Lines Are Drawn In School Board Control Tussle

The article in the Star last week concerning the school board and its actions stirred up quite a bit of conversation and discussion throughout the school district.

Since the paper came out the pros and cons have been lining up recruits for their particular belief. At present the battlefield is more or less calm. It now appears that both sides are content to consolidate their lines, bring up reinforcements in preparation for the battle of the ballots on April 5th when voting will take place to elect two members to the school board.

There will be light skirmishes and active patrol duty from now until election. Front line reports will be made until the final outcome is known.

Petitions are being circulated asking the school board to delay further important decisions until after the election.

Adequate Records Are Stressed By Internal Revenue

Importance of adequate records to back up claimed deductions was stressed here today by C. B. Dixon, Administrative Officer of the Wichita Falls Office of Internal Revenue Service.

A taxpayers statement that he gave 'about $100' to a certain Charity won't satisfy Uncle Sam, Mr. Dixon said.

"The keeping of a few casual notes or records which only enable taxpayer to approximate his income is not adequate. All taxpayers including farmers and ranchers, must keep records that will accomplish two purposes: First help the taxpayer file an accurate tax return for 1957. Second, records that, if examined closely by Revenue, will help us determine if the law has been fulfilled."

Mr. Dixon added that records should include sales slips, invoices, receipts, canceled checks and any other document which may be needed as supporting evidence.

Father-Daughter Banquet Observed By Camp Fire Organizations Feb. 14

More than 200 gathered at the school cafeteria last Friday night for the annual Camp Fire Girls Father-Daughter Banquet. Each girl had prepared a box lunch and served her father or guest.

B. B. Six, master of ceremonies, gave the invocation. This was followed by one verse of America, led by the Lawanna Horizon Club.

The head table carried Horizon Club colors of blue and silver. A trappers fire of silver logs with blue flowers and silvered foliage formed a centerpiece. Each table was colorfully decorated by a different group of girls.

Camp Fire has really grown in Burkburnett the past year through efforts of the Horizon Club and the older Camp Fire groups. Only 8 girls and dads attended the banquet last year! Growth is also reflected by the units now working here:

- 7 Blue Bird groups
- 4 Camp Fire groups
- 1 Horizon Club group.

Leaders and guardians of the various groups were introduced by the master of ceremonies. Special guests introduced were: Harry C. Dodson and H. D. Smith, guests of the Lawanna Horizon Club; Rev. Leon Turner, Finis Taylor and Francis Beaver, guests of the Kitowa Camp Fire group.

The program consisted of songs, dances or skits given by the different groups. The groups and their guardians are listed below:

- Cheery Blue Birds, Mrs. Charles Ainsworth.
- Gay Blue Birds, Mrs. B. R. Magee.
- Friendly Blue Birds, Mrs. B. B. Six.

Singing Blue Birds, Mrs. J. T. Logan.

Sunny Blue Birds, Mrs. M. D. Glover.

Tweety Blue Birds, Mrs. H. W. Cope.

We-Ki-Ya Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. Jerry O'Mary.

Ki-To-Wa Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. Robert Beaver.

Lowanna Horizon Camp Fire Club, Mrs. Walter Riley.

Wa-Can-Yi-Ya Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. Floyd Wilson.

Snannah Camp Fire Girls, Mrs. C. R. Patrick.

Method of Finance

The local Camp Fire organization is a council unto itself. It is not affiliated with any other area Camp Fire council or group. However the local organization is fully affiliated with the National organization with headquarters in New York. All money raised locally remains with the local organization. The local groups do not ask for donations. Each October they have candy sales to raise money. The candy is ordered directly from the factory in Denver, Colorado, and from each $1 box sold, 40c remains here with the local council. Of course, none of the local leaders are paid. They are volunteer workers, donating their time and talents.

The girls had a very successful campaign last October and will not be selling candy until this coming Oct. Camp Fire Girls selling candy in Burkburnett the past few weeks are not local girls. They are from some neighboring town.

The local Camp Fire group contributed $50.00 to the Youth Center last year.

GRASS ROOTS OPINION

PLEASANTON, CALIF. TIMES: "If we are to earn our spurs as a community in a system based on free enterprise and private industry, then it's time we stopped leaning on the Federal budget for our prosperity and ventured forth into a competitive market of commerce and industry as a basis for permanent security."

