeing a load of clothes. Just fill the tub with hot soap or syndet (synthetic detergent) suds, add bleach, and let the machine run until clean. Follow with a hot water rinse and then leave the washer open until dry inside.

Rug Wear vs Television
 Since television has popularized the family living room, rugs need to be turned about to distribute wear evenly instead of concentrating it in front of the TV set.

Virginia Dempsey Hostess Recently Esther S. S. Class

The Esther Sunday School class of the First Baptist church met for a luncheon in the home of Mrs. Virginia Dempsey.

The president, Alma Mullins, presided over the meeting. The devotional was given on a New Year by Norma Campbell. Meeting was closed with prayer by Olive Carter.

Those present were Alma Mullins, Dorothy Duke, Olive Carter, Jean Bailey, Mary Knox, Gwen Metz, Allyne Landrum, Betty Mills, Betty Key, Norma Campbell, Marilyn Farrell, Mary Bankhead, Carolyn Morris, Sue Green and the hostess, Virginia Dempsey.

Rambler Sales Up In Dallas Area

Rambler sales in American Motors' Dallas Zone increased 40.1% in 1957 to establish a new record, according to T. J. Sloggett, Zone manager.

The Dallas zone covers Texas and New Mexico. "The great sales gains posted by the Rambler dealers in the Dallas zone indicates that the trend toward compact, economical cars has reached new heights," Sloggett said. Sloggett added that Rambler sales in the nation totaled 96,567 in 1957, surpassing the previous year's record of 73,807 sold in 1955 by 33.6%. Last year sales total also was a gain of 38.2% over 1956.

Boy Scouts, on 48th Birthday, Begin National Safety Good Turn

More than 4,700,000 Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, Explorers, and adult leaders throughout the nation will observe Boy Scout Week, February 7 to 13, marking the 48th anniversary of the Boy Scouts of America.

A WORTHY GOOD TURN

The Boy Scouts of America observes its 48th anniversary during Boy Scout Week, February 7th to 13th, by launching a yearlong nationwide Good Turn. The Safety Good Turn, undertaken at the suggestion of President Dwight D. Eisenhower, will find 4,700,000 boys and leaders engaged in promoting traffic safety, outdoor safety, and home safety.

Motorists May Be Lined up Waiting For Car Safety Inspection April 15

Texas motorists may be lined up for hours before neighborhood automobile service centers on the April 15th deadline nears for obtaining safety inspection stickers for cars and trucks, Maj. E. A. Crowder, Commander of Region 5 of the Texas Dept. of Public Safety, announced today.

YEAR END TAX TIPS More Tax-Saving Deductions And How To Time Them

This is one of a series of four articles on federal income taxes. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Texas Society of Certified Public Accountants.

If you are one of those individual taxpayers who is constantly being collared and dollored for charitable contributions, you may save money by paying particular attention to the timing and planning of your year-end donations.

Before paying-off on any more 1957 pledges you might have made, remember that you will not receive a tax credit for your charitable contributions unless you itemize deductions on your return. You can take the standard 10-per cent deduction and a special deduction for donations to charity. You may take only one or the other, so plan your year-end pledge payments accordingly.

Planning Charitable Gifts If you will be forced to take the standard 10 per cent deduction this year, your best tax move would be to defer payment on your outstanding pledges until after January 1, spreading them into 1958 when you may be able to itemize deductions. However, if you have had a better-than-average income year and are trying to bunch itemized deductions on this year's return, you should pay not only the pledges you have made but possibly the pledges you would ordinarily make in early 1958.

Property Donations A gift does not have to be in cash to entitle you to a charitable deduction. It can be in property, and since you can claim a deduction for the full market value of a property gift, it may actually pay you to give away items that are now worth more than they cost.

For example, suppose that you own a few shares of stock that cost you $100 a few years ago. Today the stock is worth $150, and apparently fully priced. If you know you are going to be approached by a church, charity, college or the like for a sizeable donation within the next few months, you might consider contributing these securities before the end of the year.