BURLINGAME, KANSAS. ENTERPRISE-CHRONICLE: "A change in political administration has not made headway against the assault on privately-owned power and light companies nor socialized medicine, to name two areas. Either one, if we are to accept the socialistic trend, would jeopardize other facets of the American way and require more controls rather than fewer controls."

PRACTICAL NUMEROLOGY

Now is the time for all good men (and women) to come to the aid of the income tax examiner. It's time to start practicing the Arabic numerals—1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 0.

Right now, all good citizens are busy accumulating, and trying to find, the records and memos and cancelled checks they're going to need in filling out that tax form. For most people, this is the most important document of the year. But with all the fretting that goes on over what to report, mighty little attention is paid to how to write the figures.

It's not much wonder that the examiners are prone to get the idea that the public is trying to confuse them. Actually, they find far more errors in arithmetic than in interpretation, more mathematical mistakes even than efforts to deceive, mislead or just plain cheat!

And the handwriting itself is of prime concern to the government. The Internal Revenue people have found that most personal income tax forms are handwritten, as are almost half of all corporate returns. In fact, they note an increasing use of handwriting by businessmen.

Most of the deception in income tax reports is self deception. Many individuals aren't too sure of their own writing after it has cooled off—7's look like 1's, 3's like 5's or 8's, or 6's like 9's. And when dealing with the important money involved in the Big Divide with Uncle Sam, careless calligraphy can be mighty expensive.

Sloppy figures make plenty of trouble on the job, in social life and at the bank and combined with illegible handwriting, cause business losses that run into millions of dollars a year. Banks, for instance, commonly maintain what they call "Who Am I?" accounts in which they carry the deposits of those whose deposit slips they can't read, until the worried depositor can prove his own hieroglyphics.

So tonight perhaps, when the kids get down to their homework, maybe you'd better join them. 1-2-3-4-5-6-7-8-9-0.

TEACHERS OF TOMORROW

The Chicago Daily News says that "we get high school graduates who don't know democratic capitalism from communist dictatorship." That sad observation was prompted by an astonishing report from a professor of economics at a well-known university which specializes in teacher training. He asked 80 freshmen who are preparing to become teachers to define "capitalism." Almost all of them, he found, "not only called capitalism a form of government, but they also thought it an evil and dangerous form of government."

One student, for instance, said: "Capitalism is more on the dictator type of government." Another said: "Capitalism is the extreme measures that are taken by a group, country or even a single person. It can be dangerous if allowed to spread into the wrong hands." Another said: "I am sure there are many places where capitalism is going on at the present time, and if this practice should ever become nation-wide, the country is in for a lot of trouble." Still another said: "Capitalism—is on the order of communism."

It would be hard to find more horrible examples of sheer ignorance combined with semi-literacy. And they came, don't forget, from college students who want to become teachers and guide the minds of this country's most important asset—its children. Something is indeed wrong with American education—and it's something that can't be cured by multi-million dollar school plants, 50,000-seat football stadiums, and curriculums that stress social adjustment, home economics, and other furbelows.

WHY NOT A FREE RIDE

The proposed grants of college scholarships by the Federal government could weaken, slow down and finally dry up the individual initiative and effort traditional in the higher education field.

Planning on sending their children to college, families all over the country today are buying insurance policies and setting money aside for them. Many young people themselves are planning to do, or are doing, part time work before, during and after college to help pay for it.

But with the government stepping in with grants, parents might well be inclined to seek Federal scholarships for their children instead of making personal sacrifices—and the young people themselves might well prefer to take a free ride to and through college—at government expense—to working.

The main support for education must come in the future, as it has in the past, from state, local and private sources, and

Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District News

The time for planting Native Range grasses is here, according to Lloyd Ladd, local soil conservation Service representative. Better and less costly seed are available and the Soil Conservation District have special drills for planting the fluffy type seeds that most of the native grasses produce.

Floyd Marten, local District co-operator, started his plans for grass seeding last year by drilling a cover crop of Sudan that was not grazed or mowed, but left to give a dead, non competitive cover crop to his new grass seeding that will be made this month. Floyd will seed a mixture of grasses that is best adapted to hard land or tight soils. The recommended mixture will be 50 percent Buffalo Grass, 25% Side-oats Grama and 25% Blue Grama. Weeds will be controlled by mowing as needed. Grazing should not be allowed on the new native grass planting until the beginning of the third growing season.

Federal cost sharing can be secured on this type planting and other grass plantings also.

Farmers cooperating with the Wilbarger-Wichita Soil Conservation District have started an active year of conservation, according to Elvy Sargent, Soil Conservationist assisting the District.

Albert Brockriede, of Electra has constructed one mile of terraces which completed the terrace system on the Taylor farm. Brockriede has had Soil Conservation Service assist in planning and staking a waterway on land recently purchased. Brockriede plans to shape the waterway, seed to annual cover, and overseed mixture of K. R. Bluestem and buffalograss.

Bing Miller, district co-operator of the Iowa Park work unit, has completed leveling of about 15 acres of cropland. Miller recently purchased the farm from V. G. Barnhart. Barnhart had begun a soil conservation district plan which included reorganization of the irrigation system with properly located ditches, checks and turnouts. Barnhart had leveled about 12 acres of cropland. When Miller purchased the farm and planned to level the field before establishing coastal bermuda grass, he began where Barnhart was on his plan with no loss of time, money or work.

District supervisors point out that a basic conservation plan enables all conservation and farming efforts to mesh well together. New district conservation plans were approved by the supervisors at their February meeting for Frank Lentz, Wichita Falls, Walter Scott, Iowa Park, and George Striet, Electra.

Grade School News

We have waited all year just for the time to cast a large snow ball in the general direction of some of our playmates, and then the time comes around to cast one in the right direction and we are told that we cannot go outside. Well that just goes to show that we are too hot in the summer time and too cold in the winter and we want snow in the summer time and warm days in the winter time.

We will try and get together and see how we will be able to work out some of the minor details on how to change the weather to meet our needs. Anyway we are happy to see some snow around at Valentine Time.

SECTION 6-1

We are very happy to have our sixth grade friends with us again. We're sure they were sorry to come back to grade school, Jan. 16th. We have been trying to make them feel welcome.

The children of 6-1 are sorry that their former teacher, Mr. Mullins has been drafted. But they are happy to welcome their new teacher, Mrs. McCullough, who started teaching here, 1900. A valentine was sent to Mr. Mullins Tuesday. All of the children signed it. We hope he will like it.

In geography we are studying the various countries of Europe. We are very thankful to Mrs. J. A. Davey for showing us slides that she took while visiting Europe.

She also presented the idea of sponsoring a concession stand in conjunction with the other study clubs in town to be held at the rodeo grounds in June. This the club voted to do. Plans were made for representatives of the club to attend the convention in Ft. Worth in March. Mrs. C. M. Archer was chosen as delegate and Mrs. Ralph White alternate. In the poetry contest to be sponsored by the schools, it was voted that the club pay the cash prizes, $5.00, $3.00 and $2.00, respectively to the first three winners. Meets Each Tuesday Noon

Unemployment in the Nation will reach a total of 5,000,000 workers next month, according to a prediction by Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks.

Farm income last year was less than it was in 1956.

A public works program will be thrown into high gear by the Administration, says Senate Republican leader Knowland, if business conditions continue to worsen.

But a letter from the Office of the Chief of Army Engineers tells me that the Director of the Budget has ordered that expenditures for flood control, water conservation and navigation projects be held down to "the practicable minimum" this year.

These are straws in the economic wind that are being watched carefully by Congress. As I have said before, we are not in a depression. But conditions are not as good as they might be. We should not neglect to take advantage of every sound opportunity to improve them.

Water projects are greatly needed, as we know in Texas. In my considered opinion, they have economic justification at any time. And at a time when unemployment is increasing at a rapid rate, serious questions arise as to the wisdom of a policy refusing to provide adequate funds to keep the projects moving forward. This is the wrong time for a slowdown.

These projects provide jobs at the same time that they lead to conservation of our resources and to production of additional wealth.

Housing legislation offers a positive means of encouraging an upturn in business activity. It is the responsibility of Congress to take the initiative and propose appropriate measures in this field.

An adequate supply of mortgage funds at reasonable interest rates needs to be provided.

The VA home loan guaranty program and the VA direct home loan program, which expire this year, should be extended.

The urban renewal program should be strengthened and might well be expanded.

Other affirmative actions to overcome the lag in our economy must be given careful consideration. It should be possible to speed up the roadbuilding program. Small business must have realistic and adequate assistance in obtaining needed credit. Farm policies should be designed to help farmers, not eliminate them. The Government's monetary policy must be flexible enough to meet rapidly changing conditions.