By giving this property away, the organization you care to favor will benefit by receiving property which they may hold or sell, and you will establish a $50 charitable deduction for your 1957 tax return. Furthermore, you avoid paying a capital gains tax on the profit. If you must dismiss the idea of giving away a piece of real estate or a block of stock within the next few years, don't overlook the opportunity of building up your charitable deduction by donating such "property" as used furniture, clothing, books and toys to a worthy charity. The value of these items is deductible, too.

Prepaying State Taxes The state and local taxes which you pay are also deductible items that often can be pyramided to give a tax advantage. Some taxes that fall due early in 1958 can be prepaid to give you an additional deduction on this year's federal tax return. On the other hand, it may be to your advantage to delay payments until 1958. Be careful when you do this, however. You may incur a late payment penalty.

Former Tax Tactics While businessmen and farmers can do everything that a salaried worker can do to cut their tax bills, they also have special opportunities to time year-end deductions.

A farmer, for example, who reports for tax purposes on a cash basis, can deduct his expenditures in the year paid. By purchasing his 1958 grain requirements in December, he can increase deductions on his 1957 return. If he borrows money to make this purchase, the interest paid on the loan during the year is also deductible.

A businessman, whose year-end tax plan calls for bunching deductions on this year's return, can time the sale of used equipment to establish loss deductions. For example, by selling a truck that has a depreciated value of $500 and a real market value of $300, a businessman may claim a tax credit for his $300 "loss." If he sells the truck before December 31, he can take this deduction on his 1957 return.

A Few Decades Past ...

A NEWSPAPER WAS A RARITY IN MANY AMERICAN COMMUNITIES!

Then—a newspaper was a thing to be marveled at—for memories of the Press' fight for freedom were fresh in mind. Although newspapers are common in our country today, their existence should not be taken for granted. It is a wonderful fact that almost all of our modern communities have their own hometown newspapers, freely edited by members of their own communities—spreading the news, stimulating the business of the community, and keeping their readers informed of important events elsewhere.

Are we keeping Tommy from becoming a Doctor?

Tommy doesn't know it—but the way things look now, he may not get that M.D. after his name. And that's too bad for Tommy, and too bad for us: Tommy's a kid who'd make a great doctor. But Tommy lives in a community where there's a serious shortage of classrooms, teachers and up-to-date schoolbooks. That means Tommy is getting a lot less schooling than he needs. Let's be sure this doesn't happen to the children in our schools. Join with the other good citizens to back up our School Board, attend PTA meetings and school conferences. Grade School News

We are very happy to be back in school and start the second half of this school year. We realize more than we did the first of the year that we will have to work real hard.

We are happy to extend a welcome to the pupils of the three six grade sections that moved to the grade school building from Junior High at Mid-term. We realize that it was an interruption to their regular routine of school work, but we are hoping that each of them will be happy for the rest of the school year.

Texas Safety News

J. O. Musick, General Manager of the Texas Safety Association, today, asked full local support for the renewal of the nationwide "Back the Attack on Traffic Accidents" campaign.

Back the Attack, a successful program in 1957, will be stepped up during the coming months of 1958. It is sponsored in Texas by TSA and across the nation by the National Safety Council.

When the final tallies are in for 1957, Musick said, I believe the figures will reveal that the accident prevention program, in Texas, is gaining momentum and in a favorable direction. At least so far, figures indicate the fatality toll will fall more than 200 below the record-breaking toll of 2,511 traffic deaths of 1956.

Musick said the appeal to Texans to walk and drive more safely is justified by records which point up the three most hazardous traffic conditions; which are SPEED—Latest figures reveal that 58 percent of the rural fatal accidents, in Texas involve speeds too fast for conditions, good reasons why you should Slow Down and Live.

ALCOHOL—A drinking driver is involved in approximately 39 percent of all rural fatal accidents. Special studies of fatal accidents occurring during holiday periods show that these percentages invariably rise above normal levels. Drinking pedestrians also push up the death toll in this category. Best estimates claim that of the adult pedestrians killed, about 20% have been drinking.