We do not need to be alarmists about business conditions. But we do need to be realistic and we do need to be watchful. Drifting could be dangerous. It is a danger that can be avoided and must be avoided.

Now is a good time to organize shrubs into screen or foundation plantings around the home according to Thelma Wirges, county HD agent. Any shrubs that dot the lawn and complicate mowing may be reset at this time.

Consider potential size of the tree or shrub, when choosing a location for setting or resetting. Large growing plants are not suited for planting around the walls or foundation of the average home. They do make excellent screen plants to give privacy to the work or recreation area of the landscape. Some large plants requiring very little water are the althea, ligustrum, Arizona cypress, cherry laurel, crape myrtle, evergreen sumac and others. Nearly all of the hollies should be used in screen-planting rather than placed around the house.

Shrubs for foundation plantings should be in proportion to the size of the house. For the low, ranch type house, which is very popular now, true shrubs that is shrubs that will not grow over 8 to 10 feet, are best suited. There are many true shrubs that are drought and insect resistant. Among these are rosemary, lavender, the dwarf junipers, spirea dwarf pyracantha, nandina, abelia, native agarita and others.

Proper location of shrubs will not only save work in pruning and care, it will add to the attractiveness and comfort of the home grounds.

Mesdames J. L. Graham, Jud Irby, Gale Lowrance, Marcie West, Walter Mersiovsky and Rex Adams served on the Wichita County home improvement committee. This committee is well qualified and glad to give information on this or other phases of yard improvement, including accomplishments in her own Mrs. Graham has made outstanding this past year.

News From The County Agent

The adequate subsoil moisture that is now available as a result of the fall and winter rains indicates an exceptional yield potential for the coming year, according to B. T. Haws, county agent.

With this reserve of moisture and increased yield potential would come an increased need for an adequate fertility level, he points out, in drought periods, lack of moisture naturally becomes a limiting factor in crop production. But in periods of sufficient moisture, plant nutrients often become the limiting factor.

So, with chances for sufficient moisture looking good, and since no farmer wants a limiting factor in his crop yields, Haws advises farmers to apply sufficient fertilizer to supply enough plant nutrients for good growth.

To determine the needs for the coming year, Haws strongly urges the use of a soil test. The soil test not only will determine the amount of nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium and limestone which will be needed, but it will also determine the proper balance in which nutrients should be applied. The recommendations based on a soil test are designed to give the yield increase which would result in the most profitable return from money invested in fertilizer.

For more information on how to have a soil test made, Haws suggests contacting your local county agent.

Efficient irrigation systems just don't happen, says B. T. Haws, county agent. They are the results of study, planning and engineering.

Haws advises that now is an excellent time to plan for the dry summer months ahead. Do not wait, he says, until the situation is acute before seeking assistance on irrigation problems. An adequate irrigation plan should include an evaluation of the farm's soil and water resources; an evaluation of the present cropping system and the possibilities for growing new crops under irrigation; a good study of the cost involved, including capital investment and the annual cost, depreciation, fuel, labor and other expense items.

Too, under irrigation he points out that more machinery is usually required; more fertilizer is needed for maximum production; insect problems are often multiplied, harvesting costs are upped and the increased production could bring addition marketing problems.

After a decision has been made, to make the change to irrigation, and Haws emphasizes that the switch from dryland to irrigation farming is probably the most important change a farmer will make during his farming career, a well designed ed system should be planned before any money is spent for equipment. The plan on paper should show how the plan will operate. It will require a lot of engineering and this should come from a reliable source. County agents and SCS personnel can advise and assist with the planning.

In the high rainfall areas, Haws says a drainage system must be a part of the irrigation plan for the farm. It is just as important to get surplus water off of crop lands as it is to supplement rainfall with irrigation.

News From The Congress

By Congressman Frank Ikard

The president recently announced a program for the modernization including replacement or rehabilitation or expansion of many post office and Federal buildings. There can be little question but what there is a great need in many areas for new postal facilities. Not since 1938 have substantial public work funds been appropriated for new Federal buildings and post office buildings. During this period of twenty years our population has increased by forty million, and the volume of mail handled in our post offices has increased by 135%. During this period also many communities have completely outgrown their present buildings, and it is not uncommon in some cities for people not even to be able to secure a mail box. As I see it, there are, however, two serious defects in this program. One is that any new buildings would be built in the areas where unemployment was most acute. Even though it would relieve the unemployment situation, it is probable that many of the cities and town that need new postal facilities most would not be able to get them. Also, the program would be financed under a means similar to the present lease purchase program which has not been successful, and over a period of time would materially increase the cost of the buildings. The Administration's proposal is now being considered by Committees both in the House and the Senate, but it is too early to tell what action Congress will take.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Freeman are the proud parents of a new baby boy, James Lee, born Sunday, Feb. 16th.

Only 30 Percent Vehicles Insp'ct'd

Captain Alan Johnson, Service Commander of Motor Vehicle Inspection of Region No. 5 of the Texas Department of Public Safety, announced today that only 30 percent of the registered vehicles in this Region have been inspected to date for the year, 1958.

Capt. Johnson pointed out that motorists are subject to a fine of one dollar ($1.00) to two hundred dollars ($200.00), if they are apprehended operating a vehicle without a valid Safety Inspection sticker.

H. H. Eades, Motor Vehicle Inspection Patrolman for Wichita County, advised that out of 45208 vehicles registered in the county, only 1399 have been inspected to date. This represents only 31% of the total vehicles in this county required by State law to be inspected.

Eades stated 45 State approved Inspection Stations are located in Wichita County and that motorists should have their vehicles inspected as soon as possible in order to avoid a last minute rush to meet the April 15th deadline.

Social Security News

Some of the 50 to 65 year old disabled people in this area are losing money by delaying their claims for their social security disability payments according to Erton F. Tate, manager of the Wichita Falls Social Security office. Mr. Tate pointed out that the law requires a 6-month waiting period before benefits can begin, but that eligible people who have already been disabled that long can get payments with the month in which they apply. Benefits are not payable for any month before the actual month of application. If they delay beyond that time, they may lose one or more monthly checks.

In explaining who can qualify for payments, Tate said that the disabled person must be between 60 and 65 years of age, must have had a prescribed period of coverage under social security, and must be unable because of disability to do any substantial, gainful work.

Anyone who had social security credits for 5 out of 10 years before he became disabled, including 1 1/2 years out of the last three of those years, met the work requirement, he paid out. Those who have not met this requirement may have been severely disabled as much as 6 months should in touch with us promptly.

All necessary forms and assistance for claiming the benefits can also be had by seeing a representative who is in Burkburnett at the City Hall, 6th. Anyone who is unable to get in touch with office or representative personally may call a friend or relative apply on behalf.

Longhorn Cavern Deemed Million Years in Making

Texas Longhorn Cavern, spectacular scenic masterpiece of Nature, was at least a million years in the making, geologists estimate.

The huge cavern is awesome evidence of the changes wrought through the ages by variations in climate, earth movements, the rise and fall of the seas and the slow solution of limestone by water.

Longhorn Cavern, located near Burnet in the Highland Lakes region northwest of Austin, is one of the state's favorite attractions for tourists and sightseers. Guided tours are conducted daily through the explored portions of the cave, which is one of the world's largest.

Richard W. Rush, assistant professor of geology at the University of Texas, has traced the sequence of events which led to the development of the cavern from the time when Texas lay beneath a huge sea, approximately a half-billion years ago.

The stone in which the cavern was eventually carved out was formed from limy muds deposited at the bottom of this sea. Over countless centuries this mud deposit gradually rose out of the sea, only to sink beneath it again, a process which was repeated a number of times.

Finally slow uplift raised Texas above the sea for the last time and the limestone which had hardened from the mud deposits lay exposed to the elements for over sixty million years.

At that time Central Texas was a humid swampland in which gigantic dinosaurs and other reptilian monsters roamed.

The actual beginnings of Longhorn Cavern probably occurred during the Ice Age, when the northern part of the United States was covered by glaciers, more than a million years ago.

As the glaciers retreated, about 50,000 years ago, the climate of Texas became drier and the ground water level began to drop, dissolving the limestone as it fell.

Underground streams flowing through the cave helped to carve out the labyrinthian passageways and huge rooms, until the cavern was excavated to its most remote chamber, an eerie 130 feet below the surface of the earth.

Prehistoric caverns probably sought refuge in the subterranean depths of the cavern to avoid being devoured by the fearsome mammals which ranged the countryside in dim ages past.