DARKNESS—More than half of all fatal accidents occur during darkness or early twilight hours. The Texas Safety Association estimates that the mileage death rate is more than twice as great at night as in daylight.

We must understand these facts and resolve to do something about them, Musick said. Everyone, public officials and citizens alike, must make up his own mind to do everything in his power to lower traffic deaths. Cooperation between officials and citizens can be the key to cutting down the number of traffic fatalities and injuries.

News From The County Agent

While all moldy feed may not be harmful to livestock, B. T. Haws, county agent, warns livestock producers that it is wise to test questionable grain by feeding it to one or two animals of low value for about two weeks. Some reports have been received of livestock deaths from eating moldy grain.

If you are looking for ways to cut farm production costs, consider this. Good seed can make your investment in fertilizer, machinery and labor go further. In fact, with production costs continuing to rise, you just can't take a chance on poor seed.

Recent price increases in hogs had a tendency to increase hog production. We had an increase in the 1957 fall pig crop. Because of this increase, the slaughter of hogs in the spring and summer of 1958 will likely be large. As a result, the prices of hogs may drop.

In buying fertilizer for next spring's crops, let soil testing take the guesswork out of deciding the best rate of fertilizer to use, suggests B. T. Haws, county agent. Soils vary greatly in their supply of nutrients essential for top yields. This is seen by the fact that one part of the field yields fairly good whereas another part might yield less. This variation means that fertilizer needs will vary from field to field, and from farm to farm.

If soil samples are taken, be sure they are representative of the field to be fertilized. Fertilizer recommendations based on soil test are no better than the sample itself. Haws points out. Before sampling, see your county agent for instructions on how to take the samples. Also obtain from him the necessary information sheets to submit with the samples.

1800 demonstrations conducted in 56 Texas counties last year under the direction of county agents showed that odorized methyl bromide was 96% more effective for controlling the troublesome leaf cutting ants.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

The Great Plains Conservation Program is the new conservation tool which has been fashioned to speed up soil and water conservation in those portions of the Great Plains states that are subject to wind erosion. The great plains claims about 37% of all our nation's land and 40% of all its crop lands. This is the area which has suffered most from the extreme droughts that have occurred about every 20 years. Just a year ago moisture conditions were critical in Texas. Six million acres of land were in condition to blow, and over half a million had been damaged by wind erosion. Last winter one million and three-quarter acres of land were seriously damaged by wind erosion. A number of the counties in the western part of our District are in this program which is now ready to get started. It will move along at a fast pace.

This week the house appropriated additional funds in a supplemental appropriation to provide additional financing for our missile program. This measure will no doubt receive speedy approval in the Senate. As we have pointed out heretofore, there can be little question but what there is a need for some additional funds, but our real crying need is for better management in our Defense Dept.

The Committee on Ways and Means continues to hold general tax hearings which are the first of this type that have been held in a good many years. As they unfold, it becomes more apparent that a reasonable reduction in personal and some business taxes would actually not affect the revenues of the Government because the present rates are so oppressive.

Many proposals have been made to encourage our young people to complete a college education. Some have proposed Federal scholarships, and others have suggested direct aid to our colleges and universities. I have introduced a bill that would allow a student to deduct as an expense from his or his parents income tax all of his expenses for tuition, fees and books, while attending college. This would give some effective immediate relief to college students and would not require any great Federal bureau to administer it and also would not put the Federal Government in the education business.

DOLLARS WASTED --

DOLLARS NEEDLESSLY SPENT are a TWO-way waste. 1. You won't have them when you need them for something really important. 2. They contribute to inflationary pressures, help keep prices on the rise . . . wasting away the purchasing power of dollars you spend in the future. SAVED DOLLARS work just the opposite. Deposited in your savings account, they earn extra dollars for you. They help keep inflation under control, help you to get MORE for the dollars you spend later. Thus, you are money ahead TWO ways when you spend wisely, save persistently.