The main approach to the cavern entrance is through a collapsed sink or deep depression in the limestone, with remnants of the original roof preserved as a natural bridge over the steps leading to the cave mouth.

The scenic beauty of the cavern is heightened by the sparkling displays of calcite crystals, the unusual shapes formed of flint and the clusters of stalactites and stalagmites which in some instances have fused to form impressive columns.

News From The County Agent

The date for the 1958 Tri-County Dairy Show has been set for Tuesday, April 29th. The show will be held at the 4-H barn in Wichita Falls. Dairy farmers should plan now to enter animals in the show. The Wichita Valley DHIA Association ranked first in the state in average pounds of milk which was 900 lbs and second in the state in average pounds of fat which was 33 pounds. There are 24 DHIA associations in Texas.

B. T. Haws says it is especially important under certain conditions, to buy Certified Seed. Some of these conditions, he says, are when seed are in short supply, when changing varieties of all crops, when planting seed of cross pollinated crops and when planting seed that may be mixed mechanically. So to be on the safe side, buy Certified Seed. You can recognize Certified Seed by the blue tag and the State Seal on the bag.

A properly carried out fertilization program for the farm and fish pond or tank is also one of the best practices for controlling submerged mosses in the pond, says B. T. Haws, county agent. The first application of fertilizer should be made immediately. For detailed information, he suggests a visit with the local county agent.

L-218, "Texas Guide for Controlling Insects" (1958) and L-

219, "Ways to Fight the Pink Bollworm in Texas are now available at the offices of local county agents. They were prepared by entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Texas farmers are now using approximately 300,000 tractors and more than 2,500,000 allied farm implements in order to gain the advantages of efficient mechanized farm production. In addition to this investment, B. T. Haws, county agent, says farmers of Texas spent about $95,000,000 for petroleum products and $75,000,000 for farm equipment repairs last year.

Livestock and Deer Ratios for Texas Range Lands, is the title of a recent Texas Agricultural Experiment Station publication. Copies may be obtained from the Agricultural Information office, College Station, Tex.

A zero tolerance of methoxy-chlor in milk has been set by the Food and Drug Administration. This means that the pesticide cannot be used as a dip or spray for controlling horn flies on milking dairy cows.

Soils lose their desirable structure when calcium and phosphorous are removed, either by cropping or leaching or both.

A regular milk taste test can help a dairyman to keep quality milk going to market. B. T. Haws county agent, points out that such a test is an aid in detecting off-flavors or odors in milk. Prompt removal of the cause or causes, he adds can save serious troubles that are almost sure to follow if the off-flavored milk is marketed.

Little change is likely in the total meat output in 1958. There may be a slight reduction in the number of cattle and calves slaughtered but an expected increase in hog slaughtering may offset any drop in cattle processing. Too, heavier carcass weights for cattle will also help maintain the output.

B. T. Haws, county agent, reports that regardless of whether pullets for egg production are reared in confinement or on the range the producer must still watch his management practices very closely, because the replacement cost is second only to feed in the overall cost of producing eggs.

Surveys made last fall on the number of adult grasshoppers, revealed that counties in the Texas Panhandle and upper S. Plains may have outbreaks of grasshoppers this spring. The surveys showed that approximately 6,000,000 acres, most of it rangelands, could be infested heavily enough to require control measures. The final outcome will depend on the weather and the destruction of grasshopper eggs by predators and parasites. Cool, wet weather with heavy rains at hatching time could cut the hopper population below the danger point.

Bids to Be Let On Fish Hatchery At Dundee, Texas

Bids for the rebuilding and enlargement of the Dundee fish hatchery near Wichita Falls will be sought immediately, according to the Director of Hatcheries of the Game and Fish Commission.

At a special meeting of the Commission in Wichita Falls last week, an appropriation of $200,000 was approved for the work.

Operation of the hatchery through the coming season will be maintained, according to the Director. Plans for the new work have been laid out so that there will be minimum of interference with the current operations.

The Dundee hatchery was built originally in 1928 and consisted of 14 ponds. Various improvements and expansions were made through the years, some of it with second hand oil field pipe and valves donated by Wichita Falls people, until today the hatchery has 50 ponds covering 35 acres.

Under the new program the entire hatchery will be almost completely rebuilt. New water lines will be established so that fish production can be materially increased. Some levees and new concrete boxes will be provided, under the program. Cost estimates have been
